Chapter 552: Mr and Mrs Marshal

Adam turned to find a completely naked woman with wet hair, aiming a pistol at him.

[Puntanghunter69Ver2 (International Space Station): Oh fuck yeah, now that's what I'm talking about, just check out that bodie.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): You don't see this on other streams.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): That's one nice body, shame her looks don't match up.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): She's a beauty by Earth standards.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Why is she naked? Have some decency, girl.]

[OracleRomy (Elysium): I was thinking the same thing.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): We professionals don't care if people see our naked bodies; it happens all the time in our line of work. Plus, our bodies can be a tool to get what we want.]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): She's not wrong. Even I've had to fight butt naked before.]

"Do you wanna put some clothes on?" Adam asked as he gave the woman's body a once-over without much reaction.

"I would rather find out why you're in my room," The woman angrily retorted.

"Just trying to find out who hired the hit on Miss Hopkins," Adam replied, causing the woman's eyes to widen in surprise.

“Who the fuck are you? How do you know about that and where’s Ilyina Bogdana Yegorovna?”

“I’m a friend of Miss Hopkins, I know, because I was there and if Ilyina Bogdana Yegorovna is the woman who attempted to kill Miss Hopkins, then she’s dead.”

[Justiceistruth (Earth): Why is he bothering to answer her questions or talk to her at all?]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Why not? She’s gonna die anyway.... probably.]

“Dead? How?” The woman asked with a frown.

“Well, she failed in her hit, got captured by us and then when she failed to give us any useful information, we killed her,” Adam replied calmly.

“Drop the stick and put your hands up already,” The woman ordered.

“Pass,” Adam replied.

“What? Don’t you see the gun dickhead?”

“Then do as I fucking say.”

“Why? It’s not like you can kill me with it,” Adam replied before pressing a section of the force staff that caused a red energy bolt to hit the woman square in the chest.

The woman didn’t even have time to pull the trigger before she was dead.

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Aww, man, what a shame.]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Told you she would die.]

“Any idea who she is?” Adam asked as he turned back towards the bedroom.

“BANG!”

The sound of a gunshot rang out just as Adam felt a pain in the back of his head that made him stumble forward slightly before collapsing to one knee as blood started to stain his hair.

“THAT’S WHAT YOU GET FOR KILLING MY WIFE, YOU FUCKING BASTARD.”

“Ah man, what the fuck?” Adam cursed as he rubbed the back of his head where the bullet had hit him before saying, “That fucking hurt.”

[All the Earth viewers in chat: ...]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Is something wrong?]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Maybe their stream froze.]

[MertheadAnderson (Palaxia): Connection issues maybe?]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): The streamer just got shot in the back of the head, right?]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Oh, they're back.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): That’s what it looked like to me.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Bro just tanked a bullet to the back of the head.]

[Justiceistruth (Earth): How's that shit even possible?]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Right, even his bracelet didn't have time to activate like with Diva Lorelie.]

[Animefangirl (Earth): That was so Anime.]

[RealOtaku (Earth): That was like some Carl Lucas shit.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): That was so hot the way he tanked that 9mm round.]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): Why are you all acting so surprised?]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): WHY THE FUCK ARE NONE OF YOU ACTING SURPRISED?]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): It was only a 9mm projectile; any individual in the known universe can do that.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Seriously?]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): Sure. Most space-capable races had bones strong enough to do that since they need to be able to resist the higher g-forces experienced during space combat.

Even races that are not naturally like that genetically enhance their children before birth to make sure they are.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): You're saying the streamer has gone through that sort of genetic upgrade?]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): He must have done, or his body wouldn't have been able to survive some of the things we have seen him do.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Isn't that what anti-gravity drives do? Take away the g-forces?]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): Sure, but not every ship or mech has anti-gravity drives; in fact, most don't.]

"What the fuck! How are you still alive?" A naked man asked in shock as he stood in the bathroom doorway with his pistol pointing at Adam.

[Puntanghunter69Ver2 (International Space Station): Aww man, no way, I don't wanna see that.]

[RealOtaku (Earth): Now we're talking, finally some eye candy for the ladies.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Check out that six-pack.]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Not a bad body, though his looks could do with some improvement.]

[MercheadAnderson (Palaxia): Bro, at least cover up.]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): Why? Are you saying it's ok for you to enjoy the sight of that naked woman, but we can't enjoy the sight of the naked guy?]

[MercheadAnderson (Palaxia): The naked woman's dead babe, I don't wanna look at that.]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): You did until she got a hole in her chest.]

"Seriously, is this some kind of naked people convention?" Adam asked before adding, "Are they anymore naked people in there?"

“You broke into our room and killed my wife. What the fuck do you have to complain about?” The naked man retorted.

“Actually, the door was unlocked,” Adam replied before adding, “Can you at least cover up, bro? I don’t really wanna look at your junk, it’s not my thing.”

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): It’s technically true. The door was unlocked.]

“Fuck you, bro,” The naked man replied before pulling the trigger three more times.

“BANG, BANG, BANG.”

Two bullets impacted Adam’s chest at the location of his heart, while the third impacted his forehead, causing blood to leak out of the three injuries as the bullets themselves dropped to the floor.

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Two in the chest, one in the head. This naked guy knows his stuff.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Seriously, streamer, why are you just tanking the bullets?]

[RealOtaku (Earth): You gotta admit it’s cool how he’s doing that.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): While his body is sturdy enough to resist the low calibre of those projectiles, it’s probably not fast enough to avoid them.]

[SciFifanboy (Earth): So, no Agent Smith action? Not Scifi.]

“Bro, stop, can’t you see that’s not working? Also, it still kinda stings,” Adam complained before raising his force lance and shooting the naked guy in the chest with a red energy bolt.

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): I would not wanna be the cop who has to solve this crime.]

“So who are these naked idiots and what's their connection with that sniper?” Adam asked after the naked man slumped to the floor, dead.

“Husband and wife?” Adam asked in surprise before adding, “That explains why they were taking a shower together, and here I thought them and the sniper had a group relationship going on.”

[Justiceistruth (Earth): Not everyone is as lucky as you are to have a harem streamer. 😊]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Jealous much. 😊]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): Sex in the room where they kill? That’s just disturbing.]

[[The pair arrived shortly after the sniper, one Ilyina Bogdana Yegorovna, left the hotel. They booked into a different room but didn’t use it and instead came straight here.]]

“Are the two parties working together? The naked woman at least seemed to know Ilyina Bogdana Yegorovna since she asked about her.”

[[Unlikely.]] Spector replied before displaying the information for Ilyina Bogdana Yegorovna.

[[Additional Information: believed to be associated with the Keita Family, though no proof has ever been found linking the two parties.]]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): So even though the sniper is Russian, she works with the Keita family that controls the Middle East?]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Even though the Cold War is over and the USSR has been abolished, some of the best female snipers in the world still come out of Russia.]

“The Keita family and the Williams family?” Seems unlikely that they're working together.”

[[Agreed. Recommend you find their communication devices so that I can scan them.]]

“Well, it's safe to say they're not carrying them on their person,” Adam remarked before he started to thoroughly search the hotel room.
