Their love had only gotten stronger , deeper , richer . So strong it made other people jealous just from watching . Blair pushed open the door . Honey , give me a hug ! " " Hug ? Forget the hug ! Something's happened ! The court just sent this - Tilda is suing you ! " " What did you just say ?! " Russell's gentle smile froze on his face . For a second , he thought he had heard wrongly .

But when he yanked the subpoena from Blair's hand and read it , his fists clenched so hard that the thick paper crumpled into a ball . " Damn that girl ! " That ungrateful daughter - how dare she sue me ! She actually wants me to apologize ?! If Tilda had no shame , Russell still had his pride . And if the news of the Jensions ' long - lost daughter of 19 years suing Russell got out , the family's reputation would be ruined . The Jensions would never be able to show their faces in Slosa society again . How dare she ! If it weren't for me , Tilda wouldn't even be alive .

This is the worst betrayal - she's biting the hand that fed her . " Honey , look again - check who's representing Tilda ! " It's Andy Saville , the famous lawyer from ND Law Firm in Jeselton ! " " What Even Russell had heard of Andy . He froze , then quickly uncrumpled the paper to check again . It was true Andy himself . " When did Tilda ever get connected to Andy ? How could she possibly convince him to take her case ? " Andy was a top lawyer , his schedule packed for years in advance You couldn't just fire him with money and power - you needed serious connections .

There was even a story about a Ing - shot chairman offering the man 100 million to handle his case . Andy rejected hum flat and told him to wait in line like everyone else At that moment , Russell and Blair finally realized that they didn't know this " biological daughter of theirs at all . Not even a linle

Meanwhile , at Orica University . Finished Even though Tilda had passed Shaun's brutal exam and didn't have to attend his class anymore , she still had other required and elective courses .

She had just finished one class and was heading to the cafeteria with Una when she overheard her classmates talking . " Wade took leave today . He didn't show up for classes . " " So the rumor yesterday must be true , huh ? That he suddenly collapsed ... " " Yeah , Clive found him first and rushed him to the infirmary . His family even came . " " Guess losing his glory to his sister was too much for Wade . He's always been so proud . " " But doesn't that make things awkward for Tilda in the Jensions ?

She just got brought back and doesn't have a bond with them yet , and now she crushed Wade too ... " " I saw Kyla at school today . A huge , muscle guy dropped her off . I'm pretty sure it was her brother , Howard . Didn't see Tilda anywhere , though . " Yesterday's cafeteria drama had already been buried .

With Howard and the Jensons putting heavy pressure on everyone , no student dared to mention it . So , the truth - that Tilda had already cut ties with the Jensons - never spread widely . " Hey , stop talking , Tilda's right here .

" As soon as someone spotted her , they ducked their head and hurried away . Tilda's eyes narrowed , sharp with mockery . " Pathetic excuse for a man . " Just because he lost once , Wade is falling apart , and everyone's talking about it . And this is supposed to be my brother ? The same brother who once pushed me so hard and drove me into depression , to the point of considering suicide ? The more she had admired him before , the more disgusted she felt now .
