Chapter 581: Face to Face Discussion

After Zhai Yunsheng verbally attacked Wen Ruo, he said to Jian Yiling: "I will get someone to go over and pick you up. Wait for me."

When Zhai Yunsheng received the video call, he already asked someone to go and pick up Jian Yiling.

Hmmm, so the Wen family did not think that he was a good person? Well, he could invite them over to have a talk then.

Not long after, Zhai Yunsheng's subordinates arrived at the coffee shop.

Several men in black suits walked into the coffee shop. They respectfully stood next to Jian Yiling, Wen Ruo, and Wen Cheng. Then, they invited the three of them into the car.

The car drove for some time before it reached a building that was owned by the Zhai family.

In fact, the entire building belonged to the Zhai family.

Jian Yiling, Wen Cheng, and Wen Ruo were escorted by the men in suits to an exclusive elevator. This elevator led to the topmost floor of the building.

The top floor was Zhai Yunsheng's office. On that floor, there was an office room that received important visitors.

Normal employees of the company did not have an opportunity to enter this floor.

Wen Cheng was a little confused.

What was he doing here?

This was something that he hadn't even thought about before.

Suddenly, the office door opened.

Inside the door was a spacious and bright office room. From the office room, one could see the bustling streets of Beijing.

Zhai Yunsheng smiled before he leaned back on his seat. He looked at the people that stood at his office door.

"Mr. Wen, please take a seat," Zhai Yunsheng invited.

Then, he got up and walked towards Jian Yiling. He whispered in her ear: "There's a lounge room on this level. Go and take a nap. I'll call you in a while to have lunch."

"Okay," Jian Yiling responded. There was no point for her to stay here in the first place. She could go to the lounge room to concentrate on her own work.

And thus, Jian Yiling walked into Zhai Yunsheng's exclusive lounge room that was connected to his office.

There was a king sized bed in the lounge room. In addition, there was also a washroom. This lounge room could easily act as a bedroom.

And thus, Jian Yiling took out her laptop in the lounge room.

After dealing with some work-related matters, she looked at a message from Li Zhuojia:

[Dean, Qin Hongrui got discharged from our hospital. We can send him back tomorrow.]

[Mhmm.]

[I sent you another list of patients. Please take a look at it before picking one of them.]

[Okay.]

[In addition, there is also a mysterious organization that's trying to track us down. They are trying to track us down from the shares that you transferred to Mr. Jian Yichen.]

In the past two years, there were many people and organizations that attempted to investigate into Lahaisen Hospital.

However, this was the first time that someone started investigating from the point of a transfer of shares.

[Understood.]

###

In the office room, Wen Cheng and Wen Ruo were in an apprehensive mood.

Zhai Yunsheng was not someone that they wanted to offend. This was something known by everyone.

This was especially true for today's events. Today's events had caught them off guard.

"Mr. Wen, it seems as though you have some opinions about me," Zhai Yunsheng started. He was relatively polite with his tone.

"Umm... Master Sheng... My... My niece is still young... She..."

"You don't want me to take advantage of her right?"

"Yes! Yes!"

"I won't take advantage of her. Please rest assured," Zhai Yunsheng promised.

"Then... Do you mean..."

"However, we have the freedom to choose who we want to date. Please do not intervene with this matter."

Wen Cheng stared at Zhai Yunsheng skeptically. He did not know whether or not he should believe him.

Master Sheng could do whatever he wanted. He did not need to lie to him.

On the other hand, when Wen Ruo heard Zhai Yunsheng's words, she felt surprised and upset.

Chapter 582: Don't Blame Me For Being Impolite

Wen Ruo hung her head down. She did not want Zhai Yunsheng to see her expression.

Was Zhai Yunsheng being serious about Jian Yiling?

Was this really the case?

This thought haunted Wen Ruo's mind. She couldn't get rid of it.

After Wen Cheng pondered for quite some time, he asked: "Master Sheng, even though you have the freedom to choose who you want to date, aren't you a bit too close to Jian Yiling?"

Just now, Zhai Yunsheng had led Jian Yiling into his lounge room.

This felt a little dangerous.

Jian Yiling was still young. Holding hands was already enough.

How could they possibly share a room?

Furthermore, young people could be impulsive. Having a young man and young woman together in a secluded setting was definitely inappropriate.

Zhai Yunsheng would definitely take advantage of his niece!

This was absolutely not okay! His niece was still young!

Furthermore, even if Zhai Yunsheng was serious about their relationship right now, would he still be serious in the future? There was no guarantee for that.

In fact nowadays, young people could fall in love today and break up tomorrow. This was a relatively common occurrence.

Zhai Yunsheng had too many attractive people around him... He could be easily tempted...

"Too close?" Zhai Yunsheng asked as he raised his eyebrow.

"Yeah..." Wen Cheng started. "You shouldn't get too close. It's... It's not appropriate..."

Wen Cheng stammered as he said this. He did not feel confident at all.

He was aware that it was quite normal for university students to date and get into relationships.

However, when things happened to his own daughter or niece, he had completely different standards.

Of course, Wen Cheng had no idea that Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng were living together.

If he did know about this, his reaction right now would be completely different.

Zhai Yunsheng smiled. He decided to not elaborate any further on this matter.

Instead, the last thing he told Wen Cheng was: "If you let me know that you're speaking nonsense in front of Jian Yiling again, don't blame me for being impolite in the future."

Zhai Yunsheng had already considered the Wen family's feelings and sensitivities.

He didn't plan to be polite to them if this happened again.

Wen Cheng knew what would happen if Zhai Yunsheng got annoyed.

The consequences were definitely something that the Wen family could not afford to bear.

And thus, Wen Cheng was faced with a difficult choice. He didn't want to become enemies with Zhai Yunsheng. However, at the same time, he didn't want his niece to be hurt.

After weighing up the consequences, Wen Cheng still could not come to a conclusion.

Instead, Zhai Yunsheng asked Wen Cheng and Wen Ruo to leave.

Zhai Yunsheng did not care about Wen Cheng's answer.

After his talk with Wen Cheng, Zhai Yunsheng entered the lounge room.

To his surprise, Jian Yiling had fallen asleep on the bed.

However, there was still a computer next to her.

Zhai Yunsheng shook his head in frustration.

It seemed as though his rabbit had been training up her rabbit skills.

Even if it was late at night, she still refused to sleep. She kept spending her time on work.

She didn't listen to his suggestions. On top of this, she refused to accept his help.

It appeared as though she was determined to do everything by herself.

Did she not believe that there were other people in the world who wanted to protect her? Did she not believe that he was willing to share her burden?

However, Zhai Yunsheng didn't move Jian Yiling. He was afraid to wake her up. Zhai Yunsheng wanted her to sleep a bit more. She rarely got the time to sleep.

And thus, he took out a thin blanket from a cupboard. Then, he placed the blanket on top of her body.

After that, he moved a seat over to the bed. He quietly accompanied her as she slept.

Jian Yiling slept for quite some time. However, when she opened her eyes, she immediately saw Zhai Yunsheng.

When their eyes met, Jian Yiling quickly blinked her eyes.

As Jian Yiling had just woken up, the look on her face was confused and muddled. Zhai Yunsheng wanted to tease her again.

He reached out and gently pinched Jian Yiling's nose.

"Are you hungry?"

Jian Yiling slept through lunchtime.

It was almost one o'clock. Typically, she would have finished her lunch by now.

"Mhmm."

"Get up to eat then."

Zhai Yunsheng had asked someone to buy food during the time that Jian Yiling was asleep.

Then, Zhai Yunsheng picked up Jian Yiling.

Chapter 583: Color of the Sweater

Jian Yiling stared at Zhai Yunsheng with widened eyes. However, her body did not fight against him.

For some reason, she did not dislike his touch. She did not feel the impulse to push him away.

However, when it came to other people, she still needed to restrain herself when they had physical contact with her. She had to make sure that she did not push the other person away. This was the case even with older women.

As Jian Yiling was very light, Zhai Yunsheng could lift her up with both hands. She appeared to be very small and fragile in his embrace.

When would she understand that she could just rely on him? She was such a fragile human being.

When would she trust him completely?

Zhai Yunsheng placed Jian Yiling down on a seat next to a dining table. Then, he glanced at her face. Jian Yiling's face was flushed red.

After staring at her for a moment, he quickly moved his eyes away.

"Eat," Zhai Yunsheng said to Jian Yiling. However, it also seemed as though he was saying this to himself.

After they finished eating, Zhai Yunsheng asked Jian Yiling about the sweater she was knitting.

Last time, Jian Yiling had promised to knit Zhai Yunsheng a sweater after she finished knitting the one for Jian Yubo.

Jian Yiling fished out some knitting wool from her bag.

"Is this color okay?"

Beige.

"Why this color?" Zhai Yunsheng asked. Initially, he assumed that she would use black.

"You're warm," Jian Yiling responded.

The color beige felt warm.

"Warm?" Zhai Yunsheng asked. Then, he suddenly remembered the memo name Jian Yiling gave him.

"Is it because my name has two suns in it[1]?"

“Three,” Jian Yiling replied.

“Three?”

“You’ve helped me a lot[2],” Jian Yiling explained.

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng smiled.

In the past, when Jian Yiling was helpless and alone, Zhai Yunsheng had offered her a helping hand. To her, he was like the sunlight that broke apart her darkness.

Jian Yiling had finished the sweater for Jian Yubo.

She wanted to send him the sweater before winter arrived.

However, Jian Yiling did not know where Jian Yubo was.

Jian Yiling stared at the sweater in front of her. She wondered about Jian Yubo’s current address.

At this moment, Zhai Yunsheng opened up a drawer. He took out a piece of paper that had an address on it. Then, he handed the piece of paper to Jian Yiling.

“Jian Yubo’s current address.”

“How did you...”

How did he know that she wanted his address?

“Well, I knew that it would be needed after you finished knitting the sweater.”

Naturally, Jian Yiling planned to give Jian Yubo the sweater.

And thus, Zhai Yunsheng decided to help Jian Yiling find Jian Yubo’s address.

Jian Yiling looked at the piece of paper. For some reason, her heart felt warm.

The feeling felt similar to when she ate candy.

Later on, Jian Yiling mailed the sweater to the address on the piece of paper.

###

The place that Jian Yubo stayed at was not far away from Beijing.

And thus, Jian Yiling’s parcel arrived in his hands on the next day.

Jian Yubo never expected to receive a parcel.

He assumed that no one knew that he was here.

Jian Yubo did not open the parcel immediately. However, his teacher said: “Although it’s unexpected, perhaps, it was destined to be.”

Jian Yubo did not know what was inside the parcel.

It was a parcel that was not supposed to be here.

And thus, after a while, Jian Yubo opened it.

Inside the parcel was a hand-knitted sweater.

Then, he saw a document at the bottom of the parcel. It was the share transfer document that his lawyer had written up. His lawyer had asked Jian Yiling to sign the document.

The document had suddenly appeared in front of him.

However, Jian Yiling's signature was still missing.

She had returned what he wanted to give her.

Jian Yubo held the sweater in his hands. Suddenly, he began to laugh.

Then, he felt the corners of his eyes water.

Perhaps, that teenager who played Go under the banyan tree really existed. That teenager had always existed in someone else's heart.

Chapter 584: Qin Yufan and Jian Yichen Got Kidnapped

Qin Yufan had gotten kidnapped.

The last time she got into such a situation, Jian Yichen was the person who saved her.

However, she wasn't so lucky this time.

Even with the protection of her bodyguards, she was still kidnapped.

The kidnappers ambushed her inside the bar that she frequently went to.

However, Jian Yichen was taken away as well.

When Qin Yufan got kidnapped, Jian Yichen was present at the bar as well.

As a result, the two were kidnapped together by the kidnappers.

Now, they were locked up in a basement.

There was only a bit of light in the basement.

Qin Yufan and Jian Yichen had just woken up. They had gotten knocked out by chloroform.

Before they lost consciousness, the two of them had been drinking at the bar.

After Qin Yufan regained consciousness, she nudged at Jian Yichen. She wanted Jian Yichen to wake up.

After waking up, Jian Yichen looked at his surroundings.

It appeared as though they were locked up in an underground basement.

The room was ten square meters in size.

In addition, there was an old-fashioned light bulb above them. It appeared to be a halogen light bulb.

Other than the light bulb and the two of them, there was nothing else in the room.

“So, were we kidnapped?” Jian Yichen asked.

“Yeah,” Qin Yufan responded. Qin Yufan had already confirmed this matter before Jian Yichen had woken up.

“Is the target you or me?”

“It’s more likely to be me,” Qin Yufan replied. She didn’t give this response because she was conceited. Rather, it was because she knew that she was the young lady of the Qin family.

“Hmm, it’s not a big problem,” Jian Yichen responded. Regardless of who was the target, the two of them still had to find a way to escape.

And thus, Jian Yichen began to fumble around.

“There’s no point in doing that. They’ve already taken away anything that’s useful.”

It was impossible for the kidnappers to leave them with a cell phone.

“Well, unless they skin me, everything is okay,” Jian Yichen responded.

Jian Yichen pressed something behind his ear.

“What... What do you have?”

“I have a location tracking system implanted under my skin.”

“Huh? You implanted that kind of thing in your body?”

“Is there a problem?” Jian Yichen asked.

Of course, there was a problem, Qin Yufan thought to herself.

All of a sudden, Qin Yufan felt the atmosphere change.

When Jian Yichen was drinking, she seemed charming and flirtatious.

However, she suddenly became very serious and reliable.

“What exactly do you do?” Qin Yufan asked Jian Yichen.

Qin Yufan had spent a lot of time with Jian Yichen. They often drank together. However, she still did not understand the person in front of her.

“Business, I guess,” Jian Yichen responded. As he said this, Jian Yichen began to take off his shoes.

After taking off his high heels, Jian Yichen took out his chest paddings in front of Qin Yufan.

Qin Yufan was dumbfounded.

Her chest... Her chest was fake...

It appeared as though the kidnappers did not expect that the 'sexy beauty' in front of them was actually fake.

"You're... You're a man?!" Qin Yufan cried out. She began to doubt her entire life. She had spent so much time with him! However, she never realized that this girl called 'Yichen' was a man!

She was lied to!

"I never said I was a woman," Jian Yichen responded.

As he said this, he changed back to his normal voice.

His previously charming feminine voice became masculine.

"Your voice..." Qin Yufan stammered. She did not know what to say.

"I can change my voice. This isn't a voice changer. I wouldn't get a voice changer implanted in me. I wouldn't mistreat myself like that," Jian Yichen responded.

"You..."

Qin Yufan was still stunned. She did not know what words to use to describe her current mood.

Chapter 585: Jian Yichen is Mysterious and Unpredictable

Jian Yichen pulled something out of the inside of his high heels. Then, he took something out from the inside of his chest pads.

After that, he took pieces off the bracelet and necklace that he was wearing.

After assembling the bits and pieces in front of him, a simple communication device was created.

Qin Yufan was shocked.

Would a normal person carry these things on them?

"You... It's like you knew that we were going to be kidnapped in the first place..."

"If I said that I did not know that, would you believe me?"

He always carried these things with him. These bits and pieces could be found in almost every pair of shoes he owned.

As he talked to Qin Yufan, he began to contact someone.

Very quickly, he got into contact with his subordinates.

"I give you thirty minutes to handle this. They could kill us at any moment."

Jian Yichen used a commanding tone as he said this.

Jian Yichen's words were simple and clear. After a few sentences, he stopped speaking.

He had already turned on the tracking device. There was no need for him to communicate to his subordinates any further.

The call was merely to ensure that they move faster.

After he stopped communicating with his subordinates, Jian Yichen said to Qin Yufan: "Don't worry. You'll be fine. If they come in later on, just hide behind me."

"Why do you want to protect me?" Qin Yufan asked.

Qin Yufan did not trust Jian Yichen.

This person could even fake their gender! How could she trust him?

"Don't be emotionally touched. I have my reasons," Jian Yichen responded.

"What are your reasons?" Qin Yufan asked. She felt more reassured when she heard this.

"I harbor animosity towards Qin Chuan. I want to use you to deal with Qin Chuan. As long as you inherit everything, Qin Chuan will just be an ordinary person," Jian Yichen responded.

"You mentioned this last time. You said that someone from the Qin Group wants to harm me. Is that person Qin Chuan?" Qin Yufan asked.

Because of the Lahaisen Hospital incident, Qin Yufan and Qin Chuan's relationship had eased up.

"Although I would love to say yes, that's not the case. If I were to say yes, you would definitely deal with him after you get out of here," Jian Yichen responded. However, Jian Yichen still chose to tell the truth: "However, it's someone else. That person wants you to think that Qin Chuan did this. When the sandpiper fights with the clam, it's the fisherman that wins. You can think about who the fisherman is."

Qin Yufan was not stupid. She immediately understood Jian Yichen's words. There was someone else in the Qin Group who could benefit from all of this.

###

The kidnappers called the Qin family.

They asked the Qin family to pay a huge sum of money. In addition, they told the Qin family that they could not report this matter to the police.

The Qin family did not dare to disclose this information to anyone else. However, they immediately called for a family meeting.

In the living room of the Qin family villa, almost everyone from the Qin family was present. Qin Hongrui was an exception. This was because he was still recovering from his surgery.

"With all due respect, I still think it's better to call the police. For all we know, it could be someone from the Qin family who orchestrated this."

The person said this in an incredibly roundabout way. However, he directed those words at Qin Chuan.

"I disagree with that. The kidnappers told us to not call the police. Qin Yufan could lose her life."

There were others in the family who opposed calling the police.

There was an incredibly worried expression on Qin Hongzhi's face. His daughter had been kidnapped. This made his heart feel incredibly tormented.

Although the ransom amount was not small, the Qin Group could still afford to pay it.

Furthermore, he only had one daughter. He definitely wanted to save her.

However, he was worried that the kidnappers would go back on their words. They could easily kill Qin Yufan.

The kidnappers demanded the ransom to be wired to a designated RS bank account. Other than this, they did not have any other chance to further communicate with the kidnappers.

"If we don't call the police, what should we do to ensure Yufan's safety?" Qin Hongzhi asked everyone.

Chapter 586: Protect Her

No one from the Qin family spoke up.

No one knew what to do.

They did not want to be blamed for the death of Qin Yufan.

Even if they called the police, Qin Yufan could still get killed. They did not know what the kidnappers planned to do.

Qin Chuan did not express his opinion regarding the matter.

However, this wasn't because he didn't want to say anything. But rather, in the eyes of the Qin family, Qin Chuan was considered to be the biggest suspect. Furthermore, he didn't know how to save his cousin either.

Just when the Qin family was at a loss of what to do, a group of maintenance workers turned up at the door.

However, nothing needed to be repaired in the Qin family.

In addition, no one had called for maintenance workers.

After the maintenance workers entered the door, they exercised control over everyone in the Qin family.

Then, they turned on a device that would interfere with signal and communication.

Finally, they scanned the Qin family's living room. This was to ensure that there were no wiretaps or surveillance cameras in the room.

The Qin family was rather confused. What was happening? Then, someone turned up to explain the situation to them.

"Someone called the police. Her brother went missing. Her brother was kidnapped along with Miss Yufan. And thus, please cooperate with us for this case."

The person who spoke was Superintendent Ruan from the Special Criminal Investigation Division.

Qin Hongzhi took a moment to digest Superintendent Ruan's words.

He was very grateful that Superintendent Ruan was here to help his daughter.

Then, Superintendent Ruan asked everyone in the Qin family to stay in the living room. They were not allowed to leave.

"Why? Why are you not going to find the kidnappers? Why are you restricting our movements instead?" Someone from the Qin family asked.

"Because you're all suspects. As far as I know, Miss Yufan has always been protected by professional bodyguards. And thus, in order to kidnap her, the kidnappers must know her incredibly well. Therefore, each and every one of you is a suspect. If you want to clear your suspicions, please listen to me and cooperate with our investigation. Stay here and do not leave the living room. On top of this, do not try to make contact with anyone else."

Superintendent Ruan's words made everyone in the Qin family settle down.

No one wanted to be a suspect.

###

The door of the room that imprisoned Jian Yichen and Qin Yufan was opened.

At this time, Jian Yichen had put his shoes and chest pads back into place.

The people who entered the room looked well-trained. They did not appear to be ordinary individuals.

A few of them walked forward to grab Qin Yufan.

However, Jian Yichen decisively stepped in front of her.

Qin Yufan's heart felt touched when she saw Jian Yichen protecting her.

However, she also knew that she had to stay alive to accomplish what Jian Yichen wanted. That was the reason why he was protecting her.

She was important to him. He needed her to deal with Qin Chuan.

"You're looking for death!"

After trying to brush Jian Yichen off, one of the men ran out of patience. He kicked Jian Yichen in the stomach.

However, Jian Yichen did not flinch in pain. Instead, he asked: "Is that all you've got?"

When the man heard this, he turned around to face Jian Yichen. He completely gave up on his original target. Then, he slammed his fist into Jian Yichen's face.

This caused blood to come out of the corner of Jian Yichen's mouth.

"That doesn't hurt at all. In fact, your punch doesn't even tickle. You're far worse than my brother," Jian Yichen laughed.

Of course, the man did not plan to let Jian Yichen smile for long. He took out a blade.

“Let’s see how long you’re going to act tough for!”

The man’s movement shocked Qin Yufan.

“Just let them take me away. They don’t necessarily plan to do anything to me.”

Qin Yufan did not want anything to happen to Jian Yichen.

“Stay put,” Jian Yichen replied in a deep voice. He used a commanding tone as he said this.

The smile was still there on his lips. It was a lunatic-like smile.

Was he crazy? Why was he still smiling?!

Chapter 587: Escaping From Danger

Qin Yufan watched Jian Yichen get beaten up. As she watched, she felt like her heart was in her throat.

However, it seemed as though Jian Yichen felt no pain at all.

He let them beat him up. In fact, he continued to mock them.

The harder those men hit, the more wildly he would laugh.

Qin Yufan felt that he would be killed by these people if he continued to act like this.

And thus, she lunged forward to pull one of them back.

Yet, she was easily shoved to the side.

In the end, Qin Yufan was only a young lady. She didn’t have the strength to stop these people.

She could only watch Jian Yichen get beaten up. He was getting beaten up for her.

However, Jian Yichen was still laughing.

He even called the kidnappers “a bunch of trash.”

“Damn! Are you brain damaged? How are you still laughing? I will make sure that you’re crying by the time that I’m done with you! If not, I will change my surname to yours!”

“You only have five more minutes,” Jian Yichen replied. His gaze was certain.

“Five minutes? Who are you kidding? I have heaps of time to play with you! I was bored waiting for the Qin family’s money anyway. Originally, I planned to play around with Qin Yufan. It’d be a delight to destroy her fragile and soft skin. However, playing around with you works as well!”

Then, the leader of the kidnappers picked up a baseball bat: “Let’s see whether your bones are hard enough!”

“Boom——”

A loud sound came from outside.

The outermost iron door was violently opened.

A large group of well-trained security personnel rushed in.

The kidnappers were in shock.

How could this be? This place was well hidden! It couldn't have possibly been found so quickly!

They were confident about this!

If they hadn't been fully prepared, they wouldn't have dared to make a move on Qin Yufan!

"Tch—" Jian Yichen laughed. "You arrived five minutes early. Not bad."

Jian Yichen had given them half an hour.

Before this, he could not let these people separate him and Qin Yufan.

Once separated, there would be no way for him to track where Qin Yufan was.

"Who are you?" the leader of the kidnappers asked.

This person had been violently beating up Jian Yichen.

However, these men ignored him. Instead, they asked Jian Yichen:

"Boss, what should we do with these people?"

"Arrest them. Then, call the police. Investigate into the behind-the-scenes mastermind."

Upon hearing this, the kidnapper's expressions changed.

The leader of the kidnappers calmly ordered: "Brothers, take care of these people. Then, let's immediately withdraw from here."

If this group was smart, they would have called the police first.

If that was the case, they would have had no chance to escape. They could only wait to be captured.

However, now, they definitely had the time to escape.

As soon as the people in front of them were dealt with, they could leave immediately. They had already planned a subsequent escape path.

They only had to get out of this place.

However, what happened next was something they could not have imagined.

The people who rushed in were incredibly well-trained!

One of them could beat up three kidnappers! Not to mention that they themselves already had an advantage in numbers.

Jian Yichen continued to laugh: "They've all been trained with the help of my older brother. Your punches are nothing to me. They don't even tickle."

Jian Yichen's body was covered with wounds. However, he was still laughing like a maniac.

Qin Yufan stared at him.

Then, Jian Yichen turned around to look at Qin Yufan: "These kidnappers are probably hired by someone. Otherwise, they couldn't possibly kidnap you from under the noses of your bodyguards. If you can't find the mastermind that's behind the scenes, please take care in the future. You need to be careful."

"Forget about that for now... Your wounds..."

Chapter 588: Yiling, Why Are You Here?

Why was he still worried about other matters? He had to take care of himself!

Why was he so stupid?

Was it really that important for him to deal with Qin Chuan?

"It's okay. I won't die," Jian Yichen said as he tilted his head. The indifferent smile was still on his face.

However, if his men hadn't arrived in time, he would at least be half dead!

Was getting revenge that important to him? Did it matter more than his life? What the hell was he thinking?

Furthermore, if he died, how would he get his revenge?

###

Jian Yichen and Qin Yufan were taken to the hospital for a physical examination.

Jian Yichen had numerous wounds on his body.

Due to their different genders, they were taken to different wards.

Not long after Jian Yichen arrived at the hospital, he saw Jian Yiling.

He hadn't informed Jian Yiling and the rest of his family about his matters. Then, why was she here?

"Yiling... Why are you here?" As soon as he saw Jian Yiling, his face changed.

He was calm and indifferent when facing his kidnappers. However, the complete opposite was true as he faced Jian Yiling.

When Jian Yiling saw Jian Yichen, he had already taken off his wig and makeup. Right now, he was wearing a hospital gown. She could tell from a glance that he had severe injuries.

Jian Yiling did not say anything. However, her expressionless look made Jian Yichen even more nervous for some reason.

"Yiling... I... I accidentally fell," Jian Yichen said. He attempted to lie through his teeth.

Upon hearing this, Jian Yiling stared at him.

Ahh... It seemed as though his words were not convincing at all...

There were still police outside. It was clear that things were not that simple.

"I'm fine. Please don't worry about me. Don't get angry either... Look at me! There's nothing wrong at all!"

Then, Jian Yichen gently tugged at Jian Yiling's sleeves. It was as though he was trying to win her favor.

At this moment, the doctor walked in with his X-ray images.

"Two bone fractures and multiple fissure fractures."

Upon hearing this, Jian Yiling turned around to look at Jian Yichen again.

Jian Yichen hung his head down.

Ahh... It seemed as though he was actually injured.

Then, the doctor handed the X-ray film to Jian Yiling. The doctor explained the situation in detail to her.

The more he listened to their conversation, the worse his conscience felt.

Then, Jian Yiling discussed Jian Yichen's treatment plan with the doctor. There were minor bone fractures around the ribs. After discussion, it was decided to adopt conservative treatment. In this case, no surgery was needed.

But even so, it would take Jian Yichen a long time to get better.

Then, Superintendent Ruan entered the ward.

As soon as Jian Yichen saw Superintendent Ruan, he began to signal him with his eyes. He wanted Superintendent Ruan to leave.

However, Superintendent Ruan walked straight to Jian Yiling.

"We've investigated everyone in the Qin family. Nothing was found to be suspicious," Superintendent Ruan said to Jian Yiling.

"Send me a copy of their oral statements," Jian Yiling said.

"Okay."

Jian Yichen looked on in amazement.

He understood the exchange between Jian Yiling and the doctor. After all, Jian Yiling was a medical student. She also had a relatively well-known teacher.

But why was Superintendent Ruan talking about his case with his sister?

Why was he communicating the details of the case to Jian Yiling?

Previously, Jian Yichen planned to hide this matter from his sister. However, it seemed as though his sister was now completely aware of the situation. In fact, she also seemed to know Superintendent Ruan quite well.

Jian Yichen felt like he was a child who did something wrong. He did not dare to make a sound next to them.

After a while, Superintendent Ruan turned around to ask Jian Yichen for his recount of what had happened.

As he was in front of Jian Yiling, Jian Yichen appeared to be quite embarrassed.

However, Superintendent Ruan said bluntly: "Mr. Yichen, please cooperate with us."

"Could..."

Jian Yichen took a look at Jian Yiling. It wasn't that he was unwilling to cooperate. Rather, he didn't want to recount what had happened in front of his sister. He had gotten beaten up so badly...

Chapter 589: I Know What I Did Wrong~

"Even if you avoid her right now, she will still learn about it later," Superintendent Ruan told Jian Yichen quite clearly.

Jian Yiling was the adviser and forensic investigator of their team.

And thus, she had the right to know about this case. In fact, she was an important member of their investigation team.

Thereby, Jian Yichen had no choice but to obediently explain how he was severely beaten up by the kidnapers.

His brotherly image... Was completely lost.

After Superintendent Ruan left, Jian Yiling applied cream to the bruises and cuts on Jian Yichen's body.

Amongst the brothers in the Jian family, Jian Yichen had a relatively small body frame.

This was especially the case if his body frame was compared to his brother's. In contrast, Jian Yiheng was incredibly muscular and buff.

If the person that was kidnapped today was Jian Yiheng, then the kidnapers would definitely be in for a bad time.

Furthermore, Jian Yichen's skin was fairer and more delicate than an average man's. This made the wounds on his skin look more shocking.

"妹妹,疼,疼...轻点..."

"Sister... It hurts... Hurts... Gently..."

Jian Yiling was not gentle at all as she applied cream to Jian Yichen's wounds.

This caused Jian Yichen to howl in pain.

However, Jian Yiling did not make a sound. She still continued to apply the cream in the same way.

So he knows the feeling of pain?

Then, why didn't he plead for forgiveness when he was getting beaten up?

"Yiling~ I know what I did wrong... Don't be upset~"

Jian Yichen begged Jian Yiling for forgiveness.

He was trying to win over her forgiveness.

"Do you dare to do this again?"

Jian Yiling was upset that Jian Yichen wasn't taking care of his body.

The expression on Jian Yiling's face was serious. Although her voice was soft, she was still very scary.

"Definitely not! I promise that this won't happen again!" Jian Yichen replied hurriedly. He made sure to reassure Jian Yiling.

Jian Yiling looked at him for a while. Then, she was much more gentle in applying the cream to his wounds.

Qin Yufan came over to see Jian Yichen.

She had much lighter injuries than Jian Yichen. As a result, she only had a brief checkup. As the doctor declared that she was okay, she left her ward to come and visit Jian Yichen.

As soon as she stopped at the door of Jian Yichen's room, she saw Jian Yiling and Jian Yichen.

Both of them were smiling and chatting. It appeared as though they knew each other quite well.

Qin Yufan froze.

Weren't they a bit too close? How well did they know each other?

Furthermore, the way that he looked at Jian Yiling... It was so soft and gentle...

And thus, Qin Yufan couldn't help but think more about the situation.

As Qin Yufan stood at the door, she felt like turning around to leave.

However, on second thought, she felt that she should thank Jian Yichen again. She shouldn't forget what he did for her just because she was unhappy.

And thus, she paused at the door for some time. Then, she decided to open the door and enter the ward.

"I'm here to thank you," Qin Yufan said.

When she saw the injuries on Jian Yichen's body, a stab of pain could be felt in her heart.

"You're welcome," Jian Yichen said with a smile on his face. However, his smile seemed quite out of place with the injuries scattered over his body.

"I will try my best to achieve what you want," Qin Yufan said.

"Thank you," Jian Yichen replied.

"I have one more question for you."

"Please ask away."

"If you want me to deal with Qin Chuan, you could have just let me misunderstand the situation. I assumed Qin Chuan kidnapped me. In that situation, I would naturally do my best to help you deal with Qin Chuan."

"Heh," Jian Yichen laughed. He paused before he spoke again: "Perhaps I don't want to do things that way. Or perhaps, I don't want you to be overwhelmed by revenge and hatred. In that situation, being in such a state makes it unlikely that you will win against him. Your mind will be tunneled on hatred."

Qin Yufan was silent for a while. Then, her eyes lingered on Jian Yiling for a moment.

She wanted to ask Jian Yiling why she was here.

However, her pride did not allow her to do so. She did not want to probe too much into this matter.

After walking out of the room, Qin Yufan suddenly felt very angry.

However, she did not know why she was angry. Many things could have contributed to her anger.

Chapter 590: Master Sheng, Do You Like My Sister?

After Jian Yichen got injured, Jian Yiling took on the responsibility of taking care of him.

Jian Yichen did not dare to tell his parents about his situation.

However, despite his injuries, Jian Yichen found the situation to be incredibly amusing. He was amused to see Zhai Yunsheng's sunken expression.

"Why are you smiling? You got bashed up so badly," Zhai Yunsheng taunted Jian Yichen.

"It doesn't matter," Jian Yichen replied. His tone was flat and casual. "I'm not afraid of physical pain."

Physical pain was temporary. On the other hand, wounds on the heart always existed.

"Pigeon soup or pork rib soup?" Jian Yiling asked Jian Yichen.

"Pigeon soup," Jian Yichen replied with a smile. Then, he provocatively glanced at Zhai Yunsheng. It was as though he was taunting Zhai Yunsheng.

After this, Jian Yiling ran off into the kitchen to make soup for Jian Yichen.

As Jian Yichen watched his sister leave, he smiled.

He had his sister's care. She was making soup for him. His days were wonderful.

Being alive was wonderful.

Therefore, this time around, they all had to stay alive.

Jian Yichen turned around and looked at Zhai Yunsheng. Although Zhai Yunsheng was not close with Yiling in their previous life, he had still buried her after she passed away. Jian Yichen was still grateful to him for this.

If he weren't the Young Master of the Zhai family, and if he didn't have heart problems, then perhaps, he would be the right person for Yiling.

However, he was going to die young. The more they loved each other, the more hurt Yiling would be later on.

He knew that his sister's heart was actually incredibly sensitive. Furthermore, if she loved someone, she would love them to the bone.

And thus, he did not want Yiling to be together with Zhai Yunsheng. He did not want to imagine the pain Yiling would suffer if something happened to Zhai Yunsheng.

Therefore, even if his actions right now were unreasonable, he still did not want to put his sister into endless pain later on.

"Zhai Yunsheng, do you like my sister?"

As Yiling was busy in the kitchen right now, Jian Yichen decided to speak about the matter to Zhai Yunsheng.

"What do you want to know?" Zhai Yunsheng asked rhetorically.

"If you like my sister, then you should let her go. You shouldn't be treating her like this," Jian Yichen replied. "I know your health condition. You could die at any moment. My sister is a very emotional person. Although she seems cold and indifferent, that's only at the surface level. She's just afraid of getting hurt. Furthermore, even if she gets hurt, she hides her pain. She's that type of person. Therefore, can you imagine what will happen if you leave her after she falls in love with you? How do you think she will live the rest of her life?"

Jian Yichen's words deeply stung Zhai Yunsheng.

He had thought about this a long time ago.

Back then, he decided to let go. He decided to take a step back.

Just... Just, in the end, he couldn't do it anymore.

In the face of Jian Yichen's questions, Zhai Yunsheng was silent.

There was nothing that he could say.

He knew that his decision could bring Jian Yiling a lifetime of pain.

However, he was still selfish. He still chose to be with her.

Then, Jian Yichen continued to say: "And thus, even if you know that this is going to happen, are you still planning to be with her?"

Zhai Yunsheng replied: "Well, if she doesn't love me, then I won't manage to hurt her in the first place. However, if she loves me, then I will never let go."

Zhai Yunsheng was willing to take a gamble. He was gambling with fate.

He didn't have the right to love anyone. However, he was not willing to let go again.

Therefore, the final choice was in Jian Yiling's hands.

If she didn't love him, then he wouldn't force her to be with him.

However, upon hearing this, Jian Yichen replied: "Well, I will prevent this at all costs then."

At this moment, Jian Yiling returned from the kitchen. By this time, the conversation between the two men had already ended.

The two men acted as though nothing had happened. They smiled as they drank the soup made by Jian Yiling.
