Chapter 370: Coming in Fast

“So, do you want to play together, Maya?” Tephe asked as she turned to Maya.

No one but Tephe could understand Maya’s reply, if she even said anything to begin with; however, as she started to fly around happily, it was obvious to Adam and everyone watching what her answer was.

“Great,” Tephe said with a smile and was about to transform when Adam asked.

“If you two are going to play, do you mind watching her for a while since I need to go pay the Bounty Hunter Guild a visit still?”

“Aww, but I wanted to play with you both,” Tephe pouted.

“We can play later, but I have to keep my word regarding what I said I would do to the guild hall, don’t I?” Adam asked with a smile.

“Fiiinnneeeeeee,” Tephe whined before adding, “I will play with Maya, and we can watch your stream together. But it’s a promise that you will play with us later, ok?”

“Ok, it’s a promise. Thanks, Tephe.” Adam said before he climbed back into Spector Unit 6’s cockpit and closed the hatch.

“You don’t know what a stream is?” Tephe asked as she turned to Maya before she continued, “Well, I’m not surprised you don’t know what a stream is; most of them are rubbish, but Adam’s is great. Let me teach you about it.”

Adam smirked at Tephe, who started to explain what Adam’s stream was to a giant Space Whale called Maya, before he turned Spector Unit 6, turning and flying off towards Felinia Seven.

[HackerSu (Trillion): What are we watching here? A Dragon explaining to a Levithen what a stream is?

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Is the streamer running some kind of giant monster daycare?]

[Animefangirl (Earth): Maybe he secretly has the monster daycare system, that would be so Anime. 😊]

[Justiceistruth (Earth): You mean monster girl daycare. 😊]

[RealOtaku (Earth): No, that's been done, it's, alien monster girl daycare.]

[OfficialMuriel (Aqua Primus): What the fuck are they on about?]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): I have no clue, do any of you understand them?]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Do we ever understand half the things Earthlings talk about?]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): True.]

[Justiceistruth (Earth): Rude.]

[OfficialMuriel (Aqua Primus): Do you think Maya would get invited to watch the stream?]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): She would need an Uniband and Universal Subspace Network account first.]

[OfficialMuriel (Aqua Primus): I know, I'm just curious if she would get invited.]

[LadyErkath (Deverinian Prime): We still don't know the requirements to get invited; however, considering she has met Adam and is now friends with Tephe, I would go with yes.]

[Justiceistruth (Earth): Unibands go on the wrist, right? Do whales have wrists?]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): It's a Levithen, and no, they don't, though I suppose it could go around its belly.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Are you crazy? Have you seen the size of that thing's belly? That's like several tens of thousands of unibands combined.]

"Trust Tephe to make friends with the Levithen so quickly," Lorelie said with a smile.

"I don't remember hearing Tephe was this friendly in the past. I always heard that she was slightly snobbish because of her status as the White Dragon and also being Ambassador Pevaphio's daughter; she never went out of her way to make new friends," Aphrodite said thoughtfully.

"I agree, the reputation she has on Xer-verse vs her real personality is completely different. When we went out shopping together and I showed her around the city, she was so friendly and talkative," Eri remarked.

"Stuff... happened," Stacey replied vaguely before changing the subject and asking, "What's going to happen to the young Levithen now? Will she return to her group?"

"Stuff happened? That's all we're getting?" Aphrodite asked with a frown.

"For now, it's not our place to talk about it," Rowena replied before continuing. "The Levithen should jump back to its group in subspace when it's ready."

"Well, let's hope it's sooner rather than later. I'm not sure how we're supposed to deal with it if it suddenly decides to start following those two around," Stacey said in a concerned tone.

Adam piloted Spector Unit 6 into the atmosphere of Felinia Seven following the directions to the Bounty Hunter Guild building that Spector had put on his HUD.

As he reached the capital city and flew over it, people looked up in surprise and pointed at Spector Unit 6 as they recognised it from the Sportscast feed, and many of them cheered as it passed over them.

Soon, the guild building came into view; however, Adam didn't slow down or ready his weapons. All he did was rotate Spector Unit 6 so that its feet were facing the ground.

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): He's coming in way too fast.]

[MertheadAnderson (Palaxia): Has he lost control?]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): Oh shit, he's gonna crash.]

"Guild Master, why are we suddenly cleaning everything of value out of the guild hall?" A female Catonian asked Kuxau.

"Because that stupid idiot of a Director, Drot, has screwed us over," Kuxau angrily retorted.

"Screwed us over?" The female Catonian asked in a confused tone.

"Yes, there was a reason I issued that order not to hunt down the crew of the E D F Zero Zero One dash Spector, and that's because the captain of the ship threatened to destroy our guild hall as he did on Terrana Five."

"Seriously?"

“Yes, this information came directly from Matriarch Maiya herself, and she personally insisted we don’t touch them until after the opening ceremony, and so I issued that order.”

“I don’t understand. How has Director Drot screwed us over?”

“After I informed that idiot about my decision, he took it into his own hands to hire Krumzaxl, who just attempted the bounty, failed to complete the bounty and even got himself killed.”

“You mean Excess Surpluss?” The female Catonian asked in shock.

“Yes, I mean Excess Surpluss, that fucking idiot Krumzaxl and Drot have not only put all our lives in danger, but they have cost the guild shit loads.”

“What do you mean?” The female Catonian asked.

Kuxau was about to answer when.

BOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM

A loud crashing noise was heard while the whole guild building shook.

“Wha... what was that?” The female Catonian asked in shock.

“Shit.” Kuxau cursed before another Catonian ran into the room and said in alarm.

“Guild master, a mech just crashed through the roof and landed in the lobby. It’s the Black Knight replica, Spector Unit Six, the one that just killed the pilot of Excess Surplus a short while ago in the charity match.”

“Damn it,” Kuxau cursed again before wondering aloud, “what does he plan to do, trample us all to death? I was just expecting a missile attack as he did on Terrana Five.”

“Guild master?” The Catonian who had just entered asked in confusion.

“Never mind, I will go speak to him personally,” Kuxau replied and began heading for the door, but stopped when he heard a loud voice say.

“No need.”

The loud voice was then followed by a loud creaking and ripping noise coming from above them.

As Adam didn't even attempt to slow down, Spector Unit 6 crashed down onto the roof of the guild, bounding right at the front, causing the roof of the lobby to cave in and the entire front of the building to collapse under the weight of the mech.

People nearby screamed and ran in fear after witnessing the black and orange mech crash into the building.

Anyone who was in the lobby or hanging around the front of the building that didn't manage to flee in time was crushed under the collapsing roof, wall and Spector Unit 6's feet.

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Oh shit, he actually crashed.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Now that's what I call a crash landing. Kekeke.]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): Did he do that on purpose?]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): I think so, though I don't know why.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Yeah, I was just expecting him to blow up the building like last time.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Crushed by a mech, what a way to go. Kekeke]

[HackerSu (Trillion): There are worse mechs to be crushed by, Black Prime, for instance.]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): Trueeee.]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): You make it sound like people regularly get crushed by mechs.]

“Scan the building for usable access points and also the guild master, if he wasn’t crushed,” Adam instructed.

[[Affirmative.]]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Why didn’t you think about that before you landed on the building streamer?]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): This way is more fun and entertaining. Kekeke]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): That’s true.]

[[Guild master located, he is in what appears to be his office with two others. There is also an access point there.]]

“Good,” Adam replied as an indicator showing the guild master's location in the guild building showed up on his HUD.

As Adam had Spector Unit 6 turn in the direction that the HUD marker indicated, the audio sensors picked up the guild master's conversation.

Never mind, I will go speak to him personally.”

Adam activated the external speakers before saying, “No need.”

After speaking, he had Spector Unit 6 grip the edge of the roof above the guild master's office and start to tear it off.
