Chapter 368: Babysitting duty is not part of my extensive programming and capabilities

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): That's soooooo cute. 😊]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Well, that's new.]

[HackerSu (Trillion): It's certainly different.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): I take it Levithens don't normally act like that?]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): No, while they are benevolent creatures, they generally don't interact with humanoids much since in the past they were widely hunted and in some cases still are, so they tend to stick with their own kind in their groups.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): For that energy that allows them to travel in sub-space?]

[LadyErkath (Deverinian Prime): Among other things, yes. The Universal Senate passed a law making it illegal to hunt them, but there are always those who ignore the rules.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Sounds familiar. 😊]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): It's rare to see them interact with humanoids in this way. Normally, the closest interaction we will get with them is if a group of them pass a ship somewhere.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): It must be thankful to the streamers for saving it.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): More likely it's thankful to the streamers' mech.]

[MertheadAnderson (Palaxia): Makes sense, it is only a young one after all, and it probably doesn't know there is anyone inside.]

[LadyErkath (Deverinian Prime): That could explain why it's so friendly.]

[OfficialMuriel (Aqua Primus): It's funny to watch how the giant Space Whale is copying the actions of the mech that is so much smaller than it. 🤖]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): It's soooooo cute. 😊]

[OfficialMuriel (Aqua Primus): It really is kind of cute.]

[Justiceistruth (Earth): It's not going to follow him down to the planet, is it?]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): Errr.]

"How am I even supposed to communicate with this thing? It obviously doesn't have a comm system, and sound doesn't travel in space?" Adam asked thoughtfully while the mech and the giant Space Whale flew on their backs towards the nearby planet.

"Errr, what exactly is going on?" Mika asked in a confused tone.

"Is Adam playing with the Levithen? No fair, he's never flown like that with me," Tephe pouted.

"It must think that Spector Unit Six is its friend as it helped save it from the Scorpo," Rowena said thoughtfully before adding, "Though I have never witnessed a Levithen behave like this."

"Nor me, it was already surprising that one suddenly appeared while being chased by a Scorpo, now with the Scorpo dead, the young Levithen is chasing the mech that saved it, you can't make this stuff up," Aphrodite replied.

"It's not going to follow him back here, is it?" Eri asked with concern.

"I think it might, it seems to be enjoying itself," Lorelie replied.

"Can you imagine the uproar it will cause if a Levithen starts flying over the city?" Becky asked with a smirk.

"Since it's a Levithen and seeing one is said to be a good omen, I think it could go down rather well," Tessa replied.

"The citizens of Felinia Seven are already addressing the Black Knight and Adam, or more specifically, 'Diva Lorelie's boyfriend', as a hero on Xer-verse. How do you think they will react if he turns up with a Levithen in tow?" Stacey asked with a smirk.

"I honestly never expected the charity match to be this entertaining," Aphrodite said in amusement as she turned to Rowena and said, "No wonder you're travelling with them."

"At first, I only came aboard to mend my relationship with my granddaughter and to once again become close with her; however, I can't deny that it's very entertaining travelling with them all," Rowena replied.

"Right! Travelling with Adam is the best, I'm so happy he let me come along," Tephe said happily before looking back at the holographic screen showing Adam's stream of the Levithen happily following him.

"I'm going," Tephe suddenly said as she stood up, attracting the attention of everyone in the VIP box.

"Going where?" Becky asked curiously.

"To play with Adam and the Levithen," Tephe replied as she ran to the railing at the edge of the VIP box before jumping onto it, after which she kicked off again and leapt into the air above the crowd that was seated below the VIP box.

Some of the VIP guests gasped in shock at the sight before large white wings appeared from Tephe's back, which she flapped to propel herself higher, just before she started to transform.

Those seated below the VIP box looked up when they noticed that it had suddenly gotten dark where they sat, only to see that a giant white dragon had somehow appeared directly above them.

People yelled and screamed in shock for a moment before their voices were drowned out as everyone in the stadium heard a mighty roar.

“RRRROOOOOOOOAAAAARRRRRRR.”

Tephe's roar shook the entire stadium and attracted everyone's attention before she flapped her mighty wings and shot upwards into the sky.

“Wha!” That was all Becky managed to say as she and everyone in the VIP box watched Tephe fly away in shock.

“What on Felinia is going on? Why did White Dragon Tephe just resume her true form and fly off?” Maiya asked in shock as she saw Tephe transform in the stadium before roaring and flying into the sky.

“I have no idea, Matriach, but it looks like she's heading for space,” Sata replied as she watched Tephe flying straight upwards.

“Could something have attracted her attention?” Director Opealbeard asked.

“Like what? We just watched a mech somehow defeat a Scorpo, and that didn't cause her to leave, so what could?” Maiya asked.

“I will contact Diva Lorelie in an attempt to find out,” Sata stated before she used her uniband.

“Any suggestions?” Adam asked as the Levithen happily followed him as he flew towards Felinia Seven.

[[Negative. Babysitting duty is not part of my extensive programming and capabilities.]]

“...” Adam stopped flying as he was rendered speechless by Spector’s blunt reply, causing the Levithen to stop following him as it instead started circling him happily.

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Damn, did the streamers' AI just give him advanced warning that she won't be babysitting his future kids? Kekeke.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): That might actually be the case. 😊]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): So what's he supposed to do about the giant Space Whale following him?]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Is there anything he can do?]

As the chat was discussing the matter, one of them suddenly noticed something and wrote.

[CEOHopkins (Earth): Errr, there's something big heading towards the streamer from the planet.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): What?]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Oh shit, she's right.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Did the planet launch missiles at the streamer or Space Whale?]

[Justiceistruth (Earth): Why does everything with you have to involve some sort of weaponry?]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Because explosions are life.]

[Animefangirl (Earth): Damn right, girl, your reply is so Anime.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): It looks like a flying creature, look, it even has wings.]

[Justiceistruth (Earth): What sort of creature is that big and can fly?]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Errr, the Space Whale next to him?]

[Justiceistruth (Earth): Good point.]

As the flying creature left the planet and entered orbit, the chat managed to get a better look at it.]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): So beautiful, how are its scales so white?]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): I think it's a Dragon.]

[LadyErkath (Deverinian Prime): White Dragon? Wait, as in Tephe?]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Tephe? The little girl who is travelling with the streamer?]

[LadyErkath (Deverinian Prime): That's the one.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Wait, she's actually that big?]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Dude, are you looking to die?]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): What?]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): As a rule, you never talk about a woman's size except to compliment them. Do you really think it's a good idea to call a female Dragon 'big'?

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Oh shit.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): I'm gonna tell her you said that.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Nononono, please don't, I don't wanna be eaten.]

[Puntanghunter69Ver2 (International Space Station): I bet the streamer wouldn't mind her eating his cock when she's in her human form. 😊]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Dude, Way TMI. Are you looking to get banned AGAIN?]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Ugh, why hasn't this guy been banned again yet?]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Let's tell Tephe he said that, maybe she will burn him alive with her breath attack.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Oohhhh good idea, @Thewhitesoverign.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Can she even use the chat when she's in her true form?]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Hmmm 🤔. That's a good point, let's tell her later.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): 👉]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): I will be sure to inform my goddaughter of his comment later.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Good job, Phoenix Empress.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): ...]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): You reap what you sow.]

“Tephe?” Adam asked in surprise as he noticed the giant white Dragon approaching.

As the Levithen noticed Tephe quickly approaching, it stopped happily flying around Spector Unit 6 and tried to hide behind it while peering around the side to sneak glances at Tephe.

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Awwwww, I’m gonna die from cuteness overload.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Seriously, how can something so big be so cute?]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Does it really think Tephe can’t see it? I mean, it’s several times the size of the streamers mech, that’s like trying to hide a football stadium behind a garden shed.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): That works, if you press your face up against the shed. Kekeke.]
