Chapter 881: The Members of Lahaisen Hospital are Made Public (3)

“But will she be tired if she works for that hospital? She’s still so young. She should relax for a bit more before she focuses on work,” Grandma Jian said. She did not want her little girl to suffer.

After all, being a doctor was difficult work.

“Old woman, don’t think about it too much. She must be doing it because she enjoys it.”

“Hmph! Old man, what do you even know? Even if our darling is stressed, she wouldn’t tell us about it!” Grandma Jian said. She paused for a moment before she said: “No, I must visit our darling girl. I need to make sure that she’s been sleeping and resting properly.”

“Hey! Bring me along as well!”

“Well, keep up with me then!”

Grandma Jian made a cup of tonic stew. Then, Grandma and Grandpa Jian headed over to Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng’s apartment.

###

Today, Jian Yiling was at home. Zhai Yunsheng also delayed his work plans.

According to Xing Wei and Han Mengyu’s idea, Zhai Yunsheng was preparing a candlelit dinner.

He even asked Han Mengyu to find a bottle of quality grape juice.

It was grape juice that looked like red wine.

Then, Han Mengyu stuffed something in Zhai Yunsheng’s pocket.

He smilingly said to Zhai Yunsheng: “Master Sheng, after the romantic candlelit dinner, there will be time for affectionate moments. You need to make sure to seize the opportunity!”

Master Sheng merely replied: “Immature.”

However, the dining room of the apartment was filled with candles.

“Red wine.”

Steak.

Candles.

Music.

Everything was ready.

Zhai Yunsheng was already imagining the next hour.

His little rabbit would eat the steak. And then, he would ask his little rabbit for a dance.

And then...

“Ding dong.”

The crisp doorbell interrupted Zhai Yunsheng’s thoughts.

After opening the door, he saw Grandma Jian and Grandpa Jian.

“Hello, A Sheng. We’re here to visit Yiling. Has she been a good girl? Did she stay up all night again? Did she refuse to rest properly?”

When Grandma Jian and Grandpa Jian entered the apartment, Jian Yiling walked out of the study room.

“Grandpa, Grandma.”

“Darling girl, did you lose weight again recently?” Grandma Jian asked as she hugged her granddaughter.

Every time they met, Grandma Jian would say that Jian Yiling lost weight. However, as a matter of fact, they had seen each other two to three days ago.

Furthermore, recently, Jian Yiling’s weight hadn’t been dropping.

“Oh? You’re planning to have a candlelit dinner tonight?” Grandpa Jian asked as he noticed the arrangement of the dinner table.

The candles were lit and the steak was still hot.

“Cough cough,” Zhai Yunsheng coughed gently to cover up his embarrassment.

Grandma Jian was very astute and could see through Zhai Yunsheng’s plans at a glance: “How can you keep up with nutrition by only eating steak? Darling girl, I brought you some Fotiaoqiang.”

Grandpa Jian immediately understood his wife’s intentions: “You shouldn’t light candles in a room. It will consume oxygen and cause the air in the room to be less fresh. Do you agree darling girl?”

Jian Yiling: “Yes.”

Lighting candles would indeed reduce the oxygen level in the room.

Grandma Jian pulled Jian Yiling over to the dining table and blew out the candles. Then, she moved the flowers to the side.

She also moved the steak to the side. She wanted her darling to drink the tonic stew that she spent an entire afternoon brewing.

“A Sheng, I know that you can’t drink greasy things. Therefore, I didn’t make some for you. However, can you supervise that she drinks all of it?”

Chapter 882: The Members of Lahaisen Hospital are Made Public (4)

“Okay...”

As Jian Yiling began to drink the stew, Zhai Yunsheng couldn't say no even if he wanted to.

And thus, his first attempt at a romantic dinner was declared as a failure before anything had even happened.

###

Feng Wei received a call from Jian Yunmo.

Jian Yunmo: "I'm visiting Beijing the day after tomorrow. However, I only plan to stay for one night. Help me manage my schedule."

Jian Yunmo was still in the middle of his experiment. As a result, he could not leave for long. At most, he could only stay in Beijing for two days and one night.

"Oh? You're not asking Yiling to manage your schedule? Instead, you're asking me to help you?"

"Yiling's super busy. I don't want to give her any additional work."

"Excuse me?! What do you mean by that? Do you think I'm not busy or something?"

"Are you busy?"

"Well... I guess I haven't been super busy lately..."

"Then schedule my trip for me."

"Alright. Send me your plans. I will arrange a vehicle to pick you up. Also, where do you plan to stay for the night? At the hotel or at your sister's apartment?"

"At a hotel."

"Why don't you stay with your sister? Are you worried that you wouldn't be able to sleep at night? And then you'd get up to fight Zhai Yunsheng?"

"Why are you asking if you know about this already?"

"Well, I just wanted to confirm."

As they were speaking, Feng Wei's phone received a notification. It was Jian Yunmo's plan for this trip.

"Eh? You're planning to visit the Wen family?"

"Yeah. I need to take care of some business."

###

Qin Hongzhi was originally really anxious about Jian Yiling and Luo Xiuen leaving the Huiling Medical Research Institution.

To his surprise, Jian Yiling ended up becoming a member of Lahaisen Hospital.

"Jian Yiling has the ability to join Lahaisen Hospital?" Qin Hongzhi exclaimed as he read relevant new articles. His face was filled with surprise.

Then, he hurriedly called for Qin Chuan and Qin Yufan. He asked them whether they knew about this matter.

Naturally, Qin Chuan and Qin Yufan did not know about this. They only learned that there was a connection between Jian Yiling and Lahaisen Hospital once relevant new articles came out.

Qin Chuan was not surprised when he read about this.

After all, she had always been capable and competent. He never doubted this point.

She had the ability to be a part of the Huiling Medical Research Institution. She also had the ability to be a member of Lahaisen Hospital.

The corners of Qin Yufan's lips rose slightly. However, they quickly returned to normal.

"Did you guys really not know about this?" Qin Hongzhi asked again.

"Well, even if we knew about this, we don't need to hide it from you. After all, there is no conflict of interest in this matter. Being a part of the Huiling Medical Research Institution or Lahaisen Hospital doesn't affect your treatment."

Upon hearing these words, Qin Hongzhi realized something: "It's true that it doesn't affect her ability. However, it does affect the agreement between us."

Qin Hongzhi still did not know about the agreement between Jian Yiling and Qin Chuan. He did not know that Jian Yiling only agreed to treat him because of this agreement.

He assumed that it was because of the agreement between him and the Huiling Medical Research Institution.

Jian Yiling leaving the Huiling Medical Research Institution meant that she would stop being a part of his treatment team.

This was something that he definitely did not want to see.

This was especially the case now that he verified that she was capable and talented enough.

After a bit of pondering, Qin Hongzhi called out to his assistant: "Follow our original plan to put pressure on the Huiling Medical Research Institution. However, our goal is not to ask them to re-sign Jian Yiling. Instead, I want to show my sincerity to her."

His objective had changed but the execution had not.

Chapter 883: The Members of Lahaisen Hospital are Made Public (5)

Very quickly, Jian Yiheng and Jian Yichen also learned about this latest news.

Jian Yiheng snorted lightly. He did not make any additional comments.

On the other hand, Jian Yichen stared at the news article. There was a deep look in his eyes.

Then, a smile appeared on his face.

His sister was amazing.

It seemed as though this time around, his sister was living a wonderful life.

He really needed to catch up.

He couldn't be left behind by Yiling!

At this moment, Jian Yiheng stood up. He was about to go outside before Jian Yichen called out:

"Brother, where are you going?"

"To buy gifts."

"Buy what kind of gifts?"

"Gifts to celebrate Yiling becoming a member of Lahaisen Hospital."

"Huh? What the heck! Brother, when did you become so humane?"

After all, his brother never did this for anyone.

It didn't matter whether he ranked first in his high school exams, whether he got into a good university, or whether he earned a billion dollars. In any of these situations, Jian Yiheng would merely say "not bad" to him.

Gifts? Celebrate? His brother had never done this before!

"When am I not humane?" Jian Yiheng asked as he narrowed his eyes for a moment.

"Never! Never! You're also super humane!" Jian Yichen hastily said.

After all, he didn't want to get beaten up again.

Then, Jian Yichen got up as well: "I will go with you. If you buy a gift and I don't, it will make it seem like I don't care about Yiling! I don't want to lose my sister's affection."

"Okay," Jian Yiheng replied. It seemed as though he did not care about this. "After we purchase gifts, let's go to her apartment for dinner."

"Alright."

"Wow, Yiling is amazing!"

Yesterday when Grandma Wen and Grandpa Wen read the news, there were merely articles on Jian Yiling being vouched for by numerous bigshots in the medical industry. However, today, the news turned out to be that Jian Yiling was a member of Lahaisen Hospital. In addition, she attended the International Federation of Medicine conference as a representative of Lahaisen Hospital.

Grandma Wen, Grandpa Wen, and Wen Cheng were shocked by this.

Wen Cheng knew that his niece was amazing. However, he did not realize that she was this amazing.

In fact, his eyes were about to fall out of his eye sockets.

“She’s extraordinary! She’s as smart as her second brother! A genius!” Grandma Wen exclaimed with surprise and delight.

“It is indeed extraordinary! This is an amazing achievement for our granddaughter!” Grandpa Wen said.

Grandma Wen and Grandpa Wen were proud that their granddaughter managed to get such incredible achievements at a young age.

“A Cheng, did you manage to invite A Nuan and the others to come over for dinner?” Grandpa Wen asked Wen Cheng.

“Father, don’t worry. A Nuan agreed to come.”

Grandma Wen sighed with relief: “Thank goodness. I’m glad that A Nuan still cares about us. I was worried that you siblings would develop a dislike for each other. If you don’t get along in the future, I won’t even be able to rest in peace in my coffin.”

###

Unlike everyone else in the Wen family, Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo’s expressions were rather ugly. Jian Yiling becoming a member of Lahaisen Hospital was an additional blow to them.

After all, everyone knew about Lahaisen Hospital. Even people who weren’t in the medical field knew that it was an honor to be associated with that hospital.

Why were the Gods so unfair? How did Jian Yiling manage to turn her situation around so damn quickly?!

And now, the entire Internet was praising Jian Yiling.

How disgusting.

“Mother, Wen Nuan and Jian Yiling are coming over for dinner tomorrow. What do we do?”

Chapter 884: Fake Apology

Wen Ruo was unhappy with this.

“Just act nice tomorrow. At dinner, take the initiative to say nice things. Just try to gain Jian Yiling and Wen Nuan’s favor. Don’t retort even if they say harsh words. After all, your father and your grandparents will also be present. If they see you getting bullied and treated harshly, their hearts will naturally be biased towards you.”

Cai Qinyue knew that Jian Yiling had a frank and unrelenting personality. As a result, she wouldn’t choose to easily forgive Wen Ruo.

Therefore, when she made the situation awkward, even if she was originally right, her points would still become invalid.

###

When Wen Cheng invited Wen Nuan over for dinner, Wen Nuan asked for Jian Yiling's opinion before she replied to her brother.

If her daughter said no, she wouldn't go.

However, to her surprise, Jian Yiling agreed to go. As a result, she said yes to her brother.

In Wen Nuan's heart, she did not want to fight with her brother and parents.

After all, they were her family members.

In the evening, Wen Nuan and Jian Shuxing went to pick Jian Yiling up from university. Jian Yiling had just finished her work for the day. Then, they head over to the Wen family together.

Wen Cheng made a lot of preparations for tonight's dinner. In the morning, he went shopping with his servants to select ingredients. He specifically picked the foods that his sister and niece liked to eat.

Furthermore, he even put off work for today. Instead, he patiently waited for Jian Yiling, Wen Nuan, and Jian Shuxing's arrival.

When he saw them appear, Wen Cheng was delighted.

"Shuxing, A Nuan, Yiling! You're here!" Grandma Wen called out.

When Grandma Wen saw them, she was worried yet happy at the same time.

She was happy that they were here. However, she was worried that something was going to happen later.

"Mother, we didn't do anything wrong. Why wouldn't we be here?" Wen Nuan replied.

Upon hearing this, Grandma Wen's smile became slightly awkward.

She knew that it wouldn't be an easy task to get her daughter to forgive her daughter-in-law and granddaughter.

"Ahh, of course," Grandma Wen said.

At this time, Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo came down from upstairs.

Cai Qinyue took the initiative to greet Wen Nuan: "A Nuan, Yiling, it's really great that you guys are willing to come over today. We assumed that you'd still be angry with us. It's our fault for what happened before. Today, in front of everyone, I would once again like to formally apologize for our actions."

As she said this, Cai Qinyue bowed.

Then, she took out a brocade box and said to Wen Nuan and Jian Yiling: "There's a set of jewelry in here. A Cheng gave me this when I got married to him. I hope that this is a good apology gift. I hope you can forgive us."

Grandma Wen, Grandpa Wen, and Wen Cheng felt incredibly relieved. It was good that Cai Qinyue took the initiative to apologize to Wen Nuan and Jian Yiling. In order to make amends, she even took out one of her wedding gifts.

Then, Wen Ruo followed her mother and also deeply bowed to Wen Nuan and Jian Yiling:

“Aunt, cousin, what happened before was my fault. Being young and ignorant isn’t an excuse for me to make mistakes. What is wrong wouldn’t become right. Therefore, I deserve what is happening to me right now. However, I sincerely hope that you guys can forgive me.”

Wen Ruo’s apology was equally as sincere.

“It’s good to recognize your own mistakes. A Nuan, Yiling, please just forgive them,” Grandma Wen said. She tried to help Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo.

However, Wen Nuan still had a stern expression on her face: “Mother, let’s talk about this later.”

She had no intentions to forgive Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo. At the same time, she made sure that her words weren’t too aggressive.

Grandma Wen lowered her head and asked Jian Yiling: “Yiling, will you forgive your aunt and your cousin?”

“No,” Jian Yiling replied. Her answer was dry and straightforward. It was without the slightest hesitation.

Her answer made the entire atmosphere awkward. The smiles on the Wen family’s faces froze in place.

Chapter 885: Tear Away Their Pretenses (1)

After a pause, Grandma Wen continued to persuade Jian Yiling in a soft voice: “Yiling, everyone makes mistakes. Your cousin’s mistake is indeed beyond reasonable limits. However, could you please give her another chance?”

Jian Yiling replied: “I’ve already given her a chance before.”

Wen Nuan hurriedly said: “That’s true. Yiling already gave Wen Ruo a chance to reform and start afresh. However, Wen Ruo refused to cherish that opportunity. Therefore, why do we have to forgive them again? I can choose to not cause them any more trouble in the future, however, it’s impossible for us to treat them the same as before.”

Wen Nuan and Jian Yiling were resolute in their attitudes. They had no intention of giving in.

The most that they could do was to get along peacefully with Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo in front of the Wen family. They would not make things difficult for them.

However, it was impossible to be friendly with them anymore.

Wen Ruo lowered her head and kept apologizing: “I’m so sorry. I’m so sorry. It’s my fault. I keep making mistakes. It’s reasonable for my aunt and cousin to not forgive me. Grandma, there’s no need to force them to forgive me...”

As Wen Ruo said this, tears began to flow from her eyes.

When Grandma Wen saw this, it was as though a knife was being twisted into her heart.

Grandma Wen began to feel a little annoyed.

Her granddaughter was indeed wrong. However, she already admitted her mistake and apologized!

Couldn't they just give her another chance?

The actions of Wen Nuan and Jian Yiling were going to tear their family apart!

Grandpa Wen also spoke up: "A Nuan, Yiling, can't you give them another chance? For our sake? We already have one foot in the coffin. After all, both the palm and the back of the hand are made of flesh. You're equally as important to us. Do you really want us to cut off a piece of flesh?"

However, Wen Nuan did not reply.

It was upsetting for her to see her parents like this.

However, she refused to give in easily on this matter.

Wen Cheng added: "A Nuan, please forgive them. I'm begging you! Don't let our parents be in pain..."

Cai Qinyue took advantage of the situation and said: "Father, Mother, don't be upset. It's our fault. We're making things difficult for you."

Then, Cai Qinyue suddenly knelt down in front of Wen Nuan and Jian Yiling.

"A Nuan, just hit me! Just hit me until you're no longer angry! Just please don't hurt our mother and father's hearts!"

Then, Cai Qinyue grabbed Wen Nuan's hands and began to use them to slap her own face.

Upon seeing this, Wen Cheng could not stand it anymore. He pulled his wife up.

"What are you doing?!" Wen Cheng cried out in pain. "Why are you... Doing this? What do you want me to do?!"

Grandma Wen cried out bitterly: "A Nuan, can you really bear to see your brother and sister-in-law fall out like this?!"

As the situation turned into this, in their eyes, Jian Shuxing, Wen Nuan, and Jian Yiling were incredibly inhumane.

Wen Nuan turned her head away. There was a pained expression on her face as her eyes began to turn red. However, she was determined to not let herself cry.

After all, she did cause the situation to become like this.

Although Cai Qinyue was crying on the outside, she was secretly snickering on the inside.

Everything was just as she had predicted.

On the surface level, if she and Wen Ruo admitted their mistakes, then it would seem like Wen Nuan and Jian Yiling were unreasonable people.

If this went on, Wen Nuan and Jian Yiling would be the bad people in Grandma Wen and Grandpa Wen's eyes.

Jian Yiling indifferently looked at the scene in front of her.

Then, she slowly took out a laptop from her black backpack.

She opened the laptop and began to play a video.

Chapter 886: Tear Away Their Pretenses (2)

The video displayed what happened on the day of the conference of the International Federation of Medicine. In the video clip, Jian Yiling encountered Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo in front of the General Assembly Hall.

Sound and footage were both available in that video.

As a result, everything was recorded.

In the video, Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo were arrogant and unkind. It seemed as though they were completely different people:

"Oh, isn't this Yiling? Are you here to attend the conference of the International Federation of Medicine?"

"Wen Ruo, you're mistaken. This conference is only for individuals in the medical community who are renowned for their achievements. It's not about popularity and attention."

"Oh? You want to leave? Do you not remember how unreasonable you were? You just have the Zhai family to support you. What else do you have? How dare you make my daughter skip five thousand times?"

"Then how is this word used? Do you really think that I need you to teach me what that word means?"

"You know, some people have no words to say. And thus, she can only say something like that. She just wants to make it seem like she's not in such a sorry situation."

"..."

Every single word and sentence was recorded.

As the video was played, the expressions of everyone present immediately changed.

Wen Nuan was utterly furious.

"Do you really know that you did the wrong thing? Is this your so-called apologetic attitude? In front of my mother and father, you guys keep admitting your mistake. And yet, when no one is there, you guys would happily take the opportunity to bully my daughter?!"

Jian Shuxing was also furious: "This video was taken on the day of the conference of the International Federation of Medicine! Are you guys really apologetic? You just act one way in front of the Wen family and act another way in front of Yiling! How dare you beg for Yiling and A Nuan's forgiveness?!"

Wen Nuan picked up the laptop and questioned her parents and brother: “Father, Mother! You also saw the video! Do you see what they did?!”

Grandpa Wen, Grandma Wen, and Wen Cheng were too shocked to even speak.

Just now, Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo were very sincere in apologizing and admitting their mistakes.

As a result, they assumed that Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo knew their faults.

However, reality had thrown a fierce slap in their faces.

Their faces were filled with disbelief as their eyes slowly fell on Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo.

At this moment, Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo’s faces were deathly white.

Why was this happening? How did Jian Yiling manage to get the footage of them making fun of her on the day of the conference of the International Federation of Medicine?

They decided to make fun of her on a whim...

Furthermore, at that time, Jian Yiling was alone... She didn’t have anything in her hands either. Therefore, they would have never imagined that Jian Yiling would be able to record that video.

The day before the conference, Cai Qinyue was still apologizing to her husband... She was still admitting her mistake in front of her parents-in-law...

“Slap——”

Wen Cheng slapped Cai Qinyue’s face.

Wen Cheng’s chest was heaving violently. He no longer knew what words to use to scold his wife and daughter.

Just now, they were acting in front of him! They were deceiving him! Was Cai Qinyue really the woman who accompanied him for many decades?

“What kind of snake or scorpion have I been sleeping with?! You cry and beg for forgiveness in front of me, yet, you go and mock Yiling when I’m not there! Are you even human?!”

Upon hearing this, Cai Qinyue began to panic. She grabbed Wen Cheng’s hand and said: “A Cheng, I know I did the wrong thing. I was just confused that day! I know I did the wrong thing!”

“Just confused? How many times have you been confused?” Wen Cheng asked Cai Qinyue, “Sins! Sins!” Grandma Wen cried out as she began to feel dizzy.

Grandpa Wen was so angry that he felt his blood pressure begin to rise.

Chapter 887: Jian Yunmo Reveals the Truth (1)

Whilst everyone else was busy being angry, Jian Yiling noticed Grandpa Wen’s abnormal reaction. She calmly took out the high blood pressure medication from a drawer and handed it to him.

When Grandpa Wen looked at his granddaughter, his heart was warm yet it also ached.

Then, he looked at his other granddaughter. Wen Ruo was still weeping endlessly, yet he couldn't even tell if she was crying crocodile tears. At this moment, Grandpa Wen wanted to close his eyes and ignore the scene in front of him.

After a moment, Wen Nuan said: "Father, Mother, I won't be eating dinner with you guys today! Forgive me for being unfilial!"

After saying that, Wen Nuan pulled on Jian Yiling's hand and left the Wen Residence.

She did not want to see Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo again! Just looking at them was dirtying her eyes!

Now, there was no longer a reason for Grandpa Wen, Grandma Wen, and Wen Cheng to stop her from leaving.

However, the crying and cursing continued in the dining room of the Wen Residence.

Wen Yan's wheelchair was by the stairs as he indifferently watched this happen.

After that, Wen Cheng froze the bank accounts of his wife and daughter. In addition, he decided to restrict their activities.

This result was not at all surprising to Wen Nuan.

After all, she knew the personality of her parents and her brother. It was impossible for them to act too resolutely.

###

The next morning, Jian Yunmo took an exclusive helicopter from Lahaisen Hospital and arrived at the scheduled landing site in Beijing.

When Jian Yunmo got off the helicopter, he was wearing a white turtleneck sweater and a coffee-colored woolen coat. A men's brooch was pinned on the left side of his woolen coat. In addition to this, he also had a small suitcase with him.

The car arranged by Feng Wei had been waiting for Jian Yunmo for a long time.

Feng Wei himself was also in the back seat.

When he saw Jian Yunmo, Feng Wei smiled and said: "Your schedule is incredibly packed. Therefore, if I wanted to see you, this would be the only time available."

Jian Yunmo was not surprised to see Feng Wei. He replied: "Thank you for your hard work."

"What do you mean by hard work? Even if it's not for you, it's for Yiling. After all, I still need Yiling to guide me on my money-making journey."

In these two years, Feng Wei earned a lot of money as he followed Jian Yiling around.

As soon as Jian Yunmo got onto the car, the car started up. The car was headed to the Wen Residence.

The first place that Jian Yunmo planned to visit was not the Jian family's Beijing Residence nor Jian Yiling's apart. Instead, it was the Wen Residence.

Jian Yunmo had already made all his arrangements.

The Wen elders and all unrelated individuals had plans for today.

Grandma Wen and Grandpa Wen went to the Beijing theater to listen to opera. On the other hand, Cai Qinyue was discussing matters with a lawyer regarding the plagiarism case.

Wen Cheng went to work as usual.

And thus, only two people remained in the Wen Residence. Wen Yan and Wen Ruo.

Both of them were in their respective rooms.

Half an hour later, the car arrived at the Wen Residence.

When Jian Yunmo arrived, the servants of the Wen family opened the doors for him.

And thus, Jian Yunmo entered the Wen Residence without any obstruction.

Without a moment's pause, he went straight upstairs and headed for Wen Ruo's room.

Before he arrived here, he even knew which room was Wen Ruo's.

When Jian Yunmo reached Wen Ruo's room, he knocked on the door.

"Who is it?" Wen Ruo called out. She was currently seated in front of her computer and browsing the news.

Whenever she read news related to Jian Yiling, she would grit her teeth in anger.

"Jian Yunmo."

Upon hearing this answer, Wen Ruo was so shocked that her mouse slipped out of her hand.

Cousin Yunmo?

Why was he here?

Wen Ruo's heart was full of shock.

Wen Ruo walked over to her door and slowly opened it.

To her surprise, her cousin Yunmo was indeed standing outside of her room.

"Cousin? Aren't you meant to be abroad? How... Why..." Wen Ruo stuttered in confusion.

"I needed to deal with some stuff. That's why I'm back," Jian Yunmo replied.. Although his voice was magnetic, his tone seemed cold and detached.

Chapter 888: Jian Yunmo Reveals the Truth (2)

"What... Stuff?"

For some reason, Wen Ruo had a bad feeling as she looked at Jian Yunmo.

“Can I come in and talk?” Jian Yunmo asked.

“But...”

Why did he want to come into her room and talk?

“You probably don’t want some things to be heard by Wen Yan.”

Upon hearing this, Wen Ruo’s eyes snapped wide open.

Although she did not know what exactly Jian Yunmo was up to, she knew that inviting him into her room to talk was the best option for her.

And thus, Wen Ruo invited Jian Yunmo into her room.

After he entered the room, Jian Yunmo took out a letter from the briefcase he was carrying.

Then, Jian Yunmo’s long and slender fingers opened the letter.

“This is a letter of recommendation written by Sofia’s Chief Designer. If you have this letter of recommendation, you will be able to make a comeback.”

Wen Ruo opened her mouth in surprise.

“A letter of recommendation from Sofia’s Chief Designer? How did you come across this?” Wen Ruo exclaimed. She did not dare to believe her ears.

Sofia was an international brand that was on par with XDL.

Furthermore, the status of their chief designer in the fashion industry was equivalent to Mr. Kevin’s.

Hence, a personal letter of recommendation from her carried a lot of weight.

“In the past, I did a favor for her. Therefore, she was happy to write a letter of recommendation for my cousin,” Jian Yunmo replied.

“Cousin... Is the... Letter of recommendation... For me?”

Wen Ruo was shocked. This was completely unexpected.

“Yep, it’s for you. However, there’s a condition.”

“Condition? What condition?”

“You have to tell me the reason why you encouraged Yiling to provoke Wen Yan with vicious words back then.”

Upon hearing this, Wen Ruo’s expression instantly stiffened.

“Cousin, what are you talking about? Why would I encourage her to do such a thing? I don’t understand what you’re saying.”

“You don’t need to tell me that you didn’t do such a thing. I know exactly what you said to Yiling back then. Yiling wouldn’t lie to me. The reason why Yiling went and said those things to Wen Yan was because she listened to you. She thought that she could get Wen Yan to come out of his room and face the sun again. That’s why she tried to spur him on with vicious words. I just want to know the reason why you made that suggestion to Yiling back then. Did you really think that it would be useful, or did you have some other thoughts in mind?”

Wen Ruo was stunned. Her brain was going through a million thoughts.

It wasn’t strange for Jian Yunmo to know what she said to Jian Yiling back then.

After all, Jian Yiling would tell everything to him.

Therefore, even if she denied this, Jian Yunmo would refuse to believe her.

When she was younger, she could potentially win over the attention of other people. However, this was impossible with Jian Yunmo. The man unconditionally believed in Jian Yiling.

“Cousin, what do you want to achieve today?” Wen Ruo asked suspiciously.

“I want you to give me a reason which can convince me that you’re not malicious. I want to know if my cousin is a good person. If you are a good person, then I will give you this letter of recommendation. After all, I’m your cousin. I should help you in times of need. However, if you can’t convince me that you’re a good person, then I won’t treat you as my cousin.”

Jian Yunmo’s words were as gentle and soft as always.

If he accepted her as his cousin, he would naturally help her.

And thus, Wen Ruo began to think of potential reasons.

After a long time, Wen Ruo said to Jian Yunmo: “Cousin, why would you think that I gave that suggestion with other thoughts in mind? I was only ten years old at that time. Spurring someone on using vicious words was one of the only ways I could think of. How else could we help Brother Wen Yan?”

Chapter 889: Jian Yunmo Reveals the Truth (3)

“Did you take the initiative to suggest this? Or did Yiling ask you to make a suggestion?”

“Well, Yiling said that she wanted to help Brother Wen Yan get out of his room. That’s why I suggested it. Cousin, you must believe me. That was the only thought that I had in mind. That’s why I suggested it! Yes, now that I reflect back on it, the method seems very stupid. However, I was only ten years old back then!”

Wen Ruo found a very reasonable explanation for her suggestion back then.

After all, she was only ten years old. What good idea could a ten-year-old possibly think of?

After Wen Ruo finished speaking, she carefully look at Jian Yunmo and watched the expression on his face.

She was uncertain if her words could convince him.

Jian Yunmo also stared at Wen Ruo. After a while, Jian Yunmo suddenly looked down at the brooch on his chest and said: "Did you hear everything?"

In another room of the Wen Residence, Wen Yan's computer screen was showing everything in Wen Ruo's room.

The location of the camera was the brooch located on Jian Yunmo's chest.

However, this wasn't a decorative brooch. Instead, there was a camera and microphone attached to it as well.

As soon as Jian Yunmo stepped into the Wen Residence, all the footage was directly delivered to Wen Yan.

This was agreed upon in advance.

Although Wen Yan did not know what Jian Yunmo wanted him to see, he still agreed to it.

However, he now knew.

Wen Ruo claimed that she was only ten years old back then. She said that spurring him on using vicious words was the only suggestion that she could think of.

However, Wen Yan clearly remembered how Wen Ruo scolded Jian Yiling in front of him. She blamed her for humiliating and embarrassing him.

Suddenly, the door to Wen Ruo's room opened.

Wen Yan, who was seated in a wheelchair appeared in the doorway.

All of a sudden, the blood on Wen Ruo's face disappeared.

"Cousin Wen Yan... Cousin..."

Jian Yunmo calmly handed the letter of recommendation into Wen Yan's hands.

"Please help me determine whether Wen Ruo is lying or not. If you think she's not lying, then give this letter of recommendation to her."

After he finished speaking, Jian Yunmo turned around and left Wen Ruo's room.

He did what he could do already, and thus, the rest was left for Wen Yan to handle on his own.

Inside her room, Wen Ruo looked at Wen Yan nervously.

"Cousin Wen Yan, please listen to my explanation..."

Wen Ruo attempted to defend herself.

Wen Yan gripped the letter of recommendation in his hands. Then, in front of Wen Ruo, he picked it up and tore it apart.

"Cousin, don't!" Wen Ruo cried as she rushed up.

However, Wen Ruo was already too late. The letter of recommendation had been torn into pieces.

Wen Ruo watched her hope scatter and fall to the ground, piece by piece.

She could no longer hide her hatred. She hissed: "You're just a cripple! How dare you ruin my future!"

Then, she reached out to hit Wen Yan.

Wen Yan did not dodge or evade her attacks. Instead, he let this so-called cousin of his hit and punch him.

After a few punches, Wen Ruo suddenly noticed Wen Yan's cold eyes.

At that moment, Wen Ruo was taken aback.

She had never seen this crippled and depressed cousin of hers show such cold eyes.

Then, Wen Yan looked away. He turned the wheels of his wheelchair and left Wen Ruo's room.

When he returned to his own room, he locked himself up.

In the evening, the rest of the Wen family returned home.

A servant of the Wen family saw a package at the doorway. He picked it up and then went to knock on Wen Yan's door as his name was written as the recipient.

Chapter 890: Family (1)

"Young Master Wen Yan, there's a package here for you. The person who sent it was Young Master Jian Yunmo. It was sent from Hengyuan City a few days ago."

Jian Yunmo asked the housekeeper of the Old Jian Residence to help him send this package.

Initially, Wen Yan did not plan to open the door. However, when he heard the words of the servant, he slowly moved towards the door.

By the time he reached the door, the servant had already left. The package was left on the floor at the entrance of his room.

Wen Yan slowly bent down and picked the package up from the ground.

When he returned to his room, Wen Yan unwrapped the package.

It was a small notebook inside the package.

The notebook had a pink cartoon cover and seemed very girlish.

In his recollection, he only knew one person who would use such a thing.

Jian Yiling.

When she was young, Jian Yiling loved this color and pattern.

Wen Yan slowly began to flip through the notebook.

The notebook was filled with a child's scribbles and wonky handwriting.

It was Jian Yiling's writing.

He flicked the pages, one by one.

Then, he paused on a page:

Brother Wen Yan still refuses to come out of his room. He must be very sad right?

If I lost the ability to walk, I would be sad as well. I wouldn't be able to even eat!

I followed Sister Wen Ruo's advice, but he still didn't leave his room.

Sister Wen Ruo told me to persist. She said that one day was not enough.

That's right. I must persist!

But it's really difficult to think of mean things to say. My brain hurts already.

Wen Yan's expression went from surprise to bitterness.

As he flipped through the notebook, unknowingly, his face became streaked with tears.

What a silly yet persistent dummy.

###

After leaving the Wen Residence, Jian Yunmo immediately headed to the Jian family's Beijing Residence.

Feng Wei couldn't help but comment: "Wow, you're such a busy person. You don't even take a moment to rest."

"If you're busy, you can go back first. However, leave the driver behind."

"Hey, can you please have some conscience? I put off my work to accompany you!"

"You just want me to reveal what Yiling has been up to recently right?"

"Cough cough... That is the main reason... However, our friendship also plays a small part..."

If he followed Jian Yiling around, he could earn easy money!

However, Jian Yiling always abandoned him.

"I don't interfere with Yiling's business. She deals with these matters herself."

"But she always listens to you."

"The opposite is true."

"Oh right. It's you who always listens to her."

Very soon, Jian Yunmo reached the Jian Residence in Beijing. As Grandma Jian and Grandpa Jian did not know he was coming, they were very surprised to see him.

“Yunmo, why are you here? Why didn’t you tell us about this in advance?” Grandma Jian exclaimed with surprise.

“I’m only coming back for one day. I’m leaving tomorrow,” Jian Yunmo explained.

“What? So soon? It’s rare for everyone to be here. Can’t you stay for one more day?” Grandma Jian said. She was a bit sad.

Each and every one of them were?white-eyed wolves<sup>1</sup>. They never returned back home! They didn’t appreciate her!

“Grandma,” Jian Yunmo smiled as he attempted to coax her. “I’m in the middle of my experiment. I can’t leave for a long period of time. Once I’m done with this experiment, I will take a break okay? I will come back and accompany you.”

“I will remember this! If you don’t end up coming back, I will bring Yiling to live with me in the mountains! You won’t be able to see her again!”

“Grandma, are you only taking Yiling? What about Grandpa? Grandpa will cry!”

“Excuse me? Why would I ever cry?” Grandpa Jian immediately retorted: “That old woman can go wherever she wants! I will be at peace if she leaves me alone! However, even if she leaves, Yiling must stay with me!”
