

S.P.E.C.T.O.R 9

Chapter 9: Do it already

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): What the fuck was that?]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Some kind of hacking tool at a guess.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Yeah I guessed that genius, what I mean is where's the minigame, there is always a mini game.]

[Forever1stCommenter (Earth): He has a point, 1st time I have seen such a high quality game like this without a hacking minigame of some sort.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): I guess, maybe he just used some special item that allows auto successes on the hacking minigame, like some sort of perk he chooses before starting.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): That could be it.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Still he made you look like a total noob Noobkiller kekeke.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Fuck you 1000.]

Adam opened the door and walked inside the apartment building where he found himself facing two elevator doors right in front of him and a door leading to a staircase on the left.

Adam ignored the staircase and pressed the button for an elevator causing one of the doors to open straight away.

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Why do elevators never open straight away for me? I always have to wait.]

[Forever1stCommenter (Earth): +1]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): +2]

[Puntanghunter69 (Earth): +3]

[SciFifanboy (Earth): +4]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): +5]

Adam entered the elevator and pressed the button for the fourth floor causing the doors to close and the elevator to rise while music played.

"Raindrops keep falling on your head"

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Oh shit someones getting banned for copyright infringement kekeke]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Dude look at the quality of that reflection in the doors metal.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): I know right, the reflection is perfectly in sync with when the mc moves, it's like there is zero delay.]

"Ding"

After a few moments the elevator sounded and the door opened onto a long carpeted corridor.

[Sparesomechangebro (Earth): Check out that carpet, fucking rich people. I mean who lives in an apartment complex that has carpet in the hallway outside the rooms.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Oh look, the cheapskate is here kekeke.]

[Sparesomechangebro (Earth): I'm not cheap, I'm poor.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Give it up change, no one believes that, If you were poor how could you afford to watch streams all day, I mean I see you on here more than first and that's saying something.]

[Forever1stCommenter (Earth): I will forever be first in comments and in stream watching.]

[Sparesomechangebro (Earth): Shut up duck.]

Adam noticed that the diamond indicator was located behind the third door on the right and so he slowly walked along the hallway until he stood in front of the door.

[Sparesomechangebro (Earth): No way it's this easy.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): He still needs to get through the doors electronic lock.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): You know he is just going to hack it again and make you look like a noob Noob kekeke.]

After looking left and right to make sure no one else was in the hallway Adam reached inside his jacket and pulled out his blaster pistol.

[SciFifanboy (Earth): DUDE, that's so SciFi.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): This time I'm with you, that's one sick looking gun.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): That's no gun.]

[Puntanghunter69 (Earth): It's here, I smell the putang.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Fuck you wierdo.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Seriously though, the cylinder looks like one from a revolver , but it only has four chambers instead of six, not to mention that the chambers are sealed so there is no way to put a bullet in them.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Then there is the fact that there is no hammer to strike the primer.]

[SciFifanboy (Earth): Maybe it's a blaster like my boy Han uses.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): You always think it's a blaster before being proven wrong.]

[SciFifanboy (Earth): Because Blaster's are SciFi.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): It's unlikely to be a blaster, I mean considering the clothing people wore and the cars we saw out on the street, it's fairly obvious this game is set around this time period and not some future Scifi theme.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Let's see what he does with it, look he's about to unlock the door again.]

As duck stated Adam was raising the uniband up to the electronic lock again and after a moment there was a beed as the lock turned green and the door was unlocked.

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): It has to be some sort of perk.]

Adam slowly pushed the door open before peeking his head around it to look inside the room and finding the entry hall empty.

Sighing slightly with relief he quietly slipped into the entry hall and looked around.

At the far end of the hall he could see windows and the edge of a sofa so he could guess that the living room was down the end, while the left wall had one door about half way down and the right wall had two doors.

He could make out what sounded like a news article being read coming from the end of the hallway and assumed that Justin Philips must have been watching TV.

He slowly began to creep down the hallway with the plan of sneaking up on Justin Philips and as he got closer the sound of the TV increased.

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Guys gone stealth mode.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Targets probably in the lounge watching TV it seems.]

[SciFifanboy (Earth): Come on blaster pistol.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Sigh, there's no hope for this guy.]

Adam was almost at the second door on the right when suddenly it opened and a man came walking out in a t-shirt, shorts and slightly damp hair.

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Oh shit he fucked up kekeke.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Who could have seen that coming, I mean there was no evidence that the guy was in the shower so not really his fault.]

Adam and Justin froze when they suddenly came face to face and just stared at each other in shock for a few minutes before Justin finally managed to recover enough to angrily ask.

"What the fuck are you doing in..."

However his speech trailed off as he saw the intruder slowly raise what appeared to be a strangely shaped gun and point it at his head.

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Do it, kill the noob.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): So much for the stealth play.]

As Adam just stood there with the gun raised but not firing the chat began to wonder what was going on.

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Did he lag kekeke.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Can't be, you can still hear the news story in the background and some shadows are moving.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Does he not know the control to shoot?]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Seriously? Is he that bad kekeke.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Shoot him already, come on kill the noob streamer.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): It must be a fake after all and not a very good one.]

[SciFifanboy (Earth): Come on blaster pistol.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Why would a game have a fake gun?]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Search me, but it's obviously not a real one in game, I mean it wont even function properly unless the devs fucked up the realism.]

"What do you want?" Justin Philips finally said after realizing that the stranger was not just going to shoot him straight away.

"I don't know who you are but if you want money I can give you some so please leave I won't call the police honest.]

[Forever1stCommenter (Earth): Oh he's totally going to call the police after.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Yup]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Totes]

Adam was currently having an Existential crisis over pulling the trigger. Here was one of the men who conspired to frame him for a murder he didn't commit, a man he hated and wanted dead.

However when it actually came to pulling the trigger and taking a life he was having trouble doing it.

He had killed hundreds or even thousands of holographic people during the training Spector android had put him through, but at the end of the day they were only holograms, not flesh and blood with their own lives and dreams.

As he was having his internal argument Justin Phillips gained some courage after Adam didn't do or say anything and slowly began to move backwards.

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): DO IT ALREADY.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): The target is backing off, the streamer needs to finish this before it goes to shit.]

While the chat was egging him on, Justin Phillips was slowly backing away and Adam was having an internal debate about whether he had the right to take a life Spector suddenly spoke up.

[Spector has detected that the potential operator is close to having a mental break over the need to kill the target in front of them.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Who the fuck is that?]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): We heard that voice earlier.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Yeah, I think she might be the MC's behind the scenes support.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Like Oracle?]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Yeah kinda.]

[Spector has determined the best course of action for the successful fulfilment of the mission.]

[Accessing neurolink...]

[Temporarily adjusting opioid levels.]

As Spector finished speaking a change seemed to come over Adam, his eyes cleared up as all the concerns seemed to fade away and he tightened the grip on the blaster before slowly starting to pull the trigger.

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): BEHIND YOU!]
