

Sidekick 651

Chapter 651: Getting Beaten Up by His Own Fan

"Oh my goodness! Is that what she meant by confession? How did she even get engaged so quickly? Isn't she skipping a few steps in her relationship?"

"Perhaps," Jian Yumin replied. When he heard Luo Xiuen's reaction, Jian Yumin felt much better. Then, he said: "Ahhh, I still feel upset. I want to fight someone."

Jian Yumin was in a really bad mood. However, he knew that he was in no position to stop Yiling from getting engaged.

His mother had harmed Yiling's family. Furthermore, his mother had also caused Yiling to suffer.

As a matter of fact, he only found out about these things after they had happened.

Therefore, he was ashamed to face his younger siblings.

If he had been more vigilant, perhaps, he would have been able to fulfill his duty as an older brother. Perhaps, they would have suffered a little less.

And thus, as of this day and age, no matter what decision they made, his only choice was to support them.

"I can fight with you," Luo Xiuen replied.

Luo Xiuen wasn't good at many other things. However, she was good at fighting. Therefore, she was absolutely qualified to fight Jian Yumin.

"Okay," Jian Yumin replied. He was looking forward to the fight. Then, he added: "But you're a woman. Don't blame me when you get beaten up."

"Don't worry. If I lose, I'm willing to accept my defeat!"

And thus, Jian Yumin and Luo Xiuen agreed to meet at a boxing gym.

One hour later.

Jian Yumin collapsed on the floor of the boxing ring. He was panting heavily.

His whole body was in pain.

His chest, legs, and thighs were all dying! Everywhere hurt!

Ahhh, his whole body was likely to be filled with patches of purple and green tomorrow morning.

This was all thanks to his die-hard fan, Luo Xiuen.

"Brother... Brother Yu... Are you okay?" Luo Xiuen asked with an embarrassed expression on her face.

She got high when she started boxing.

As a result, this caused her to momentarily forget that she was boxing against her idol.

And then...

"Ahhh, I'm okay. It feels alright."

What else could he say? He couldn't let Luo Xiuen look down on him! He still had a reputation to uphold!

"Really?" Luo Xiuen asked. It seemed as though she did not believe his words.

"Yes!"

"Then... Do you need me to support you?"

"No need! I can get up by myself!"

"Errr, okay..."

In an attempt to prove that he could get up by himself, Jian Yumin pushed his hands against the floorboards. He got up with great difficulty.

Then, he accidentally touched himself in a painful spot. Jian Yumin sucked in a breath of cold air.

Upon hearing Jian Yumin's pained breaths, Luo Xiuen felt quite bad.

Ahhh, beating up Cheng Yi and the others was fine. But why did she beat up Brother Yu as well? Couldn't she resist the urge to fight someone?

This wouldn't happen again.

After all, she was Brother Yu's fan!

After Jian Yumin got up, he stumbled over to a seat. He did not want to move anymore.

Upon seeing this, Luo Xiuen brought him some water.

"Are you curious about why I suddenly quit the entertainment industry?"

Physical pain and exhaustion made Jian Yumin relax. As a result, he suddenly brought up his decision to quit the entertainment industry.

"Hmm, I'm quite curious." As Luo Xiuen was Jian Yumin's fan, she was quite surprised and sad when she initially heard this news.

"Hmm, I just didn't really take care of my younger siblings in the past. I want to take good care of them in the future," Jian Yumin said quietly. This was the first time he had told someone about this. These words had been hidden deep within his heart.

After that incident, his parents had gotten divorced. Jian Yubo had left their family. He never returned to Hengyuan City. A while after that, Jian Yujie also left.

As a result, the place that he called home was no longer there.

Chapter 652: Idol Singing For Her

And therefore, Jian Yumin had a lot of guilt in his heart.

“Don’t be sad. You’re trying your best to fix the situation,” Luo Xiuen comforted. “I’m not very good at saying comforting words. However, you should know that us fans will always support you. This is still the case regardless of whether or not you’re singing anymore. We’re still your fans.”

These words were very heartwarming to Jian Yumin. And thus, Jian Yumin smiled from the bottom of his heart.

It was really nice to have fans like this.

However, this fan had beaten him to the point that he was crawling around on the floorboards.

“I will sing you a song. Which song do you want to listen to?”

Jian Yumin suddenly wanted to sing. He hadn’t sung for a long time.

“Really?” Luo Xiuen asked. She couldn’t believe what she was hearing. Was her idol actually going to sing for her?

“Hurry up and pick a song before I change my mind.”

“I want to listen to Jupiter from your first album!” Luo Xiuen replied in a hurry.

Jupiter was the song that made them famous. It was also the song that determined their group’s name.

Furthermore, Jupiter was the song that made her a super fan!

And thus, Jian Yumin began to sing.

His voice was sexy and beautiful. He clearly pronounced each word and sang with a lot of emotion.

As Jian Yumin sang, he began to recall his memories in the entertainment industry.

He started off as a trainee that no one knew. And thus, he practiced like crazy with his group members. Back then, his goal was to stand on the stage...

Jian Yumin reminisced about those years.

He had fulfilled his dreams yet, he had also given upon them.

After he finished singing the song, a lot of feelings welled up for Jian Yumin.

On the other hand, Luo Xiuen was almost about to cry.

She had been a fan of Jian Yumin for so many years. And now, he was singing with the memories of his past.

Furthermore, he sang for her! She was his only audience!

Her life was complete!

She could die without any regret!

“Thank you for accompanying me today,” Jian Yumin said to Luo Xiuen.

“You’re welcome,” Luo Xiuen replied. She was willing to accompany her idol as much as possible.

Then, Luo Xiuen remembered another thing: “Oh right, are you also going to Beijing?”

If Jian Yiling was going to get engaged, Jian Yumin would definitely be present right?

“Also? Are you going to Beijing as well?”

“Yeah, I am. I’m going to discuss something with Xuming Medical Manufacturers. Our institution has ordered some medical equipment from them.”

“Xuming Medical Manufacturers? Is that the manufacturing company that developed a new type of medical equipment?”

“Yeah.”

“I heard that it’s very difficult to order equipment from them.”

“Yeah, it is. However, Dr. F.S helped us.”

When she mentioned Dr. F.S, Luo Xiuen paused for a moment.

Dr. F.S was Jian Yiling. It was the sister that he cared about the most.

However, Luo Xiuen still held back her words. This was Jian Yiling’s secret. She could not mention this to anyone. Even if this person was her brother.

Upon hearing Dr. F.S’s name, Jian Yumin felt quite happy.

This person had saved their family twice.

“Is Dr. F.S also in Beijing?”

“Yes...” Luo Xiuen replied. However, she said this with a guilty conscience.

“I want to bring him some gifts for saving my grandmother. Do you know what he likes?”

“Umm... I’m not sure. She’s^[1] not picky. Furthermore, even though she doesn’t talk much, it’s quite easy to get along with her. She’s rather kind-hearted.”

“Yeah, I’d assume so. He saved the Jian family twice already.”

“Mhmm. As for gifts, just bring whatever you want. She will like everything.”

“Okay! Then, I’ll buy him a few watches!”

“...”

[1] Translator Note: He and she are pronounced the same way in Chinese. Therefore, if they are talking, Jian Yumin would not realize that Luo Xiuen is using “she.”

Chapter 653: Brother’s Reactions

[上游戏.]

[Get on Zerg Invasion.]

Jian Yujie sent a message to Zhai Yunsheng.

His message was simple and clear. It was obvious that there was a clear purpose behind this message.

Upon receiving this message, Zhai Yunsheng smiled. Then, he logged into his account.

As soon as he logged on, he received an invitation from Jian Yujie. Jian Yujie invited him to a 1v1 custom game.

Zhai Yunsheng accepted the invitation.

The 1v1 mode was released in the latest patch of Zerg Invasion. In this mode, it was possible to kill your opponent numerous times.

After being killed, you had to wait for thirty seconds before you could revive.

Furthermore, the location of the resurrection was random as well.

And thus, in this game mode, you could gain an advantage from killing your opponent. This would give you an opportunity to gain more points whilst your opponent was dead.

Then the game began, Jian Yujie did not target the Zergs. Instead, he went straight for Zhai Yunsheng.

After he killed Zhai Yunsheng's character, he waited for Zhai Yunsheng's character to respawn. Then, he continued to kill Zhai Yunsheng's character.

Zhai Yunsheng did not fight against him.

After being killed twenty times in a row, Zhai Yunsheng sent a message to Jian Yujie:

[Has your temper cooled down?]

[What if it hasn't?]

Jian Yujie could only be upset. There was nothing else that he could do.

Then, Jian Yujie angrily typed: [If you dare to mistreat my sister in the future, I will curse you.]

Jian Yujie knew that he couldn't win in a fight.

[Well, she's the one who will dump me. Not the opposite way around.] Zhai Yunsheng replied.

[Well, if she dumps you, then you must let her be. Don't stop her from pursuing her happiness.]

[...]

Hmm, the Jian brothers had a lot of double standards.

Jian Yujie continued to type: [Also, if you're engaged with my sister, then you must call me older brother in the future.]

Zhai Yunsheng: [...]

Where did this child learn this from?

Was this the first thing he thought of?

However, there was no smile on Jian Yujie's face. In fact, he felt a little heartbroken.

Despite that, Jian Yujie was going to support his sister's decision.

After all, his sister had given him unconditional support as well.

###

Zhai Yunsheng had anticipated that Jian Yuncheng would come to him.

In fact, he thought that Jian Yuncheng would be the first to contact him.

In the end, Jian Yuncheng contacted him a bit later than he had expected.

In Zhai Yunsheng's office, Jian Yuncheng was seated opposite Zhai Yunsheng.

Jian Yuncheng wore a dark-colored suit. There was a serious expression on his face and his lips were tightly pursed into a straight line.

When Zhai Yunsheng looked at the man seated opposite of him, he held a smile back.

"Master Sheng, it seems as though you think everything is under your control."

"I've never been in control of anything."

"Then what about my sister?"

"What do you think?"

"Master Sheng, there's a lot of things going on in the Zhai family. My sister's personality and character are straightforward."

Whether it was the former lively Jian Yiling or the current silent Jian Yiling, Jian Yiling's personality and character had always been the same.

She wasn't sly and calculating. Furthermore, she did not really understand the ways of the world.

"I'm rather impressed to hear you say that. Back when you allowed cyberbullying to happen to your sister, I wasn't even bothered to speak to you."

At the very least, the Jian family wasn't interested in the Zhai family business. They weren't attempting to use Jian Yiling to gain social connections.

Although that incident had happened quite a few years ago, Zhai Yunsheng was still not willing to forgive Jian Yuncheng.

This was especially the case as he was protecting Yiling right now. He did not want her to suffer from anything.

"I don't care if you're impressed with me or not. I just want you to treat my sister well. That's all."

Jian Yuncheng's voice was as cold and hard as ever.

“As you wish.”

Zhai Yunsheng could give Jian Yuncheng a definite answer for this.

Chapter 654: Heated Debate about Lahaisen Hospital’s New Branch

The news that Lahaisen Hospital was going to establish a new branch in Beijing quickly spread throughout the city.

This news was exciting not only to the medical community but also to the outside world.

In fact, several threads had been opened on the Internet to discuss this matter.

Everyone’s views were surprisingly consistent. They all looked forward to this matter.

Then, everyone realized the reason why Lahaisen Hospital was recruiting in the first place. They recruited because they planned to open another branch.

Wen Ruo was currently eating with her boyfriend. She listened to him talk about this news.

“Did you know that Lahaisen Hospital is one of the best hospitals in the world in terms of medical standards? And now, they’re planning to open a branch in Beijing. This is incredibly good for Beijing citizens.”

Lahaisen Hospital was a hospital whose medical standards exceeded other hospitals in the world. Therefore, opening a branch in Beijing was their acknowledgment for this capital city.

Wen Ruo had just started dating this man. She had confirmed this relationship only two days ago.

The man’s name was Zhu Zimo. He was her university classmate.

Zhu Zimo came from a very good background. He was the Young Master of a large family in Beijing.

Although his looks were not outstanding, he was quite talented in other areas. He had good academic results, played the piano and violin, and was able to compose his own songs.

And thus, it could be said that other than appearance, everything else was Wen Ruo’s ideal type.

Therefore, after Zhu Zimo confessed to her, Wen Ruo quickly agreed to date the other person.

After dating, the only thing that made Wen Ruo feel uncomfortable was that Zhu Zimo liked to talk about current events. He liked to share his views and opinions with Wen Ruo. However, Wen Ruo was unsure of how to respond to him.

For example, Wen Ruo did not know much about Lahaisen Hospital. However, Zhu Zimo kept talking about it.

“Apparently, the hospital’s building site has already been approved. Now, everyone is making guesses on which company will build Lahaisen Hospital’s new branch,” Zhu Zimo continued.

“Why does that matter?” Wen Ruo asked.

“This isn’t just about making money. It’s also a way to earn fame. Lahaisen Hospital is known for using the best of everything. Therefore, the company chosen by Lahaisen Hospital will basically get free advertisement. In addition, they will also be able to meet staff members of the hospital. Who wouldn't want to get to know such a mysterious and powerful team?"

Upon hearing Zhu Zimo's words, a flash of anticipation appeared on Wen Ruo's face.

However, the Wen family was not involved in this area. Therefore, she could only listen.

Then, Wen Ruo asked: "When are they going to decide? Furthermore, other than construction, are they looking for anything else?"

"Well, we shouldn't even think about medical equipment. Apparently, Xuming Medical Manufacturers collaborates with Lahaisen Hospital. The manufacturers provide exclusive equipment for the hospital. Other hospitals are unable to purchase this equipment even if they want to."

Currently, Xuming Medical Manufacturers only sold two products to the rest of the market. However, these two products already allowed them to make a lot of profit.

"In terms of anything else... I'm not too sure yet," Zhu Zimo replied. He also wanted to know about this. After all, you could earn money and fame by doing business with Lahaisen Hospital.

After they finished eating, Zhu Zimo sent Wen Ruo home.

When he arrived at the door, he saw Jian Yiling coming out.

As Grandma Jian lived in the Wen family villa, Jian Yiling came to visit from time to time.

"Who is she? Why is she coming out of your house?" Zhu Zimo asked Wen Ruo.

Chapter 655: Probably Not From a Good Family

"She's my cousin," Wen Ruo replied. Then, she added: "She's about to get engaged."

"About to get engaged? She looks much younger than you. How come she's getting engaged already?" Zhu Zimo replied. There was surprise in his voice as he said this.

"Hmm, I guess she fell in love early."

As a matter of fact, Jian Yiling was only one year younger than Wen Ruo. Her appearance just made her look much younger.

Therefore, this shouldn't be considered as falling in love at a young age.

However, Wen Ruo's words made Zhu Zimo feel that this little girl was not as well-behaved as she looked. Well-behaved girls would not fall in love at the age of 14 to 15. In fact, she even got engaged!

In general, if you got engaged that early, something was likely happening behind the scenes.

However, Zhu Zimo did not ask further about the matter. He wasn't that curious about it. In addition, it was not good to ask too much about the matters happening in someone else's family.

After Zhu Zimo left, Wen Ruo entered her house.

Cai Qinyue walked into Wen Ruo's study. She had a platter of fruit in her hand. Then, she asked about Zhu Zimo:

“How was it? How are you and Zimo getting along?”

“Not bad,” Wen Ruo replied. They were getting along fine.

“That’s good. The Zhu family is a very prestigious family in Beijing. Furthermore, Zimo is such a talented child. He’s a perfect match for you. I would not mind him as my future son-in-law. You must hold onto him.”

As she heard her mother’s words, Zhai Yunsheng’s face suddenly flashed into Wen Ruo’s mind.

It was a face that was hard to forget after seeing it.

However, Wen Ruo quickly dismissed that thought from her mind.

She knew that Zhai Yunsheng was an existence that she could not touch nor reach.

“Oh right, have you asked my father why Jian Yiling gave up on Master Sheng? Why did she choose to get engaged to someone from an ordinary family?” Wen Ruo asked. She was still confused about this matter.

The foolish and ordinary old man that came to propose marriage on that day was definitely not from the Zhai family.

He was probably not from a good family background either. Otherwise, he would not nod and bow to the Jian family.

“I don’t know. After I had a fight with your father, I haven’t spoken to him since. I don’t want to ask him about those things. Jian Yiling was probably dumped by Master Sheng. Master Sheng can have anyone he wants around him. Why would he be interested in her? Even if he was interested in her, he’s probably just trying new things. He wouldn’t actually take such a girl as his wife. The Jian family and the Zhai family are hundreds of miles apart.”

The Jian family’s social standing was not even as good as the Wen family’s.

In fact, the Zhu family had better social status than the Wen family. Therefore, both of their families could not even be compared to the Zhai family.

Furthermore, that person was Master Sheng! He wasn’t even interested in the Young Lady of the Qin family. Therefore, why would he be interested in Jian Yiling?

“She rebounded quite quickly,” Wen Ruo commented.

“Well, that’s her business. Just don’t follow her example. For now, just date Zimo. Don’t rush into anything else. Don’t make him feel like you’re cheap or anything. Do you understand?”

“I understand,” Wen Ruo replied. Then, she added: “Mother, you also need to make up with my father soon. Don’t continue to argue with him. My father is very biased towards the Jian family.”

“I know,” Cai Qinyue replied. The look on her face was not very pretty as she said this. “But I don’t want to do so. Furthermore, I don’t get why your father is so focused on some favor from so many years ago. He keeps insisting on using our money to return the so-called favor.”

“Ahh, but my father is like that. Just accommodate him,” Wen Ruo replied.

“Okay, okay. I will apologize. However, I’m determined not to let your father give the Jian family [Ten Thousand Miles of Mountains and Rivers.]”

Chapter 656: Want to Suffer Losses From You

Recently, there was a lot of news about Lahaisen Hospital and Xuming Medical Manufacturers.

Jian Yiling had a very close relationship with these two companies.

When she established Lahaisen Hospital, Jian Yiling needed a batch of medical equipment that had not yet been produced in this world.

The equipment that she wanted had been used in Jian Yiling’s original world. She had a certain understanding of their structure and composition.

Therefore, Jian Yiling became a partner of Xuming Medical Manufacturers. Back then, Xuming Medical Manufacturers was going through many financial difficulties. After she became a partner of the company, Jian Yiling used their existing production line to produce medical equipment that met her needs.

The production of these instruments and equipment to a large extent helped Jian Yiling solve her pressing problems.

This was one of the reasons why Lahaisen Hospital’s medical competency levels were ahead of other hospitals.

Not only did they have the best doctors in the world, but they also had more advanced medical equipment.

A large part of the advanced medical equipment used in Lahaisen Hospital was produced by Xuming Medical Manufacturers.

Xuming Medical Manufacturers only mass-produced two kinds of medical equipment. Most of their other equipment was only available for Lahaisen Hospital.

Despite this, many hospitals and related research institutions from countries all over the world ordered medical equipment from Xuming Medical Manufacturers. In fact, their orders were scheduled until the end of next year.

However, Jian Yiling planned to start a branch in Beijing. In addition, she wanted to construct another production facility.

Both of these investments required a lot of capital and resources.

Furthermore, many of the details had to be done by Jian Yiling herself.

Right now, Jian Yiling was going through some relevant approvals. After this, her major task would be to overlook the construction of the new branch.

Jian Yiling wanted to find a reliable construction company to help her build the hospital.

Originally, Jian Yiling planned to invite bids. However, another idea came to her mind.

Jian Yiling raised her head and looked at Zhai Yunsheng. Zhai Yunsheng was seated opposite her.

The two of them were in their study. The study room in their apartment had been remodeled by Zhai Yunsheng. Therefore, their seats were now facing one another.

After a while, Zhai Yunsheng said: "If you keep looking at me like that, then we both won't be able to do our work."

"I want to do a deal with you."

Jian Yiling's voice was soft and sweet like cotton candy.

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng laughed: "Are you making me guess the rest of the words?"

After a pause, Zhai Yunsheng added: "What sort of deal?"

"Construction," Jian Yiling replied. "I won't let you suffer losses."

Jian Yiling did not intend for Zhai Yunsheng to make losses. Instead, she wanted both of them to benefit from her suggestion.

Zhai Yunsheng used a hand to support his chin. His eyes smiled as he said:

"I wouldn't mind suffering some losses from you."

"For businesses, you need to make money," Jian Yiling replied. Her tone was rather serious.

"It's not called doing business if I'm with you."

"Then what is it called?"

"It's called investing."

"Is it different?"

"Yeah, it's different."

"You're lying."

"I'm not lying to you. You do business to make a profit. However, if you're investing, you're not necessarily seeking profit. Instead, you might want something else. For example, I'm not interested in your money. Instead, I'm interested in..."

Zhai Yunsheng pointed his finger towards Jian Yiling's heart.

Jian Yiling finally understood the meaning behind Zhai Yunsheng's words. She quickly turned her flushed face away from him.

When Zhai Yunsheng saw Jian Yiling's flushed face, he started to laugh. He really wanted to gently bite her adorable face.

Chapter 657: Internship (1)

Luo Xiuen and Jian Yumin arrived in Beijing together.

After that, Luo Xiuen went to meet Jian Yiling with the gifts that Jian Yumin had prepared.

As she handed the gifts over to Jian Yiling, they talked about the latest project that Jian Yiling was doing.

Jian Yiling was going to perform a heart surgery. She had personally requested to handle this surgery.

Furthermore, Jian Yiling told the research institution that she was willing to take on any surgeries that were related to the heart.

In order to make things convenient for Jian Yiling, the research institution screened individuals who needed a heart surgery in Beijing.

Then, Luo Xiuen said to Jian Yiling: "When you announced that you were going to accept heart surgeries, our institution's website was immediately flooded with a bunch of heart surgery applications."

"It must have been hard work for you guys," Jian Yiling said. She was never comfortable with bothering people. No matter how long she had known them, she would not want to ask someone to go out of their way to help her.

"It's not hard work. It's work that we're meant to handle anyways. Don't treat me with so much courtesy. If you keep doing that, I will be unhappy!"

"Mhmm."

"Also, is it true that you're getting engaged?" Luo Xiuen asked. She could not hold back her curiosity.

"Yeah."

"Oh! Then when the time comes, do you want us all to go and support you? We can't let your future fiance look down upon you! Furthermore, the research institution will also prepare a dowry for you!"

After she finished speaking, Luo Xiuen paused for a moment. She realized that they couldn't do that: "Ahh, I forgot that we can't publicize your identity. There will be people watching you. Therefore, we must not be too high-profile. Hmmm, then maybe we can forget about the dowry for now! However, we will still support you! We can say that we're your friends! Yes! I'm your very good friend!"

Jian Yiling felt bad for saying no. Therefore, she let Luo Xiuen do whatever she wanted.

Sister En always did things in a speedy manner. Furthermore, she always kept her word as well.

"Oh right, our research institution is planning to launch a new product in Beijing the day after tomorrow. Do you want to be there as well?"

"Okay."

Jian Yiling had time the day after tomorrow. Therefore, she could attend the launch.

###

As Jian Yiling stayed in Beijing because of Zhai Yunsheng, her teacher at Beijing University arranged an internship for her.

All medical students were required to gain practical experience at hospitals.

Jian Yiling was no exception.

And thus, Jian Yiling's internship was at Beijing University's subsidiary hospital.

However, she was scolded by Dr. Chu on the first day of her internship.

"What's wrong with you? Why can't you do this simple task? I asked you to go and communicate with the patient. However, you barely said anything to the patient! You just commenced the examination without even talking to the patient! Furthermore, if you don't ask the patient any questions, how do you know where their pain and discomfort is?"

Dr. Chu was a man in his early thirties. He had a medium-sized build and a squarish face. However, his appearance made him look like he was around forty years old.

Jian Yiling was silent. She did not attempt to defend herself.

She was not good at arguing with people.

Dr. Chu started laughing out of anger: "And you're questioning my diagnosis? Are you a doctor or am I a doctor? Who do you think you are? You're a student for goodness sake!"

Jian Yiling was getting scolded not because she did not carefully question the patient. But rather, she said that there was an issue with Dr. Chu's diagnosis of a patient.

This triggered Dr. Chu.

He was a professional doctor! Why was this intern doubting his words? This was incredibly insulting to him!

And thus, just looking at Jian Yiling tilted Dr. Chu.

Furthermore, he deliberately scolded her in front of all the other interns and doctors in the department. He did not show the slightest mercy.

In fact, if it was an intern with a weaker mentality, the intern would have probably started crying by now.

Chapter 658: Internship (2)

Dr. Chu continued to scold Jian Yiling: "What now? Why are you not speaking? Are you mute? If you're mute, you shouldn't be a doctor! A doctor must learn to communicate with their patients! People like you only know how to talk on paper! You only understand data and numbers! However, that won't make you a good doctor!"

"You should learn to speak and communicate with patients! If you can't learn that, then don't be a doctor! Just go home! I've mentored so many interns, however, I've never met one as bad as you! You're definitely the worst intern I've ever had!"

"Why are you still standing there? Why don't you learn how to communicate with your peers?" Dr. Chu impatiently urged when he saw Jian Yiling standing still.

After Jian Yiling left, another doctor attempted to persuade Dr. Chu: “Dr. Chu, she’s still so young. Just show her a bit of mercy. Don’t make her cry.”

“Crying? Who even sent her to this hospital? They’re honestly wasting my time,” Dr. Chu huffed. There was disgust in his voice as he said this.

Their hospital was a nationally renowned hospital. Furthermore, all the interns who came here were the top students among their medial cohort.

However, what was this intern even doing? She did not even communicate with the patient. Furthermore, she somehow had the confidence to say that the patient needed surgery immediately.

Upon hearing this, the other doctor said: “But isn’t she Jian Yiling? She’s a top student amongst the medical cohort. Furthermore, she skipped a grade in university. In addition, she also finished her undergraduate degree early. I had high expectations for her.”

Dr. Chu scoffed at these words: “Do you know what she did just now? She said that the child with gastroenteritis needed surgery! Surgery! Do you really think she can make that call? She’s only been studying medicine for a few years! How many patients has she even seen? Does she think that she’s a professional doctor or something?”

Then, Dr. Chu snorted through his nose.

The other doctor in his department helplessly shook his head.

Ahh, Jian Yiling was not good at dealing with people.

As a student, she should ask if she didn’t understand anything.

Furthermore, even if she had opinions, she should have gently suggested them to the doctor. She shouldn’t have been so confident.

She was basically questioning the authority of the doctor that was mentoring her. No wonder Dr. Chu took her comments personally.

###

During their lunch break, one of the girls interning with Jian Yiling attempted to persuade her: “Jian Yiling, why don’t you apologize to Dr. Chu?”

“Thank you. But I’m fine,” Jian Yiling replied. Her voice was soft and calm.

Furthermore, the expression on her face really made it seem like she was actually fine.

Jian Yiling had a lot of things to do recently. She had to overlook the construction of Lahaisen Hospital’s new branch. And thus, she did not have the extra time to get anxious and angry with a doctor that did not have much to do with her.

“But if you’re like this, you’ll have a hard time in the future,” the girl continued.

“It’s okay,” Jian Yiling replied. It was as though she was not very concerned with this.

“Ahhh, I really don’t know if it’s good or bad for you to be like this,” the girl said as she shook her head helplessly. Then, she turned away to concentrate on her own things.

She didn’t know Jian Yiling well in the first place. And thus, she couldn’t help her if the other person wasn’t willing to listen to her.

Chapter 659: Wen Cheng Gets Into a Car Accident

After Dr. Chu finished scolding Jian Yiling, he went to have his lunch break in his office.

“Dr. Chu, Dr. Chu, something bad happened! The patient just now went unconscious.” The head nurse hurriedly said to Dr. Chu.

“Which patient?” Dr. Chu asked as he immediately got up.

“It’s the patient that you diagnosed with gastroenteritis! However, one of your interns insisted that the patient needed surgery!”

Typically, gastroenteritis wouldn’t cause a patient to become unconscious.

Upon hearing this, Dr. Chu’s face went pale. He hurriedly ran over.

The patient had fainted.

Fortunately, the patient did not leave the hospital. As a result, the patient was immediately pushed into the emergency room.

The patient had a rare type of intestinal lesion. This condition was not common. Furthermore, nothing abnormal had shown up on the blood tests. As a result, Dr. Chu assumed that it was merely gastroenteritis.

This made the entire department nervous.

However, Jian Yiling was still resting in her seat.

The girl who had just attempted to persuade Jian Yiling looked at her in amazement: “You were actually right... The patient got moved into the operating room...”

“Mhmm.”

“Then why aren’t you excited? You were right,” the girl asked Jian Yiling.

“The patient’s life is at stake,” Jian Yiling replied. There was nothing to be excited about when there was a patient in the emergency room.

“Then aren’t you worried? The patient is currently in the emergency room. If something were to happen to him... Then...”

Then, it would be the responsibility of Dr. Chu.

“The patient did not leave the hospital. As long as he gets a timely operation, he will not die.”

Any doctor could solve this problem.

As Jian Yiling knew that delaying the operation would not endanger the patient's life, she did not continue to argue with Dr. Chu.

At the entrance of the operating room, Dr. Chu's expression was deathly white.

A misdiagnosis would bring him a lot of trouble. The patient's family could create a commotion about this. In addition, this could also affect his bonus and his future evaluation.

When Dr. Chu returned to his office, the expression on his face became even more ugly when he saw Jian Yiling.

###

In the morning, Wen Cheng and Cai Qinyue left the house to talk to someone about a business deal.

As of lately, the relationship between the two of them had eased up. The cold war after their last fight was almost over.

On the way there, Cai Qinyue took the opportunity to talk to Wen Cheng about [Ten Thousand Miles of Mountains and Rivers.]

"You shouldn't give Yiling [Ten Thousand Miles of Mountains and Rivers.] If you want to give her an expensive engagement gift, you can pick anything else."

"Stop it. Didn't we agree to not argue about this anymore?"

"Yeah, we can stop arguing about this if you change your mind. [Ten Thousand Miles of Mountains and Rivers] is reserved for my daughter. Just give her some jewelry. Just make sure that its value is within a reasonable range."

"Wen Nuan saved all of this!"

"What do you mean by that? Just because she saved your family business, does that mean that she should get everything?"

"Potentially. Furthermore, I made the mistake back then. Therefore, I should take the responsibility."

"Wen Cheng! You're a bastard! I did not marry you to accompany you in paying off your debts!"

Then, the two of them began to argue more fiercely.

Near the end of the argument, Cai Qinyue became furious: "Wen Cheng! You're an absolute bastard!"

Cai Qinyue reached out to hit Wen Cheng.

However, Wen Cheng was still driving: "Are you crazy?! Stop it!"

Wen Cheng was unable to focus on driving anymore. In his panic, he turned the steering wheel way too much. This caused the car to ram through the metal fencing on the side of the road.

An hour later, Wen Cheng and Cai Qinyue were sent to Beijing University's subsidiary hospital.

Chapter 660: Breaking Into the Operating Room (1)

Cai Qinyue's condition was fine. Her life was not in danger.

However, Wen Cheng's condition was not so good.

Cai Qinyue was currently looked after by nurses. On the other hand, Wen Cheng was immediately sent into the operating room.

Upon hearing this news, Wen Nuan and Jian Shuxing rushed to the entrance of the operating room.

Wen Ruo also arrived with Zhu Zimo.

Wen Ruo's face was as white as paper as she asked: "How are my parents? Are they okay?"

In the operating room, Wen Cheng's condition was not very good. This was seen through all his vital indicators.

After she asked the doctor about this, she discovered that her father's life was endangered. His condition was life-threatening. There was a chance that he would not make it through.

"No... No..." Wen Ruo stammered. She was overwhelmed in fear.

She knew that her parents had been arguing. In fact, their previous argument had lasted for several days.

In the past two days, their relationship had eased up.

In fact, she was happy for them this morning.

However, now, the two of them were lying inside the hospital.

Wen Ruo was so overwhelmed that she began to cry.

Zhu Zimo hugged her and attempted to comfort her: "It's okay, it's okay. Your father will be okay."

"How did this even happen?"

The traffic officers beside them said: "We checked the dashcam on the car. The dashcam showed that Mr. and Mrs. Wen were having an argument in the car."

Wen Cheng and Cai Qinyue's argument had caused the car accident...

The reality once again gave Wen Ruo a huge blow.

The traffic police left after they explained the situation to the family.

Then, the doctor asked the family to sign a notice of critical illness.

When Wen Ruo saw the document, she stumbled on her feet. She could not stand still.

Wen Ruo took a deep breath before she said: "Let me sign it. I'm his sister."

Upon hearing this, Wen Ruo suddenly yelled at Wen Nuan: "You don't have the right to sign this! My parents argued because of you!"

Wen Ruo took her anger out on Wen Nuan and Jian Yiling.

“Wen Ruo, I know that you’re upset right now. However, we need to help your father get out of the operating room.”

“You know nothing about this! Stop pretending! I hate you! If it weren’t for you and your daughter, my parents wouldn’t be arguing!”

Her parent’s accident made Wen Ruo break down. As she was unable to resent her parents, she could only push everything onto Wen Nuan.

Then, Wen Ruo pushed Wen Nuan away to grab the pen. She used the pen to sign the document.

Wen Nuan almost fell. However, Jian Yiling was there to catch her.

Jian Yiling saw that Wen Nuan’s eyes were red. Her eyes were filled with tears.

She was upset because the person lying inside the operating room was her brother.

Jian Yiling knew what that felt like.

Then, Jian Yiling looked up at the emergency room. The red light was on...

The situation this time was even more urgent than Grandma Jian’s situation. Wen Cheng was currently lying inside of the operating room. He was hanging between life and death.

Jian Yiling did not have time to waste.

If she wanted to help, she would have to enter the operating room right now.

However, she was currently an intern. As a result, it was impossible for her to help with Wen Cheng’s surgery.

Furthermore, Li Zhuojia was not currently in Beijing.

Therefore, Jian Yiling did not have the time and means to get Lahaisen Hospital to help her make arrangements.

“Let me in,” Jian Yiling suddenly said to the doctor.

“Jian Yiling, you’re only an intern at our hospital. You’re not qualified to enter this operating room.”

The doctor immediately refused Jian Yiling’s request.