Chapter 566: Dealing with Nada

“This is BBC News bringing you breaking news. We are getting reports of an explosion that has taken place in the city of Dubai within the United Arab Emirates.

While the exact cause of this explosion is still unknown at this time, early eyewitness reports state that an object was seen falling from the sky before the explosion took place.

The explosion is reported to have taken place at the Montgomerie Golf Course; however, it is still unclear what caused the explosion and if it was an accident or an attack.

Stay tuned to BBC World Service as we bring you more on this breaking news story.”

“Please tell me Ayana Keita didn’t do something to piss off Adam Spencer,” Isabella remarked as she stared at the large screen TV that hung on the wall of her office.

“That seems unlikely, considering she, like yourself and the heads of the other three families, knows what Adam Spencer is capable of,” Winston replied.

“Didn’t cause them to clear his name, though, did it?” Isabella remarked.

“You actually think Adam is responsible for that, grandmother?” Stacey Flemming, who had been called back to the main house, asked as she stared in shock at the image of the giant creator that was shown on the TV.

“Montgomerie Golf Course is located right next to Emirates Hills, which is where Kareem Badawi, Nada Keita’s father, lives,” Isabella explained before adding, “Also, we know that Adam Spencer is in Dubai, so it’s highly likely.”

“I... I see,” Stacey replied.

“This could also be seen as a warning to all five families and not just the Kieta family,” Winston remarked.

“I agree,” Isabella nodded.

“Because this will be shown worldwide?” Stacey asked.

“Basically,” Isabella answered before continuing, “remember how the news presenter said that eyewitness reports claimed they saw something falling from the sky?”

Well, it’s highly likely that Adam Spencer has his ship fire from orbit and that is something we can not easily defend against.”

“Just the fact that the United Arab Emirates air defence didn’t intercept the weapon shows that they most likely failed to detect it and that proves how dangerous it is,” Winston added.

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): So that's what caused that explosion, all the news sites and channels went nuts about it.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): They were all speculating on what caused the explosion; guesses ranged from a gas explosion to a terrorist attack.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Did anyone guess it was caused by an orbital strike. Kekeke.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Some were claiming that it was the work of aliens lol.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Well, they're not exactly wrong this time. Kek.]

[Justiceistruth (Earth): So do you think those two are dead?]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Not unless they're super unlucky. I think Adam just wanted to prove a point after that idiot's comment.]

[OfficialMuriel (Aqua Primus): Oh look, Nada Keita woke up.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): I'm not surprised, it was probably the explosion that woke her.]

"AAAAHHHHHHH!" Nada screamed as she clutched her head from the headache caused by the overpressure.

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Looks like she's gone mad. Kekeke.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): It's probably the effects of the overpressure.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Overpressure?]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Overpressure is a transient air pressure, caused by shock waves from explosions, blasts, or sonic booms, that exceeds normal atmospheric pressure.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): It's basically the shockwave you see in movies that causes glass to shatter after an explosion.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Ohhh, gotcha.]

"Oh, you're awake," Adam remarked as his helmet retracted once again to reveal his head. It had automatically deployed just before the overpressure hit him in order to protect him.

"Ah, my fucking head," Nada cursed before asking, "what happened?"

"Well, I was on a video call with your mother when your dad said something he shouldn't have," Adam answered as he looked down at her.

“Said something he shouldn’t have?” Nada repeated in confusion.

“It seems that in her panic to find shelter, your mother ended the call, which is rather rude,” Adam stated.

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Rude? You just blew up an entire golf course that’s situated a short distance from her lover’s house. Are you sure you’re not the rude one, streamer?]

“Now, how am I going to deal with you?” Adam asked as he continued to look down on Nada.

“What... what do you mean?” Nada asked in fear.

“Well, while you were taking your nap, I accessed your conversation history with both your father and Robert Flemming,” Adam replied.

Nada’s eyes widened in shock and fear before she stammered, “H... how, the messages on that app are supposed to be impossible to access?”

“Perhaps externally, but I accessed them through your phone,” Adam replied as he pointed at the phone that lay a short distance away before adding, “Bypassing its security was easy.”

“N.. no,” Nada stammers as the realisation that Adam knew everything hit her.

“I’m sure Robert Flemming will be hurt once he finds out you were only using him,” Adam stated before adding, “It’s just a shame you decided to target Miss Hopkins, who is under my protection.”

“Under your protection?”

“That’s right. I hired Miss Hopkins to manage my company going forward, which means she is under my protection.”

"I... I didn't know."

"Unfortunately, that's not a good enough reason to save you since you planned to kill her and take all that is hers."

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry," Nada said as she began to cry.

Adam, however, ignored her crying as he said, "Well, this is normally where I would ask Miss Hopkins what she wants to do with you.

Unfortunately, the five families... Well, four of the five families need to learn that I'm not someone they can mess with and so I'm going to send them a message by killing you."

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Ohhhh, that's cold. I love it.]

[RealOtaku (Earth): Goes to show that the streamer isn't one of those weak-ass MCs that refuse to kill or are swayed by a woman's tears like that shitty author Sweeper writes about.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): I'm guessing the only women who can sway the streamer are his lovers.]

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): And rightly so.]

"No... no, please don't. Spare me, I will do anything," Nada begged.

"Oh? I'm curious to know if you planned to spare Miss Hopkins in the future if she begged you?" Adam asked, but Nada was unable to answer since she knew that she wouldn't have.

[MertheadAnderson (Palaxia): There's no chance.]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): Fucking hypocrite, you find them all over the universe.]

That's what I figured," Adam said before smiling and saying, "I'm not completely evil, however."

"Yo... you're not?" Nada replied hopefully.

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): He's totally scheming something.]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): Agreed.]

"No, I will let you decide how you wish to die. I can either shoot you like with that guard," Adam stated before pointing at the guard that was still lying dead on the floor.

"Or toss you out through the windowless opening like with your other guard," Adam then added while pointing towards the windowless opening.

[Whitehorn (Darah 5): Oh, that's harsh, imagine having to make that choice.]

[OfficialMuriel (Aqua Primus): I would go with option 1.]

[OfficialKasumi (Aqua Primus): Agreed. Option 1 is quick and painless.]

[LadyErkath (Alastor): We assume it's painless; no one is alive to tell us.]

[OfficialKasumi (Aqua Primus): True, but it's definitely quick, unlike falling from the top of the world's tallest building.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Her death from impacting the ground would be quick. Kekeke.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): That's true.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Still, making her choose how to die is kinda harsh.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): You're just too soft, girl.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Could you make that choice if the streamer forced it on you?]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): I would never piss the streamer off in the first place to cause that kind of situation.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): I get what you're saying @Superhearofangirl, I know I wouldn't be able to make a choice like that.]

"So what's it gonna be?" Adam asked as he retrieved his force lance and spun it in his hand.

"I... I..." Nada muttered.

"So it's quick and easy for you to come to a decision about killing someone, but it's the complete opposite when it's you who is about to die, huh?" Adam remarked.

"Please... please..." Nada begged as tears and snot ran down her face.

"Begging, really? Would you have let Miss Hopkins live if she had begged?" Adam scoffed.

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm sorry."

"Sorry you got caught," Adam replied before pointing the force staff towards Nada.

"I guess I will decide then," Adam replied before pressing a section of the force staff.

The last thing Nada saw before her life left her was a flash of red light from the rod that Adam Spencer was pointing at her, after which her lifeless corpse collapsed to the floor.

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Damn, he actually killed the spoiled daughter of the head of the Keita family.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): That means he's killed members from two of the five families now and they're all descendants of the family heads.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Something tells me it's about to become three of the five families. Kekeke.]
