Chapter 1021: Evaluation (3)

Apparently, this association was founded by a large group of big shots. In fact, it was rumored that Xunyu Natural Science Research Association's core members were also the core members of the eight most powerful and rich families in the world.

This was why Lucy joined the Xunyu Natural Science Research Association.

"Mhmm," Jian Yiling replied. She heard this from Feng Wei. Other than providing equipment and research materials, the Xunyu Natural Science Research Association could also provide connections, money, and power.

However, Rank E members could only accept tasks from the tablet. They could not access any core matters in the association.

To get access to these matters, one had to be at least Rank C. Furthermore, in order to get into contact with the core members of the association, one had to be Rank A.

Lucy reminded Jian Yiling: "Although the Xunyu Natural Science Research Association does not impose any restrictions and requirements on their members, there are still rules. You must familiarize yourself with these rules. Don't do anything that goes against the association's rules and regulations."

However, Jian Yiling ignored Lucy.

The look on Jian Yiling's face annoyed Lucy.

Lucy hated being ignored. Her arrogance and pride in front of people could not conceal her deeply-seated inferiority complex.

"Jian Yiling, in terms of experience, I'm your senior. Isn't it a bit too much for you to ignore me like this?"

"I never knew that the Xunyu Natural Science Research Association based seniority by time," Qin Chuan commented.

Xunyu Natural Science Research Association judged things by the rank of their members. There was no such thing as caring about the order of arrival.

When Lucy heard this, she looked at Qin Chuan: "Why are you so nervous? I merely said a few words to her. Why do you need to be so protective?"

"That's because, in the past, she has helped me more than once. Furthermore, I still owe her. Isn't it natural to defend her?"

"Surely, that's not the only reason right?"

Yu Xing smiled and said: "Although the Xunyu Natural Science Research Association will not interfere with the personal relationship between its members, we still hope that you can get along as much as possible. After all, there's the possibility of you guys collaborating in the future."

However, Jian Yiling did not even bother to listen to their conversation. Her eyes were focused on the tablet screen.

After a while, she pointed to a task on the tablet and asked Yu Xing: "Can I accept this task right now?"

Yu Xing asked Jian Yiling in surprise: "Do you want to accept this task right away?"

"Can't I?"

"No, no, you can. However, do you have enough time? This task is rather time-consuming and labor-intensive. Will Lahaisen Hospital be okay with you doing this?"

"It's alright. They won't fire me," Jian Yiling replied.

Won't fire her?

Where did she get this confidence from?

Yu Xing was merely reminding Jian Yiling. However, when she heard Jian Yiling's response, she replied: "Okay then. I trust that you can arrange your own time."

However, Qin Chuan attempted to persuade Jian Yiling: "Are you sure about this? Do you want to start with an easy task instead? This task's difficulty level is ranked max. Furthermore, it's very time-consuming and laborious. The possibility of failure is also very high."

Qin Chuan was worried about Jian Yiling's health.

From the time she was treating his mother, he already knew that her health was not that great.

"I'm accepting this task."

Although Jian Yiling's voice was still soft and sweet like cotton candy, her tone was firm.

She wanted to rank up as soon as possible to get in touch with the core members of the Xunyu Natural Science Research Association

Qin Chuan frowned before he said: "Then please take care of your own body. Use your time reasonably and please do not work yourself too hard."

Qin Chuan did not know the reason why Jian Yiling insisted on doing this. However, he knew that once she decided on something, she would not change her mind easily.

Chapter 1022: Cousin Wen Zhe

As Jian Yiling finished her assessment, she was about to leave. However, when she walked out of the laboratory door, a 'human-sized bomb' came flying at her.

"Older sister!"

A soft ball jumped at Jian Yiling and hugged her. This soft ball also called Jian Yiling his older sister.

This sudden hug scared Jian Yiling.

She wanted to push the boy away. However, as the boy hugging her was still a child, she was afraid that if she pushed him too hard, she would hurt him.

"Who... Are you?" Jian Yiling asked as she looked at the boy hugging her.

The boy's facial features were delicate and exquisite. He had grape-sized eyes that were glimmering and incredibly fair skin.

At this current moment, he was tilting his head and grinning at Jian Yiling. This showed off his baby teeth.

"Older sister, I'm your younger brother!" the boy cried out as he hugged Jian Yiling. He refused to let her go.

"Younger brother?"

"Yeah, I'm your younger brother! Did you forget about me? I'm Wen Zhe! Is it because I've grown taller so you don't recognize me?"

Wen Zhe!

The son of the Third House in the Wen family!

Out of Jian Yiling's siblings and cousins, he was the only one younger than her.

If Jian Yiling remembered correctly, this year, Wen Zhe was nine years old.

Jian Yiling had seen him three years ago.

However, Wen Zhe had an incredible memory. He clearly remembered everything from when he was six years old.

"Why are you..."

"Sister you must not forget me!" Wen Zhe cried out when he noticed Jian Yiling pause. Did his older sister forget about him already?

"No no, I remember you," Jian Yiling responded.

"Waaa, you scared me to death. I thought you had forgotten me! I'm so cute, you must not forget about me!"

As everyone typically loved Wen Zhe, he was worried that his charm had disappeared.

"Why are you here?" Jian Yiling asked.

"Well, Brother Wen Yan called me! Brother Wen Yan said that he will be recovering on an island for quite some time. He won't be in Beijing for a bit! Therefore, he gave me a task! He wanted me to protect you! And so, I'm here~ Don't worry, I will help you! I promise that you'll finish this task! From today onwards, I will always be by your side. I will not let others bully you!"

At this moment, Yu Xing walked out of the laboratory. When she saw Wen Zhe, she smiled and asked: "Little Zhezhe, why are you here?"

"I came to see my sister!" Wen Zhe said as he held up Jian Yiling's hand. Then, he introduced Jian Yiling to Yu Xing: "Sister Yu, this person is my cousin! My father's sister is Yiling's mother! In the future, please take good care of her!"

"Oh, she's your sister? Wow. Your family's genetics are amazing. You're all geniuses," Yu Xing said with a smile.

"You guys... Know each other?" Jian Yiling asked.

"Sister, I'm also a member of Xunyu!" Wen Zhe said with pride. "I'm Rank C!"

And he was Rank C?!

When she heard this, Lucy's face became even more unsightly.

Wen Zhe was a genius. He had shown amazing talent in physics since he was young.

Two years ago, when he was only seven years old, he passed the assessment of the Xunyu Natural Science Research Association and became a member.

Although he was only Rank E when he joined, it only took him two years to advance to Rank C.

"Sister, don't worry! I will protect you! I won't let anyone bully you!" Wen Zhe assured Jian Yiling as he patted his chest.

Chapter 1023: Talkative Little Genius

After he said this, Wen Zhe warily looked at Qin Chuan and Lucy.

"You two should stay away from my sister in the future," Wen Zhe said to them.

He had done his homework before he came. He already divided the people around his sister into four different categories.

They were:

Can talk to them but not get close to them
Those who she's willing to handshake
Those who are annoying to talk to
Those who are too annoying to even see

In his categorization, Qin Chuan and Lucy belonged to the fourth category. His sister did not even want to look at them!

"Who are you to order me?" Lucy asked.

"Don't talk to me! You're Rank E. You're way too weak. I'm afraid that if I speak to you, you won't be able to understand me!"

Then, Wen Zhe pointed at Qin Chuan: "And you! Don't look at my sister with those eyes! It's not good to do that! My sister comes from a good family! She's different from the succubus-like woman standing next to you! She's engaged to someone right now! Therefore, she wouldn't be interested in you! So stop looking at her! Don't make others misunderstand the situation!"

The number of words Wen Zhe said in that mouthful was roughly the number of words Jian Yiling would typically say in a whole day.

After he called out Lucy and Qin Chuan, Wen Zhe came back to hold Jian Yiling's hand: "Sister Yiling, let's go home! I will make yummy food for you!"

As Jian Yiling had finished everything she set out to do, she let the young boy pull her away from everyone.

Wen Zhe followed Jian Yiling back to her apartment.

He asked people to bring his luggage.

From the moment he received the call from Wen Yan, he had already begun packing his luggage.

"From today onwards, I will stay here! I can be your twenty-four-hour bodyguard!"

"There's no need. There's already a lot of bodyguards here," Jian Yiling replied. She did not think that this was a good idea.

She didn't dislike her cousin... However, living together was a bit...

"No no. Brother Wen Yan gave me this task! I must accomplish it! Furthermore, your other bodyguards are different from me! I'm better than them!"

Wen Zhe flopped down on the sofa in the living room before he started to look around.

After he familiarized himself with the surroundings, Wen Zhe entered the kitchen and began making desserts.

The little boy who was even shorter than Jian Yiling worked in the kitchen with style.

Not long after, Wen Zhe took out a plate of hot and fragrant egg tarts from the oven. The egg tarts were golden, crispy, sweet, and tempting.

"Sister, please try this! As I know you like to eat desserts, I attended a two-week dessert class last year! Please try the egg tart! If you have something else you want to eat, you can tell me! I will learn how to make it!"

Jian Yiling took a bite of the egg tart made by Wen Zhe. It was rather delicious and it could be comparable to those sold outside.

"Yummy," Jian Yiling commented truthfully.

"Hehehehe, see! I told you I'm better than your bodyguards!" Wen Zhe grinned. His eyebrows were arched and the smile on his face was cute and playful.

Then, Wen Zhe began to count on his fingers: "I know how to make desserts, I know how to clean, and I know taekwondo! Oh! I also know a lot about physics! I'm reading about the theory of relativity!"

"But..." Jian Yiling hesitantly said as she looked at Wen Zhe's cute face.

When he noticed Jian Yiling's hesitation, Wen Zhe's face sunk. He asked: "Sister, do you not like Little Zhezhe? Am I not good enough?"

"No..." Jian Yiling said. She was not good at refusing people, especially if she was faced with such a cute-looking child.

Chapter 1024: Future Brother-in-Law, My Name is Wen Zhe

"Sister, please don't dislike Little Zhezhe," Wen Zhe cried out as he fluttered his eyes at Jian Yiling.

Jian Yiling did not know how to deal with this little boy.

And thus, she replied: "Wait for A Sheng to come back. He will make the decision."

"Okay!" Wen Zhe happily said with a smile on his face.

When Zhai Yunsheng came home in the evening, he saw Wen Zhe sitting in the living room of his apartment.

The little boy was wearing a mini-suit.

"Hello, my future brother-in-law. My name is Wen Zhe. I'm the cousin of your beautiful, lovely, noble, gentle, and intelligent fiancée."

When Zhai Yunsheng was still confused, Wen Zhe took the initiative to greet him. He stretched out his hand to shake hands with Zhai Yunsheng.

As he heard the words 'future brother-in-law', Zhai Yunsheng decided to shake hands with this little boy.

After this, Wen Zhe took out a piece of paper with words written all over it.

"Future brother-in-law, from now onwards, until you get married to my sister, please oblige to the following rules. Please read this paper."

Following rules?

Zhai Yunsheng glanced at the piece of paper:

Household chores must be done by the housekeeper. If the housekeeper is not present, the man will do the chores. Under any circumstances, the man can not be alone with another woman. The man must not lay their eyes on a woman for more than three seconds (excluding relatives) If the man must attend social events, if any woman is present, drinking alcohol is prohibited;

...

In total, there were roughly twenty-something lines.

When Zhai Yunsheng saw this, he smiled and asked: "Are you requesting this of me?"

"Yep. As my future brother-in-law, you must meet these conditions. My sister is very important and precious. If you don't want her, there will be plenty of people vying for her! In fact, there would be an entire line waiting! Just today, I saw a good-looking man staring at my sister!"

"Is there anything else?"

"Nope. I've considered everything. Would there be anything else that you would do to my sister?"

"Nope."

"That's good. As long as you're a good man, I am willing to marry my sister to you."

"Oh?" His response was quite different from Jian Yiling's other brothers and cousins.

"I mean, girls always end up marrying. And thus, I would rather her marry a good man instead of a bad man. I want someone who will love my sister and protect her. If she marries a good person, then I will have no complaints."

Even though Wen Zhe was a small boy, he had a lot of thoughts in his mind.

He had his opinions on certain matters.

Wen Zhe suddenly thought of something else: "However, after you marry my sister, if you're having children, you guys must have a little girl! I want a cute niece!"

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng laughed.

At this moment, Jian Yiling left her room. She saw Zhai Yunsheng and was about to ask whether or not Wen Zhe was going to stay here.

However, Wen Zhe quickly said to Jian Yiling: "My future brother-in-law said yes!"

He said yes?

Jian Yiling raised her head to look at Zhai Yunsheng.

Zhai Yunsheng smiled before he replied: "I mean, what is there not to say yes to?"

After all, the things listed on the piece of paper were nothing out of the ordinary. It was normal for him to agree.

"Then I want to sleep in the room next to my sister's!"

Wen Zhe happily pushed his suitcase and ran into the room next to Jian Yiling's.

Zhai Yunsheng froze before he asked Jian Yiling: "He plans to live here?"

"Didn't you say yes to that?"

"I didn't say that he could live here."

"Then what did you say yes to?"

Chapter 1025: Helping His Sister Rank Up

At this moment, Zhai Yunsheng realized that he got played by the little boy.

Wen Zhe poked his head out of the room and winked at Zhai Yunsheng: "Future brother-in-law, you promised me! As a man, you must live up to your words! You can't go back on your word!"

After saying this, Wen Zhe shut the door of his room and walked over to the bed to sit down on it.

Then, he took out his phone and called Wen Yan to report the situation to him.

“Brother Wen Yan, I’m staying with Sister Yiling. I will look after her and ensure that she won’t starve or freeze! Furthermore, I will protect her from people who have bad intentions. I will not let those individuals approach her.”

“Thank you,” Wen Yan responded in a low voice.

Although his voice did not change, there was much more liveliness in it.

It was no longer deadly dull.

Just by listening to his voice, one could tell changes had happened in Wen Yan’s life.

“No no, don’t thank me. Even if you don’t ask me to do this, I would still come over to protect Sister Yiling. Sister Yiling was very nice to me. I remember this.”

Wen Zhe’s fair hands held his phone and a playful smile appeared on his face: “Brother Wen Yan, just get well soon! Once you get well, I will go running with you! In fact, let’s go mountain climbing, cycling, and skateboarding!”

“Mhmm. Thank you Little Zhezhe.”

After ending the call with Wen Yan, Wen Zhe took out his Xunyu tablet from his suitcase.

He rolled over and started tapping away on the tablet.

There were many tasks to be accepted. In addition, a lot of information was provided on those tasks.

Wen Zhe looked for the task Jian Yiling accepted. Then, he decisively clicked the button to participate in the task as well.

He was not going to let his sister work by herself! He was going to help her finish this task! His sister would be able to do less work!

If they finished this task quickly, they could accept other tasks. Then, he could help his sister rank up further.

That succubus-like woman was Rank E. Therefore, his sister definitely needed to be higher than just Rank D!

###

In the evening, Wen Zhe brought over his hand-made egg tarts to Jian Yiheng and Jian Yichen who lived in the opposite apartment.

“Hello, brothers! My name is Wen Zhe. I’m Yiling’s cousin. You guys can call me Little Zhezhe. I made these egg tarts. I hope you like it!”

Aww, this kid was adorable!

Jian Yichen picked up an egg tart and took a bite out of it. The egg tart was delicious.

“Did you really make this?”

“Yep!”

“You know how to make desserts from such a young age?”

“Mhmm! It’s because Sister Yiling likes desserts!”

Jian Yiheng also took a bite from an egg tart. It was indeed quite yummy. Although his cooking was not as good as Jian Yiling’s, for a young boy, it was already incredible.

Naturally, he enjoyed the one made by Jian Yiling more. The taste of her cooking was something you couldn’t get elsewhere.

Wen Zhe smiled at Jian Yiheng and Jian Yichen: “Brothers, I will be temporarily living with Sister Yiling! We will be neighbors from now on! Please take care of me!”

Then, Wen Zhe took a look at Zhai Yunsheng’s apartment door before he quietly whispered to Jian Yiheng and Jian Yichen: “Let’s protect Sister Yiling together!”

Although his surname was Wen and their surname was Jian, when they faced the Zhai family, they would be united.

“Understood!” Jian Yichen replied. He instantly reached a consensus with Wen Zhe.

Chapter 1026: Little Genius Helps Jian Yiling (1)

At night, Wen Zhe ran into Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng’s study. He had a little pillow in his arms.

“Sister Yiling, future brother-in-law, it’s already really late. Why are you guys still working?”

Wen Zhe glanced at Jian Yiling’s computer and noticed a pile of complex symbols on the screen.

“Sister, my mother told me that you must sleep before ten o’clock. If you don’t sleep before then, you will become dumb. It’s almost ten o’clock. You should go and sleep! My mother’s words are definitely right. Just look at me! I’m very smart. Sufficient sleep plays a part in my intelligence! It enhances one’s memory.”

Wen Zhe was here to urge Jian Yiling to go to sleep.

“It’s alright,” Jian Yiling replied. She was used to sleeping late and waking up early.

“No no... It’s not alright. You should sleep early,” Wen Zhe pouted as he gently shook Jian Yiling’s arm.

Jian Yiling hadn’t encountered this situation before.

It was the first time someone was pouting to her.

Wen Zhe’s cheeks were puffy and he seemed slightly upset.

In fact, it seemed as though if Jian Yiling did not agree to sleep early, he would cry out on the spot.

Wen Zhe was a very good-looking child. He had red lips and pearly white teeth. When anyone looked into his big eyes, they felt bad for rejecting him.

Wen Zhe continued to pout: "Sister, I will help you sleep! I will tell you some bedtime stories. I know heaps of bedtime stories. In the fast, my mother told me those stories. I can even recite them now!"

Jian Yiling looked into Wen Zhe's eyes. She didn't want to say no.

Jian Yiling thought over this for a moment. Then, she decided to leave Zhai Yunsheng behind and followed Wen Zhe out of the study room.

"Sister, let's go to your room. I will tell you bedtime stories."

"No need," Jian Yiling replied softly.

She wasn't very good at dealing with children. As a result, she was worried that her words might hurt him.

"Why not? If I fall asleep first, you would definitely get up to do work again. Therefore, I want to watch you fall asleep first!"

The little boy was very insistent.

"But I want to wait for A Sheng."

"Why do you want to wait for my future brother-in-law?"

"I want to have a baby with him," Jian Yiling replied.

"Huh?" Wen Zhe said. He was a little surprised by Jian Yiling's answer. "Although I want to have a niece, you're still very young. You can wait for another two years. We're not in a hurry."

"But I want a baby right now."

"But... My mother told me that it's really painful to give birth to babies... She told me that she almost gave up when she was giving birth to me."

"I'm not afraid of pain," Jian Yiling replied confidently.

"But... My mother also said that if a woman is willing to have a baby with a man, it means that she loves him very much. She must love him a lot to be willing to suffer for him."

"Is that so?" Jian Yiling responded. She wasn't sure about this. Did she want to have a baby with Zhai Yunsheng because she 'loved' him?

"Sister, you like my future brother-in-law right?" Wen Zhe asked with a frown.

"I think so."

"Do you really want to have a baby with my future brother-in-law? You guys aren't married yet."

"That doesn't matter," Jian Yiling replied. She didn't care about marriages and weddings. She cared about life more.

Jian Yiling's response made Wen Zhe fret a bit.

Previously, he listed Zhai Yunsheng in Category 1. Those that his sister could talk to but not get close to. He didn't want Zhai Yunsheng to get too close to his sister.

However, it seemed as though his sister wanted to sleep with his future brother-in-law.

If he tried to stop her, his sister would not be happy.

If he made his sister unhappy, he was causing her more trouble.

After thinking about this for a while, Wen Zhe announced:

"Okay! Let me help you then!"

Chapter 1027: Little Genius Helps Jian Yiling (2)

"Do you know how to?" Jian Yiling asked.

"Well, I've seen it on TV!" Wen Zhe replied as he stroked his little chin. Then, he explained to Jian Yiling in a serious tone: "To be honest, I don't enjoy watching those dramas. However, my mother likes to watch them. She always pulls me beside her to watch the dramas with her. And then, I have to watch her wipe her tears away with tissues. Sigh... Women..."

The last sigh made Wen Zhe seem like a seventy or eighty year old man.

Wen Zhe continued to mutter: "I like reading books more. However, my mother said that I'm already smart enough. If I read more books, I will become dumb. Therefore, she always tells me to watch dramas. Apparently, watching dramas helps one to keep up with the times. And thus, I watched heaps of dramas with her. For example, some were titled, <My Mother-in-Law>, <Mute Wife>, <Life After Marriage>. I watched all of them... I even watched some very unrealistic idol dramas such as <I Have A Date With Fashion>, <It Was A Mistake To Fall In Love With You>, and <Destined To Love Each Other>..."

Wen Zhe began to count dramas on his fingers to illustrate the number of romance dramas he had watched with his mother over the years.

He was showing off his 'rich experience'.

"That's amazing," Jian Yiling commented.

"Hehehe, so don't worry! If you want to sleep with my future brother-in-law, leave the planning to me!" Wen Zhe said as he patted his own chest to assure Jian Yiling.

Then, Wen Zhe took out a pen and a piece of paper. He began to make notes on it to analyze the situation.

Pick the right time;

Weekdays were not suitable as typically, one would be tired after work. This meant that weekend evenings were the best time.

<ol start="2">

Pick the right location;

Hotels were too casual. Travel locations were more romantic. Being at home was safer.

<ol start="3">

Ensure that no one else would disturb you.

The two brothers living in the opposite apartment had to be distracted. Furthermore, work matters had to be arranged in advance and mobile phones had to be turned off.

<ol start="4">

Ensure that his future brother-in-law would be unable to escape.

As he wrote this, Wen Zhe began to bite on his pen. This was a bit challenging. He had to think about this.

Jian Yiling glanced at Wen Zhe's notes.

She asked: "Why do we need to make work arrangements in advance? And why do we need to turn off our phones?"

Wen Zhe replied: "According to my experience of watching movies and dramas, during these times, someone will always come barging in. Furthermore, if the couple is kissing and making out when the phone rings, they will be disrupted."

Wen Zhe had already forgotten that he claimed to be in an 'alliance' with Jian Yiheng and Jian Yichen.

Now, he had shifted over to help Jian Yiling instead.

Upon hearing this, Jian Yiling said: "Oh, that makes sense."

"See, I'm right," Wen Zhe said. Then, he muttered: "But this point is tricky. How do I make my future brother-in-law not escape? On TV, they often use alcohol to make the man drunk."

"A Sheng can't drink alcohol."

"Sometimes, they use drugs as well. However, I have nowhere to buy those drugs... How inconvenient..."

"He shouldn't eat random drugs either."

"And the use of tonics and stuff. They mentioned deer blood and stuff. If girls consume that, they can have a baby." Then, Wen Zhe paused for a moment. "Speaking of which, how exactly do you get a baby? Why is deer blood helpful?"

Wen Zhe only knew the things that were played on TV. However, on TV, the couple would only hug and kiss. There was nothing more than that.

After they hugged and kissed, the camera would shift.

And after a while, the woman would miraculously become pregnant.

Chapter 1028: Little Genius Helps Jian Yiling (3)

He didn't really know what exactly happened.

If he knew the scientific [principles behind this, perhaps he would be able to come up with a better idea.

"Hmm... Maybe it's because they're similar to other mammals," Jian Yiling suggested.

"Oh? Is that the case? I need to observe this then. I wonder how my dogs end up having puppies," Wen Zhe replied with a serious expression on his face.

He had two huskies. Somehow, when he went to school for a while, his mother told him the female husky became pregnant.

Not after long, the female husky gave birth to a litter of puppies.

However, Wen Zhe had no idea how the husky got pregnant nor when the husky got pregnant.

"Oh right, wait for me. I will ask for some help."

Then, Wen Zhe called his mother.

"Mommy, I have a question to ask you. What does a girl have to do to get a boy to listen to her?"

Out of the people he could think of, Wen Zhe believed that his mother was most knowledgeable when it came to these things.

After all, his mother watched a lot of dramas!

Furthermore, his father always listened to his mother! This meant that his mother must have a lot of experience in these things!

"Huh? Darling, why are you asking this? Did you meet a girl you like?"

"Mommy, I'm only nine years old. I'm not old enough to date."

"I know you're nine years old. However, that's not a big problem. I don't mind if you date early. These days, you just read and study all day long. It's not good. You will become a block of wood eventually! I don't want a block of wood as a son. How boring would that be?"

"Mommy, it's not that. I'm just asking for a friend. She's a girl. And she's an adult too! She likes a man and wants the man to listen to her so that they can kiss and hug!"

"Oh? Is this friend of yours good-looking?"

"Yes she is! She's the prettiest girl I've seen!"

"Really? Is she prettier than your mother?"

"Umm... My mommy is the prettiest in your age group! This girl is the prettiest in her age group! There are different kinds of beauty. You shouldn't compare one to another!"

"Hahahaha, cheeky boy. Alright, let me ask you again, does the man your friend likes like her back?"

"Of course! If he doesn't like her, I will beat him up!"

“Alright, that’s easy then. Tomorrow morning, you should accompany your friend to a styling session. Use my card and go to the stylist we always go to. I will call him now and tell him what to do.”

“Okay!” Wen Zhe said happily after he received instructions from his mother.

And thus, Wen Zhe decided to put his plans into action.

The next day, Wen Zhe took Jian Yiling to the stylist his mother frequently visited.

“Wait... Isn’t she wearing a bit too little?”

In Wen Zhe’s eyes, this look was not pretty on his sister.

Upon hearing this, the stylist replied: “Please rest assured Young Master Wen Zhe. I did this according to your mother’s instructions. It’s absolutely appropriate. If it’s cold, just wrap a jacket around her. When you reach home, take the jacket off.”

“Alright.. Since it’s my mother’s instructions, I won’t say anything else!”

Chapter 1029: Little Genius Helps Jian Yiling (4)

Jian Yiling looked at herself inside the mirror. She felt rather embarrassed.

It was her first time wearing such clothes...

Although the clothes covered places that should be covered, she felt as though very little material was used...

Was this enough to get A Sheng to agree with her?

When it was time for dinner, Wen Zhe went to Jian Yichen and Jian Yiheng’s apartment with a bunch of snacks. He also brought along his laptop.

He was going to stay there to supervise the two of them. He had to make sure the two of them did not ruin his sister’s plans.

In the evening, Zhai Yunsheng returned home. He did not see the noisy little boy. Instead, he saw Jian Yiling who was dressed up...

Furthermore...

Zhai Yunsheng froze...

Jian Yiling was seated on the sofa. Her hands were placed on her knees and she seemed a little uncomfortable.

And her clothes... They were rather different... And sexy...

Yes... The clothes that she was wearing were very sexy.

Normal fabric was used to cover key parts of her body. However, her shoulders, waist, and thighs were covered with semi-transparent silk.

And her fair thighs...

Furthermore, Jian Yiling was wearing light makeup. It accentuated her already beautiful features.

Her long hair was mostly coiled up. There were only a few strands loose.

“Why are... Are you dressed like this?” Zhai Yunsheng asked as he swallowed a mouthful of saliva.

“Do you... Like it?” Jian Yiling asked cautiously.

She was a bit nervous and uncertain. She was worried that he wouldn’t like the way she was dressed.

However, he liked it. He liked it a lot.

But he had to figure out why she was wearing such things.

“Who helped you dress up like this?”

“Little Zhezhe,” Jian Yiling replied honestly.

“Why did he help you?”

“Because I want to have a baby with you. He was willing to help me.”

“Isn’t that little boy only nine years old?” Where did he learn such things?!

“You didn’t answer me yet. Do you like this or not?”

Zhai Yunsheng walked over to Jian Yiling and hugged her. Then, he lowered his head to kiss her.

When the kiss ended, Zhai Yunsheng asked Jian Yiling: “Do you know my answer to your question?”

“It seems as though you like it?”

“I freaking love it.”

“Then... Can we have a baby?”

“Yiling,” Zhai Yunsheng said quietly. His expression was serious.

“Hmm?”

“I love you.”

“Mhmm...” Jian Yiling replied. Her cheeks became red.

“But it’s not the kind of love that ends up in merely moments of pleasure. It’s the kind of love where I want to treasure you. I don’t want to hurt you. That’s why I’ve been very hesitant. I’m afraid that in the end, my decisions and actions will just cause you pain. I want to wait until you’re sure that you like me romantically. Then, we can do other things. I want to give you time and space to regret.”

Jian Yiling looked at Zhai Yunsheng in a daze.

His usually playful and handsome face had a serious expression on it.

His eyes were also blazing hot.

If eyes could burn, Zhai Yunsheng’s gaze would have burnt up Jian Yiling.

However, he still restrained himself. He did not make any further moves.

He didn't want her to do this just because she was afraid of his death.

He wanted her to do things only if she loved him and not as a task she needed to accomplish.

He wanted to be with her.

After he said this, Zhai Yunsheng held Jian Yiling in his arms again.

"Let me hug you for a little longer. Just a bit longer."

As he hugged her, Zhai Yunsheng slowly calmed down.

Chapter 1030: Significance of the Family Compass

Lucy put most of her energy into the search for the Goodman family compass.

The search for the Goodman family compass was a task left by the previous head of the Goodman family.

The previous head of the Goodman family stated in his will that his inheritance would be given to whoever found the family compass.

Until now, the huge lump sum of wealth left by the previous head of the Goodman family had not yet been inherited.

It was also said that the compass itself hid a secret related to the family treasure.

As the Goodman family had been involved in a war hundreds of years ago, part of their wealth had been hidden away.

The location of the family treasure was apparently recorded on the compass.

And thus, over the years, the compass had always been in the hands of the Head of the Goodman family.

However, the family compass was no longer in the hands of the Goodman family. Therefore, the Goodman family was determined to find the compass as it hid their family's secret wealth and because it was the previous head's dying words.

If Lucy found the family compass, she would be able to completely change her position in the Goodman family and thereby change her fate.

However, the compass was difficult to find.

If it was easy to find, the Goodman family would have found the compass a long time ago.

However recently, Lucy tracked down a piece of information. Apparently, an elder of the Goodman family who had the family compass in his possession previously visited Beijing.

Perhaps, she could use this piece of information to find some further clues.

Lucy was currently handling the daily tasks of a company in her study. Her study was located in a villa on the outskirts of Beijing.

"Miss Lucy, the person you're looking for is here."

"Bring her in."

"Okay."

The subordinate brought the person over to Lucy.

Cai Qinyue looked at the western beauty in front of her. Her eyes were filled with some disbelief.

This was the Goodman family!

One of the most powerful and rich families in the world!

Even the Zhai family and the Qin family were not comparable to the Goodman family!

Cai Qinyue felt a little flattered to be invited here. She even felt a little overwhelmed.

She began to search for English words in her vocabulary as she did not know what to say.

"You don't need to be nervous," Lucy said in Chinese.

Oh, she knew how to speak Chinese. That makes matters much easier.

"Hello, Miss Goodman. Did you call me over for some matter?" Cai Qinyue asked nervously.

"Nothing important. I just heard about what happened to you and your daughter. I feel bad for you guys," Lucy replied.

"You... Know about what happened to my daughter and I?"

"Yeah. I know your daughter is currently dealing with a lawsuit. However, you couldn't even find a good lawyer for her. In fact, any famous lawyer in Beijing does not dare to help your daughter. To make matters worse, the Wen family refuses to help you. They are just leaving your daughter to suffer a heavy sentence."

Lucy's words made Cai Qinyue's eyes become red.

These days, she felt incredibly alone and helpless. She did not know how to help her daughter.

"Miss Goodman, if you know about this matter, you must know how troubled we feel about this. The Wen family is incredibly biased. They refuse to acknowledge and accept their granddaughter with their own surname. Instead, they care about Jian Yiling. A granddaughter with another family's surname."

"Ms. Cai, if you don't mind, I can get a lawyer to help you with your daughter's lawsuit. My lawyer can reduce the sentence for your daughter."

"Really?" Cai Qinyue asked. She was overjoyed to hear this.

"Of course. I wouldn't be joking around."

“But...” Cai Qinyue started. She was a little confused. However, she knew that there was nothing free. Lucy would not help her for no reason.
