Chapter 350: Revi's complaints

Adam sighed as he saw the messages in the chat asking him to deploy his drones before thinking.

{They don't know it, but they're essentially trying to get me to reveal that Spector Unit 6 really is the Black Knight.}

[Shall I deploy drones?]

{Am I now able to command all ten of them myself after my Neurolink upgrade?} Adam thought as he controlled Spector Unit 6 to spin in the holographic air as he opened fire with the shoulder cannons and wrist-mounted mini triple repeaters.

[Affirmative, you can either control them yourself or leave it to me.]

{Then, can we deploy just a certain number of drones and not all of them?}

[Affirmative.]

{Nice, then let's copy that cheating bastard Prime and deploy six. I will control them myself.}

[Affirmative deploying drones.]

"OH MY!, is Spector Unit Six deploying its own drones in response to Black Prime?" Honcho asked in excitement as the feed showed that six of the orange sections on Spector Unit 6's body were detaching from the main shell.

“Oh wow, don’t tell me that Spector Unit Six can also deploy six drones simultaneously?” Dulaebella asked in surprise and excitement before adding, “It’s already surprising that Black Prime can, but now we have two replicas that can do that?”

“How on Ligeia is Spector Unit Six managing to hit every single shot while he is spinning like a top?” Raella asked in shock as Spector Unit Six kept spinning around and shooting as if it were a laser show.

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Yeah, streamer, I love you. 😊]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): So it can deploy drones, and six of them. 😊]

[OfficialMuriel (Aqua Primus): Now things are going to get interesting, let's see if Black Prime can keep its lead now.]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): I guess we get to see what the mech owned by Diva Lorelie’s boyfriend can really do.]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Let the slaughter begin.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Idiot. 🤡]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): Something wrong, Phoenix Empress?]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): No, everything is fine.]

“Why is that idiot so against being the centre of attention?” Revi complained as she relaxed on a large sofa in her private living room in the Imperial Palace.

She has specifically made sure that all her work was completed early today, so that she could watch Adam compete in the charity match. She had even informed her maids that nobody was to disturb her for the rest of the day unless absolutely necessary.

“Just because he doesn’t want to be the centre of attention, he’s purposely holding back the Black Knights' capabilities. How is he to become my future husband if he’s too afraid to reveal his true power?” Revi asked with a pout as she changed position slightly so that the dressing gown she was wearing loosened to show her in an outfit that she believed would one day please and tempt Adam.

If only she knew how wrong she was and that Adam didn’t find the nightwear the women of the known universe currently wore that appealing. This was also why he always had Stacey and Lorelie strip as soon as they became intimate, so they could all sleep together naked.

“As an empress and the leader of an entire race, I’m a prominent figure in the universe and often have to make public appearances. While I don’t expect him to always accompany me since I won’t be his only wife in the future, he still needs to accompany me to the important ones and allow me to hang on his arm.

Doesn’t that idiot realise how many men have offered me marriage proposals or tried to seduce me over the last twelve lifetimes he’s kept me waiting?” Revi complained as she glared at the image of the Spector Unit 6 on the large holographic screen before her.

Her face soon changed into a sultry and longing look as she ran her fingers over the place between her legs that she had been saving for Adam as she said, “Once we are together, I will have you make up for those two thousand years you made me wait every night, my love.”

Lost in her lustful thoughts and desire for Adam, her hand started to slip inside her lower garment and almost reached her pussy that was growing wetter when she stopped herself and pulled her hand back while admonishing herself, “Later, Revi, later. You need to wait, as your love will need your support should he be forced to reveal his identity as the hero of the Phoenix Race, which I so desperately hope he does.”

“He’s still holding himself back and being reserved,” Stacey said with a sigh.

“True, and though I would like him to accept the fact that he is becoming more and more famous each time he streams, I don’t dislike the fact that his being reserved allows us to keep him to ourselves better,” Lorelie replied.

“Still, I know a certain Empress who won’t be happy about this,” Rowena said with her signature smirk.

“A certain empress?” Aphrodite asked.

“Why is he being so reserved?” Tessa asked.

“He doesn’t like to be the centre of attention, even though he is already gaining a reputation in the universe, if only slowly,” Lorelie replied.

“Why not?” Becky asked.

“Something to do with how he’s an orphan and that he was bullied when he was younger, we still don’t know the whole story ourselves,” Stacey replied.

“He hasn’t told his girlfriends about his past?” Eri asked in surprise.

“He’s actually quite the private person, and it takes him time to trust and confide in others, even us, whom he sleeps most nights,” Stacey stated.

“Did something happen in the past to make him like this?” Aphrodite asked thoughtfully.

“I’m surprised you figured that out.”

“It’s not that surprising, I have met many people in my life after all, and I only play the pink-haired slut who enjoys sex too much in VR and on the holographic screen,” Aphrodite replied with a wink.

“Is it something to do with what happened to his previous girlfriend, Jenny?” Tessa asked.

“You know about that?” Lorelie asked in surprise as Rowena smirked at Tessa with a knowing look.

“Becky told me about it as we were travelling to the Felidae Galaxy. I figured it was best to learn as much about Mr Spencer as possible before our meeting,” Tessa replied a little too quickly.

“That’s right, that Emma Hopkins, or whatever her name was, talked about it on his stream, remember,” Becky added.

“So who’s this Jenny, and what happened to her? Also, why didn’t you answer my question about who the empress you mentioned is?” Aphrodite asked with a frown.

Rowena sighed as she figured that it wouldn’t hurt to reveal a small amount of what they knew, so she said, “The empress I mentioned is the Phoenix Empress, Revi.”

“Huh?” Aphrodite replied in surprise.

“Phoenix Empress Revi?” Tessa asked in surprise, while Eri and Mika, who had again been listening, showed surprised looks themselves.

“What?” Becky asked before asking, “I know that the Phoenix Empress is a viewer on Adam’s stream, but are you saying they know each other personally?”

“Kind of, they have spoken before, after Revi called her goddaughter Tephe here,” Rowena replied as she indicated Tephe, who smiled and nodded before Rowena continued.

“Revi and Adam had a brief conversation since Tephe is staying on Adam’s ship and travelling with us. In that conversation, Revi suggested that Adam should stop being so reserved since he is dating the most popular diva in the universe.”

“Well, that's certainly interesting. Has he revealed the number of influential people he is building ties with?” Aphrodite asked curiously.

“I think he understands that they are influential, but I don't think he realises how influential they are, after all, he only left his homeworld a short while ago,” Rowena replied.

“How is it that someone from outside the known universe has already made contact with so many influential people? I mean, dating Lorelie, the top diva, is already incredible, but he's also communicated with galactic rulers and other top divas,” Tessa remarked in disbelief.

“You're right, if this keeps going, he could become a very influential person himself in the future with his network of contacts, that's one of the reasons we are trying to get him to stop being so reserved, the whole broadcasting his last stream on The MMM Show was part of that,” Rowena replied.

“Hmmm, I might have a way I can help with that,” Aphrodite said after thinking for a moment before adding, “But first, tell me what happened to his previous girlfriend, this Jenny.”

[... What the fuck is this?]

[... Fucking copying bastard, first he copies Prime using a Black Knight replica, now he's copying him using drones. WTF]

[... They should disqualify him.]

[... Disqualify him for what?]

[... Copyright infringement.]

[... Copyright infringement? Are you nuts? Prime doesn't own the exclusive rights to the Black Knight; no one does. That's why there have been so many Black Knight replicas in the future.]

[... The poster above is right, you Primesters are all just jealous because his mech is better than Prime's.]
