Chapter 645: Goddess Lorelie

“AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH!” Beam continued to scream after the end of one wing was blown away and his blood started to gather around his pinned-down body.

“Shall we continue, or are you ready to talk?” Adam asked coldly.

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Ready to talk? You haven't even asked him anything yet.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): I love it.]

“Gah,” Beam moaned in pain before glaring at Adam and saying, “How could you? How could you?”

“How could I? You're the one who attempted to kill Lorelie,” Adam replied angrily.

“Because you tainted her,” Beam replied, though he still winced in pain occasionally.

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Yup, he's cray cray.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Cray cray?]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Means he's crazy.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Ohhhh, well, we kind of already knew that.]

“Tainted her? What, because I'm her boyfriend and we...” Adam began, but was interrupted by Beams' scream.

“NNNOOOOOOOOOO, DON'T SAY IT, SHE CAN'T HAVE, DIVA LORELIE MUST ALWAYS BE PURE.”

[Puntanghunter69Ver2 (International Space Station): Yeah, good luck with that.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Too little, too late.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Look at him losing it. Kekeke.]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): I can honestly say I've never seen a phoenix have a mental breakdown before.]

{Spector, access and scan his unibands communication records.} Adam thought.

[Affirmative.]

[Accessing uniband.]

[Access acquired.]

[Scanning now.]

"So is that really why you did it?" Adam asked with a frown before continuing. "You're one of those crazy, obsessive stalker types who thinks that if you can't have the celebrity you're obsessed with, no one can?"

"No one is worthy of Diva Lorelie, not even me. She is a goddess who has descended and blessed us with her presence," Beam replied hysterically.

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Hmm, well, at least he understands his own worth.]

[Superherofangirl (Earth): I didn't realise the Phoenix race was religious.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Generally, we're not; there are always exceptions to the rule, however.]

[RealOtaku (Earth): Maybe he was corrupted by some dark religious order.]

[SciFifanboy (Earth): This is Sci-Fi, not fantasy.]

[RealOtaku (Earth): What Sci-Fi do you know that has dragons, phoenixes and succubus in it?]

[SciFifanboy (Earth): Good point.]

"Although I'm pretty sure Lorelie's race believes in a sea god, I'm fairly certain she's not it," Tephe remarked as she continued to pin Beam down.

"So, care to tell me who put you up to this?" Adam asked while spinning the force staff in his hand.

"No one put me up to this, I did it of my own volition," Beam replied.

"Uh-huh," Adam replied before pointing the force staff at Beam's other wing.

Whereby a flash of red light erupted from the force staff and hit the wing, causing another chunk of it to be blown off and Beam to scream in pain.

"AAAAAHHHHHHHHH!"

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): Ohhh, that's gotta hurt.]

[HackerSu (Trillion): He should have just answered honestly; at least then he might have got a quick death.]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): Might being the word.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): He certainly makes for an easy target when he's that big.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): True. The streamer has plenty of places to blast away.]

"You see, I know you're lying," Adam began. "A semi-reliable source has informed me that you're working for the organisation behind all the recent attacks on the Terran race."

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): He's calling the Avaricious, the greatest information broker in the universe, semi-reliable?]

[OracleRomy (Elysium): Well, he has never worked with her before, so I guess he's a bit dubious.]

"I know nothing about that," Beam replied.

"Well, that's not really surprising, I mean, you are a crazy, obsessed idiot, so it's highly unlikely you would be provided with any valuable information about the organisation or its make-up," Adam replied before saying, "All I want from you is the identity of who put you up to this and where I can find them."

[Analysis complete.]

[There is no evidence, deleted or otherwise, that Beam Onyx has had direct communication with anyone suspicious or that he doesn't normally communicate with.]

[OfficialMuriel (Aqua Primus): Fuck! Was the Avaricious actually wrong then?]

[Whitehorn (Darah 5): With her record, it's more likely she was lying than wrong.]

[LadyErkath (Alastor): That makes no sense. Why would she lie if she's trying to build a business relationship with Adam?]

“Seriously, nothing?” Adam asked in surprise.

“That’s what I said, damn it,” Beam cursed as he thought Adam was talking to him.

[There are records on the Universal Subspace Network that the individual Beam Onyx has been accessing several forums connected to Lorelie.

However, he didn’t access them through his uniband, so I can’t access what was said in those forums.]

“Revi, I’m going to need to inspect any consoles your people recover from this guy's residence or place of employment,” Adam stated.

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): You got it.]

[OfficialKasumi (Aqua Primus): Maybe they communicated through this online forum?]

[NonpareilRaphilia (Aaru): That seems to be what the streamer’s thinking.]

“Well, I guess you're of no more use to me then,” Adam said as he looked darkly at Beam.

“No, no, please no,” Beam began to plead as he added. “Everything I did was for the sake of Goddess Lorelie.”

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): Goddess Lorelie? Guys totally lost it.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Aphrodite apparently likes her toys, calling her goddess.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): You can’t really compare the two, I mean, one's the top diva in the universe who’s only just lost her virginity.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): While the other is the top adult entertainment diva.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): They're both divas.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): That's like saying footballers and swimmers are the same because they both do sports, idiot.]

"I already watched one woman I love die right in front of me, and got revenge for her. Do you really think I wouldn't want revenge for someone trying the same thing against Lorelie?" Adam asked darkly.

"Oh, oh, Adam, let me finish him off," Tephe said coldly as she pushed down harder against Beam's body, making him cry out in pain again.

"Sure," Adam replied before asking, "But this isn't going to be a quick death after what he did, and I also think he deserves the same punishment Lorelie just experienced, don't you?"

Tephe's dragon eyes sparkled as she understood his meaning before she lifted her paw off Beam's body.

Beam breathed in relief at being released, but a second later, his deep breaths turned into high-pitched screams as Tephe's claw pierced a part of his body.

"How do you like it, huh, little Phoenix?" Tephe asked angrily while pulling her claw out before adding, "Think you can get away with causing my friend and future sister great pain and almost killing her without consequence?"

As she finished speaking and without waiting for Beam to reply or give him a chance to recover, her claw fell again and pierced another part of his body, eliciting another scream of pain.

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Damn, that's cold. Kekeke.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): I love it. I have a new appreciation for Tephe.]

[MertheadAnderson (Palaxia): We finally get to see Tephe's true personality again. I haven't seen this since before she started travelling with the streamer.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Huh? Isn't she supposed to be all naive and innocent?]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Yeah, this is like a completely different side to her, look how brutal she's being.]

"AAAAAAHHHHHHHHHHH!" Beam screamed again as Tephe stabbed him for a third time, and copious amounts of blood spilt out of his wounds.

"Yes, that's right, I want you to deliver any tech associate with Beam Onyx to the palace, with a priority being placed on the consoles he uses at home and work," Elementence ordered while Emma turned to Revi and asked.

"You sure you're ok with this?"

"I can't say that seeing one of my race being treated in this way brings me joy," Revi replied with a frown before continuing. "But you reap what you sow and it's his own fault for attempting to assassinate Lorelie."

"Do you really believe that he was working with that secretive organisation or that he just did it of his own volition?" Eri asked.

"I'm inclined to believe it's the former. While everyone fears the Avaricious and for good reason, her information is known to always be accurate," Revi replied.

As Lorelie opened her eyes, she found herself in a place she loved and had come to call home.

It was the first place she ever shared a meal with Adam, though that meal only consisted of one thing, chocolate ice cream.

As she looked around, confused at how she got there, she saw the back of a woman who had long blonde hair and wore a lab coat sitting at one of the tables. For some reason, she got the feeling that she had seen her before.

“You know, I really can’t wait to be able to try this myself one day,” The woman spoke as if realising that she was no longer alone before she turned around and smiled at Lorelie.

“Princess Liluth Solar?” Lorelie asked in shock as she finally realised who the woman was.

“Hello, sister, we have much to discuss, you and I,” Liluth replied happily before taking a mouthful of the chocolate ice cream.
