Chapter 99 One Week Break The video was crystal clear . It showed Russell storming right up to Tilda and Unn , then flipping over their food , You could see everything clearly , It was undeniable and irrefutable proof . Rose suddenly felt like a clown . She stared at the two clips , speechless . Weren't the videos supposed to be completely destroyed ? Finished Rose had stayed up all night , preparing all kinds of documents and evidence , ready to throw everything she had at Andy . No wonder Andy hadn't taken this case seriously . With evidence like that , Rose wouldn't either !

Rose glanced at Dominic , and for a moment , she saw a rare expression of panic on his face . He quickly made a hand gesture at her . Rose snapped back to her senses . " Your Honor , I request to verify the authenticity of these two videos ! " Judging by Russell and Dominic's attitudes , that video clearly caught them off guard . Rose was close with Dominic and also knew the strength of the Jenson Group . There There was no way they'd make up such a sloppy lie to fool her . The judge turned to Andy . " Of course . " When the results came back , the videos were confirmed to be genuine .

No edits , no Photoshop , no tampering at all . Russell's face instantly turned pale . " Your Honor , if these two videos aren't enough , my client has plenty more evidence to present- Andy was ready to pull out more proof . Rose immediately interrupted , " Your Honor , I request that this case be re - examined on a later date ! Please give us more time ! " " Ms. Romano , with the evidence right in front of us , I don't think that's necessary , " the judge said with a EACH slight cough .

The main reason was , Andy's video evidence was too convincing . Finished But with Rose's persistent arguments , and with Tilda's side remaining silent , the judge decided to take a one - week break and hold a second trial . It was a very small case , but because of the status of the people involved , the nature of the case had completely changed . The judge didn't dare to make a hasty decision , so he took a week to give himself and the Jensons a break . After the court was dismissed , Andy and Tilda walked out looking completely at ease . Tilda !

" Russell chased after them , his face dark . " How did you get those two videos ? " Russell trusted Howard's abilities . Besides , Howard had someone delete the surveillance video right away . Even if one of the student's videos had been missed , it wouldn't have been a fatal problem . The most fatal thing was the surveillance video , which was filmed with shocking clarity from beginning to end ! Russell never imagined in his wildest dreams that a video like that would end up in Tilda's hands .

In such a short amount of time , Tilda had been with Russell the whole time and hadn't left the cafeteria . So how did she get that video ? " If you don't want anyone to know , don't do it . What's wrong , Mr. Jenson ? Did you think deleting the footage meant you had the win in the bag and everything would be flawless ? " You look like a ridiculous , pathetic clown right now . " Tilda looked at him with contempt .

She stood tall and mercilessly trampled the man in front of her , her so- called biological father .
Watching Russell's expression change again and again was deeply satisfying .

" And ... Mr. Jenson , do you think this is over ? " I'm only giving you a chance to breathe so I can torment you even more . " The price you have to pay has just begun ! " " What do you mean ? " " With Andy's skills and evidence this solid , do you really think your lawyer can drag this on until the next trial and buy you time to breathe ? " With that , she left with Andy . Russell stood frozen , his mind racing with dread . His face was pale , and his brain was buzzing . He couldn't hear the sounds around him .

Cold sweat broke out all over his body , instantly drenching his clothes . This feeling.... He couldn't even remember the last time he'd felt it . And now , he was feeling it because of his own biological daughter .
" Dad ! " " Mr. Jenson ! " Rose and Dominic came to his side . Russell bit his tongue to collect himself . " Let's go back ... " They were blindsided . All their preparations had been for nothing . If they couldn't come up with a better plan ... But ... Tilda had already cut off every escape route he had . Was there still a better option ? " Let's take the back exit .

I already called the driver to pick us up there . " To be safe , Dominic decisively pulled Russell toward the courthouse's back door . But it was too late .
