Chapter 621: Slapped in the Face Whilst Live Streaming (2)

Inside the Beijing CEO office of Huan You Technology Corporation.

Jian Yuncheng, Huo Yu, and Jian Yichen were all there.

Currently, there was a computer screen in front of them that played the contents of the live stream.

The person who was controlling the live stream interface was no other than Huo Yu.

Huo Yu's two hands did not stop on the keyboard for a single second. His fingers flew over the keys.

Jian Yuncheng, Jian Yumin, and Jian Yichen were all involved today.

Using his connections, Jian Yuncheng managed to interrupt Mo Shiyun's live broadcast.

"The number of viewers in the live stream has now exceeded one million. It seems as though everyone is interested in this matter."

Jian Yumin's appearance had further increased the number of viewers on Mo Shiyun's stream.

Furthermore, Weibo was already dominated by related topics.

Such a domineering face-to-face confrontation was rarely seen in the entertainment industry.

And thus, the number of viewers in the live stream had reached unprecedented highs.

"Well, we want a lot of viewers," Jian Yichen said as he leaned into the sofa. He had a fox-like smile on his face again.

At first glance, this man appeared to look like a well-behaved young adult.

However, he had a lot of evil tricks up his sleeve. The thing that was going to happen today was his idea.

"Well, Mo Shiyun wanted to take advantage of Yiling to gain popularity for herself. This is what she wants, no?" Jian Yuncheng said.

In Mo Shiyun's time during the entertainment industry, she had learned about one thing particularly well. And that was, how to create hype and popularity for herself.

And thus, the brothers of the Jian family refused to believe that Mo Shiyun did not take part in the things currently on the Internet.

The main purpose of the news was to create popularity for herself. Of course, Mo Shiyun was also trying to get her revenge on Jian Yiling and the Jian family.

The reason for this was because when Jian Yumin contacted Mo Shiyun, Mo Shiyun was rather surprised. However, she did not choose to end her live stream immediately. Rather, she continued to stream. If it wasn't for popularity, why else would she do this?

And thus, the Jian family would give her what she wanted.

They would help her get a lot of viewers!

“Okay okay. You guys have the say,” Huo Yu muttered. He did not dare to go against the wishes of these two people.

In the live stream, Jian Yumin continued to speak to Mo Shiyun.

“Miss Shiyun, I want to ask you a few questions regarding the show. First of all, you mentioned someone deducting your mother’s salary. Are you alluding to the Jian family here?”

Mo Shiyun had never responded to this question. Now, faced with millions of viewers, was she finally going to respond?

However, Mo Shiyun did not want to answer this question. Choosing to remain silent was most favorable for her.

If she replied, whether or not she said yes or no, she would put herself in a disadvantageous position.

And thus, Mo Shiyun said: “Mr. Xie Minyu, I’m not a prisoner. You don’t have the right to question me like this. I’m not obliged to answer your questions.”

Mo Shiyun’s answer was supported by a lot of her viewers.

[Yeah, that’s right! Why does she have to answer?]

[Why is Xin Minyu being so aggressive with his questions? No one owes him anything!]

[Yeah! It’s as though he’s interrogating a prisoner. Who does he think he is?]

[Mo Shiyun indeed has the right to not answer. If she answers, it makes it seem like she’s a cut below Xie Minyu.]

[Xie Minyu’s attitude is so rude.]

However, Jian Yumin never expected Mo Shiyun to answer. Instead, he was going to give evidence.

Huo Yu changed Jian Yumin’s part of the screen to show a web interface. The interface displayed the cash outflows of one of Wen Nuan’s credit cards. The regular outflows from this card had occurred three to five years ago.

Chapter 622: Slapped in the Face Whilst Live Streaming (3)

Wen Nuan had gone to the bank to get a copy of these records.

This card was not used by Wen Nuan. Rather, it was merely used to pay the salaries of the staff hired by the Jian family.

The record clearly showed a transfer of money to Mo Shiyun’s mother.

Every month, Mo Shiyun’s mother would receive a sum of sixteen thousand dollars.

Other than the last payment of six thousand dollars, every other payment was sixteen thousand.

Furthermore, there was a copy of the contract between the Jian family and Mo Shiyun’s mother on the screen as well. This contract detailed the salary, bonuses, and other conditions. Mo Huiqin had signed this contract when she was working for the Jian family.

The contract clearly stated that Mo Huiqin's base salary was six thousand dollars. Anything in addition to six thousand dollars would depend on her performance.

And thus, out of the sixteen thousand dollars, only six thousand dollars was Mo Huiqin's regular salary. The Jian family had paid her a ten thousand dollar bonus every month.

In the last month, Mo Huiqin's salary was paid as usual. However, her bonus was not paid.

And thus, Mo Shiyun's account of her difficult life and tragic past was not valid. Her mother's salary had not been deducted.

Sixteen thousand dollars a month was not a low salary.

In fact, some white-collar workers could not even get such a high salary.

The comment section went wild:

[What the hell? Her pay is a bit too high for a maid, isn't it? Sixteen thousand dollars! Oh my god!]

[Can I get a boss like this as well? I want to go and be a maid too. I don't want to go to work anymore!]

[And Mo Shiyun said that she and her mother had a hard time living in poverty. Is this what she calls poverty?]

[She's always been selling her persona of being a child that grew up in a poor family. She keeps saying that she's a girl who went against the odds. It's not her first day doing this either.]

Mo Shiyun could see the contents displayed on Jian Yumin's side of the screen. The staff propped it up on a screen next to her.

Upon seeing this, Mo Shiyun's hands began sweating. She struggled to maintain her composure on camera.

However, Mo Shiyun still managed to explain the situation calmly in front of her viewers. From her voice, no one could tell that she was panicking.

Mr. Xie Minyu, I didn't want to answer you just now. However, that doesn't mean that I agreed by default. I did mention some things about being treated poorly. However, I did not say that it was the Jian family. I was talking about the other families my mother worked for. After my mother worked for the Jian family, our family situation improved a lot."

"Then, would you please provide information regarding those families? Was it the Liu family or the Ma family?"

Mo Huiqin had previously worked for the Ma family and the Liu family.

As both families were located in Hengyuan City, it was not difficult for the Jian family to find them.

Furthermore, the Jian family also found ironclad evidence as well.

As Mo Huiqin worked as a maid for these three families, it must have been one of these families that treated them harshly.

Mo Shiyun's calmness began to waver.

Jian Yumin had come prepared. She couldn't let him talk like this anymore.

"Mr. Xie Minyu, are you here to interrogate me today?"

"If it wasn't for the fact that you used my sister to create hype and popularity for yourself, do you think that I would have the time in my day to confront you about this?"

[Oh my goodness! Brother Yu is so straightforward!]

[He's merciless as always!]

[Yeah! He doesn't show any mercy towards women. As expected from Brother Yu.]

Upon hearing this, Mo Shiyun replied: "Well, as far as I know, the Internet is discussing your sister's studies. This doesn't seem to have anything to do with me, does it? Perhaps, are you using this matter to divert the viewer's attention?"

Chapter 623: Slapped in the Face Whilst Live Streaming (4)

Mo Shiyun's statement was recognized by her fans and some random viewers:

[Yeah, it wasn't Mo Shiyun who brought up the matter regarding Jian Yiling's academic fraud at Beijing University. Are you going to accuse Mo Shiyun of doing this as well?]

[Are you attempting to divert our attention?]

[If the matter regarding academic fraud is not cleared, then Jian Yiling's name will not be cleared.]

Mo Shiyun was more confident in this matter.

First of all, this matter was not related to her.

Although she had mentioned in the show that she attended high school with a student who used their family background to achieve high marks and ultimately went to study abroad, there were many people who could satisfy these criteria.

Jian Yiling wasn't the only one.

Secondly, Mo Shiyun believed from the bottom of her heart that Jian Yiling's results were fake. She did not think that she was slandering Jian Yiling about this.

And thus, Mo Shiyun was convinced that Jian Yiling's name could not be cleared.

Upon hearing this, Jian Yumin said: "Well then, I will now address the issue regarding my sister's grades and studies."

Then, Huo Yu switched the screen again.

The first information that was provided was that Jian Yiling was attending a prestigious university abroad.

It was a world-class university. In fact, her teacher was Professor Hyde.

Then, there was a bunch of information given on Jian Yiling's scientific research experiments and academic papers. These papers that were presented in front of the viewers had been published by Jian Yiling in the past two years.

All of these articles were published by Jian Yiling.

"These articles can be found in authoritative websites and academic journals. If you're interested, you can look into these documents in a bit."

"Furthermore, the Jian family does have some family background and status in society. However, do you think that we have the ability to affect Professor Hyde's assessment and judgment?"

[I know Professor Hyde. It's incredibly difficult to become his student. He's really well known internationally. I don't think that he can be bought with money.]

[Wait, so is Jian Yiling actually his student? I know that it's incredibly difficult to get into this university! Furthermore, it's even more difficult to get into the medical department for this university. Oh my god. It must have been hellishly difficult to become a student of Professor Hyde.]

[Yeah, I don't think you can use power and money to achieve this.]

[Wait, so are Jian Yiling's grades real?]

[This is ironclad evidence!]

A lot of viewers were expressing their shock.

Then, the screen switched back to Jian Yumin.

Jian Yumin continued to speak to the viewers: "Furthermore, in regards to the person who claimed that their work was plagiarised, Beijing University has already posted an official statement for that. If you have any queries, you can ask Beijing University.]

[Wait, so Jian Yiling is actually a top student?!]

[Back in the reality show, it was already obvious that Jian Yiling had a high IQ. However, no one believed it! Everyone was just deliberately digging up a time period where her grades were poor!]

[She's not an ordinary top student! She's literally a god! God Ling, please accept my knees of admiration.]

All of a sudden, the comments were expressing their admiration and worship for Jian Yiling. It was as if nothing had happened.

Mo Shiyun's face went pale.

Was Jian Yiling really Professor Hyde's student?

Did she actually have talent?

Was this really the case?

The shocking reality made Mo Shiyun panic. She was becoming overwhelmed.

This was a possibility that she had not anticipated.

She had always thought that Jian Yiling's grades were fake.

Chapter 624: Slapped in the Face Whilst Live Streaming (5)

Mo Shiyun took a moment to calm herself down.

Then, she said to Jian Yumin: "Well, what you said is wonderful. However, this doesn't have anything to do with me."

"Oh, so you mean that the girl who cheated in her exams that you mentioned in the show is not my sister Yiling, right?" Jian Yumin responded.

"I'm sorry for causing you to misinterpret my words. However, I just said that I've encountered such a thing. I did not say that this person was your sister."

Jian Yumin and the others watching the live stream inside the office had guessed long ago that Mo Shiyun would deny this.

"Then, are you saying that you don't know anything about what the account said on the Internet? Why didn't you come forward to state that someone misinterpreted the meaning of your words?"

Faced with Jian Yumin's questioning, Mo Shiyun had no way to retreat.

Mo Shiyun suppressed her urge to run away. She tried to calmly reply to Jian Yumin's questions.

If she ran away at this time, there was no telling what the Internet would say about her later.

However, if she had known that Jian Yumin would have interrogated her like this, she would have ended the live stream ages ago. She would have stated that this was not in the scope of her work.

"I'm sorry. I did not respond immediately for several reasons. First of all, I have been busy lately. As a result, I don't have much free time. This is something that you can confirm with my agency. Secondly, although the person mentioned me in their post, what they said was outside the scope of my knowledge. Furthermore, I don't know the reason behind their words. Therefore, I don't want to make fake testimonies."

Mo Shiyun's answer was rather reasonable.

Jian Yumin had to admit that Mo Shiyun's ability to react to situations was rather good. Even in such a situation, she still had the ability to think clearly.

Jian Yumin spoke up again: "Mo Shiyun. Are you really saying that the person who announced the news had nothing to do with you? Then, I'd like to show the viewers something quite interesting. Do you really think that we can't track you if you use a VPN? You really thought that you did things flawlessly. What is done by night appears by day."

As Jian Yumin finished his words, the screen switched again.

This time, the screen played a chat transcript.

It was a chat between Mo Shiyun and a hacker from the dark web.

The hacker who broke the news had handled the matter cleanly. Therefore, even Huo Yu could not track the other person down quickly.

However, it was still possible for him to track the other person down. It would just require a lot of time.

And by that time, their evidence would no longer be as effective.

And thus, the Jian brothers chose to start with Mo Shiyun. They went through all of Mo Shiyun's records.

They went through her chat records and purchase records. They checked everything.

Now, all of these records were on the screen for millions of viewers to see.

These records contained the words that Mo Shiyun said to the hacker.

She said that she wanted Jian Yiling's story to be known by everyone.

Mo Shiyun had sent many messages and pictures to the hacker. And thus, the so-called post that had nothing to do with her was actually written by Mo Shiyun in advance.

There were also some things that Mo Shiyun asked the hacker to check.

For example, the content from the Shenghua High School forums had been obtained by the hacker. These screenshots had been deliberately taken out of context.

Chapter 625: Slapped in the Face Whilst Live Streaming (6)

[What the hell?! This is too much!]

[Dude, she's basically hiring someone to do murder!]

[Was this really done by Mo Shiyun? Holy! She appears to look so pure and innocent on the surface level. However, her heart is as black as coal!]

[She said half of it herself. Then, she found someone to say the other half for her. Dude, she's a top-tier level of scum.]

[I'm so disgusted. I feel like I'm going to throw up my food from yesterday night. My view of life has changed completely!]

By now, Mo Shiyun's face was deathly white.

She hadn't expected the Jian brothers to investigate her.

She thought that the matter would not be discovered easily!

She had done things incredibly carefully!

Then, Mo Shiyun looked at the comments that viciously cursed at her on the screen. Her blood was chilled to the freezing point.

Then, Mo Shiyun accused Jian Yumin with a trembling voice: "It's illegal for you to look into my private information without my consent. Therefore, the content that you provided cannot even be used as evidence.]

[What?! Did this woman indirectly admit that she did it?]

[Oh my god! My view of the world has broken!]

[However, she's not wrong. They are obtaining the information through illegal means. Therefore, this can't be used as evidence in court.]

[Well, does that even matter at this point?]

[Oh my god. This woman is so disgusting.]

Jian Yumin laughed. His laugh showed his indifference to Mo Shiyun's words. "It's okay. I don't mind carrying the charge of violating someone else's privacy. In fact, if there are more serious charges, I'm willing to take them on as well."

Jian Yumin had come prepared. The moment he began to confront Mo Shiyun, he knew the consequences.

At this moment, some of Jian Yumin's fans went off track:

[Brother Yu is amazing!]

[Brother Yu did this for his sister!]

[Brother Yu is so manly!]

[I want to be Yiling's sister-in-law. Would you mind?]

However, there were several normal comments as well:

[Xie Minyu is not afraid to do anything! He will do anything for his sister!]

[Even if it's illegal to obtain this evidence, we all have eyes. We know who caused all of this!]

[I support such actions. Even though it's illegal, it's still justifiable.]

[Yeah! You shouldn't back down against such people!]

However, Jian Yumin was merely looking at Mo Shiyun's expression.

For the sake of her own selfish desire, this woman had hurt their sister. She did not care about Yiling at all!

And thus, they were going to return the favor to her.

Upon hearing Jian Yumin's words, Jian Yichen spoke quietly in the background:

"Wait, didn't we agree on this? Didn't we agree that I would take the blame? Yumin is a public figure. It's not good to have such a stain on his name. Why did you admit to it already?"

Jian Yuncheng added: "When the police come, I will deal with it."

Upon hearing their words, Huo Yu huffed: "What's wrong with you guys? Do you guys have nothing better to do? Why would you fight over this matter? Well, either way, no matter who takes the blame in the end, please don't mention that I'm involved."

The live stream was still going on:

Mo Shiyun did not make a sound for a long time. However, the comments were still cursing at her.

Mo Huiqin rushed out from nowhere and ran over to Mo Shiyun.

She attempted to turn off the live stream.

This caused the camera to spin in a skyward direction.

After a while, when the camera stabilized again, Jian Yumin's side had already delivered the finishing blow.

Chapter 626: Slapped in the Face Whilst Live Streaming (7)

Then, Jian Yumin said to the viewers and Mo Shiyun: "Oh, it just so happens that we have prepared something for Ms. Mo Huiqin as well."

After saying that, Jian Yumin's screen switched again. This time, a surveillance video was played out.

It was a video of Mo Huiqin stealing a diamond.

Mo Shiyun and Mo Huiqin immediately froze when they saw this. There was no color on their faces at all. In fact, their hands began to feel numb.

Wasn't this video deleted a long time ago?

Back then, He Yan had supposedly deleted the video. Even though she was kicked out of the Jian family, shouldn't the video still be gone? How did it reappear again?

However, the Mo family did not know that at that time, Jian Yubo was the one who dealt with the situation. He Yan had asked Jian Yubo to help her.

And thus, although Jian Yubo said he destroyed the video, he had actually kept it with him.

Jian Yubo never really did anything for his mother. And thus, why would he actually help her delete the content that she wanted gone?

Therefore, the video had merely disappeared from Jian Yuncheng's computer.

However, it stayed in Jian Yubo's hands.

Mo Shiyun did not know about this. She assumed that the crisis for her and her mother had been resolved.

Furthermore, the Jian family had not contacted the police about this matter. It had been soon many years since then. Therefore, Mo Shiyun assumed that the matter was over.

Otherwise, there was no reason for Jian Yuncheng to drop this matter. Jian Yuncheng harbored a lot of hatred towards them.

As the video played on the screen, it directly gave Mo Shiyun and Mo Huiqin another blow to their faces.

Mo Shiyun was already scrambling in the quagmires. Now, there was another weight for her to carry.

She had gotten attacked, wave after wave. Finally, she no longer had the will to resist.

“I’m not going to stream anymore. I’m going offline.”

At this moment, Mo Shiyun could no longer care about anything else.

And thus, she pulled her mother away. She ignored the millions of viewers that were watching her stream.

[What? Is she running away just like that?]

[She’s fleeing with her tail between her legs!]

[Damn. Two pieces of scum.]

[I haven’t even started cursing at them. Why did they flee already?]

Mo Shiyun and Mo Huiqin hurriedly left the room.

However, once she was outside, Mo Shiyun did not know where she could go.

She broke down and started to cry.

It had taken her so much time and effort to get her popularity back.

However, everything had gotten destroyed in the live stream. She had nothing left.

Mo Huiqin cried alongside her daughter.

“Shiyun, I’m so sorry. It’s all my fault. I dragged you down!”

Mo Huiqin kept apologizing to her daughter.

However, her apologies could not change anything.

All the things that they did had been shown in front of everyone.

In the future, there was no longer a place for Mo Shiyun in the entertainment industry! In fact, it would even be difficult for them to gain a foothold in their society!

“Mother, what should I do? What should I do?” Mo Shiyun sobbed. Her face was filled with tears.

She didn’t know what to do anymore.

She had only regained her popularity for a few days!

Was everything going to disappear just like that?

No! She didn’t want that to happen!

“Shiyun, please don’t worry. Don’t you still have Ryan? Go and ask Ryan! Ask him to get his uncle to help you again! His uncle surely has more power than the Jian family! If he helps you, your career could be saved!”

Mo Huiqin suddenly thought about Ryan. Ryan was her daughter’s new boyfriend.

He was her daughter's last straw of hope.

"Yes! There's still Ryan! I still have Ryan!"

Mo Shiyun hurriedly took out her phone. She dialled Ryan's number with trembling hands.

Chapter 627: Mo Shiyun is Done For (1)

Mo Shiyun's phone call was answered by Ryan. However, his voice was different from usual.

Ryan spoke calmly to Mo Shiyun despite the fact that he could hear her crying. He did not comfort her as usual.

At this moment, Ryan was in Long Yuetian's office.

He had watched the live stream with Long Yuetian.

"Ryan..." Mo Shiyun cried out. Her trembling and pained voice called out Ryan's name.

"Hmm?" Ryan replied. Usually, he cared a lot about Mo Shiyun. However, today, his voice was slightly cold.

In reality, Ryan did not know what he should do. His mind was very confused.

He was speaking to the person who saved his life. She was also his goddess and the girl he liked. However, why did she become like this? He couldn't accept this reality.

"You... You watched it?" Mo Shiyun asked. She had a feeling that Ryan had watched the live stream.

Ryan's attitude towards her spoke volumes.

"Yeah, I watched the live stream. Shiyun, why did you do all of those things?" Ryan asked. He spoke with great difficulty.

He had asked her about this matter. However, back then, she said to him that everything was in the past.

However, in reality, Mo Shiyun had caused all of this.

She had paid someone to make these explosive allegations.

Was this really "in the past" then?

"I'm sorry that I lied to you. Those things never passed for me. Furthermore, I wanted to remain popular. As a result, I deliberately created this topic."

When faced with Ryan's question, Mo Shiyun admitted her purpose.

She wanted to use Jian Yiling and the Jian family to create ongoing popularity for herself.

She got a taste of sweetness last time. Qin Chuan's incident had helped her return to the public eye.

Furthermore, Jian Yiling and the Jian family were people that she hated. As a result, she did not feel guilty for using them.

“Shiyun...” Ryan started. His voice sounded incredibly pained.

He could understand Mo Shiyun’s pain. However, he did not approve of what she was doing. Despite that, he couldn’t just ignore what was happening to her.

“Ryan, are you not going to forgive me either? I’m in so much pain and despair right now... I don’t know how I’m going to face the future... I thought you would choose to stay by my side during this time...”

“Shiyun, I’m sorry. I want to help you but I can’t. My uncle has already warned me that if I help you again, he’ll break off his relationship with me.”

“Your uncle? How come?”

Strictly speaking, Mo Shiyun’s last straw of hope wasn’t Ryan. Rather, it was Ryan’s uncle.

Ryan was only a consulting director of the Long Heng Group. He was not that capable yet.

However, Ryan’s uncle John was a rich and powerful person.

John could take up a lot of credit for Mo Shiyun’s successful comeback in the entertainment industry.

“My uncle said that you messed with the wrong people. Furthermore, he said that you deserve what happened today. He didn’t make matters worse because I’m his nephew. However, if I wasn’t his nephew, he would make you suffer further. He also told me to tell you that you should behave yourself.”

Ryan repeated what his uncle had said to him on the phone a while back.

Upon hearing this, Mo Shiyun felt her hands and feet go cold. Her body started to shiver.

Her last shred of hope was shattered.

Why was it like this...

“Your uncle... Why would he... Is it because of the Jian family?”

“I don’t know. But it’s probably not related to the Jian family. Either way, my uncle said that it is impossible for him to help you anymore.”

The Jian family had far-reaching influence in Hengyuan City. However, the Jian family’s influence would not reach John as he was overseas.

At this moment, Mo Shiyun’s entire world collapsed. Her trembling hands could barely hold onto her phone.

Chapter 628: Mo Shiyun is Done For (2)

Then, Mo Shiyun hung up the call.

Ryan stared at his phone for quite some time. It was as though he was lost in his thoughts.

“Just accept the situation and move on. Look at her. After she heard that your uncle won’t help her anymore, she hung up the call. In her eyes, what exactly are you? Isn’t it already really obvious? Don’t you understand?”

Long Yuetian's words made Ryan's eyes turn red.

He didn't necessarily not understand these things.

However, these things were painful. The pain that came with knowing made him wish that he didn't know about it.

Long Yuetian looked at Ryan before she shook her head helplessly.

It appeared as though Ryan genuinely loved Mo Shiyun. As for now, it would be difficult for him to fully accept this news.

On the other end of the phone, Mo Shiyun looked at her mother after she ended the call. Sorrow came from within her heart.

"Shiyun, don't be worried. If the worst comes to worst, I will go to jail. When the time comes, you can just say that you weren't involved in all of this. The parents of many celebrities have done bad things. However, the audience didn't blame the celebrity. Instead, they pitied and sympathized with them."

"Mother, I can't lose you! Ryan is already gone! If I lose you, I will really have nothing in my life left!"

"No, no. I just stole something. At most, I will be in jail for a few years. I will be out soon," Mo Huiqin said softly. It was just jail. It was nothing to her.

"Mother..." Mo Shiyun cried out. She was incredibly pained and infinite regret overwhelmed her.

She really regretted her decision. She shouldn't have contacted a hacker. She shouldn't have done those things to Jian Yiling.

She really did not expect to face such consequences.

She could not afford to bear these consequences.

###

Mo Huiqin got taken away. Everyone on the Internet asked Mo Shiyun to quit the entertainment industry.

Furthermore, Mo Shiyun's agency issued a statement saying that she was no longer an actor in their company.

And thus, Mo Shiyun was left alone in the world. All of a sudden, she had nothing left.

Mo Shiyun stayed in the room that she rented with her mother. In that room, the lights were not turned on. Furthermore, the curtains were pulled down as well.

In the darkness, Mo Shiyun huddled up in a corner.

Her phone was right next to her hand. However, there was no sign of activity on her phone.

When there was news, all kinds of interviewers and news reporters would contact her.

Later on, she received even more messages and calls when she became popular again.

However, not a single person contacted her right now. It was as though everyone was avoiding her like a plague.

Suddenly, her phone lit up. There was an incoming call.

Mo Shiyun hurriedly answered the call.

“Hello!”

“Shiyun, do you still remember me?”

“Manager Chen!”

Manager Chen was the first person who gave Mo Shiyun a chance when she had just begun to become popular again.

At that time, Mo Shiyun relied on Qin Chuan to create topics and popularity for herself.

It was around this time when Manager Chen found her and asked her to do live streaming. He wanted her to advertise items for him.

“Yes, that’s me. I already know about those things that happened to you. This situation will be incredibly difficult to handle. How about this, why don’t you come to Renaissance Hotel? I’ll talk to you face to face about this matter. Maybe there’s a possibility for you to make a comeback.”

“Okay, I’ll be right there!”

Mo Shiyun was incredibly excited.

She was already as good as dead.

However, she was surprised that Manager Chen was willing to help her at this time.

Mo Shiyun hurriedly cleaned herself up before she rushed to the Renaissance Hotel.

According to the information given to her by Manager Chen, she found room 1402.

After entering the room, she saw Manager Chen seated on a sofa inside the room.

Manager Chen was not tall. He was a middle-aged man who had a potbelly. Furthermore, he seemed to be a greasy person.

Chapter 629: Mo Shiyun is Done For (3)

“Come over and have a seat,” Manager Chen said as he pointed to the sofa opposite to himself.

Mo Shiyun hurriedly sat down. Then, she asked Manager Chen: “Manager Chen... About my matter...”

Manager Chen interrupted Mo Shiyun’s words. “I can see that you’re very talented at acting. You have the potential to become incredibly popular. However, your decisions pushed you to your demise. It will be difficult for you to make a comeback. In fact, it will be very difficult. However, I can help you.”

“Manager Chen, are you really willing to help me?”

Mo Shiyun couldn’t believe what she was hearing.

“Well, that will still depend on your performance,” Manager Chen replied. Then, he looked at Mo Shiyun with a lecherous look in his eyes.

Mo Shiyun was stunned.

She knew what this look meant.

In the three years of not being popular, there had been many incidents where a man had looked at her in such a way.

However, she had refused them all.

She chose to continue to be a third-rate actress. She didn't want to be defiled by those men.

If it was the old her, she would have immediately left the hotel room. She would stay well away from Manager Chen.

But now, she had no choice.

Manager Chen was the only one who was willing to help her.

Her mother was still at the local police station. She needed to hire the best lawyer for her mother! She needed to get back into the entertainment industry!

If she turned around and left now, she would never have a chance again.

“Manager Chen, can you really help me?” Mo Shiyun asked again.

“Of course. Have you forgotten who helped you in the beginning? Did you forget who asked you to advertise goods via live streams? I was the one who helped you.”

Manager Chen said with a smile. His eyes were fixated on Mo Shiyun.

“Okay,” Mo Shiyun said as she gritted her teeth. She forced herself to endure this sense of humiliation.

She had already lost Qin Chuan and Ryan. She no longer had anything else to lose.

Furthermore, there were many women in the entertainment industry who did this. She wouldn't be the only one.

And thus, Mo Shiyun began to slowly undo her clothes.

Her skirt dropped to the ground.

The eyes of the man remained fixated on her...

###

The sky outside was already dark.

Mo Shiyun got up from the bed.

There were many bruises on her body.

The experience just now was very bad for her.

However, she could still make a comeback. This was the reason why she endured all of it.

In the future, she would still have the opportunity to return all the pain she endured to Jian Yiling and the Jian family.

At this moment, the door opened.

There was someone who swiped a card to enter the hotel room.

Mo Shiyun hurriedly grabbed a blanket to cover her body.

The lights in the room turned on.

When Mo Shiyun saw a male stranger in front of her, she was shocked and frightened.

The man in front of her was rather delicate looking. His appearance and the smile on his face made him seem harmless.

However, in such a situation, Mo Shiyun was still nervous.

Manager Chen on the other hand, was not alarmed at all. He got up slowly and started to put on his clothes.

“Manager Chen, I would have never been able to tell. You’re old but vigorous,” Jian Yichen commented with a smile.

Jian Yichen waited for Manager Chen in the room next door for one and a half hours.

Manager Chen smiled embarrassedly: “Sorry for that, Young Master Yichen.”

“You guys know each other?!” Mo Shiyun cried out. Her voice was trembling.

Jian Yichen turned around to look at Mo Shiyun: “Well, you may not know me. However, you should know my name. It’s nice to meet you. My name is Jian Yichen.”

Jian Yichen!

He was someone from the Jian family!

He was Jian Yiling’s brother!

Mo Shiyun’s face turned deathly white.

In fact, her entire body began to tremble uncontrollably.

Fear, nausea, and humiliation flooded her body. She had been deceived... Yet, she was unable to say a single word.

Chapter 630: Mo Shiyun is Done For (4)

Manager Chen laughed: “Young Master Yichen, I would not mind taking on a few more tasks of this type. Did you know that this woman was a virgin?”

And thus, Manager Chen was incredibly happy with his work.

He was previously blamed by Young Master Yichen for giving resources to Mo Shiyun. And thus, Young Master Yichen had given him this task.

However, Manager Chen was rather willing to complete the task that was given to him.

Jian Yichen sat down on a sofa that was not far away from the bed. He acted rather relaxed.

Then, he enjoyed looking at Mo Shiyun's current expression: "Mo Shiyun, do you feel humiliated right now? Do you feel pain and despair?"

"I beg you. Please let me go! Is that okay?" Mo Shiyun opened her mouth to beg, "I don't have anything left! I have nothing!"

"To begin with, you had nothing!" Jian Yichen said with a sarcastic tone. "If it wasn't for the Jian family helping you, you would have had nothing, to begin with. From the time you were able to attend Shenghua High School, you were already given many things by the Jian family!"

He Yan had arranged all of this. She wanted to harm Jian Shuxing's family.

However, the Mo family had used the Jian family's resources to crawl up the social ladder. Mo Huiqin got a high salary and Mo Shiyun went to a good school. As a result, Mo Shiyun befriended excellent individuals.

However, in the end, the Mo family built their happiness on the suffering of the Jian family!

In fact, in their last life, the Jian family had given Mo Shiyun even more help.

Jian Yichen remembered that in their last life, Mo Shiyun ended up marrying Qin Chuan. She had everything in the world.

However, she did not remember the people who gave her help in the very beginning.

In fact, she ended up watching as the Jian family got destroyed by the Qin family. Back in their last life, the Jian family had been left with nothing.

Just because Jian Yiling treated Mo Shiyun poorly back then, did that mean everyone else deserved that retribution?

Hmmm... Perhaps the Jian family deserved it.

However, Jian Yichen did not want to look too deep into the cause.

Back then, he had lost his family. And thus, he hated this woman and he hated Qin Chuan.

In this life, fate had changed for some reason. Mo Shiyun did not end up becoming Qin Chuan's wife.

However, her hatred towards the Jian family ran even deeper than in her previous life.

In fact, she attempted to frame and hurt Jian Yiling when Jian Yiling had done nothing to her. She wanted to make Jian Yiling her stepping stone in life.

Therefore, she deserved to suffer!

He, Jian Yichen, was a despicable person!

“Manager Chen, please remember to send me a copy of those photos you took just now,” Jian Yichen said.

In the past one and a half hours, Manager Chen had recorded quite a few beautiful moments with his phone.

“Of course.”

“You can’t do that! You can’t!” Mo Shiyun cried out. Her face was as white as paper as she wrapped herself in a blanket. She attempted to crawl towards Manager Chen to grab away his phone.

“Ahh, but Miss Shiyun, you agreed to take these pictures!” Manager Chen said as he held his phone high up in the air. He did not give Mo Shiyun a chance to take his phone away.

Jian Yichen continued to say: “In addition, we will file a lawsuit against you for spreading rumors. Please be prepared for the court summons.”

There was irrefutable evidence that Mo Shiyun had contacted a hacker. The Jian family would not let this go.

They had graced her with a day’s buffer time. However, they had planned this out for today.

After Jian Yichen finished speaking, he left the hotel room with Manager Chen.

“Ahhh—!”

After the two men left, the room erupted with Mo Shiyun’s painful screams.

Her heart was full of pain however, there was nowhere for her to vent.

Her future would only be greeted with pain and despair. She was finally paying the price for what she had done.
