

310 Ally [1]

Just before Lucas could see it, the Feathered Serpent in her human form appeared before him with a violent, huge white feather in her hands. She shot it with the shadow barrier Lucas had, and a clash between the two forces occurred. Lucas's face wrinkled in frustration as he endured the force that was destroying his barrier. 1

He hissed, then moved back to disconnect from the force the Feathered Serpent was sending at him. However, she followed him, creating another huge impact on his barrier.

"You are really not interested, I can see that... But as both powerful beings, let us be rational, huh. Let's talk in a calm situation."

"Calm? Do you think I can still be calm about how arrogant you were? No! Stop underestimating my existence, human! I will end your life here and kill everyone in this world!"

"That's a big proclamation. Let us see if you can do that." Lucas chuckled, then stepped back from the barrier. He then continued by creating a light ball, huge as a fist, erased the barrier after he launched it in the direction where the Feathered Serpent was.

The Feathered Serpent's eyes widened as she saw a bright light and a violent one as well. She twisted her body as she jumped high, evading slowly toward her.

"How is this possible?" Lucas mumbled.

As the white flame became bigger, Lucas started

Lucas widened his eyes in surprise. Just as the Feathered Serpent launched that attack, Lucas had already dodged a few inches apart from the sharp killing intent covering her hands. A chaotic Qi was then seen in her hands.

'I still don't know how powerful she was, but I

"That was easy... Humans are indeed arrogant just because they can cultivate. They almost forgot that divine beasts are more powerful than them... What a fool."

The Feathered Serpent expanded her senses, trying to see through her white flames if Lucas was still alive, but she sensed no Lucas, which made her laugh as she turned her back.

appeared, and just a split a second later, white flames rushed down at her.

"T-This is my flames? How did he-!"

Lucas was still smiling as he pronounced, "Release!"

The vortex became wide and the Feathered Serpent greeted her own white flames that were now more violent and hostile against her. The white flames were also embedded with Lucas's also dodge it immediately as chaotic Qi was hijacking his Magique Qi that he was using to strengthen his limbs. He could only absorb it with his spatial affinity and then redirect it to different locations, which was beneficial because it also had a higher success rate.

Now, just as after redirecting the direction of the flames, he fully absorbed it and passed through the dimension he created with spatial affinity. Afterward, he used the gap that was created to fly and face where the Feathered Serpent was floating.

shadow prison, just around the Feathered Serpent.

"Fuck! Fuck! Fuck! I will kill you, human!"

Lucas chuckled as he watched the Feathered Serpent fall down, losing all of her energy from the unending strong force that he sent to her. And having no energy to get her balance back, she could only clench her teeth as she felt her body hit the ground. Lucas followed and landed before her.

'All of my attacks exhausted her... I guess the Qi that she put in those white flames to kill me was half of everything she got. She didn't underestimate me until the end... She knew how previous fair skin was now covered with dirt, and the fairy face she had was wrinkling as anger filled her whole system.

"I will kill you," she said, pressing each word as she proclaimed.

"No... that won't happen, since you will follow me."
