Chapter 372: Bestiality discussion

BBB00000000000MMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMM

As everyone watched the charity match in the stadium and went about their business around the city, a bright red flash was seen an instant before a loud explosion occurred, shaking the city and drowning out all other sounds for a brief instant.

As everyone turned in the direction of the orange flash and loud explosion, they saw a large plume of smoke rising and a streak of orange that flew up towards space.

“WHAT THE FUCK WAS THAT?” Maiya asked in shock as she jumped to her feet and rushed to her private box’s balcony to look in the direction of the plume of smoke, only to be followed by everyone else.

“You don’t think he actually carried out his threat, do you?” Director Opelbeard asked.

“Who, Diva Lorelie’s boyfriend?” Maiya asked before looking at Sata, who had been busy with her uniband for the last few seconds.

Sata sighed in exasperation as she looked up from her uniband and said, “It seems Director Opelbeard is correct. While I only have a preliminary report, it seems a black and orange mech was seen crashing into the Bounty Hunter Guild building. It left shortly after, only to fire at it with its cannons, destroying it.”

“Casualties?” Maiya asked as she returned to her seat and slumped down on it.

“Unconfirmed reports of dead Bounty Hunter Guild personnel, however, because you ordered an evacuation around the guild building after you spoke with Diva Lorelie’s boyfriend, there appear to be no civilian casualties,” Sata replied.

“Good,” Maiya said with a nod before thinking for a few seconds and then ordering several things.

“Conduct an investigation into exactly what happened, try to determine the number of dead Bounty Hunter personnel, contact Diva Lorelie and ask her to pass on our apologies to her boyfriend and finally contact the Bounty Hunter Guild Headquarters and tell them they are to cease any and all guild business within the Felidae Galaxy, effective immediately.”

“Yes, Matriarch,” Sata replied before carrying out the orders.

“Oh my god, I can’t believe he actually did it, I am actually so turned on right now,” Aphrodite said before biting her lip and fidgeting slightly as her pussy started to get wet.

“Calm down, horny girl, you know you can’t have him,” Rowena said while rolling her eyes.

“But I want him to dominate me so bad right now,” Aphrodite whined.

“Not gonna happen, give it up, you pink-haired slut,” Stacey said in an annoyed tone.

“But we can be sisters and all please him together, god just the idea excites me even more,” Aphrodite said with a lustful look.

“Only if you give up all other men and join the harem,” Lorelie replied, causing Stacey to look at her in surprise, so she added, “This isn’t the place to discuss this; let’s talk about this later.”

Stacey was silent for a moment as she studied the serious look Lorelie was giving before saying, “Sure.”

“Really?” Becky asked in clear jealousy.

“Really?” Aphrodite asked in hopeful surprise.

“Later,” Lorelie said again in a serious tone before looking back at the stream and saying, “Adam is about to meet up with Tephe again.”

Spector Unit 6 shot into the air after destroying the guild building and quickly entered orbit before turning and heading in the direction of where he had left Tephe with the Levithen.

As he approached, he noticed that in the distance, Tephe had reverted back to her true form and that two giant creatures now seemed to be playing some form of tag.

Tephe was flying just ahead of the Levithen while keeping just out of reach as Maya tried her best to catch her. Both of them had big, monster smiles on their faces.

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): What exactly are we watching here?]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): It looks like they're playing tag?]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): A Dragon and a Space Whale playing tag in orbit of a planet occupied by who knows how many millions of people. Absolutely nothing can go wrong here.]

[Puntanghunter69Ver2 (International Space Station): Actually, they're far enough away from the planet not to be classified as 'in orbit'.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Alright, perverted astronaut.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): I'm seriously starting to wonder if our joke before about the streamer starting some kind of monster day care is actually legit?]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Why is he meeting back up with Tephe and the Levithen? Doesn't he need to get to the jump gate ASAP?]

[HackerSu (Trillion): I guess he wants to let Tephe know first.]

Soon, Tephe and Maya noticed Adam's return and stopped playing their game of tag. Tephe smiled and waved at him in her Dragon form while Maya just observed him since she was still a bit cautious towards the humanoid.

"Welcome back, we really enjoyed watching you take care of the bounty hunter guild," Tephe said.

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Wait, she can talk while in that form?]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): That's her true form. What did you think she could only speak in her human form?]

"I'm surprised that you can use your uniband in that form," Adam said.

"The call is still connected between us, so it's no problem, I can't physically use my uniband in this form though," Tephe explained before asking, "So are you ready to go?"

"Go? Go where? I need to head to the jump gate to cut off Drot before he leaves the galaxy.

"Exactly, we're coming with you," Tephe said happily as Maya nodded slightly to show her agreement.

"What do you mean you're going?" Adam asked in a bewildered tone.

"It will be fun, plus you need to reach the jump gate quickly, right? What quicker way than in sub space, and since you don't have your ship, you can either return to the planet and collect it, or we can take you," Tephe replied in a proud tone.

"When did you get so scheming?" Adam asked with a smirk.

"I've been paying attention to Rowena."

“Excuse me?” Rowena asked in surprise as she heard Tephe’s comment, which caused the other women to laugh.

“Haha, it seems you have been teaching Tephe some bad habits,” Aphrodite said with a chuckle.

“Bah,” Rowena replied, though you could see a grin had formed on her lips.

“Come on, it’ll be fun, it’ll be fun, it’ll be fun,” Tephe said as she flapped her enormous wings excitedly, as Maya observed the two.

Adam sighed before saying? “When your mother asked me to look after you, I’m not sure she had me taking you into an obviously dangerous situation in mind.”

“That’s ok because I will be taking you, and besides, mum doesn’t think like that anymore, does she?” Tephe replied.

“Good point,” Adam admitted before asking, "How do we do this then?"

“Yay, I knew you would agree,” Tephe said happily as she swung her tail before looking at Maya and saying, “See, Maya, I told you he would agree. Adam’s great, he’s always letting me try new, exciting things.”

Maya nodded her head before turning and looking at Adam again.

“It’s easy, just climb onto my back, I will take us there,” Tephe said as she turned back to Adam.

“You want me to ride you?” Adam asked in surprise.

[Puntanghunter69Ver2 (International Space Station): Yeah, streamer, ride that hot dragon, though I bet she would look better riding you.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Filthy perverted astronaut scum.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): If we ever meet in person, I swear I will burn you to ashes for speaking about my goddaughter that way. 😏🔥]

[Puntanghunter69Ver2 (International Space Station): ...]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): You do see that she's in her true form, right? Even if he wanted to fuck her in this form, how could he?]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): He can't, he's too small.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Here that streamer? Celebrityhunter69 called your manhood small. Kekeke.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): I didn't mean it that way, bastard. 😏]

[Justiceistruth (Earth): Would she even notice if he inserted it?]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Probably not, her pussy is probably bigger than his entire body.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Are you really discussing bestiality? 🤔]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): What's bestiality?]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): It's when a human has sex with an animal.]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): Like an animal in human form, or an animal animal?]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Animal animal. Earth doesn't have any animals that can take human form.]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): Damn, you Earthlings actually have a term for that? WTF!]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): That poses a philosophical question: if the streamer has sex with Tephe in the future in her human form, is it still bestiality?]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): If it is, then he's already partaking in it, one of his girlfriends is part bat, and the other is part fish. Kekeke]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): The bat I get because of the whole vampire thing, but is Diva Lorelie a fish? I'm not sure you can class mermaids as fish.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): She has gills and a tail when in the ocean, she's a fish.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Fish don't have tits or look that hot, dude.]
