Chapter 1011 The Rho Guild's Mission Is Settled

On the outskirts of the city, the aircraft slowly descended into the sky.

Instead of flying straight into the City of Phoenix, it slowly landed in the air outside the city. After it reached a certain height, the hatch opened, and Gerald and the others. jumped straight down from the aircraft.

After landing steadily on the ground, Gerald raised his head and looked up to the sky.

The aircraft ascended again and slowly left.

This location was almost on the outskirts of the City of Phoenix, and some buildings were still brightly lit.

After Gerald and the others landed on the ground, he took out his phone and looked at it. He frowned and said, "Their signal hasn't lit up yet. They should not have arrived yet."

It would take about two days to get from Ries City to the City of Phoenix.

And the phone could be used for communication in the City of Phoenix and its suburbs.

In fact, they had only left Ries City for more than a day. Gerald guessed that Triston and the others would be able to reach the City of Phoenix tomorrow after Milford Thornton.

"Shall we wait outside?" Carolyn asked.

"Let's go to the City of Phoenix," Gerald said. "Find a hotel to stay in first. Then, I'll pay a visit to the Rho Guild."

Valery Manning and Carolyn nodded. "All right!"

"Let's go find a hotel first!" Gerald took out the number plate of upper-class people and wore it on his chest.

With this, entering the City of Phoenix could avoid a lot of trouble.

They successfully entered the city and checked in two rooms. This time, Gerald and Valery lived together officially. After all, they were husband and wife.

This made Carolyn depressed for a while!

After checking in, Gerald walked out alone, took a public car, and rushed towards Neo

99.52%

Kent's auto repair shop.

When they arrived at the auto repair shop, the old man in front of the car repair shop saw Gerald coming, and a trace of surprise appeared on his face. Then, he opened the door for him.

Gerald greeted him and headed straight to the second floor where Neo Kent lived.

Soon, Neo saw Gerald on the second floor. A hint of excitement flashed across his face. as he greeted, "Gerald!"

"It's been a while!" Gerald smiled.

"Yeah, you disappeared after the turmoil in the City of Phoenix. I almost thought something happened to you." Neo Kent said.

Gerald smiled and said, "I've been away from the City of Phoenix for some time. Are busy now? If you're not, come with me to Rho Guild!"

"No matter how busy I am, I still have to go with you!" Neo said with a smile.

Gerald was simply his cash cow, and he had brought him a considerable profit during that period.

His income had plummeted during Gerald's absence, and he missed the days when Gerald was still around.

Back then, whenever Gerald visited the Rho Guild, he would have a good income.

"Let's go!" He simply cleaned up and stood up voluntarily.

As usual, Gerald and Kenneth had their eyes glued to each other after they got into the car. The car spun around and stopped half an hour later. Gerald put on his mask and got out of the car.

This time, there were quite a few people in the mission hall of Rho Guild.

Those people looked over with a trace of surprise and fear on their faces!

"That person is Nec Kent, right?"

"It seems so. The person beside him is the Watchman No. 0 who completed the level-S 00 545 missions one after another?"

"A high probability."

"He should be the first person in Rho Guild's end of year meeting this year, the number one killer?"

There was a heated discussion.

Apparently, Gerald's reputation had spread in Rho Guild after he completed the level-S missions one after another.

Neo, who had Gerald and Kenneth with him, naturally became famous as well.

Just as Gerald was about to settle the task at the destination, a sexy staff member walked up to him and said, "Mr. Zero, the chief wants to see you."

"Huh? He knows I'm here?" Gerald asked in surprise.

"The chief said that when you show up at the Rho Guild, you should just go and meet him." The staff member smiled faintly and leaned closer to Gerald as if he was taking the initiative to show goodwill.

Gerald frowned and took the initiative to avoid it.

After all, it was different now. He had a wife.

"Neo Kent, wait a moment. I'm going to see the chief!" Gerald said.

At the same time, a sneer appeared in his heart.

The Herman family of Rho Guild was the descendant of Nether Palace.

He had asked them about Nether Palace before, and Cohn had kept his mouth shut at that time. Now that he remembered, Cohn's answer at that time was a bit interesting.

At that time, Cohn told Gerald not to ask about it, which was a taboo.

The automatic door kept opening, and Gerald walked into the room behind him.

In the room, Cohn was sitting there with a cup of hot coffee in front of him.

"It's been a while!" When he saw Gerald, he smiled and stood up. "What would drink?"

Gerald sat down and looked toward the dark corner of the room. Shadow walked out in darkness and nodded slightly as a greeting to him.

“There’s no need for that. I’m here to hand over the task. You promised me before that when we collaborated, as long as the person in our charge died, we would pay the bonus. to me. In this month, you should sort it out, right?” Gerald said.

“Yes!” Cohn laughed loudly. “The last cooperation was really exciting. I guessed that there would be some people behind you, but I didn’t expect it to be so powerful, and now it directly caused the Quintin family to slump. The number has been settled. A total of one Supreme Flame Decayer, four ordinary Flame Decayers, and there are dozens of people at the peak of the Half-Step Flame Decay and Half-Step Flame Decayer. The bonus will be calculated as twenty-five to twenty-five million dollars.”

Gerald’s expression changed slightly.

The reward for the Supreme Flame Decayer was about a billion, and the others added up to so many Half-Step Flame Decayers and so on, and they only had so little money.

He thought about it carefully. It was better to be a bodyguard for the Pierce family to make money. The Pierce family was really rich.

Gerald nodded. “Yes.”

“Are you going to take on another mission this time?” asked Cohn.

“Of course!” Gerald smiled.

Cohn knew Gerald’s name, but he had never seen his face before. After all, Gerald always wore his mask when he came to Rho Guild.

“Are you interested in making a big deal out of it?” Cohn licked his lips and said, “The foundation of the Four Ancient Families is unstable now. During that time, you have reduced the number of the Four Ancient Families by more than a dozen. As far as I know, Nathaniel Ingram took another Pioneer team deep into the Nebula. There are not many masters of the Four Ancient Families now, and I can join forces with several families. Maybe... we can directly attack them!”

Gerald looked at Cohn in surprise.

If it were in the past, he would have brought Rho Guild with him on this mission.

However, ever since he found out that Rho Guild was a descendant of Nether Palace, he had given up on this plan. He didn't want to have too much entanglement with the people of Nether Palace.

"I don't have that plan for the time being." Gerald smiled faintly and stood up. "If there's nothing else, I'll go out first."

Cohn nodded and said, "Okay!"

After Gerald and Kenneth left, there was a hint of thoughtfulness in Cohn's eyes.

Shadow walked over and said in a deep voice, "He actually refused."

"It doesn't matter. When he continues to hunt some people from the Four Ancient Families, we'll be the finches in the end!" Cohn said with a smile.

Chapter 1012 Establishment of the Night Watch Branch

While Gerald was settling the task, Neo was also settling his own commission.

When the task was settled, he looked at the extra commission in his account, and he was dumbfounded.

This time, he received a commission of nearly 1.5 million golorbs.

Five Flame Decayer masters were naturally counted as five level-S missions, and in that battle, Gerald and Kenneth also defeated dozens of half-step Flame Decayers and the people at the peak of the level of half-step Flame Decay. Although the commission was not much, the number of them was quite large. In total, he directly increased by more than one million!

“What has this guy done these days? Why does he have so much more to do all of a sudden?” While feeling ecstatic, Neo stared suspiciously at Gerald, who was taking over the task in the distance.

“This mission is settled. Could it be that the turmoil in the City of Phoenix had something to do with Gerald Kenneth?” Neo Kent asked suspiciously.

Of course, he was a smart man and didn’t ask too much.

Gerald was picking out a new mission on the mission panel.

Naturally, his target was the supreme Flame Decayer of the Four Ancient Families. This time, he planned to choose two supreme Flame Decayers, and one ordinary Flame Decayer!

He and Carolyn should be certain that the two ordinary Supreme Flame Decayers would end.

If it was an ordinary fire Decayer, it would be quite safe to deal with it with Valery Manning, Triston Beck, and Claude.

His eyes fell on the fifth place of the level-S mission.

Yadiel Cruz, Supreme Flame Decayer, one of the two pillars of the City of Phoenix. The eighth place of the City of Phoenix Flame Decayer list, the Flame Decayer attribute is the wind attribute, which is used very well.

Mission Reward: 1.32 billion golorbs and 50 thousand points!

There were seven supreme Flame Decayers from the City of Phoenix and the Four Ancient Families. Apart from the fact that there was only one supreme Flame Decayer in the Quintin family, the other families were actually quite balanced.

Gerald had dealt with the Ingram family and the Guerrero family. Naturally, Gerald's gaze fell on the Cruz family.

Other than that, the other supreme Flame Decayers were the heads of the families.

After Gerald accepted the mission, he licked his lips and looked at Jovanni.

Jovanni Cruz, the head of the Cruz family of the Cruz of Phoenix, supreme Flame Decayer, ranked fourth on the City of Phoenix Flame Decayer List, second only to Sauven Guerrero, Nathaniel Ingram, and Leon Ingersoll. The attribute is the wind attribute.

Mission Reward: 1.45 billion golorbs and 100 thousand points!

Gerald gulped.

In fact, he had always had a question!

Although the Sauven was the best fighter in the City of Phoenix, their mission rewards were not very high. There were only 0.5 billion golorbs, and almost every one of them.

was much higher than the Sawven Guerrero. However, in terms of mission points, the Sawven Guerrero was the highest, reaching one million points!

As for what was going on with the bonus, Gerald decided not to mention Yair anymore.

He did not think much of it. Looking at Jovanni's name, he clicked on it and accepted the task.

In the following month, he planned to completely eliminate the two Supreme Flame

Decayers of the Cruz family.

When the war started, only Arvin and Sauven Guerrero from the Four Ancient Families were left. They had an absolute advantage in quality.

Then, he took on another task at the Flame Decayer-level. After that, he left Rho Guild with Neo.

Just as Gerald and Kenneth were leaving, a sexy staff member walked into Cohn's room.

"What task did he take on?" Cohn asked.

The staff said in a trembling voice, "He has taken on three missions in total, two of which are the assassination missions of the supreme Flame Decayer."

"Huh? Assassinate whom?" Cohn narrowed his eyes.

"There are two Supreme Flame Decayers from the Fosters, one is Yadiel Cruz, and one is Jovanni Cruz," said the employee.

Cohn could not sit still any longer.

Gerald had just arrived at the City of Phoenix and was only assigned to a level-S ordinary Flame Decayer. Soon, he joined Shadow and the others to assassinate the supreme Flame Decayer.

At that time, they were sure Gerald and Kenneth had not reached the level of Supreme.

Flame Decayer yet.

Later on, Gerald entered the Quintin residence alone and killed two Flame Decayers. One of them, Supreme Flame Decayer, escaped death after being hunted down by the Sauven

Guerrero.

But these two missions had cooperation.

This time, Gerald directly took over the tasks of the two Supreme Flame Decayers.

"It seems that... his power is not simple!" Cohn said slowly with a sigh of relief.

"Do you want to investigate him?" Shadow asked.

"Forget it." Cohn shook his head and said, "Don't alert the enemy. Now that the Lord of Death is about to make a move, we just need to hide in the shadows."

Shadow was silent for a long time before he disappeared into the darkness next to him.

When Gerald returned to the repair shop, he bade farewell to Neo and returned to the hotel.

After the incident at Underground Palace, he roasted the game all night and then rushed to Rime City. It had been more than two days since he had slept. When he returned to the hotel, he simply washed up and fell asleep with Valery in his arms.

It was a silent night.

Gerald was woken up by the phone the next day.

The robotic voice of the phone kept ringing in Gerald's ears, "Jacob's calling, do you want to answer it? Jacob's calling, do you want to answer it?"

Gerald opened his eyes and said, "Answer the call!"

After the call was connected, Jacob's excited voice resounded through the phone, "Gerald Kenneth, you've arrived at the City of Phoenix? Are you guys okay?"

“Yes.” Gerald nodded. “The three of us have returned home safely, and we’ve also learned a lot from our trip. Are you guys here yet? Let’s find a place to have a meeting. I have a few things to announce.”

Jacob nodded and said, “Okay, we just arrived here the suburbs and saw that your phone was on. So we called you directly. Let’s go to Abandoned Land first and meet at the place where we lived before!”

“Okay!” Gerald nodded.

An hour later, more than a dozen people were sitting in a courtyard in Abandoned Land!

Apart from Audrey, Charles, who had been staying in the City of Phoenix, had also arrived.

Gerald let out a long sigh when he knew Audrey had left.

However, he thought it might be a good thing. It would be troublesome if there were casualties in a war together. Audrey was half-step Flame Decayer, so it shouldn’t be a big problem for her to protect herself.

Gerald glanced at them and said, “I have two things to say here.”

“We escaped death in Underground Palace this time, but the matter of Carolyn and Dragon Bone and Phoenix Bone has been completely exposed. Fortunately, the alcoholic we met before saved us. We should be safe for three years. With the help of Underground Palace, we have made a big breakthrough! Carolyn and I have reached the highest level of Flame Decay, and Valery has also successfully broken through!” Gerald said.

“Fuck!” Triston’s eyes turned green when he heard this!

“If I had known earlier, I wouldn’t have left. Maybe I could have become the supreme Flame Decayer,” he said with a sad face.

The first time they came to the Havotune, they were all at the peak of Half-Step Flame Decay!

Later, Gerald and Carolyn broke through at Corona Pool. This time, they went to Underground Palace and broke through again, but Triston was not there!

If Gerald and everyone else went to Underground Palace this time, Theo and the others would have a chance to break through the ranks of Flame Decayer.

However, Gerald did not dare to take the risk. In order to ensure their safety, he had to let them leave first.

Gerald smiled and said, “I have two announcements to make. The first one is!”

Gerald licked his lips and said, “I’ve decided to fight the Four Ancient Families in a month’s time!”

“Huh?” Everyone became serious.

There was a crazy look of excitement on their faces.

The Earth had been defending for a hundred years, and it was finally time for a counterattack!

Gerald continued, “Secondly, I plan to establish a branch in Night Watch of the City of Phoenix within this month.”

Chapter 1013 Establishment of the Night Watch Branch 2

After Gerald announced two things, Jacob's expression suddenly became solemn.

He looked at Gerald and asked, "Don't you think it's too rushed?"

"We may have an advantage in cutting-edge combat, but no matter what, there are still more than twenty Flame Decayers in the Four Ancient Families now, and the number of people in the Four Ancient Families is extremely large. If we want to destroy them, we have to at least exterminate all the upper levels of the Four Ancient Families. They hold a large number of secrets of the Earth and its coordinates. If some of them leave, things will be difficult for the Earth!"

"And we don't have enough manpower!" Jacob said.

"So I'm working with the Pierce family in Rime City to do this. The Pierce family will block the entrance of each city and keep the Four Ancient Families from going out." Gerald said, "Although we don't have a large number of people, as long as we finish the Flame Decayer, the rest will be much easier. So I think it's workable. Now that the Four Ancient Families have suffered serious losses, maybe the matter of Nathaniel Ingram hasn't been spread back yet. Once the Four Ancient Families feel that something is wrong and find that they can't attack the Earth, they... are likely to unite with other big forces."

"After thinking about it, I think it's feasible to improve my strength, but the number of people is much lower. So I have to rely on the power of the Pierce family in Rime City," Gerald said.

“Gerald, Kenneth, there’s a problem!” Jacob said, “If you’re not from my clan, you must have a different mindset. I’m worried that the people in Rime City are not trustworthy.

What if-”

“That’s why I asked them to block the entrance of the city. We won’t enter the City of Phoenix until the matter is over!” Gerald said, “Even if we go to the Earth to gather reinforcements and bring all the Night Watches here, the quantity and quality are far from enough. We must make a bet!”

Everyone fell silent upon hearing Gerald’s words.

“I agree!” At this time, Triston said.

“Retreat!”

“Retreat!”

Jacob nodded and said, “Retreat!”

“The second thing is to establish a branch in Night Watch of the City of Phoenix!” Gerald said, “We can’t give up on Yvotune because there is still a Nether Palace. The letter from Aarav says that Nether Palace will definitely attack the Earth again in the future.

Although we don’t know the reason, we have to prepare in advance. We have to cultivate our power in advance!”

This matter was confirmed before he came, so everyone unanimously approved it.

Gerald said, “Of course, this time, the Night Watch in the city can’t be that simple. After the City of Phoenix is taken, we will use the City of Phoenix as the foundation. In the early stage of the Night Watch, only recruit some trustworthy and capable people, or you can train them slowly by yourself. This process needs to be selected.”

When they were on Earth, the way to join Night Watch was actually very strange.

Due to the fact that Night Watches were not made public to ordinary people, most of them had taken measures to train the soldiers and Night Watch, either signed a confidentiality agreement with them or directly absorbed them into Night Watch in order not to be exposed.

For example, whoever met the Elite Ghost, or who saw the battle between the Elite Ghost.

After that, he would slowly cultivate them.

This also led to the quality of Night Watch, which had always been good or bad.

However, Gerald had no plans to do so in this world. He wanted to focus on his elite troops.

At first, it was mainly the people in Abandoned Land.

He was not worried about talent.

They had their own advantages. After taking over the City of Phoenix, they would abandon the system of the City of Phoenix completely in a different way. In the City of

Phoenix, they would completely abandon the difference between the upper-class people and lower-class people.

This would affect the interests of some families and forces, but Gerald and Kenneth didn't care.

After the disintegration of the Four Ancient Families, no one else was to be feared.

Moreover, once the system was implemented, it would definitely attract a large number of lower-class people to the city. They would become attached to Night Watch because they would only be treated like this in this city.

Once the number increased, it would be easier to pick talented people.

After a few years, he should be able to train a large number of direct descendants of Night Watch.

Of course, in order to maintain law and order in the City of Phoenix, other departments must also be established.

However, Gerald was not good at this. He still felt that he was more suitable to be a saber. Talents like Jacob Eden and Zackary Benjamin were good at governance.

Gerald looked at Jacob and said, "After the establishment of the Night Watch, you will be the person in charge here."

"Hmm? What about you?" Jacob asked.

"Of course, I'm Watchman No. 0!" Gerald replied with a chuckle.

"I'm still Watchman No. 2!" Carolyn added.

"Your strength should be Watchman No. 1!" Triston frowned and said.

Gerald shook his head and said, "Watchman No. 1 is always the dark horse of the Night Watch. This position belongs to Mr. Dominic."

Stunned, Charles opened his mouth but did not refuse.

One by one, the numbers began to line up, and the rules were naturally the same as those of Earth, divided by strength or weakness.

The branch of the Night Watch of the City of Phoenix was also beginning to be established.

Jacob Eden had a lot of things to do in the next month. He would slowly announce it in the game, continue his speech in the Abandoned Land, and pick some trustworthy people to fill in the Night Watch.

After confirming the two things, Gerald breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Also, Hector Ingram, I'm afraid I'll have to trouble you for a while."

"Huh?" Hector nodded and said, "Go ahead!"

"I'm afraid you'll have to go back to Earth again to pick up Blaine and some of his elders. Also, Zackary, I only believe that Zackary can handle the aftermath of the war." Gerald said, "They have fought with Elite Ghost for hundreds of years, and countless comrades-in-arms and brothers have died at the hands of Elite Ghost. I hope they can see the destruction of the Four Ancient Families with their own eyes."

Hector was stunned for a moment, then nodded and said, "Okay! I'll go now!"

The time was urgent, and it would take a month to go back and forth from the Havotune, so he didn't make a stop and set off straight away!

The meeting was over!

After the meeting ended, Gerald told Carolyn and the others about the task he had received.

On the other hand, Jacob immediately went to find those people he had chosen to continue his speech when he left to learn about the current situation in Abandoned Land.

When everything was going according to plan, Charles stood up and said, "Gerald, I have something to talk to you alone!"

Gerald was stunned for a moment before nodding.

The two of them walked to a secluded corner. Gerald asked, "What's wrong? Did something happen recently?"

the half-step Flame Decay.

It was actually quite difficult to break through the level of Flame Decayer.

Charles nodded and said, "Yes! It's about Hector Ingram."

"Hector Ingram?" Gerald looked at him in surprise.

Charles had always felt that Hector Ingram was not trustworthy. When he went to the Four Ancient Families' hotel to help, he had reminded Gerald Kenneth to be careful of Hector Ingram.

"I've never believed in this person." Charles said in a deep voice, "During this time, I've been investigating about Hector Ingram's murder back then, but after I got the information, there was a big difference between the story that Hector Ingram told us!"

"Huh? What do you mean?" Gerald asked.

"Other experiences are actually similar. He did come from a branch of the Ingram family. He is talented, but he is not welcomed," said Charles Dominic. "But the real reason why he was hunted down was actually... because he discovered a big secret from the Four Ancient Families."

Chapter 1014 Crisis

Gerald's expression changed abruptly. "Are you telling the truth?"

"I've secretly investigated it, and that's most likely what's going on." Charles said, "This is not just the result of investigating a person. Although a hundred years have passed, Hector Ingram's incident at the beginning has become a hot topic in the City of Phoenix, and many people know about it.

"So you think he's lying to us?" Gerald asked.

"Obviously, he's lying." Charles said faintly, "I have never believed in this person. No matter how good his relationship with Blaine is and how much he helps us these days, it can't change the fact that he is not our family. In this world, the family background is too deep. If he is not our family, his heart will be different. There may be intersection and cooperation in benefits, but it is normal to pull the saber out of the way under unequal benefits.”

With that, he said calmly, “In short, at this stage, apart from our successful development of Night Watch, I won’t believe anyone else except the people on Earth!”.

Gerald said in a deep voice, “What you said makes sense. In the vast universe, he escaped at will and happened to flee to the earth. It doesn’t make sense, and the Four Ancient Families happen to know the coordinates of the earth and build a wasteland here.”

Gerald frowned. “Then, he found out about the existence of Burial Ground.”

After thinking about it, he also felt that Hector Ingram might have problems himself.

“Do you think Hector Ingram knows the secret of the four Ancient Families about the Earth, and he is just a collateral branch person? The Four Ancient Families wanted to shut him up, but he broke through the Flame Decayer in order to get their branch together, and then...” Charles Dominic said in a deep voice, “He went to the Earth for the Burial Ground as well.”

“There’s no point for us to speculate here.” Gerald continued, “No matter what, he has helped us a few times. The first full invasion of Elite Ghost, the second full invasion of Elite Ghost, including the opening of the Burial Ground, these are all benefits to the earth! We can’t be too suspicious just because of speculation, and of course, we have to guard against it.”

Charles nodded and said, “That’s what I’m reminding you. Be careful of him.”

Gerald nodded. “Yes, I understand. I have one more thing to entrust to you. Only Jacob and I know about this.”

“Huh?” Gerald said in a deep voice, “After the City of Phoenix is recovered, you start to set up the City of Phoenix Dark Net... You will be in charge of this matter. The purpose of the Dark Web is very simple. It is responsible for collecting all information about the City of Phoenix. When there is enough information, it will spread to the world of Havotune.”

Charles pondered for a moment and said, “I’m in charge of Dark Web? Then I won’t establish it as Watchman No. 1...”

“I plan to let Watchman No. 1’s army overlap with Dark Net,” Gerald said. “absolute masters are the most important. Or you can train some people yourself.”

“Got it!” Charles said, “I’m afraid it will take a little too much time.”

“To make plans for the future, I established Night Watch and formed an organization. It’s impossible to say that we will achieve it overnight. If we win this battle, then for countless lower-class people, they will definitely rely on us and trust us. We can select someone from this group to train them,” Gerald said.

Charles nodded and said, “As long as you’re not in a hurry!”

Gerald smiled. After discussing with Charles for a while, he nodded and said, “That’s it.”

“Then I’ll go back to the restaurant directly. I’ve been out for quite a long time this time.”

Charles said.

After bidding farewell to Charles, Gerald returned to his room.

The others did not ask what Charles had said to Gerald and Kenneth alone.

Carolyn asked, "Next, are we going to do the mission?"

Gerald nodded. "Yes! This time, the two supreme Flame Decayers. I'll be in charge of Jovanni and you'll be in charge of Yadiel. Valery, please cooperate with Claude in killing.

the last person. I'll leave the place for their recent activities to you!"

Gerald continued in a deep voice, "One month. We can take our time. There's no need to rush. We don't want to alert the enemy."

"Okay!" Carolyn replied.

Everything was going according to plan in the following days.

Gerald would go to the Zeller residence every day to wait for the opportunity. Jovanni had not gone out for quite a while.

Jacob Eden began to announce it in his game guild, but most people didn't take what he said seriously.

In the game, it was enough for everyone to unite and be fair. It was simply impossible to build such a country in reality.

What did lower-class people mean? They were all below the super level.

In this world, it's just a group of idiots. No matter how many people you have, if you gather hundreds of millions of people, a purple Elite Ghost will be able to kill them all!

They didn't believe what Jacob Eden was going to do, and those they believed didn't dare to come over!

In contrast, there was a sense of excitement in the entire Abandoned Land.

In Abandoned Land, most of them felt like they were walking corpses. When Gerald and Kenneth first arrived, they were not afraid of death.

Under Jacob Eden's brainwashing attack, the entire Abandoned Land had a sense of excitement. Once the war started, the people in the Abandoned Land would also be involved.

Just like that, more than ten days passed!

Claude had successfully completed his mission that day. He had killed one of Flame Decayers.

As for Gerald and Carolyn, they did not have the time to make a move.

For some unknown reason, Jovanni had been staying at home the whole time. Meanwhile, Carson's situation was similar.

Of course, Gerald and Kenneth were not in a hurry either. They were not that worried if they could solve the problem.

The worst that could happen was to wait until the war started before starting.

Just as Gerald and Kenneth were getting ready, in a dilapidated house in the Abandoned Land of the City of Phoenix.

A young man was sitting there with a hint of anticipation on his face.

There were several other people in the room.

"uncle!" The teenager looked at the old man next to him and asked, "How is it? Now that the Abandoned Land is buzzing, is it true that they will start a war with the Four Ancient Families?"

"So what if it's true?" The old man sighed and said, "Do you think the news didn't leak out because it's so popular in Abandoned Land?"

"But why haven't the Four Ancient Families paid attention to it at all so far?" The old man.

looked at the young man and asked.

"This..." There was a hint of reluctance on the young man's face.

"Because in the eyes of the Four Ancient Families, places like Abandoned Land are just a place where rubbish gathers." The old man said disdainfully, "If they want to start a war, a Flame Decayer can directly suppress them.

“But I went to the speech two days ago, and I was really excited. I want to fight with them. If I win, I can also take my people back to the Red Moon!” the teenager said.

“If that’s the case, I think we can do it in another way!” The old man suddenly raised his head and looked at the young man. “I’ve thought about it. We’ve been in this world for three or four months, but we haven’t made any progress at all. Compared to the Four Ancient Families, we’re just ants.”

“uncle, what are you going to do?” The young man asked.

“I’m thinking that we can continue to investigate, collect, and see if we can gather all the information about these people and then we can take the initiative to join the Four Ancient Families. I think this will be a greater opportunity.” The old man said, “At that time, we can make conditions, such as letting our people return or letting them give us a stable life.”

“You want to betray these people in Abandoned Land?” The young man stood up and asked.

“Child!” With a miserable smile on his face, the old man said, “Betrayal? I still remember the bloody scene of what happened to the Isabel. Can we even betray each other? We...

We just want to survive.”

Chapter 1015 Meeting of the Four Ancient Families

“In this world, the universe is vast. The only thing we can do is to protect our people and get a corner to cultivate and rest before we become strong.” The old man murmured, “We have never said that we wanted to join them. How can we talk about betrayal? Little Lord, you have to be more mature!”

“But... I think what they said makes sense. We should be equal...” The teenager pursed his lips and gritted his teeth.

“We are equal, and we are only equal in comparison. Your people should also be inferior to you.” The old man said, “So they are just talking nonsense. When they conquer the City of Phoenix, these people will also be the rulers of the city!”

The young man was instantly stunned!

The old man rubbed his head and said, “My Lord, there are so many people who have died in Isabel. It’s time for you to grow up. If you’re not of our kind, your heart must be different! You’re too old to be hot-blooded.”

After saying that, he looked at the others and said, “You... will participate in their speech in the next few days, and then find a way to record their appearance! After a while, we will report it to the Four Ancient Families!”

The Abandoned Land was a place that no one cared about. The Four Ancient Families didn’t think that people from the Abandoned Land could stir up any trouble. Even if some of their words were said, they didn’t care!

At this time, among the four Ancient Families, the Guerrero family, the Sauven Guerrero was sitting in the hall.

There was a blue screen in front of him, and a dozen people were involved in it above the screen.

Jovanni, who was sitting at home, frowned as he stared at the screen in front of him.

There was a solemn look on everyone’s faces “It’s been three months!” At this time, the Sauven suddenly said, “It’s been three whole he Frut Ancient Emilian months since Nathaniel Ingram went to war. This is the longest battle that Nathaniel Ingram has ever gone to. There is no news from the people we sent in afterward!”

His tone was solemn.

His words made everyone silent.

“We have to prepare for the worst. Nathaniel Ingram may also fail!” said Sauven Guerrero. “Since nearly a year ago, it has been a bit difficult for the Four Ancient Families!”

Yes, it’s too difficult.

Their goal was to obtain the Bone of Eternity and train 100 Flame Decayers to live on the satellite.

And now, let alone a hundred Flame Decayers, in a year, more than half of them died in the battle. The strength of the Four Ancient Families was greatly diminished.

“Mr. Guerrero!” At this time, one person said, “I think you’re thinking too much. Commander Nathaniel Ingram shouldn’t die in battle. About two years ago, the organization Blood Lotus nurtured on Earth gave feedback that there was only one Blaine Villanueva on Earth that was worth being afraid of, and there were only a dozen people above the super level.”

After saying that, he continued, “Also, judging from the previous feedback, Blood Lotus has been looking for the Earth for many years and has not found where the Bone of Eternity is hidden. Could it be that Nathaniel Ingram has actually been defeated? It just takes time to find the place where the Bone of Eternity is hiding.”

The others chimed in, “I think that’s highly possible. I don’t think it’s impossible for Commander Nathaniel Ingram to not be able to take down such a primitive planet.”

“There’s one thing you’ve all missed out on.” Giovanni let out a sigh and continued, “If it’s taken down, Nathaniel Ingram will send someone back to inform us. But not in the past three months, not at all, including Ichabod and Guerrero.”

“It’s most likely gone!” The Guerrero sighed.

“How can a primitive planet have the strength to change in these two or three years, this is impossible!”

“Why don’t we send someone over again?”

Under the video conference, many people were arguing!

These people were all high-ranking members of the Four Ancient Families.

In fact, not many people knew about the Bone of Eternity, and only some people from the upper levels knew about it!

“Quiet!” Listening to the noise, the man let out a long breath. He stared at the camera coldly and said, “No matter what, we have to prepare for the worst!”

“Now, that star ball can’t be hit, and we have been continuously assassinated during this time. Assassination is too much. Our main goal is still to take down the star ball and those Bone of Eternity, which is a huge treasure. Now it seems that we, the Four Ancient Families, may not be able to do it alone.”

Silence ensued.

“So... are you planning to join forces with other forces to attack?” Arvin Ingram, the Ingram family’s patriarch, raised his head and looked at the Sauven Guerrero.

Nodding, Sauven Guerrero said, “Yes, we have a proposal. We have to hurry up. Over the years, we have offended many enemies in the City of Phoenix. We were strong before, and they didn’t dare to make a move, but now more than half of our Flame Decayer masters have died in battle, and most people are eyeing us. I’m afraid the royal family will also choose to take action.”

“United with other forces, not just attack that star ball, but also for our current stability. This news can be sold and developed together, and we can also join forces with this force to stabilize our reign in the City of Phoenix!”

Speaking of this, he sighed and said, “We did have the capital to develop our own, but we were too cautious and worried about being targeted by other forces, so we didn’t kill them with one strike. We gave them a hundred years of breathing space.”

“But we can’t afford to wait now. We must get those Bone of Eternity as soon as possible. Otherwise, no one knows what will happen if we continue to delay.” The man. gritted his teeth and said.

peet Herit

“I agree!” Giovanni declared.

“I’ll reconsider!” Arvin Ingram said.

The head of the Quintin family was now just an ordinary Flame Decayer, and he also said, “I agree.”

When all four families agreed, this matter was naturally settled.

Then, he said, “As for the families who choose to cooperate, I have an idea. What do you think?”

“I plan to choose the Pierce family of Rime City!” said the Sauven.

“Huh?” Someone said, “The Pierce family is extremely mysterious. Once we know about this, I’m afraid we won’t be able to control it, and in the end, they may even take away the most!”

“Just take the big one!” The Sauven Guerrero sighed, “It’s obvious now that we can’t eat the star ball anymore. We can't enjoy the Bone of Eternity alone. We only need a small part to be able to live on the satellite and save us from succotune! Then we can be worthy of our ancestors."

His words made everyone silent again!

Indeed, they were in an awkward situation now.

"I agree with Mr. Guerrero's proposal. Last time we attacked Benson Pierce, we have already caused the Pierce family in Rime City to be dissatisfied. We can cooperate with them to solve the conflict. Secondly, the Pierce family has a strong foundation. Even if we carry out a large-scale expedition, it is estimated that except for the forces on the satellite, most people don't dare to speak and can invade on a large scale." Arvin said.

In the end, the proposal passed!

Letting out a sigh, he looked at Jovanni and said, "I'm afraid I'll have to trouble you to go to Rime City for this matter, Mr. Zeller."

Chapter 1016 He Must Die

It had been more than ten days since Night Watch was established, and Jacob still spared no effort to promote it in Abandoned Land.

In this area of Abandoned Land, even if there was chaos, no one seemed to care!

No one wanted to come to this place, not even the lower-class people!

The world was too strict. The upper-class people looked down on the lower-class people, and the lower-class people also looked down on the people in Abandoned Land.

No one thought that the people in Abandoned Land could stir up any waves, nor did anyone pay attention to what they were doing inside.

Even if someone spread the news, no one would care!

And this gave Gerald and Kenneth the best soil.

Jacob's words and thoughts were nourished and rooted in this group of abandoned people in the abandoned place where the phoenix supported them. When the war started, they would flourish.

They were not the key to the final battle, but this group of people would set a new tone for the City of Phoenix after the end of the future war.

In the heart of the city of Phoenix, outside the Zanter residence, there was a private room in a restaurant where Gerald and Carolyn were sitting.

He was sitting by the window, just in time to see Cruz family situation.

“What’s going on?” Carolyn frowned and said, “These two are cowards. It’s been more than ten days, but no one came out.”

Gerald shook his head. “I don’t know.”

“Beep beep beep!”

At that moment, Gerald’s phone rang, and a robotic voice rang in his ears, “Cohn’s calling. Should I get through?”

“Huh?” Gerald’s expression changed slightly. “Answer it!”

After answering the call, Gerald asked, “Hello? Is something the matter?”

“It’s about Jovanni and Yadiel,” Cohn replied.

“Go ahead!” Gerald nodded.

“Among the four Ancient Families in the City of Phoenix, the Jacobson family is the most arrogant, while the Cruz family is the most low-key!” Cohn said, “Jovanni has been very careful since you attacked the Quintin family a few months ago, plus you kept assassinating the Four Ancient Families before. He has been hiding at home all this time.”

Gerald frowned. “So you’re saying that we probably won’t be able to wait for him to come out?”

“No!” Cohn smiled faintly. “The people I planted in the Four Ancient Families told me that just now, the Four Ancient Families held a video conference. At the meeting, Sauven suggested that we go to Rime City to work with the Pierce family to attack a certain planet together, and it was Jovanni Cruz who represented the Four Ancient Families to negotiate.”

Gerald’s heart skipped a beat upon hearing that.

However, Cohn continued, “As for Yadiel, he is very careful because he has a conflict with the Pierce family in Rime City. This time, the Quintin family, the Ingram family, and the Guerrero family all have supreme Flame Decayers who died. He has to go even if he doesn't want to!"

"But be careful. This time, he chose to take Yadiel last week with him to ensure his safety," Cohn said. "They should have left a little later. If you want to fight them, just go and intercept them."

There was a glint in Gerald Kenneth's eyes.

The Four Ancient Families planned to find the Pierce family of Rime City to attack a certain planet together.

At this time, he knew that the place they wanted to attack was most likely Earth.

And now, they were working with the Pierce family to prepare to attack the Four Ancient Families in a dozen or twenty days.

If the Pierce family knew that the Earth had a lot of Bone of Eternity, what would they do?

A single Geza's Great Underground Palace made the entire Havotune tremble with the wind. Gerald was very clear about the air, and Bone of Eternity existed on Earth. No one could resist such temptation if it was released.

This was also the reason why the Four Ancient Families had been cautious and did not dare to send people on a large scale before.

Because once it was exposed, the Four Ancient Families were not qualified to get a share of the pie.

The Pierce family of Rime City could never resist such temptation!

Gerald had to kill these two people, whether it was because he had received the mission or because he couldn't let the news leak to the Pierce family.

"How do they leave? Are they using aircraft?" Gerald asked.

Gerald feared this the most. If it was an aircraft, he would not be able to intercept it. He would have to go to Rime City in advance and block Giovanni and the others at the aircraft stop. He would kill them before they saw the Pierce family.

“No!” Cohn smiled and said, “He is a cautious person. He is afraid that after he goes to Rime City, the Pierce family will kill him directly, so he plans to drive over in a car. When he gets there, he will contact the Pierce family in private and discuss it secretly. So you can find a way to follow him, or stop them on the road.”

“I got it!” Gerald let out a sigh of relief.

If possible, he would rather attack Giovanni and the others in the wild.

“I hope to hear good news from all of you. I also look forward to Giovanni’s death!” Cohn said with a smile.

After ending the call, Gerald turned to look at Carolyn.

As the Half-Step Flame Decay, Carolyn naturally heard the conversation between Gerald and Cohn. She said solemnly, “We have to get rid of Giovanni Cruz.”

Gerald nodded. “Yes! He must die!”

With that, he dialed Triston’s phone and asked him and Claude to each drive a car over!

To be on the safe side, he decided to make preparations on both sides. While Carolyn and Triston were ambushing in the direction of Rime City.

The second move was for him and Claude to follow behind.

Giovanni was too cautious and might not take the usual route. If he failed to ambush them on the way, it would be too late.

Soon, the car arrived.

Gerald and Carolyn walked out of the restaurant, and they left. The place they chose was the stone forest where the Four Ancient Families ambushed Benson!

Meanwhile, Gerald and Claude continued to wait.

After more than an hour, Gerald saw a luxurious car pull up in front of the Zanter residence. Giovanni Cruz, Yadiel, and two experts of the Flame Decayer level walked out of the Cruz residence. After getting into the car, the car started.

Gerald and Claude hurriedly followed after him.

While Gerald and Kenneth were following them, Azuro was in Skylark City, the capital of the Archaic Tribe.

In one of the courtyards, Anabel was counting the resources that the Archaic Tribe was willing to share with Gerald.

But at this time, a woman wearing a veil walked over and said, "Anabel, didn't you say that it would be sent over in a month? It's only been ten days, and you're planning to go down?"

"Okay." Anabel nodded and said, "I'll go down early. Gerald and Kenneth are planning to attack the Four Ancient Families. They should be planning it during this time. I'd like to see if they can help."

Then, she reminded, "I'm representing myself, not the Archaic Tribe!"

"Can you take me with you?" Sylvie asked.

"Huh?" Anabel asked in astonishment, "You want to go down with me?"

"Well, apart from the last trial, I have never left Azuro. I want to go to the City of Phoenix to have a look and... witness something by the way." Sylvie said.

"Witness something?" A look of confusion appeared on Anabel's face. "Witness what?"

Sylvie looked at Anabel and smiled faintly. "Witness the beginning of history!"

Chapter 1017 Ambush

"Witness the beginning of history?" Anabel looked at Sylvie in astonishment. For a moment, she didn't understand what she meant.

Sylvie didn't explain anything. She just chuckled and said, "Are you guys leaving soon?"

"I think so. We'll depart in about two hours. But this time, I'm not going to park directly at the aircraft docking station. I'm going to enter the City of Phoenix in disguise," Anabel said.

"A disguise? It looks interesting." A smile appeared in Sylvie's eyes as she said, "I'll go back and pack up, and then I'll come to you."

Anabel frowned and nodded. "Okay, but you have to be careful when you go down. We represent a person this time. I'm just representing myself to help Gerald Kenneth, not the Archaic Tribe!"

Sylvie nodded and said, "I understand, but I'm a little curious about how you built such a good relationship with Gerald."

"How should I put this?" Anabel said, "Gerald and Kenneth have a very strange characteristic. Speaking of which, when I first met him, he was going to kill me..."

On the other hand, Claude drove the hover car and followed behind the driver, keeping a distance of a few kilometers.

The car had a detection range of about five kilometers. If there were other cars within five kilometers, they could detect it.

From here to the stone forest, based on previous experience, it would take about two hours.

Gerald was not in a hurry.

"From the looks of it, they seem to be following the regular route," Triston said.

Gerald nodded. "Yes."

Jovanni was a very cautious person. The reason why he drove there was that he was worried that if he went there by plane, he might be left behind by the Four Ancient Families. Because of the previous conflicts, the Four Ancient Families might kill him indiscriminately.

Therefore, he chose another method that was relatively stable, but in the past, it was naturally safer to take the conventional route.

Gerald looked at Claude and said, "Since we're taking the usual route, let's keep some distance and don't let them find us."

Claude nodded as he deliberately moved a little further away.

The journey was more than 10 miles. For the speed of the car, it would be enough in a few minutes.

When Gerald and Kenneth noticed the fluctuation in the Vital Energy of Carolyn and the others, they would quickly pass by.

The two men followed steadily. Sometimes, they would speed up and quickly approach the detection range of the car to confirm that the other party was following this prescribed route.

Unknowingly, almost two hours passed quietly.

Gerald and Kenneth could already see the stone forest from afar.

Boom!

At a certain point in time, there was a burst of explosion in the stone forest. A fiery red figure jumped down from the high ground and slashed a saber at a hover car. Inside the hover car, several figures quickly jumped out.

The car was split open by a saber, making a loud explosion.

“Speed up!” Gerald quickly reminded.

He didn't say that Claude knew how to speed up. Claude accelerated rapidly, and the hover car approached the scene in a very short time.

Inside the stone forest, Triston was standing there with a long gun in his hand.

Carolyn held two sabers in her hand.

Her saber had been changed. The saber that Benson gave her before was given to Theo, and what she was using now was given to him by Alcoholic from the Underground Palace. It was Matt Muir, and he could perfectly use Carolyn's attribute.

The other was a short saber given to her by Alcoholic at that time. It was about 80 centimeters long and was very similar to the short saber of Night Watch.

At this time, Carolyn was engulfed in flames, holding a saber in each of her left and right hands. She stared ahead and was roaring something with someone!

Jovanni, Yadiel and two Flame Decayers were standing there.

“Who the hell are you?” Jovanni stared at Carolyn and said unkindly, “The fire attribute is much stronger than ordinary flames. Three months ago, the person who set Foliage Manor on fire was you!”

“So what if it’s me?” A hint of hatred flashed across Carolyn’s eyes. She sneered,

“Everyone from the Four Ancient Families has the right to punish them!”

“Then, have you been assassinating the Four Ancient Families all this while? Is it you too? What exactly is your background?” Jovanni asked again.

“You don’t have to worry about my background. All you need to know is that I’m the one who took your life today.” Carolyn’s aura reached its peak.

“I admit that you’re strong!” Jovanni sneered. “But we have two Supreme Flame Decayers. Are you sure you want to fight us?”

“Come on!” Carolyn roared and was about to rush up with a saber in her hand.

“Do it!” Jovanni roared.

Next to him, the ice attributes of Yadiel and the other two quickly enveloped Triston and Carolyn.

After all, there were two Supreme Flame Decayers and two Flame Decayers with the same attributes. Even though Carolyn had a Phoenix Flame and had the ability to restrain her ice attribute, her speed still became much slower at this moment!

“Go!”

However, Jovanni did not choose to fight Carolyn. Instead, he chose to run away.

Yes, he was very careful and treasured his life.

The aura that Carolyn showed was so powerful that he felt that he was no match for her.

When he faced someone stronger than him, he would find a way to run away directly if he could. This was his usual style.

Among the Four Ancient Families, Cruz family was not weak, but they were the weakest.

So when Carolyn showed that she wanted to fight them desperately, this guy chose to feign attack and ran straight away.

The four of them were so fast that they jumped between the rocks, trying to escape!

“Where do you want to go?” Just then, a man with wings on his back flew over from a distance. A bronze sword swirled and stopped one of them. The saber in his hand let out a soft moan and slashed at Giovanni Cruz!

Bang!

At the same time, the sound of gunshots rang out.

After Claude changed his sniper rifle, he pulled the trigger for the first time.

An expert of the Flame Decayer level who ran away was shot dead on the spot.

The new sniper rifle had better accuracy and explosive power.

Being intercepted by Gerald, Carolyn and Triston also caught up, and the two directly blocked their way.

Jovanni felt goosebumps all over his skin as he watched Gerald’s wings grow on his back and his domineering aura.

He knew that it was almost impossible for two people who were infinitely close to the eternal flame Decayer to escape.

Cold sweat began to form on Jovanni’s forehead, and it kept trickling down.

“Who... Who the hell are you? I don’t know when the Four Ancient Families of the City of Phoenix have offended you.” Jovanni stood still and said in a desperate and pleading tone, “If there is anything I have offended, I will apologize to you first. As long as you spare my life, you can get anything from my family.”

Gerald did not want to waste his breath on Kenneth, so he decided to kill him.

Pretending to be weak and pitiful at this time?

Naturally, Gerald would not fall for that.

But this guy was afraid of death, so maybe he could use it to ask for some useful information.

“It’s not impossible for me to spare your life.” Gerald stood on a stone pillar and looked at Jovanni, who was covered in cold sweat. “But I have a question.”

“Go ahead. I’ll tell you everything I know!” Jovanni quickly replied.

“It seems that you have been attacking a certain place in the Nebula. For the past hundred years, you have sent countless people there. I wonder what’s in that place?” Gerald asked calmly.

This was just the beginning of Gerald’s question. His main purpose was to see if he could ask how the Four Ancient Families knew about the existence of a large number of Bone of Eternity on earth.

Chapter 1018 We Are From That Star Ball

That was the problem that had been troubling Gerald and Kenneth the whole time.

According to Ms. Cat’s previous speculation, Gerald speculated that the Four Ancient Families discovered the existence of Earth, most likely because they destroyed the Herman family of the City of Phoenix, and learned about it from the Herman family.

But this was just a guess after all.

They didn’t want this matter to be known, so they must find out the reason and how many people in Yair knew about it.

When the time came to start a final battle with the Four Ancient Families, they would be able to deal with this matter completely.

As for Nether Palace, which knew about the existence of Earth, Gerald was not so worried anymore.

Gerald knew that they had always wanted to invade Earth. However, he guessed that they would not be heading to Earth in such a short time. After all, Aarav was in that place. Gerald could have easily taken over the place, but he chose to return first.

Perhaps the reason Nether Palace invaded Earth was related to this.

But it was certain that they would not announce the existence of Earth.

And they seemed to be waiting for an opportunity to invade. The final battle between the Eight Forces and Nether Palace had just begun. This war would sweep across the entire Havotune Galaxy, and it would not end in a short time. Gerald wanted to develop Night Watch. In fact, he also hoped that when he had to go against Nether Palace in the future, the battlefield would be in Yvotune.

He didn't want Earth's civilization to be destroyed again.

Jovanni paused for a moment when Gerald asked him the question, and there was a hint of hesitation on his face.

"Aren't you going to tell me?" Gerald chuckled. "Then..."

"I'll tell you! I'll tell you!" Jovanni said hurriedly.

"homeowner!" Yadiel hurriedly bellowed.

"There's nothing we can do, Carson. If you don't tell us, we won't be able to return alive," Jovanni said through gritted teeth.

Then he looked at Gerald and said, "The place we are going to is a distant galaxy. It will take more than half a month to reach it through the wormhole. That place is a primitive planet that has not yet entered the cosmic network. But there is a large number of Bone of Eternity in that starball. You can't imagine it. There were thousands, even tens of thousands of Flame Decayers who died in that place... A large number of Bone of Eternity left in their world."

After saying that, he looked at Gerald and said, "Since you have such a powerful background, perhaps we can consider working together to develop it."

"A joint development?" Gerald asked with great interest, "You're going to Rime City now because you want to talk to the Pierce family about a joint development?"

Jovanni nodded. "Yes. But if you're willing, we can develop this world with you. Those Bone of Eternity will definitely be able to cultivate a large number of Flame Decayers, and it's even possible for them to become the ninth force in the Havotune."

“If it’s true, then it’s possible!” Gerald’s face showed a hint of affection, and then he asked suspiciously, “But it’s not good for too many people to know about this. How many people know about it now?”

“Not at all!” Giovanni replied hastily.

Now that he had said it, he wouldn’t hide it anymore. He hurriedly said, “There are not many people in the Four Ancient Families who know about it. Except for the senior executives of the Four Ancient Families and those above Flame Decayer, only those leaders who went to the star-gazing wasteland knew that this matter would never be leaked.”

Jovanni replied honestly.

Hearing this, Gerald couldn’t help but smile. He looked at Carolyn and Triston not far away.

Carolyn and Triston also showed a look of relief.

Now that they looked at it, only people at the level of Flame Decayer knew about it. Only people at this level were qualified to know about it.

This made it easier for Gerald and the rest to deal with the aftermath after attacking the Four Ancient Families.

For some reason, Jovanni was worried when he saw Gerald and Kenneth’s expressions.

After a long time, he gritted his teeth and said, “I’ve told Yair everything. Can you let us go now? Or you can just come back to the City of Phoenix with me and we’ll discuss with you directly about the cooperation and development? The Four Ancient Families can even give up the majority to you, just a small part.

“Got it!” Gerald nodded.

Then, his aura increased instead of weakening, while at the same time, thunder and lightning surrounded him.

Jovanni’s expression changed when he saw Gerald’s reaction. “I’ve already explained everything to Yair. What do you mean by that? If you kill me, you’ll never know what the coordinates of the planet are.”

“Why should I know?” Gerald chuckled.

Jovanni was stunned. He looked at Gerald and felt that something was wrong. He gritted his teeth and said, "H-How can you break your promise?"

"You're breaking your promise?" Gerald sneered. "Oh, you don't know yet, do you? We are!"

Gerald licked his lips. His eyes were cold as he said, "We are the star balls that your invaded. You invaded for a hundred years, and we are here for revenge. We're here for the dead comrades and the dead ordinary people in my hometown!"

Jovanni felt like his head was about to explode when he heard Gerald's words.

At that moment, he knew that the people they had sent over one after another, including Nathaniel Ingram, had all lost their lives on Earth.

And this group of people had come to the city of Phoenix's hideout to seek revenge.

Jovanni roared, "I'll hold them off! Run! Go back and tell Mr. Guerrero about this!"

"Run? Who can run?" Triston laughed heartily. Holding the spear in his hand, he lunged at a Flame Decayer, who slashed across, enveloping him in an instant.

Jovanni looked at Gerald, who was full of murderous intent. He gritted his teeth and said, "How can you let me go?"

"There's no reason for me to let you go!" Gerald replied calmly.

Ten minutes later!

The two hooligans slowly moved forward, and four skeletons were on top of them!

This skeleton was naturally the Bone of Eternity from Jovanni and the others!

The Bone of Eternity was a treasure that was passed down from generation to generation. Naturally, Gerald would not give up on the existence of Jovanni and the others.

Jovanni was dead, and their news could not reach Rime City. Gerald had figured out everything that Yair wanted. He would launch his final attack on the Four Ancient Families once the army from Rime City arrived.

At the same time, deep within the Mount Moores.

Isla was sitting in front of the window in one building. In this place, what she did every day was to be in a daze!

Suddenly, he saw six or seven people dressed in black walking outside. She had been here for several months, but she had never seen anyone dressed like this before.

“Who are they?” Isla couldn’t help but ask.

Behind her, a man in charge of Isla’s diet glanced at her and said, “Madam, those are the assassination groups in Nether Palace, named Rho Guild.”

“Assassination organization?” Isla asked, “Assassins? I’ve never met them before. Are they planning to assassinate someone?”

“Yes!” The man next to him smiled and said, “There was news that the Dragon Bone Phoenix Bone showed up here before, and they will be the enemies of Nether Palace.”

“Dragon Bone Phoenix Bone?” Isla froze for a moment.

Immediately afterwards, a look of ecstasy appeared in her heart!

Dragon Bone Phoenix Bone, that’s Gerald Kenneth and Carolyn Berry. Have they come to this world?

Are they here to save me?

Chapter 1019

The two hooligans slowly drove into the City of Phoenix, and then slowly drove into the Abandoned Land of the City of Phoenix.

Now in the Abandoned Land, the eyes of many people had changed a lot and become hopeful.

After returning home, Gerald was surprised to find that there were two more figures in the residence, Anabel Pierce and Sylvie Pierce!

“Huh? Why are you here?” Gerald asked in surprise.

A smile appeared on Anabel’s face. “Aren’t you guys going to fight? I thought that sooner or later I would send the resources to you, so I came down early.”

“Don’t worry. I’m not representing the Archaic Tribe. I’m representing me to help you,” Anabel said with a smile.

Naturally, Gerald could not refuse such help.

In fact, he was still a little worried that if they really started fighting, in case those who knew about the existence of the Earth would eventually leak the news at the moment of life and death and Anabel knew about it, would they be able to restrain themselves from telling the Archaic Tribe about it?

However, Anabel seemed to be kind now, and Gerald could not refuse anything. However, he still did not intend to arrange for her to go deep into the Four Ancient Families for a battle.

“Thank you!” Gerald said with a smile.

“There’s no need to thank me.” Anabel smiled.

At this time, Sylvie took the initiative to say, “I... just came down to take a look. I’ve never left Azuro, and I haven’t come over Havotune, so I want to come and see it.”

After saying that, she looked at Gerald and asked, “Can I talk to you in private? I have something to ask you!”

Gerald was stunned.

Sylvie always wore an extremely mysterious veil! Her attributes were not mentioned to anyone. She was secretly hiding her strength.

Gerald guessed that she had probably reached the level of the ultimate Flame Decayer, but she still hid her strength at the peak of Half-Step Flame Decay, which her parents didn’t know at all.

However, she had secretly mentioned this to Gerald before.

Valery glanced at Gerald with a half-smile, causing the latter’s hair to stand on end.

To be frank, Gerald was indeed a little afraid of his wife.

However, he guessed that Sylvie did have something to tell him, so he bit the bullet and nodded, "Okay!"

Then he took the initiative to move, and Sylvie followed him. The two of them arrived at an empty place. Sylvie frowned deeply and said, "It's too early to expose the matter of Dragon Bone and Carolyn."

Gerald was dumbfounded. What's there to talk about in private?

"I didn't want to expose myself, but I had no choice." Gerald sighed. "Someone caught me. at the time, so I had no choice but to expose myself."

"You don't even know what it means to have a unique attribute." Sylvie shook her head and said, "If it weren't for the fact that alcoholic happened to be in that place, and he wanted to save you, you would have been dead."

Gerald nodded. "I understand."

If it weren't for the appearance of Alcoholic, even if he and Carolyn were to ride the huge statue, they wouldn't have won.

The attackers were six Eternal Flame Decayers. Except for the Agra Tribe and the Archaic Tribe, everyone else had chosen to kill him.

"Anyway, you should be careful in the future. Although the Eight Forces promised that they wouldn't attack you, secretly, they can't let you grow up." Sylvie said.

"Is this what you wanted to talk about?" Gerald frowned. "You can also talk about this in front of them, right?"

Sylvie shook her head and said, "It's not just this. I'll look for you alone. There's another thing, that is, I want to join you."

"Huh?" Gerald looked at Sylvie strangely and said, "You... are from the Archaic Tribe. Why did you join us? We can't even protect ourselves!"

"I'm from the Archaic Tribe, and I don't mind joining you!" Sylvie said, "The Archaic Tribe took the initiative to be nice to you, and I'm only representing myself at this time, joining you on behalf of someone."

Gerald furrowed his brows. He couldn't figure out what Yair was thinking at all. One of the Eight Forces, the Archaic Tribe, was in a daze, but Yair wanted to join him.

"Why do you want to join us?" Gerald asked with a frown.

"Because you're the owner of Dragon Bone." Sylvie said, "I see hope in you! This is also a good thing for the future of the Archaic Tribe!"

Speaking of which, when Sylvie first met him, she had already taken the initiative to make a gesture of goodwill.

Gerald frowned. He looked at Sylvie and asked, "Since you want to join, I have to know your background, right? What exactly is your attribute? Also, why have you been hiding it, including the people from the Archaic Tribe? What kind of strength are you?"

"Because..." Sylvie smiled sweetly and continued, "My attributes are also unique, but not so complete. To be precise, I can see something that others can't. As for my current strength, as you think, I have reached the level of the supreme Flame Decayer. The reason why I don't want to tell the Archaic Tribe and my family is that I'm worried that my life will be in danger after being exposed. I will never take the initiative to reveal it until I reach the level of the eternal Flame Decayer."

Gerald had expected that.

"I will join you sincerely. The war is over in the future. If you win, I will most likely be active in the City of Phoenix. You don't have to doubt my sincerity in helping you carry out your tasks." Sylvie said.

For some reason, Gerald was convinced by Sylvie's words.

Then he felt if Sylvie's attribute was quietly affecting him.

Gerald thought about it for a long time before he asked, "Are you planning to join secretly?"

"Yes, only you and I know." Sylvie said.

Gerald did not mind as he only had Watchman No. 1 on Night Watch.

“Let me think about it,” Gerald said after pondering for a moment.

After all, she was from the Archaic Tribe, and he still didn't trust the Eight Forces that much. He was worried that Sylvie would become a spy for the Archaic Tribe.

“Don't worry!” Sylvie smiled and said, “But... can I ask you something? What's the name of your organization?”

This time, Gerald did not hide anything. He calmly said, “Night Watch!”

The rest of the time passed relatively peacefully. Jacob Eden was still giving his speech in an orderly manner, quietly complementing the Night Watch. These people were all selected by Jacob Eden and were trustworthy.

Night Watch was developing silently here.

Unknowingly, another ten days had passed, and there were only two days left before the agreed date.

That night, more than a dozen figures set off from the Abandoned Land. They bypassed the Abandoned Land, walked into the City of Phoenix, and then headed straight for the Guerrero family, which was the head of the Four Ancient Families!

When they got to the door, they blew it up!

Among the crowd, a young man with scars on his face showed a hint of reluctance!

However, he still chose to obey and walked into the Guerrero residence.

Chapter 1020 Suppressing Abandoned Land

There were four people in the aircraft this time

These four people represented the leaders of various departments of Night Watch, Blaine Villanuba, Zackary Benjamin, Derick Jackson, and a veteran of Night Watch!

He didn't have much strength. He was just at the top level. In the battle with the Elite Ghost, he lost one of his left legs.

Later, he became a teacher at Night Watch to train young people, training generations of young people.

Now, he was in his nineties.

His name was Joshua, and his dream was to see the Elite Ghost die one day.

This time, the hundred-year feud with the Four Ancient Families would come to an end.

Naturally, he wanted to come and see it with his own eyes.

“How long until we arrive?” Blaine asked expectantly.

“This round trip back and forth is much faster than before, and this time we don’t have to stop in Ries City. When the time comes, we will directly land near the City of Phoenix, and it will be much faster.” Hector Ingram said with a smile, “This time, I’m quite big. I’m afraid you really can’t beat Gerald Kenneth now.”

Blaine was speechless.

Blaine said, “Impossible. I’m sure I’ll be better than this guy.”

Hector looked at Blaine and said speechlessly, “When I met you, you were only at teenager. At that time, you looked like this. Now you are so old and still like to be competitive.”

“Actually!” Blaine shook his head and said, “I’ve been thinking about what I should do if the conflict between us and the Four Ancient Families ends!”

“After this battle, maybe I’ll really go after martial arts.” Blaine held the Crimson Slayer in his hand.

The material of this saber was actually quite ordinary in Havotune!

But on Earth, he was once the number one saber in the weapon genealogy.

Blaine didn’t plan to replace him either.

Yes, he dedicated his whole life to Night Watch, carrying the Night Watch and the fate of humanity forward.

If it was over, he wanted to do something he wanted to do.

While they were talking, the aircraft shuttled through the Nebula and inched toward the Havotune.

Meanwhile, in the City of Phoenix, in the Guerrero residence.

The man in front of him looked at him with interest, and his face was full of disdain.

A primitive planet was defeated by them. Some rulers of that planet came to them and said that they had something to discuss with him.

Initially, he didn't want to pay attention to it, but he was too depressed these days.

Yes, the number one person in the City of Phoenix was very depressing!

The experts of the Four Ancient Families kept dying in battle, and there was no news at all about those who went deep into the Nebula. Jovanni and the others who went to Rime City to negotiate had also been gone for more than ten days.

He knew that Jovanni was a very cautious and timid person. It might take a long time, but it would not take more than ten days.

So he was a little distracted!

The Four Ancient Families of the City of Phoenix used to be famous on the main planet. of the Havotune. They had more than fifty Flame Decayers in their power, which was considered a heroic force.

Now, the power of the Four Ancient Families was constantly falling because of the experts who kept losing their lives.

He was so depressed.

So when he heard that the people of the Red Moon Star were going to visit, he agreed.

He wanted to find a trace of confidence and comfort from the people of this planet that they defeated.

In the hall, several people were kneeling on the ground.

“What’s the matter?” The man looked at the group of people calmly.

An old man gritted his teeth and said, “Mr. Guerrero, I have something to report. It’s about the lives of the Four Ancient Families!”

The moment he heard that it was a matter of life and death for the Four Ancient Families, the disdain on his face disappeared instantly, and he became extremely gloomy. He stared at the dozen people in front of him and said, “Oh? The lives of the Four Ancient Families? Are you going to start a war with us?”

“No, no, no!” The old man hurriedly said, “We have long been defeated by you. How can we have the courage to declare war on you?”

“Then tell me. If you don’t tell me one, two, or three, you won’t be able to leave this place. today,” said the Guerrero with a sneer.

“I can say it, but if it’s true, I hope you can give us a way out. Back then, you captured a large number of people from the Red Moon Star...”

Before the old man could finish his sentence, he asked coldly, “Do you think you have the right to negotiate with me?”

The old man was stunned, and then he grinned and said, “I came here today with the intention of dying. If you don’t agree, I will never reveal a word!”

After staring at the old man for a long time, he said faintly, “Tell me your conditions!”

“We are willing to take refuge in the Four Ancient Families, so we also hope that the Four Ancient Families can give us a place to return those captives to us and give us a place to settle down in the City of Phoenix,” the old man said.

“I agree. Tell me what you know,” said the man calmly.

The people kneeling below were ecstatic when they heard the agreement of the Guerrero.

The old man paused for a moment before looking at the Sauven Guerrero and said, “The incident happened in the Abandoned Land. We came here to hide from the Four Ancient Families, so we have been hiding inside the Abandoned Land. During this time, we discovered something. No one managed the Abandoned Land, and the people inside are plotting an operation.”

“Abandoned land?” The man was stunned for a moment before asking with interest,

“What kind of operation?”

He didn’t care about this place at all.

In his opinion, this was a group of genetically defective people. They were eliminated by society and were not as good as animals. If it weren’t for some productivity, they would have been exiled to the wild like defective products of genetic modification.. “They intend to rebel and overthrow the ruling of the Four Ancient Families! Now they are talking every day about how people are born equal and shouldn’t be divided into three or six ranks by origin.”

“What do you mean by that?” The old man said, “They... are planning to fight back and overthrow the ruling of the Four Ancient Families!”

“What a joke!” When he heard this, a sneer appeared on his face.

“What a bunch of idiots! How dare they try to overthrow our rule!” said the Guerrero disdainfully. “They don’t deserve it? Is that all you’ve found out?”

“T-More than that!” The old man hurriedly said, “The reason why they are like this is because no one usually manages the people inside Abandoned Land, and then a group of people appeared. They have been promoting inside to give confidence to those people. Someone even took the initiative to release aura, and there is even the existence of the Supreme Flame Decayer.”

“What?” Upon hearing that, the Guerrero stood up and asked, “How many people a have?”

“I’ll take a look and see. I found a total of about ten people,” the old man said.

With that, he handed over a booklet with pictures of Jacob Eden, Gerald Kenneth, and the others on it.

After reading it, the color drained from his face

Bang!

He slammed the table and roared, “Bastards from Abandoned Land! How dare they try to rebel? I’ll crush all of you today! Inform the Four Ancient Families to have a meeting!
