Chapter 58 A Video Kyla hadn't expected Tilda to pull this card right now ! Russell went completely quiet . It was true . Back when he first found out the editor - in - chief and the others had lied and smeared Tilda , his first thought had been Kyla . Because when Tilda got slandered , pushed away from the Jensons , and even forced to leave , Kyla had suddenly become the only precious heiress of the Jensons . She was the one who would gain the most . Russell had said he would look into it , but he never really dug deep . He didn't want to burst the fragile bubble .

Because if the truth came out , if Kyla really had planned everything Russell didn't dare think about it . The daughter he had spoiled all her life , the one he loved most - what kind of person would that make her ? Maybe , just maybe , Russell had never seen Kyla's real face at all . " Heh , so you really didn't check , huh ? Russell , everything you say is just nonsense . And you still call yourself my father ? Don't kid yourself . " Tilda's mockery was cruel . She had already given up hope for him . In Russell's eyes , whatever Kyla did was always right .

Whatever Tilda did was always wrong . Every time something involved Kyla , Russell lost all judgment and blindly protected her . And countless times , just to shield Kyla , he had thrown Tilda under the bus and made her the scapegoat , leaving her to be cursed , hated , and hurt in every way . " I ... " Russell had no words . Tilda's sharp words had him trapped . The day she cut ties with the Jensons , Russell hadn't checked further . It was partly because he was angry at her and thought it was useless , and partly because he was scared of the truth he didn't want to face .

" Tilda , you think a few words are enough to blame Kyla ? To make us believe it's all her fault ? Where's your proof ? " " Without proof , all you have are guesses ! " Howard , with his military and legal training , immediately pointed out the gap in Tilda's words . " Tilda , I know you hate me . I've always known But listen . I'll leave the Jensons and stay far away , as long as you come home . Just don't hate me " I'm hurting so much , and I'm scared . I'd rather die than let you misunderstand me ! " Kyla cried until her voice broke . Every word was shredded by sobs .

Then the tears came in a flood - ugly , uncontrollable No one could stop her Watching her like that . Russell's heart ached . Any doubt he had smashed , replaced with raw love and concern

Tilda , I've been looking into this all along . I just needed more time . And I know without a doubt that Kyla had nothing to do . with it ! " Kyla is kind , pure , and sincere . She's the daughter we've raised since childhood . We know her heart better than anyone . " Don't think you can use these tricks to drive a wedge between us Jensons !

" Tilda's lips curved into a bitter , mocking smile . Of course . In the Jensons ' eyes , Kyla has always been the sweet , innocent one . Meanwhile , I'm the demon , the one who doesn't deserve to breathe or deserve to be a Jenson . If Russell really wanted to investigate , with his power , he could have found the truth long ago . The editor - in - chief hasn't even left Slosa - he's just taken a leave . One scare from Russell , and he would have cracked . Kyla can't make magic . She can't make him vanish . The truth is simple . Russell doesn't want to investigate .

Or worse , even if the truth pointed to Kyla , he'd make ten thousand excuses to convince himself it was false . He'd say it was my scheme , a setup , a trick to frame Kyla . In the end , it's always the same : It's my fault I'm not loved , and he'll always be biased toward the daughter he loves . My mistakes are real and punishable . But Kyla's mistakes ? He'd say it's made up or someone else's fault . Kyla isn't even blood , but in the Jensons ' hearts , she's the daughter they raised , their treasure , the little sister they adore , I'm the biological daughter but I was gone for 19 years .

Now that I'm back , I'm as close to them as a stranger is . I guess that means I'm destined to be trampled by the Jensons while Kyla gets cherished like a princess - pampered , loved , and spoiled . Tilda was left in the corner , watching the family warmth she could never have from a distance . Every glance cut her like a knife . " Russell , you can say whatever to help you sleep at night . " But there's one thing I can prove . You accused me , but I have proof . " Tilda flipped her phone . She hit play , and everyone gasped . It was a video It showed Kyla suddenly throwing herself at Tilda .

Tilda didn't even touch her - yet Kyla flew back like something invisible hit her spanning and crashing hard to the ground.
