Chapter 551 Belittling Wynter

Wynter didn't need his help at all.

However, when Tobias found out the outfit in front of him was made by Wynter, he felt moved.

The designer exclaimed, "I can imagine the uproar later when you all appear at the banquet. Lamar has never designed in this style. It looks great!"

Alexis had already arranged for two vehicles and contacted Elliot. It was approaching 4:00 pm. The guests were arriving at the banquet one after another.

Naomi appeared with Shane.

She donned a high-end fluffy white gauze dress with a pearl hairpin in her long hair. She had fair skin and exquisite makeup, resembling a princess.

In front of the media, Shane still maintained his image as a gentle president, as if the previous hotel incident had been a misunderstanding.

"Mr. Quinnell, everyone is curious about your real daughter. Is there anything you'd like to tell us?" a bold reporter asked straightforwardly.

He chuckled. "I'm happy, of course. G o d bless the Quinnells. We finally found Sevie."

"What about the impact on Ms. Naomi?" the reporter asked while observing Naomi's reaction. "After all, everyone thought you were the Quinnells' real daughter for many years."

She seemed sincere. "I have had a good life thanks to the Quinnells' support. There are many poor children like me. I'm undoubtedly the luckiest one. My parents have been kind to me throughout my childhood.

"I never considered taking the title of the Quinnells' daughter. And I believe Sevie will also be kind to me!"

Naomi appeared innocent. "I'm looking forward to her return, Dad couldn't sleep all night since he was overjoyed when he heard her news."

She smiled sweetly as she added, "It was the same for me. I'm glad to have a sister."

Shane listened to her answer with satisfaction. He smiled slightly and said, "Alright, let's go inside first."

As long as their conversation was broadcast, Fabian would have no choice but to agree to let Shane adopt Naomi.

Shane wanted this effect. So, he had arranged for his people to be among the media.

Wendy was already waiting inside the venue. When she saw Naomi come in, she immediately approached her.

"Did Mr. Quinnell get you that necklace? He still dotes on you so much.

"That necklace is Lamar's most well-known exclusive design, which debuted the previous year. I've been trying to purchase it for a long time but haven't gotten it. Gosh, I envy you!"

Everyone surrounded Naomi as if she were the protagonist in the banquet.

to

Shane had only thought about increasing her reputation. He never considered Naomi would steal the show at a family reunion banquet prepared for Wynter.

How horrible would that be for Wynter?

Wynter's dreams were all traceable.

red the

Why did the family reunion banquet cause her to become Kingbourne's joke? Why didn't anyone think highly of her? Why did the media dare to report nonsense and show no respect for her?

Shane's actions contributed significantly to the situation.

He appeared to have made it clear to the public and acquiesced to the situation. Despite having his biological daughter back, he had brought Naomi to the scene.

Everyone in this circle made decisions based on circumstances.

Chapter 552 She Is Coming

Several socialites swirled their wine glasses and clinked them together as if they had already figured out how to embarrass Wynter later on.

Bullying existed everywhere. The bullies never believed there was anything wrong with them.

Some CEOs wouldn't use those blatant and low-end means, though. They only asked Shane, "Where are your sons?"

"That's right, Shane. I've heard that Sebastian is well-known among Hawford Legal Elites. He handles famous non-litigation cases and has extensive experience in foreign courts."

Faced with such a question, Shane responded lightly, "It's not a big deal. Dad made the banquet too high profile. They are also busy, so they don't need to rush back today."

His attitude seemed to be suggesting something.

The business partners were here to inquire about details. After all, they would choose their partner based on the Quinnells' family bond.

Shane appeared to be implying that his six sons didn't care about their sister.

Of course, that was their speculation. They had to wait until they met "Ms. Sevie" before they could come to a conclusion.

But the truth was that Shane didn't realize Sebastian had already arrived at the hotel.

He came back from an early morning flight. It was 4:00 am when he landed in Kingbourne. When he returned to the Quinnell residence, he was surprised to find that his family wasn't there.

Even the shrewd Alexis wasn't there.

At the same time, the Quinnell residence gave him a different feeling, as if it was much brighter. He felt relaxed from the moment he walked in.

The butler, Phil Moore, smiled and said, "Mr. Sebastian, these fish are Ms. Sevie's. She asked us to open the skylight to brighten the house.

"She also brought the Evercrest Gems, which seem to ensure good fortune. She's good."

Phil rarely praised others. Sebastian was pleased to hear that.

"Wynter knows so much."

"Of course. Don't underestimate Ms. Sevie." Phil patted his leg.

"When she noticed that I wasn't walking well, she treated me with only some needles. She's kind to us like you."

Sebastian had long heard of Wynter's abilities.

He wasn't like the others. As a lawyer, he always had his ways of looking for someone.

Moreover, with that idiot Tobias around, he could find information about Wynter by following the clues.

Elliot was right. She was better than they had imagined.

Chapter 552 She Is Coming

As her brother, Sebastian had never felt so indebted and proud. That was why he rushed back to meet Wynter today, but he hadn't expected her to be absent.

Phil added, "Mr. Quinnell Senior no longer lives here. He's been living with Ms. Sevie outside.

Since his family wasn't in the huge Quinnell ce, Sebastian, who had been busy for the days simply took his suitcase and checked into a hotel. He wanted to be fully prepared.

When he arrived at the banquet, he realized something was wrong with the media and the group of socialites downstairs.

What did they take the Quinnells for?

Regardless of the outsiders, his foolish father shouldn't use them to belittle Wynter.

Sebastian could already imagine how they would treat her if he weren't there for the banquet due to his hectic schedule.

Just when he was about to head downstairs and teach those people a lesson, he heard a cry of surprise in the distance.

Chapter 553 Stunning Everyone

The cries rang out like bomb blasts in the venue.

It piqued many people's interest, including some business partners. They set down their wine glasses and looked curiously toward the entrance.

Tobins! It's Tobias!"

Do you mean the Quinnells sixth scion? We last saw him a year ago. He's even more handsome now!"

It's Elliot' He's back too!

"Elliot? Who's that?"

"The Quinnells fifth scion! His identity has been a mystery. No one can figure out his background!"

"Why is he back?"

“It’s beyond my expectations! The Quinnells didn’t release any news about this at all!”

“Mr. Quinnell Senior is so good at hiding it. I think Mr. Quinnell doesn’t know about it, either.”

Some people looked at Shane. After all, he just said the banquet was trivial and unworthy of his sons’ return.

Unexpectedly, Tobias and even Elliot, dubbed the King of Special Forces, traveled thousands of miles to attend the banquet.

As their father, Shane was completely unaware of that. What an embarrassment.

Many individuals were already obsessed with Tobias’ and Elliot’s looks. Not only do their features differ, but so do their temperaments.

Tobias had short blue hair and an enhanced silver-white outfit. He was tall and handsome, resembling a half-blood prince.

The t a s s e l s on his shoulders matched him well. There was also Shumland silk wrapped around his waist. They wondered who the outfit’s designer was.

Elliot’s clothes were even more unique. He looked like a warlord from the Victorian era. He wore gold chain glasses, which didn’t seem out of place because his face fit the outfit perfectly.

The well-tailored trousers made him appear taller and straighter, cool and noble. When he looked at others, his eyes seemed affectionate, yet they were also cold and distant.

As the guests marveled at them, Elliot bent down and opened the car door gentlemanly.

*Oh my G o d ! Who is he opening the door for?”

They knew the answer the next second.

A girl wearing black high heels got out of the car. Her slender legs were half-covered by the dress, which was attractive

Then, everyone heard the bell ringing.

Numerous spotlights were turned on at the same time. The reporters waiting outside were shocked.

They couldn't describe how it felt to see Wynter since she was so gorgeous.

It was her facial features or temperament, she was different from all of Kingbourne's socialites.

She appeared cold and charming, and the tear mole at the corner of her eye seemed alluring. But she didn't appear to care about anything. Her smile was slightly sweet.

Her facial features were beautiful, and she looked perfect in her dress.

That wasn't a common dress design. It was pure black. If they looked closely, they could see the pure silver line on it, which seemed to outline a galaxy and complemented the silver bell on her ankle.

Her hairstyle was also unique. It was a wolf cut wrapped in silk to match Tobias' suit.

Although Wynter looked breathtakingly lovely, she didn't give the media any chance to interview her. They only took photos of her amazing beauty when she was out of the car.

Everyone in the hall had their focus on her.

Her delicate figure was noticeable. Under the light, her outfit shimmered like stars. Coupled with her face, she resembled a stunningly gorgeous fairy.

Chapter 554 The First Person to Be Embarrassed

Some reporters were already stunned. They didn't even need to guess Wynter's identity.

Naomi's look only reflected Shane's value for her, whereas Wynter's appearance revealed the Quinnells' true heiress.

None of the CEOs present expected to see this scene, nor did they expect the "bumpkin" Ms. Sevie would look so outstanding.

The two Quinnell scions stood on either side of her, holding her hands like gentlemen. They seemed to dote on her.

"Mr. Quinnell, didn't you say your sons were busy?"

Someone glanced at Shane and set down his wine glass, indicating that he wouldn't stand by Shane's side.

Shane's expression shifted as he heard such ridicule.

Meanwhile, Fabian also stepped out of the car. Elliot gave him Wynter's hand.

Fabian patted her hand. After she took his arm, he walked forward with the dragon cane.

Fabian wore an old-fashioned attire and a gentleman's hat. His suit's material was identical to Wynter's.

They seemed to have stepped out of a painting of a prestigious family from the Victorian era.

Their outfits were consistent with their identity because they had always been "national businessmen".

The so-called national businessman didn't mean taking advantage of connections or taking shortcuts when conducting business.

Throughout the most chaotic year, the Quinnells did their best to do business. They had provided all the resources and channels needed for the revolution at that time.

Their karma had accumulated over generations, which was why s n a t c h i n g the Quinnells' fate wasn't something that could be done in a day.

With Fabian's nationalistic beliefs, the outside world wouldn't readily conquer them.

The scene the socialites imagined of a "bumpkin" without a dress and looking embarrassed didn't happen.

Instead, when Wynter arrived, all of them became her foils.

Wendy was extremely jealous. She clenched her wine glass tightly. Her eyes were practically filled with hatred.

Naomi noticed it. She whispered, pretending to be ignorant, "Is Sevie wearing a dress designed by Lamar?"

Her sentence piqued Wendy's interest.

She took a closer look and noticed it resembled Lamar's style. But everyone knew Lamar never made Shumland-style outfits.

"Naomi, Wynter must be an idiot. She didn't even investigate Lamar's design style and wore a knockoff.

"She probably doesn't even know who Lamar is and just wants to show off her pretty dress. Just watch." Wendy smiled and walked toward Wynter with a wine glass. She exclaimed loudly, "You must be Ms. Sevie! Mr. Quinnell Senior has missed you all these years! Your dress is so pretty!"

Wynter glanced sideways when she heard that.

Tobias frowned. He didn't think anyone who would approach them at such a time would be a good person. After all, he knew everything those socialites did.

When he was about to get angry, Wynter responded lightly, "Thank you."

She looked at Wendy meaningfully, who had also appeared in her dream.

Naomi was the one egging others on behind the scenes, while Wendy was the one openly ostracizing others.

The Winstons had overpampered her, which made her assume nobody should be more in the limelight than she was.

Chapter 555 Wendy Wants to Embarrass Wynter

In her dreams, Wendy frequently encouraged her friends to bully and mock her.

Wynter smiled. Wendy had come up to her herself, which saved Wynter a lot of trouble.

Fabian wore a solemn expression as he said, "What's the matter?"

"Mr. Quinnell Senior, you're still so serious." Wendy patted her chest, pretending to be afraid. "I'd like to make friends with Ms. Sevie."

Wendy knew that on such a big occasion, an elder couldn't embarrass a junior like her.

Of course, if Fabian got angry, the people from the media would spread news of it.

Anyway, the Winstons weren't the rude ones.

Wendy had nearly revealed her schemes. Fabian could see through her facade. At that moment, he even decided to warn Clyde about teaching the juniors.

If it didn't make sense, he could ask Clyde to admit his mistake in person.

Wendy raised her head with delight.

Wynter glanced at her, played with the purple sugilite pendant on her waist, and suddenly smiled." Grandpa, go catch up with your friends. You can leave me here."

Fabian nodded. He pointed at Elliot and Tobias with his cane.

"You two stay here with Sevie."

"Yes, Grandpa." Elliot would like to see who dared to come c while he was here.

One of them even tugged on Wendy's sleeve, whispering, "Forget it, Wendy. Elliot and Tobias are both here. We can't deal with her right now."

"Does she think only she has brothers? My cousin will also be here soon!" Wendy shook off the socialite's hand and walked forward with a smile. "Ms. Sevie, your dress looks familiar. It looks like Lamar's design!"

Wendy made sure to raise her voice when she said that. Sure enough, when she mentioned Lamar, many ladies looked over.

Wendy's eyes widened as if she was surprised. "But I've heard that Lamar has a quirk and dislikes Shumland-style. Plus, Lamar only produces one limited edition a year. This year's model has been purchased. That's a special exotic gauze skirt. Ms. Sevie, I'm so curious. How did you get your dress?"

The ladies present were all fashion fanatics. Those media folks weren't stupid either.

Wendy implied that Wynter was wearing a knockoff!

They had only focused on the Quinnells' aura and appearance especially the fact that their sixth scion turned out to be famed actor Tobias. It was already highly shocking news.

They had heard numerous rumors about Tobias throughout the previous two years.

They even reported that he might be a CEO's pretty boy toy.

Now they wanted to slap their faces. They didn't dare to report those rumors anymore. Since the Quinnells were fully prepared, whoever dared to report the fake news would go bankrupt.

However, it was a big joke that Wynter wore a knockoff on such an occasion.

"Wendy, can't you see that Wynter's dress is from the same series as ours?"

Tobias was always the tyrant in this circle. "Or are you focusing all your attention on pursuing men?”

“You-” Wendy was no match for him. Her face reddened with anger.

Meanwhile, the Winstons strode in.

Act Fast: Free Bonus Time is Running Out!

Chapter 556 Chad Was Stunned to Meet Wynter

To outshine his peers, Chad wore a multi-million dollar watch and the latest high-end suit. He wanted to create a sensation around his outfit.

Unexpectedly, the guests didn’t even look at him when he came in. Instead, they focused their attention elsewhere.

It was Tobias again!

Chad approached and patted Wendy’s shoulder. “Wendy is still young. She’s just curious about that beautiful dress.

“What’s more, she’s a fan of Lamar’s. When she notices someone dressed inappropriately, she’ll take it seriously. Tobias, if you think she’s wrong, just explain the origin of your sister’s dress. You didn’t have to embarrass Wendy.”

Chad spoke grandly before raising his head confidently.

He was curious to see what the Quinnells’ newly returned bumpkin could do. Elliot and Tobias even rushed back for her. However, Chad froze the next second.

Wynter looked at him and smiled casually. She arched an eyebrow, as she had done at Panzarath. “What a coincidence, Mr. Chad. We met again. I heard that you’ve been helping the Scotts in finding me recently.”

Chad dropped his goblet to the ground upon hearing that.
He told himself to stay calm. She was only a country bumpkin.
Even if her identity was beyond his expectations, she couldn’t be so capable.

Perhaps she had heard the gossip and was trying to scare him.
Chad’s hands continued to quiver despite his thoughts. After all, he’d never forget how Wynter’s prophecy saved Logan from death. Mason had gone insane and told everyone that a ghost was haunting him. He was emaciated.

Darrell said it was only a coincidence, but Chad still had his concerns.

He took Wendy’s hand. “Wendy, forget what happened just now.
After all, today is the Quinnells’ important day.”

When she saw his fear, her anger grew stronger.

The Winstons were on the same level as the Quinnells. Why did her cousin have to make way for a bumpkin from the village?

Chad! Ms. Sevie is wearing a knockoff. I have to tell her!”

Wendy was smart to pretend to be worried. “The designer of this series of outfits must have lied to Ms. Sevie because she didn’t understand anything. Mr. Quinnell Senior’s outfit might also be a knockoff.”

As she stated that, she looked at Wynter. “Ms. Sevie, I’ve always been carefree and straightforward. Don’t blame me. It’s a trivial matter to purchase the wrong outfits and be defrauded of money.
But Mr. Quinnell Senior usually meets clients. It would be a shame if he wore a knockoff.”

She made the matter sound so serious. The CEOs who were talking also glanced over to see what the fuss was all about.

“What knockoff? Since Mr. Quinnell Senior is wearing it, then it’s genuine.”
“We don’t care about that.”
Someone spoke for Fabian.
Wendy smiled brightly. “Ah, perhaps I’m being too nosy. Ms. Sevie can buy whatever outfits she wants.”
in

Chapter 557 You Are Plagiarizing Lamar

She performed her attack and retreated perfectly.
Even though the older generation didn’t care, it didn’t mean it had no impact.
Wendy repeatedly stated that Wynter purchased knockoff outfits, implying that Wynter was either saving money or was s t u p i d and easily deceived. Wynter didn’t resemble an heiress at all. Ladies from various prestigious families would naturally discuss it.
“Who told you that I purchased these outfits?”
In the commotion, Wynter spoke neither loudly nor softly.
Wendy asked, “Did you mean you made it yourself?”
“Yes.” Wynter stared at her. “Tobias spoke too gently just now. You have nothing but stupi i y in your mind.
Wendy was furious because nobody had ever dared to disgrace her like this.
“Oh, by the way, I forgot to tell you. I speak straightforwardly too.”
Wynter smiled and showed perfect etiquette. “Ms. Winston, you must not blame me.”
Wendy’s hands began to tremble, and her chest hurt from being too angry.
Right then, Naomi exclaimed warmly, “Sevie, you’re so awesome! You designed outfits for the first time, but your style is similar to that of the well-known designer Lamar. It's amazing!"

When she stated that, she looked at Wynter with shining eyes and admiration. Her hypocritical acting skills were indeed exco 2 4

Wynter slightly smiled while stroking her purple sugilite pendant. She didn't look at Naomi but asked Tobias, "Tobias, did our father have an eighth child?"

Wasn't it just acting? She could also do it flawlessly.

He immediately understood what she meant. "He didn't. Even if he did, she would still be an illegitimate daughter. I won't accept her anyway."

"Then stop calling me Sevie. Only my family can call me that,"

Wynter said as she turned to look at Naomi.

Wynter's voice was so clear that even the CEOs over there could hear her. "Don't ruin the Quinnells' even reputation. The Quinnells have always been strict. If you him."

Her words were extremely lethal.

Naomi never expected Wynter to embarrass Shane and make such statements.

Not only was she extremely embarrassed, but Shane also wanted to hide himself.

People around him gazed at him with even more curiosity. Some even Inquired, "Mr. Quinnell, is that child

"No!" Shane denied it agitatedly. All his elegance was gone, and his eyes seemed to pop out.

People had never seen him like this before, so they subconsciously took a step back.

Shane also realized his gaffe and quickly composed himself.

"Sorry, I was irritated just now. I only love Marie. I'll never do anything to disgrace her.”

“I knew it was impossible. Shane is the most affectionate.”

Despite what they said, some were beginning to rethink their decisions.

After all, Shane had always intended to adopt Naomi. His

When he sensed that, he realized he couldn't even mention the adoption today. If he mentioned it, his reputation would be ruined.

Wynter was so cruel in forcing him to this point!

Wendy didn't care about the adoption at all.

After hearing Naomi's words, she covered her mo
