Chapter 1311: Trying to Disturb Their Alone Time? No Way!

After Zhai Yunsheng finally got Jian Yiheng and Jian Yichen to return to their own apartments, Jian Dan was once again sent to their apartment.

“Where is everyone else in the Jian family? Why don’t you send him to Jian Yichen and Jian Yiheng?” Zhai Yunsheng said with disdain.

“Auntie! To auntie!” Little Dandan cried out as he flattened his mouth.

Jian Yumin could send his son to Jian Yichen and Jian Yiheng’s apartment but his son would not be happy.

Without a pretty girl next to him, Jian Dan would throw tantrums. At times, he would refuse to eat and sleep. Who could stand this happening?

“My wife has been suffering from severe morning sickness. She can’t look after him. And thus, we hope Yiling can continue to look after him for the time being. Even though she’s never given birth, she has a wealth of medical knowledge and she’s very good at taking care of children,” Jian Yumin shamelessly said. He squeezed past the door and put his son down on the sofa at Zhai Yunsheng’s apartment.

His son wasn’t important. His wife could be having a baby girl. This was much more important!

At this time, Jian Yiling walked out of the study room and picked up Jian Dan.

Jian Dan began to drool as he contently curled up in Jian Yiling’s arms.

He was happy! He was finally with his auntie again!

Jian Yumin was also happy. With this brat here, he could relax with Luo Xiuen.

However, Zhai Yunsheng was not happy with this arrangement. After he settled the matter with Chen Lin, he planned to spend some alone time with Jian Yiling. Why did this brat have to appear again?

Why was his alone time with Yiling being sacrificed for Jian Yumin and Luo Xiuen’s alone time?

This wasn’t fair.

However, Jian Yumin did not give Zhai Yunsheng a chance to say no. After he put Jian Dan down on the sofa, he waved goodbye to Jian Yiling before quickly leaving.

As soon as Jian Yumin left, Zhai Yunsheng contacted Jian Yunnao to come over.

Amongst all of the Jian brothers, Jian Yunnao listened to Zhai Yunsheng the most.

When Jian Yunnao arrived, he shoved Jian Dan into Jian Yunnao’s arms.

“I...” Jian Yunnao stuttered as he looked at his nephew helplessly.

He didn’t know how to look after a baby.

"If you can't look after him, go ask your second brother for help. He should know how to look after a baby. If he's busy, go and ask your parents for help," Zhai Yunsheng said. He did not give Jian Yunnao an opportunity to say no.

When this happened, Jian Dan was very confused. He did not know he was about to be taken away from his beautiful auntie.

"But... Dandan likes Yiling..." Jian Yunnao quietly said. He wondered if Jian Dan would cry after he left with him

"Even if he likes Yiling, Yiling is my wife and not his. He can't keep stealing her away from me," Zhai Yunsheng responded. He refused to indulge the young boy.

Jian Yunnao hesitated for a moment before he agreed to Zhai Yunsheng's request.

After all, he couldn't help with much normally. It was rare for his brother-in-law to contact him. Hence, he wanted to do something to help his sister and brother-in-law.

And thus, little Dandan was carried away from the arms of his favorite person.

When he finally realized what was happening, they already reached the underground parking lot.

"Waaaa.... Waaa..." Jian Dan let out a loud cry.

A stressed look immediately appeared on Jian Yunnao's face.

"Dandan... Be a good boy... Please don't cry..." Jian Yunnao clumsily attempted to coax him.

"Auntie... Auntie..." Little Dandan continued to cry out.

"Please don't cry... Your auntie is with your uncle. Let's not disturb them for the time being, okay?"

"Waaaa... I want auntie! I want auntie!" Little Dandan continued to cry. He didn't care about anything else!

His auntie was his! He didn't like his uncle!

Chapter 1312: Alone Time

"Dandan, your auntie went through a lot to get together with your uncle. Therefore, we shouldn't interrupt their alone time. If I were to be honest, I didn't want her to get married so early either. However, it's more important for her to be happy. As her family, we should prioritize her happiness over ours," Jian Yunnao attempted to reason with Jian Dan.

However, Jian Yunnao obviously overestimated the little boy's ability to understand his words.

As Jian Dan opened his mouth to cry again, Jian Yunnao hurriedly pulled out his phone.

He wanted to find a female friend to comfort Jian Dan. After scrolling through his contact list, Jian Yunnao quickly realized that he didn't have any female friends to contact.

In the end, Jian Yunnao took Zhai Yunsheng's advice and ended up contacting Jian Yunmo for help.

When Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling finally got their alone time, Zhai Yunsheng stuck to Jian Yiling wherever she went.

As they had been incredibly busy in the last couple of days, their body missed each other very much.

But when Zhai Yunsheng took out what he had prepared, Jian Yiling became unhappy.

She wanted a baby. He wasn't allowed to interfere with this.

If he attempted to interfere, she would leave immediately.

Naturally, Zhai Yunsheng was unwilling to stop there.

And even if he wanted to stop, he was unsure of whether he could. After all, Jian Yiling was looking at him with those adorable and glistening eyes.

And thus, Zhai Yunsheng handed over what he had prepared.

After finishing Zhai Yunsheng laid on his side and admired Jian Yiling's flushed face.

However, Jian Yiling did not lie down as usual. Instead, she took a pillow and put it under her buttocks.

"What are you doing?" Zhai Yunsheng asked curiously.

"My third aunt said that this was an easy way to conceive a baby," Jian Yiling explained.

Jian Yiling's third aunt was Wen Yan's mother.

Jian Yiling did not know whether this method was scientifically proven or not. However, at times, it was better to learn from the experience of those who had gone before her than not knowing anything.

"Your third aunt is just like your cousin. She teaches you the strangest things."

"She also gave me a USB. She told me that there are several gigabytes of content inside which would serve as a good guide on what to learn. I haven't looked inside the USB yet. I'll go look at it later."

Jian Yiling did not know the exact meaning behind her aunt's words.

"You mean that black USB you placed inside the bedside table?"

"Mhmm."

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng immediately rolled over and opened the drawer. Then, he took out the black USB and pocketed it.

What are you doing?" Jian Yiling asked.

"Nothing. You don't need to watch this. Your aunt's strange knowledge isn't suitable for you."

In the next few days, people had mixed feelings.

After the news that Zhai Yunsheng won the match spread, the members of the Loyalty Alliance suffered a big headache.

After all, they betrayed Zhai Yunsheng and the Zhai family. They never expected him to make such a spectacular comeback.

In the past two days, Zhai Yunsheng's name had returned to its former glory.

Now, it was Qin Chuan's turn to experience a hard time.

After that day, his own company ran into a bit of trouble.

The trouble he encountered was not from the Qin Group which he inherited from his father. Rather, the problem arose from the Internet company he founded. Currently, he did not hold the majority of shares.

Suddenly, the company's board of directors wanted to kick him out.

Qin Chuan quickly linked this incident to his father's accident when he was forced to make enemies with the Zhai family. Back then, he met Long Yuetian of the Long Heng Group. She was a representative of the investor who held the majority of shares in his company

Chapter 1313: Is This a Coincidence?

When he set out to deal with the Zhai family, he feared that this person would interfere with what he was doing.

But no, to his surprise, everything went very smoothly.

As in his previous life, he did not encounter any surprises or blockades.

However, after the Zhai family's original business went bankrupt and Zhai Yunsheng started his new business, that person suddenly decided to make a move against him.

They united with the rest of the board to kick him out of the company he founded.

Combined with the recent events, Qin Chuan had a feeling that the situation was off.

Was Zhai Yunsheng's comeback a coincidence? Or was someone helping him behind the scenes?

A face emerged in Qin Chuan's mind.

She had a pair of clear eyes that were engraved in his heart.

Jian Yiling.

Similar to him, she had memories of their past life as well.

She was also the only person who had the possibility of foreseeing what he would do in advance.

And thus, if someone had made precautions against him, that person could only be Jian Yiling.

.....

The Board of Directors meeting was to be held tomorrow. This singular meeting would determine whether or not he could stay in the company he founded and poured his heart and soul into.

At this moment, Qin Yufan opened the door and entered Qin Chuan's study.

As Qin Chuan restricted her freedom, she could only walk around in their house.

Due to this, she no longer had any respect for Qin Chuan.

"What are you plotting this time?" Qin Yufan asked coldly as she walked up to Qin Chuan. She had a condescending expression on her face.

"I just want to take back some things that originally belong to me," Qin Chuan said to his sister.

He didn't want anything other than that. His conflicting memories were just merging together without his permission.

He felt like there were two souls living inside his body. These two souls were tearing him apart and causing him to have constant nightmares.

"Things that belong to you? In your mind, what exactly belongs to you? Jian Yiling? The assets of the Zhai family? Or the assets of the Qin family?" Qin Yufan asked Qin Chuan rhetorically. "Originally, you shouldn't even have ownership of anything in the Qin family. Don't forget that you are only an illegitimate son."

Qin Yufan looked at him in the same way that she did in their previous lives.

His recent actions utterly destroyed the relationship he built up with her in this life.

However, Qin Chuan understood why Qin Yufan felt this way.

He could understand her hatred towards him.

He knew what he owed her.

When this was all over, he would pay her back for everything he did.

Qin Chuan's silence made Qin Yufan even angrier.

"What kind of sorcery did Mo Shiyun perform on you? Ever since you invited her to live here, you haven't acted normal! I think you're acting like this because you're under her influence!"

"This has nothing to do with her," Qin Chuan replied. He didn't become like this after he invited Mo Shiyun to live here.

"You're still defending her?!"

"I'm not defending her. This is my business. You don't need to involve her."

"Well, you're pampering Mo Shiyun whilst hitting on Yiling! It's disgusting to watch! You make me sick!"

"Perhaps, you're right," Qin Chuan quietly said. There was a hint of self-mockery in his words.

He was probably indeed a disgusting person.

Chapter 1314: Disappointed in Her

The rising winds in Beijing forebode the coming storm.

No one knew who would ultimately win between Zhai Yunsheng and Qin Chuan. This storm had the potential to affect the entirety of Beijing.

When Mo Shiyun learned about what was happening, she became incredibly anxious.

She was afraid that Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng would defeat Qin Chuan.

She was afraid that Qin Chuan would fail.

Mo Shiyun had no idea how much strength each side had. She was unaware of Qin Chuan's odds of winning.

However, as long as she felt the presence of danger, she could not rest assured.

She even began to imagine what would happen after Qin Chuan became defeated.

She wasn't thinking this way because she didn't have confidence in Qin Chuan. Rather, she was terrified of Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng. That fear was deep-rooted in her heart.

Finally, she could not hold herself back anymore.

Mo Shiyun left the Qin Residence to look for Jian Yiling.

After all, Qin Chuan only restricted Qin Yufan's freedom. He didn't restrict hers.

As Mo Shiyun couldn't get into Jian Yiling's neighborhood, she had to wait at the gates.

.....

She waited there for the entire afternoon. Around dinner time, she finally saw Jian Yiling.

As soon as Mo Shiyun saw Jian Yiling, she immediately knelt down in front of her.

"Jian Yiling, I'm begging you! Please don't do anything to Qin Chuan! Please don't hurt him!"

Despite Mo Shiyun's pleas, Jian Yiling looked at her indifferently.

This was not the first time Mo Shiyun knelt down in front of her like this.

She did this last time as well because she was afraid of Jian Yiling stealing Qin Chuan from her.

This time, she knelt down because she was scared of Jian Yiling defeating Qin Chuan.

In the past, even though Mo Shiyun did a lot of wrong things, she was still a strong person who wouldn't give up easily.

However, she was now willing to kneel down and beg someone for the sake of something small.

She didn't want to work towards anything anymore.

She didn't want to strive toward climbing up the social ladder.

Mo Shiyun had changed. However, she hadn't changed the bad habits of the past. Rather, she became more cautious. She desperately wanted to keep the things she had right now.

To make matters worse, she didn't trust Qin Chuan.

And thus, when she heard any bad news, she would come and beg Jian Yiling.

Was Mo Shiyun actually in love with Qin Chuan? Or was she in love with what Qin Chuan could give her?

Was she scared of losing Qin Chuan? Or was she scared of losing the wealth and fame Qin Chuan gave her?

When Jian Yiling looked back up, she saw Qin Chuan standing not far away.

When Qin Chuan returned home, he quickly learned that Mo Shiyun came to the neighborhood where Jian Yiling lived. As he was worried that Mo Shiyun would do something harmful to Jian Yiling, he decided to come as well.

However, when he saw Mo Shiyun kneel down and beg Jian Yiling, he felt incredibly disappointed in her. This act of kneeling made him more disappointed than all the other impulsive things she did in this lifetime.

This was not the girl he once fell in love with. The girl in front of him didn't have any motivation or ambition. In fact, she didn't even have any self-respect or dignity.

In his previous life, he fell in love with Mo Shiyun because, despite her humble origins, she always maintained an optimistic attitude.

She would not be overwhelmed when she faced any difficulties.

She would not bow down to others for no good reason.

She was proud and strong at heart.

She was a golden phoenix flower that bloomed in the desert.

And thus, when Qin Chuan brought Mo Shiyun back to Beijing, he attempted to convince himself that even though she did wrong things, she had done so because of pride. It was because she refused to bow down and give in as she did in her last life. However, unlike last time, she wasn't lucky enough. That was why she ended up in the situation she was in.

Therefore, it was his responsibility to help her because he had married her in his previous life.

Even though he wasn't responsible for helping her, Qin Chuan could not stand by and watch his past wife live that miserable life.

He couldn't treat her as a stranger who had no relationship with him.

Chapter 1315: Do You Really Love Me?

But at that moment, Qin Chuan suddenly came to the realization that no matter how he attempted to change things, what has changed wouldn't revert back to what it was.

The Mo Shiyun in front of him right now would not be the girl he loved in his previous life.

She was a completely different person.

Mo Shiyun turned around and met Qin Chuan's eyes.

She immediately noticed the disappointment in his eyes.

Yes, his eyes were filled with disappointment. It wasn't pity or heartache.

Mo Shiyun was shocked to see this. She came to beg Jian Yiling because she thought he would at least understand that she was doing this for him. Even if he didn't support her actions, he should understand that.

She dropped all of her dignity for him. Shouldn't he be touched by her actions?

She didn't expect to see the disappointment in his eyes.

When Mo Shiyun saw this, she was shocked and terrified.

Then, Qin Chuan turned around to leave.

"Qin Chuan!" Mo Shiyun desperately called out as she stumbled to get up. She attempted to chase after Qin Chuan.

"Are you angry? Is it because I came to beg Jian Yiling?" Mo Shiyun asked. She didn't know why Qin Chuan was angry. She didn't know why he was disappointed.

.....

However, Qin Chuan did not respond. Despite this, his expression already answered Mo Shiyun's question. She knew her guess was correct.

"Do you think I've embarrassed you by doing this?" Mo Shiyun inquired with trepidation.

"Qin Chuan, I know I did the wrong thing but I went to beg Jian Yiling for your sake! I did this because I care about you! I was scared that they'd hurt you!" Mo Shiyun attempted to explain to Qin Chuan.

"I know you like Jian Yiling. I know that even though she is married, you still hold a special place in your heart for her. I know that you can't forget her and don't want to become enemies with her. That's why I came to beg her today!"

Upon hearing this, Qin Chuan finally stopped in his tracks.

She knew that he liked Jian Yiling?

When did she find out?

But if she knew, why didn't she say anything? And why would she go and beg Jian Yiling?

Was this because of love?

Either way, this didn't matter to him. What Qin Chuan saw was not Mo Shiyun's selflessness. Rather, he saw the ugly side of her heart.

If she truly loved him, she wouldn't concede like that.

"Mo Shiyun, you don't love me. You love your current lifestyle."

"No no, I love you! I've loved you since the first time I saw you at Shenghua High School! I've loved you for five entire years! During those five entire years, I've never forgotten you!"

"Perhaps you did love me in the past. However, right now, you're definitely not staying beside me because you love me," Qin Chuan said with certainty.

"No, no, it's not like that!" Mo Shiyun desperately shook her head.

However, no matter how much she denied this, Qin Chuan refused to believe her.

Finally, Qin Chuan got into the car and asked the driver to drive away without waiting for her to get in.

Mo Shiyun collapsed in shock.

"No, please don't leave me... Qin Chuan... Please don't leave me... I can't lose you... I really love you! I came to beg Jian Yiling because of you... I did this for you..."

She couldn't afford to lose Qin Chuan. When she thought of the life she might face after being abandoned by Qin Chuan, her body couldn't help but tremble.

"No, no, I don't want to go back to that life. I love Qin Chuan! I love him! He's all I have! I can't lose him! I must stay by his side!" Mo Shi Yun muttered as she stood up again.

Then, she stumbled to the roadside and stopped a taxi to chase after Qin Chuan.

Chapter 1316: Under Her Control

In the past few years, the company Qin Chuan founded had already become one of the largest social network companies in the world.

And thus, when everyone heard that Qin Chuan was potentially no longer going to be the CEO, everyone speculated that this occurrence had something to do with Zhai Yunsheng.

In fact, some people even predicted that this matter would end up determining who was the ultimate victor between Zhai Yunsheng and Qin Chuan.

A vast majority of social network companies were located in the Science and Technology Park on the outskirts of the Fifth Ring Road.

All the influential companies and enterprises had their headquarters here.

There were also some small start-up companies that had their offices in surrounding buildings.

At this moment, all of the top executives of the company founded by Qin Chuan were gathered in a large conference room.

This is a meeting gathered all the top executives and major shareholders.

Qin Chuan also appeared in the conference room on time.

Today, the atmosphere in the conference room was very gloomy.

Everyone knew that after today, this company probably had to go through a "dynastic change".

Regardless of whether or not Qin Chuan was going to continue being the CEO, a lot of things would end up changing.

At the last moment, Long Yuetian appeared in the conference room.

.....

As Long Yuetian previously attended as a representative of the investor, Microsilver Venture Capital, the executives and shareholders in the conference room were not surprised by her arrival.

However, the person who appeared beside her made them incredibly shocked.

It was Jian Yiling.

She walked in with Long Yuetian.

What was she doing here?

She was Zhai Yunsheng's wife! She was Qin Chuan's enemy.

When everyone saw this, a bad feeling arose in their heart.

Did Jian Yiling have something to do with the rumor? Was she going to be the reason why Qin Chuan was going to get kicked out of the company he founded?

Or did Long Yuetian and Jian Yiling reach some agreement?

Or maybe the situation was even worse. Perhaps, Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng had already taken control of the company.

A myriad of speculations emerged in everyone's minds.

The atmosphere in the conference room became even more gloomy because of Jian Yiling's appearance.

However, Long Yuetian was not fazed by this. Instead, she smiled and introduced Jian Yiling to everyone: "Everyone, I would like to introduce the CEO of Microsilver Venture Capital to you."

Jian Yiling was the CEO of Microsilver Venture Capital?!

When they heard this, numerous thoughts appeared in everyone's minds.

How could she be the CEO of Microsilver Venture Capital?!

And if that's the case, was Qin Chuan working all this time to make money for Jian Yiling?

Furthermore, what was even more shocking was that Microsilver was always a venture capital firm that had a good eye for investment. In recent years, the firm became quite famous in its industry.

It was somewhat understandable for Jian Yiling to be the Dean of Lahaisen Hospital... But this was investment! Was she also good at investing?!

In reality, Jian Yiling was not particularly good at investing. However, as she knew what would happen in the future, she knew which companies had good prospects. And thus, she merely invested in the ones which would become leaders in their industry.

Investing in Qin Chuan's company was an example of this.

Upon hearing this announcement, Qin Chuan gazed at Jian Yiling.

His guess was right.

The investor was really her.

Back when he was still in university, she contacted him and invested in his start-up company.

This meant that from the very beginning, his company was completely under her control.

Chapter 1317: Qin Chuan Steps Down (1)

"But wasn't Microsilver Venture Capital founded a long time ago... Jian Yiling is..." Someone in the crowd started saying.

Upon hearing this, Long Yuetian smiled and interrupted: "Jian Yiling has always been the CEO of Microsilver Venture Capital. Back then, I merely helped her manage the company as she wasn't an adult yet."

As Jian Yiling was underage, she couldn't officially manage the company.

However, at that time, Long Yuetian owed Jian Yiling for saving her life. And thus, she decided to look after Microsilver Venture Capital for Jian Yiling.

Long Yuetian's words destroyed all remaining hope.

This was going to be the end.

After all, Jian Yiling was Zhai Yunsheng's wife and Qin Chuan caused the Zhai family business to crumble.

So why would Jian Yiling be nice to Qin Chuan?

Therefore, today would definitely end as a disaster.

Long Yuetian added: "By the way, you helped Yiling earn part of the initial construction funds for Lahaisen Hospital."

In order to make Qin Chuan mad, Long Yuetian deliberately said that Jian Yiling's start-up capital to found Lahaisen Hospital was funded by Qin Chuan's company.

This was the truth. Jian Yiling indeed used money earned by Qin Chuan to found Lahaisen Hospital.

However, there were other sources of funds. This included other companies invested by Jian Yiling, patent fees, scientific research results, and money from Jian Yunmo.

.....

After all, founding a hospital would cost a lot of money. Back then, the earnings from Qin Chuan's company were not high enough to support Lahaisen Hospital.

Upon hearing this, everyone looked at Qin Chuan cautiously.

From the time Jian Yiling entered the conference room, Qin Chuan's expression was inscrutable. His brows were slightly furrowed and his lips were pursed into a straight line.

And yet, he didn't open his mouth to speak. This made the atmosphere in the conference room even more gloomy and depressing.

Jian Yiling did not bother to pay attention to Qin Chuan's expression. Instead, she walked over to the chairman's seat and sat down.

As today was a board and shareholder meeting, the chairman seat was reserved for the largest shareholder. This meant that even Qin Chuan could only sit beside the chairman's seat.

Jian Yiling was not only the only female major shareholder there, but she was also the youngest major shareholder present.

Without skipping a beat, Jian Yiling announced: "Qin Chuan, from today, you will no longer be the CEO of this company."

Despite being small in stature, Jian Yiling's aura was commanding. Although Jane Yiling was small in stature, her aura was not small at all.

Everyone was surprised to hear this as Qin Chuan still held many shares in his company.

However, as Jian Yiling held more shares than him, she still had the advantage when it came to the company's decision-making.

Everyone's hearts jumped to their throats when they heard Jian Yiling's announcement.

She wanted to make Qin Chuan step down as the CEO!

This was ruthless!

Everyone looked at Qin Chuan in unison. How was Qin Chuan going to respond to this?

Would he willingly give up the company he founded?

With the Qin Group supporting him, even if he was no longer the CEO of this company, Qin Chuan would still be a force to be reckoned with. However, this company meant something different to Qin Chuan. He built this company up from scratch and poured his heart and soul into it.

Qin Chuan's reaction was calmer than everyone expected. He said to Jian Yiling: "Shouldn't you ask the other shareholders if they agree with your decision?"

Even though Jian Yiling was the largest shareholder, her shareholding did not exceed 51%. This meant she couldn't decide everything that happened in the company.

Chapter 1318: Qin Chuan Steps Down (2)

Therefore, if Jian Yiling wanted someone else to replace Qin Chuan, she still had to get other people to side with her.

Those who supported Qin Chuan immediately objected: "The company has only managed to come this far under the leadership of Mr. Qin. We should not get rid of someone once he's finished with his work."

“That’s right. The company was founded by Mr/ Qin. He’s the one who knows this company the best. He’s the only one who can lead us to success in the future.”

“And Mr. Qin is also the CEO of the Qin Group. Thereby, he can bring in a lot of resources and connections. For the sake of all of us, I disagree with Chairman Jian’s decision.”

Despite hearing this, Long Yuetian unhurriedly said: “Well, the Dingwen Group can provide you what the Qin Group provides. Mr. Zhai and Miss Jian can give you guys double what Qin Chuan can give you.”

After she said this, Long Yuetian took out a thick stack of information and placed it on the table.

“Lahaisen Hospital, Microsilver Ventures Capital, the Dingwen Group, Xuming Medical Manufacturers, the Jian Group, the Tianxing Group, and the Longheng Group. Altogether, I wonder if they’re worth more than the Qin Group?”

As she listed out these names, Long Yuetian and Jian Yiling’s assistant began distributing the copies of the information.

After everyone got a copy of the information, they quickly read through the documents.

Everyone was focused on the papers in their hands.

No sound could be heard in the conference room.

Although the Qin Group was powerful, their power and influence did not reach every industry.

On the other hand, there was more than just Lahaisen Hospital supporting Jian Yiling.

.....

The documents in their hands told them this.

On top of telling them what connections she had, there was also a business plan proposed. It was Jian Yiling’s plan for the future development of the company’s major projects.

All the major shareholders knew that they would benefit from this plan.

The temptation was too great.

Qin Chuan’s gaze swept over the thick stack of information.

Then, he smiled and said: “You are quite well prepared. It doesn’t seem like you just started preparing in the past month or two.”

Jian Yiling did not lie. Instead, she replied: “I’ve been afraid of you.”

From the very beginning, Jian Yiling was worried about becoming cannon fodder. She didn’t want her ending to be the same.

Qin Chuan slowly said: “So from the beginning, you were wary about me. You were focused on protecting yourself instead of..”

Instead of changing his opinion of her.

She clearly had the opportunity to do that. She had the opportunity to make him fall in love with her before he met Mo Shiyun.

However, Jian Yiling did not understand the sad look in Qin Chuan's eyes. Instead, she replied: "At first, I didn't think you were a bad person."

Even though Jian Yiling was wary of Qin Chuan, back then, she did not treat him as her enemy.

It was Qin Chuan who forced her to become his enemy.

As Qin Chuan looked into Jian Yiling's eyes, he was silent.

Everyone else in the conference room was still reading the information Jian Yiling had given them.

After a while, the shareholders who initially supported Qin Chuan began to waver. Those people who had previously already been convinced by Jian Yiling's decision came out to make their stance:

"I support Miss Jian's decision. Our company needs such a breakthrough to achieve longer-term development."

"I also support Miss Jian. Miss Jian's ability is evident to all of us."

"I will also support Miss Jian unconditionally."

Roughly speaking, together with the people who supported her decision, the overall shares held was more than 51%.

And thus, Qin Chuan lost. He was going to be thrown out of the company that he founded himself.

Chapter 1319: Tyrant Wife and Her Sweet Little Husband

From now on, he was just a shareholder of this company. He would no longer be the CEO. He would no longer hold any decision-making power.

Everyone in the conference room looked at Qin Chuan somewhat nervously.

If Jian Yiling treated him like this, he would definitely be very angry, right?

Under the crowd's gaze, Qin Chuan suddenly smiled: "Since you were the one who gave me something to begin with, I don't want it anymore. I will give everything back to you."

Qin Chuan's reaction was something that everyone was not expecting.

Everyone thought he would be furious. They did not expect him to just accept the final result.

And the expression on his face was sad and somewhat self-deprecating.

Following this, Qin Chuan left the conference room.

Did he just leave?

Did he just give up?

Why wasn't he angry? Why didn't he fight back?

In reality, even if he tried to fight back, it would just be a futile attempt.

Jian Yiling did not leave him any other options.

.....

If he walked away like this, at least he would keep his dignity and pride.

After Qin Chuan left, the meeting continued. Jian Yiling announced several new company rules and made some personnel arrangements.

Even though she had a soft voice, her aura commanded respect when she gave orders. Although everyone in the conference room was older than her, no one dared to object.

###

As soon as the meeting ended, everyone on the Internet heard about the news.

Qin Chuan got kicked out of the company he founded.

Everyone knew that Jian Yiling took revenge on Qin Chuan for her husband.

Netizens began to comment: [Tyrant wife and her sweet little husband.]

Many male netizens stated that Zhai Yunsheng must have saved the world in his past life. Otherwise, why would the world permit him to marry Jian Yiling?

At the normal meeting place for the Harmony League, Yu Xi, Han Mengyu, and Xing Wei all stared at Zhai Yunsheng. Throughout the entire afternoon, there was a smile on Zhai Yunsheng's face.

Han Mengyu deliberately said to Xing Wei: "Ahh, Xing Wei, Master Sheng seems very happy right now."

Xing Wei helplessly shook his head and replied: "Well, his wife spoils him rotten. Other than envying him, what else can we do?"

Han Mengyu lamented: "I really didn't expect that Jian Yiling owned Microsilver Venture Capital."

In recent years, all the well-developed companies knew about Microsilver Venture Capital.

Xing Wei commented: "I'm also amazed. Apparently, several of the companies that Microsilver Venture Capital invested in have gone public. How much is her net worth?"

Originally, they all assumed that Jian Yiling was merely the Dean of Lahaisen Hospital. By being the Dean of Lahaisen Hospital, she was talented at surgery and had connections with many people across the world.

Now they knew that Jian Yiling not only had medical skills and connections, but she was also very rich! She built up an entire business empire!

So what if the Zhai family became bankrupt?

She wouldn't even bat an eye at that!

Han Mengyu added: "Well, we don't know how much money she actually has. However, I know one thing for sure. She definitely has enough money to support Master Sheng. Master Sheng won't have to worry about food and clothing for the rest of his life. He just has to warm her bed."

Upon hearing this, Yu Xi let out a long sigh: "Usually, it's a tyrant CEO husband and his sweet little wife. However, Master Sheng is living the opposite life. He's also smiling happily about it..."

As Yu Xi looked at Zhai Yunsheng, he couldn't manage to add the word "shameless" into his sentence.

If Zhai Yunsheng was a bit weaker, maybe he would add that word in. But right now, he probably couldn't even take a punch.

Zhai Yunsheng smiled and asked: "Well, Yiling loves me dearly. Do you guys have a problem with that?"

"No no, definitely not," the three of them hurriedly shook their heads and waved their hands in denial.

They wouldn't dare to have a problem with that!

Chapter 1320: Yiling is Pregnant (1)

Then Xing Wei asked Zhai Yunsheng: "Master Sheng, your wife is very strong. When you have children in the future, will you be taking care of the children? Are you going to be a stay-at-home father whilst your wife goes out to earn money and support the family?"

Knowing that Zhai Yunsheng was in a good mood, Xing Wei deliberately teased him.

Upon hearing this, a smile appeared on Zhai Yunsheng's lips. He replied: "When did Yiling become strong? She's very delicate and fragile."

Delicate and fragile...

Master Sheng... Are you sure about this?

She made Qin Chuan step down as the CEO! Apparently, her aura was incredibly commanding at that meeting!

Despite joking around, Han Mengyu said to Zhai Yunsheng: "Whilst we're on this topic, we should think about Qin Chuan's matter. Everything isn't settled yet. We should not take the situation lightly. Even though Qin Chuan lost the company he founded, he still inherited the Qin Group from his father. The Qin Group has not been affected by recent evidence. Plus, he's now involved with some reclusive families. I believe he will definitely strike back."

Zhai Yunsheng knew with certainty that Qin Chuan would not just give up.

Likewise, he and Yiling didn't plan to stop just like that.

It wasn't a matter of whether they were too cruel. Rather, if they didn't destroy Qin Chuan, Qin Chuan would cause them trouble sooner or later.

And thus, instead of being passive and beaten, they might as well take the initiative to set things right.

In this regard, he was on the same wavelength as Jian Yiling.

.....

Jian Yiling was pregnant.

When she was at the hospital, she performed a test on herself.

The HCG level in her blood showed that she was two weeks pregnant.

When she realized this, Jian Yiling stroked her belly happily.

She was finally going to have a baby with A Sheng.

The person who took Jian Yiling's blood sample for testing was Liu Ting. He was currently holding the report card in his hand. However, instead of holding a piece of paper, he felt like he was holding a bomb.

"My goodness! Are you trying to kill me? Are you planning to take my life? If Brother Yunmo learns about this... His anger will engulf the world in flames! But I can't hide this news from him either! Ahhh, why is my life so difficult?" Liu Ting said stressfully.

In his mind, Liu Ting began to imagine a hundred ways he would end up dying.

"If I go to tell him about this news and he's performing an experiment... What if his hand shakes.... What if that causes an explosive? I definitely wouldn't be able to survive that. Okay okay, I can't tell him about this news when he's in the laboratory. But if I go and tell him this news when he's planting flowers, what if he stabs me with the shovel? If that shovel pierces my aorta, surgery has to be performed on me... But what if something bad happens during the time I'm sent to the operating room...? Okay okay, I can't tell him about this news when he's gardening either..." Liu Ting muttered to himself.

By the time he came back to his senses, Jian Yiling already walked out of the room.

"What? Where are you going?" Liu Ting cried out as he chased after Jian Yiling.

Didn't Jian Yiling have to worry about the safety of her baby's father!? If she wasn't worried about that, she had to worry about the safety of everyone else at the hospital! And if she wasn't worried about that either, she had to consider the trees surrounding their hospital!!!

By the time Liu Ting reached Jian Yunmo's office, it was already too late.

The atmosphere inside the office is frozen.

Liu Ting saw that every nerve on Jian Yunmo's face was tense.

His hand on the table kept tightening as he crushed a piece of paper into a ball.

Liu Ting felt that Jian Yunmo's hand was not crushing that piece of paper. Instead, Jian Yunmo was crushing his fragile little heart.
