Chapter 77 Apologizing Doesn't Fix Everything " Wade , that's enough . Let's go . Stop wasting time with a wicked woman like her ! " Serves her right ! No wonder the Jensons never liked her , never trusted her , and never wanted her around ! Cutting ties with the Jensons ? They're itching to throw her out anyway ! With the way Tilda acted , it was easy to pin every bad thing on her . Even if Clive hadn't been a Jenson , he could still see the difference between her and Kyla . So what if Tilda had some tricks up her sleeve ? She was rotten inside , and her heart was filthy .

How could she compare with Kyla , who was sweet , gentle , and innocent ? Tilda wasn't even close . And if it was about ability , every single Jenson outshone her . Yet she strutted around like the Jensons owed her . It was disgusting . " Uh ... Mr. Wade , please don't make this harder on us ." The staff had seen everything just now . Maurice had already told them to keep an eye on that woman . Wade was the one who went up to Tilda first , pestering her . The cameras had caught everything . Tilda wanted nothing to do with him and even asked for security .

She was making it crystal clear that she was done with him , giving him zero respect . If Wade kept pushing , things could get ugly . The rest of the crowd just watched , sipping their drinks . Their eyes were full of mockery , amusement , sarcasm , and curiosity . Of course , they enjoyed the drama , but none of them said a word . After all , Wade was the seventh son of the Jensons . Finished Who dared laugh at him ? If he remembered their faces and had his family come after them , they wouldn't survive in Slosa . " Tilda , do you have to treat me like this ?

" I've reflected on how I treated you before , and I even apologized . Isn't that enough ? " What more do you want ? Nobody has ever dared to humiliate me like this - throwing water in my face in public . " The only reason I'm holding back and still speaking calmly is because you're my sister ! My real blood sister ! I'm giving you a chance ! " Wade gritted his teeth . Nobody knew how close he was to snapping . He almost slapped her across the face . The only reason he held back was guilt .

a But that guilt was fading , and anger was taking its place . Tilda nearly laughed . Tsk , tsk . Look at him - acting all righteous and wronged . Putting on that fake " big brother being patient " act ... What a joke . Who's he fooling ? Blair and Russell truly passed down their arrogance . All seven sons were the same - self - centered trash . Wade made it sound like apologizing was some huge gift to her . It was like admitting her as a Jenson was some divine blessing . He was no different from Blair back at the airport . Just watching this scene made Tilda want to curse him out .

3 4 H & 25 " If apologizing fixed everything , why would cops exist ? Do you want forgiveness ? Fine . Here's the deal . " Wherever I go , none of you Jensons are allowed to show up . The air I breathe ? Off limits to you as well ! " Stop acting like being your family is some big honor . " You guys are nothing but leeches . Even if it costs me every drop of blood , I don't want to be your family ! " Just thinking about being tied to the Jensons made her sick . She once thought she could just ignore them . They already hated her and wanted her gone .

She figured she could finally live free , happy , and bright . It was at least way better than her previous life. But no - the Jensons couldn't leave her alone . Even when she cut them off , they still clung like snot . If she didn't curse them out , they'd never get it ! Wade's nails dug into his palms . He used the sting of pain to keep control . He didn't explode , didn't insult her in public , and didn't hit her . He only glared at her , his eyes full of hate . Then , he turned and walked away . " Tilda , you're too much !

" Wade truly regrets how he treated you . He came here to apologize and make peace ! " He's finally accepted you as his sister , and how do you repay him ? 37 % Finished " You spit nasty words and reject him ! Are you even human ? Do you have a conscience ? Won't your heart hurt ? " Clive jumped in , backing Wade up . Tilda looked straight at him and sneered , pure contempt written across her face .
