Chapter 46: Player Reported

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Why is he going closer to the asteroid?]

[Devil_Prince_Asura (Deverinian 9): Is he planning to hide behind it and kill his power like he did against me?]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): That won't work, Prime has surely upgraded his sensors enough to be able to detect his ship even when cutting power to most systems, also the comet from before would have helped mask his signature because of the dust it leaves as it flies through space, while an asteroid is just a big lump of rock.]

As they watched they saw Adam stop the Spector near the asteroid before engaging the gravity controlled tractor emitter and encasing the asteroid in its beam.

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Errr what's he doing?]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): He's not planning to tow that is he?]

The stream watched as Adam piloted the Spector and used the ability of his anti-gravity drive to start spinning in place like a top while dragging the asteroid spin around with him.

Because of the asteroid's size and mass the spin was very slow to start with before it started to speed up and soon the asteroid was spinning around the Spector at a decent speed.

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): He's not going to do what I think he's going to do right?]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): I think he is.]

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): Oh this is going to be awesome, everyone get ready to clip it so we can upload it later.]

Adam continued to spin the asteroid around his ship while keeping an eye on the direction Prime's ship was facing using his sensors.

As he noticed that Prime's ship was almost fully turned to face him he released the asteroid just as it passed between himself and Prime by deactivating the gravity controlled tractor emitter causing the asteroid to fly off through space directly towards Prime's ship.

Prime unfortunately had no chance of evading because his large ship was just too big and weighed too much.

The asteroid collided with Prime's ship causing the forward shields to collapse almost instantly and allowing the asteroid to smash right into the front of the ship causing a massive explosion that then set off further explosions that travelled right down the length of the ship until the entire thing blew up.

[Match Over]

[Winner: Spector]

...

...

...

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Did that just work? Did he just win?]

[SciFifanboy (Earth): That's so SciFi.]

[Devil_Prince_Asura (Deverinian 9): Dude actually won, I can't believe it.]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): He actually used the gravity controlled tractor emitter successfully in PvP.]

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): Oh streamer you're amazing I could kiss you.☺]

[Tessisdabest (Imperial Down): This is going to change the PvP game you know, now that someone has figured out a way to use that.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Please tell me you all clipped it.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): Of course, I'm already uploading it to Xer-verse.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): How the fuck did he come up with such a crazy idea though.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): I bet Prime and his chat are claiming foul play, I wouldn't be surprised if he sends you a fresh challenge anytime lol.]

Just then a message window appeared before Adam, however it wasn't from Prime, it was a message from the Space Rogue developers that had been sent to all players.

Prime and his chat were silent as they stared at the game message.

[Match Over]

[Winner: Spector]

[ARE YOU FUCKING KIDING ME, I CALL HACKS.]

[There is no way someone could have pulled something like that off, it's not even possible.]

[How the hell does someone throw an asteroid at another ship?]

[REPORT primsters issue a report for hacking asap.]

[On it.]

[Already did.]

[Sent]

"Did I just lose? And to a rookie? There's no way, he has to be hacking. How can a rookie like him beat me when my ship and skills are vastly superior?"

[Exactly Prime, it makes no sense.]

[He is a filthy hacker.]

[Prime lead us and make a report yourself.]

Prime nodded in agreement before making a report about how the player named Spector was hacking.

Soon a message appeared before Prime however it wasn't what he or his viewers expected.

[[Sender: Space Rogue Development Team]]

[[Message: Dear Players. We have recently received a large number of complaints concerning the possibility of a certain player hacking the game.

We would like to remind everyone that due to the security in place on the universal subspace network hacking is almost impossible, however we have done a thorough check on the incident to put you all at ease.

We have concluded that the alleged player has not in-fact broken any rules and that they came up with a unique way to win their match at a surprisingly large disadvantage.

We congratulate this player on finding a way to use a piece of equipment that until now the player base thought was useless in PvP and we encourage you all to emulate his success by researching and experimenting with new and unique ideas.

We hope you continue to enjoy Space Rogue and have fun.

The Dev Team.]]

...

...

[What is this shit.]

[Are they actually saying he didn't cheat?]

[How is that even possible? How the hell do you throw an asteroid without hacking?]

[Hey guys the opponents stream viewers just uploaded a clip of how he did it. Link Attached.]

They all including Prime opened the link and watched the video clip of how Spector has spun his ship around like a top while dragging the asteroid along in some kind of beam before releasing it and causing it to fly towards Prime's ship.

[What's that beam?]

[It's the beam created by the gravity controlled tractor emitter right?]

[That useless piece of equipment? Is this what the devs meant by the player finding a unique way to use it?]

"Heh so he didn't cheat a? Let's see if he can pull off the same move twice." Prime suddenly said, attracting his viewers attention before he sent Spector a message.

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): So they logged reports, probably claiming that the streamer cheated by hacking.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Can't say I'm surprised, there primesters after all.]

[Tessisdabest (Imperial Down): Someone needs to set a 'Prime Example' for them on how to gracefully lose.]

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): Pft losers.]

Suddenly another message window appeared before Adam.

[[Sender: Prime]]

[[Message: I congratulate you on your victory rookie and on the unique way you pulled it off. How about a rematch, Let's say best of 3?]]

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): Pft Sore loser.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): True, he must be feeling super embarrassed at losing to someone so new to the game though.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Go on accept, see if you can replicate the move. Kekeke]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Why would he do that idiot?]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Plus there is no guarantee he will get a map with an asteroid field again.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): He should just throw a moon at him instead then. Lol]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): ...]

[Tessisdabest (Imperial Down): I feel your pain.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): Thanks.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): You're such an idiot, you can't use it on a moon.]

Adam chucked at the chats antics before sending a reply.

[[Sent to: Prime]]

[[Message: No thanks, I'm not fool enough to accept another challenge when I already used up my only trick. Maybe when I have better equipment though. GG]]

After this Adam went back to random matchmaking.

"What the hell does GG mean?" Prime asked as he read the reply.

[???

[No idea.]

[What now Prime? He won't accept your challenge?]

"Oh yeah?" Prime said before sending Spector another challenge.

[[This player is currently in a match.]]

"Fuck." Prime cursed as he tried to think of a way before he suddenly had an idea and left Space Rogue before returning to his VR lobby.

[You're not giving up, are you Prime?]

[Prime would never do that.]

[Yeah, have a little faith bro.]

Prime went to his universal subspace network account list before finding Space Rogue and selected to delete his account.

"Hahahaha. If he wont accept a challenge I will just find him through random matchmaking."

[Brilliant idea Prime.]

[Make a new account and level it up quickly so that the random matchmaking puts you against him, I love this idea.]

[Yeah, let's get him.]

[Errr I'm not sure this is a wise idea.]

"HAHAHAHA LET'S GOOO." Prime yelled before entering Space Rogue again.
