Chapter 541: I'm pregnant

"I... um, I think... I think I might be pregnant." Stacey declared as she looked up at Adam nervously.

The only sound that was heard in the shuttle after Stacey's statement was the cards that Adam had been shuffling falling to the floor.

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Wait, wait, wait. What did she say?]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): She's pregnant?]

[HackerSu (Trillion): OH MY GOD, STACE! CONGRATULATIONS.]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): I wasn't expecting that.]

[Puntanghunter69Ver2 (International Space Station): Streamer has game, my man.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Well, at least we now know he's not infertile. Kekeke.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): So Diva Rowena's granddaughter is the first to get pregnant.]

[LadyErkath (Alastor): It's not really a surprise. They have been together the longest.]

"KYYYYAAAAA," Lorelie suddenly screamed happily before launching forward and hugging Stacey while saying excitedly, "Really? You're sure?"

"Congratulations, my granddaughter," Rowena said with a happy smile.

"Well, I guess that confirms that Earthlings are indeed compatible with Terrans and Brood," Aphrodite remarked before looking at Stacey with a smile and saying, "Congratulations."

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): YES 🤖]

“Congratulations, Stacey,” Tephe said happily before asking, “Can I be godmother?”

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Trying to copy me, goddaughter?]

“Congratulations,” Eri said.

“Well, say something,” Stacey said in an embarrassed voice as she saw that Adam had frozen in shock.

As he heard Stacey speak, Adam came out of his shock before saying, “That’s not possible.”

“What do you mean it’s not possible?” Lorelie asked with a frown.

“Are you about to tell us you're infertile?” Rowena added as she also frowned.

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Uh-oh, maybe I was wrong. Kekeke.]

“Right now I am,” Adam replied automatically as his brain tried to catch up.

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): DAMN! I was wrong. Kekeke.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Holy shit. The streamer’s actually infertile?]

[Tessisdabest (Imperial Down): ...]

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): ...]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): ...]

[OfficialKasumi (Aqua Primus): Why does it sound like he never told any of them that he's infertile?]

[OracleRomy (Elysium): It's definitely not a very gentlemanly thing to do.]

"What do you mean by right now?" Aphrodite asked curiously.

"You'd better start explaining quickly, ADAM," Lorelie said while emphasising his name.

"Sure, sure," Adam said as he heard the dangerous tone in Lorelie's voice.

"Then make it quick," Rowena ordered.

"It goes back to when I was thrown off the cliff, before I met Spector," Adam began. "My genitalia was one of the body parts that was damaged in the fall."

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): How do you damage your dick from falling?]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Maybe it hit a rock on the way down. Kekeke.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Maybe he landed on it.]

[RealOtaku (Earth): Ohhh, I wonder if this is one of those tropes where the streamer used to be fat before he met his ship's AI.]

"So your dick isn't your original?" Aphrodite asked curiously.

"Why does everything always come back to dicks with you?" Rowena asked in an annoyed tone.

“Because a man’s dick is life or death to a sucubba,” Aphrodite replied.

“Fair point,” Rowena conceded before asking, “but can you stop with those kinds of questions until we figure this out?”

“Sure, sure,” Aphrodite responded.

“Anyway, part of the recovery of my genitalia was the ability to enable and disable my reproductive capability,” Adam stated.

“You’re saying, you can make your sperm infertile at will?” Rowena asked as she and the other women all looked at Adam in surprise.

“Since I haven’t had it active since I got this ability, it would technically be more accurate to say that I can make my sperm fertile at will,” Adam replied.

[SciFifanboy (Earth): That’s so Scifi.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): That’s actually a thing?]

[MercheadAnderson (Palaxia): First I’m hearing about it.]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): While there are medical procedures to mend damaged genitalia, it’s the first time I’m hearing about men being able to make themselves infertile.]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Damn it. I got so excited as well.]

[Daldrin (Earth): This is like one of those shitty novel chapters from Sweeper, he gets us all excited for a major reveal and then BOOM, shitty reveal.]

[Wikkr (Earth): Right. It would be so like that bastard author to title a chapter 'I'm pregnant' and then do something like this.]

[Ayato_Kanzaki (Earth): Fucking cliffhanging shitty author.]

"That's crazy," Lorelie remarked in surprise.

"Something like that would put pharmaceutical companies that make abortion drugs out of business," Aphrodite said with a smirk.

"I guess that explains why you said I never have to worry about getting pregnant after we first did it," Stacey remarked.

"That's correct," Adam replied before asking, but why did you think you were pregnant? Did you do a test?"

"I thought I was pregnant because I missed my period and planned to ask Spector to perform one when we returned to the ship," Stacey replied.

"Ohhh gods, I never told you," Adam replied as he ran his hand down his face.

"Told me what?" Stacey asked suspiciously.

"That the three of you no longer have to worry about your periods," Adam replied before adding, "Though I'm honestly not sure if women of other races have them."

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): He can't be serious.]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): What does that even mean?]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Is something like that even possible?]

“Excuse me?” Stacey asked as all the other women, except Tephe, showed surprised looks.

“What’s a period?” Tephe asked curiously.

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): She doesn’t know?]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): She’s over 500 years old, how doesn’t she know?]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): Female dragons, like many other non-humanoid races, don’t have periods.]

[Justiceistruth (Earth): So you mean Empress Revi doesn’t either?]

[MertheadAnderson (Palaxia): Bro, I’m not sure if asking an empress if she’s had her period yet this month is appropriate.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Damn straight it’s not. 🤔]

“I will explain later, Tephe dear, since it’s something only really seen in humanoid women,” Rowena said kindly before turning to Adam with narrowed eyes while saying, “explain.”

Adam sighed before saying, “Part of my last set of upgrades included my genitalia.”

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Wait, did he have a penis enlargement procedure?]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Maybe he wasn’t satisfying his women enough. Kekeke.]

“It didn’t get any bigger,” Stacey remarked.

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): So much for that theory.]

“It wasn’t the size. I made it so that any woman I have sex with will not have to worry about their period,” Adam replied.

“Excuse me?” Rowena replied.

“How’s that even possible?” Lorelie asked in surprise.

“Spector, can you explain?” Adam asked.

“Affirmative,” Spector replied through the shuttle's intercom before explaining. “Adam’s pre-ejaculatory fluid now contains medical properties that nourish the bodies of those it enters. This includes preventing periods.”

“Nourishes the body?” Lorelie asked in shock before examining her hands.

[Whitehorn (Darah 5): OMFG. Doesn’t that make the streamers' pre-cum even more valuable than some drugs?]

[OfficialMuriel (Aqua Primus): It’s something every woman with a finite life would be after and even those from the long-lived races, depending on how exactly it nourishes the body.]

[Whitehorn (Darah 5): Not only women, but even some men would want it.]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): Will it work on men? I mean, how would it enter their bodies?]

[Whitehorn (Darah 5): The streamers' AI only said it nourishes the bodies of those it enters. It never said it had to enter through a vagina.”

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Wait, so if a guy sucks the streamer's cock or lets him peg them, then it would count?]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): Maybe.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Is the streamer even into guys, though?]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Doubt it.]

[Whitehorn (Darah 5): Maybe they should bottle it like Biggus Dickus. They would make shit loads of credits if they did.]

“Why didn’t you tell us any of this?” Stacey asked accusingly.

“I was planning to after my last upgrades, however, my conversation with Rowena after leaving the medical bay distracted me and made me forget,” Adam replied before adding, “Also, I didn’t know it had the effect of nourishing your bodies.”

“Don’t blame this on me; you should have remembered to inform your lovers of something so important before now,” Rowena said defensively.

“Exactly,” Lorelie said in agreement before asking, “What if one of us was trying to get pregnant?”

“Were you?” Adam asked as his eyes widened.

“Not yet, but that’s not the point,” Lorelie replied with a pout before giving Adam the side eye and asking, “You know what this means, right?”

“What?” Adam asked as he suddenly had a bad feeling.

Stacey, Lorelie and Rowena all nodded at each other before simultaneously saying, "You're sleeping on the couch."

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Damn, sucks to be him. Kekeke.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): @MertheadAnderson Looks like you have a couch buddy.]

[MertheadAnderson (Palaxia): I know the pain, brother.]

"Seriously?" Adam asked in despair.

"It's the least you deserve for hiding such information from us," Stacey remarked while Lorelie and Rowena nodded in agreement.

"Spector, I'm curious about something," Aphrodite suddenly said.

"What is it, Diva Aphrodite?" Spector replied.

"How regularly does a woman need to receive Adam's pre-cum for them to no longer have to worry about periods?" Aphrodite asked.

"Why are you asking that? It's not like you suffer from them," Rowena asked.

"Benefits of being a Succuba and having greater control over my reproductive capabilities," Aphrodite said with a wink before adding, "and I'm just curious to know."

"As long as a woman who suffers from periods receives Adam's pre-cum at least once a month, then she will no longer suffer that month," Spector replied.

"That's quite effective," Aphrodite remarked in surprise.

“You're not seriously going to suggest that we bottle and sell it, are you?” Rowena asked in annoyance.

Aphrodite rolled her eyes and was about to reply when Spector suddenly announced.

“Detecting suspicious movements around Emma Hopkins ' residence.”
