Chapter 76 They Have No Right Even though he couldn't undo the past , Wade still wanted to fix a few things . Especially the lawsuit with the Jenson . Being a Jenson , he couldn't just sit there after hearing what Tilda and Andy had said . Suddenly , Tilda stood up , holding her wine glass . Wade thought maybe she'd softened and wanted to settle things . He looked excited . " Tilda- " But before he could speak , she splashed the drink straight onto his face . The whole bar went silent . Tilda's table was already in the spotlight , while the one who went to her was Wade .

Finished Everyone knew Wade as a regular at Nightingale Bar and the owner's brother's best buddy . But he'd just had a drink thrown right in his face . Holy crap . That was a huge scene ! Wade didn't see it coming . He just froze , staring at her . Cold liquid ran down his face , soaking his clothes . Humiliating stains spread over his shirt . Andy whistled , clearly impressed by Tilda , Now that was the Tilda he knew - the queen of the dark web ! " Tsk , if I'd been in heels tonight , I'd have dumped the entire drink on your head . That would've been way more fun .

" Tilda clicked her tongue . What a pity . She couldn't go all the way and had to settle for just splashing the drink on Wade's face . The height difference meant she couldn't dump the whole glass on him . " Tilda , are you insane ?! " Clive finally snapped , glaring at her . " You two are the crazy ones . Think I care about what you have to say ? What a joke ! " Security ! Someone is harassing me ! Come over here ! " Tilda called out to the bar's security . Nightingale Bar didn't disappoint . The moment she yelled , the staff rushed over .

But when they saw Wade and Clive , they hesitated , unsure what to do . " Tilda , stop playing the victim ! You're the one who threw the drink ! Do you even realize how humiliating that is for him ? " Clive was fuming . " Humiliating ? Please . He knows exactly what he's doing . We're done with each other , but he keeps coming after me ! " I treat him like he doesn't exist , yet he keeps calling my name . It's gross ! " If that isn't harassment , what is ? Wade , you're just shameless and pathetic .

Don't expect me to get along with you ! " Tilda didn't hold back , her words cutting deep . Still , it barely scratched the surface . This kind of humiliation and revenge was barely satisfying . It didn't compare to everything Wade put her through in just 15 days . Who knew how much courage it had taken to chop off her beloved long hair ? How painful that decision had been ! Tilda still remembered her trembling hands and broken heart as she held the scissors . At that time , Wade had said , " I hate long hair . You're ugly . Get lost ." So , she cut her hair just to please him .

But then , Wade turned and gently stroked Kyla's long hair right in front of Tilda , looking all tender and loving . " Kyla , your long hair is amazing . Unlike that ugly freak who tries to copy it , you're the most beautiful . " Tilda didn't need a mirror to know how pale and crushed she looked . It felt like her heart was in a vice . She felt it was hard to breathe . Still , she forced a smile and said , " Kyla's hair is indeed beautiful ." How cruel was that ? Not to mention all the times she tried to be close to him . He'd ignore her , freeze her out , make her cry .

All of that happened in just 15 days . But in her previous life , Wade's cruelty lasted five years . Day after day , coldness piled up . Nobody could imagine what she endured . Compared to her suffering , Wade's current feelings were nothing . He wanted to compare pain to hers ? The Jensions had no right . None of them deserved it . Andy watched , his green eyes full of amusement . He'd worried Tilda might go easy on Russell or feel guilty about her family . Even if she talked tough , maybe she'd hesitate if things got messy .

But now , he realized he'd been overthinking . Tilda was deadly serious . The Jensions had made her furious . She wasn't going to give them another chance or any mercy . Andy could finally act and get justice for her . Clive was shaking with anger . Right now , only one thought ran through his mind .
