

Sidekick 591

Chapter 591: Revealing Her Identity (1)

Jian Yiling was trying to talk to the receptionist of the Long Heng Group.

She wanted to see the CEO of the Long Heng Group.

However, Jian Yiling's request was decisively rejected by the receptionist.

"Apologies young lady. You don't have an appointment nor a valid reason to meet our CEO. Our CEO will not speak to you."

"I'm here to discuss business," Jian Yiling replied. In her eyes, this was a valid reason.

Jian Yiling said this seriously. However, the receptionist did not take her seriously.

This little girl did not look like she was here to discuss business.

And even if she was here to discuss business, did the CEO of Long Heng Group have time for any random that turned up?

"I'm sorry but please leave. This is not a place for you to play around," the receptionist replied. She rejected Jian Yiling once again. This time, the expression on the receptionist's face had become unpleasant.

At this moment, Mo Shiyun also appeared at the reception desk of Long Heng Group.

Ryan was a senior director of Long Heng's consulting group. Mo Shiyun came here to wait for him.

As it was not her first time visiting Ryan, the receptionist immediately recognized her.

This actress who was quite well known on social media platforms was the girlfriend of Ryan.

The moment she saw Jian Yiling, Mo Shiyun's face sank.

Why was Jian Yiling still haunting her?

What did she want again?

However, Jian Yiling did not want to talk to Mo Shiyun.

Instead, she continued to speak to the receptionist: "I want to talk to your CEO."

"I've told you that you can't meet our CEO without an appointment. I've repeated this many times already."

"I do have an appointment," Jian Yiling emphasized.

"Stop joking around. Our CEO only has an appointment with one person today. That person is a Doctor with the surname Fu."

The girl in front of her looked like a high school student. She definitely had nothing to do with being a Doctor.

Mo Shiyun deliberately did not leave. She wanted to see what Jian Yiling intended to do at Long Heng Group.

It seemed as though she was here to meet the CEO.

Mo Shiyun laughed internally when she heard this.

When Ryan learned that Mo Shiyun came to Long Heng Group, he personally came to the company's reception desk to pick her up.

Ryan was a tall European man. As soon as he saw Mo Shiyun, a delighted smile appeared on his face.

"Shiyun," Ryan called out as he quickly walked over to her.

His goddess had become his girlfriend. This was wonderful!

They had kept in touch ever since their last meeting.

Finally, he got his goddess to become his girlfriend. His wish had been fulfilled.

"Shiyun, what are you looking at?"

Ryan noticed that Mo Shiyun was looking at a girl.

"Do you know her?"

"Not really," Mo Shiyun replied. She didn't want to admit that she knew Jian Yiling.

"What is she here for?" Ryan asked the receptionist.

"She says that she wants to see our CEO. In addition, she mentioned that she's here to discuss business. However, she doesn't have an appointment. As a result, I can't let her in."

Ryan glanced at Jian Yiling. The little girl did not seem like the type to intentionally cause trouble.

However, he still turned around and said to Jian Yiling: "This is not a place for you to fool around. Please leave."

As Chinese was not Ryan's native language, his words carried an accent.

"I have an appointment," Jian Yiling replied.

Then, she lowered her head to type on her phone.

When Ryan saw this, he was very helpless. He turned around to tell the receptionist to call the security guards over.

And thus, the receptionist called over security guards to "ask" Jian Yiling to leave.

"Please leave. Please do not interfere with our daily work."

Chapter 592: Revealing Her Identity (2)

However, Jian Yiling stood still. She had no intention of leaving.

This made the security guards' faces sink as well.

This little girl was refusing to cooperate with them. This made their job incredibly difficult.

"Why are you acting like this?" the security guard asked. His voice was filled with disgust.

He disliked people who intentionally caused them trouble for no reason. This increased their workload.

Every time they encountered such troublemakers, they felt incredibly annoyed.

Ryan watched for a while. As he felt it was nothing interesting, he intended to leave with Mo Shiyun.

"Ignore her. Let the security handle it."

However, Mo Shiyun did not intend to leave. She wanted to continue watching: "Let's watch a bit more."

As Ryan respected Mo Shiyun quite a bit, he decided to stay with her.

However, he did not know what was interesting about the situation.

It was just a strange girl who had an exaggerated opinion of her own abilities. How could such a person know their CEO?

Then, Ryan asked the receptionist: "Does our CEO have an appointment with anyone today?"

"Our CEO has an appointment with Dr. Fu."

Dr. Fu?

"I know this person. They're a partner of Xuming Medical Manufacturers. In addition, he's also an amazing doctor."

Their CEO often talked about Dr. Fu.

"Yeah, that's right. That's why this little girl must have been talking nonsense when she said that she had an appointment."

Ryan nodded when he heard this.

Then, Ryan turned around to speak to Mo Shiyun: "Have you heard about Dr. Fu?"

"I've heard of Xuming Medical Manufacturers. It's quite a well-known brand in medical manufacturing. Apparently, they had difficulties in operating their business until two years ago. Two years ago, after the launch of a new product, they managed to turn their losses into profits," Mo Shiyun replied. Mo Shiyun had heard information related to that company.

In fact, she also knew that Lahaisen Hospital used Xuming's office building for recruitment.

"Dr. Fu is a partner of that company. The company developed a new product due to Dr. Fu's contribution. That was how they managed to turn their situation around," Ryan explained to Mo Shiyun.

"Ahh, so that's how it is. Dr. Fu is really impressive then," Mo Shiyun commented.

Then, she turned around to look at Jian Yiling.

She knew that Jian Yiling was a student studying medicine at Beijing University.

And thus, there was no way for her to be Dr. Fu. Her last name wasn't Fu and she hadn't finished her postgraduate degree either. Therefore, she could not have turned around the losses of the medical manufacturing company.

Mo Shiyun snickered. Then, she continued to watch Jian Yiling.

She wanted to watch Jian Yiling make a fool of herself.

Right now, she couldn't do anything to Jian Yiling.

However, her hatred towards Jian Yiling drove her to stay here.

After what happened last time, she lost any chance she had with Qin Chuan...

In fact, Qin Chuan was even disgusted with her.

She regretted her actions that day. However, she hated Jian Yiling even more.

All her irrational behavior stemmed from her hatred towards Jian Yiling. She had been overwhelmed by this hatred.

At this moment, a woman in her early thirties hurriedly walked out of the CEO exclusive elevator. She quickly walked towards the receptionist's desk.

"CEO."

"CEO."

The security guards and the other employees immediately paid their respects.

However, the woman completely ignored them. She was focused on someone at the front desk.

"Waaa, my cutie! I've kept you waiting!"

As soon as the woman reached the front desk, she opened her arms to hug Jian Yiling.

However, Jian Yiling took a step back to avoid the woman's hug.

Chapter 593: She's Dr. Fu

"Heartless," the woman commented as she glared at Jian Yiling.

This woman had the memo name [Pretty Lady Boss][1] on Jian Yiling's phone.

She was a big shot in the entertainment industry. Furthermore, she was in a cooperative partnership with Jian Yiling.

Her name was Long Yuetian[2]. This name gave off an impression that she was a dominating tyrant.

When she was younger, her father treated her as a boy. That was why she was given the name "Long Yuetian."

Although Long Yuetian's facial features weren't eye-catching, she was still very charming. Her figure was amazing.

"C... CEO... Do you... Do you know her?" the receptionist stammered.

Long Yuetian turned around to reprimand the receptionist: "Yeah I do. What's wrong with you? There was an appointment on my afternoon schedule. Did you not see it? Why didn't you bring her to my office? Why did you stop her here?"

Ahh, it appeared as though this receptionist did not have the ability to make good judgments.

However, she should have at least asked Jian Yiling about the situation.

"But... She doesn't look like... She doesn't look like Dr. Fu... How could she be a partner of Xuming Medical Manufacturers? She looks like... She looks like a high school student."

Jian Yiling's actual age was eighteen. Furthermore, her appearance was more childish than her peers.

Then, the receptionist and the security guards stared at Jian Yiling again. They could not believe that Jian Yiling was the person their CEO was waiting for.

She didn't look anything like Dr. Fu!

"Do you think I'm joking around then?" Long Yuetian asked.

Did she seem like that type of person? Did she have that much spare time on her hands?

"No...No..." the receptionist replied in a hurry. The receptionist didn't know what to think about the situation.

Just now, she treated Jian Yiling with disrespect.

And thus, she was worried that their CEO would fire her.

Even the security guards hung their heads down. They did not dare to speak.

Just now, they were looking at this girl with disdain.

If they had known about this situation earlier, they would have asked more questions.

Thank goodness nothing else happened. If they had used violence to ask her to leave, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Ryan was incredibly surprised as well. He asked Long Yuetian, "Wait... So this young lady is Dr. Fu? This..."

Long Yuetian had mentioned Dr. Fu to Ryan several times in the past.

Long Yuetian said that Dr. Fu was an amazing person.

Due to this reason, Ryan was interested in learning more about Dr. Fu as well. However, he never had the chance to meet Dr. Fu in person.

And now, she was telling him that this little girl was Dr. Fu? This little girl was the person he had been admiring for a long time?

This was inconceivable!

Mo Shiyun stood by the side as she watched the scene unfold. The expression on her face had changed. It was no longer relaxed and amused.

Long Yuetian snapped at Ryan: "Why are you as ignorant as the receptionist? Why can't my cutie be Dr. Fu?"

"Her... Her age and appearance don't seem to be in line with Dr. Fu's..." Ryan replied before he trailed off.

"She's so cool! This is what a genius looks like!" Long Yuetian replied immediately. It was as though she was looking at Jian Yiling through an idol filter.

Long Yuetian was incredibly loyal. She remembered those who helped her in the past.

Jian Yiling had saved her. And thus, in her eyes, everything about Jian Yiling was good. Of course, that included her uncharismatic personality.

Ryan took another look at Jian Yiling.

Did she really look cool?

Was his definition of cool different? Or was his Chinese not good enough to interpret his CEO's words?

Then, Ryan greeted Jian Yiling: "Are you really Dr. Fu? I've heard of your name numerous times!"

Jian Yiling gently nodded her head.

Chapter 594: Partner of Xuming Medical Manufacturers

"Oh my goodness! What a surprise!" Ryan commented. It was as though he was reevaluating his entire life.

Then, Ryan took another look at Jian Yiling.

She wasn't tall and looked like a loli.

It didn't seem as though she could cause anyone any harm.

Her face was small as well. Her face was much smaller than a typical Asian.

"How did you manage to do this?" Ryan asked Jian Yiling. His eyes were filled with curiosity.

Previously, he stayed back solely because Mo Shiyun wanted to stay and watch.

However, now, he wanted to learn more about Jian Yiling.

Mo Shiyun's fists were clenched. Her nails began to dig into the flesh of her palms.

Jian Yiling was a partner of Xuming Medical Manufacturers?

When did she become a partner?

She was just a student studying medicine! How could she get involved with such a well-known medical manufacturing company?

Was it because of her family again? It really seemed as though being born in a good family meant that you were halfway to success.

She had the resources that others could not attain in their entire lifetime!

They were all humans yet some people were born with a silver spoon in their mouth. Some people were born at the finish line whilst others were born with nothing.

Long Yuetian turned around to speak to the receptionist: "You didn't confirm the situation properly. Therefore, you failed to carry out your duties. Go and get your punishment from the human resources department."

Upon hearing Long Yuetian's words, the receptionist's face went pale with shock.

The thing that she feared the most had still happened.

At this moment, she regretted her actions. She really should have treated the entire situation more carefully.

Mo Shiyun wrapped her hand around Ryan's arm. She attempted to pull him away.

"Let's go."

"Ahh... Okay."

Ryan paused for a moment before he hurriedly said goodbye to Long Yuetian. Then, he left with Mo Shiyun.

Ryan sensed that Mo Shiyun was acting strangely today.

However, she was someone that he trusted. Therefore, he chose to not question her.

As no one else was there to disturb them, Long Yuetian turned around to speak to Jian Yiling. She turned from being a domineering CEO to an amiable big sister.

"Ahhh, my cutie. Sorry for making you wait. I wasted your precious time."

"It's okay," Jian Yiling replied. She was not upset about the situation.

"Let's go upstairs. Don't mind these people."

Then, Long Yuetian headed upstairs with Jian Yiling.

Jian Yiling and Long Yuetian talked for around an hour.

"By the way, I heard that you've been inquiring about heart transplants recently," Long Yuetian commented. She was quite well-informed.

She had gotten relevant news about the situation. The Huiling Medical Research Institution had shifted part of its focus to cardiovascular research.

Jian Yiling nodded her head.

“Are you planning to give someone a heart transplant?”

Upon hearing this, Jian Yiling shook her head.

This made Long Yuetian quite confused.

“If you’re not planning to give someone a heart transplant, then why are you inquiring into this matter?”

“Surgical experience and research,” Jian Yiling replied.

She didn’t plan to operate on Zhai Yunsheng yet. Instead, she wanted to do related surgical research.

Although Zhai Yunsheng’s heart wasn’t the best, if nothing bad happened, there was a possibility for him to live with his not-so-healthy heart.

If he were to go through a heart transplant, there could be many problems related to the surgery. In addition, there was a high probability that he will only live for five to ten years after the heart transplant.

This meant that Zhai Yunsheng could potentially have a shorter life span if he went through heart transplantation.

Therefore, Jian Yiling needed to conduct more research and gather more data.

“Do you need my help? I heard that Lahaisen Hospital is also planning to research that area. They might have an upper hand.”

According to the information she received, Lahaisen Hospital and the Huiling Medical Research Institution were both looking into individuals who needed heart transplants.

“No need.”

“There’s no need to be polite with me.”

“I’m not being polite.”

“Ahhh, you’re still so heartless~” ㄟ(ˋ ^ ˊ)ㄏ

Chapter 595: Introduce Potential Partners to Jian Yiling

Grandma Jian got discharged from the hospital.

The Wen family asked Grandma Jian to recuperate at their home.

Therefore, Grandma Jian planned to stay in Beijing for a while longer.

The Jian family was worried about Grandma Jian traveling immediately after her surgery. They didn’t want anything to happen to her again.

Furthermore, Grandma Jian wanted to see Jian Yiling more often. If she stayed in Beijing, she could see her beloved granddaughter from time to time.

She had nearly died. Therefore, Grandma Jian didn't want to be too far away from her granddaughter.

Compared to living in a hotel, it was more suitable for her to stay with the Wen family.

Wen Cheng had no complaints about this. He immediately invited Grandma and Grandpa Jian to live with them. In addition, he hired another housekeeper.

Cai Qinyue took this opportunity to mention what she saw last time to the Jian family.

"Yiling is still young. She can be easily deceived. The playboys in Beijing play dirty tricks. Furthermore, the person that she's hanging out with is Master Sheng! The Jian family is just a small family from Hengyuan City. Master Sheng would not treat Yiling properly! I'm really worried about Yiling. I don't want her to be hurt in the future."

Cai Qinyue knew what was going on. Jian Yiling was not suited for the Zhai family. She didn't have the social status nor connections.

There was no way for her to become the lady of the Zhai family.

The future wife of Master Sheng had to come from an incredible family.

Therefore, Master Sheng was probably just playing around with Yiling.

However, Jian Yiling was unwilling to listen to her.

Therefore, Cai Qinyue took this opportunity to tell Grandma Jian and Grandpa Jian.

The Jian family could worry about this instead.

When Grandma Jian heard Cai Qinyue's words, the expression on her face was not what Cai Qinyue expected.

"Hmm, this matter is indeed not too good," Grandma Jian sighed.

She remembered that Master Zhai had visited her personally not so long ago.

This matter felt unreal.

However, it indeed happened.

Therefore, at least Master Zhai treated Jian Yiling seriously. He wanted her to become his future granddaughter-in-law.

As for Zhai Yunsheng, Grandma Jian thought that he was serious about Jian Yiling. There was no need for him to play around with her granddaughter.

They had interacted with Zhai Yunsheng before.

Although they did not understand him fully, they still knew what sort of person he was.

Zhai Yunsheng was not bothered with anything superficial and fake.

If he wasn't interested in someone, he wouldn't act like he was interested.

"Grandma Jian, you should try and persuade her. We've tried already... But she doesn't listen to us," Cai Qinyue said quietly.

"Ahh, let her be. Don't worry about it too much. My darling isn't stupid."

It was good that Wen Cheng and Cai Qinyue were worried about their niece. However, they still shouldn't interfere with this matter.

As a matter of fact, Grandma Jian did not want Jian Yiling to be with Zhai Yunsheng. Zhai Yunsheng did not fulfill her requirements.

However, she would not mention this to her darling.

What was the point of saying this if Zhai Yunsheng was in Yiling's heart? Her words would only hurt her precious granddaughter.

Her darling's heart was already lonely enough. If she didn't support her, then who would?

"Grandma Jian... Are you not planning to advise her to stop hanging out with Master Sheng?" Cai Qinyue asked. She was surprised to hear Grandma Jian's words.

"Nope. They can handle their relationship matters on their own. At most, I will introduce a few potential partners to Yiling. Then, she will have a few more options." As Grandma Jian said this, the first person who came to her mind was Yu Xi.

Chapter 596: Yu Xi Doubts Life (1)

"Grandma Jian, do you really think this way?"

"Ahh, I understand that you're worried about Yiling. However, it's better for them to handle their matters on their own."

Upon hearing those words, Cai Qinyue did not know what to say.

She knew that Grandma Jian pampered and spoiled Jian Yiling to oblivion.

If it were to be anyone else's grandma in this situation, they would be incredibly anxious and worried!

###

Yu Xi was incredibly confused.

His family had arranged for him a blind date with a potential marriage partner.

He listened to his parents and headed over to the arranged location.

However, why was the person sitting opposite him Yiling?!

Jian Yiling's small hands held a cup of milk. She quietly sipped on it.

"God Ling, could you tell me what's going on?" Yu Xi asked. He wanted to know what was happening.

"I don't know," Jian Yiling replied. Although Jian Yiling did not know about the situation, she was still rather calm. She did not act surprised or panicked.

Her grandma had asked her to go. She didn't tell her anything about who she was going to meet.

All of a sudden, Yu Xi had a bad premonition.

Did Grandma Jian and his father want them to go on a blind date? A blind date with God Ling?!

No way right?

Isn't that a bit too much?

God Ling was like his younger sister!

He treated her as his own sister! And his father wanted him to go on a date with her? What kind of joke was this?!

"God Ling... I'm worried that our family plans to play the matchmaker for us!"

"Okay."

"Wait... Don't you find this situation alarming?"

"It's okay," Jian Yiling replied. She glanced at Yu Xi's startled expression.

Then, Yu Xi said: "Ahh, well, let's just eat together. Then, let's go home."

"Okay."

As the two of them were eating, Yu Xi received a message from Zhai Yunsheng.

[Get on Zerg Invasion.]

When Yu Xi saw the contents of the message, he was about to cry with tears of joy.

"Oh my goodness! Master Sheng wants to play Zerg Invasion with me! It's been so many years! He's finally willing to play again!"

Three years ago, after Zhai Yunsheng returned to Beijing, he did not log into the game anymore.

He left Yu Xi alone in the cruel world of Zerg Invasion. Yu Xi kept losing games.

Yu Xi was decent at the game. After all, he also played in the Zerg Invasion tournament.

However, when compared to Zhai Yunsheng, there was still a gap in skill.

Without Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling carrying him in their games, the teammates that he was sometimes paired with made his gaming experience incredibly sad and difficult. In fact, sometimes, he kept losing games!

This made him doubt his own life.

"God Ling, let's go and play games!" Yu Xi cried out. He wished that a computer could magically appear in front of him.

Either way, this “blind date” was not going anywhere.

Jian Yiling was okay with this. Thus, the two of them headed towards a nearby internet cafe.

[???

As soon as Yu Xi logged on, he saw the usernames J10 and ZYS on the server leaderboards.

What was this situation?

When did they play games?

Yu Xi stared at the screen before he looked over at Jian Yiling.

“God Ling! Both of you betrayed me! You guys played without me!”

Yu Xi’s heart was breaking into pieces.

And thus, when they started playing, Yu Xi was still slightly upset.

Life was not kind to him. He was a lonely soul in the snow.

However, there were more shocking things waiting for him.

Zhai Yunsheng kept leading Zergs into Yu Xi.

He wasn’t even trying to hide the fact that he was intentionally drawing aggro to Yu Xi’s character.

And thus, Yu Xi’s character died.

He could only watch Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling in spectator mode. The two of them continued to carry him.

However, after a moment, Yu Xi realized that something was off.

Why was Master Sheng doing this to him?

Chapter 597: Yu Xi Doubts Life (2)

Yu Xi began to contemplate the situation.

Then, he discovered something else that was even more shocking.

It was more shocking than being surrounded by Zergs...

When ZYS and J10 got close to one another, small hearts would arise from their characters.

This special effect was not very obvious.

However, when the characters got close, you could still see the pink hearts.

Lovers?!

Master Sheng and God Ling?

Yu Xi’s eyes widened in surprise.

When did Master Sheng and God Ling become lovers in-game?!!!

W-what did he miss?!

Yu Xi hurriedly opened his in-game chat with Zhai Yunsheng.

[Master Sheng, what's the situation? When did you become in-game lovers with God Ling?]

They won games and gained elo behind his back.

However, they also became lovers in-game?!

This game was for the three of them!

Suddenly, it seemed as though he was just an extra!

Yu Xi felt betrayed and abandoned.

Zhai Yunsheng took a pause from killing Zergs. He replied three words to Yu Xi: [Take a guess.]

Guess?

How was he meant to guess?

Ahhh, this could not do. He needed to get someone to help him interrogate Master Sheng and God Ling!

And thus, Yu Xi tabbed into another screen. He messaged Jian Yujie:

[Yujie... Come on Zerg Invasion. Please save me. I'm injured.]

Jian Yujie replied quite quickly: [If you're injured in the game, go and find your teammates.]

[It's not that type of injury. It's an injury to my heart. It's the type that's hard to heal.]

[Well, I can't help you with that either.]

[Do you know that Master Sheng and God Ling are in-game lovers?]

Yu Xi had to shock someone else with this news as well. He didn't want to be the only one who was shocked.

If Jian Yujie wasn't willing to comfort him, then he was going to shock him with the news as well!

After Yu Xi sent the message, Yu Xi silently counted down from three.

[I will go online right now. Add me to the lobby.]

Yu Xi felt smug when he saw Jian Yujie's reply.

After the first game finished, the three of them returned to the lobby interface. At this moment, Jian Yujie joined their lobby.

In their voice call, Jian Yujie immediately asked Yiling: "Yiling, when did you become in-game lovers with Master Sheng?"

Jian Yiling answered truthfully: "He said that he wanted to try the new function and effects."

“Well, now that you tried them already, you could try the uncoupling function.”

“Okay.”

Jian Yiling pressed the uncoupling button on the interface of the game.

Zhai Yunsheng was currently in his office. When Zhai Yunsheng saw the notification on his screen, he frowned for a moment.

Then, he decisively pressed decline on the notification.

After that, he typed in their lobby chat: [Well, we tried already. Let’s just continue with the game.]

Finally, Zhai Yunsheng messaged Yu Xi who was the leader of the lobby: [Start the game.]

Did Yu Xi dare to not start the game?

Of course not.

And thus, Jian Yiling did not have the opportunity to remove the in-game lover status with Zhai Yunsheng.

In this match, Yu Xi decided to follow Jian Yiling everywhere.

This was the safest place on the map!

Even if Master Sheng led the Zergs over to him, God Ling could kill all of them!

Sure enough, he managed to survive for longer. He was safe staying close to God Ling!

As Yu Xi was celebrating his quick-wittedness, he received a private message from Zhai Yunsheng:

[Stay away from my wife.]

Yu Xi laughed before he started to type: Stop joking! You just set an in-game lover status. Do you really think...

Then, Yu Xi realized that something was strange.

Was Master Sheng the kind of person to randomly set an in-game lover status with someone?

He clearly wasn’t!

Chapter 598: Yu Xi Doubts Life (3)

If Jian Yiling was the one who wanted to try out a feature of the game, it would make sense. After all, Jian Yiling never really read between the lines. However, Zhai Yunsheng wasn’t like that!

Furthermore, Zhai Yunsheng called Jian Yiling his wife...

Wife??? Was she actually going to be Zhai Yunsheng’s future wife?

Yu Xi immediately turned his head to look at Jian Yiling.

Currently, Jian Yiling was focused on playing Zerg Invasion. One of her hands tapping away on the keyboard whilst the other was rested on her mouse.

It didn't seem as though God Ling planned to be in a relationship.

And thus, Yu Xi began to ponder about the situation.

If Jian Yiling's answer to Jian Yujie's question was true...

This meant...

This meant only one thing!

Master Sheng was pursuing God Ling's love! In addition, he was doing it in a very despicable way!

On the pretext of trying out the new features, he had tricked God Ling into becoming his in-game lover!

Furthermore, God Ling was completely unaware of Zhai Yunsheng's intentions!

This was despicable!

Then, Yu Xi began to doubt his life.

Even if it was despicable, Zhai Yunsheng was finally chasing after a girl!

The sago palm had finally blossomed!

And the person that Zhai Yunsheng was interested in was their teammate!

Oh my god!

Yiling was such a cute girl. Did he actually...

Yu Xi paused for a moment before he took another look at Jian Yiling. Ahhh, it made sense. Some people would prefer cuteness.

However, Yu Xi only saw Jian Yiling as a younger sister.

As a result, he did not notice her growing up. On the other hand, Jian Yiling had started developing the charm of a mature woman already.

She was good-looking and good at games! That was the ideal girlfriend!

In such a situation, the boyfriend wouldn't be asked the question "What is more important? Me or games?"

Therefore, if he looked at her from another point of view, Jian Yiling would indeed attract the interest of males!

Hmm, it seemed as though Master Sheng was quite smart!

He already made his first move!

How cunning!

However, this was still a good thing! They could keep the goodies in their own team!

After Yu Xi figured this out, he immediately stopped following Jian Yiling around on the map. Instead, he went to follow Jian Yujie instead:

He messaged Jian Yujie: [Please protect me. Please carry me.]

Although three years had passed, Yu Xi was still the same.

However, he was happy that he was still winning. It didn't matter if he died early in the game! It didn't matter if he was getting carried!

He was making a contribution to their team! He was contributing to his teammate's happiness and sanity.

Although he was gaining comparatively less elo, he was still gaining elo!

Furthermore, Yu Xi was genuinely happy that [Domination] had reunited after so many years.

Although they were jumping into the fray after a period of inactivity, their team was still incredible!

Very quickly, some netizens discovered the four of them appearing together inside a Zerg Invasion match.

All of a sudden, this became a hotly discussed topic on the Internet. Was [Domination] coming back?

Their fans from three years ago began to discuss this:

There were voices of anticipation:

[Domination is finally coming back to the scene! I'm so excited!]

[Are they going to register for this season's tournament? I hope they plan to!]

[Ahhh, J10~ Let me love you~]

However, there were voices that opposed this:

[I had too many expectations and hopes for this team. That's not going to happen again. They might do match fixing again. I strongly suggest Zerg Invasion's officials to ban their team from playing in the tournament.]

Chapter 599: Domination Makes Their Comeback

And thus, the Internet was full of speculation.

Suddenly, [Domination] confirmed their participation in the fourth Zerg Invasion tournament.

Yu Xi, who was a certified member of [Domination] posted a Weibo:

[We're back.]

Once this news came out, the gaming community exploded:

[Domination is finally back! My youthful days are back!]

[Ahhhhh! I feel like our domestic teams have a chance of winning the championships again!]

[That's not necessarily true. Their skill level back then is not necessarily comparable to the skills of our current professional teams. The times have changed. However, I'm still looking forward to their performance this season.]

[Well, they're still better than our current domestic teams. Our current teams have played in so many tournaments. However, they haven't even gotten into the top three! This is so depressing for us fans.]

[That's true. I'm super keen to see a domestic team enter the finals!]

However, these comments made the fans of other domestic teams unhappy:

[A certain team came second in a tournament three years ago. Why are their fans still bragging about it?]

[Did they forget what happened three years ago? Their carries were missing from the finals! In fact, they got utterly destroyed in the final match. A lot of viewers demanded a refund on their tickets.]

[They haven't even played yet! The times have changed. Even the team that won the tournament last year wouldn't dare to say that they can win again!]

And thus, the fans kept arguing on the Internet.

In contrast, the four members of [Domination] did not react to this commotion at all.

###

The Beijing branch of Huan You Technology Corporation.

Jian Yuncheng was currently seated in his office. As he looked at the form that [Domination] submitted, the corners of his mouth showed a rare smile.

"Can you stop smiling? You're so creepy when you smile like that..."

Huo Yu was lying down on a sofa in Jian Yuncheng's office.

"Do you have nothing to do?"

"No, no. I have a lot to do," Huo Yu hurriedly replied. Ahhh, why did he say those words?

Then, Huo Yu opened his phone to look at the news on the Internet.

It turned out that Jian Yiling had signed up for the fourth Zerg Invasion tournament.

"You're happy about this? Wow, have you become a degenerate? It seems as though you can only rely on games to attract her attention. That's sort of sad."

"It also seems as though you have a lot of time on your hands."

"No, no! Definitely not," Huo Yu hastily replied. "I'm busy with a lot of work!"

Even though Huo Yu was mentally telling himself off for saying some things, he continued to diss Jian Yuncheng.

When he noticed that Jian Yuncheng hadn't "punished" him, Huo Yu laughed and said: "Back in the days, Yiling was awesome! Her team might actually win this time around! Domestic teams will finally have a chance in the tournament!"

Although Jian Yuncheng was the CEO of Huan You Technology Corporation, he could not interfere with the rankings in the competition.

This company wasn't only owned by him.

Furthermore, the game Zerg Invasion wasn't his as well.

The glory of a game belonged to all of its players. It had nothing much to do with the CEO of the company.

Huo Yu was also a big fan of Zerg Invasion. Every year, he watched domestic teams get crushed by foreign teams. Although he was sad about this, he could do nothing about it.

"Yeah she can," Jian Yuncheng replied with a calm and confident voice.

Then, Huo Yu said: "Also, when will you let Yiling call me Brother Yu?"

"Don't even think about it."

"Why?"

"You can go to work now."

"Wait... But..."

"You can work overtime today."

"Hey..."

Then, Huo Yu was thrown out of Jian Yuncheng's office and forced to work overtime.

Chapter 600: Cai Ningxuan (1)

Jian Yiling accompanied her mother and the Wen family to a quaint-looking building in Beijing.

This building was hidden in the alleyways of Beijing. In addition, the owner of this building had a special identity and status in society.

If the Jian family came by themselves, they wouldn't be able to enter the doors of this building.

However, the Wen family had connections in this area. Therefore, Wen Nuan and Jian Yiling could enter the building today.

Of course, Wen Cheng had planned to invite his sister and niece to join in on the fun anyway.

He smiled at Wen Nuan and Jian Yiling: "Tell me if you're interested in an item. I will buy it for you."

Wen Cheng was very generous when it came to his sister and niece. He was very willing to spend money on them.

Then, Wen Nuan took a look at Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo. Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo had come along today as well. After a moment of pause, she said: "Don't worry about us. You should buy things for your wife and daughter! If I want to buy something, I have all of my husband's money."

In the Jian family, Wen Nuan was in charge of their household's wealth.

However, Jian Shuxing was in charge of his company's wealth.

Neither of them really interfered with their children's money usage.

Upon hearing this, Cai Qinyue had to force a smile onto her face.

Why was her husband more considerate of other people? Couldn't he care about his own family? It was so upsetting that he was doing this.

When the five of them arrived at the building, the place looked incredibly empty. At first glance, it appeared as though not many people were in the building.

The quaint-looking building had a plaque that was hung above the door. The oil paint was peeling off this plaque. However, the words Cai[1] Ningxuan could be seen on it.

Then, a middle-aged man who wore simple clothes appeared at the door. He held a smoking pipe in his hands.

The man seemed to fit in with the building. They both gave off a very dated vibe. It seemed as though they belonged to another decade.

Wen Cheng walked up to talk to the middle-aged man: "Hello. What performance will it be today? Ding junshan or Zhuo Fangcao?"

The man squinted his eyes at Wen Cheng. Then, he lowered his head to smoke his pipe.

"Ding junshan," the man replied.

"Okay. We will go in to listen to the performance."

Then, Wen Cheng entered the building with the others.

A few men were stationed behind the door. However, they did not stop Wen Cheng and the others from entering.

This was because Wen Cheng had said their code words. As he said the right thing, he could enter the building.

Once inside, the interior of the building was similar to the exterior. The building felt traditional and old-fashioned.

It was as though they time-traveled back to historical times in China.

However, this was only at first glance. At a second glance, one would notice that there was surveillance and monitoring equipment in every corner of the room. Furthermore, there were also infrared sensors and other modern technology.

After they entered, a young woman wearing a cheongsam led the way.

The interior of the building resembled an ancient teahouse.

There was a large stage placed in the center of the first level.

There were many seats in the first level. However, on the second level, there were several private rooms. It was possible to see the stage from every private room.

Wen Cheng and the others followed the young woman to their reserved room.

Similarly, the room also gave off a historical feeling. There was an old-fashioned square table in the middle of the room. The table could fit at least eight people around it.

Then, Wen Cheng smiled at the four women beside him: "In a while, there will be things brought onto the stage. Some of the things here will be fake. Therefore, you have to make a judgment using your eyes. This is pretty risky as well. It's similar to gambling rocks[2]."

It was a bit similar to an auction. However, it wasn't completely the same.

The price of these items would typically be cheaper than usual. This was because there was no guarantee that these items were genuine.

Therefore, it was similar to gambling.

The Wen family knew how deep the water was in the antique industry.

However, their family had a long history with antiques. As a result, until now, Wen Cheng had not misidentified an item.

Wen Cheng looked at his sister before he said: "Hey, let's compete today."

Wen Cheng and Wen Nuan had grown up together. Both of them were incredibly capable at identifying genuine antiques and paintings.