Chapter 1041: I Need a Younger Brother Like This to Escape Being Single!

“But I have work scheduled in the evening.”

“It won’t delay your work! You can nap for a bit in the car. We will be at the top of the mountain in no time~ Then, we can watch the meteor shower before going home to sleep~ It’s an amazing plan!”

Wen Zhe already planned everything for Jian Yiling.

However, Jian Yiling was still a little hesitant.

When Wen Zhe saw this, he hurriedly ran over to Zhai Yunsheng to ask for his opinion: “Future brother-in-law, can you bring my sister to watch the meteor shower tonight? Girls always like meteor showers~ My sister is no exception. I’ve already arranged the spots for tonight.”

“Okay,” Zhai Yunsheng responded in a quiet voice. From his expression, someone would not be able to tell whether he was happy or unhappy.

Then, Wen Zhe turned around and said to Jian Yiling: “Sister, my future brother-in-law wants to go. Can you go as well?”

Jian Yiling had no reason to refuse. She nodded her head and agreed.

The live stream recorded all of Wen Zhe’s actions. He was essentially organizing a date for his sister and his future brother-in-law.

The viewers were overjoyed to see this:

[Hahahaha, if I had a little brother like this, would I still be single?]

[Dude, if I had a little brother like this, I would have escaped my single life ages ago!]

[It’s doomed. I was here for God Z’s visuals and God Ling’s cuteness. However, I’ve become a fan of this little boy. Production crew, please tell me the name of this little boy!]

[Tell us where you’re planning to watch the meteor shower! We want to go as well!]

Because of Wen Zhe, Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng’s live stream attracted even more viewers.

Jian Yichen who was also watching the live stream nearly spat a mouthful of coffee onto his keyboard.

What was he doing?

Didn’t they agree to be on the same team?

Did he turn around to betray them?!

What benefits did Zhai Yunsheng give that brat!

How dare he arrange a camping date for Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling in the mountains in the middle of the night?

Why was this being allowed?

“Cheeky boy! If my sister wasn’t live streaming right now, I would rush over and teach you a lesson!”

Jian Yujie was also watching the stream.

What was this little boy from the Wen family doing? Why did he make Yiling go on a camping trip with Zhai Yunsheng?!

Jian Yujie was about to call Jian Yiling. However, after thinking about it for another moment, he realized doing such a thing had no benefits for Yiling.

A lot of the viewers were probably looking forward to watching this camping trip.

If his sister went back on her words, the viewers would probably criticize her.

As a result, Jian Yujie held back from calling Jian Yiling.

After all, the production team would be following Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling. With so many people watching them, Zhai Yunsheng wouldn’t dare to do anything to his sister.

When Jian Yujie came to this realization, he calmed down a lot.

Master Zhai was also watching. When he saw this, he slapped his thigh and shouted: “This kid from the Wen family is amazing! Initially, I thought he would be causing trouble for A Sheng and Yiling. However, he seems rather helpful! I like that kid! If I get to see him in person, I will definitely praise him! His future is limitless!”

Then, Master Zhai called over his assistant: “Go and figure out the kid’s arrangements. After that, ensure that no one else will be going there. If there are people planning to go there, make them go somewhere else.”

This was such a good opportunity. He had to help his grandson and his granddaughter-in-law.

“Understood.”

Chapter 1042: Brothers Watching the Live Stream

On the other hand, Jian Shuxing and his wife Wen Nuan were also watching Jian Yiling’s live stream at home.

It had been a long time since they had spent a weekend with their daughter.

And thus, they could only learn more about their daughter’s daily life through this live stream, just like ordinary netizens.

When they saw their daughter interacting with Zhai Yunsheng, the two of them had a strange feeling in their hearts.

Their daughter could have stayed with them for another two years! However, she was stolen away by Zhai Yunsheng!!!

And when they saw Wen Zhe creating a dating opportunity for Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling, words were unable to form in their mouths.

Jian Yumin used his verified account to enter the live stream.

Although he exited the entertainment industry, he still had access to his official accounts.

When he entered the live stream, a line of text appeared on the screen.

[[Verified] Jupiter's Xie Minyu has entered the room.]

And thus, the viewers immediately spotted him.

Although he did not make comments on the live stream, his presence was still very strong.

[Wait, has a parent come to supervise?]

[God Z, do you feel a chill down your spine?]

[Brother Minyu must feel incredibly upset right now. His adorable sister is going on a date with someone! In fact, maybe Brother Minyu is secretly crying inside hahaha.]

[Stay strong Brother Minyu!]

[Where is Brother Minyu's wife? You should comfort him!]

Jian Yumin's fans knew that their idol cared about his sister a lot.

As a result, it would be painful for him to watch his sister go on a date with someone.

Jian Yumin's arrival brought further popularity to Jian Yiling's stream.

Many of Jupiter's fans came to watch.

All of a sudden, the popularity of Jian Yiling's group rushed to third place amongst the eight groups of guests.

However, this also caused quite a few haters to join the stream.

When Cai Qinyue saw that Jian Yiling was appearing on a stream, the stark contrast to her daughter's predicament caused her a lot of pain. Her daughter was facing jail time!

The contrast was heartbreaking.

The more she thought about it, the more upset she got. And thus, Cai Qinyue began to send hate comments:

[Jian Yiling is from a rather ordinary family. She just got engaged to a rich man.]

[Jian Yiling is merely a surgeon. How could she possibly have that much money?]

[There's a lot of negative news about Jian Yiling.]

Cai Qinyue was not worried about the Zhai family. After all, Miss Lucy Goodman would back her up.

Furthermore, she was telling the truth and not merely spreading rumors.

During this time, some of the viewers began to search for negative news on Jian Yiling. However, they quickly realized that most of the news had been fake in the first place.

When Huo Yu noticed that Jian Yuncheng's face was as black as coal, he knew that something was off.

Huo Yu quickly glanced at Jian Yuncheng's computer screen.

Oh, their company's shares weren't falling in price. Instead, it was just Yiling's live stream.

Then, Huo Yu noticed some of the comments in the stream.

"Ahh, the technology in these streams are quite poorly done. They can't properly block comments and accounts. I should definitely help them out."

Then, Huo Yu opened his computer and started to work.

His fingers flew over the keyboard.

Chapter 1043: Soon To Be Exposed Identity

Not long after, the haters in Jian Yiling's stream had been blocked.

Only normal comments were left on the stream.

"Now, it's much better to look at!" Huo Yu commented.

He was very happy with his work. Just as he was about to ask for praise from Jian Yuncheng, he realized that the expression on Jian Yuncheng's face was still as black as coal.

"Wait, I've blocked all the haters already. Why are you still upset?"

Huo Yu followed Jian Yuncheng's gaze and realized that he was coldly staring at Zhai Yunsheng.

Ahh... Now he understood... Jian Yuncheng didn't want him to block the haters on the stream... Instead, he wanted him to get rid of the big bad wolf that stole his sister...

Sadly, Huo Yu couldn't help with that.

###

Later in the afternoon, XDL's Weibo account responded to the netizens. They stated that the Lily bag in Jian Yiling's cloakroom was real.

The official post read: The bag is real. Our CEO gave it to her.

Upon reading this post, the netizens were shocked. They began to speculate about Jian Yiling's identity.

In the post, XDL used 'her' instead of 'him'. This meant that the bag was a gift for Jian Yiling.

What kind of identity could make the CEO of XDL design a bag for her?

What did Jian Yiling do?

Quickly, the netizens connected the dots. They remembered the wide array of XDL products in Jian Yiling's apartment. This indicated that Jian Yiling had a close connection with XDL:

And thus, the netizens began to discuss this matter:

[Who is she even?! Is she related to XDL's CEO by blood?]

[Related to XDL's CEO by blood? You must be joking. They're not even from the same race.]

[Did Jian Yiling do an operation for her? Perhaps it's a gift???]

[Hmm, that's honestly a possibility.]

[Wait, that means Jian Yiling's talents are recognized internationally. That's super impressive.]

[Isn't that a given fact? After all, she's a member of Lahaisen Hospital. Lahaisen Hospital only accepts the most talented individuals in the world!]

Not only the netizens were curious, but even those who knew Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling were curious.

When Yu Xi saw the comments on the Internet, he turned around to ask Han Mengyu who was seated beside him: "Hey, do you think Master Sheng gifted the bag to God Ling? If he didn't, how do you think she got the bag?"

"Maybe it's Elder Zhang," Han Mengyu replied. Even though Han Mengyu knew the truth, he pretended to be clueless.

"Zhang Xuming? Isn't he like seventy or eighty years old? How does he remember to buy bags for girls? Furthermore, I didn't know Xuming Medical Manufacturers did business with XDL. For the CEO of XDL to personally design the bag... That's rather... Strange, no? It might be a rumor, but I've heard that Diana refuses to even design bags for the royal family in Continent O."

"Hmm, that makes sense too," Han Mengyu replied. He continued to act clueless.

After all, this was Jian Yiling's secret. Unless Jian Yiling personally told someone else, he wouldn't say a single thing.

"Well, I'm still pretty curious. Do you think God Ling is hiding some other identity from us?" Yu Xi guessed.

After all, in the past, Jian Yiling hid the fact that she was a member of the Huiling Medical Research Institution.

"Possibly."

"Wait, are you not curious at all?" Yu Xi asked. Why was he the only one guessing enthusiastically?

"Am I not? Well, I feel like Master Sheng should care about these matters and not us."

Chapter 1044: Live Streamed Date (1)

“Really?” Yu Xi exclaimed as he stroked his chin. Even though Master Sheng should care about these things, he was quite curious as well.

“Hey, you should stop thinking about those things. If Yiling really has some hidden identity, you will know sooner or later. After all, you guys were teammates.”

“But I’m still curious...”

“Well, you should know that curiosity killed the cat,” Han Mengyu replied. As he knew the truth, he liked to keep others in the dark.

###

Lucy was also paying attention to the XDL incident. When she read XDL’s post and the other comments on the Internet, a slight frown appeared on her face.

Jian Yiling had connections with Ms. Diana? And it wasn’t just an ordinary friendship?

She had to figure this out.

Were the netizens correct with their assumption? Did Jian Yiling merely have a doctor patient relationship with Diana?

When Lucy thought about this, an unpleasant feeling surfaced in her heart.

She called Cai Qinyue over and asked her whether she knew the exact relationship between Jian Yiling and XDL.

Naturally, Cai Qinyue did not know about this. When she heard this news, her reaction was even greater than Lucy’s.

If Jian Yiling knew the CEO of XDL, why didn’t she say anything? Why didn’t she help her daughter?

If she helped her daughter, her daughter wouldn’t be where she was today.

“Jian Yiling is rather cunning. She hides these things and never tells us anything,” Cai Qinyue replied to Lucy.

“So she never mentioned anything to you about her relationship with XDL?”

“She never mentioned a word. My daughter interned at XDL in the past. I didn’t hear a word from her either,” Cai Qinyue responded. Her tone was rather resentful.

As Cai Qinyue did not have her answers, Lucy gave up for the time being.

###

The entire afternoon, everyone discussed the matter between XDL and Jian Yiling.

Furthermore, they kept speculating about Zhai Yunsheng’s identity.

The production team of the reality show was incredibly happy to see this.

At first, the production team did not want to pick Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng's group. In fact, they hadn't even considered them.

However, Master Zhai came to speak to them. As a result, they had no choice but to include that group.

In the beginning, the production team did not hold much hope for this group. As long as the other seven groups performed well, the reality show would gain enough popularity.

They did not expect that Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng's group would have such a surprising effect.

A mere bag made them reach the top of Weibo's hot search.

It brought a lot of attention to their show.

Out of all eight groups, Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng's group consistently remained in the top three. This was a rather good result.

After all, the first and second spots were taken by popular celebrities. They brought fans with them and naturally, Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling were not comparable to them.

In the evening, Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng were ready to go out on a date.

The two of them took a car to the top of a mountain.

The weather was very good. As a result, one could see the starry sky. If a meteor shower actually appeared, it could be captured clearly.

It was also incredibly quiet. One could hear the insects and birds chirping.

When Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling arrived there, they noticed a tent prepared in advance.

Wen Zhe had prepared this when he visited this spot in advance. He also set up the tent himself.

A lot of snacks and drinks were placed in the tent.

At first, Jian Yiling assumed that there would be many other stargazers.. However, she quickly realized that they were the only people there.

Chapter 1045: Live Streamed Date (2)

At this moment, the comments began to compliment Wen Zhe:

[Waaa Little Zhezhe is such a dear. My little brother is so annoying. When I see this, I want to throw him in the bin and get my mother to give birth to another one!]

[They owe me a little brother... They owe me a little brother like him...]

[Little Zhezhe, would you mind if your girlfriend is ten or so years older than you?]

Wen Zhe said his name in front of the audience in the afternoon.

He told everyone to call him Little Zhezhe.

As Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng did not read the comments of the live stream, they did not know what the viewers were saying.

Everything seemed quiet around them. It was as though only the two of them existed.

For some reason, the cameraman left after they placed down their camera and recording equipment.

Shouldn't they be following them? They didn't seem too dedicated to their work...

"Is it cold? If it's cold, you should go into the tent," Zhai Yunsheng said to Jian Yiling. Jian Yiling was currently wearing a fluffy coat.

As it was still winter, it was quite cold in the mountains.

Jian Yiling shook her head and replied: "It's nice to look at."

"I'm nice to look at?" Zhai Yunsheng asked with a smile on his face.

Jian Yiling pointed to the sky and replied:

"The starry sky is nice to look at."

It was rare for Jian Yiling to look at the night sky like this.

When she stayed at the research institution, she rarely went outside. Whenever she went out, there would be lectures or academic discussions for her to attend.

During other times, she would merely stay inside the research institution.

"Am I not nice to look at?"

"You're nice to look at as well."

Zhai Yunsheng pointed to his shoulders and said: "I can let you borrow my shoulder."

When Jian Yiling heard this, she placed her head on his shoulder.

Then, Zhai Yunsheng held Jian Yiling's hands and warmed them up.

If his life was destined to be short, then at least during this period of time, they could be together. During this period of time, they could be happy.

The two of them leaned together. Although they did not speak, they seemed to be in harmony.

The viewers of the live stream commented:

[Ahh, the smell of romance.]

[Why am I even here? I feel so single right now.]

[God Z is such a tsundere. He wants God Ling to lean on him and yet he says he's merely borrowing his shoulder to her.]

[He's so damn prideful!]

[Verified account] Jupiter's Xin Minyu: [Don't go home too late.]

[Hahaha, Brother Minyu spoke up!]

[He probably hopes for his sister to go home immediately!]

[Hahahaha, that's so true! You've definitely been a fan of Brother Minyu for a long time!]

[Brother Minyu, the atmosphere is so romantic right now. You shouldn't disturb the couple. Perhaps after a while, you will have a little niece!]

At this moment, Jian Yumin was still seated in front of his computer. When he saw the comment 'you will have a little niece', he was so upset. He lifted his keyboard to smash it.

"What do they mean by a little niece... What nonsense... A little niece..." Jian Yumin grumbled. Suddenly, he realized he said something wrong. He shouldn't be criticizing his niece. And thus, he said: "I definitely want a niece. However, it has to be a few years later."

Luo Xiuen said excitedly: "Yiling is on a date with Master Sheng! I wonder what happens next. Does Master Sheng say cheesy and romantic things? Ahhh, I'm looking forward to it!"

"Don't look forward to it," Jian Yumin grumbled. "My sister is still young. She shouldn't be dating."

"But she's engaged already.. Why shouldn't she be dating?"

Chapter 1046: Live Streamed Date (3)

"Some people get their children engaged at birth! Their children don't go on dates whilst they're in diapers, right?" Jian Yumin retorted.

He refused to accept that his sister was dating. He didn't even want to accept that she was engaged.

"Alright alright. Whatever you say."

Jian Yumin's voice had some special power on Luo Xiuen. She was unable to argue against him.

In the Zhai family mansion, Master Zhai was also watching the live stream. He was almost crying as he watched his grandson and granddaughter-in-law go on this romantic date.

"Master Zhai, it's very late already. You should get some rest," his assistant reminded.

"I don't need rest! My two darlings are still stargazing! I will stay with them!" Master Zhai replied. He refused to accept his old age.

He didn't have to sleep early and wake early!

Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng sat outside for fifteen minutes. After that, a meteor shower began to happen. The shooting stars streaked across the sky.

One after another, they cut through the starry sky.

Jian Yiling and the viewers of the live stream all saw this.

The stars fall from space and use the last moments of their life to create a beautiful picture.

This was Jian Yiling's first time seeing shooting stars.

It was very beautiful yet very sad.

"Yiling, you should make a wish," Zhai Yunsheng said.

"A wish?"

"When you see shooting stars, you should make a wish. Put your hands together and make a wish."

Upon hearing this, Jian Yiling placed her hands together and looked at the shooting stars that passed in the night sky.

"I hope A Sheng lives a long life."

Jian Yiling did not know that one should make a wish in their hearts.

Instead, she said her wish out loud.

When Zhai Yunsheng heard this, he froze.

"A Sheng, you should make a wish as well," Jian Yiling said.

He told her to make a wish and yet, he hadn't made one yet.

Zhai Yunsheng silently recited that he wished Yiling's wish could come true. If that was the case, she could be happy in the future.

"A Sheng, are you not going to make a wish?"

"I don't need to," Zhai Yunsheng replied. He didn't want to let Jian Yiling know his wish.

"A Sheng, do you not have any wishes?"

"I do."

"Then why aren't you making a wish?"

"It's not important," Zhai Yunsheng replied. Then, he attempted to change topics: "What song do you want to listen to?"

"Song?"

Jian Yiling looked at him in confusion. She watched him as he took out a violin from the tent.

It appeared as though Wen Zhe did his homework in advance. He knew that Zhai Yunsheng could play the violin so he placed one in the tent to give him a chance to perform.

Zhai Yunsheng indeed knew how to play the violin however he rarely played it. In recent years, he barely touched the musical instrument.

His mother played the violin very well. When he was young, he heard his father mention it more than once.

And thus, during his childhood, his father got him a violin teacher.

After his father passed away unexpectedly, he would play the violin whenever he missed him.

"I don't know any songs," Jian Yiling replied.

She knew nothing when it came to music.

"Alright, I will just play whatever I want then."

And thus, Zhai Yunsheng began to play a piece called <Clock>.

His fingers were nimble and the melody was complex and gorgeous.

Under the starry sky, there was no one to disturb them.

The viewers in the live stream were incredibly impressed:

[Oh my god, this piece is incredibly difficult to play! He's playing it so well!!!]

[I've gone from being a fan of God Z's visuals to being a fan of his talent!!! He's awesome!]

[After playing the violin for eight years, this piece is still difficult for me! He's definitely at a professional level..]

Chapter 1047: Live Streamed Date (4)

When Master Zhai saw his grandson playing the violin again, conflicted feelings welled in his heart.

He knew why his grandson refused to play the violin over these years.

Despite many years passing by, the truth regarding his father's death had not been discovered.

So if he was willing to play the violin again, did this mean that he was willing to open up his heart again?

His granddaughter-in-law was truly a treasure. With her here, A Sheng had changed a lot.

When Zhai Yunsheng finished playing the violin piece, he noticed that Jian Yiling was staring at him.

"What's wrong? Is it nice to listen to?" Zhai Yunsheng asked.

"It is."

"Do you want me to play pieces for you in the future as well?"

"Yes."

Upon hearing this, a gentle smile appeared on Zhai Yunsheng's face.

This smile caused a flurry of comments to appear on the live stream:

[Oh my god! My heart got stolen away by that smile!!!]

[Ahh!!! Even though God Z belongs to God Ling, I feel like I can no longer control myself!]

[It's so doomed... I'm beginning to become jealous of God Ling.]

[Verified account] Jupiter's Xin Minyu: [He belongs to my sister.]

Jian Yumin had double standards. When Jian Yiling was together with Zhai Yunsheng, he would feel upset. However, if someone else was interested in Zhai Yunsheng, he refused to allow that to happen. After all, Zhai Yunsheng belonged to his sister.

[Hahaha, Brother Minyu, you love your sister so much.]

[Brother Minyu, weren't you worried about your sister getting stolen? If we remove God Z from the equation, wouldn't you get to keep your sister?]

[Yeah! Brother Minyu, please consider our suggestion. We will help you handle God Z.]

[Verified account] Jupiter's Xin Minyu: [Only my sister is allowed to abandon him. If my sister doesn't abandon him, he's not allowed to leave her.]

[Hahahaha, Brother Minyu is so biased!]

[With Brother Minyu present, God Z's future must be difficult!]

Jian Yichen was biting beef jerky in front of his computer. He used so much strength in his chomps that it seemed like he was biting Zhai Yunsheng's flesh instead of jerky.

"Ahh! That bastard! How dare he use those things to coax my sister! Shameless! I want to beat him up!"

At this moment, Jian Yiheng was seated beside his brother. He coldly stated: "You can't win in a fight against him."

"Hey, why do you beat him up then?"

"I have no reason to beat him up."

"But he stole our sister away!"

This was clearly a sufficient reason!

"But our sister made her own choice."

"Brother, you're heartless!" Jian Yichen commented sadly. Since his brother did not understand, his sadness was doubled.

Lucy was also staring at Zhai Yunsheng's smile. She liked him. Whether he was arrogant, serious, or gentle.

However, people rarely got to see the gentle side of Zhai Yunsheng. In fact, it seemed as though he would only show off his gentle side to Jian Yiling.

This made her incredibly jealous of Jian Yiling.

She wanted Zhai Yunsheng to look at her in that way.

However, the reality was cruel. He didn't treat her gently at all. In fact, he treated her with hostility.

Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling stayed there until roughly the middle of the night. By the time the meteor shower ended, Jian Yiling fell asleep in Zhai Yunsheng's arms.

Jian Yiling was someone who was rather insecure. In the past, if she was asleep and someone picked her up, she would panic.

However, she somehow fell asleep in Zhai Yunsheng's arms.

Zhai Yunsheng carried Jian Yiling for a few hundred meters before he saw the production team.

In order to give Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling sufficient space, they decided to stay far far away.

Zhai Yunsheng softly carried Jian Yiling onto the car and began their journey back home.

Chapter 1048: Identity Gets Revealed (1)

During this live stream, the popularity of Jian Yiling's stream had multiplied numerous times.

This rapid increase in popularity attracted the attention of other guests on the same show.

As of now, the group that was highest in popularity was the award-winning movie star Xu Rui.

Xu Rui's manager visited Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng's stream to analyze their strategy.

However, the manager quickly returned and commented: "There's nothing to note. They're just showing off their romantic relationship. It's nothing new. They gained a lot of popularity yesterday because they went to see shooting stars. In addition, Jupiter's Xie Minyu probably helped them out a lot as well."

In the eyes of Xu Rui's manager, coming from a rich family could indeed attract the attention of many viewers. Furthermore, it was interesting to see pretty girls and handsome boys date. However, if this persisted for a long time, the viewers would quickly become bored. If they wanted to see things like this, they could just watch romantic dramas. In those dramas, the plot would be more compact.

And thus, the manager decided that Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng were not a threat to Xu Rui.

After all, Xu Rui's fan base was a hundred times larger than the two of them combined.

###

Early the next morning, Jian Yiling received a large parcel.

Jian Yiling began to open the parcel. Some early risers were watching her stream.

Originally, they assumed that it was merely the unwrapping of an ordinary package.

However, when Jian Yiling opened it up, the viewers were dumbfounded.

A pile of Sofia's limited edition products was crammed inside the cardboard box. It was as though the products weren't worth any money!

Furthermore, there were also many gorgeous dresses.

Typically, ordinary celebrities had to talk to these luxury brands to borrow such dresses to wear.

And yet, there were many dresses just crammed into this box!!!

At the same time, Sofia's official Weibo account made a thought-provoking post: [Another day of trying to please God Ling @ZYS.]

As Jian Yiling did not have a Weibo account, Sofia could only tag Zhai Yunsheng's account.

By connecting the dots, the viewers quickly realized that the parcel of luxury goods was probably sent out by Sofia. After all, an ordinary individual could not put together these items.

However, what did Sofia mean by those words?

Why did they use 'another day' and 'trying to please'?

And thus, the viewers were incredibly curious.

Wasn't Jian Yiling meant to be related to XDL?

Why was Sofia involved today?

And how were all these international luxury brands related to Jian Yiling in the first place?

What kind of magical background did Jian Yiling have for two competing luxury brands to give her such special treatment at the same time?

Jian Yiling glanced at the items Sofia sent her. She knew their intention of sending these things over.

However, she had no intentions of working for Sofia. Therefore, she could not accept these gifts.

And thus, she put the items back inside the box and asked the courier to return it.

As Jian Yiling was still live streaming, her actions once again triggered speculation amongst her viewers.

As Jian Yiling returned the gifts, Sofia's Weibo account once again posted: [Our love for you remains the same. We just want you to spare us a look.]

Although no names were involved, the viewers felt that this post was related to Jian Yiling.

[What the heck is happening? Jian Yiling, XDL, and Sofia... I feel like there's some shocking connection between the three of them.]

[Why did Jian Yiling return the box to Sofia?]

[Why do I feel like I'm watching a love triangle drama?]

[I've already imagined a hundred thousand words romance novel on this.]

Chapter 1049: Identity Gets Revealed (2)

The viewer's speculation did not last for long.

In the afternoon, XDL issued a formal response to the viewer's questions:

[We would like to formally introduce Miss Jian Yiling, an important member of our research and development team. The products she has been responsible for include our scar removal cream, renewal facial kit, and hair growth water. In the future, Miss Jian Yiling will continue to bring everyone more pharmaceutical cosmetic products. Please look forward to it.]

Attached was a picture of their products and a picture of Jian Yiling with the pharmaceutical research and development team at XDL headquarters.

As things had come to this point already, there was no longer any use in hiding Jian Yiling's identity.

Initially, XDL hoped to conceal Jian Yiling's identity because they were afraid that their competitors would try to get her to work for them. However, Sofia already learned about this and the netizens were already speculating about their relationship. Therefore, there was no point in continuing to hide this.

This response shocked everyone.

Jian Yiling was actually a core part of XDL's pharmaceutical research and development team?

And those patented products were actually Jian Yiling's?!

Oh my goodness, she was so talented?!

The viewers and netizens who benefited from those cosmetic products developed by Jian Yiling began to comment on the Internet again:

[Wait, she's the God that I've been thanking all night long?]

[The scar on my face was healed by XDL's scar removal cream. That's the reason why I've been using XDL's other products.]

[The hair growth water is the gospel for us programmers! Instead of giving out money bonuses at the end of the year, our company decided to give our hair growth water instead!]

[Ahh, please accept my knees! The products you've developed are so wonderful! I love you!]

[Wait so she's not hoarding those products in her apartment. Instead, it's because she developed those products in the first place?!]

[Where are those people who commented that Jian Yiling was merely a surgeon who knew how to play video games? Apparently, you claimed that you'd wash your hair upside down if she could do anything else.]

All of a sudden, the tag #Jian Yiling is a Core Member of XDL's R&D team# reached the top of Weibo's hot search bar.

Due to this, the popularity of Jian Yiling's live stream skyrocketed as well.

Many netizens came over and began to leave comments and messages.

This was definitely good news to the production team of <Dear, We Live Together.>

They never expected that this guest group would bring them such traffic! It was amazing!

The production team did not expect that other than playing games, Jian Yiling was also amazing at pharmaceutical research.

This news also made the people around Jian Yiling very shocked.

When Yu Xi saw this message, he stared at it for quite a while. Then he yelled: “Hey, God Ling really does have another identity! It’s a pretty awesome one as well!”

“Oh?” Han Mengyu commented. His tone was calm and unperturbed.

“Wait, why is your reaction so calm? This is not like you!”

It was because he had been shocked already.

“You get shocked too easily. Just take a look at Xing Wei, he’s very calm too,” Han Mengyu replied.

Yu Xi eyed Xing Wei. He was indeed quite calm.

Then... Was he really shocked too easily?!

Chapter 1050: Everyone’s Reactions (1)

When Cai Qinyue saw the news, she became so angry that her eyes turned red.

Everyone had been making guesses. But who would have thought that Jian Yiling was actually an important member of XDL’s research and development team?

“That b*tch. She’s so damn hard-hearted and cunning. She didn’t say a thing when my daughter interned at XDL! And she’s the Head of their pharmaceutical research and development team! How cunning!”

Cai Qinyue began to curse at Jian Yiling.

At this moment, she received a call from her brother.

As soon as the call went through, her brother began to scold her: “Look at you. Do you see the things that happened after you divorced Wen Cheng?! You have nothing now! And take a look at Wen Nuan’s daughter! She’s so popular and accomplished!”

As soon as she heard these words, Cai Qinyue became angry: “If my daughter didn’t run into this incident, she would have become famous sooner or later.”

“Well, I’m advising you to go back and make good relations with the Wen family. If Jian Yiling is still willing to call you her aunty, you can still have a good life in the future.”

Cai Qinyue shouted back: “You only know how to say those words to me! If you were a little accomplished, I wouldn’t have to live such a sad life after I left the Wen family!!!”

After she shouted at her brother, Cai Qinyue angrily hung up the call.

Then, she sat alone on her bed and sulked.

When she thought of her daughter who was facing jail time, she could not swallow her anger.

However, her abilities were limited. She could not get revenge on Jian Yiling by herself.

If she did anything that harmed Jian Yiling, she would quickly be discovered by the Zhai family. Then, they would exact their revenge.

Luckily, she now had the support of the Goodman family.

She could only get revenge on Jian Yiling with the help of Miss Lucy Goodman.

Cai Qinyue was worried that Lucy did not know about this news. Therefore, she forwarded the news to Lucy.

Naturally, Lucy saw this news as soon as it was released.

She never expected that Jian Yiling had such an identity.

She had to admit that she had indeed underestimated her in the past.

But so what? Even though Jian Yiling was talented, was that enough to convince herself to give up on him?

Would she wish them happiness?

Naturally, she would not do that.

In Jian Yiling's live stream, Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling were spending time in the study room.

The two of them were seated opposite of each other and they were busy with their own work.

It was very quiet and there was no interaction between them. However, there was an indescribable harmony.

Lucy lowered her head and looked at the notebook in her hand. Every problem that she solved with Zhai Yunsheng was written there. The solutions and their conversations... She printed them off and bound them into a book.

She remembered every experience she had with him.

And yet, only she remembered those things.

###

When Wen Nuan saw this news, she instantly linked things together. She now knew why Mr. Kevin decided to help her promote her jewelry at the fashion show.

Back then, she was merely making a guess. However, she now had the answer.

Her daughter was trying to silently pave the way for her. Despite knowing this, a slightly sour feeling appeared in her heart.

That spiteful and straightforward little girl would not come back to her.

Jian Shuxing comforted his wife: "It's alright. After all, it's a good thing. We should be happy for Yiling."

Although he was comforting Wen Nuan, Jian Shuxing also missed his little girl who loved him dearly.. His mood was not good as well.
