Chapter 74 Do You Have No Self - Respect What if Wade couldn't undo what Tilda would say ? As her brother , how was he supposed to face her after that ? 37 % 1 Finished " Unless Russell gets down on his knees and begs forgiveness from me and Una , I'll make sure he and the Jensons lose every shred of pride ! " Stocks crashing ? Perfect . Their family name in the mud ? Even better . She'd already cut all ties with them . None of that was her problem anymore . The only thing she ever asked for was an apology . Russell had twisted her words again and again , and he'd even hurt Una .

She had just wanted a simple sorry . After everything she'd gone through , that was all she wanted . 45 further . If Russell had apologized back then , she wouldn't have cared to deal with the Jensons any But instead , the Jensons clung to her like leeches , sucking away her happiness and freedom . Russell was nothing but a jerk , always dodging responsibility and covering up with excuses . He'd even sent Blair to stop Andy and showed up at Orica University to mess with Tilda . So , unless Russell got on his knees and apologized , Tilda wasn't budging . Andy let out a low whistle .

" Alright , I know what to do . " She said , " Here's the recording of Russell slandering me again at Orica University today , plus proof that Blair tried to bribe you at the airport . " This time , I'm gonna drag him through court ! " It wasn't enough to destroy Russell , but it was more than enough to throw the Jensons into chaos . Once people found out , their name would be ruined , and high society would laugh them out of the room . The damage would be massive . Andy smirked . Just imagining it already felt satisfying . Tilda had already sent him the clip .

" Alright , I've got it , " he said .

" If you need more , I've got plenty , Tilda replied . This time , she was ready to go all in against Russell . Andy chuckled . Tilda , this might be the easiest case I've ever taken on . You've already gathered all the evidence . I almost feel useless . " 37 % Finished " Having you here is more than enough . The Jensons are one of the top families in Slosa . Most lawyers wouldn't dare get involved . " Didn't you see their faces when you showed up ?

Russell came to find me at my university , and Blair begged you at the airport Just thinking about those two clowns almost made Tilda laugh out loud . Wade's expression turned dark as he listened . He couldn't sit still anymore . He stood up and headed toward her . " Wade , don't be reckless . Did you forget what you promised ? " Clive thought Tilda was way too harsh . No matter what , she was still a Jenson . She knew Wade was right there and still said those things just to sting . Expecting Russell to get on his knees and apologize ? That was impossible .

INS The only real outcome was a lawsuit , their family name in shreds , and the Jensons becoming the biggest joke in Slosa . And that was exactly what Tilda wanted . So , Clive wasn't surprised Wade wanted to confront her . " I remember . Relax , I'm calm ." The old Wade would've blown up and fought her on the spot . But this time was different . When Wade walked up , Tilda still acted like he didn't exist . She sipped her wine , chatting casually with Andy and smiling like she had no worries . Suddenly , Wade froze . He'd never paid attention to the way Tilda drank before .

The wine had put a soft blush on her cheeks . Under the candlelight , her eyes shimmered like stars . She only gave that look to people she truly trusted . Back then , Wade had seen it as well . " Tilda . " He steadied himself and spoke . His tone was calm . No matter how much he regretted what had already happened , it was useless now . What counted was what he did now . Tilda acted like she hadn't even heard him , still treating him like thin air . Seeing that , Wade pressed on . " Tilda , I need to talk to you .

" Finished Finally , she turned , like she was granting him a favor . She shot him a mocking sneer . " Do you have no self- respect ? " " ... What ? " " You fainted when I broke your record . You embarrassed yourself in front of me and still don't get the hint . I don't want anything to do with you . Yet here you are , chasing after me again . " So tell me was I wrong when I said you've got no dignity ? Andy , don't you agree ? " Tilda twirled her glass lazily , her eyes never leaving Andy , like Wade wasn't even there .
