Chapter 416: OracleRomy

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): If Diva Lorelie decides to make this post, I know a certain oracle who is keen to like the post and comment on it.]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palalxia): A certain oracle? You mean Oracle Andromeda? 🤔]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Why would Oracle Andromeda speak out about this subject. She very rarely makes public statements.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Why not? She seems like an important person in the universe.]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Because she's too important. The leader of every race listens when Oracle Andromeda speaks. That's how much weight her voice carries and why she is careful when to use it.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Yeah, though not every leader is wise enough to consider her words and not just ignore them.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Did the Phoenix Empress just insult some of her fellow leaders? Kekeke.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): That's nothing surprising. Phoenix Empress is very open with her opinions.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Rude. I am actually very reserved in my opinions and only voice them on matters that should be obvious.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): Regardless. The interesting fact is that Oracle Andromeda is willing to like and comment on Diva Lorelie's post.]

"Lorelie, are you seeing this?" Aphrodite asked in excitement and surprise as she put her stream chat up on a large holographic screen next to the one showing the six Panteras who were still in the elevator.

“Oracle Andromeda? Seriously?” Rowena asked in surprise.

“For real?” Eri asked in shock.

“Why?” Lorelie asked.

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): I only found out about this during the streamer's last stream when Andromeda watched it with me. But apparently she's a Watersphere fan.]

“Oracle Andromeda’s a fan of Watersphere?” Lorelie asked in surprise.

[MertheadAnderson (Palaxia): DAMN! If that’s true, Watersphere is about to get a huge boost in popularity.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): I never knew this. Did any of you?]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): If even her best friend just found out, how would we know?]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): That’s correct. Though in return for this favour I have one to ask your boyfriend, Diva Lorelie.]

“My boyfriend?” Lorelie replied in surprise before turning to Adam, who nodded and asked.

“What favour? Depending on what it is, I might consider it.”

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): It’s nothing difficult and Andromeda just asked me to tell you that your agreement is not mandatory for her to help Diva Lorelie. She wants to do that anyway because she is a Watersphere fan herself.]

“I’m happy to hear that. So please tell me what this favour is.”

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): For Oracle Andromeda to be allowed to have access to your stream.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Wait. Can people just ask for that?]

[Justiceistruth (Earth): I dunno. I don’t think it’s been done before.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): This is interesting.]

[OfficialAphrodite (Felinia 7): I asked for it and he gave it to me. 😊]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): That sentence could be taken in so many ways. Kekeke.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): You better be talking about access to watch his stream, pornstar bitch.]

[OfficialAphrodite (Felinia 7): Who knows. 🐱]

{Spector?} Adam thought.

[[Permission granted]]

“She has access,” Adam said.

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Seriously? That worked?]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): Is it really that easy if it worked for both Diva Aphrodite and Oracle Andromeda?]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): Streamer. Can I ask you to give the Demon King access?]

[[Denied]]

“No,” Adam replied simply after Spector replied without him even having to ask.

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): ...]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Sucks to be you. Kekeke.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Heck yeah. 🖤. Kekeke.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): I guess getting access is more than just asking.]

[OracleRomy (Elysium): Yay, I got access. 🙌 Thank you, streamer.]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palalxia): Oh fuck. Oracle Andromeda is really here. 😊]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): Greetings, honoured Oracle.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Greetings, honoured Oracle.]

[Every known universe viewer: Greetings, honoured Oracle.]

[Emojisonly (Earth): 😊]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Holy fuck. Look how much respect this girl is getting.]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): Greetings, honoured Oracle. It is a pleasure to meet a woman so respected in the universe.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Hey, what about me? Are you saying I'm not respected?]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): Not in the same way Oracle Andromeda is.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): ... Fair.]

[OracleRomy (Elysium): Hello, everyone. Thank you for the welcome. 🙌]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): We're happy to have you, Oracle Andromeda.]

"I can't believe you actually have Andromeda in your stream," Rowena said in an impressed tone before adding, "I don't think I have ever heard her talking in a streamer's chat before."

[OracleRomy (Elysium): Rowena is correct. While I have watched a few streams here and there, they didn't grab my attention for very long, unlike this stream that Raphi introduced to me.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): You're addressing each other so informally? Have you two met before?]

[OracleRomy (Elysium): Raphi introduced us a short time ago.]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): 🙌]

"Welcome, Oracle Andromeda," Adam greeted.

[OracleRomy (Elysium): Thank you, streamer. Happy to be here.]

[OracleRomy (Elysium): I see what you mean by those nighties, Raphi; they are very nice, though I think I would go with the one Diva Lorelie is wearing.]

“Is my nightie too provocative for you, Andromeda?” Rowena asked with a smirk.

[OracleRomy (Elysium): I am just a single maiden. 😊]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): Uh huh. 🐱]

“What’s that response about Raphilia?” Rowena asked with curiosity.

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): Nothing, nothing. Don’t mind me. 😊]

“Riiiggghhhhtttt,” Rowena replied before adding, “Just let me know what outfits you like, Andromeda and I will have Erkath send you some for free.”

[LadyErkath (Deverinian Prime): Only just became part owner of the company and already giving away free stuff?]

“Are you going to refuse sending Oracle Andromeda free samples?”

[LadyErkath (Deverinian Prime): I never said that. I was just pointing out.]

[OracleRomy (Elysium): Really? Thanks so much, Rowena and you, Lady Erkath.]

[LadyErkath (Deverinian Prime): Of course, Oracle Andromeda. 🖱]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): Hey! Where is my free stuff?]

“You run your own planet, Raphilia. You can get free stuff when you start prophesying the future,” Rowena replied with her signature smirk.

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): Oracle favourtism.]

[OracleRomy (Elysium): 😊]

[HackerSu (Trillion): What sort of boyfriend have you found yourself, Stace?]

[OrangeeyedStace (Felinia 7): What do you mean? You met him. 🤔👉]

[HackerSu (Trillion): I mean that your boyfriend has all these powerful and influential people orbiting him like he’s the sun. He is no ordinary boyfriend. How many streamers can say they have the Phoenix Empress, Lord Malacoss and Lady Erkath in their stream chat, let alone the one and only oracle in the entire universe? Oracle Andromeda.

Not to mention the three divas surrounding him. Your own grandmother, Diva Rowena, the top diva in the universe, who is already his girlfriend, Diva Lorelie, and the diva of sex who claims to want to be his boyfriend, Diva Aphrodite.

So I ask again. What sort of boyfriend have you found yourself, Stace?]

[OrangeeyedStace (Felinia 7): Hehe. Jealous much? 😊]

[OfficialAphrodite (Felinia 7): There is no claim about it. I will be his girlfriend and join his harem. 😊]

[LadyErkath (Deverinian Prime): And there’s tomorrow’s front page headlines. Diva Aphrodite confirms she plans to join Diva Lorelie’s boyfriend’s group relationship.]

“I hate to interrupt, but the Noir family members are leaving the elevator,” Eri suddenly stated, causing everyone and the stream to focus on the six Noir Family members.

As they watched, they saw the six Pantheras exit the elevator and step out into the corridor and look around before suddenly splitting up into two parties of three.

“What are they up to?” Aphrodite asked curiously.

“How did they hack into the security feed in the first place?” Adam asked.

[[There appears to be a seventh member already in the security control room.]]

Spector replied as the stream switched to show several Catonians, mainly Leonian’s sitting at computers and monitoring the different security camera feeds on holographic screens.

The stream focused in on one Panthera who appeared to be doing their job like the others, but every so often would override the live feed with what looked like a prerecorded one because the feeds that should have revealed the six Pantheras instead showed just empty hallways.

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Sneaky.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): This isn’t how the plot normally goes.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): What?]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): The thieves are supposed to hack the security cameras from the outside, not the inside.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Idiot, have you never seen Oceans 11?]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Yeah, but they still monitored and controlled the feed from somewhere else. Not the damn security room itself.]

[OfficialMuriel (Aqua Primus): What does a film about Oceans have to do with hacking security cameras?]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): You've got me. 📺]

"Which floor are they on?" Adam asked.

[[They are on the top floor. One group is heading for the owner's office, while the other is heading for Alpha Entertainment's computer core.]]

"The computer core, huh?" Adam mused.

"That makes sense. If they're here to steal Alpha Entertainment's company secrets for a rival company, then the computer core is the best place to download them," Rowena remarked.

"The question is what they are trying to steal and who hired them," Lorelie remarked as she once again leaned against Adam.
