Chapter 73 Get Ready Most people could only dream of being close friends with Andy , the undefeated top lawyer . Finished Alfie grinned and said meaningfully , " Looks like the girl Jude's after is no ordinary person . She's also got the same Omega - type as him ." The best part ? He had a front - row seat to all the drama ! He finally felt better . Playing cards with Maurice had been mind - numbing , and he kept losing . The whole night had been nothing but frustration . Now ? Watching Jude get jealous was way more entertaining .

It was a once - in - a - lifetime show - top lawyer Andy against CEO Jude . That was exciting ! " Get ready . We're going to Nightingale Bar . " Jude gave the command and walked straight out . " On it ! " Alfie trotted along behind eagerly . Maurice's mouth twitched . He wanted to kick Alfie straight in the backside . Alfie truly didn't know fear . He could see Jude was jealous , but he still dared to poke fun . He'd only realize the consequences when Jude finally lost his patience . 15 At Nightingale Bar , Wade couldn't take his eyes off Tilda .

Clive leaned over and whispered , " Wade , do you think she even knows we're here ? " From what he could tell , Tilda hadn't looked in their direction once . " She knows , " Wade muttered , bitterness in his voice . " She just doesn't care anymore ." He remembered the day Tilda first returned to Jenson Villa . She'd been so timid , her eyes filled with longing . She'd wanted to reach out , but she was too scared of breaking what little connection they had left . She had been so uneasy . And how did he respond ? By pouring all his attention on Kyla right in front of her .

He didn't even want to imagine how much it hurt Tilda that day . Back then , she cared so much . Now , she didn't even spare him a glance . She was too busy laughing and chatting with Andy . It meant that she had stopped caring . Clive said , " So that's the legendary Andy , huh ? I've only heard about him before . He's the top lawyer . Nobody in Cetherland's business world dares cross him . Finished " Even my family has to jump through hoops to meet him . And look at him - he's seriously good - looking , with this unique charm nobody else has .

No wonder people say he wins cases just because everyone in court gets distracted by his looks . " Tilda managed to be close to him so easily , and they seem to get along well . " Honestly , she's been hiding her real side . She's nothing like the lost , helpless person you described . " Clive was already putting it nicely . Wade had once described Tilda as useless , fragile , and not even close to Kyla's level . He never understood why Blair wanted Tilda back . They weren't even from the same world .

That would only stir up awkwardness in the family and end up upsetting Wade's favorite sister , Kyla . Clive used to think Wade was being too harsh , but he never said a word . He was tight with Kyla as well , so he leaned toward her side . And since Wade was his friend , he figured the family mess wasn't his business . He just went along . But now ? It felt like he'd been slapped across the face . His cheeks were burning . Weak and useless ? Tilda was stronger than anyone thought . Wade couldn't say a thing . For the first time , he realized he didn't truly know Tilda at all .

Or maybe he'd never even wanted to understand her or step into her world . All he ever cared about was forcing her out of Jenson Villa , making sure Kyla never found out Tilda's real identity so she wouldn't get hurt . He'd even wished Tilda would vanish forever . But now , she was showing skills that left him stunned . She was claiming to sue Russell - and she had Andy , the untouchable lawyer , backing her up . Tilda , how much about you have I missed ? Is it already too late for me to get to know you ? Just then , Andy caught Wade and Clive staring .

He smirked , his eyes shining with mischief . As Tilda's lawyer , he had already memorized the Jensons ' faces . On purpose , he said , " Tilda , about that case against Russell , we'll be getting results soon . # Finished " I'm pretty sure the Jensons will be finished . They'll lose their reputation and see their stock price crash . " What do you think ? If you still care about your family , there's still a way out . " His voice blended with the hum of the bar , but it was loud enough for Wade to catch every word . His chest tightened , heart racing out of control .

He wanted to hear her answer more than anything . But at the same time , he dreaded it .
