

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 811 - 820

Chapter 811

Thankfully, everything was going to end soon!

Shawn said, "Galey, go rest for now. You've been busy the whole day. Your body won't be able to take it." "How could I fall asleep?"

The moment she shut her eyes, the image of Nicole in Winnie's arms appeared.

Nicole looked at her like a stranger.

Nicole calling her a bad lady echoed in Gale's ears.

Shawn said, "I know what you're thinking about. We'll definitely find a way. Nicole will wake up. She just temporarily lost herself."

Gale looked down.

She was just too sad. If she was alone, she did not even know what she would do.

So, she returned to Temperley Hall.

Gale said, "You keep on saying there will be a way, so I'll believe you. Shawn, if Nicole keeps on calling Winnie her mother, you're responsible too!"

Shawn was the one who had brought Winnie over, planting the seeds for everything that happened!

He was the one who had failed to deal with Winnie properly!

Shawn looked at her resolutely. "Galey, I'll definitely make sure Nicole is given back to you perfectly fine."

That was his promise.

Shawn's promises were worth their weight in gold!

He was the president of Wood Group. He could make anything happen with a wave of his hand. If he said he would do it, then it was definitely possible!

Gale and he looked at each other for a few seconds before Gale averted her gaze. "You put up a grave for me at the hill?"

“Yes.”

She walked right to the hill, not afraid of the fact that it was late at night.

Shawn followed closely behind her.

Gale slowly walked in front and quickly saw the grave.

Beloved Wife, Gale.’

The words on the gravestone were already starting to blur, and the picture was as well. There was a part that seemed incredibly smooth.

It was obvious that it had become that way because someone had constantly been touching it.

Gale stood in front of her grave, feeling amused.

The wind was blowing gently, and the leaves could be heard rustling.

There were crickets crying out not far away

She asked softly, “Why did you bury me over here? You know I don’t like Temperley Hall.”

Shawn stood by her side. “I was selfish. I wanted you to stay by my side every day.”

“Were you only selfish for a moment?”

“Galey…”

Shawn’s voice was full of melancholy.

Gale said, “For me to stay here alone. I would be so scared and lonely. Even when I die, you can’t truly respect my wishes and bury me somewhere far away.”

“You weren’t lonely, Galey, I came to visit you often,” Shawn answered.

“Often? How often? How many times a week? Once every three days?”

“Every day.”

Gale was stunned as she looked at him.

Every day?

"To be more precise, it was every night." Shawn bent down and cleared up some weeds in front of the grave in a practiced manner. "Every night I can't sleep, I'll sit here and talk to you. I would stay by your side until the next day."

There were some things Gale never knew about.

She quietly listened.

"It doesn't matter how busy I am. Even when I just came back from overseas, I would be here to keep you company. Only when I'm standing here would I ever feel at peace. I have so much to tell you. I always want to share everything I did and saw every day. That way, you'd know what I was up to the whole day. Gale, you're the only person in my life. When you left, I was left with just that grave."

Chapter 812

After a few seconds of silence, Gale said, "But, this will be destroyed tomorrow."

"Yes, because you're back."

"But..." Gale turned around and looked at him. "I'm back. I'm still alive. It still doesn't mean that I'll stay by your side and listen to you talk about your day."

Shawn pursed his lips.

A sliver of pain surfaced from his heart, slowly creeping across his whole body.

He understood what she meant.

She would go. She should leave.

Everything he had would still just be that grave!

Gale said, "Don't get rid of it. Shawn, just act like I'm actually dead like I won't appear anymore."

That way, when he was frustrated, he could still stand there.

It would be a way to remember her.

"I know you'll leave." Shawn's voice was quite calm, but one could hear that it was trembling upon closer inspection. "But Gale, since you're alive, we have to get rid of it."

"Why?"

"It's unlucky. I'll say it again. I want you to be safe and happy, to live a long life," Shawn answered.

How could he keep the grave there when Gale was still alive?

He wanted her to be free. He wanted her to be alive.

Shawn's hand left the tombstone. "There's no longer any reason for it to exist. Everyone already knows that you're still alive. Gale, you don't have to be afraid. Right now, I've already learned how to love a person."

Back then, he was selfish and cold-blooded.

At that moment, he finally understood that letting go was a form of love as well.

He would give her the world!

It did not matter if he was hurt because of it!

Gale did not say anything else.

It was a bit cold at night. Shawn took off his jacket and put it on her.

Feeling the warmth on her shoulder, Gale looked down. She could still smell the faint smell of his cigarettes.

"Shawn, the two of us were a mistake from the start."

"We weren't I don't regret getting to know you. Not knowing you would've been a lifelong regret for me," he corrected her

Entangled together for a lifetime. They had loved and hated each other before Even if they could not be together in the end, at least they were together once

At least he got to experience love.

It was better than them not knowing each other at all, better than them being complete strangers that lived their own lives, never meeting.

Shawn would rather Gale hate him. At the very least, it meant that Gale remembered him. It meant that he had been in her life.

After a long time, Gale said, "Let's go."

The night was dark and silent.

The next day, Gale arrived at the hospital incredibly early. She had a lunchbox with her as well.

Inside was breakfast that she made herself. It was all meant for Nicole.

Standing in front of the ward, Gale took a few deep breaths as she composed herself.

After that, she opened the door and put on a smile. "Nicole, have you had breakfast?"

Nicole was lying on the bed. When Nicole saw her, Nicole was taken aback.
"Mommy..."

Was Nicole calling her?

Gale was elated and hurriedly walked forward. "Nicole, do you remember me?"

Yet, it had been a misunderstanding.

Nicole shouted again, "Mommy, mommy, come here quickly. That lady who looks like you a lot from yesterday is here again!"

Nicole looked a bit scared and did not want to let Gale get close to her. Nicole looked completely on guard.

Gale's smile stiffened. 1

Chapter 813

Winnie rushed over from the kitchen in a hurry. "I'm coming, I'm coming. Wow, Gale, you're quite early."

"Mommy, why is she here again?"

Winnie answered, "She's just bored. It's fine, just ignore her. Act like she isn't there!"

Nicole nodded, pulling at Winnie's shirt as Nicole hid behind Winnie..

No matter how sad Gale felt, Gale still needed to force a smile on her face.

Shawn had asked her not to come, worried that she would feel sad. However, not seeing Nicole made Gale suffer even more!

Gale put the lunchbox on the table. "I made breakfast. I came to send it over. It's still warm. Nicole can have some."

Winnie scoffed. "Take it away."

"I made it for Nicole."

Winnie said, "I know. Didn't you hear that I asked you to take it away? Who knows what sort of nasty things you put in there. What if Nicole gets sick after eating it? What if she eats something bad for her?" Gale held back her anger. "Do you think I'd harm Nicole?"

"Who knows? Just go away. Nicole won't eat anything from you!"

Winnie pushed the lunch box into Gale's hands before chasing Gale away.

Gale looked at Nicole.

"Lady, I won't eat what you made me because Mommy is already cooking for me." Nicole was still a kind girl at heart. She slowly explained, "Thank you for the thought, but you don't have to bring me food anymore."

"Nicole..."

Gale had to bite her lip to stop the tears from coming up.

"I'm sorry." Nicole said before waving to Gale, "Bye-bye."

Winnie was chasing her away, and Nicole was too.

Even though she already knew this would happen before she came over, it still hurt her a great deal to actually go through it.

Winnie snorted in disdain, turning to look at Nicole. "Nicole, just wait a moment. I'll be done very soon." "Okay!"

Gale stood by the side, looking like... No, she was basically an outsider.

She walked out miserably, looking at the floor, not even able to walk straight.

She walked right into a warm and solid embrace.

Shawn put his hand on her head. "Gale, it's fine. Nicole isn't doing this on purpose. She still loves her mother. It's just that she temporarily can't recognize you and mistook someone else for you."

She grabbed the lunchbox tightly, so much so that her fingertips were turning white.

Her throat dried, and she could not even utter a single word.

"I looked for the doctor." Shawn lowered his head and said, "He'll put some sedatives into Nicole's liquids. Once Nicole falls asleep, we'll do some check ups to see what's wrong. After that, we'll treat it and wake her up."

Hearing what he said, Gale nodded. Her eyes brightened. "When?"

"Today."

He would not continue letting Winnie monopolize Nicole without doing anything about it!

The sooner, the better!

Gale seemed like she had renewed hope. "Okay!"

Seeing her being much livelier, Shawn's lips curled up without realizing it.

"I'll go find the doctor to ask him how Nicole's been recovering as well." Gale was incredibly concerned with Nicole's condition. "I'll ask her if there's anything to pay attention to. Winnie definitely wouldn't take care of her so carefully."

"Alright."

Shawn had already asked about it, but he did not stop her.

It was better for her to have something to do to distract herself. At least she would not be so sad.

Chapter 814

As she disappeared from his sight, Shawn's smile disappeared. He became much more serious.

He was just about to enter the ward when he saw Aurum from the corner of his eyes.

Shawn seemed to recall something as he stopped and turned to walk to Aurum.

Aurum had a basket of fruits and a doll with him. "Mr. Wood, I came to see Nicole and brought some gifts.

Aurum merely looked at him seriously and asked, "What relationship do you have with Winnie Nightingale?"

Aurum was confused when he heard that. "What are you talking about?"

Winnie and himself?

They were completely unrelated people!

"A few days ago, Winnie crazily ran all over Sea City to spread that Galey was still alive and that Galey had faked her death. Everyone knows about it. You should know about it as well," Shawn said.

"Yes, I've heard of it."

"Winnie escaped from my hands. At the time, I had my subordinates look for her across the whole city. However, the last time she appeared was near your residence. After that, she completely disappeared!"

Aurum finally understood. "Do you think I hid her?"

"Was it not you?"

Aurum denied it, "Of course not! I have nothing to do with her!"

He even hated Winnie.

Winnie was just a wretch who tried to take advantage of Gale's face!

Shawn narrowed his eyes. "Then why did Winnie disappear near the Lefting residence, never to appear again? And why did she suddenly rush into Nicole's ward yesterday?"

Aurum had just understood things when he was thrown into confusion again.

He could not understand what Shawn was saying at all. He had a strange look on his face. "Mr. Wood, what exactly are you trying to say?"

Aurum thought about it and asked with some concern, "Winnie rushed into Nicole's room. Did she do anything to Nicole? Is Nicole fine right now?"

"Do you really not know anything?"

"What do I need to know?"

Shawn's expression sank. "Nicole is acting very confused. She's treating Winnie as Gale, and acting like Winnie is her mother. She doesn't know who Gale is at all anymore."

Aurum was shocked. "That happened?!"

"Right now, Nicole's not letting anyone get close to her other than Winnie. She's even rejecting Gale and myself!"

"How did that happen?" Aurum's expression was incredibly serious. "Then, Gale must be so sad!"

A daughter that Gale had raised by herself was calling someone else mother, not letting Gale get close.

Just thinking about it, Aurum could feel Gale's hopelessness.

"The most important thing is for us to figure out what's wrong with Nicole right now. We need to figure out what Winnie has been doing while she was hidden, and who's been helping her!" Shawn said.

The whole Sea City was practically Shawn's territory.

It would be incredibly easy for him to find someone.

Yet, Winnie had somehow seemed to disappear from the face of the earth, leaving no traces.

There was no way Winnie would be able to do that herself. Someone very capable must be behind her!

Aurum looked at Shawn. "I swear on my life that I have nothing to do with Winnie. There's no way I would help her hurt Gale!"

"Yet, Winnie had clearly appeared near your home last!"

"I'll go look into it and give you an explanation. Also, if you need any help from me, just let me know!" Aurum said.

Shawn dispelled his earlier suspicions when he saw how Aurum was acting.

After all, Aurum had always been incredibly helpful to Gale. There was no way Aurum would hurt her.

Chapter 815

Aurum had no reason to hurt Nicole.

Then, who was it?!

Gale walked out of the doctor's office and was a little surprised when she saw Aurum. "Mr. Lefting..."

"Yes, I came to see Nicole." He waved the things in his hand.

"Nicole is..." Gale did not know how to explain things.

"Mr. Wood already told me about it. Gale, don't be sad. Nicole will definitely wake up from the trance," Aurum answered.

She pursed her lips and forced herself to nod.

"I'll go inside and see Nicole. Do you want to come with me?" Aurum said.

"Nicole doesn't want to see me. I'll wait outside," Gale said.

Aurum had a look of heartache on his face.

It happened to be caught by Shawn.

Shawn pursed his lips as he unconsciously stood by Gale's side, showing off his position.

Feeling hurt for another was the greatest form of love.

That kind of emotion should not appear on Aurum's face.

Aurum walked into the ward. Through the crack in the door, Gale looked on as Nicole ate her breakfast. Winnie was by her side, slowly feeding Nicole.

Winnie seemed quite caring as if she really was Nicole's mother.

It was just that Gale rarely fed her children. She would usually let them eat themselves.

She loved her children, but she would not spoil them!

"Uncle Lefting!" Nicole immediately shouted when she saw Aurum. "It's you. Why are you at the hospital?"

"I came to see you."

Aurum had a warm smile on his face. He had always been a gentlemanly and kind man, so he did not look threatening at all.

Nicole still remembered him and called out his name perfectly. There did not seem to be anything wrong with her.

So why did she not recognize her mother?

Aurum looked over at Winnie.

Winnie acted like nothing was wrong as she continued to feed Nicole. "Come, open wide. Don't be picky, You have to eat everything, okay?"

Nicole looked at Winnie and asked, "Mommy, you never used to feed me. You told me I needed to be independent. Why don't I eat myself?"

"You're still recovering, it's not easy. I'll just work a bit harder. It's worth it for you."

Nicole nodded

Pattinthe bed. "Uncle Lefting, come sit. D-did you come alone today?"

"I did."

"Oh." Nicole looked disappointed.

However, Aurum understood what she wanted to ask! She was hoping Joshua would be there!

At the same time, the alarm bells sounded in Aurum's head!

Nicole was treating Winnie as her mother and naturally trusted Winnie immensely. Nicole would tell Winnie anything!

If Nicole accidentally mentioned Joshua, then things would be really bad!

Even though Aurum looked like he was just sitting there casually, his brain was working overtime.

No, they could not let Winnie know about Joshua!

Coincidentally, Nicole had just finished eating, and Winnie turned to go to the kitchen. "I'll go wash the dishes. Nicole, just sit here and be a good girl, okay?"

Winnie had basically perfectly taken the role of Nicole's mother.

Chapter 816

While she was gone, Aurum bent down and whispered to Nicole, "You miss Joshua, right?"

Nicole nodded, and her eyes lit up eagerly. "Uncle Lefting, you know what I'm thinking!"

"Actually, Joshua should have gone back after that weekend at the theme park."

“Oh? Is Joshua back home?”

Aurum whispered, “Nicole, let me finish. I made the decision myself to let Joshua stay with me. He’s at my house right now, and I helped him find a kindergarten to attend.”

“However, your mother doesn’t know about this at all. Joshua and I didn’t tell her, because she would make Joshua go back if she found out. Then, it would be very hard for you to see Joshua. So, Nicole, you can’t tell your mother at all, alright? It’s a secret between you, me and Joshua, we can’t let anyone else know!”

Nicole understood what he meant and immediately said, “Okay!”

Aurum hurriedly put a finger on her lips. “Shush, you have to be quiet.”

“Shush…”

Nicole mimicked him as she snuck a glance at the kitchen.

Winnie was busy washing the dishes with her back turned to them, not noticing anything at all.

She let Aurum and Nicole chat. It was not like anything would come from it. She was very confident that Nicole would only recognize her! No one could change it!

“You have to keep the secret, okay? Otherwise, Joshua will leave Sea City. You don’t want him to be so far away, right?” Aurum said again.

“Yes!”

“Good girl.”

Nicole asked, “But Uncle Lefting, why does mommy want Joshua to go back? Can’t he stay here?”

“I don’t know what she’s thinking either. It’s fine, just make sure you keep the secret. Don’t mention Joshua to your mother at all. Not a single word!”

Nicole loved her brother a lot.

After all, they were siblings that were the same age. They were inseparable.

She assured, “Don’t worry, Uncle Lefting, I won’t mention it to Mommy at all, but when can I see Joshua?”

"Give me a call when you want to see him."

"Okay!"

Winnie walked out of the kitchen and asked, "Nicole, what are you two talking about? Why are you acting so secretively?"

Aurum answered, "It's nothing. Nicole wanted my number, so I'm giving it to her to remember."

"She's just a kid. It's easy for her to forget things. Why don't you just save it on my phone?" Winnie said, handing the phone over. "Mr. Lefting, here."

Aurum was a bit surprised. Why was Winnie so polite to him?

Winnie was not even afraid of Shawn at that moment!

Aurum deliberately said, "I can save it, but will you let Nicole call me?"

"Mr. Lefting, why would I stop her? When we have the time, I can bring Nicole to your place to visit too."

Aurum was Natalie's fiance.

Winnie only got so far, thanks to Natalie. Natalie loved Aurum so much as well, so she naturally needed to be respectful to Natalie.

She would rather offend Natalie herself than Aurum.

Natalie was someone who really protected her husband!

Aurum glanced at Natalie, not saying anything else.

Very quickly, he walked out of the ward. Gale immediately walked over. "What did you say to Nicole? How did she react?"

Aurum emphasized, "She remembers me. She remembers the theme park as well. She remembered everything."

Gale's eyes glinted.

It was obvious that Nicole remembered Joshua as well!

Chapter 817

However, Shawn was right beside them, so Aurum and Gale could not say anything!

Looking into Gale's eyes, Aurum said, "However, you don't have to worry. It's good that Nicole remembers everything. It means she's not confused in any other way. She's still acting quite normally."

Gale was in a panic, not knowing what to ask.

What about Joshua?

What if Nicole mentioned Joshua in front of Winnie?

Was her beloved son that she hid so well going to be exposed?!

Gale responded, "T-that's true. She remembers everything except me."

"Nicole will remember you, Gale. I'll take my leave now."

Aurum shot her a meaningful look before he turned around.

"I'll send you off. Thank you for coming to visit Nicole." Gale followed him, understanding what he meant.

Aurum purposely acted polite. "No need, no need. There's no need for you to do that."

Shawn looked at the two of them and pursed his lips.

He had just been about to say something when Gale said, "Then I should at least send you to the elevator."

Shawn was forced to agree to that.

The elevator was just at the end of the corridor. Shawn could see everything!

Aurum and Gale left together.

The two of them lowered their voices as they spoke.

"Mr. Lefting, did Nicole ask about Joshua?"

"She did."

Gale said, "That's not good! If she mentions Joshua to Winnie, then everything's done for! What do we do? Mr. Lefting, why don't I have Zoe go somewhere else to hide with Joshua right now?"

Aurum answered, "Joshua is at my home right now."

“What?” Gale was incredibly surprised. “He didn’t leave?”

“He did not. I was planning on telling you after Nicole’s surgery. For one thing, Joshua doesn’t want to go back. Secondly, there’s no point in him going back either. I can’t believe...”

The best laid plans of mice and men often go awry.

Nicole had mistaken Winnie for her mother, throwing everything into disarray!

Gale bit her lips. “I’m relieved that Joshua is with you. I’m just worried about that...”

“Winnie won’t find out that Nicole has a twin brother. I purposely told Nicole to not mention Joshua at all.” “How did you tell Nicole? In her heart, Winnie is her mother. She will share anything with Winnie!” Seeing as the elevator was right in front of them, Aurum had no time to explain everything.

Aurum answered, “Gale, don’t worry. I guarantee you that Nicole won’t say anything. Just make sure you don’t accidentally let it slip too. If you look at it another way, even if anything happens, Joshua is with me. I won’t let anyone take him away!”

Gale looked at Aurum. “Thank you, truly. Thank you so much. If you weren’t around, I really wouldn’t know what to do.”

If she lost Joshua after losing Nicole, she would definitely go crazy!

“Leave Joshua to me. Just focus all your attention on Nicole.”

“Yes!”

Aurum entered the elevator and waved at her.

Gale stood in place, stunned. The elevator had already left, but she was still there.

Shawn’s voice was suddenly heard. “Are you so unhappy that Aurum is gone?”

Even if he did his best to make it sound casual, the jealousy and unhappiness were incredibly evident.

Gale looked exhausted. “I’m just thinking about some things. Shawn, not every man that’s close to me likes me. Can you not let your imagination run wild?”

Chapter 818

She respected and appreciated Aurum. It was something she would never be able to repay in her lifetime.

“Galey, how do you know Aurum doesn’t like you?”

“He has a fiancée!”

Shawn pursed his lips. “Natalie and he haven’t gotten married after so many years. Who knows what he’s thinking.”

“They’re getting married at the end of the year.”

“We still don’t know if that’s actually happening.”

Gale felt like she could not communicate with Shawn.

He was just such a jealous man!

She turned around and left. “If you have the time to let your imagination run wild like this, think about how you’re going to get Nicole away from Winnie!”

“The nurse just entered the ward.”

Gale’s footsteps stopped.

At the ward, the nurse changed Nicole’s liquids. Before too long, Nicole rubbed her eyes. “Mommy, sleepy

“Alright, sleep then. I’ll be here.”

Nicole quickly fell asleep.

Winnie had just been about to adjust the air conditioning to a higher temperature so Nicole would not catch a cold when the door suddenly opened.

Shawn walked right in, heading for the bed.

“Mr. Wood, what are you doing?” Winnie immediately stopped him. “Nicole just fell asleep!”

Shawn did not even bother sparing her a glance as he continued walking forward, easily pushing her aside!

Winnie stumbled and fell on the ground.

The doctors and nurses rushed inside, quickly pushing Nicole away on her bed!

“Nicole!” Winnie shouted, running over. “Why are you bringing Nicole away? Stop right there. You can’t do this!”

She wanted to stop the doctors, but Shawn pulled her back before she could.

No matter how Winnie struggled, she could do nothing against Shawn’s strength!

Very quickly, Nicole disappeared from sight. She was asleep the whole time, showing no signs of waking

Winnie shouted, “What did you do to Nicole?! She’s still a child, but you actually did this to her! She didn’t wake up despite everything that happened? Mr. Wood, that’s your daughter. Your own flesh and blood!”

Shawn looked at her coldly. “What gives you the right to lecture me?”

“What gives you the right to bring Nicole away? Why did she look unconscious?!”

Shawn said, “She is off to get an examination. She’ll be back in the room after that, why are you panicking so much?”

Winnie was so emotional. Anyone who did not know the truth would actually think that Nicole was her real daughter!

In truth, she just wanted to pull her tricks!

Winnie said, “Nicole relies on me a lot. She can’t leave me. If she doesn’t see me when she wakes up. she’ll cry!”

“She won’t wake up for the moment.”

“I knew it! The nurse must have added something to the liquids earlier, right?!”

She was incredibly emotional as if Shawn and Gale would hurt Nicole.

The ones who were the least likely to hurt Nicole in the world were those two!

“You don’t have to care about that.” Gale looked at Winnie coldly. “Winnie, what’s stolen won’t last long. Nicole will wake up one day and recognize me as her mother. I’m warning you, you'd better just give up right now. I can still consider letting you live if you do!"

Winnie laughed out loud. "What? Letting me live? Gale, please think about it properly. You should be begging me right now, not the other way around!"

Chapter 819

"I assure you. As long as you can ensure that Nicole returns to normal, I'll let you leave Sea City. I'll give you a sum of money that you can live the rest of your life freely and without any worries with! I'll definitely do it!"

Winnie had a look of disdain on her face. "Do you think you can chase me away so easily?"

"Then what do you want?!"

"I want to be Mrs. Wood!" Winnie raised her chin proudly. "I want to marry into a noble family. I want my children to be exceptional people in the future who stand above everyone else!"

She truly was ambitious!

Gale said, "Winnie, you should learn to be happy with what you have. Aren't you afraid you'll lose everything in the end?"

"I still have Nicole. If I can't survive anymore, then Nicole will die with me too!"

Gale was shocked. "Don't you dare!"

"Just wait and see if I will. You'd better make sure I live a comfortable life. Otherwise, Nicole will suffer more than I do!" Winnie laughed and said, "You said you'll let me leave Sea City? What lies. I won't believe it!

The moment she lost Nicole, Shawn would definitely kill her immediately. She would die in the most horrible way possible!

Let her go? Give her money?

Those were all hilarious!

Winnie was forced to hold onto Nicole tightly. She had no other choice!

She refused to listen to anything at that moment. Nothing would make her budge

Shawn and Gale could do nothing about Winnie at that moment.

They could not do anything to her either, and it really frustrated them!

Gale clenched her teeth. "Continue being pleased with yourself then. Nicole will wake up eventually. It's a matter of time!"

"Ha, I know. You're getting the doctors to do a full body check up on Nicole. Go ahead and check, you won't find anything!"

Gale could not stand looking at Winnie anymore and turned around to leave.

It would only anger herself even more!

Outside the room Nicole was in, Winnie stood in a corner, being held back by the guards.

Shawn and Gale stood at the entrance, waiting for the final results.

Yet, the results had greatly disappointed them.

The doctor said, "We've looked into Miss Nicole's body in detail, including her brain. We haven't noticed anything strange. All signs seem very normal, and the surgery was very successful. Her body is recovering well too."

Gale's body swayed. "Then why can't she recognize me?"

"I don't know either. The human brain is very complex. Our current medical procedures are only able to check a very small part."

"Is there no other way?"

The doctor shook his head. "There's nothing we can do at the moment. We'll have to take it one step at a time. Let Ms. Nicole recover first before we deal with the me*tal aspects."

After all, Nicole seemed normal in every other way other than not recognizing Gale.

She recognized Aurum, remembered the theme park and knew she had a twin brother, Joshua.

"It's possible that..." The doctor thought about it before saying, "You and Ms. Nightingale look too similar. It might have triggered some me*tal responses in Ms. Nicole's brain and caused her to be confused."

There were only possibilities but no solutions. It was just a waste of time.

Gale was miserable again.

When Nicole was pushed out, she gently touched Nicole's face. "Nicole, when will you come back to me?"

She was only able to get close when Nicole was asleep.

When Nicole woke up, Nicole would only be afraid of her, hiding from her behind Winnie's back and looking at her with alarm.

It was as if she was some evil woman.

It was possible that Winnie had deliberately told Nicole that Gale was a bad woman who planned on taking Shawn away and ruining their family.

Just thinking about it made Gale feel depressed.

Chapter 820

"Uncle Lefting!" The moment Aurum walked in, Joshua ran out. "You're back? Are you tired? Let me make you some tea and massage your legs and tell you stories and turn the TV on..."

Joshua's mouth really was a rare talent.

He did not even seem to need to breathe.

Normally, Aurum would joke around with him, but Aurum was in no mood that day.

Joshua asked, "Did you see Nicole? Is she better? Is the surgery successful? What about my mommy? Is she tired? Did she get skinner? When can I see the two of them?"

Aurum looked at him with a serious expression.

Joshua's smile slowly disappeared. His face turned incredibly serious as well. "What is it, Uncle Lefting. Did something happen?"

"Yes."

Joshua was suddenly incredibly anxious. "Who's mistreating them? Tell me now. I'll go help them!"

Aurum picked Joshua up and put Joshua on his leg, telling Joshua everything.

At that moment, he did not treat Joshua as a little kid. Instead, he seriously told Joshua everything, analyzing the situation in great detail.

Aurum even told Joshua why Gale did not let Joshua recognize his father and wanted Joshua to go back.

Joshua understood everything.

Joshua was always smart.

Joshua said, "So that's it. Mommy only has me now. I'm her final hope. If everyone knows whose son I am, I might be like Nicole one day, calling someone else my parents."

"Yes, Gale's very careful. She's making contingencies for everything. So, Joshua, it's not that she doesn't love you. It's the opposite. She loves you too much."

Joshua answered, "I understand! I don't blame mommy. I just want her to get Nicole back as soon as she can!"

Aurum had a difficult look on his face. "It might not be that easy."

Joshua rubbed his chin and said, "We still need to figure something out. What can I do?"

Aurum was deep in thought as well.

After a while, he frowned.

Quickly, he called the housekeeper over.

"Mr. Lefting, The housekeeper said respectfully, "Do you need anything?"

"A few days ago, did a crazy looking lady pass by nearby?"

"A crazy lady?"

Aurum nodded. "Yes, a crazy lady that kept muttering crazy words and scavenged the rubbish bins."

The housekeeper thought about it and said, "I think there was. It's just that the guards chased her away."

"Chased her away? Where to?"

"You'd have to ask the guards."

Aurum immediately gathered all the guards.

"Who saw that crazy woman?"

One of the guards raised their hands.

"You?" Aurum asked, "Where did you chase her away to? When did you do that? When did you last see her?"

The guard was just about to answer when Natalia suddenly walked in from the backdoor. "Aurum?" Winnie was confused when she saw all the guards together. "What are you doing?"

She looked over at Joshua next to Aurum.

Why was it that child again?

She had seen him so many times!

This time, Aurum was even holding his hand. They seemed very close.

Aurum asked her, "Natalie, you came at just the right time. You've always been in charge in the household. Did you see a crazy lady walking around recently?" +
