Chapter 352: Viewership Spike*

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Oh shit, now they're trying to eat the streamer. Kekeke.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Quick streamer, run for it.]

[HackerSu (Trillion): What do you mean by run? He's not Prime.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Yeah, streamer, do the tale of Jonah.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Come again?]

"Heh, that sounds interesting," Adam said with a chuckle before he controlled Spector Unit Six to shoot towards the giant turtle-snake undead alien.

"What is Spector Unit Six doing?" Honcho asked in shock.

"It looks like it's going head-to-head with it," Raella replied with surprise.

"Errr, I'm not sure this is a good idea, I mean, even Black Prime is avoiding a fight with that thing, it's the size of a small ship after all," Dulaebella stated.

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Wait, seriously?]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): errr, I was only kidding. 🤪👉]

"Please tell me he's not doing what I think he's doing," Stacey said as she stared at the holographic screen before her.

“Oh yeah, he’s doing the tail of Jonah,” Tephe said in excitement.

“The what?” Aphrodite asked as she, Tessa, Becky, Eri and Mika showed confused looks.

“Will that even work? I mean, in the movie Steel Geezer had missiles, does Spector Unit Six even have missiles?” Rowena asked.

“We’re about to find out,” Lorelie replied just before everyone on the stream watched Spector Unit 6 fly right into the giant turtle-snake undead alien's open mouth.

“What the fuck is he doing?” Becky said in surprise as they all watched Spector Unit Six fly into the giant turtle-snake undead alien's open mouth.

“Is Adam into mouth play or something?” Aphrodite asked with wide eyes.

“Depends on the type of mouth play,” Stacey said with a smirk.

“Why the fuck did that idiot do that?” Prime asked as he witnessed Spector Unit Six fly inside the giant turtle-snake undead alien's open mouth as he continued to flee from the one that was chasing him.

[... HAHAHAHA What a noob.]

[... Did that noob just commit suicide?]

[... Why the fuck would that scrub kill himself?]

[... Serves him right for copying Prime.]

[... True, though he should have copied Prime and fled when that giant undead thing came after him,]

[... Where's the notification to say that he's been destroyed?]

[... Maybe it's stuck inside its stomach. Kek.]

[... HAHA, that would be so joke if that was the case.]

[... Yeah, he's basically out of the match if that's the case.]

“Did he just fly into its mouth? And on purpose?” Raella asked in shock.

“What sort of strategy is this?” Honcho asked.

“Why would he allow himself to be eaten?” Dulaebella asked.

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): What on Fenix Nest was that? 🤔]

[OfficialMuriel (Aqua Primus): Did he really just fly inside its mouth on purpose?]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): That's what it looks like, though I can't think of what reason he would have to do that.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Do you really think he plans to replicate the tale of Jonah move that Steel Geezer did in the movie?]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): I guess so, but I only said that as a joke, I didn't think he would actually do it.]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): What is this tale of Jonah that you keep mentioning?]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): It's a quote made by Steel Geezer in the movie. It's referencing a religious story of how a whale ate a man called Jonah.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): What's a whale?]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): It's a type of aquatic sea creature here on Earth. For reference, a turtle is also an aquatic sea creature, though a turtle can also go on land, unlike a whale.]

[OfficialMuriel (Aqua Primus): I was curious what a turtle was since you all kept calling them giant turtle-snake undead aliens.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Yeah, we are referencing a turtle because it's a creature that has a large shell on its back.]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): Wait, can we go back to the point of the previous topic a moment? You said your world has a religious reference to a sea creature eating a man? What's up with that?]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): It's religion, what else can we say to explain it. 🤔]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): I hate to interrupt, but why hasn't there been an announcement about the streamer's mech being destroyed?]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): Most likely because it's not been destroyed, though I'm not sure how or even what the streamer is going to do to get out of this situation.]

"Why hasn't there been a notification about Spector Unit Six being eliminated yet?" Raella asked.

“I guess it’s somehow still functional, though I don’t know how that’s possible,” Dulaebella replied just as everyone watching the feed saw the giant turtle-snake undead alien stop flying forward and float in mid-air before it opened its mouth and cried out, attracting the attention of all the other undead aliens nearby.

As all the viewers watched, sections of the giant turtle-snake undead alien's grey body started to glow and turn red before twelve red lasers pierced out of its body in different locations.

“What's happening?” Honcho asked in surprise as the twelve lasers started to slowly rotate and carve through the giant turtle-snake undead alien's flesh, causing it to cry out in pain even more.

“Is Spector Unit Six trying to cut it up from the inside?” Dulaebella asked in shock.

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Oh yeah, here we go, I knew my man wouldn't go down that easily.]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): Lasers?]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Must be the drones, shoulder cannons and wrist-mounted weapons, right?]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): But they were all firing blaster bolts. A weapon that fires blaster bolts can't fire a laser; they use completely different components.]

[HackerSu (Trillion): We're about to find out because that thing is being carved up good.]

The giant turtle-snake undead alien continued to scream out in pain as the rotating lasers continued to rotate at an ever-increasing pace until all sound that came from it suddenly stopped just before it started to fall from the sky and fell towards the ground.

[[Spector Unit 6 Points: 78(+100)]]

[[Points Laderboard]]

[[Spector Unit 6: 178]]

[[Black Prime: 84]]

[[Speed Stone: 79]]

[[Excess Surplus: 72]]

“IT’S DEAD! THE GIANT UNDEAD ALEIN THAT ATE SPECTOR UNIT SIX IS DEAD,” Honcho shouted in excitement before continuing. “Look at those one hundred points that Spector Unit Six just got and has pushed it up to first place on the leader board.”

“It’s almost one hundred points ahead of Black Prime now,” Raella remarked just before the twelve laser beams suddenly vanished and the huge body split into thirteen sections, revealing Spector Unit Six with the six drones rotating around it just before they crashed onto the road below.

“And there it is, Spector Unit Six, and it appears to be completely unharmed,” Honcho said as the feed zoomed in to give a close-up of Spector Unit Six.

“What the fuck is that idiot doing? Why haven't they taken care of that fucking brat yet?” Director Drot complained as he sat on a sofa watching the news feeds relating to the Felidae Galaxy while a female Scaulxun knelt between his legs, sucking his cock.

“Are you sure it’s wise to do this, Director? You saw how the UMB Cup opening ceremony feed was hijacked when the Noir family attempted to steal that ship and what happened to them,” A male Nagareen who sat opposite asked.

The Nagareen didn’t seem the least bit purperud by the fact that Drot was having his cock sucked right in front of him as they talked, almost as if it was a regular occurrence.

“That bastard Noir family went back on our deal after they got a better offer from someone else, so now I have to take things into my own hands; otherwise, that bitch Diava will replace me with someone else,” Drot replied as he grabbed the female Scaulxuns' head before forcing it down so that she took more of his cock in her mouth causing her to chock slightly.

“If you're going to do the job, at least do it good enough that I enjoy it bitch,” Drot cursed at the women.

The male Nagareen ignored Drot's actions before saying, “But you saw how the ships' automated defences eliminated the Noir family members sent to steal it, and our intel says the leader of that group was Number Four.”

“Don't worry about that,” Drot replied before he grunted in pleasure as he came in the female Scaulxuns' mouth, after which he looked at her and ordered, “Remember to make sure you store it all in the container, my cum is worth more than you on the black market and if you fuck up I don't have a problem replacing you with another slave and dumping you out the airlock, understood?”

“Mmmm,” The female Scaulxun nodded as she made a noise of confirmation before she allowed all the cum she had just taken in her mouth to pour out into a waiting container next to her.

“Good girl,” Drot said before looking at the male Nagareen opposite and asking, “How long before we arrive in the Felidae Galaxy?”

“We should reach the jump gate in less than an hour, Director.”
