Chapter 418: Prime toy

“It’s probably just my assistant,” Leiko replied dismissively.

“Is your assistant a Panthera, Boss Leiko?” Adam asked in the voice that mimicked the Panthera security officer.

“No, he’s a Leonian as you should well know,” Leiko replied in annoyance.

“Then it’s not your assistant, boss. As three Panthera are currently searching your office as if looking for something.”

“Send the security feed to my uniband,” Leiko ordered in alarm.

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Uh oh. Is the streamer caught?]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): You bit off more than you can chew, streamer. Kekeke.]

{Spector} Adam thought while smirking at the chat’s comments.

[[Transmitting actual feed.]]

The viewers watching saw Leiko access her uniband as a small holographic screen appeared above it, showing the three Pantheras snooping around her office.

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): What! He pulled it off?]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Booo, I wanted the streamer to get caught out.]

“THE FUCK!” Leiko cursed loudly before asking angrily, “Is it the fucking Noir Family? Did that bitch seriously go through with her threat?”

“Boss?” Adam asked curiously.

“Never mind, it’s not your concern,” Leiko snapped before ordering, “override the elevator and have it go back up to the top floor, also inform Ryu, the head of security and tell him to head there with a team.”

“Yes, boss,” Adam said before ending the call.

“So what now?” Lorelie asked curiously.

Adam smiled at her before saying, “Spector, redirect the elevator back to the top floor, but have it stop at every floor.

[[Affirmative.]]

“Also put me through to the chief of security, Ryu, while still disguising my voice.”

[[Affirmative.]]

“Head of security Ryu speaking,” a gruff male voice said after a few seconds.

“Chief Ryu, I have just confirmed with Boss Leiko that a group of Pantheras, possibly the Noir Family, has broken into her office. She wants you and a team there immediately,” Adam reported.

“What? The fucking Noir Family,” Chief Ryu cursed before saying, “We’re on our way.”

“And now we watch the fun,” Adam said with a smirk after the call ended.

“Fun? Don’t you mean mayhem?” Rowena replied while flashing him her signature smirk.

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Mayhem is right.]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): I think 1000yearsofdeath always being in the chat is starting to rub off on the streamer.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): I wouldn’t mind rubbing something off for the streamer. 😊]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): ...]

[Justiceistruth (Earth): Ewww, TMI. 🤢]

{“Team two, come in, I repeat, team two, come in.”} The Panthera in the security room suddenly said in concern.

{“Go for team two.”}

{“I don’t know why, but the elevator Leiko is in is heading back towards the top floor.”}

{“What! Why?”}

{“Unknown, but for some reason it’s also stopping at every floor.”}

{“Is it broken?”}

{“I’m not an elevator technician, how the fuck am I supposed to know?”}

{“Stop arguing and focus.”} Number Nine’s voice suddenly said, silencing the other two before she continued, {“Team Two, get a move on, Ninety-Three, find out what the fucks going on with the elevator.”}

{“We’re looking, we’re looking.”}

{“Copy that..... oh fuck, fuck, fuck.”}

{“What now?”}

{“The chief of security just ran out of the security office, leading a group of security officers.”}

{“Fuck.”} Number Nine cursed.

{“Are we blown?”} The leader of team two asked.

{“We don’t know that. For the time being, continue the operation. Keep an eye on Leiko and the group of security officers, Nuntty-Three.”}

{“Copy”}

{“Understood”}

“Well, it didn’t take them long to figure out that something was going on,” Aphrodite said with a smile.

“It’s not surprising considering they have a mole in the security office,” Rowena replied.

“How did a mole even get in there?” Lorelie asked.

“Either they are an employer who they paid off, or more likely, since they are addressing them as Ninty-Three, they got hired before the mission,” Eri suddenly said, causing the others to look at her in surprise.

“What?” Eri asked with confusion.

“Just surprised you figured that out so quickly,” Aphrodite replied while giving Eri a judging look.

“It was kind of obvious,” Eri replied with a pout.

“Not to everyone, I meant no offence,” Aphrodite replied.

“So you think that this Number Ninty-Three got themselves hired for the job?” Lorelie asked in a calming tone as if attempting to calm the tension between the two.

Eri’s expression softened as she turned to Lorelie and nodded while saying, “Yes. It’s only a rumour I have heard, but supposedly, members of the Noir Family all train in specific areas of expertise.”

“I have also heard this rumour,” Rowena stated while nodding in agreement.

“So you think this Number Nighty-Three has been trained in areas necessary for being a security guard, and that’s how they got the job?” Lorelie asked.

“Probably explains why they are only number ninety-three,” Adam replied with a smirk.

“That’s probably because they appear to be young and I’m guessing they haven't done many missions so far,” Eri stated.

“You sure know a lot about them,” Adam commented.

“Well, I am part Panthera,” Eri replied with a shrug before continuing, “The Noir Family is famous on Felina Six, so much so that they are even rumoured to influence the planetary leader on his policy decisions.”

“Nothing surprising about that,” Adam scoffed as they all focused back on the security feed to see team two rushing around Leiko’s office looking for something, when one of them suddenly said.

“Found something.”

“What?” The leader of team two asked as he and the other member approached.

“Look,” The first said as they pointed at a small figurine that was standing on a shelf by one wall.

“A Prime toy?” The leader asked while giving the team member a questioning look.

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Seriously? That Prime dick has a toy of himself?]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Unfortunately.]

“Don’t tell me she’s a fan of that idiot?” Lorelie asked with a sigh.

“Well, that would explain her bland tone when she greeted Eri earlier,” Rowena replied.

“What do you mean?” Aphrodite asked.

“I’m sure you heard how Lorelie requested Eri to be her chaperone instead of Prime, who it was originally supposed to be,” Rowena explained.

“You’re saying she’s feeling salty that Lorelie chose Eri over Prime?” Adam asked.

“Salty?” Rowena asked.

“It's an Earth saying, I'm sure you know what salt is since it's plentiful in the sea. You basically say someone is being 'salty' instead of being bitter, angry, annoyed, or upset over something minor,” Adam explained.

“Ah, then yes, she is indeed being salty,” Rowena replied with her signature smirk.

“Not just any Prime toy, it's a limited edition fifth anniversary Prime toy to celebrate five years streaming. Only a limited number were made...” The member of team two who found the toy started to explain, but the leader quickly interrupted them and asked.

“Yes, yes, whatever. Now, why did you pull us over here? And it better not be just so you can brag about this toy and how much you know about it.”

“No, no,” the team member replied while waving his hand before pointing at the toy and saying, “The stance is wrong.”

“What?” The leader asked.

“Any true Primster knows that when Prime greets his Primesters, he uses a special pose,” The team member said before moving the arms of the Prime toy into the right position.

As he finished doing so, the Prime toy suddenly made a loud noise, “HAHAHAHAHA YOU'RE A TRUE PRIMESTER.”

“What the fuck,” The leader said in surprise.

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): HAHAHAHA, WTF was that lol. 🤔]

[Emojisonly (Earth): 🤔]

[RealOtaku (Earth): That was kinda otaku. I wish the models of anime and manga characters we could get here did similar things.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Why? We have the Buzz Lightyear toy. Kek.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): What the fuck is a Buzzlightyear?]

“That’s what this limited edition Prime toy does when you put him into the correct pose,” The team member replied and just as he finished speaking, a small square section of the wall next to Leiko’s desk slid to the side, revealing a square metallic surface with a small access console on the front.

“The safe, good job,” The leader said before moving towards the metallic surface.

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): That has got to be the most ridiculous way to access a safe I have ever seen.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): That was so stupid. Kekeke.]

“How big a Prime fan does she need to be to hide her safe behind what his limited edition toy says?” Rowena asked in a tone that told the others she didn’t know whether to laugh or sigh.

“I’m more concerned about the thought that she might have fucked Prime,” Aphrodite remarked.

“You would be concerned about that,” Rowena replied while rolling her eyes.

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Damn, this girl has no filter when it comes to sex.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Diva Aphrodite, celebrities shouldn’t talk about sex so openly. 🤔]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Diva Aphrodite has never had a filter when it came to sex.]

[OfficialAphrodite (Felinia 7): And why should I? I'm known as the Diva of sex after all. 😊]

[HackerSu (Trillion): See what I mean.]

[OrangeeyedStace (Oceana 7): This girl's going to cause so many misunderstandings for us. 😊👉]
