Chapter 387: Aphrodite's punishment*

"Ownership of Royal Entertainment?" Aphrodite asked in surprise.

"Adam's in the final stages of negotiation with Princess Terrana, but yes. Within the next day or two, Royal Entertainment will most likely be Adam's company," Lorelie stated with a smile.

"Why?" Aphrodite asked.

"Lorelie and Rowena put me up to it," Adam replied with a sigh.

"So you both plan to use your connections to raise the company to the top?" Aphrodite asked thoughtfully.

"That's correct, and you can help with that while getting your pussy pounded by your new boyfriend every day," Lorelie replied with a smirk.

"Where did you learn to speak with such vulgarity?" Adam asked.

"Where do you think?" Lorelie replied with a sexy wink before looking at Stacey.

"Ah, makes sense," Adam replied.

"Humph," Stacey snorted, but said nothing else since she knew it was true.

"I must admit the offer is appealing," Aphrodite stated.

"Good then..." Lorelie began, but was interrupted by Adam saying.

"Hold it."

"Is something wrong? Are you against her joining?" Lorelie asked as all three women looked at him.

"I am open to the idea, as long as she proves herself loyal to not just me but us all. Also, she needs to be punished for her actions of sneaking in here when she isn't a member of our group," Adam replied.

"I suppose that's only fair," Lorelie conceded before asking, "What did you have in mind?"

Adam didn't reply directly and instead turned to Aphrodite and asked, "So do you actually need my cum? Or would climaxing do the job? Because you wouldn't get it even if you could masturbate."

"Your cum would be preferable since that will keep my lust down for a longer period; however, climaxing would do the job for the short term at least. Why?" Aphrodite replied before asking hopefully.

"Babe, you can't seriously be thinking..." Stacey began to complain, but Adam cut her off while saying with a smile.

"No, I'm not planning to give her my cum... not until she has been punished and proven that she deserves it anyway.

However, as Rowena's friend, I can't just let her go and lose control in case she ends up injuring herself and others; therefore, I have an idea on how to both test her loyalty and allow her to climax and gain relief."

"What idea?" Aphrodite asked as she and the other two women looked at Adam curiously.

"Strip," Adam ordered.

"Excuse me?" Aphrodite replied in surprise.

"I said strip. Don't tell me you're embarrassed about being seen naked after all the sex videos I hear you have been in."

“Not at all, I was just surprised, that’s all,” Aphrodite replied, before sensuously taking her clothes off in a way she clearly hoped would please and excite Adam.

Adam, however, just calmly stared at her and admired her naked form for a few moments before pointing at a chair and saying, “Sit there.” After which, he turned and walked over to the bag he had brought back from Spector.

“Errr. Sure,” Aphrodite replied with a mixture of surprise and disappointment, since she had never known any man who could resist her when she stripped for them.

“Don’t get the wrong idea, it’s not that I don’t find you attractive, far from it. However, you’re not the only naked woman in the room, and it’s not really appropriate to admire you more than my girlfriends,” Adam stated, making Lorelie and Stacey smile while he reached into the bag.

“I see,” Aphrodite said as she sat down.

“What are those?” Stacey asked curiously after seeing Adam pull four identical items out of his bag.

“They look kind of like the restraints that security forces use, except for the chain in the middle,” Lorelie stated.

“These are handcuffs, and you’re right. Earth’s security forces, or Police as we call them, use these or something similar to restrain criminals,” Adam replied before continuing, “I originally brought them to restrain you two, especially Lorelie, since she likes to be dominated, but they will be used on Aphrodite for now.”

“How did you plan to restrain us with them?” Lorelie asked with excitement.

“Do you really want me to ruin the surprise?” Adam asked before he walked towards Aphrodite, who tried to look him in the eyes but couldn’t stop her sight dropping to his cock, which had increased in size slightly since earlier.

“You plan to restrain me to this chair?” Aphrodite asked with a hint of excitement at the thought of trying something new.

“Correct, have you ever been restrained or restrained anyone in the past?” Adam asked.

“No... well, except when they pin me to the wall, but I don’t think you mean in that way. I’m always keen to try anything new that can spice up my sex life,” Aphrodite replied.

“Restraint is a common practice in the sex life of many couples who wish to spice things up back on Earth. Surely you have sex toys that you use,” Adam stated as he began to handcuff Aphrodite to the chair.

“I’ve tried a few in the past, but they didn’t do much for me. Plus, there isn’t much of a market for them since only single people tend to use them and they tend to prefer sex movies, especially those featuring yours truly,” Aphrodite explained.

“Why don’t you use them during sex with a partner to enhance the experience?” Adam asked in disbelief.

“That’s a thing?” Stacey asked.

“Don’t ask me, I was a virgin before meeting you two,” Lorelie replied.

“The people I fuck are too busy trying to impress me to try anything new,” Aphrodite replied.

“Well, later I plan to introduce you all to a sex toy that’s very popular with the women of Earth. But first, let me explain how your punishment is going to work,” Adam said after he finished handcuffing Aphrodite’s hands and feet to the chair and standing in front of her.

“First and foremost, you won’t be getting my cum until you have proven trustworthy and loyal enough to join our harem, no matter how much you beg.

Of course, if one of my girlfriends wishes to share the cum I give them with you, then that's entirely their decision, though I expect you will have to beg them for it.

Also, I won't be touching you at all during this; you're not my girlfriend, and until you become one, I won't touch you.

Again, my girlfriends can play with you if they wish, since I would actually quite like to watch them do whatever they want to the diva of sex.

This also won't be a one-time thing. You're going to have to prove yourself over time that you're serious about joining us and can remain loyal, so every time the three of us have fun, you will be restrained and forced to watch us enjoy ourselves and only be able to experience anything yourself when my girlfriends decide to give you anything."

"Ohhhh, I like this idea," Stacey said with bright eyes before she started to crawl slowly across the bed towards Adam and then reach out her hand and start to wank his cock, while looking Aphrodite in the eyes provokingly as if saying, 'you can look but can't touch bitch.'

"Not that I'm against this, in fact, I'm excited to experience it, but how does this help me climax and control my lust?" Aphrodite asked.

"To know that you're going to have to wait and see," Adam replied before bending down to Stacey and stealing her lips.

Aphrodite watched with growing excitement and lust as Adam and Stacey made out while Stacey wanked Adam's cock, making it grow bigger each moment.

In the background, still at the head of the bed, Lorelie spread her legs and began to play with her clit while watching her two lovers' actions.

Stacey broke the kiss before saying with a flirtatious smile, "I think it's big enough now." After she did, she lowered her mouth to Adam's cock before taking it into her mouth and giving him a slow blowjob, which slowly increased in speed.

“Mmmmm,” Adam moaned in pleasure before smacking Stacey’s ass, making her moan in return.

“Why are you sitting there alone? Come here and let me play with your clit,” Adam said to Lorelie, who smiled at him flirtatiously before quickly hopping off the bed and coming next to him, only to steal his lips as she kissed him deeply.

Adam’s hand ran down her back and over her plump ass, and he gave a quick squeeze before sliding it over to her wet pussy where he inserted a finger, which caused his eyes to widen in surprise.

Adam broke the kiss and looked at Lorelie with a smirk before saying, “You never usually get this wet this quickly? Is it the fact that we are being watched?”

“Partially, but only because it’s Aphrodite who will join our group in the future, I only want people from our group to see me like this.

No, what has really turned me on is the thought of you handcuffing me to the bed before having your way with me.”

“Oh? So you already guessed my plan. Are you not worried I might go too far?” Adam asked with a flirtatious smile.

“No, I know you will only ever protect me and do what is in my best interests, just as I will for you,” Lorelie replied with her own smile before once again stealing his lips.
