

SCORING THE SACRED BODY OF THE ANCIENTS FROM THE GET-GO

Chapter 16: Suzaku surrenders to the ancient country, and Xiao Chen, the protagonist of the fate, goes to the house of the king

Inside a palace in the ancient country of Suzaku.

The Lord of the Suzaku lay on the bed, surrounded by a group of alchemists and imperial physicians from the ancient Suzaku kingdom.

But they have nothing to do with the sickness of Suzaku Kingdom.

The Lord of the Vermilion Bird's illness was when he was in a secret realm with the Lord of Azure Dragon a few years ago, when he was injured by a monster of the Primordial Relic, the Nine Dragon Snake Demon, who was comparable to a saint.

Nine evil snake demon venom, even the saint can hardly resist.

Not to mention the quasi-saint Suzaku Kingdom Lord.

"Hey, what should I do now, the emperor went to Jun's house, not only did not get the elixir, but she was humiliated."

"What can we do, it is impossible to trouble the Jun's family, isn't that seeking death?"

All the alchemists and imperial physicians, as well as the ministers of the ancient country of Suzaku, shook their heads and sighed.

The ancient family, they can't afford it.

So even if I heard that Bai Yuer was kneeling in humiliation, Suzaku Ancient Kingdom had no idea of going to settle accounts.

The Lord of Suzaku on the bed coughed even more when he heard the words, his face was gray.

But at this moment, a guard rushed to the door and hurriedly said: "Report to your Majesty, there is a distinguished guest coming to my Suzaku ancient country and ask to see your Majesty!"

A minister heard the words and immediately flicked his sleeves and shouted angrily: "Things that do not have eyes, have you not seen your majesty's current physical condition? Go and disturb your majesty!"

Just as the minister's voice fell, a woman's delicate voice came from the door of the hall.

"Suzaku Kingdom Lord shouldn't be dying, right? If so, why can't you see it?"

"Who is it for death!?" Anger appeared on the minister's face.

"Dare to yell at my lady, presumptuous!"

An old figure appeared, and with a flick of his sleeves, a quasi-sage's majestic cultivation base burst out.

Huff!

The minister immediately vomited blood and flew out of his body!

In the main hall, all the people of the ancient country of Suzaku stood stiff in an instant, trembling with two strands, and extremely frightened!

quasi holy breath!

Even if it is the most powerful lord of the ancient kingdom of Suzaku, it is only a quasi-saint cultivation base!

Everyone looked tremblingly.

But seeing an old Mai Yi, her face walked indifferently.

Behind him is a beautiful woman in palace costume.

The long golden hair is scattered, the hair is supple, the snow is like jade, and the beautiful color is moving.

are Jun Linglong and Granny Hua.

"It's the noble lady of the Jun family..." Some ministers had a storm in their hearts.

Jun Linglong is still quite famous in the outside world, so they recognize it at a glance.

And the minister who scolded before, blood was overflowing from the corner of his mouth, his eyes were full of panic, he collapsed to the ground, unable to get up.

"Ahem... I didn't expect that it was the gentleman who came here to inquire about the crime?"

On the bed, the Lord of Suzaku barely got up, his face showing fatigue.

Some time ago, it came out that Bai Yuer had offended the son of the king's family and had knelt outside the palace.

And now the Jun family is here.

is not here to ask sin, what is it for?

As soon as these words came out, all the people of the ancient country of Suzaku in the hall had their teeth trembling and fear in their hearts.

If the Jun family wants to erase the ancient kingdom of Suzaku, it really doesn't take much effort.

The Lord of the Vermilion Bird also accepted his fate, so he was calm.

"Is my * son the kind of big demon who kills the door at every turn? You should thank the * son for his kindness." Jun Linglong covered his mouth and smiled faintly.

"Huh?" The Lord of Suzaku and others were all at a loss.

Isn't the Jun family here to ask the crime?

Jun Linglong stepped forward and wiped the void ring with his jade hand.

Suddenly purple clouds surged, and the fragrance of the medicine was diffused. A medicinal material resembling a unicorn appeared in the eyes of everyone.

"That's... the elixir!"

All the people from the ancient country of Suzaku have their eyes widened and they can hardly breathe.

The Lord of the Vermilion Bird also looked a little surprised.

Every plant of immortal medicine is born, it will set off a shock in the wilderness of the fairyland.

And now, Jun Linglong took out an immortal potion so lightly, it shocked them, as if a dumpling saw a golden mountain.

Mother-in-law Hua saw the performance of the people in the ancient country of Suzaku, and she couldn't help but contempt in her old eyes.

"Lord Suzaku, now I'll give you two choices. If you submit to Lord God, you can get the elixir."

"If you don't agree, then you will fend for themselves." Jun Linglong's tone was light.

In front of Jun Xiaoyao, she was humble.

But now facing outsiders, she has regained the temperament of a gentleman.

"This..." Suzaku Old Country ministers all changed their faces.

They heard the meaning of Jun Linglong's words.

is surrendering to the son of the emperor, not to the emperor.

The difference is huge.

If you surrender to the ancient monarch family, it is not unacceptable to the ancient kingdom of Suzaku.

After all, there are still many top orthodoxy of the vassal monarch family.

But if you just surrender to Jun Xiaoyao alone.

For a top-level orthodoxy, it is a bit ugly.

"I don't want to? You know what an honor it is to be able to surrender to the Son of God." Jun Linglong raised her eyebrows, her face slightly cold.

The color of struggle flashed in the eyes of the Lord of the Suzaku, and finally he sighed: "The emperor agrees and thank the son of the Jun family for me, but I hope he will not embarrass Yu'er."

has already come for this, does the Lord Suzaku still have a choice?

"Don't worry, Lord Shenzi only slightly punished Bai Yuer and won't do anything to her." Jun Linglong said lightly.

She handed the Qilin Immortal Medicine to the Lord of Suzaku.

The Lord Suzaku received the elixir, his hands trembling slightly.

can live after all, who wants to die?

not to mention being the master of a country.

"Improve the cultivation base, this immortal medicine can not only heal your injury, it should also make you further, so that you are more useful to the son of God." Jun Linglong warned.

Hearing Jun Linglong's words, all the ministers were speechless.

Is this clearly using the Lord of Suzaku as a tool man?

"This emperor knows." The Lord Suzaku nodded. He did not have any dissatisfaction, but excitement appeared in his eyes.

Above the quasi-sage, is the saint.

Relying on this unicorn elixir, maybe he can really break through and stand up, breaking through to the realm of saints.

"Remember, this is the son of God, UU reading www.uukanshu.com bestows you a favor, if you dare to have a strange heart..." Jun Linglong's tone was extremely cold.

The radish and the stick method, she still uses the stove with perfection.

"That's natural. From now on, Lord Godson will be the real master of my ancient country of Suzaku." Lord Suzaku said respectfully.

Offended the son of the Jun family, it is tantamount to offending the Jun family.

Although their Suzaku ancient country is a first-class power, in front of the Jun family, it is only a slightly larger ant.

"Just understand." Jun Linglong and Granny Hua turned and left.

The ancient country of Vermilion Bird was completely surrendered to Jun Xiaoyao and became his vassal force.

When the time comes to tune into Bai Yuer, Jun Xiaoyao will be able to better control the ancient kingdom of Suzaku.

A few months passed, in the Palace of the Emperor of Heaven, Jun Xiaoyao got up, with a faint smile on his mouth.

"It's almost there, then Bai Yuer has been kneeling for a year, and it's time to tune him up."

At the same time, within the area of the Ancient Blue Dragon, a dragon and a chariot suddenly jumped into the sky and swept towards the Jun family.

The person in the chariot is surprisingly the prince of the ancient kingdom of Qinglong, Xiao Chen.

"That trick has been practiced, it's time to bring Yu'er back."

"There is also the son of the Jun family. If I challenge him and defeat him, I must be famous in the Tianxian realm. It is impossible for the Jun family to shame and make things difficult for me as a junior."

Xiao Chen's mouth provoked a confident smile.

If you can't enter the tiger's lair, you won't get a tiger.

Xiao Chen, alone, broke into the Jun's house single-handedly, with the saved beautiful woman in his arms, stepping on the Jun's * son, and his reputation is everywhere.

Aren't all the protagonists in the biographical novels like this?

When he thinks of that kind of scene, Xiao Chen feels his blood boils, and he can't wait.
