Chapter 514: Kasumi's shock

As Rowena continued to stroke Adam's hair while looking at him, she remembered his words from earlier and how he promised to help Kasumi without even asking for anything in return.

Sure, she had promised to reward him by letting him experience her blowjob feeding technique, but honestly, she planned to do that to him regardless, since they were now lovers. She just hadn't expected him to last that long or for it to have tasted so good.

"Spector, are you there?" Rowena suddenly asked, since she was still wearing the earring.

[[Affirmative.]] Spector responded, slightly surprising Rowena.

"I'm surprised you answered. I wasn't sure you would, to be honest," Rowena said as she continued to stroke Adam's hair.

[[As one of my operators' lovers, you have been granted this right.]]

"Becoming Adam's lover gives us access to you?" Rowena asked in surprise, as he had never heard of such a thing before.

[[Affirmative, though access is severely limited. If you wish for greater access, I suggest you become an official member of the crew like your granddaughter.]]

"I will consider it."

[[Very good. Now what can I do for you, Diva Rowena Nosferatu?]]

"You can just address me as Rowena. I imagine we will be speaking often from now on."

[[Affirmative. The form of address towards you has been changed.]

“Haha,” Rowena chuckled, as getting used to Spector’s way of speaking would take some time.

“I wanted to ask you something about Adam’s pureblood.”

[[Very well. However, because of your limited access, there is much you’re not authorised to know.]]

“That’s fine. There is only one thing I wanted to ask right now. Do you happen to know what would happen with Adam’s blood if I were to turn him? Would it still be pureblood?”

[[It is impossible for me to calculate that since I do not have enough information on pureblood.]]

“Yeah, that’s pretty much what I expected,” Rowena said with a disappointed sigh.

[[I would advise against turning him even if his pureblood remained.]]

“Why?”

[[Turning him would make him at least part brood and thus inferior to the brood progenitor. Are you all not working on building Adam a power base so that he is inferior to no one in the universe?]]

“I get your point. But I think it’s impossible to make him equal to the progenitors, not to mention Lord Omniel and the Demon King.”

[[The universe is infinite in its nature and so you can’t claim anything is impossible.]]

“You’re saying there is a way for someone to become as strong as the first two beings to exist in the universe?” Rowena asked in disbelief.

[[Negative. I am simply pointing out that, as the universe is infinite in its nature, that by definition means there are infinite possibilities within it.]]

Rowena thought about Spector's words for a while as she continued to stroke Adam's hair before she suddenly came up with a devious plan that made her smile maliciously at Adam before she accessed her uniband and made a call.

Sector ???, the Milky Way Galaxy.

On Earth, Emma Hopkins sat in her office of the Blue Lagoon club, going over the financial records of her different businesses, when her intercom suddenly beeped, causing her to ask without looking up, "Yes?"

"Miss Hopkins, Antony Morose is here to see you," the voice of her assistant said.

Emma sighed and rubbed her forehead while grumbling, "Doesn't he have anything better to do? He's supposed to be in charge of all the Morose family business in this region."

"Should I tell him you're busy?" The assistant asked.

"No. We've done that too many times recently and it's already starting to look suspicious. Send him in," Emma replied with a sigh while closing the windows on her computer.

"Yes, Miss Hopkins," the assistant replied before ending the call.

"Why can't it be that mysterious Adam Spencer who is obsessed with me?" Emma asked herself with a sigh before she shook her head and admonished herself, "What are you doing pining for a man you've only met twice and who is half your age. You're not a little girl anymore."

Soon, a knock was heard from her office door and she adopted her professional attitude that she used when conducting business before saying, "Enter."

Sector 15, the Zeacury Galaxy.

On the planet Zatotis, the homeworld of the Scaulxuns, Kasumi sat in her hotel room wearing only a loose set of clothing while staring at the holographic screen before her that was filled with figures and data of different types, which she studied intently with a serious expression on her face.

“Still barely any improvement in my ranking,” Kasumi said with a sigh before she grabbed the glass of wine that was on the table beside her and took a large gulp.

Just as she was about to pull up a different holographic screen, a noise came from her uniband to notify her that she was receiving a holocall.

She sighed and checked to see who was trying to contact her, thinking that it was probably her manager, when she suddenly saw Rowena’s name, making her break out in a smile before she answered it.

“This is a pleasant surpr...” Kasumi began to say as the holocall connected and a holographic screen showing Rowena appeared, only for her voice to suddenly stop mid-sentence as she saw the state Rowena was currently in.

As the holocall connected and Rowena saw Kasumi’s beautiful appearance appear on a large holographic screen before her, she heard her friend say, “This is a pleasant surpr...” only to stop partway through her sentence as her mouth hung open in surprise.

“Hi Kasumi, how are you?” Rowena asked with a smile as she continued to stroke Adam’s hair.

“Rowena! Your hair! Why is it white? And why are you calling me with your tits out?” Kasumi finally managed to ask in shock.

“I’m trying a new look. What do you think? Plus, it’s not like you haven’t seen them before,” Rowena replied with her signature smirk.

“Yeah, that’s Adam’s fault, as is why my breasts are still hanging out.”

“Adam?” Kasumi asked in confusion before thinking of something and asking with a happy smile, “Don’t tell me you have finally found yourself a new man?”

“Well, he’s not exactly new since I’ve known him for a while, but yeah. I have a new lover,” Rowena proudly announced.

“Congratulations, I’m so happy for you. I was afraid you wouldn’t be able to face entering another relationship after what happened with Philip.”

“Well, Adam helped me get over the final hurdle I had in my heart that was stopping me, though he doesn’t know that himself.”

“So who is this Adam? His name sounds familiar; it’s a Terran name, right? Do I know him?” Kasumi asked as she bombarded her best friend with questions.

“Whoa, whoa, slow down. One question at a time, Kasumi. We have plenty of time to chat, as I don’t think Adam will be waking up for a good couple of hours.”

“He’s there with you now?”

“He’s asleep on my lap. I just used my blowjob feeding technique on him.”

“You already allowed him to experience that? Didn’t you make Philip wait months before you let him experience it? Just how long have you two been together without you telling me?” Kasumi asked with a pout.

Rowena chuckled as she saw her friend’s pout before saying, “Stop pouting, we only just became a couple and I already let him experience it because he earned it.”

“Earned it?” Kasumi asked curiously.

"I can't tell you too much as it involves secrets that are not mine alone, but let's just say it's his actions that have allowed me to fix the rift with Stacey."

"Well, that's good," Kasumi replied, as she was generally happy for her friend. She was probably the person who knew best just how much the rift between the grandmother and granddaughter had pained and filled Rowena with guilt.

"So are you going to tell me who he is or do I have to guess?" Kasumi asked while pretending to be upset.

"You've actually already heard about him," Rowena replied with a teasing grin.

"I have?" Kasumi asked in surprise before she tried to think who Rowena could mean while mumbling, "Adam, Adam."

"Want a hint?" Rowena asked in a teasing tone, as she was having a lot of fun right now.

"Naturally."

"Lorelie."

"Lorelie? As in Diva Lorelie? Aren't you travelling with her and Stacey right now on their boyfriends..." At this point, her voice froze for the second time before her face began to warp into shock as she said in a tone filled with disbelief, "Don't tell me!"

"Finally figured it out, have you?" Rowena asked with a beaming smile that surprised Kasumi, as she hadn't seen her friend smile like that in years.

"You're dating the same guy as your granddaughter and Diva Lorelie? You joined their group relationship?"

“Bingo,” Rowena said happily before Kasumi saw her look down at presumably whoever was sleeping on her lap with the same beautiful smile.

“You’re sharing the same man with Stacey?”

“Is there a problem with that?” Rowena asked as she looked up at her with a raised eyebrow.

“No, I mean it’s not exactly uncommon in the universe. I’m just more surprised than anything. The last thing I expected was for you two to fix your relationship enough that she would share her boyfriend with you.”

“Well, stuff happened.”

“That you can’t tell me,” Kasumi said while frowning.

“Not yet, sorry,” Rowena replied apologetically.

“Not yet?”

“Let’s put that aside for the moment, as it’s not the reason I called you.”

“Oh, so you didn’t call me to brag about your new boyfriend?” Kasumi asked with a wink.

“Well, maybe a little,” Rowena admitted before adding, “Though I’m not so callous as to talk your ear off about him, especially with your situation.”

“There’s nothing you can do, so don’t worry about that,” Kasumi replied while waving a hand before asking, “What did you call about then?”

“Actually, there might be something we can do about that, and it’s actually one of the reasons I’m calling.”

“Oh?” Kasumi asked with curiosity.

“Yes, but let me talk about the other topic first,” Rowena replied.
