Chapter 95: Jessie

"I'm kinda surprised you allow it here to be honest, that sort of thing is banned in brothels back on Earth, well except for the illegal ones but they make sure to control all the material." Adam said without much interest before taking another sip of his drink and finding it empty.

"Hey can I get another?" He asked but failed to get an immediate response as Joe seemed distracted by something.

After a few moments Joe seemed to come back to himself before asking, "What do you mean by controlling all the material?"

"It's like I said, brothels from my world would never allow Max over there to do what he is currently doing because he is the one making all the money, sure he pays those women but I bet it's nothing to what he is making from the stream." Adam began to explain.

"It's like how you let thieves operate here, Stacey told me that they can operate here if you get your cut right?" Joe nodded at this before Adam continued.

"So why haven't you done the same for Max over there or other streamers who come in here and do the same thing? Better yet why don't you set up your own streaming account and stream the action yourselves."

Stacey looked at Adam in surprise while Joe had a thoughtful expression on his face before he said, "I'll be right back."

Adam and Stacey watched Joe disappear through the door again before Adam asked, "Did I say something wrong?"

"No, I think it's the complete opposite." Stacey replied while smirking.

"Huh?"

"I think he just went to get Jessie."

"Why? I thought you said she wouldn't come out here unless something big happened."

"I did and if what you're talking about is what I think it is, you're offering them a new business idea that will earn them a lot of credits. And a way to make a lot of credits is a big deal." Stacey replied just as the door opened and Joe walked out followed by an attractive woman with short brown hair and a tattoo of the number 86 on her cheek.

"Stacey, how you doing, girl? Joe here says your friend has a way for us to make a lot of easy credits." The woman replied.

"It's been a while Jessie, I'm surprised you decided to grace us with your company." Stacey replied with a grin.

"What can I say, when it comes to easy credits I'm an easy girl." Jessie replied while smirking.

"Don't tell that dickhead that." Stacey replied as she thumbed Max in the distance.

"Hehehe, like you he doesn't stand a chance with me." Jessie replied before turning to Adam and saying, "This one on the other hand though a bit plain looking might be a different story if his idea pans out."

Stacey rolled her eyes but decided not to comment since she knew Jessie was just messing with her.

"So tell me, what's this credit making idea you were telling Joe." Jessie said to Adam as Joe handed them all fresh drinks.

Adam went on to repeat to Jessie what he had just told Stacey and Joe.

"Don't you people have any sort of porn... sorry sexual materials that people can buy?" Adam asked curiously.

"Sure we do, holographic videos and virtual reality shows and the like, though the virtual reality shows are not exactly popular as it makes jacking off impossible when you can't control your real body." Joe replied.

"Is there no reaction?" Adam asked.

"Well sure, your dick gets hard IRL from watching but you can't do anything about it until you stop watching."

"What about interactive porn?"

"Interactive porn?" Jessie asked curiously.

"Yeah you know where you take the part of one of the participants and actually engage in the act rather than just watching it."

"Does such a thing exist?" Jessie asked Stacey and Joe.

"Not that I'm aware of." Stacey replied.

"Never heard of it." Joe answered.

"Then you have a major unexplored market available for you and you even have the perfect setting." Adam suddenly said.

"Explain." Jessie said.

"Five percent." Adam replied.

"What?" Jessie asked with a frown.

"I want five percent of everything you make from my idea. Even though you will be doing all the work as well as providing the equipment, actors and actresses as well as the locations I think five percent is generous considering I will be telling you how to be the first in a brand new market which will literal get you all the money from this market until someone figures out how to copy you." Adam explained.

Jessie studied him for a while before saying, "Ok five percent as long as it works out."

"I will hold you to that." Adam replied before asking, "I don't know exactly how VR recording works but is there a way for you to record the actors or actresses' experiences while in the act?"

"Sure that's pretty common, as long as someone has a neurolink they can get some software that records their POV, feelings, sensations and everything they experience. Military often do this and then download that experience into new recruits in training so they can experience actual combat and be ready for when they themselves experience the real thing." Joe answered.

"There's your answer then and it's pretty simple: offer some of your patrons here a discount on the services as long as they're willing to record their experiences via their neurolink. You then sell that experience and boom profit." Adam explained.

"That's it?" Jessie replied in surprise.

"That's it." Adam confirmed as he took a swig of his drink.

"How has no one thought of this before?" Joe asked.

"You're asking me? It seems pretty obvious to me." Adam replied before saying, "That does naturally mean you will have to either stop or charge Max over there along with the other streamers if they want to continue using this place for their streams because I can guarantee they will get on this bandwagon once they hear about it and you want to be ready for that."

"That won't be a problem for the other streamers we get in here but Max might be an issue." Joe said with a frown.

"Yeah that dickhead thinks too highly of himself and if you pressure him into something he will likely go running to his parents." Stacey said in an annoyed tone.

"So he really is the standard spoiled brat type."

"What?" Stacey asked.

"Don't worry about it." Adam replied before asking, "Can you not come to some sort of arrangement? I mean he's here to get his dick wet at the end of the day."

"While that's true he also gets off from having people watch him. I guess he likes bragging about how many women he can get even if it's only via his money." Jessie replied.

"Then blackmail him." Adam suggested.

"How?" Jessie asked with curiosity.

"Have you really never considered blackmailing someone from the sky towers before?" Adam asked in surprise.

"It's not so easy, most don't even come down here and the few that do know we won't try anything because their families influence can end us." Joe replied.

"I thought you said his family wasn't very powerful?" Adam asked.

"I said compared to some of the families who live in the sky towers. They still have enough pull with the Trillion government to shut us down though."

"Hmmm I see what you mean so you need to find a way to blackmail him that in no way leads back here." Adam mused.

"How's that possible, just the act of us blackmailing him leads back to us." Jessie replied with a frown.

"Not if you use someone who is not from Trillion and has no real connection to this place, someone like me."

"Why would you do this?"

"First it's for my five percent, the more money you make the more I make. Second is because of Stacey and third I just have a bad history with spoiled rich kids and I don't like them getting their way just because of their rich powerful fathers." Adam replied.

"Me?" Stacey asked in surprise.

"Well you are currently employing me to protect you right?" Adam replied with a smirk.

"Yeah but how's that connected?"

"By the fact that he keeps harassing you, I was already planning to intervene if he tried it again. So this is just two birds with one stone.... three birds."

"Two birds with one stone?" Stacey replied while all three showed confused looks.

"Sorry Earth saying, it means achieving two tasks with one action."

"How would you do this?" Jessie asked.

"On that you need to give me time to think up a plan and gather intel. In the meantime you can consider my idea and think about how you would implement it here." Adam replied.

"Agreed. Since you're likely to be here for a while, where did you plan on staying?" Jessie asked.

"Probably my ship."

"That's all the way back at the landing pad though." Stacey replied before turning to Jessie and asking, "Can he use one of the spare rooms here?"

"I was about to offer that." Jessie replied before chuckling.

"It's not covered in random people's sperm and bodily fluids is it?" Adam asked with a look of revulsion on his face.
