Chapter 382: Maya shocks everyone

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): That's impossible.]

[HackerSu (Trillion): You have to be joking.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Is something like that even possible?]

[Emojisonly (Earth): 🤔]

[Puntanghunter69Ver2 (International Space Station): According to Lord Malacoss, it shouldn't be, but we are witnessing it.]

"Maya shrank? How the fuck did Maya shrink?" Adam asked in shock as everyone watched Maya fly into the landing bay just as Spector Unit 6 had done before.

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): The Space Whale shrank; no one said she could shrink.]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): That's because Space Whales can't do that, at least I have never heard that they can.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): It's like she used the same energy that allows her to travel in subspace to somehow shrink herself.]

[OfficialMuriel (Aqua Primus): Kind of like how White Dragon Tephe used it in her breath attack?]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Are you saying she learnt to do that by watching my goddaughter do it with her breath attack?]

[OfficialMuriel (Aqua Primus): I don't know. After all, adding it to a breath attack and using it to somehow make oneself shrink are completely different things.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Also, why did Tephe collapse after using the subspace energy while the Space Whale didn't?]

[LadyErkath (Deverinian Prime): Most likely because Tephe used far more energy than the Levithen did. She was adding the energy to her breath attack far longer than the Levithen appeared to do so.]

[[It appears she somehow used the energy within her that allows her to travel through subspace to shrink herself.]]

"Is something like that even possible?" Adam asked in disbelief.

[[Apparently considering we have just seen it happen.]]

"And now she's coming aboard?"

[[Affirmative. I assume she is following Tephe.]]

Adam sighed before heading out of the medical bay while saying, "I'd better go find her."

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): Is the streamer getting a new crew member?]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Is the streamer about to adopt a Space Whale?]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Has anyone ever adopted a Levithen or had one as a crew member?]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Don't be stupid, you know Levithen's distrust of humanoids. There is no way one would ever become a pet willingly.]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Yup, she's obviously following after Tephe.]

Adam proceeded back to the landing bay, where he found Maya floating in mid-air while looking around as if trying to find Tephe.

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): She's flying! 😊]

[Emojisonly (Earth): 😊]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): Well, yeah, how do you think they get around when they go down to planets otherwise?]

Maya noticed Adam enter the landing bay and looked at him cautiously before slowly moving closer, but still stopping a safe distance away.

"Are you looking for Tephe?" Adam asked.

Maya tilted her head slightly at hearing Adam's words before bobbing her head up and down.

[Animefangirl (Earth): She can understand him? That's so Anime.]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): It seems like it.]

"This way, I will take you to her," Adam said while waving at her to follow him and then walking out of the landing bay and back towards the medical bay.

Maya followed Adam towards the medical bay, and as soon as she entered and spotted Tephe sleeping on one of the medical beds, she made a happy noise before quickly flying over to her and started to nudge Tephe with her head.

"She's sleeping, she used too much energy when she used her breath attack," Adam explained before adding, "Let's let her rest, ok?"

Maya looked up at Adam for a few seconds before nodding, after which she flew over to the bottom of the bed and landed on it, where she closed her eyes and fell asleep.

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Did she just fall asleep? 😊]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): A Levithen letting its guard down and falling asleep in front of a human, how surprising.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): It must trust Tephe's word that Adam won't hurt her.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): She does look super cute, though. 😊]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Yeah, now that she's like 1 millionth the size, Kekeke.]

Adam watched Maya fall asleep with a smile before turning around and leaving the medical bay while saying, "Let's head back to Felinia Seven and also end the stream."

[[Affirmative.]]

[[Ending Stream.]]

What Adam didn't notice as he left the medical bay was that Maya opened her eyes and looked at him for a few seconds before closing her eyes and falling asleep for real this time.

"THE BOUNTY HUNTER GUILD DID WHAT?" Maya asked angrily af hearing Conxy's report.

"It's as I said, Matriarch," Conxy replied before continuing, "The jumpgate has indeed been destroyed because Director Drot and the bounty hunter he hired to attack Diva Lorelie's boyfriend during the charity match ambushed him, White Dragon Tephe and the Levithen.

During the battle that took place, both the jumpgate were destroyed and White Dragon Tephe was incapacitated to the extent that she is now lying unconscious in the medical bay of Diva Lorelie's boyfriend's ship."

"THOSE FUCKING IDIOTS," Maya yelled angrily before she collapsed on the sofa with a hand covering her face, before finally saying, "Thank you for your report, Captain Conxy."

"You're welcome, Matriarch. I will now take my leave," Conxy replied before ending the holocal.

"What do you plan to do, Maiya?" Sata asked as the holographic screen disappeared.

Maiya thought for a few moments before saying, "Contact Senator Pevaphio and request a holocal."

"Are you sure that's a good idea?" Sata asked with slight concern.

"She should learn it from us as soon as possible. Diva Lorelie's party are bound to inform her of what happened and White Dragon Tephe's current status. If we don't do anything, it makes us look suspicious, and the last thing I want is an angry adult Dragon paying us a visit," Maiya replied.

"Very well, Maiya," Sata replied before using her uniband.

"I can't believe the Levithen shrank. Have any of you even heard of them doing that before?" Stacey asked in shock.

"No," all the other women replied in various ways.

"It seems the energy that allows for travel in subspace is far more mysterious and complex than we ever imagined," Rowena said thoughtfully.

"I never imagined that it would allow the Levithen to shrink in size. I wonder what else it's capable of doing," Aphrodite replied.

"I have a feeling we might get to find out since the Levithen seems to want to follow Tephe around," Lorelie said with a smirk.

"I knew this was going to happen," Stacey said with a sigh.

"Our boyfriend does seem to have the habit of picking up new crew members, doesn't he?" Lorelie replied with a smirk.

"Can we class a Levithen as a crew member?" Stacey asked.

"You have a point, right now you're the only official crew member," Lorelie replied thoughtfully.

"Wouldn't she be closer to a pet?" Becky asked with a smirk.

"You can't have a Levithen as a pet, that's like suggesting that Tephe is Adam's pet," Tessa replied with a sigh.

"She does act that way sometimes with how she likes Adam to spoil her," Rowena replied with her signature smirk.

"I wouldn't mind Adam spoiling me," Aphrodite said with a suggestive smile.

"Are you offering to be his pet?" Rowena asked with another smirk.

"If he treats me well and takes care of me," Aphrodite replied with a wink.

“Damn slut,” Rowena replied while shaking her head.

“And proud of it,” Aphrodite replied with her own smirk before adding, “though I wouldn’t mind being Adam’s exclusive slut.”

“There's still the issue of whether you could even stay loyal to him,” Stacey replied with a frown before adding, “Even if Lorelie is agreeable to you joining for some reason, it won’t happen unless you swear off all other men.”

“How can I swear off all other men unless I know that Adam can satisfy me and I won’t ever need another man?” Aphrodite replied.

“That’s your problem, not mine,” Stacey replied.

“Hmmm,” Aphrodite replied thoughtfully before asking, “Out of curiosity, what would happen if I did cheat on Adam?”

Stacey and Lorelie both narrowed their eyes and looked at Aphrodite dangerously after hearing what she said, before Lorelie said in a low, cold voice that no one, not even herself, had ever heard her use before, “We would kick you out of the harem immediately and cut off all contact with you.”

“While Adam would probably kill the man you cheated on him with,” Stacey added in an equally cold voice.

“He’s that possessive of you?” Aphrodite asked with a lustful look while a small amount of liquid ran down her legs from excitement.

“While he has yet to show it, that is the impression we have gotten after speaking with him in the past,” Lorelie replied.

Before they continued, the other VIP’s in the VIP box made a commotion as one of them said, “It’s the winner of the charity match, Prime.”

“Welcome, Prime, congratulations on your victory.”

“Your performance in the charity match was exceptional, Prime. Please pass on my regards to your Aunt.”
