Chapter 47: EVA PvP

The universe had many news networks that broadcast over the universal dark web with some naturally being more popular than others.

At this time one such news network was broadcasting live a show called 'Gamers Den' which focussed on the latest gaming news on the universal subspace network.

"Well ladies and gentlemen we have just received an interesting piece of news about everyone's favourite streamer Prime." The presenter said sarcastically with a smirk.

"It turns out that Prime was up to his same old routine of tricking new PvPers in Space Rogue to battle him by claiming that he would give them guidance after the battle and maybe even make them his apprentice if they impressed him.

"Unfortunately things did not go to plan for him this time. A new player and streamer named Spector who had only played ten games up to then was approached by Prime and challenged and like many before the rookie accepted."

"As normally follows, Prime bullied.. cough cough I mean advised Spector by making them turn tail and flee as he opened fire on them, Prime also even started firing off rockets after Spector tried to use an asteroid field as cover."

"As we all know rockets are far more powerful than missiles of the same class however they lack the missiles ability to lock on and follow an enemy. So no surprise that the missiles ended up destroying an asteroid and sending Spector's ship out of control for a short period of time before he recovered."

"Now I'm sure you're all saying that this isn't exactly surprising and you would be correct because the surprising thing comes after Prime fired off his third set of missiles. Instead of trying to evade and escape the blast radius like every other time, Spector decided to charge right at Prime's ship."

"Now this would normally be suicidal because of the size and equipment difference between the two and many in the streams thought Spector was attempting a kamikaze manauver that many have tried and failed in the past. Instead Spector allowed himself to get hit by the blast radius just as Prime fired his lasers at him which caused the lasers to miss and Spector's ship to fly right past Prime's."

"Now comes the surprising part because Spector did something that will change PvP slightly in Space Rogue. While Prime was slowly turning his ship, Spector actually used the gravity controlled tractor emitter, yes that same piece of equipment every player, streamer and expert of the game called useless to capture one of the larger asteroids."

"He then proceeded to spin his ship in place and rotate the asteroid around himself causing it to gather speed before he released it and launched it straight at Prime's ship."

"The asteroid connected and after taking down his shields it went on to destroy Prime's ship allowing the underdog to claim victory over the bully ... cough cough over the advisor."

"This move was validated by the devs to show that it was a legit move after Prime and his viewers complained en masse. This just goes to show that not everything about Space Rogue has been discovered and I'm sure there will be plenty of players wanting to try and recreate what Spector did."

"I think it's safe to claim that this event will go down as our clip of the week and you can view said clip below."

After a couple more games Spector spoke up claiming that Adam couldn't just play Space Rogue the entire time they were traveling in subspace and that he needed to occasionally rest his mind.

After ending the stream Spector put Adam's mind back in status for several hours before allowing him to once again play the game.

As before Adam started with the campaign since Spector advised that it would prove useful in aspects that didn't involve space combat. He completed several missions there before proceeding to PvP and streaming his fights for his viewers to watch.

Adam was still undefeated, something his chat had a mixed reaction about.

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): How have you not lost even once yet streamer? Where's the entertainment value kekeke.]

[Devil_Prince_Asur (Deverinian 9): My boy beat me, how can he possibly lose, he needs to kill them all. 😊]

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): Keep winning streamer, the more wins you get the more kisses you receive. 😊]

[Tessisdabest (Imperial Down): This is why you don't have a boyfriend Becz.]

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): Your one to talk to since you're also single.]

[Tessisdabest (Imperial Down): Because unlike you I choose to be, I don't go around flirting with every guy that catches my eye.]

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): Not everyone, just the hot ones.]

[Tessisdabest (Imperial Down): We don't even know what the streamer looks like.]

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): It doesn't matter, I know he's hot.]

[Tessisdabest (Imperial Down): 😊👉]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): You have my sympathies.]

[Tessisdabest (Imperial Down): Thanks.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): How is it that the streamer is so good when he's from Earth?]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): It is something I have been curious about as well.]

The matchmaking system found Adam another opponent and the scene around him changed again, however instead of becoming the cockpit of Spector it changed to a room full of office furniture as Adam floated in mid air.

[Match starts in: 59.58 seconds]

[Player: Prime]

[Race: Leonian]

[Points: 13]

[Wins: 13 - 0 Losses]

[Streamer]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Oh you can't be serious, how's it smurf Prime?]

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): Ugh seriously this loser.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): He must have reset his account again for the chance to fight against the streamer again.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): I'm kind of surprised he was willing to give up such an advantage, at least now the streamer can have a proper match with him.]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): He probably figures that his experience is enough to beat him.]

[Devil_Prince_Asura (Deverinian 9): Too bad for him that the map chosen is an EVA map then.]

"HAHAHAHAHA found you Spector, now for our rematch.... Hey wait, why did it pick a damn EVA combat map. Whatever you're still gonna lose."

[Tessisdabest (Imperial Down): The streamer has had one or two EVA matches over the last couple of days but he hasn't focused on upgrading any of that equipment so he still only has the basic blaster and beam saber. What's the chances Prime would have upgraded his?]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): Zero, EVA maps are rarely chosen so most people only upgrade there EVA equipment after upgrading their ship a fair bit, also Prime only has 13 points so he will have only been able to purchase one upgrade from the shop.]

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): Ugh, I bet I can guess which it was.]

[Tessisdabest (Imperial Down): Definitely the gravity controlled tractor emitter, Prime is just the sort of petty person who would want to get revenge by beating the streamer the same way he was beaten.]

"We may have basic equipment rookie, but don't think that will help you win, after all I'm way more experienced at this game."

"Aren't you also a rookie now?" Adam asked in return.

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Oh snap.]

"What?"

"Well if we go by our points score you're technically more of a rookie than I am now."

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): He's not wrong, the stream currently sits at 14 points to Prime's 13.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Hahaha rookie Prime.]

"Shut up rookie you know what I mean, I will show you who the real rookie is here.]

[Match Start]

As the match began Adam used his anti-gravity armour to float through different office cubicles as he searched for his opponent.

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Is this just one huge office map?]

[Devil_Prince_Asura (Deverinian 9): Not exactly, they're on an abandoned research station that has offices and labs as part of the map.]

[Leonthemoneygiver (Earth): How are they supposed to find each other? They have been floating around for a few minutes now.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): Large EVA maps like this have a scan function that goes off every five minutes, it then highlights the location of all the players on a map it displays.]

Adam continued to float around carefully with his basic blaster drawn while he listened for any noise that could signify primes location.

However after five minutes with no sign of Prime a beam of energy seemed to pass through the station before a map appeared in front of Adam showing his location as a green dot and another lone red dot.]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): The green dot is yourself, while blue dots are teammates if it's a team match and red dots are enemies.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Looks like he's a few levels down.]

"Now what's the best way to get down there?" Adam asked as he looked around.

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): You can take the stairs or go down the lift shaft, but you will need something to pry the shaft door open.

Adam turned around and headed for a lift shaft he had passed earlier.

As he approached it he found the door to the shaft was closed so he looked around trying to find something he could use to pry the door open. After a few seconds he saw a piece of metal floating down the hallway so he went and grabbed it before using it to open the lift shafts door.
