Chapter 488: Shalendra

“Why? Are you jealous, Shalendra?” Rowena asked with a wink.

“Considering some of us can’t find ourselves a decent man, we would rather not watch your public displays of affection,” Shalendra replied.

“Oh dear,” Rowena said in a sympathetic tone.

“I don’t need your sympathy,” Shalendra replied before looking forward again.

“My apologies, how about I make it up to you?” Rowena stated.

“How?” Shalendra asked curiously as she looked back at her again.

“How about I let you marry my husband if you’re still a virgin and single in forty-three years?” Rowena suggested with a smirk, causing Adam to look at her with wide eyes.

“Is that bitch trying to give away our husband?” Lorelie asked angrily.

“I think she is,” Stacey replied in a similar angry tone before adding, “We’re going to have to have a proper talk with her when they get back.”

“Husband? Did you two get married when I was sleeping without telling me?” Tephe asked in a hurt tone.

“No, we didn’t, but we will be married one day.”

“Oh, good,” Tephe said with a sigh of relief before smiling as she added, “I didn’t want to miss my own wedding.”

“Excuse me?” Lorelie asked as all the girls looked at her, including Maya, who opened her eyes and looked up at Tephe’s face from her place on Tephe’s legs, where she had been resting.

“Well, we’re all going to marry Adam together, right, and have one big wedding,” Tephe explained happily before adding, “That would be so fun.”

Aphrodite, Er, Lorelie and Stacey all looked at each other before Lorelie coughed and said, “Let’s discuss this later; we have more pressing concerns right now.”

“Such as why my grandmother is trying to offer my boyfriend to a Solarian woman I don’t know,” Stacey added.

“I think there’s more to this,” Aphrodite said with a thoughtful expression.

“What do you mean? I thought you would be as pissed as we are,” Stacey replied.

“I think she’s planting a seed for the future,” Aphrodite replied.

“Seed?” Tephe asked in confusion.

“She knows about Lorelie’s plan to build Adam’s harem, and I think she is planting a seed for that with Shalendra,” Aphrodite explained.

“Why would she do that? Doesn’t she know that we’re not interested in letting just anyone join? We only want women who will help both Adam and the harem,” Lorelie replied.

“I guess you two haven’t realised,” Aphrodite replied with a smirk before asking, “What is the name of the Universal Ambassador to the Galamedees Galaxy?”

“Shalendra Ellynn,” Eri suddenly replied with a surprised look, causing the other women to look at her.

“Correct, well done, Eri,” Aphrodite replied in an impressed tone.

“Universal Ambassador Shalendra Ellynn is the Shalendra we are currently watching?” Lorelie asked in surprise.

“That’s correct. I’m not surprised you didn’t realise, since she has acted as the Galamedees Galaxy ambassador since before you were both born,” Aphrodite said before looking at Eri again and asking curiously, “How was it that you knew this?”

“Shouldn’t I have known?” Eri asked back.

“Not at all, it’s just surprising, is all,” Aphrodite replied.

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Did she really just offer to add her to the streamers’ harem?]

[MertheadAnderson (Palaxia): I’m loath to admit it, but yes, yes she did.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): This is fucking starting to piss me off. First, his girlfriends are working to add more women to HIS harem, and now a woman not even part of it is. 😏]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): You’re just jealous that you don’t have such supportive women around you.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): That’s what I was about to say.]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): 🗑️]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): ?]

[Justiceistruth (Earth): Why aren't his girlfriends pissed about what Diva Rowena just said and discussing it?]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): They are together, right? So I'm guessing they are IRL.]

[Justiceistruth (Earth): Aww man, I wanted to watch the chaos.]

"Excuse me?" Shalendra asked in surprise.

"Yes, excuse me?" Adam said with a surprised look.

"What? Don't you want a beautiful Solarian like her?" Rowena asked innocently.

"I'm not a piece of meat," Shalendra replied in an offended tone.

[Puntanghunter69Ver2 (International Space Station): That's where you're wrong; you're one fine piece of meat. 😊]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): I agree. Who doesn't want a sexy elf woman?

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Solarian.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Whatever, the point still counts.]

"I'm sure there are plenty of men who think otherwise, and I'm guessing that's the problem, right?" Rowena replied with a wink.

“How did you figure that out?” Shalendra asked.

“Have you seen that pair of assets you’re carrying on your chest?” Rowena asked before adding with a smirk, “I’m sure my husband has.”

“Would you mind not insinuating that I have stared at her chest?” Adam asked with a sigh.

“Well, can you honestly tell me that you haven’t?” Rowena asked back, causing Adam to look away since he honestly couldn’t.

“See,” Rowena gloated happily.

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Why does it sound like she’s gloating about that? Shouldn’t she be upset that her pretend husband is checking out another woman?]

[OfficialAphrodite (Felinia 7): Rowena is old enough to know that you can’t stop men from checking out an attractive woman; it’s if they stare or do more than just look that it’s a problem.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Is that how it works?]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): The fact you have to ask that shows the reason why you’re still a virgin and will die a virgin.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Well, I suppose he could buy himself a hooker.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): I’m not even sure they’re that desperate for money.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Fair point.]

[Emojisonly (Earth): 🔥]

"I see these damn things every time I look in the mirror," Shalendra complained without stopping.

"You don't like them? I always wished mine were a bit bigger," Rowena replied.

"Are you two seriously discussing your chests right now?" Adam asked in disbelief.

"Is there something wrong with that, honey?" Rowena asked.

"It's not normally something women discuss in front of men, is it?"

"Aww, you're so sweet and innocent when it comes to some things, baby," Rowena said as she reached up with her free hand and stroked Adam's cheek before continuing.

"We women absolutely talk about our breasts in front of men, as long as they're men we trust, and why wouldn't I trust my husband?"

Adam showed a doubtful look before turning to look at Shalendra, who raised an eyebrow at him before saying, "Don't ask me, I've never spoken to another woman about my breasts in front of a man."

"How did we get onto this topic?" Adam asked with a sigh.

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): How did they even get onto this conversation?]

[Puntanghunter69Ver2 (International Space Station): No idea, but I like it.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): You would.]

"Don't be embarrassed, my love, you see my breasts every night in bed along with your other lovers," Rowena said with a smile.

“Other lovers? You have multiple lovers?” Shalendra asked with a frown.

[OfficialLorelie (Felinia 7): Damn it, Rowena, why are you revealing everything?]

[OrangeeyedStace (Felinia 7): ?]

[LadyErkath (Deverinian Prime): It’s totally on purpose, knowing her.]

“Why are you telling her that?” Adam asked.

“You planned to keep it secret from her for forty-three years, only to let her find out when she believes she can finally be with a good man?” Rowena asked with raised eyebrows before adding in disappointment, “I’m disappointed in you.”

“Disappointed in me? You’re the one who wants to set up a date for me with a woman whom I have known for less than ten minutes in forty-three years,” Adam remarked.

“Forty-three years, give or take,” Rowena added.

“Give or take?” Shalendra asked.

“Well, we can’t guarantee where in the universe we will be in forty-three years,” Rowena stated.

[Thewhitesoverign (Felinia 7): Liar. You know exactly where you will be.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Rowena can’t reveal that she already knows she will be on Felinia Seven in forty-three years.]

[Thewhitesoverign (Felinia 7): I know, but she’s still lying.]

“Why am I even discussing this with you?” Shalendra said more to herself than to Rowena.

“Because you know that a man who is capable of protecting your beloved princess from the kidnapping attempt of six Caninians would make a good mate,” Rowena replied knowingly.

“How are you so knowledgeable for someone from a finite race?” Shalendra asked.

“Whoever said I’m from a finite race?”

“Are you also not Terran and from the same race as Adam, which is a long-lived race?” Shalendra asked curiously.

“I am from a long-lived race, but Adam’s not,” Rowena replied.

“How many races outside the known universe are there that look like Terrans?”

“I have no idea; I have not interacted with many myself,” Rowena replied.

“Then why would I bother waiting for him when he’s going to be old and wrinkly in forty-three years?” Shalendra asked before turning to Adam as she added, “No offence.”

“Oh, none taken,” Adam replied sarcastically while rolling his eyes.

[LadyErkath (Deverinian Prime): She raises a good point, Aphrodite. Adam is not from a long-lived race, so what are you going to do after he dies?]

[OfficialAphrodite (Felinia 7): I’m not thinking about it and leaving that for future Aphrodite.]

[LadyErkath (Deverinian Prime): ☹️What?]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): You can't be serious.]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): Well, I suppose that's one way to deal with it. 😊]
