Chapter 371 Dad, Save Me!

“Holy Lord Token!” Nardo was shocked when he was the token on the ground. He fell to the ground. The token was yellow and seemed to be made of copper. On the back of the token, the word “West” was written on it.

Davis ruled the city. Then there were four Holy Lords under him, each taking charge of a part of the city.

Gerald came to Sin City to assassinate the Holy Lord of the Western District back then. That guy was at the super level.

Gerald was at the top level back then. After Gerald won that guy, he became the new Holy Lord in the Western District. He also got the Holy Lord Token at that time.

After Nardo said this, the people present were all shocked. They all turned to look at the token on the ground. They began to tremble.

As Farris’ people, especially those at the top level, all had dealt with Gerald before.

None of them associate Gerald with the guy who killed the last Holy Lord in the Western District back then. Plus, most of them never saw Gerald’s appearance.

In the past five years, Gerald had never appeared in Sin City.

However, at this time, the Holy Lord Token of the Western District appeared again.

They looked at Gerald in front of them and thought of another person. They finally remembered that Gerald was him!

“It really is him!” Someone cried out in shock, and then he couldn’t help but take a step back!

That guy back then was a decisive killer. Back then, he became famous in the Western District in the first place. The whole of Sin City was terrified by him. Their head, Farris, was almost crippled by Gerald. Farris escaped from Sin City and ran to hide in a forest on an island. After Gerald left, someone went to pick Farris back.

Now, this guy came back again. He was exactly Gerald!

Gerald came back with the Holy Lord Token. Then he came to find Farris’ people to cause trouble.

Someone quietly left and called Farris.

When Gerald came over, he already knew that his identity would be exposed in front of Farris.

He walked toward Nardo step by step.

Nardo thought of what Gerald was famous for. He sat on the ground, trembling with his forehead covered in sweat.

"I... I..." He kept trying to say something, but he couldn't. He retreated continuously, his face filled with terror.

He knew very well how miserable Farris was when facing Gerald back then.

"They... they are just two poor guys. I don't know... I don't know that they are related to you. I..." Nardo was about to cry. As Gerald approached, Nardo peed his pants.

"Bring them out," Gerald said in a cold tone.

Nardo nodded. A guy rushed into the villa with terror. Theo couldn't rest assured. He followed that guy in.

Gerald and the others stood there still.

Valery began to learn about the city recently. She looked at Gerald with surprise. Gerald had been keeping a low profile recently. Only when Gerald threw the Holy Lord Token out did she realize how prestigious Gerald was in the city.

He only threw out a token, and all the people on Farris' side retreated. No one dared to take a step forward.

It could be seen how much others were afraid of him.

In fact, Valery had seen such kinds of scenes many times in the past when she was on missions with Gerald, but every time she saw how calm and composed Gerald was in this situation, she couldn't help but feel her heart beat faster.

After a few minutes, a furious voice sounded.

"Fuck you!"

In the villa, Theo's loud roar rang out. Then he rushed out.

He came to Nardo in an instant. Then he raised his foot to kick Nardo's face.

Bang!

Nardo didn't give any response. He was sent flying by the kick.

But Theo didn't intend to let Nardo go. The moment Nardo was thrown into the air, he grabbed Nardo's foot with one hand and smashed Nardo's head toward the ground.

Bang!

"Ah!"

Nardo let out a loud scream. He felt like all the bones in his body were broken. He lay on the ground and let out a loud scream. His face was covered in blood.

Gerald wasn't happy at all when seeing Nardo being punished. Instead, his heart sank.

Since Theo was so angry, it meant Roger and his wife should be in a miserable state.

At this time, footsteps came from inside the room. Then, someone came out of the room. They were carrying Roger and his wife.

The moment Gerald saw them, his pupils suddenly shrank!

Jenna, on the other hand, broke free from Valery while crying. She rushed toward her parents and cried, "Daddy, Mommy!"

Valery also rushed forward.

At this time, Roger and his wife really looked miserable. All their clothes were broken. Their hair was wet. It was obvious that someone had pressed their heads down into the water. Their bodies were both dyed red with blood.

Both of them had their eyes closed. It was unknown if they had fainted or were already dead.

Clang!

Kristen pulled her machete out. She gritted her teeth and said, "I want to kill him!"

She was really angry.

Roger and his wife just made Nardo's shoes dirty. And Nardo punished them so harshly.

Gerald did not say anything. Nardo deserved to die.

"Stop!" At the same time, someone quickly approached and then landed in the yard of the villa from the sky. When this guy looked up, he saw Gerald standing there. His pupils suddenly shrank and he said, "Garrett! Spare my son's life. I will agree to anything you want!"

Garrett was the name that Gerald used when he was in Sin City five years ago. Except for a few people, everyone who got in touch with Gerald thought that his name was Garrett.

This was why Jessie and Eileen felt disappointed when they knew Gerald's real name.

The one who came was dressed in a suit. He was about forty years old and looked like a gentleman.

This guy was Farris. He was the leader of the biggest power in the Western District. He used to rank No. 3 on the Moon List. Now, he ranked No. 1 on the Moon List!

Click!

The moment Farris landed here, Claude snorted coldly. He took away the cloth from the sniper rifle. He took the sniper rifle and aimed it at Farris. He licked his lips and said, "Boss, Farris should also be killed for raising such a disgusting son.”

“This is just a small incident. Roger and his wife only dirtied his shoes. And Nardo tortured them like this. I can imagine he must have killed a lot of people. Such a guy doesn’t deserve to live.” Kristen said with indifference while pulling her machete out.

Farris looked at Gerald. He was afraid, but he still gritted his teeth and said, “Garrett, give me a chance. I promise that this will never happen again. I will give you whatever you want as long as I have it. I only have one son. Please let him live!”

Gerald looked at Valery. Valery was doing a full body examination for Roger and his wife. She looked up at Gerald and said, “They are bleeding heavily. We need to operate on them as soon as possible!”

Gerald nodded. He looked at Farris again and said lightly, “He can’t live!”

Farris’ expression suddenly changed. He stared at Gerald and said coldly, “Garrett, you have a lot of enemies in this city. You have to think about it. If I spread the news of your return...”

“If you spread it out, I will kill you and all your people.” Gerald grinned. A cruel smile appeared on his face.

“Theo, do it!” After that, Gerald said lightly.

Theo sneered and walked toward Nardo!

Nardo was lying on the ground. His injuries were extremely serious and he could not move at all.

“You have done many evil things. You should have thought of this day a long time ago,” Theo said coldly.

“Dad! Dad! Save me! Save me!” Nardo shouted loudly.

Chapter 372 Malcolm and Jessie Are Shocked

Farris felt conflicted.

He ranked No. 3 on the Moon List. Not many people in the world dared to offend him. In Sin City, he was only inferior to Holy Lords.

However, at this moment, he did not dare to move. He gritted his teeth and suddenly knelt down to Gerald, saying, “Please spare my son’s life. I only have one son. I beg you!”

“You have to discipline him properly since you only have one son.” Gerald said indifferently, “What happened today was just an example. It’s hard to tell how many people your son had killed. I can’t endure this. As a Watchman, I will never endure this!”

Swoosh!

As soon as Gerald said this, Theo no longer hesitated. His long saber cut Nardo’s neck.

Nardo froze there. Then his head turned away. His eyes were still open but he had stopped breathing.

Farris was sad and angry, but he didn't dare to do anything. He just knelt on the ground, gritting his teeth. He didn't even dare to let Gerald see the hatred in his eyes.

He had several dozen people behind him, and more than ten of them were at the top level. However, Farris still didn't dare to show his hatred.

He was not at the super level. And he couldn't tell what level Gerald was in. So he didn't dare to do anything. He was afraid that if he made any move, he and all his people would be killed by Gerald.

He watched his son die in front of him!

Gerald chuckled. Farris' uncertainty was his reason to do so. He was betting that Farris didn't dare to go against him. And he was right.

"I came back here this time for something important. I don't want my identity to be revealed. Of course, you can choose to say it." Gerald said faintly, "But you should be clear about what the consequence would be. If you dare, you won't have a chance to hide any longer."

Farris lowered his head and gritted his teeth. He didn't dare to look at Gerald. He was afraid that he couldn't restrain his anger and hatred!

"Let's go!" Gerald said lightly.

He didn't delay for long. After he said this, Theo and Claude hurried over to carry Roger and his wife, who were seriously injured.

They turned around. None of the dozens of people surrounding Gerald dared to speak. They retreated to both sides to make way for them.

Gerald and the others walked out.

Roger and his wife were in bad situations. They had to rush back and operate on Roger and his wife.

They quickly returned to the car, started the car, and rushed home!

"That guy is still there," Claude said at this time.

Gerald glanced at the rearview mirror and saw that not far away, Hardy, who brought them over, was standing on the side of the road in the community, watching their car.

"Forget about him," Gerald said calmly.

At the same time, in the villa, Farris was kneeling on the ground. There was no sadness or anger on his face. He just frowned. He walked in front of Nardo and closed his eyes. He muttered, "Nardo! I swear I will avenge you."

Behind him, his people surrounded him and half knelt on the ground.

"Mr. Curtiss, I am sorry. Facing him, I don't even have the courage to attack!" One of them walked up and said with his head lowered.

Farris looked at him and said, "I don't blame you. I don't have the courage to attack, but... Since he came here again and killed my son, I have to settle accounts with him for everything he has done to me and my son."

As he spoke, he stood up and said, "Bring me my best wine. I want to visit someone!"

When Gerald and the others returned home, Jenna kept crying. Jolie embraced her and kept comforting her. In a room on the second floor, the curtain was closed. Valery began the two operations at the same time. And Kristen was helping her.

For Gerald and the others, all they could do was wait.

Gerald walked to the first floor. Claude walked up to Gerald and patted him on the shoulder. "Boss, don't blame yourself."

"Farris is the reason that Nardo had become like this. If I had Vital Energy, I would have killed Farris." Gerald said angrily.

At this time, a car suddenly stopped in front of them. At the same time, a slim figure jumped down from the car. It was Eileen!

Eileen walked to Gerald. She touched Gerald from head to toe, then patted her towering chest and said, "It's good that you are fine. It's good that you are fine!"

"You... What are you doing?" Gerald was a little annoyed.

Eileen

looked at Gerald and said, "I have waited for that guy for five years. Although you are not him, you look exactly the same as him. I can remember his appearance if I come to see your face occasionally. Then I can go find him when I go out."

Gerald was lost for words for a while. He frowned and said, "Have you thought about what if he doesn't like you? I advise you to marry someone suitable for you."

"Humph, impossible!" Eileen said, "Only a man like him is worthy of me, and there is no reason for him not to like me. I am so beautiful, and I will be very active. He can't refuse at all! You can't understand that. No man can refuse beautiful women throwing themselves at him."

Gerald was speechless. He thought, I experienced that. And the feeling was terrible.

The first woman who threw herself at him was Red Rose. She was like a siren!

The second was Leana. He was drugged by her and slept with her.

"How did you come out from that side? That is Farris' place!" Eileen returned to normal at this time. She looked at Gerald with confusion.

Gerald curled his lips and said, "Is Farris powerful? He trembled in fear when faced with me just now."

“Just brag!” Eileen said disdainfully.

“Alas. I’m telling the truth, but nobody believes me!” Gerald sighed.

As he spoke, he looked toward the second floor, waiting for the final result!

At the same time, at Jessie’s house on the other side, Malcolm was sitting on the sofa and looking at Jessie. He was worried that Jessie would run out like Eileen!

At this time, the sound of knocking on the door sounded.

Malcolm went over and opened the door. He looked at the person at the door and said, “Hardy!”

Hardy was trembling, as if he was a little afraid. He trembled as he walked in.

When Jessie saw him like this, her heart sank. She rushed to Hardy, grabbed his shoulder, and asked, “What’s wrong? What happened? Did something happen to them?”

Malcolm also sighed and said, “Jessie, he just looked like Garrett. Don’t be too sad. Since he offended Farris...”

Hardy shook his head and said, “They... They brought those two people out.”

“What!” Malcolm and Jessie were stunned.

Chapter 373 The Topic at the Bar

“Gerald brought them out?” Malcolm was stunned and said, “Then why are you so terrified?”

“Not only did he bring them out,” Hardy said, gritting his teeth. “You know that one of my friends is at the advanced level. He works for Farris. He...”

At this point, he could not help but swallow hard and stutter.

“What happened to him? Say it quickly!” Jessie was anxious.

Hardy said, “He said... he could not say much about it. He only told me that Nardo, Farris’ son, abducted them. Farris arrived just now and witnessed how his son got killed.”

“What!” Malcolm and Jessie were struck dumb for a moment. They sank to the floor and looked at Hardy aghast. “How is that possible? You must be lying!”

Hardy said, “My friend had no reason to lie to me. He told me not to tell anyone. It was not the whole story, but he dared not say more about it. Otherwise, he would be toast.”

Jessie sighed in relief, “Fortunately, he is fine!”

Malcolm’s brows drew together in a frown. He began to think carefully about what Hardy had said.

In Sin City, there was no other man except people at Holy Lord level that Farris was afraid of. “Could it be that Gerald is Garrett?” Malcolm began to have such doubts.

In the afternoon, Eileen stayed at Roger’s house. During this time, she drove to buy a lot of food and drinks, waiting downstairs!

Valery

and Kristen spent the whole afternoon in the room on the second floor. It was not until about seven o'clock in the evening that Valery walked out with a tired face. Gerald quickly went over and asked, "How is it?"

Valery frowned a little bit at the sight of Eileen. She kept her composure and replied, "They are out of danger. It will take a lot of time to recover."

When Gerald heard this, he felt relieved. At least they were alive.

"Are we still going to the bar?" At this time, Claude asked.

Gerald nodded. He looked at Valery and said, "We will return to work in the bar. You are on your own here. Call us if you need any help."

Now that they were out of danger, Gerald wanted to go back to work and see if he could have any useful information. It would be better if he could find Audrey and Jacob before his Vital Energy recovered. That would be a great relief to him.

"No problem!" Valery nodded.

"I will drive you to the bar!" Eileen offered.

Gerald did not refuse. They got into Eileen's car and headed to the bar.

Gerald found that Eileen seemed to have changed her attitude toward him. She disliked him when they first met. This afternoon, she was not that unfriendly to him at Roger's house.

"Did she find my identity?" Gerald rubbed his chin and thought for a while.

Gerald was overthinking it. When they arrived at the bar, Eileen frowned and said, "If he knows that you work here with the same face as his, he will kick your ass."

Gerald got out of the car and smiled at her, "Why don't you go inside and sit? I can serve you."

"No way! You want my tip, don't you?" Eileen snorted. "I'm going to meet Jessie. She has given me several calls."

After that, she ignored Gerald and stepped on the accelerator. The car sped away.

Claude said to Gerald, "Boss, I think she is pretty good. She is beautiful and bold. Dr. Manning is always lukewarm to you. Why don't you accept Eileen instead? Even if you two fail to be lovers, it the money." won't be a loss for you to sleep with her. She will even pay you "Get lost!" Gerald kicked Claude. They found Cory and started working as usual after dressing themselves.

At night, the bar turned crowded and noisy. Gerald did not hear much information about the missing people. Instead, he found that most people in the bar were talking about the same thing.

That was news about the Northern District.

It seemed that a competition would take place in the Northern District arena.

While the Twilight Bar was the most famous in the Eastern District of Sin City, the arena was the most famous in the Northern District.

It was built for people to battle against each other.

Every day, 50 participants joined the fights. There would only be one winner, who would receive a huge cash prize. Losers would either die or be disabled!

This place was rather cruel.

However, it still drew huge crowds. People were passionate about the fights even though it cost hundreds of lucas to enter. They seemed to enjoy such a violent and bloody scene.

The guests in the bar were discussing that competition. They said the grand competition would take place this Saturday with a huge cash prize. The winner would also have the chance to serve under the North District Holy Lord.

Gerald pricked up his ears and listened eagerly. At the table he served, a few people wished to try.

"I think you should forget about it. Many people at the top level will be attracted and participate this time. It's a death sentence for people like you."

"I have no other choice. The winner will get 100 million lucas and can serve under the Northern District's Holy Lord. Once you win, you no longer need to worry about money. How can I not yield to such a strong temptation?"

"It's said that the winner will also get five pieces of Dragon Bone. What is that?"

"I don't know. I don't care. Anyway, I only want money and that rare chance!"

While they were discussing, Gerald frowned deeply.

Five pieces of Dragon Bone!

It might be useless to ordinary people but highly seductive to Gerald.

He now had two pieces of Dragon Bone. When he recovered his Vital Energy, he would absorb these two pieces of Dragon Bone. He could not imagine how strong he would be after getting those five pieces.

However, Gerald also had a doubt.

That was about the Dragon Bone.

Most people who were not super experts knew nothing about the Dragon Bone.

The five pieces of Dragon Bone were not attractive enough for ordinary people. They only cared about money.

The Dragon Bones seemed to be the bait to draw him out.

Chapter 374 Wager His Life

Indeed, Perrin's men must have known that Gerald had come here. Since he hadn't appeared, it was very normal for them to use Dragon Bones to lure him out.

When Gerald heard the people in the bar talking, he began to hesitate about whether to participate in this competition!

The competition was also the topic of the bar tonight. After all, the prize money of 100 million lucas was not a small amount.

After work, when Gerald went to the lounge to change clothes, Claude also leaned over and said, "Boss, you have heard what the customers have been talking about, right?"

Gerald nodded.

"Do you want Theo to participate? Don't you need the bones? Although it is very likely to be a setup by Perrin's men!" Claude said.

Obviously, he also saw it.

They used five Dragon Bones as bargaining chips at once. This was obviously to attract Gerald or Gerald's people over so that Perrin's men could locate Gerald!

Franklin was in Sin City, and Perrin worked with Blood Lotus. And now, since it was the Northern District, the Holy Lord of the district was also directly involved in this.

It could be said that the power pooled in the competition was considerable. The man sent by Perrin was a super expert and ranked 6th place on the Sun List. He was extremely powerful.

The Holy Lord of the Northern District was also a super expert. Along with Franklin, who was going to enter the super level... And there might be other experts...

If Gerald had regained his Vital Energy, he might not be so afraid, but the problem was that he hadn't at all.

Gerald waved his hand and said, "Let's talk about it when we get back!"

Theo was already waiting for them outside. When they reached home, the house was quiet. Roger and his wife were still in a coma, and Jenna had fallen asleep.

Gerald called them to the lobby on the second floor. After sitting down, he told them about the news in the bar at night.

After Theo heard this, he looked at Gerald and said, "I will participate in it on your behalf and help you get the bones back!"

Theo himself was Watchman No. 15. Normally, Watchmen would not appear on the Moon List unless they were exposed. If Theo was exposed, he might be the match of the top ten on the list!

If Theo participated, he was very likely to win.

“No!” Valery frowned and said, “This is obviously a setup by Perrin’s men to make us show ourselves.”

“It doesn’t matter. My appearance shouldn’t have been exposed. They might know Boss, but they might not know me. Five Dragon Bones will greatly help Boss. I think it is worth a shot.” Theo insisted.

“Hear me out!” At this time, Gerald let out a breath and said, “I ... plan to risk it!”

“Huh?” Theo’s eyes lit up and he asked, “You will let me participate?”

Gerald shook his head and said, “No, I plan to participate myself.”

This was the result of Gerald’s consideration for the whole night.

Gerald’s words made everyone’s expressions change. Valery looked at Gerald and said, “You haven’t regained any of your Vital Energy. You must be crazy! Moreover, Franklin knows your appearance. If you show up, they will definitely make a move on you.”

“I’ve thought about it carefully,” Gerald muttered. “I still want to continue testing the method Milo told me to recover my Vital Energy. You always go easy on me when you attack me. And you are also worried that I will be in danger, so there will always be someone tagging along. My life is never at risk. I want to wager my life this time.”

“I don’t think so!” Just as Gerald finished speaking, Valery said calmly.

Gerald smiled at Valery and said, “Are you worried about me, Dr. Manning?”

“Don’t talk nonsense at this time,” Valery said. “Your body is in good condition now. It is only a matter of time before your Vital Energy recovers. There is no need to risk your life!”

Gerald shook his head and said, “I have to. We have been here for long, but we haven’t heard anything about Carolyn and Jacob. I can only be more worried every day. So, I have to take a risk. Don’t worry. Before I go, I will definitely disguise myself. It’ll be like signing a death warrant once I go in there. Also, I will not expose myself directly to a few super experts.”

At this point, Gerald licked his lips and added, “Isn’t Kristen excellent at makeup? When the time comes, she will apply makeup for me. She can change my face.”

“No matter what, I will not agree!” Valery said again.

Theo and the others also nodded and said, “Boss, we won’t agree either. You don’t have any Vital Energy at all. The bonus is 100 million lucs. I’m afraid that there will be many top experts and even people on the Moon List!”

Gerald let out a breath and looked at them. He said, “The discussion ends here. I have made up my mind. I plan to risk my life to get the method of recovering Vital Energy. If something really happens to me...”

Saying this, he looked at Valery and said, "By then, Dr. Manning, you'll have to think of a way to contact Blaine and ask him to take you away from here."

Valery looked at Gerald's determined eyes and frowned. But in the end, she did not refute it anymore because she knew that it would be useless.

They sighed.

"What the hell is going on with you guys? I'm going to see if I can recover my Vital Energy. Why do you guys make it seem that I'm going to die? Wait until I win the bet. After I recover my Vital Energy, we will occupy this city," Gerald said.

That night, because Gerald decided to participate in this competition, the atmosphere in the house was a bit depressing. They were all worried sick about him.

At ten o'clock the next morning, Kristen put on makeup for Gerald. She directly turned Gerald into a middle-aged man and even stuck a bit of a beard on his face. This made him look like a totally different person. Then Theo drove Gerald to the Northern District arena!

This arena was large and could accommodate seven to eight thousand people.

At the entrance of the arena, there were several registration points. People were making up long queues.

"Boss..." Theo looked at so many people and said, "Are you sure that..."

Gerald nodded and said, "Yes!"

They lined up for an hour and finally it was Gerald's turn.

At this time, at the registration point, a beautiful girl was sitting there. She was holding a document, and next to her was a person holding a camera and taking pictures.

Theo moved aside.

"Your name?" the beautiful girl asked.

Gerald pondered for a moment. He could not use his real name. He assumed that this must have something to do with Perrin and his men, so naturally, they would screen people by their names.

The name Garrett Kenneth couldn't be used either, because most people in Sin City knew that this name referred to the former Watchman No. 1!

Gerald let out a breath and then smiled, "Gerry Kenneth!"

This was his second identity in the city.

At

the same time, Charles was sitting at the edge of a swimming pool downtown. He looked at Davis in the pool and frowned!

The phone that Davis placed on the side suddenly rang.

Davis walked up from the pool. He wiped his hands and picked up the phone.

After a moment, his brow furrowed.

Then, he looked at Charles and said, "Gerald ... takes the competition for Dragon Bones!"

"Really?" Charles raised his eyes and asked, "His Vital Energy has recovered?"

"I don't know!" Davis said, "But you said that if he recovered his Vital Energy, I would be the first one he saw!"

"Then he should be crazy!" Charles frowned.

Chapter 375 Have Dinner With Us

The process for signing up was very fast. The staff only asked for a name and then took a photo to match the name.

It was already good to leave a name because it was possible that once people entered the arena, they might die directly.

"Because many people signed up, the first round will be participants fighting at the same time. You will be equally divided into four groups. Each group will have dozens or even hundreds of participants, but only one winner. Then the last round will decide who the final winner is! You are in Group C!" the staff said to Gerald.

Gerald nodded, indicating that there was no problem.

"Next!" After the beautiful girl saw Gerald nod, she did not continue to pay attention to him. Instead, she looked directly behind Gerald and spoke.

After getting out of the line, Theo widened his eyes and said, "This system is quite interesting."

After that, he looked at Gerald and said, "Boss, why don't we get out of this? I just saw several top experts."

"No way!" Gerald smiled at Theo and then shook his head!

As they spoke, they drove back home.

When they arrived at the door, Gerald was stunned. A sports car was parked there. It was the car that Jessie usually drove.

"Hey, gorgeous." Theo smiled and rushed home.

Gerald could only follow him in. As soon as he entered, he found Jessie and Eileen sitting on the stools on the first floor. Valery glanced at Gerald and said, "The person you are looking for is here."

Looking at Valery's cold look, Gerald coughed.

Eileen and Jessie were at a loss. Because Kristen put on makeup for Gerald, the two of them did not recognize him immediately.

They looked up and down at Gerald's clothes and figure and said in surprise, "You are... Gerald?"

"Yes." Gerald coughed and said, "Didn't I offend Farris yesterday? I dare not go out like usual, so I disguised myself."

Jessie and Eileen snorted. They did not believe Gerald's nonsense.

At this time, Eileen stood up, looked at Gerald, and said, "You don't have to go to the bar to work tonight."

"Huh?" Gerald was stunned and said, "Don't do this. I have to provide for the family."

"I will give you 2,000 lucs, and you will have dinner with us," Eileen looked at Gerald and said.

Gerald was at a loss for words. Then, he frowned and said, "What dinner?"

"A gathering, to be exact. Anyway, it's at the best restaurant in the Eastern District. Besides, you will get money. You have nothing to lose," Eileen said.

A gathering?

The gatherings they usually attended should be those of the important people in the Eastern District. At that time, Gerald might be able to hear some things about the district. Moreover, he could earn money. There was no reason for Gerald not to go.

He nodded and said, "Okay!"

Theo coughed and asked, "Do you need a handsome guy to be your plus-one? I don't need any money!"

Eileen looked at him with disgust and said, "No need!"

Then she said to Gerald, "Go and remove your makeup!"

Gerald nodded. He ran to the second floor to remove his makeup and returned to his original appearance. Then he ran downstairs.

"It looks much better," Eileen said. "Let's go!"

Gerald frowned and said, "Why are we leaving so early? Isn't it dinner?"

"You need a nice outfit," Eileen said.

Gerald nodded and said, "Okay! Give me the money first!"

"Are you having some sort of money problems?" Eileen asked.

Then she took out 2,000 lucs and handed it to Gerald. Gerald handed the money to Claude and went out with the two of them.

In the car, Gerald asked, "Why do you want me to go with you?"

Eileen said, "There are a few of our friends at this party. I told them about you. They all want to see what that man looks like."

It turned out that Gerald was there to be watched!

But he didn't care. His purpose was to see if he could get some useful information.

"Will there be a lot of people?" Gerald asked.

"Not much, about ten. They are all from the younger generation of the three major forces in the east," Eileen explained.

They took Gerald to the mall and bought him a suit. After he put it on, Eileen and Jessie couldn't help but be stunned.

"You look good in the suit. If Garrett wore a suit, he would definitely look more handsome and charming!" Eileen said.

Gerald was speechless, thinking, Garrett was right in front of you.

After they bought the suit, it was already five o'clock in the afternoon. Eileen looked at the time and said, "It's about time, let's go!"

Gerald nodded, and then the three drove to the center of the Eastern District. They soon arrived at the entrance of a huge restaurant named Cat Restaurant.

"What a weird name for a restaurant," Gerald said.

Eileen glared at him and said, "Don't talk nonsense. This restaurant is owned by Belinda Charlton, the Eastern District's Holy Lord, AKA Cat Lady. If someone hears you say things like that, you will be finished!"

Gerald was speechless and then closed his mouth!

Eileen smiled and said, "Let's go in!"

As they spoke, Gerald followed the two girls into the restaurant. They passed through the hall and walked to a private room.

After pushing open the door of the private room, the three of them walked in.

Gerald glanced at the room and found that there were three people sitting in the room, two men and one woman. The three of them were talking about something. When they saw Jessie and Eileen walk in, they all looked over.

"You guys finally came!" The girl smiled and said. Then she looked at Gerald and asked, "Is this who you guys were talking about, the person looking exactly like Garrett?"

In fact, in this city, there were not many people who had seen Gerald. Those who had watched Gerald's last battle had all seen what he looked like, but not many people could watch that battle. At that time, Gerald was facing a super expert, and his mask was smashed.

Eileen and Jessie happened to be two of the people who had seen the battle.

"Yes, almost exactly the same, but their personalities are different." Eileen nodded and smiled bitterly.

At this time, a man with tattoos on his arms stood up. He frowned and said, "So this is what that person looks like. Eileen, I have asked you out so many times, but you never agreed. Turns out this is your type. I thought he was some very handsome guy!"

Eileen's face flushed with anger as she said, "Alfredo, mind your words."

Alfredo curled his lips and said, "What's the problem? That person is not here, and this guy in front of you is just a waiter working in a bar."

Chapter 376 Are You His Dog?

Alfredo seemed to be hostile toward Gerald, which made Gerald a little confused.

From the former conversation, Alfredo seemed to be interested in Eileen, and he had pursued her for many years, but Eileen didn't agree to be his girlfriend. Alfredo might also know that Eileen could not forget Garrett. And in fact, Garrett was Gerald, so Alfredo didn't like Gerald!

Until now, Gerald still did not understand why Eileen and Jessie liked him. He had not met them once five years ago, let alone had a chat with them!

"Alfredo, I am really annoyed the moment I see you!" Eileen frowned, and then she directly pulled Gerald's arm and said, "Come and sit. Just ignore him!"

As she spoke, she pulled Gerald to the table and sat down.

As soon as they sat down, Gerald noticed that another man was glaring at him. That gaze made Gerald extremely uncomfortable! The man looked very thin and wore a pair of glasses. His look was vicious, which made Gerald very uncomfortable.

Eileen and Jessie sat on both sides of Gerald. Seeing this, Alfredo pulled a long face. He snorted coldly and then sat down. Gerald looked at Eileen suspiciously and asked, "By the way, why do you like Garrett? Have you ever said a word to him?" "You don't understand. In that battle back then, a man who was a few years older than us challenged super experts and won the battle. When he won, he stood on the roof and looked back with a smile. That smile was sunny, handsome, domineering, confident... His face with blood was the most attractive. Eileen paused for a while and added, "I still remember his bright smile."

When Gerald heard this, he was a bit proud.

“From what you said, that person is really handsome and powerful!” Gerald said.

One after another, some people walked in. Many people looked at Gerald curiously, and Gerald did not care.

Soon, more and more people came to sit down, and the entire table was full. At this time, the door opened, and a person walked in.

When they saw this person, the expressions of people in the room changed slightly. And then everyone stood up.

“Mr. Wilcox!” Some people bowed and said.

A smile appeared on Alfredo’s face. He quickly went over and said, “Mr. Wilcox, you finally come.”

Although Eileen bowed, she asked in a low voice, “Who asked him to come?”

“I don’t know. We never call him to our gathering...” someone said in a low voice. “It’s probably Alfredo. Alfredo has a good relationship with him!”

After a while, Gerald figured out the relationship between these people. They were all people from some of the major forces in the Eastern District. The relationships between the forces were not good. But there were very few educational institutions in this city. Therefore, most of these young people were classmates. Occasionally, they would gather together.

At the same time, Gerald began to ponder in his heart. He thought, they all respect that person. He should be the biological child or grandson of a Holy Lord in Sin City

There is only one lord whose surname was Wilcox, and that is the Holy Lord of the Southern District, Bowen Wilcox.

However, Bowen was relatively low-key. Even five years ago, Gerald and Bowen had only met once. They didn’t even have a talk before.

While Gerald was thinking, he heard Jessie say something. “This is the grandson of the Holy Lord of the Southern District, Joseph Wilcox! Watch your mouth and don’t provoke him. Joseph is different from his grandfather. His grandfather is very low-key, but Joseph is quite high-profile.”

Jessie paused for a while, then she added, “Like Alfredo, he is also pursuing Eileen!”

Eileen didn’t look happy.

At this time, Joseph walked in. He smiled and said, ‘Everyone, don’t be so timid. We are classmates. Be at ease. Otherwise, I won’t feel comfortable attending your party.’”

Gerald was dumbfounded. Alfredo was pursuing Eileen, and so was Joseph. Under such circumstances, Alfredo and Joseph had a good relationship. This was something that surprised Gerald.

“Well, the table is occupied!” Joseph frowned and added, “I don’t even have a place to sit!”

“We can ask the waitress to...”

Just as one of them was about to ask the waitress to get a chair, Alfredo suddenly said, “The one called Gerald, please get up. You are a waiter in the bar anyway. If I’m right, Eileen must have spent money to invite you here today. Just stand aside and continue to be a waiter for us. This job suits you.”

Gerald frowned!

Eileen gritted her teeth and said, “I asked him to come over for dinner. Alfredo, don’t go too far!”

At this time, Joseph chuckled. He looked at Gerald and walked over to Gerald. He sized up Gerald and said, “I didn’t expect that Eileen would like a person like you.”

As he spoke, he reached out and was about to slap Gerald in the face!

Gerald instinctively retreated backward and frowned.

Alfredo became angry as he said, “Gerald, Mr. Wilcox wants to slap your face. How dare you dodge? Do you want to die?”

Gerald frowned deeply. He had come here to see if he could get some information. Well, it seemed that not only could he not get any information, but he might also encounter a lot of trouble.

Eileen was angry. She said, “Alfredo, Joseph, don’t go too far. I can’t afford to offend you. But if you keep doing this, I will leave right away.”

As she spoke, she directly turned around and said, “Gerald, Jessie, let’s go!”

Joseph smiled and said, “Eileen, you’re still the girl I know. I like you. Well, if only my grandfather was willing to help me. In that way, we probably have children now. Unfortunately, my grandfather isn’t willing to help me.”

Gerald was a bit stunned.

Indeed, if Bowen was willing to help Joseph and talk to Eileen’s parents, Eileen’s family would not be able to refuse since Bowen was a Holy Lord.

It seemed that Bowen did not care much about Joseph’s marriage.

“Just add a chair. You don’t need to leave. I came here today to see what the person Eileen likes looks like,” Joseph smiled and put his hand away.

However, Gerald clearly felt a trace of coldness and killing intent.

Everyone shifted their seats, and then a chair was added.

At this time, Joseph did not sit in the new chair. He glanced at Gerald and said, “Get up and sit over there! I want to sit here with Eileen.”

Gerald slowly breathed out. Joseph had kept causing trouble for Gerald just now, but Gerald did not say anything. But Gerald did not expect that Joseph would continue to make things difficult for him!

Seeing that Gerald sat still, Alfredo scolded, “Hey, didn’t you hear what Mr. Wilcox said? Get up now!”

Gerald looked up at Alfredo and asked, “You always do what he asks you to do. Are you his dog?”

As soon as Gerald finished speaking, everyone in the room was silent.

Chapter 377 What Do You Think of My Slap?

In a private room of the Cat Restaurant, it was quiet at this time

Everyone looked at Gerald in shock. They did not expect that Gerald would dare to talk to someone like this.

Alfredo was stunned for a moment!

At this time, Jessie and Eileen had an idea in their minds at the same time.

“Not good!”

At this moment, they started to panic.

The next second, they clearly saw the changes on Alfredo’s face. Alfredo was also shocked at first. Then his face twisted as he became angry!

In front of Gerald, the man with glasses, whose look was evil, had a smile on his face. Then he muttered, “Interesting!”

Alfredo stared at Gerald and then said in a low voice, “You son of a bitch... Say that again!”

Gerald smiled and said disdainfully, “I said that are you his dog? You’re so obedient to him. If you are, how dare you ask me to give up my seat? Why should I listen to a dog? If you are not his dog, then what the hell are you doing? He hasn’t said anything yet!”

Hearing this, Alfredo was so angry that his eyes almost popped out. He stared at Gerald and said, “Boy, you are just a waiter working in the bar. How dare you talk to me like this? I want you dead!”

As he spoke, he suddenly grabbed Gerald!

Eileen thought that Gerald had never practiced martial arts, so she quickly grabbed Alfredo’s hand with one hand

Jessie quickly pulled Gerald and said, “Gerald, hurry up and apologize to Alfredo!”

Farris was the most powerful person in the Western District, while Belinda was the most powerful person in the Eastern District. And Alfredo’s father was second to Belinda.

If Gerald provoked Alfredo, Gerald would not end well.

Therefore, Jessie wanted Gerald to apologize.

Eileen also added, "Alfredo, Gerald doesn't understand the rules here. You have been mocking him just now. That's why he is so angry.

Please forgive him!"

"Forgive him?" Alfredo gritted his teeth and added, "No one has dared to say that to me since I was a child. This bastard dared to show off in front of me. He's just a waiter at the bar! How dare he!

"I can let him go. But he just said that I am a dog, right? He must kneel in front of me now and bark for half an hour. Only then can I not kill him."

Joseph chuckled. He rubbed his nose and looked at Gerald, saying, "This idea is not bad!"

The others also cheered up.

Eileen and Jessie's expressions changed slightly!

The two of them were now in a dilemma, and they began to regret bringing Gerald over.

"Alfredo, you..." Eileen gritted her teeth.

At this time, Alfredo said, "Of course, if you can be my girlfriend, maybe I will forgive him and let him go."

"What the hell?" Joseph was stunned, then he added, "That's your idea. But I won't be happy. Only if that bastard was willing to bark like a dog for an hour, will I let him go!

"Moreover, we had a deal that we would have a fair competition. Why are you threatening Eileen now?" Joseph glared at Alfredo.

Alfredo and Joseph seemed to think that Gerald was doomed

Gerald was still sitting there with a smile on his face.

"I told you to bark like a dog. Do you hear me?" Alfredo was angry when he saw that Gerald was still indifferent, not even a little bit afraid.

Jessie gritted her teeth and said, "Alfredo, Joseph, let's just forget it. Eileen and I are leaving with Gerald now. No one wants to cause trouble, but you two kept causing trouble to Gerald."

"What? Isn't what I said the truth? Isn't he a waiter?" Alfredo looked at Gerald with disgust.

After saying that, he no longer cared about Eileen and directly reached out to grab Gerald.

Gerald had lots of ways to dodge it. But at this time, he couldn't use his Vital Energy at all. He couldn't dodge. He was directly caught by Alfredo. At the same time, Alfredo applied his Vital Energy. Gerald staggered back and crashed into the wall!

At this moment, Gerald could feel that something was surging inside his body.

From the strength of Alfredo's Vital Energy, Gerald guessed that Alfredo was at the intermediate level

Gerald never expected that he would be bullied by such a person one day.

He glanced at Eileen and Jessie!

Eileen and Jessie quickly ran over to help Gerald up, and at the same time, they stood in front of Gerald. Eileen said, "Alfredo, do you really want to be our enemies?"

"This has nothing to do with you. I am only teaching this guy a lesson," Alfredo said.

At this time, two girls came over and pulled Jessie and Eileen away.

Eileen said with an angry expression, "You asked me to bring him here. After I brought him here, you guys bullied him. How can you do this? I will remember what you did today!"

Jessie also took a deep breath. Then she said, "If you really do this, Eileen and I will not participate in your gathering."

The two girls hoped that they could help Gerald as much as possible!

Then, the two of them looked at Gerald and found that Gerald was leaning against the wall and smiling at them.

"Such a fool!" Eileen cursed in her mind, but she became even more anxious.

Alfredo stared at Gerald and said, "Very good. Very funny. I will make you cry later! I gave you a chance, but you are not willing to bark like a dog. Then... You will die here today!"

As Alfredo spoke, he directly punched Gerald's head!

Although Gerald did not have Vital Energy, he still had his combat skills. He turned his body to dodge.

At this time, the man with glasses appeared next to Gerald. Seeing that Gerald wanted to dodge, he smiled and pushed Gerald.

Bang!

Gerald tilted his head, but his shoulder was punched badly.

He felt pain in his shoulder.

"Gerald!" Eileen and Jessie were shocked.

However, what surprised everyone was that they found that Gerald did not make any screams. Gerald did not even frown.

Instead, he bore the punch. And then he raised his hand.

No one expected that Gerald would actually think of fighting back in such a situation. They could also see that Gerald did not have the slightest bit of Vital Energy

Alfredo did not expect Gerald would retaliate, so Alfredo did not dodge.

In such a situation, Gerald raised his hand and slapped Alfredo in the face.

“Clap!”

A crisp sound rang out in the entire room

At this moment, people in the private room became silent once again. Some people looked at Gerald in astonishment.

Gerald smiled and then looked at Eileen and Jessie. He grinned and asked, “What do you think of my slap?”

Eileen and Jessie were stunned.

Alfredo’s face quickly became swollen. His eyes were bloodshot. He said, “Bastard... I will kill you!”

Chapter 378 Hover Near Death

“I want you to die!” Alfredo roared.

In this city, in the Eastern District, he could do whatever he wanted.

No one had the audacity to annoy him. Slapping his face was even more out of the discussion. Only he could slap people in the face, and no one could slap him.

And now, Gerald slapped his face and even had a mischievous smile on his face.

He was furious, and his entire face began to twist.

Joseph stood to the side and watched this with great interest. He sized up Gerald, seeming to have some interest in Gerald.

“My saber!” Alfredo roared to the side.

As soon as he finished speaking, here went the sound of drawing out the saber, and at the same time, a bright long saber was thrown toward him.

Gerald’s expression also changed slightly.

He could tell that Alfredo wanted to kill him.

“Stop! Alfredo, stop!” Eileen saw this and panicked.

Jessie struggled to break free, but someone held her tightly and said, “Jessie, don’t go in there. He is asking for his own death.”

Alfredo held the saber and stared at Gerald!

Gerald was also on guard. He planned to slip away.

He planned to come over and see if he can get some information, but he did not expect that it would end up like this.

It was beneath him if he really died in the hands of a waste like Alfredo.

“Go to hell!” Alfredo roared and slashed at Gerald.

Gerald’s expression changed slightly, and he wanted to roll to the side.

At the same time, the guy with glasses laughed again and blocked Gerald’s way.

“Shit!” Gerald’s expression changed.

Looking at the approaching saber, Gerald felt as if something was waking up in his body.

Vital Energy which had disappeared for more than a month seemed to be coming out.

Gerald was looking forward to it. With one side being blocked, he had to roll on the ground and avoid the saber.

The energy in his body was getting stronger and stronger.

“It worked! It’s effective.” Gerald let out a breath.

Come on, my Vital Energy. As soon as it’s recovered, I’ll beat all of you to death, Gerald roared to himself, expecting the recovery.

He acted quickly. After he rolled to the ground, he ran to the side.

Joseph was standing at this side before, but he seemed to deliberately let Gerald go, or rather, he enjoyed doing so. When Alfredo drew his saber, he stepped aside.

Alfredo’s saber didn’t get Gerald. He would not let Gerald off so easily. He raised his saber and chased after him once again.

“Pound.”

Gerald’s heart beat very fast. He felt that his Vital Energy would break out at any moment

“Bang!”

At this moment, the door was suddenly pushed open

“How dare you fight in my restaurant? I can feel Vital Energy from the outside.” At the door, a woman in uniform walked in. Her eyes were very cold!

Gerald was running away, so he was facing this person with his back.

The moment this woman appeared, he felt that Vital Energy in his body that was about to break out of his body disappeared

He frowned and turned to look. He was slightly stunned to find out this person was one of the 12 servants of Belinda on the Moon

List

However, different from before when she acted charming when seeing Gerald and Claude, she looked cold.

“Aleen!” Everyone looked at the door in shock.

This woman’s name was Aleen Levine. Her gaze slowly moved and fell on Alfredo who was holding a saber.

When Alfredo saw her gaze sweeping over, his entire body trembled slightly.

When Aleen’s gaze landed on the miserable Gerald, she went blank for a second.

After a brief pause, she looked at Alfredo and said, “So, you were the one who did it?”

Cold sweat covered Alfredo’s forehead.

“L...I...” Alfredo hurriedly said, “Aleen, it was him who spoke rudely to me, so I want to teach him a lesson. I was so angry that I fought here. I’m sorry. I will solve it outside the restaurant.”

Aleen frowned. She looked at Gerald. At this time, everyone was looking at her. Few people were paying attention to Gerald, except for Eileen and Jessie!

The two were held back, but their eyes were fixed on Gerald. They were worried about Gerald’s safety.

So, the two found that Gerald and Aleen were looking at each other.

Then Gerald’s lips moved slightly, and he said something without making a sound!

They could see what it meant. Similarly, Aleen who was not far away understood him..

“Kill”

Yes, Gerald was saying this to Aleen.

Alfredo obviously wanted to kill Gerald, so Gerald would not go easy on him.

Jessie and Eileen were both stunned. He did not expect that Gerald would say this, and even more, he said this to Aleen.

After all, Aleen was an expert ranked 12 on the Moon List. She worked for Belinda, the Holy Lord.

The two girls turned their gazes to Aleen.

Aleen received Gerald’s message, and then she looked up at Alfredo and said faintly. “You use violence in my place and want to kill people. Do you think I'll let you off the hook?"

Alfredo was stunned for a moment. A trace of fear flashed in his mind!

"Aleen!" At this time, Joseph spoke, "For the sake of me and my grandfather, let him go. It is Gerald's fault. He is just a waiter, and he came and annoyed us..."

"Clap!"

Before he could finish his words, Aleen moved and got in front of Joseph in one step. Then, she raised her hand and slapped Joseph on the face.

Joseph flipped over from the chair, lying on the ground. He spat out a mouthful of blood and two broken teeth!

"Who are you to get a say here? You mean nothing to me Aleen was disdainful.

Then he turned to look at Alfredo. With a movement of her wrist, the long saber in Alfredo's hand was snatched away by Aleen Aleen then held the saber against his neck.

"..." Now, Alfredo was completely anxious.

No one had ever dared to cause trouble in this restaurant.

Alfredo made a move because he was annoyed. He thought that he would at most compensate with some money or an apology After all, his father was a famous person in the East District and even the entire Sin City. Even Belinda would be polite to him.

However, he did not know that Gerald was Garrett, the man who made Sin City tremble five years ago.

He did not know that Aleen would listen to Gerald.

Now fear overwhelmed him, his face full of sweat. He knelt on the ground and begged, "Aleen, it is all my fault. I'm sorry"

"You do something, you pay the price." Aleen sneered, her wrist moved, and the long saber instantly cut Alfredo's throat!

Chapter 379 11 Give You a Son

This time, the room was quiet again. Some people widened their eyes and took a step back.

The child of the leader of the most powerful forces in the Eastern District died.

He died in front of them, fresh blood flowing all over the ground.

But no one dared to utter a word.

Because the person who attacked was Belinda's person. This woman was ranked eleventh on the Sun List and was a super expert. She was the Holy Lord of the Eastern District.

No one dared to utter a word.

They had never expected that they would be directly killed if they fought in this place.

Including Eileen and Jessie, none of them had expected that things would end up like this.

The others did not know, but the two of them were clear that the one who made Aleen kill Alfredo was Gerald.

At this time, their hearts were filled with all kinds of emotions.

Why would Aleen listen to Gerald?

Did they know each other?

Besides, they were part of the reason why Alfredo died. Although the one who attacked was Belinda and Alfredo's father did not dare to say no to Belinda, he would definitely take revenge on them and Gerald.

It was all because of Gerald.

Joseph darkened his face, but he did not dare to say anything either. He got up from the ground and looked at Alfredo who was lying in a pool of blood, and then looked at Gerald who was not far away with a gloomy face.

"Clang!"

At this time, Aleen threw the saber on the ground, then looked up at them and said, "Do you still want to continue eating? If you want, I will change a room for you. I will find someone here to deal with it!"

No one spoke.

Eileen exhaled. She felt that because of this matter, the Eastern District might fall into some trouble. If Alfredo's father really wanted to take revenge on them, then Silent Slayers would definitely protect the two of them. What was worse, it might even become a struggle between two forces.

They had to go back as soon as possible and tell their fathers about it.

The people with two women in their arms did not dare to continue holding them. They released their grips and retreated to the side.

Jessie quickly said, "You guys continue. We have something to do and will leave first!"

She walked over, took Gerald's hand, bowed to Aleen, and then walked out.

Eileen also followed them quickly. Aleen looked at the two with interest, then turned and left the room.

In the private room, everyone else looked at the corpse on the ground with a dull face.

"Gerald!" Just as she got in the car, Eileen turned around and asked, "Do you... know Aleen? Or do you know Belinda? What is your relationship with her?"

Gerald curled his lips and said, "I don't know. That woman came in and wanted to kill someone. How would I know what happened?"

“Drop your act. I saw you and Aleen looking at each other. Then you used lip language to ask Aleen to kill Alfredo, and then Aleen made a move,” Jessie said. “Moreover, you went to the Western District yesterday and saved someone from Famis. Eileen and I were very anxious at that time and thought that something might happen to you, but you brought the person out safe and sound. Also, according to the news my father received, Farris’ biological son, Nardo, is also dead. Don’t say that it has nothing to do with you!”

Gerald was speechless. He did not expect the two girls to see that scene.

As she spoke, Jessie took Gerald’s hand and asked seriously, “Tell me honestly, are you Garrett?”

In fact, Jessie still didn’t believe it.

If it was Garrett, he shouldn’t have worked as a bartender in a bar. If it was Garrett, he shouldn’t have been in such a sorry state when Alfredo attacked him with a saber just now. If it was Garrett, he could have made Alfredo kneel on the ground and beg for mercy with a single finger.

But these two things made Gerald shrouded in a layer of mystery. If not for like this, they would never have been able to explain all of this

Gerald was speechless. Then, he smiled bitterly and said, “I didn’t expect you to see through it. Alright. I’ll show my hand. I’m actually the Garrett you like. It’s just that for some reason, I had to hide. I went to the bar to make a living.

Seeing Gerald readily admit it, the two girls were stunned.

After a while, Eileen hit Gerald and said, ‘I don’t believe it. That person won’t be as useless as you. Tell me honestly, what is going on?”

Words failed Gerald.

He thought, damn it. Women are so troublesome. They asked me and I admitted it. Then they still don’t believe what I said.

“Okay,” Gerald said helplessly. “I accidentally met Belinda. She owed me a big favor. Then I also met Aleen. Yesterday, I asked Belinda for help. Aleen was her servant. Seeing that I was bullied today, she was naturally willing to listen to me!”

This explanation sounded more believable to the two girls. Eileen nodded and said, “That’s more like it. You look like Garrett and you are lucky. You actually know Belinda. I guess that she is willing to help you because you look like Garrett. She is very cold, and I heard that she had pursued Garrett before, but Garrett refused her because she was too old!”

Then, Eileen whispered, “I heard that she also secretly watched Garrett bathe!”

Gerald was sweating. It seemed to be the other way around.

He coughed and said, "Well, if there is nothing else, send me back first."

"Alright." At this time, Jessie started the car. She said while driving. "By the way, Gerald, you'd better keep a low profilé recently. Alfredo's father is called Johnnie Topp. His son is dead, and he will definitely not let it go so easily. He does not dare to deal with Belinda and Aleen. He may be a little afraid of us, but he will definitely take revenge on you after knowing that you are just a bartender."

"Understood," Gerald said

"Take it seriously. Gerald, let me tell you. This is Sin City. I know that you have not been here for long, and you are a lucky man. You have met a big shot like Belinda, but here, you can't always be so lucky." Jessie warned.

As they spoke, they drove toward Roger's house. About half an hour later, they stopped at the intersection. Gerald got out of the car and the two of them left.

Gerald adjusted his suit, held his clothes in his hand, and was about to walk toward Roger's house.

"Hey, you look quite handsome in this suit." At this time, a pleasant voice sounded.

Gerald got out of the car at an intersection opposite Roger's house, and this place was exactly where the old swindler lived.

Ever since Milo told him about this old swindler, Gerald had been thinking that this old swindler was probably a super expert. He might be psychopathic. That was why he came here to be a fortune-teller.

Therefore, Gerald didn't communicate much with this guy, mainly because Gerald didn't know what his purpose was.

Hearing this voice, Gerald looked up and saw a charming little girl lying on the balcony on the second floor, looking at Gerald with smile.

Gerald smiled proudly and said, "You haven't seen me when I am handsome?"

"Huh?" The girl looked surprised and said, "Then let me see it!"

"Forget it!" Gerald said.

"Bah!" The girl spat and then asked, "Let me ask you. Why are you not willing to marry me? I am even willing to be your second wife. Am I not beautiful? My grandpa said that I have a good butt and will give birth to a son for you."

"Don't listen to your grandpa's nonsense. A girl like you should watch TV, adore stars, and give birth to children," Gerald said speechlessly.

“Watch TV and adore stars?” The girl showed a confused look and said, “I have heard of TV. What do you mean by adoring stars?”

Well, it was obvious that she was a child who grew up in this city.

Gerald waved his hand and said, “It’s nothing. You can play by yourself. I will go back first!”

“Remember my name. My name is Gloria Moore. I will give you a son,” Gloria Moore said.

Just as she finished speaking, at the opposite door, Valery walked to the side of the road with a basin of water for washing vegetables. When Valery heard this, she looked over and glanced at Gloria on the balcony. Then she looked at Gerald in a suit.

Then Valery snorted coldly, her eyes cold. She turned and walked into the room.

Chapter 380 A Gun That Has Injured Davis

Gerald’s heart skipped a beat, and he quickly ran over

When he reached the room, he heard a sound coming from the kitchen. He ran over eagerly. At this time, Valery, Jolie, and Kristen were busy in the kitchen.

Of course, the head chef was Valery, and the other two were helping her.

“Dr. Manning, you misunderstood just now. That old man always wanted to marry his granddaughter to me. I didn’t expect that girl to be so unrestrained,” Gerald said.

Valery glanced at him and then asked, “What does it have to do with me? Why are you explaining it to me?”

Gerald choked for a moment, then coughed twice and said, “It’s also my fault for being too outstanding. I can always attract these women. I am also very distressed because I am charming. Dr. Manning, you have to seize the opportunity!”

Valery looked at him with disdain, then directly ignored Gerald’s boasting and asked, “Didn’t you dine out?” “Drop it. Damn. There is a risk of dining out with beautiful girls, I was almost killed,” Gerald said speechlessly.

When Valery heard this, her eyes suddenly became cold, “Who?”

“Alfredo? A man born in purple like Nardo. His father is Johnnie!” Gerald said. “This bastard has been trying to take advantage of me I said a few words and he was going to kill me.”

“Boss, I will help you kill this bastard, Kristen said with her head tilted.

Gerald shook his head and said, “No need. He is dead. The place where he dined was the restaurant opened by Belinda. Then her servant recognized me and helped him solve it. But after that, Johnnie might take revenge on us, but I don’t care.”

“And I gained something unexpected this time!” Gerald licked his lips and said.

“Well?” The group looked at him. Jolie asked, “What? Did you win over Jessie and the other girl? Gerald, I can tell you that when Audrey finds out, she will definitely go and complain to Mason and the others. I can’t figure it out. Audrey is so beautiful. Why do you still go out to flirt with other women?”

Valery frowned and asked, “Audrey? Audrey Herman?”

“Yes!” Jolie said. “She is Gerald’s girlfriend and she has met Gerald’s parents. Don’t you know?”

Valery’s expression was a bit strange when she heard this. Then she looked at Gerald and said, “You are really something.”

“Damn! It’s a huge misunderstanding. I asked Audrey to pretend to be my girlfriend to deal with my parents. My parents urged me to go on blind dates every day during that time, but there is nothing between me and Audrey.” As Gerald spoke, he glared at Jolie and said, “Jolie, you can’t falsely accuse me. I only have Dr. Manning in my heart!”

Jolie pouted and said, “How would I know? I knew that you took her home to see your parents.”

“What did you gain?” Valery did not seem to have any plans to dwell on this and directly repeated Gerald’s question.

“Damn. I was interrupted by Jolie,” Gerald said. “The method Milo told me last time was useful. When facing life and death, it was possible to really recover Vital Energy. I felt it today, but after Belinda’s servant came in, the sense of danger disappeared and the signs of recovery were gone. However, it proved that this method was indeed useful.”

Valery glanced at Gerald and said, “It seems that this method is really useful. Your Vital Energy is sealed because of the tide of death. Your body is over-damaged, causing your body to be sealed. Your Vital Energy is not smooth, but in a crisis, the self-protection consciousness of your body will be stimulated, so your Vital Energy will recover?”

She pondered as she cooked.

“In short, when the weekend comes, I will participate in the competition and know the specific situation. When the time comes, it will be a life and death battle, and it will be a chaotic battle of dozens of people,” Gerald said with a smile.

“Go out Don’t delay our cooking Valery saw Gerald’s appearance and asked him to leave.

At the same time, on the other side, in Belinda’s manor, Belinda was sitting on the edge of the pool. Her hands were on the ground, and her fair feet were swinging on the water, looking quite tempting

But if Gerald was here, he would not have the slightest bit of feelings for Belinda, because he knew that Belinda was actually quite old.

“Master!” At this time. Aleen walked over.

Unlike in Cat Restaurant, Aleen returned to the manor and changed into a maid outfit.

"Are you back? Belinda asked with a smile.

"Yes, something happened in the restaurant, today." Aleen said. "Gerald was almost killed by Johnnie's son inside."

"Huh?" Belinda's eyes moved, and a trace of killing intent radiated from her eyes.

"I don't know why. In the end, Gerald suggested that I kill that bastard, and I killed him. Alfredo really has a bad reputation in the Eastern District. This can also be regarded as getting rid of harm for the people," Aleen said. "But I think Johnnie will not let him go so easily. Should we go warn Johnnie?"

Belinda pondered for a moment and said, "Although there is something wrong with Gerald's body and he seems to be unable to use Vital Energy, he should not be afraid of Johnnie. There is a sniper beside him."

Speaking of this, Belinda took a deep look at Aleen and said, "That guy is called Claude. If I don't get close to him, he may also be a threat to me."

"Is he that powerful? That day when I chatted with him, he was just at the advanced level," Aleen was stunned and said.

"But his sniper rifle is powerful. Five years ago, you were not here. At that time, his sniper rifle was specially made and shot at Davis. Davis was injured," Belinda said.

"What!" Aleen paled.

She knew very well what kind of person Davis was. Although it was only an injury, it was enough to shock people.

Davis was the second on the Sun List. Many people even thought that he was the real first. After all, the current first place could only be slashed once.

"That guy looks quite dull..." Aleen said with a frown.

"Dull!" Belinda sneered and said, "None of the men from Night Watch are good. You actually think he is dull!"

Aleen heard this and suddenly felt a little confused.

She thought about Claude when he faced her, and she seemed to be a little confused about what was going on.

"Anyway, that's all I have to say. Either you hook up with him or he pursues you, it's your private matter. I won't interfere with anything." Belinda said. Then she changed the topic and said, "In addition, go warn Johnnie and let him ignore this matter. Davis ordered us not to help Gerald and the others. We can't do this on the surface, but..."

“Beep, beep, beep...”

As she said this, her phone suddenly rang. It was from Davis,

Belinda frowned and picked up the phone. Davis’ voice sounded from the phone, “Today, Gerald provoked Johnnie’s people in your restaurant. I won’t bother about the matter of your servant helping to kill Alfredo, but don’t interfere. Understand?”

Belinda snorted and hung up the phone.

Then she thought about it, looked at Aleen, and said, “Forget it. Don’t warn Johnnie. Let them solve it themselves!”
