Chapter 741: Mr. Feng (1)

Then, Wei Qirui said to Master Sheng: "Master Sheng, Mr. Feng is known to be a stern person. He can't bear having grit in his eyes. Moreover, he does not like to deal with irrelevant individuals that will waste his time. After all, his time is very precious. I'm afraid that..."

Then, Wei Qirui's gaze fell on Jian Yiling. The meaning of his words couldn't be more obvious.

Recently, Wei Qirui acted more and more boldly.

As the Wei family was becoming powerful, he no longer really cared about the Zhai family anymore.

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng calmly replied: "She's the matriarch of our Zhai family. Therefore, why would she be an irrelevant individual? Wei Qirui, do you look down upon your matriarch or something? Are you straying a bit too far or am I misinterpreting your words?"

Wei Qirui explained: "Well, I just assumed that Mr. Feng might get upset. I didn't mean anything else. I would never look down upon the Zhai family's matriarch."

Wei Qirui said this with a smile on his face.

Zhai Yunsheng replied: "How would you know whether or not he'd be upset?"

When the slightly fat old man saw the situation, he tried to resolve the conflict: "Master Sheng, please do not be angry. Qirui doesn't know how to speak. However, we all know that Mr. Feng's temper is indeed quite strange."

In fact, he was a strange person.

He had an eccentric temperament. Furthermore, he did not pay his respects to anyone. In fact, he wouldn't even say nice things to Master Zhai.

Although he had an eccentric personality, he was an incredible individual.

He was the president of an association that was very mysterious to the outside world.

Instead of paying attention to the conversation, Jian Yiling sat down on a seat and opened her laptop. She was busy sorting out some things.

The restaurant was quite special. It did not attend to ordinary guests. And thus, only individuals with special statuses could enter.

Therefore, at this moment, they were the only people in the restaurant. It was a quiet place that was suitable for office work.

As she was concentrating on her work, Jian Yiling did not hear a single word that Wei Qirui said.

After a while, someone entered the restaurant.

A middle-aged man wearing a light-colored suit walked into the restaurant.

The man looked elegant and dignified.

He dragged a black suitcase in his hand.

As soon as he entered, the people in the restaurant bowed their heads and greeted him with respect.

“Mr. Feng.”

Even Wei Qirui and the slightly fat old man headed towards the middle-aged man.

However, Jian Yiling was still busy with her work. She did not notice anyone entering the restaurant.

By the time Mr. Feng walked to the table, she still had her head buried in her work. It was as though she was occupied by something important.

“Mr. Feng, long time no see,” the slightly fat old man came up to shake hands with Feng Wei. He had a smile on his face.

Wei Qirui even took the initiative to greet Feng Wei: “Mr. Feng, it must have been exhausting to get here. It’s such a long journey via plane.”

However, Feng Wei did not respond to the two of them. His eyes were on Jian Yiling. She was still working.

Seeing that Feng Wei was looking at Jian Yiling, the old man hurriedly explained Jian Yiling’s identity: “This is Master Sheng’s fiancée. She’s the future matriarch of the Zhai family.”

The slightly fat old man was worried that Feng Wei would misunderstand the situation. He did not want Mr. Feng to think that Jian Yiling was an insignificant person.

Feng Wei did not say anything. Instead, he continued to stare at Jian Yiling.

The look on Feng Wei’s face made Wei Qirui smile: “Mr. Feng, Miss Yiling is still young. That’s why she’s not incredibly thoughtful. Please don’t blame her.”

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng immediately replied: “She’s the future matriarch of the Zhai family. She doesn’t need to be thoughtful.”

“Master Sheng, you’re spoiling your fiancée too much. That’s not good for her.”

“Well, that’s a matter for the Zhai family and not you.”

Wei Qirui gritted his teeth. However, he could only swallow his words back.

Chapter 742: Mr. Feng (2)

Just when everyone thought that Mr. Feng might get angry with Jian Yiling, Feng Wei called out to Jian Yiling:

“Yiling.”

As he said her name, the look on his face was rather friendly. Furthermore, his voice was soft and kind as well.

Upon hearing her name being called out, Jian Yiling raised her head. Then she greeted:

“Uncle Feng.”

“Yiling, I didn’t expect you to come to pick me up as well,” Feng Wei said. His reaction was completely different from what Wei Qirui and the others had expected.

Not only did Feng Wei not show any displeasure towards Jian Yiling, but it even seemed like he was quite close with Jian Yiling.

This made the rest of them incredibly confused. What was happening?

Mr. Feng and Jian Yiling?

How was this possible?

“I didn’t know it was you,” Jian Yiling confessed.

She didn’t come specifically to greet Feng Wei.

She knew that Feng Wei was arriving in Beijing this afternoon. After all, her brother told her about this yesterday.

However, she did not know that Zhai Yunsheng and the others were waiting for Feng Wei.

Even though she said this, Feng Wei continued to smile: “Sigh, you can lie to me you know?”

“No lying.”

“Hahahaha,” Feng Wei laughed when he heard this. “You haven’t changed. You’re as honest as always.”

The conversation between Feng Wei and Jian Yiling confused the rest of the people present.

The slightly fat old man asked Feng Wei in surprise: “Mr. Feng, do you know Miss Yiling?”

“Yeah. Her brother and I are friends,” Feng Wei explained.

Feng Wei met Jian Yunmo first. Then, he met Jian Yiling.

After that, he lived on Lahaisen Island with the two siblings for several months.

Jian Yiling’s brother knew Feng Wei?

No one knew that the Jian family had such connections.

In fact, Wei Qirui would have never imagined this.

Then, Zhai Yunsheng asked Jian Yiling: “If your brother is friends with him, then why do you call him Uncle Feng?”

“He said that calling him brother makes it sound weird.”

Feng Wei was quite a bit older than Jian Yunmo. Furthermore, Jian Yiling was also quite a bit younger than Jian Yunmo.

And thus, in terms of age, Feng Wei could indeed be Jian Yiling’s uncle.

If Jian Yiling called him brother, Feng Wei felt like he was being a bad person.

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng turned around and said: "Uncle Feng."

Feng Wei glanced at Zhai Yunsheng. The nerves on his face twitched slightly.

Then, Feng Wei said to Jian Yiling: "Oh right, your brother and I made you some new equipment and gear."

As he said this, Feng Wei opened his suitcase. He took out a smaller box.

Half the luggage he brought this time was for Jian Yiling.

Then, Feng Wei handed the small box to Jian Yiling.

When Jian Yiling opened the box, she was greeted with a boxful of new equipment and gear.

The equipment looked like ordinary objects.

Some of them appeared to be accessories such as rings, necklaces, earrings, hairpins, and headbands. Others appeared to look like children's toys.

Although they appeared ordinary, each item was useful.

The core technology behind these items was a button-like battery that contained high levels of energy and electricity.

And thus, with the support of this battery, they could make a lot of equipment that was small and delicate. Those pieces of equipment were easy to carry.

"Also your brother told you to wear this electronic bracelet around your wrist. He said to turn it on at night while you sleep," Feng Wei relayed Jian Yunmo's words.

Whilst she slept? What was this protecting her against?

Then, Feng Wei slowly explained to Jian Yiling: "If someone acts improperly, these devices will make their body twitch and tremble. However, you don't need to worry too much. It won't send them to the emergency room."

Upon hearing this, the slightly fat old man looked at Zhai Yunsheng worriedly...

If she was meant to wear it at night... It seemed as though the bracelet was targeted against Zhai Yunsheng...

Chapter 743: Mr. Feng (3)

Although all the items in that small box looked incredibly ordinary, each item held a formidable amount of power.

All of a sudden, the slightly fat old man was worried and concerned about Master Sheng's future...

Master Sheng's life after marriage would be... Filled with frustrations right?

Jian Yiling picked up the bracelet and wore it on her wrist. Then, she put the small box away.

Following that, the five of them ate at the restaurant.

During the meal, Wei Qirui kept trying to win over Feng Wei's favor.

However, Feng Wei was always cold and indifferent to Wei Qirui.

On the contrary, he showed a lot of care and enthusiasm towards Jian Yiling.

However, Jian Yiling did not react warmly to anyone. Feng Wei was no exception to this.

And thus, the atmosphere at the dining desk was rather strange.

After the meal, Wei Qirui offered to give Feng Wei a ride. However, Feng Wei rejected Wei Qirui's offer. Then, he specifically stated that he wanted to leave with Jian Yiling.

As Jian Yiling came to the restaurant with Zhai Yunsheng, Zhai Yunsheng ended up with the task of dropping Feng Wei off.

And thus, Zhai Yunsheng was responsible for driving. On the other hand, Feng Wei and Jian Yiling were seated in the back seat.

The front and back seats could be partitioned off. Feng Wei deliberately did this so that Zhai Yunsheng could not hear the conversation between him and Jian Yiling.

Just now, Wei Qirui and the slightly fat old man were both present. And thus, it was inconvenient for Feng Wei to talk to Jian Yiling. Now that they were gone, some things could finally be said.

"Yiling, why are you around people from the Loyalty Alliance?" Feng Wei asked in disbelief.

"I'm engaged to A Sheng," Jian Yiling replied.

"Oh, I heard about the engagement from your brother. In fact, he went to cut down a tree near the hospital in the middle of the night because of this."

After all, what else could he do? He couldn't fight Zhai Yunsheng. If he did, his sister would get upset. And thus, he could only chop down a tree to vent his anger.

"Hmm, but I don't really understand. Why do you like Zhai Yunsheng? Is it because he's good-looking?" Feng Wei asked. He wondered how Jian Yiling got together with Zhai Yunsheng.

Zhai Yunsheng did not have a good reputation in Beijing.

He was said to be a hedonistic son from a rich family. In addition, it was said that he played around with everything other than women.

Feng Wei knew Zhai Yunsheng's grandpa. As he knew the origins of the Loyalty Alliance, there was a lot that he couldn't explain to Jian Yiling in a few words.

And thus, this was partially the reason why Wei Qirui and the others treated him so respectfully.

However, Feng Wei wasn't very optimistic about Zhai Yunsheng becoming the next head of the Zhai family.

"He's good-looking. In addition, he's a good person as well," Jian Yiling replied.

Jian Yiling admitted that Zhai Yunsheng was rather good-looking. In fact, out of the males that Jian Yiling knew, Zhai Yunsheng was the most attractive. Her heart would beat rapidly when she looked at him.

"Ahhh, that's fair. As long as you like him. It's good that he's good-looking. Since he's good-looking, his appearance will be easy on your eyes."

Feng Wei did not think that there was much of a problem. However, he was still able to understand why Jian Yunmo was upset.

After all, such a cute and lovely sister had been stolen away by a wolf. She was going to get eaten by that wolf, bite by bite! Just thinking about it would make Jian Yunmo's heart hurt.

Then, Feng Wei asked Jian Yiling: "By the way, how is the development of TXG-48 going?"

Before Jian Yiling came to Beijing, she was working with the research and development team to develop this new drug.

"It's in clinical phase 2. So far, it's going well."

"Can I participate this time?"

"No."

"Oh? You rejected me so quickly this time. I thought you'd at least think about it."

"I'm engaged now. I want to save some money with A Sheng," Jian Yiling replied.

"Ahh, you're really a money-grubber!"

However, this was not new to Feng Wei.

After all, Jian Yiling was responsible for calculating every transaction that had taken place when Lahaisen Hospital was built.

Chapter 744: Defamation

As Jian Yiling never applied for a Weibo account, she did not really know about her fans on the Internet.

However, a recent incident related to her fans pushed her into the limelight.

One of Jian Yiling's loyal fans did something that made netizens sick with disgust.

This fan was an IT teacher. In his class, he asked his students to log onto the game Zerg Invasion to join his team.

Furthermore, he made his students play the game during class to win matches together.

After this matter was exposed on the Internet, this teacher was scolded by all the netizens.

However, the teacher insisted that he did nothing wrong. After all, Jian Yiling was good at studying and she was also good at playing games. Therefore, studying and playing games did not conflict with each other. What was wrong with letting his students study whilst gaming?

After this, a group of people that claimed to be fans of Jian Yiling supported the teacher. They expressed their standpoint on this matter and started arguing with the rest of the Internet.

[Jian Yiling is everyone's role model when it comes to studying. The teacher is merely combining education and entertainment. He's not doing anything wrong.]

[The people who are scolding Jian Yiling should look at themselves first.]

[Jian Yiling is an excellent role model. If we don't learn from her, are we meant to learn from you keyboard warriors?]

And thus, these so-called fans caused Jian Yiling to be disliked by a lot of individuals on the Internet. It also destroyed the good reputation that Jian Yiling had gained. This caused Jian Yiling's popularity to plummet.

This caused more and more people to join in on the argument.

As both sides were arguing incredibly fiercely, some people demanded Jian Yiling come out and apologize.

However, at this time, Jian Yiling was still unaware of the matter.

Jian Yiling's delayed response gave the netizens another reason to verbally attack her.

After all, idols and role models often had to be responsible for their fans.

A large number of comments on the Internet said that Jian Yiling was responsible for her fans' behaviors. It was her bad influence that caused all of this.

And thus, the Internet was filled with angry criticism.

[Jian Yiling brings disaster! As a role model, she should lead by example! However, she's leading others astray!]

[This happens so often nowadays. Children are behaving poorly these days because they're just focused on chasing celebrities. Like how is Jian Yiling a role model even?]

[I strongly request the Internet to block off these bad role models.]

[My child was influenced as well! He was determined to play games. He told me that gaming would not affect his studies. However, gaming caused him to drop from the top ten in his class to the top thirty! This is all because of Jian Yiling!]

[I request for Jian Yiling to be banned from the public eye! Don't let her appear again.]

Jian Yiling only learned about this matter after she received a call from Qin Yufan.

"Oh my goodness. Everyone is cursing at you on the Internet! Do you actually not know about this? Do you not use the Internet or something?"

Although Qin Yufan was telling Jian Yiling off, she still cared about her. If she didn't care about her, she wouldn't have called Jian Yiling during her work hours.

"I do use the Internet. However, I'm not interested in that part of the Internet," Jian Yiling replied. She used professional forums and academic-related websites. She wasn't interested in using Weibo.

"Then do you plan to look at it now?"

"Nope," Jian Yiling replied indifferently.

"What about Master Sheng? Does he not go on the Internet either?"

Qin Yufan searched up Jian Yiling's name on Weibo. As a result, she knew that Jian Yiling did not have a Weibo account. On the other hand, Zhai Yunsheng had a Weibo account. He recently registered for one. He even posted the message: [Already married, please do not disturb.]

Chapter 745: If Someone Wants To Spread Rumors About You, You Can't Stop Them

However, Qin Yufan was worried that the online comments would affect Jian Yiling's mood.

Jian Yiling calmly responded: "It's okay."

And thus, as she spoke to Qin Yufan, she opened Weibo to look at some of the comments.

"Ahh, it's useless to just read the comments. If someone wants to spread rumors about you, you can't really stop them," Qin Yufan said to Jian Yiling.

And thus, there was no point for Jian Yiling to read the comments.

The more she read them, the more upset she would potentially get. No one could replace her if she got sick from being too upset.

"Why are they spreading rumors about me?" Jian Yiling asked.

She didn't understand the point of this.

She wasn't a celebrity or idol. Therefore, comments on the Internet would not affect her work.

"Hmm, they're just probably not happy with you. Sometimes, you don't always need a reason for doing something," Qin Yufan replied. She was already used to such things. "Hmm, have you offended anyone recently?"

"I don't know," Jian Yiling said. She was not sensitive to such things.

"Ahh, I suppose so. Just leave this matter for your man. As for you, you should come with me to a makeup salon!"

"Hmm, I'll take another look at the comments," Jian Yiling replied. She did not have the habit of leaving her troubles to others.

And thus, she intended to handle the matter herself.

After chatting with Qin Yufan for a while, Jian Yiling sent a message to Xiao Zhuo from the special operations team. She asked him to help her take a look at the situation.

Soon, Xiao Zhou gave Jian Yiling a reply: [There's nothing wrong with the account that broke the news. However, someone told the news to that account. The account merely used the news to gain attention.]

The Weibo account wanted news that would help them gain publicity.

[Investigate who's behind this.]

Technically, Jian Yiling wasn't a part of the entertainment industry. Therefore, she did not understand the things which happened in that industry.

However, if someone was orchestrating this, she was determined to find out who wanted to harm her.

[I tried looking into it already. However, the person used another server. It looks like they came prepared. Also, I ran into the same hacker again when I was checking this matter out for you.]

Xiao Zhou kept running into the same hacker when he was checking up matters for Jian Yiling.

The two of them had fought several times.

On some occasions, they even caused a website or server to crash.

When Jian Yiling somewhat figured out what was happening, her doorbell rang. It was Hu Jiaojiao and An Yang.

When they saw the news on the Internet, the two of them hurriedly came to visit Jian Yiling.

"Yiling, are you okay?" Hu Jiaojiao asked as she stared at Jian Yiling's face.

"I'm fine."

Jian Yiling's reaction was even calmer than Hu Jiaojiao's.

"I'm so angry! How dare they use some photoshopped photos to slander your name! It's too abominable!" Hu Jiaojiao cried out as she stomped her foot in anger.

"The photo isn't photoshopped," Jian Yiling responded.

"Huh?" Hu Jiaojiao started. Then she said: "Wait... It isn't photoshopped?"

"Yeah."

"Then... Then that man..."

"He's my friend."

The photo was taken approximately a year ago. Back then, Jian Yiling visited a hotel abroad.

At the moment, Jian Yiling did not know what kind of person took the photo. She didn't understand why a person would take the photo out of context a year later.

"Ahhh, what now then? An Yang and I found a special technician to make them look for traces of photoshop! How are we going to explain the situation now?"

The two of them had acted before coming to Jian Yiling.

Hu Jiaojiao looked at An Yang with a sad face:

"Umm, I guess that we can say it's still photoshopped right?"

“Of course we can’t do that! It will only make things worse!”

Chapter 746: He’s More Anxious Than Me

Upon hearing this, An Yang began to feel worried: “Then should we get someone to delete the post?”

Hu Jiaojiao hurriedly shook her head: “If we do that, then the netizens will say that Yiling has a guilty conscience! That might even make things worse!”

“Ahhh, then what can we do? I don’t want to watch my Boss get bullied for nothing! I won’t let this be!”

An Yang was angry!

His anger was brewing like a firestorm.

In fact, his fists were already itching for a fight.

If this hadn’t happened online, he would have fought the other person already.

However, these people were hidden behind their screens! They couldn’t be seen and weren’t in reach! And thus, he couldn’t do anything about them.

Hu Jiaojiao was upset as well: “Well, Yiling shouldn’t be bullied! We will definitely think of another way. Perhaps we can also hire people to post messages on the Internet.”

Currently, Hu Jiaojiao had a lot of pocket money. Her pocket money was sufficient for her to hire a lot of people to post messages on the Internet.

Because she succeeded in getting into university, her parents rewarded her with a house.

Now, the rent of that house was all hers.

Therefore, she got a lot of money for her monthly living expenses.

“It’s fine. Don’t worry about it,” Jian Yiling comforted Hu Jiaojiao.

“It’s not fine! They’re wrongly accusing you! Don’t worry though! An Yang and I will protect you!” Hu Jiaojiao promised as she patted her own chest.

Generally, bosses were meant to have a grand and tall image in the minds of their lackeys and sidekicks.

However, in An Yang and Hu Jiaojiao’s eyes, Jian Yiling was a boss that needed protection.

An Yang was like a mother around Jian Yiling. Every day, he was worried about her. He didn’t want her to get bullied.

And thus, An Yang and Hu Jiaojiao spent most of the evening dilly-dallying at Jian Yiling’s place. They kept thinking about random ideas however all of those ideas were eventually overturned.

As a result, they achieved absolutely nothing.

When Zhai Yunsheng came home, he saw An Yang and Hu Jiaojiao lying on the sofa. The expressions on their faces were exhausted.

On the other hand, Jian Yiling’s laptop was out. She was once again focused on her work.

Zhai Yunsheng paused for a moment before he asked: "What's up with them?"

Jian Yiling: "They're just tired."

Zhai Yunsheng: "Why are they tired?"

Jian Yiling: "They tried to help me think of ideas."

Zhai Yunsheng: "Regarding what's happening online?"

Jian Yiling: "Mhmm."

Zhai Yunsheng: "I've already gotten someone to track their server address."

Zhai Yunsheng acted very quickly.

Jian Yiling: "..."

When he saw that Jian Yiling wasn't responding, Zhai Yunsheng asked: "What's wrong?"

Jian Yiling: "It's okay. The other person is more anxious than me."

Zhai Yunsheng: "Who are you talking about?"

Then, Jian Yiling pointed to the middle-aged man in the photo.

"Huh?"

"He will deal with it."

Jian Yiling was certain that the other party was more anxious than her.

And thus, she wasn't even worried about this matter. She knew that it would be dealt with.

"Oh?"

Zhai Yunsheng hadn't actually looked at the photos very carefully.

Even though he knew that there was nothing up, it still felt uncomfortable to see a photo of his fiancée entering a hotel with a man.

This time, however, Zhai Yunsheng took a careful look at the photo.

Then, he realized that the middle-aged man in the photo looked somewhat familiar... He seemed to be a foreign political figure...

###

The comments on Weibo had ripple effects on the campus forum of Beijing University.

The students at the university also expressed their discontent about Jian Yiling being someone else's mistress.

[Even though she has good results, she still has questionable morals. Such a student has no right to be in this university!]

[I hope the university expels students with questionable morals!]

[All mistresses should die! In fact, their entire family should die!]

[These improper students shouldn't come to university!]

[Even though she looks soft and cute, she does disgusting things behind the scenes! I want to throw up.]

The forum angrily criticized Jian Yiling.

In fact, when Jian Yiling attempted to enter the university, she was blocked by several female students.

Chapter 747: Bodyguards Make Way

They did not let Jian Yiling enter the university.

"Jian Yiling, you're not welcome here. It's better for you to go somewhere else."

"Our university is honorable and decent. We don't accept mistresses here."

"Yeah, so you better go back overseas. There's no place for you here."

As they said this, the few of them pretended to be on the side of justice. They blatantly stopped Jian Yiling from entering the university.

Even if this kind of behavior was filmed and posted on the Internet, the netizens would most likely be on their side.

Everyone wanted to see the mistress being punished.

Jian Yiling had a rather calm expression on her face. She looked at the female students and attempted to walk around them.

And thus, Jian Yiling walked a few steps to the left. However, the people shifted to the left.

They refused to let Jian Yiling get into the university.

"Jian Yiling, do you not understand the human language?"

"Make way," Jian Yiling said calmly. However, her eyes were biting cold.

Although she was fierce, her words did not have much impact on the girls.

"Huh? Are you mad at us?"

"Why are you shameless? I find it amusing that you're even coming to university. If I were you, I would hide at home. I wouldn't even come out of my room!"

The few of them refused to make way for Jian Yiling. In fact, they began to surround her.

Jian Yiling was indifferent to their words. She replied: "I will count to three. Make way by then."

"Huh? What do you mean by that? Are you threatening us?"

“What do you want?”

“What kind of tricks are you playing?”

Jian Yiling began to count: “One.”

“Two.”

“Three.”

They all looked at Jian Yiling. None of them knew what she wanted to do.

After Jian Yiling finished counting to “three,” four female bodyguards arrived beside Jian Yiling.

They made way for Jian Yiling.

No matter how unreasonable and violent the female students were, they were still no match for the professionally trained female bodyguards.

And thus, a path opened up for Jian Yiling.

As the female students were separated by the bodyguards, they could only watch Jian Yiling walk away.

Although they were unable to physically block Jian Yiling from entering the university, their words were still unforgiving.

“Were these bodyguards arranged for you by the middle-aged man? Is he worried about you being beaten up once everyone knows you’re a mistress?”

“Just because you have money, do you think that you can do whatever you want?”

“If you think you’re capable, you should take us on! You shouldn’t hide behind bodyguards!”

The words of the female students were totally unrestrained.

This was because they were sure that even if Jian Yiling’s bodyguards were powerful, they couldn’t do anything to them in broad daylight.

If they dared to do anything to them, they could easily post the video online. This would definitely cause Jian Yiling to suffer more.

However, Jian Yiling simply ignored them. Instead, she headed into her laboratory.

When she got into her laboratory, Jian Yiling saw her mentor that was typically chill about everything.

When her mentor saw Jian Yiling, there was a slightly awkward expression on her face. It was as though she wanted to say something but she couldn’t.

“Jian Yiling, I believe in you. I believe that you’re not that kind of person,” the female mentor said. She stated her faith in Jian Yiling.

“However...”

After a long pause, the female mentor said the word “however.”

“The public opinion and the comments on the Internet are so crazy right now. I have no choice either. Would it be okay for you to stay home for a few days? You can come back once things get better.”

There was helplessness in the female mentor’s voice.

“I understand,” Jian Yiling replied as she left the laboratory.

She could break through the students who blocked her at the university gates. However, if they did not welcome her, she could not do anything about that.

When the female mentor saw Jian Yiling leave, she felt rather upset as well.

However, she was just an ordinary mentor. She could not do anything when faced with the enormous amount of pressure from public opinion.

Chapter 748: Accusation is Cleared

The female students who stopped Jian Yiling at the university gates posted the video of her bodyguards clearing the way onto the Internet.

In the video, Jian Yiling’s bodyguards boldly cleared the way for her. They drove away the righteous female students and allowed Jian Yiling to walk into the university.

After the video was released, the Internet once again exploded with angry criticism:

[Do you think you can do this just because you have money?! Why is she acting like this when she’s a mistress!]

[Tsk tsk, she’s getting the bodyguards to make way for her.]

[It seems like the man who provides for her has a lot of money. No wonder she wants to be his mistress.]

[Are you meant to act this openly and fearlessly when you’re a mistress? Does she not know the definition of shameless?]

Whilst the domestic netizens were criticizing Jian Yiling, the news further fermented on foreign social media.

The news had a bigger reaction abroad than in China.

This was because the middle-aged man in the photo was an Asian congressman from M country.

The person who broke the story probably did not expect the man to be a person with such a status.

And thus, the matter was quickly getting out of hand in the other country. Foreign media focused on this incident as well.

However, the public opinion abroad was mainly scolding the congressman. They said that he was old and shameless.

Despite this, the opinions of the netizens were relatively similar.

After all, both parties should be criticized if they were to have an affair.

In the CEO office of the Wei Group, Wei Qirui leaned back in his chair comfortably and leisurely.

The computer in front of him showed the angry comments on the Internet.

When Wei Qirui saw the comments criticizing Jian Yiling for being a mistress, there was a content smile that appeared on his face.

Wei Qirui wondered how Zhai Yunsheng felt at the moment. After all, his fiancée had a questionable relationship with a middle-aged man.

Wearing a green hat on his head probably felt pretty bad right?

Wasn't he protecting Jian Yiling earlier?

Where was he now?

Wei Qirui felt incredibly amused. It was a pity that he could not see the expression on Zhai Yunsheng's face right now.

That image would be wonderful to see. In fact, he'd be willing to eat a few more bowls of rice if he got to see that image.

For Wei Qirui, messing with Jian Yiling was only the start of it. It was not his ultimate goal.

His ultimate goal was to mess with Zhai Yunsheng. Whenever Zhai Yunsheng was upset, he would be delighted.

###

Just when everyone planned to pin the congressman and Jian Yiling on the pole of shame, the congressman's wife made an announcement. She posted records and photos of her staying in the hotel on her social media.

The records showed that she registered at the hotel with her identification!

Furthermore, she was living in that hotel!

During that time, she lived in the presidential suite for more than an entire month!

In fact, she never left the room from May to July.

And the photo that had previously been posted on the Internet was taken in June!

This meant that during the afternoon when Jian Yiling stayed in the hotel room, the congressman's wife was also in the room.

In addition to this, the congressman's wife also posted a photo of them in the presidential suite of the hotel.

In the photo, there was the congressman, his wife, Jian Yiling, and also an old lady. The old lady was their maid.

Cheating? Having an affair?

Being a mistress?

Wasn't that just a joke?

What man would have an affair right in front of his wife?

The couple was merely meeting Jian Yiling!

Furthermore, the congressman's wife posted a line of text that condemned the person who released the news:

[As I was ill, I spent roughly a month recuperating in that hotel. During that time period, Dr. F.S came over to visit and check up on me. However, you guys wrongly accused her of having an affair with my husband. The person who intentionally spread misinformation has bad intentions. They started creating random stories without even knowing what had happened.]

Chapter 749: Give Birth to a Son Soon

The congressman's wife's post was quickly retweeted by various individuals.

And thus, instantly, Jian Yiling was no longer a mistress.

Very quickly, the trend of the comments online began to shift.

[Oh my god? So this was a misunderstanding?]

[Jian Yiling is not a mistress!]

[Ahhh, I shouldn't believe the posts from such accounts! They're deliberately creating drama and chaos!]

[Do your faces hurt yet? For those who were criticizing Jian Yiling, hurry up and apologize to her.]

[You guys were rather quick to jump on the train when it came to scolding and criticizing her. Where are you guys now? I can't even seem to get a glimpse of you guys!]

Those individuals who had previously criticized Jian Yiling were now silent.

Furthermore, the account that previously posted the news had deleted their post and also deleted their account.

At this moment, someone discovered another hidden fact:

[Wait, so is Jian Yiling friends with a congressman from M country?]

[Wow! That's amazing. Even the congressman asked her to be his wife's doctor.]

[Oh my goodness. Please accept my kneels of admiration.]

[Tsk, tsk. So where are the people who were criticizing her? Come out and get beaten up! She's an amazing doctor! In fact, she's the pride of our country okay?]

At the same time, Zhai Yunsheng asked Jian Yiling to take a photo with him. Then, he posted the photo on his Weibo.

The photo was accompanied by the words: [Wife, I am rich and handsome. Let me take care of you, okay?]

Zhai Yunsheng's words slapped a lot of people in the face. Jian Yiling didn't need the congressman to provide for her.

After all, she had a super handsome and super-rich husband. Her brain must be short-circuited to pick a middle-aged man with an average-looking face to support her.

As soon as Zhai Yunsheng posted this, Yu Xi immediately retweeted the post. In addition, he added the comment: [Ahhh, I'm forced to eat this dog food[1] every single day. I've had enough of this!]

Netizens immediately wrote comments below this message:

[Yu Xi, don't worry! Would you consider me as your wife? I'm super sweet.]

[Yu Xi, let's get together! We can constantly show others a public display of affection! You will no longer need to eat dog food!]

[There's no need to cry! You can cuddle with Yujie for warmth.]

On the other hand, Jian Yujie retweeted Zhai Yunsheng's post and added the comment: [Call me older brother.]

Everyone knew that Jian Yujie and Jian Yiling were cousins.

And thus, they understood the comment [Call me older brother.]

Upon reading this comment, the netizens typed out a string of [Hahahaha] in the comments.

[Poor ZYS. He has to call a younger boy older brother.]

[It seems as though he can't escape from this!]

[Specializes in Killing Wolf Cubs: I treat you as a teammate, but instead, you plan to be my brother-in-law.]

On the other hand, some netizens realized the special meaning behind Jian Yujie's in-game name.

[I seriously think that the wolf cub comment is targeted at ZYS.]

[Hahahaha, I feel slightly bad for Jian Yujie. He watched his sister get stolen away by his own teammate!]

Soon after, the certified Weibo of the CEO of Tianxing Group also retweeted this post.

The accompanying text was: [Give birth to a son soon[2].]

Upon reading the tweet of the mysterious CEO, the netizens exploded with excitement.

This was Tianxing Group! It was one of the world's largest companies!

The CEO was attractive and capable!

Everyone on the Internet basically accepted him as their 'Master[3]'

However, no one knew much about him.

They only knew that he was still unmarried. No other information was known.

[Oh my goodness! The CEO of Tianxing Group retweeted a post!]

[Holy! Are you related to ZYS from [Domination]? What sort of connection is this???]

[It's been said that the members of [Domination] are incredibly rich! However, is it possible that ZYS is related to the CEO of Tianxing Group?!]

[Ahhh, Master! Please take a look at us!]

Chapter 750: Don't Know Whether They're Showing Off Wealth or Affection

Everyone knew that this mysterious big shot rarely made or shared Weibo posts.

Furthermore, people even suspected that his Weibo account was operated by a special group. It seemed as though the mysterious big shot never really cared about his account.

However, no one expected him to share the post that ZYS made.

Therefore, it was difficult for the netizens to not make guesses about the relationship between ZYS and the mysterious big shot.

If there really was a relationship between them, then ZYS was definitely not an ordinary rich person! He'd be from an incredibly rich and powerful family.

At this moment, the netizens developed another mindset when they read the comments under the post.

Soon after, a number of celebrities and rich individuals also shared the post. In addition, many of them wrote messages to express their blessings for Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling.

This included Han Mengyu and Xing Wei.

The two of them were quite high profile. Often, they would diss celebrities and idols.

And thus, the netizens knew of them. They were rich sons who liked to play around.

Therefore, the people that they interacted with were definitely wealthy and respectable individuals in society.

Most of the celebrities and idols who commented and shared the post did not necessarily have a good relationship with Zhai Yunsheng. However, if they posted such a thing at this time, it would appear as though they had good connections. In addition, it may also win over Zhai Yunsheng's favor.

And thus, the wave of retweets and comments confirmed that ZYS was indeed from a wealthy family.

Unless Jian Yiling was dumb, she would not run off and have an affair with a middle-aged man.

At this moment, the netizens could not tell whether ZYS and J10 were showing off their affection or showing off their wealth.

[Ahhh, I'm so jealous! They have money and looks! In addition, they like the same things as well! What is this godly CP[1]?]

[I feel like I'm a useless addition to this world.]

[Ahhh, we're the lemons on the lemon trees. We're all lemon spirits today. [Lemon][Lemon][Lemon]]

When Wei Qirui saw these comments and posts, his face turned green with anger.

When he got someone to send the message out, he really thought that there was something between Jian Yiling and the congressman.

However, he did not expect the other party to have evidence in their hands. They completely flipped the plot upside down.

And thus, he failed in making Zhai Yunsheng upset! He tried to gain an advantage but only ended up worse off. In fact, he helped them earn a wave of good impressions from the netizens.

"Jian Yiling, I really underestimated you!" Wei Qirui said as he gritted his teeth.

As of now, Wei Qirui had no appetite at all.

At this moment, Wei Qirui's subordinate reminded him: "Boss, we need to be careful now. Things have been turned around... If the Zhai family figures out that you did this..."

"So what if that happens?" Wei Qirui asked. He was not afraid of Master Zhai and Zhai Yunsheng. After all, what could they even do?

"We don't need to worry about Master Zhai and Master Sheng. However, the Second Master of the Zhai family... He's the CEO of Tianxing Group... We can't afford to mess with him... If he makes a move, then..."

Just now, the Second Master of the Zhai family retweeted Zhai Yunsheng's Weibo. And thus, it could be seen that he was very concerned with his nephew's matters. Therefore, it was more than likely for him to get involved.

Upon hearing this, the expression on Wei Qirui's face sank.

"Go and take care of things cleanly."

For precautionary measures, it would be best to erase all traces.

After Jian Yiling's name was cleared, the tide also changed on the campus forum of Beijing University.

Comments started to appear under the video where Jian Yiling's bodyguards made way for her.

Previously, Jian Yiling was seen as a mistress. Therefore, the girls who blocked her from entering the university were on the righteous side. Everyone who saw the video assumed that Jian Yiling was bullying them with power and money.

However, now that they knew that Jian Yiling was not a mistress, the video seemed completely different.
