Chapter 369: Tephe and the Levithen

Tephe flew up to Adam and stopped right in front of him while giving him a draconic smile and a wave. After doing so, she tilted her head to try and get a better look at the Levithen, who tried even harder to hide itself behind Specotr Unit 6.

Not being able to communicate with her, Adam had Spector Unit 6 make a shrugging gesture while waving his hands.

Tephe saw this and tilted her head in a confused way as if trying to understand why Spector Unit 6 moved in that way before she suddenly realised the issue and smiled again.

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Is that what a Dragon looks like when it smiles?]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): I guess, I've never seen a Dragon smile before.]

As she continued to make the draconic smile, Tephe began to shrink before reverting to her humanoid form, still smiling, she accessed her uniband before making a holocal to Adam.

The eyes of the Levithen, who had been attempting to hide behind Spector Unit 6, opened wide in surprise as it saw the strange creature that was as big as it was, suddenly began to shrink and turn into one of the strange humanoids its family had warned it about.

[RealOtaku (Earth): That was soooooooo cool.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): She literally just transformed from a Dragon that was as big as the Space Whale, back into a normal human.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Normal humans don't have horns.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): How does she even do that?]

“Hehe, Hiiiiii Adam,” Tephe said happily with a giggle.

“Why are you here, Tephe?” Adam asked before realising something and asked, “And how can you talk in space?”

“The charity match was getting boring, so I wanted to come play with you and the Levithen, since you seemed to be having fun. Also, it’s a skill I have.”

“As skill?” Adam asked blankly.

“Hiiiiii, Little Levithen,” Tephe said while waving.

“Errr, I don’t think it can hear you,” Adam pointed out.

“Yes, she can,” Tephe replied.

“Huh?” Adam replied before noticing something and asking, “She?”

Puntanghunter69Ver2 (International Space Station): I told you it was a female and wanted to join the harem. [@]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): You can’t be serious.]

“We Dragons, along with all the other creatures that are capable of subspace travel, have our own unique way to communicate with each other; otherwise, we wouldn’t be able to communicate while in sub-space,” Tephe explained.

“What form of communication?” Adam asked curiously.

“Something we are instinctively able to do, but that's boring. I want to play with the two of you,” Tephe replied before looking at the Levithen and asking, “Can I join you in playing with Adam?”

Tephe was quiet for a moment before she spoke again, "Yes, the one who saved you from the Scorpo is called Adam."

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Wait, is she talking with the Space Whale?]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): It's called a Levithen, and yes, Tephe is communicating with the Levithen. Normally, we wouldn't be able to hear it, but she is talking out loud, most likely for the streamer's sake.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): That's kind of crazy that they have their own way to communicate even in space, but it does make sense since they would need to be able to.]

"Me? My name is Tephe and I'm a Dragon." Tephe said as she continued to communicate with the Levithen.

"Yes, a Dragon, have you heard of my race?"

"Your parents, aunts and uncles and elder brothers and sisters told you stories about us?"

"Why do I now look like a human? It's something we Dragons are able to do when we reach a certain age. My grandfather told me that you Levithen's can learn to do it as well."

"Yes, hasn't your family spoken to you about this?"

"That's strange, I guess they thought you were still too young. Anyway, can I play with you both?"

"I can? Great, thanks a lot." Tephe said happily as the Levithen came out from behind Adam and started to fly happily around them both this time.

"Oh, by the way, this isn't Adam; Adam is inside this mech."

“Yes, inside, this big black and orange guy,” Tephe said as she gave Spector Unit 6 a pat before continuing, “It’s called Spector Unit Six, it’s a mech, a machine that a humanoid is sitting inside and controlling.”

After hearing that there was a humanoid inside the being that saved her, the young Levithen quickly moved behind Tephe and looked at Spector Unit 6 with apprehension.

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Tephe just stole the streamer's new girlfriend. Kekeke.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): A woman's heart is so fickle.]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): ...]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Gunlovergrrl, can I ask you to kill that guy?]

[Gunlovergrrl (Earth): Leave it to me.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): ...]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Fucking idiot.]

“There, there. There is nothing to worry about, he just saved you from the nasty Scorpo, didn’t he?” Tephe said as she gently stroked the Levithen.

After a few seconds, the Levithen seemed to calm down a bit, so Tephe asked, “Do you want to meet him?”

“Yes, Adam, the male who saved you from the Scorpo.”

“Yes, I will make sure he doesn’t try to hurt you.”

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): The streamer is a bully, even this Space Whale knows it. Kekeke.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): I wouldn’t mind him bullying me in bed.]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): I’m with you, sis, let’s have him bully us both together.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Mmmm, sounds fun. 🤔]

[MercheadAnderson (Palaxia): 😏]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): You really are a cuckold husband.]

“Why would I hurt her?” Adam asked in a confused tone.

“In the past, before my mother had the Universal Senate make it illegal. Many humanoids would hunt Levithen’s for the special energy, since they are benevolent creatures that hardly ever fight; they are much easier to hunt than we Dragons, the Scorpos and the other races who can travel through subspace,” Tephe explained.

“Are they still hunted?” Adam asked as he looked at the Levithen with pity.

“Yes, “ Tephe said in a sad tone as she stroked the Levithen before continuing, “Even though it’s illegal, there are still those who hunt them. Because of this, the Levithens and other races capable of subspace travel have learnt to steer clear of humanoid ships, space stations and ships. Apparently, all young Levithen are taught by their parents to stay clear of humanoids and be wary of them.

We Dragons are the sole exception since we are capable of humanoid speech and have a representative in the Universal Senate. It isn’t widely spoken about, but my mother doesn’t only represent us Dragons in the Universal Senate, she also speaks for the other races capable of subspace travel when needed.”

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Wow, go Tephe's mum.]

[LadyErkath (Deverinian Prime): Yeah. You think it was bad for me, who only had to represent one race when I was a Senator, think how bad it is for Pevaphio, who has to represent multiple.

This is one of the reasons she very rarely attends the Universal Senate; if she did, she would be overloaded with work.]

"Will you come out and let little Maya see who you really are?" Tephe asked.

"Maya? That's her name?" Adam asked before adding, "Also, I'm in my anti-gravity armour so she won't be able to see much."

Yes, her name is Maya," Tephe replied before adding, "It's fine if you're in your armour, it's mainly to show her that you're a humanoid and not all humanoids are bad. Also, she can meet you properly in the future if she wants to."

"I'm not sure how she's going to meet me properly in the future, considering our size difference, but ok," Adam replied before opening the hatch to Spector Unit 6 and climbing out so that he floated in a space just outside it.

Maya the Levithen looked at Spector Unit 6 with surprise when she saw its chest area open up before a humanoid climbed out, whom she stared at, as if trying to figure out if it really was this humanoid who had saved her.

"That's Adam, unfortunately, you can't see his face right now because, unlike us, he needs to wear that suit in order to survive in space." Tephe said to Maya as she introduced Adam before saying to Adam, "Adam, this is Maya, the Levithen you just saved from that nasty Scorpo who was hunting her."

"Hello, Maya, I hope that Scorpo didn't hurt you," Adam replied while he waved at Maya.

Maybe looked back at Adam as Tephe relayed his message to her, and although she still hid behind Tephe, the stream viewers saw that her tentacles started to sway slightly.

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Yeah, she likes him.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): How is he able to make girls like him so easily?]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): If you saved a girl from a giant scorpion, I bet she would like you too. Kekeke.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Also, it helps if you're not an idiot.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Ouch, burn. 🔥]

[Emojisonly (Earth): 🔥]
