

Slumdog 741

Chapter 741 Charge

And in the sky, the great battle between people of the level of Flame Decay continued

The Purple Elite Ghost was falling, Gerald was also falling toward the ground while fighting with it. And he was falling faster and faster.

The battle was in the air. Although Gerald had reached the level of Flame Decay, he couldn't fly. Therefore, he was unable to use all his strength when fighting in the air.

"Come here. Let's go down first!" Hector also noticed this. He shouted at Gerald.

Gerald repelled the Purple Elite Ghost with his sword. Hector quickly came over to catch him. Then Hector caught Blaine. They stood on Hector's shoulders and confronted three Purple Elite Ghosts. At the same time, they continued falling to the ground!

Countless aircraft dived like meteors flying across the sky.

In Bismarck, some reporters appeared again. They risked their lives to shoot the sky. Of course, they didn't dare to go to the Elite Ghosts' landing point, which was mentioned in the broadcast.

There were too many Elite Ghosts, they didn't dare to go there.

Gerald used the blue pellets to kill thousands of Elite Ghosts in the sky, but it was nothing to the army of Elite

Ghosts

On the ground of Bismarck, cars were moving forward quickly, gathering around the Elite Ghosts' landing point.

Some black figures were weaving fast in the city.

In the face of such a dangerous situation, the Watchmen were at the forefront.

They carried two sabers on their backs and were dressed in black battle suits. They traveled in the opposite direction of the crowd.

There were more Elite Ghosts coming than the last time. The first large-scale invasion of the Elite Ghosts had reduced the number of Watchmen greatly. Now, only around 300,000 people could fight in the world.

There were much fewer American Watchmen available.

As for Bismarck, because it was the headquarters of Night Watch, it had many Watchmen. But there were only twenty thousand of them. The other Watchmen were all over the country and needed time to come over These twenty thousand Watchmen would have to withstand the first wave of attacks from the Elite Ghosts.

They were waiting for reinforcements from other places.

It was a deadly battle!

However, no one was afraid. Because the legendary Team 11762 was at the front. They were fearless.

At this time, all the people in the command center of Night Watch's headquarters were about to explode. They kept making and answering calls to reach everyone. Orders were issued one after another!

"The experts of the Four Ancient Clans in Sacramento can arrive here in half an hour. Ask Gerald to think of a way to buy us half an hour. They have caught us off guard." Zackary shouted loudly at the people of Team

There were many Watchmen in Bismarck but few of them were experts. Most of the super experts were in other places.

People were on their way to the battlefield, including Triston.

"Got it. We and Boss will think of a way." Theo said.

Zackary rubbed his head and said, "Gerald and the others' actions seemed to have angered the Elite Ghosts. That was why they let the whole army land in this place. Now that it has happened, we can only trust them."

Then Zackary set another channel and shouted, "Send reinforcements here as soon as possible. Be quick! Go directly to the sky above the destination and land from there!"

Everyone around the world noticed this scene. They noticed that the light dots in the sky began to move like meteors. They moved in other directions and disappeared!

All the televisions and radios were news about the Elite Ghosts attacking American Night Watch in Bismarck All the Watchmen had boarded planes and headed to Bismarck to help them.

However, it would take a few hours for the reinforcements to arrive!

The soldiers at hand were American Watchmen. And the Asian Watchmen might arrive earlier than other troops.

In Bismarck, the reporters began to shoot the situation in the sky. The Bismarck TV station became the focus of attention Since they were on the battlefield, they were the first to report the situation. The camera drones kept going up, and the entire country's audience changed to this channel.

In the manor in Washington where the Lam's house was located, when people heard that the Elite Ghosts' landing point was in Bismarck, they got out of the basement. Many people were watching the live news in their rooms. About seventy or eighty people who were close to the Lam family gathered in a large hall. They watched the news on a huge screen.

"It's purple... Grandpa, the purple one has appeared. There are four Purple Elite Ghosts. And this time... Kerr saw four Purple Elite Ghosts in a scene, and his expression suddenly changed!

After the lectures in the past few months, everyone learned some knowledge about the Elite Ghosts. Martial arts gradually aroused the attention of everyone, including Kerr. He had been much more diligent in practicing martial arts recently.

Kerr had no choice. He was worried about encountering an Elite Ghost when he was hanging around outside.

It would land directly in front of him, and he wouldn't be able to run away.

At this moment, Kerr saw four Purple Elite Ghosts going down on the screen. His face twitched slightly.

Purple meant the level of Flame Decay!

Everyone knew that they defeated the Purple Elite Ghost last time thanks to Blaine. He risked his life and slayed it. This time, there were four Purple Elite Ghosts Kerr was in despair.

"Hey! Look carefully. Two people are standing on the shoulders of that Purple Elite Ghost Daphne suddenly pointed to Hector's Elite Ghost.

They were not the only people who noticed this. People in the TV station also saw that They quickly aimed the camera at that Purple Elite Ghost and zoomed in!

"Damn. It's Gerald!

"It's Gerald!

"What's going on? Why is Gerald standing on the shoulder of a Purple Elite Ghost? Has he betrayed us?"
Kerr

cursed

"Shut up!" Abraham kicked him and said, "I don't know what's going on, but he won't betray us."

Boom!

Boom!

Boom!

At this moment, the sound of Elite Ghosts falling to the ground resounded. At the same time, on the screen, many black figures were heading toward them rapidly

The camera displayed the panorama. The scene looked magnificent!

The Elite Ghosts landed, raising a trail of dust. In the other direction, the black figures formed a stream of people and flew toward the Elite Ghosts. At the front were the eight people of Team 11762

People sitting in front of the TV watching this scene felt that their blood was burning. They also felt a little.

touched!

On such dangerous occasions, Watchmen would always rush to the forefront.

There were many camera drones, some were destroyed, and some were still floating in the sky

At last, the four Purple Elite Ghosts landed. One of them landed in front of the Watchmen, and the other three fell on the opposite side, among the Elite Ghosts.

When the smoke and dust dispersed, the expressions of the audience changed slightly!

Everyone saw this scene through the live broadcast!

Two people were standing on a Purple Elite Ghost's shoulders, and behind them were people in black battle suits

On the opposite were Purple Elite Ghosts. And behind them were Gold Elite Ghosts, Red Elite Ghosts, and Blue Elite Ghosts!

The two sides were clearly divided, and there was a certain space between them.

After the sound of the Elite Ghosts' landing disappeared, the battlefield became silent.

But the audience started a heated discussion.

"What exactly is going on? Why is there a Purple Elite Ghost among the Watchmen!"

"I remember that last time after Blaine swung his saber, a Purple Elite Ghost showed up and took him away!"

"Does it mean that this Purple Elite Ghost is on our side?"

People were discussing this all over the world.

At the scene, after Gerald stood still, he breathed a sigh of relief and jumped off Hector's shoulder. Gerald felt safer standing on the ground.

Theo said behind him, "Boss, Zackary asked us to buy them for at least half an hour. It will take some time for the other experts to arrive!"

Gerald slowly let out a breath. They needed reinforcements. There were too few super experts in this place.

“Huff! Huff!”

But at this moment, the Elite Ghosts were arranging a formation in the distance. And they directly began to charge in the direction of Gerald and the others.

Chapter 742 Is He a Deity?

When Gerald saw the scene, he frowned slightly

The Elite Ghosts also discovered that there were not many Watchmen, and there were very few super experts. If they pushed over, as long as they held the three of them together, then the others would be pushed down.

“What should we do?” Behind them, the expressions of Claude and the others changed.

“For every being who is breathing!”

Just then, Blaine drew out his saber. When all American Watchmen saw that Blaine was still alive and had appeared on the battlefield, their morale instantly soared.

He was a living legend, not to mention that Gerald was also standing in front of him.

Blaine stood on Hector’s shoulders. Although they did not know what was going on and why the Purple Elite Ghost should appear on their side.

However, they saw Blaine take out his Crimson Slayer and shout “For every being who is breathing!”.

Thus, they pulled out both of their sabers and faced the Elite Ghosts charging at them. They pointed their sabers at the sky and shouted, “We devote ourselves to the future we want. We shall never give up!”

“Kill!”

At the very front, Theo pulled out his saber.

The team that rushed over was led by the Gold Elite Ghost and Red Elite Ghost. There were too few super experts and people of higher level in Bismarck now, so they had to face them.

“Wait a minute!” Gerald said hastily, “I will help you survive this half an hour!”

Gerald hoped they could drag on for half an hour and waited for the experts of the Four Ancient Clans to arrive. Once the experts of the Four Ancient Clans arrived, they would not lack high-level combat strength. They might even surpass them. After all, they had the existence of the level of peak Flame Decay. They could easily crush the ordinary Gold Elite Ghosts. Among the Four Ancient Clans, many were at the same level as Davis. When they faced the Blue Elite Ghosts, it was a one-sided slaughter. As long as they could wait for their support, the situation would change. If they could delay for a longer time, more Watchmen would appear.

The decisive battle might have arrived early, but the reinforcement of the Elite Ghosts had not arrived. Their odds of winning were very high.

They only needed to delay for half an hour and wait for the experts of the Four Ancient Clans.

“Blaine, the two of you, control the three purple ones for me. Don’t let them attack me!” Gerald let out a breath.

“You

intend to stall them by yourself?” Blaine frowned.

Then, he shook his head and said, “Alright, then be careful! Tristin, let’s go!”

As he spoke, Hector rose into the air and pounced toward the three Purple Elite Ghosts in the distance.

Two against three. They might not be able to defeat them, but there was still a certain chance of delaying them.

The moment they left, the group of Elite Ghosts in front of them became closer and closer.

A buzzing sound was heard.

A vast amount of Vital Energy suddenly shot out from Gerald’s body. The aura at the level of Flame Decay was unleashed at this moment

There were sizzling sounds.

His Vital Energy enveloped the surroundings and pounced toward the group of Elite Ghosts.

A series of sizzling sounds came from the ground, and a layer of frost rapidly spread forward with Gerald at the center.

Some of the Blue Elite Ghosts at the front turned into ice sculptures in an instant. The red and purple ones could still resist for a while, but they quickly chose to retreat.

At this moment, Gerald fully sent out his Vital Energy. Wherever the Vital Energy passed, the characteristics of Flame Decay were fully shown.

His characteristics could not affect the Elite Ghosts at the purple level, but Elite Ghosts below the purple level were unable to resist.

“Gerald!”

In the front, Blaine, who had rushed to the back and fought with the three Purple Elite Ghosts, changed his expression slightly and said, “How long can he hold on like this?”

Hector shook his head. "His consumption of Vital Energy is too great. Even if he can hold on for half an hour, I'm afraid he won't be able to..."

"He probably plans to use his blood to absorb his bones when his Vital Energy is about to end and activate Death Storm... Then, he would forcefully recover his Vital Energy in this way. However, if he uses the Death Storm after his Vital Energy is exhausted, I'm afraid his body won't be able to hold on much longer," Blaine muttered, "Gerald only knows how to act recklessly."

"But he can reduce the losses of the Watchmen when he does this," Hector said, "Since he has already chosen to do so, we have no other choice. Help them stall these three."

"Stall them!" One of the three Purple Elite Ghosts who were fighting them sneered. "Hector," he said, "since Lightchaser failed to capture you, let me capture you myself. How long can the two of you last? Surprised that there are two who have reached the level of Flame Decay on the earth, but you will die this time!"

"Is that so? Without the shell, you are just trash!" Blaine cursed. "I can cut you to death with one slash!"

"Unfortunately, there is a problem with your bodies. If you are intact, like that kid, both of you are at the level of Flame Decay, maybe you can stop us, but you are not. Your body has problems. That kid wants to waste his own Vital Energy and characteristics, waiting for other support. His way of consuming Vital Energy will be used up soon. At that time, I will deal with you all and then deal with him This planet must be ruled by us!" Among the three Purple Elite Ghosts, one laughed wildly Blaine was too lazy to talk nonsense with him. He focused on holding back.

Two against three It was difficult to fight Of course, he was accumulating strength at the same time, waiting for reinforcements to arrive, waiting for Gerald to explode, and he would also hit his critical strike.

The ground was covered in white frost. Gerald stood alone in front of all the Watchmen, making it difficult for those Elite Ghosts to move.

In the video, with Gerald as the center, the rear was safe and sound, but the front was shrouded in white as if it had entered winter. In addition, at the front, there were thousands of blue Elite Ghosts, who had turned into ice sculptures. Everyone saw the scene.

The Watchmen at the scene were shocked.

The others in front of the TV were even more astonished.

In the manor of the Lam family in Washington, the dozens of people watching the scene were quiet at this time. They all opened their mouths wide.

After a while, someone murmured, "What... what happened? Is this something a human can do?"

"This... It can't be Gerald, right? Who is he..."

As the few of them whispered in admiration, Kerr muttered, "Gerald... is not a deity, is he?"

His words caused an uproar.

Most people had never even heard of the level of Flame Decay, and those who had heard of it did not know the existence of the characteristics.

Gerald's ice attribute turned the battlefield into a winter scene, freezing some Blue Elite Ghosts into ice sculptures, stopping the group of Elite Ghosts from taking a step forward. People from around the world witness the scene. Gerald was like a deity descended to the mortal world.

In the crowd, Ingrid, Daphne, and some others had a complicated look

They had all dealt with Gerald and never expected that Gerald would be able to achieve such a degree one day.

Catherine looked at Gerald on the screen. Her eyes were full of love.

But then, disappointment came to her eyes.

Catherine knew that she and Gerald were from two different worlds. It had been a big surprise that they could meet.

Gerald had changed her life and her fate. Gerald was her benefactor.

However, they could never be together.

All the people were sighing. However, Gerald was secretly anxious.

What he was doing now was a tremendous burden on his Vital Energy.

Chapter 743 Reinforcements

In the rear, the Elite Ghosts could not join in the battle of the level of Flame Decay

After reaching the super level, the difference between each level was too great. For example, if the Gold Elite Ghost had not been killed at that time, the whole world might have been slaughtered by it it was just a matter of time.

The difference in levels was huge.

In front of him, the Elite Ghosts were blocked by Gerald alone. Gerald was like a deity descending to the earth, shocking the entire world.

In the base of Night Watch, Sacramento

At this moment, all Watchmen came out, including those who came from Sin City. Only a dozen people at the top level were left to protect the base. The others all left the city on a plane.

At this time, in front of Night Watch's base, a huge screen was broadcasting this scene. Everyone's mouth was wide open.

Mason murmured, "Did Gerald do this? What is going on? Is this my son?"

"Is this Gerald?"

There were quite a few voices like this. They were indeed frightened by the scene in front of them.

Indeed, for anyone who lived in the real world, martial arts masters had already shocked them. What was more, what Gerald had done at this time was completely beyond their imagination. So at this moment, those who were familiar with Gerald also felt a sense of unfamiliarity.

When Gerald had made his move in Sin City, Mason and the others had already returned to their rooms and did not see Gerald. Now that they saw this scene, other than shock, they did not know what to say

Time was quietly passing by.

Unknowingly, more than ten minutes had passed in the battle. Gerald felt that a large amount of Vital Energy was flowing away, and his eyebrows were tightly furrowed.

Half an hour later, he felt that he was thinking too much. Perhaps he would not be able to hold on for more than ten minutes.

Whoosh

At this time, in the distance, 100 people came over quickly. Gerald looked over, and his expression changed slightly.

The people who came were led by Jonathan. There were more than 100 people behind him, and all of whom were super experts.

"Fortunately, we made it on time. Jonathan walked behind Gerald and exhaled slowly. Then he looked at the scene in front of him and was shocked again.

"You guys..." Gerald was surprised

"There are too many light spots in the sky. We came out from the Myriad Mountains to provide support Originally, we planned to report to the headquarters of Night Watch first However, we did not expect that when we just arrived in Bismarck, we would see these things falling down. We immediately came to provide support

Gerald breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Are there any problems with those above gold and red?"

Leave them all to us," Jonathan said lightly.

They did not mention their past grudges, and everyone knew it very well

Gerald needed their help, and they knew that once Gerald accepted it, the past things would be written off

"Fuck Gerald let out a breath and said, "Watchmen, hear my order!"

After saying that, he raised one hand and suddenly pulled out the bronze sword, shouting. "For every being who is breathing."

"We devote ourselves to the future we want."

"We shall never give up."

An angry roar resounded. Gerald still took the lead. On his left, Carolyn followed closely behind. On his right, Valery had a cold expression on her face. She held two sabers in her hands.

In the back, Jonathan led the experts of the Myriad Mountains and rushed out.

Gerald still did not choose to deal with the Purple Elite Ghosts. He was waiting for reinforcements. He would hold on for more than ten minutes. When Robert and the others arrived, they would crush the group of the Elite Ghosts. They would definitely win.

The first time the Elite Ghosts invaded, Night Watch tried their best and only managed to defend after countless casualties. This time, when the Four Ancient Clans came out and faced the more large-scale invasion of the Elite Ghosts, they already had an absolute advantage in terms of sharp combat strength. It was just that their strength was far from the top level.

At this time, Gerald had to help the more than twenty thousand Watchmen behind him to resist the attack of the Elite Ghosts. When Robert and the others arrived and the first batch of support arrived, he would deal with the Purple Elite Ghosts.

He took the lead and rushed into the group of the Elite Ghosts.

"Puff

High up in the sky, Claude also suddenly fired his first shot. The bullet shot out and brushed past Gerald's scalp. Gerald rushed to the front and met a purple Elite Ghost. At this moment, the purple Elite Ghost was hit by a bullet and suddenly flew back.

It was an instant kill

Claude's first bullet accurately hit the target

Behind Gerald, there was a group of six Gold Elite Ghosts.

Gerald jumped up, and his Vital Energy exploded. He slashed at the six Gold Elite Ghosts

At the beginning, the formation of the six Gold Elite Ghosts made Gerald unable to break through. But now, Gerald sent the six ghosts flying back with a single slash.

Flame Decay was a life level. When facing these ordinary Elite Ghosts, he could slaughter them easily

Boom

Boom

Boom

A large-scale battle was on the verge of breaking out.

The 20 thousand Watchmen, facing tens of thousands of Elite Ghosts, were actually not at a disadvantage this time.

The experts brought by Jonathan were really crushing the ghosts. He and Gerald almost handled all the Gold Elite Ghosts, while the warriors at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay were also crushing the Red Elite

Ghosts

This was Gerald's confidence. He would undoubtedly win.

Time passed. More than ten minutes later, a buzz rose in the sky. The next moment, many people jumped down from the sky

Reinforcements arrived.

Robert, Ricardo, Keenan, and dozens of experts landed.

The Four Ancient Clans had assisted the entire world. After the first battle, many people stayed there to support each other. There were only fifty people in Sacramento.

However, Robert and the other warriors in the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay were all in Sacramento.

“Elite Ghosts, die!” Before Robert and the others had landed, he had already roared in the sky.

Gerald raised his eyes and looked at the sky. He revealed a smile and said, “We won this battle.”

After Robert and the others came down, these Gold Elite Ghosts would definitely be dealt with quickly. They were all experts at the super level and the level of Half-Step Flame Decay, so they could easily kill the Blue Elite Ghosts.

Of course, war meant death. The number of Watchmen in this battle was still too small. They had to wait for reinforcements to arrive.

The most important thing was to kill the Purple Elite Ghosts quickly.

He raised his eyes to look at the people who had fallen from the sky. He said indifferently, “Death Storm!”

Buzz.

The Vital Energy that he had consumed quickly replenished at this moment. As he released Death Storm, his aura once again rose. At this moment, he leaped up and pounced behind him. The final battle of the level of Flame Decay would be completely activated.

“Die!”

He descended from the sky. The ancient greenish-bronze sword in his hand released a terrifying luster. In the air, the dragon-shaped shadow seemed to open its eyes. Gerald’s saber went straight for a Purple Elite Ghost.

Boom.

The Purple Elite Ghost raised the blue Nebula in his hand and wanted to block it. Gerald’s sword and Nebula collided. With them at the center, the surroundings suddenly collapsed. Frost covered the area.

“How could you be so strong?” That person said in shock.

“This is the corrosion of Dragon Bone,” Hector laughed wildly and said, “It’s too late for you to regret it. Prepare to die.”

The two of them were already at their limit when facing the three experts in the level of Flame Decay. When Gerald joined the battlefield here, the balance suddenly broke. On the Earth side, the top fighting strength.

was in full lead.

The three Purple Elite Ghosts looked at the main battlefield in the distance. Their expressions suddenly changed.

“How could there suddenly be so many experts in the level of Half-Step Flame Decay and the super level? What is going on?” A Purple Elite Ghost started to panic.

Gerald stared fixedly at him and said indifferently, "In your eyes, we are nothing. Today, none of you can fucking escape. All of you have to die here."

As he spoke, his left hand pulled out a blue Nebula. As his Vital Energy rippled, the space seemed to distort.

Chapter 744 Crush

Facing Elite Ghosts, human beings always felt weaker.

Especially Blaine, who was very strong himself, but he had only one saber. He did not know how the human race could face Elite Ghosts' invasion after that!

Therefore, for decades, his saber had never been used!

Because he only had one saber, he had endured a lot, including the accusations of some people against American Night Watch. He couldn't do anything when Gerald was schemed on by Perrin.

He didn't even dare to use his saber. He was aware of his mission!

He knew his saber, as well as his life, was to gain time for the human race and Watchman.

But he didn't expect this day to come so soon.

Two months had passed since the previous invasion of Elite Ghosts, during which time the Four Ancient Clans had walked out of Myriad Mountains and completely turned the situation around. Facing the more large-scale invasion of Elite Ghosts, Gerald had broken through and reached the level of Flame Decay. They had actually completed the reversal of the power of the tip to Elite Ghosts!

He was in a trance when he thought of it!

Looking at Gerald, who had completely suppressed a Purple Elite Ghost in the distance, Blaine smiled. Then, he pointed at Purple Elite Ghost in front of him with his Crimson Slayer and smiled slightly.

"Come!"

He roared angrily and then laughed loudly. "My saber will cleave the sky, but I will never die!"

He had to say something pretentious, but he changed a few words. He knew that he would not die.

Vital Energy surged from his body. He jumped up and slashed out. This slash caused the world to lose color!

Boom!

He slashed down, just like the last time, and the Purple Elite Ghost was split in half!

In this war, the battle for the top fighters and the level of Flame Decay, the first casualty appeared.

Blaine killed a Purple Elite Ghost!

This time, he did not directly fall from the sky like last time. He landed firmly on the ground and looked at Gerald in the distance, shouting, "Boy, you can't do it. The first one... was killed by me!"

Gerald sneered and slashed out his saber.

Purple Elite Ghosts had the combat power of the level of Flame Decay, but it was not really at that level.

In their world, even the Pioneers who were Purple Elite Ghost were respectful to Lightchaser because Lightchasers were really at the level of Flame Decay. In a real battle, they had a certain advantage.

As for Gerald, he seemed to be even more terrifying than an ordinary person who had stepped into the level of Flame Decay

As he activated Death Storm, the Purple Elite Ghost beside him could not hold on any longer. He gritted his teeth and shouted, "Retreat! Now! Inform the clan to reinforce them with all their might!"

He roared, and at the same time, the purple light on his body suddenly burst!

"Get down!"

"Get down!"

Blaine's expression changed drastically!

No one had ever seen Purple Elite Ghost self-destruct!

Yes, this Purple Elite Ghost chose to self-destruct, giving the other Purple Elite Ghost time to escape

Gerald slammed his palm on the ground, dug a hole, and fell down.

On Hector's side, facing Purple Elite Ghost's self-destruct, he did not dare to resist. Similarly, he dug a hole and jumped down.

The other Purple Elite Ghost cried out in grief and uttered some words that Gerald could not understand at all. Then, he rose into the air and jumped into the sky, as if... he really wanted to escape!

Boom!

The Purple Elite Ghost exploded, and the surrounding buildings began to collapse. What was affected was Elite Ghosts. A large number of them fell like wheat!

"Don't let him escape!" Hector shouted loudly.

Gerald was lying on the ground. When he heard Hector's words, his expression changed slightly.

"The Four Ancient Clans have always thought that this is a primitive society. If they knew that so many experts have been born here and they have been killed in succession, they might come out in full force. We won't defeat it," Hector shouted loudly

Dozens of worriers at the level of Flame Decay came out in full force.

It was indeed not something they could withstand.

“Send me up!” Without waiting for the aftermath of the explosion to pass, Gerald came out of the pit.

The first wave of the aftermath of the self-explosion passed, and he could bear it!

He jumped onto Hector’s shoulders.

Hector did not hesitate. He turned into a purple light and soared into the sky.

Boom!

On Hector’s shoulders, Gerald looked at the Purple Elite Ghost constantly rising in the sky. His body bent and he muttered, “Unsheathing... Slash!”

He stomped his feet and his Vital Energy burst out.

Hector, who was using the force, could not help but let out a muffled groan.

“Damn, his saber... is so strong!” he couldn’t help but sigh.

Under the lens, everyone noticed this scene. A figure rushed straight into the sky with the fastest speed possible. Above the sky, a purple light was rising. They couldn’t even see clearly what was happening!

At a certain point in time, the figure chased up to the sky... Then, under the lens, the purple light on the TV suddenly stopped rising. Then, he turned into two halves and fell from the sky.

At the same time, the figure in the air seemed to have used up all his strength. He lay flat in the air and slowly fell down.

In an instant, the battle was over. The three Purple Elite Ghosts were all killed.

At this moment, all over the world couldn’t help but cheer.

At the command center in the headquarters of the Night Watch.

“Brilliant!”

“Gerald is so fucking cool!”

“He is a deity. No one could do the things he did. He froze them.”

“They are going to win the battle for sure.”

As they cheered, Zackary could not help but smile.

Then, he quickly regained his calm and shouted, “Don’t be distracted. The war is still going on. Let the reinforcements hurry up. Night Watch has suffered heavy losses!”

Yes, although there were elite combat forces joining in, there were only twenty thousand Watchmen. In the face of the huge group of Elite Ghosts, the number of people who died was not small.

After he was done, Zackary muttered, “After this battle, there should be a long period of peace!”

In the sky, Gerald felt a little pain in his body. The battle made him exhausted. He had consumed a large amount of Vital Energy at the beginning, and then forcibly used Death Storm and Unsheathing Slash.

But fortunately, Purple Elite Ghosts were all dead!

The wind howled in his ears. He was falling faster and faster!

He looked at the blue sky.

"I guess we are winning," he muttered, "I wonder how long peace will last after that."

Just as he was about to fall to the ground, a purple light flashed over him. Hector came over to catch him.

"We won. Don't worry!" Hector said with a smile.

"After this battle, how long will peace last?" Gerald looked at Hector's huge Elite Ghost body and asked.

"It should be quite a while. Two consecutive attacks were blocked. According to my understanding of them, they are bound to re-inspect the world and then reorganize the attack." Hector grinned and said, "We should have enough time!"

"I'm kind of tired." Gerald relaxed a little upon hearing this. The huge consumption made him feel sleepy!

Chapter 745 Let's Get Married

Gerald had fallen asleep.

He was in Hector's arms.

No one knew how much pressure Gerald was under. It was the first time that the Elite Ghosts had completely invaded

No one knew about what Gerald had been through after Blaine waved his saber and Gerald took Sparkle.

Carrying the entire world on his back was tiring to him.

Gerald had never felt that he was a person with a big plan. When he first entered Night Watch, he had no choice. At that time, Blaine found him and asked him if he wanted to go with him.

Gerald had no choice.

If he didn't agree and go with Blaine, he would only stay in prison for a lifetime.

After entering Night Watch, he found out about this organization. At that time, he wanted to work hard to exchange merit points and accumulate some wealth. Then he would go back to be a good son to his parents and marry a wife.

Then he showed his talent and began to carry out missions. Slowly, he had friends in Night Watch. He began to carry some things.

Slowly, he called Watchman No. 0 as Night Watch. The more powerful he was, the more things he carried.

Until he lost his memory...

In fact, when he thought back to the years when he lost his memories, although he suffered countless supercilious looks, he was not so tired.

When he recovered his memory, he carried hatred and too many things on his back, all the way until now.

When Hector told him that he should be able to be at peace for a period of time in the future, he relaxed completely.

Although the war was still going on, he knew that when their power surpassed and Hector could still fight, the outcome of this battle was already decided. Next, when Hector joined the battlefield, what would welcome the Elite Ghosts would be a one-sided slaughter.

Therefore, he put down his guard and just wanted to have a good sleep.

He wanted to sleep safe and sound.

Hector brought Gerald and Blaine to find Valery, then Valery and the others brought Gerald and Blaine back to the headquarters of Night Watch.

The war was still going on.

The 20 thousand Watchmen suffered heavy losses, but as time passed, more and more Watchmen joined the war. The first to arrive was the Elite Team.

The 5 thousand Watchmen led by Charles came.

Next were countless Watchmen from around the world.

Gerald was still unconscious. He did not know if it was because he had used Death Storm too many times, but this time, Gerald slept for a very, very long time.

Valery checked his body. Gerald's body was not abnormal. He wasn't weak after using Death Storm, but he had never woken up

On the third day, the war was completely over

Tens of thousands of Elite Ghosts were completely wiped out.

Even if the experts of the Four Ancient Clans joined in, nearly 20 thousand Watchmen died. However, this battle was a great victory for Night Watch

The war was miserable.

They had obtained countless energy stones.

Zackary had been busy for the past few days, and he was sick. There was nothing he could do. He was already very old, and he was not a martial artist. If he persisted for too long, his body would not be able to withstand it.

Fortunately, he was just too tired, so he just needed to rest a little more.

The work of dealing with the aftermath was handled by Blaine and Jacob. In fact, there was not much work to deal with the aftermath, mainly the arrangements of the Four Ancient Clans of the Myriad Mountains.

They had contributed far too much in this battle. Blaine planned to let them choose a place in any city in America as their base. If they wanted to develop any industry, Night Watch would support them with all their strength.

Of course, all of them were included in Night Watch, but super experts didn't have to carry out missions unless there was an all-out war.

After this battle, everyone gained a lot of things.

For example, Carolyn had stepped into the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

Triston had stepped into the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

The world was restored to order again. The ruined cities began to be rebuilt, and those who left the city returned.

in a few days, most of the cities were bustling again. The traffic was heavy, and the business of the bars began to boom.

The appearance of Elite Ghosts had changed a lot. Most people began to enjoy their lives.

The business of the martial arts club was booming, too.

Gerald seemed eager to get a night of good sleep this time. He slept for a full five days. Five days later, Gerald opened his eyes, and the sunlight shot in He couldn't help but reach out to cover his eyes.

"You finally woke up." At this time, the cold voice of Valery sounded beside him.

"How is the battle?" Gerald asked.

"It's over. All the Elite Ghosts have been killed Valery smiled, "This is our biggest victory in history, although we lost a lot

After that, she began to tell Gerald about the situation after the battle.

After that, she looked at Gerald and asked, "Are you alright? I checked your body and found nothing wrong. Why did you sleep for so long?"

"Did I sleep for a long time?" Gerald asked.

"Five days!" Valery looked at him indifferently.

Gerald sat up and enjoyed the rare sunlight. He said, "Maybe... I just want to sleep."

In fact, Gerald felt that his body had changed a little, but he couldn't say for sure about this change. He would only understand when the next mission was done.

"The Purple Elite Ghost said that after this time, there should be a few decades of peace. But the world of the Elite Ghosts will definitely send ghosts to secretly inspect our world, but the scale should not be too big." After saying this, Valery looked at Gerald and asked, "What do you plan to do next?"

"Plan?" Gerald raised his head and looked at Valery. "Why don't we get married and have a child?"

Valery was stunned for a moment. "Nutjob. I don't want to give you a baby."

After that, she turned around and said, "Blaine told you to find him after you woke up."

"Oh." Gerald got up and asked, "Where are the others?"

"After the war, they all went back. I guess they were worried about their families at home," Valery said.

Gerald fell silent. In fact, he also wanted to go back to see his parents.

"I'll go back to work first. There are still a few patients I need to see." As Valery spoke, she turned around and walked out of the room.

Gerald did not notice that when Valery left the room, her cheek became pink. She went out and constantly fanned her somewhat hot face with her hands, muttering something.

Gerald got up from bed. This was a room in the headquarters of Night Watch. He walked out of the room, looked around, and then walked toward the office where Blaine was at ease.

Soon, he arrived at the office. Blaine was sitting there drinking tea.

"Where are Zackary and Hector?" Gerald asked as he walked in.

"Zackary is sick. He's in the hospital Blaine said, "As for Tristin, he has returned to the Arctic. There is something wrong with his body. He has to stay in the cold."

Gerald frowned "What happened to Zackary?"

"He has worked too hard, and he's getting old," Blaine said with a sigh

Gerald fell silent. After a while, he asked, "Why are you looking for me?"

Blaine raised his head and looked at Gerald. He then rubbed his chin and said, "There are two things. The first thing is to take the time to go to the Burial Ground. Take the geniuses of Night Watch with you. Go there and cultivate, and then open the Burial Ground."

Gerald nodded. "No problem."

"The second thing..." Blaine looked at Gerald and said, "As for what Tristin said about going to their world with him, I said yes."

Chapter 746 A Blind Date

"I plan to go with him." Blaine's voice was very calm.

Gerald was stunned!

Blaine's departure was not to leave this country, but to leave this planet directly for the universe, for another planet, and another completely unfamiliar world.

Blaine said, "Someone has to do this. Otherwise, we can only defend passively again and again. You are young, and you have your family and parents. You haven't even married yet. It is not worth it to do such a thing for you because you may not be able to come back!"

Speaking of this, he smiled and said, "But I am different. I am now a lonely old man with no one to rely on."

"You have dedicated your life to the Night Watch. This..." Gerald felt a little sour in his nose. He did not expect that the first news he woke up to hear was actually this.

"A capable man has to bear the great responsibility. This never changes. Now that you have reached the level of Flame Decay, you cannot retreat. Even if I let you go back, and the whole world let you go back, at the moment of the invasion of Elite Ghosts, you will still stand up for us." Blaine smiled slightly as if he had seen through all this.

"I don't have too many things to worry about. I just can't bear to part with you guys. When the time comes, I'll bring Zackary along. This guy is also a bachelor, and he might even be able to see the beautiful girls of a different planet when he goes with me. The beauty with the whip last time is so hot..." Blaine said with a smile.

Gerald was silent, and for a moment, he did not know what to say.

Indeed, it was as Blaine had said. There were always people who would do this. Right now, only he and Blaine were at the level of Flame Decay.

If he did not go, Blaine had to go as well. Otherwise, they would become the passive side.

They could only endure the attacks of Elite Ghosts again and again. They had to solve this problem at the core.

“Moreover, you are also clear about my health. There is also a problem with Tristin’s health. In fact, although we have reached the level of Flame Decay, we are not really at the level of Flame Decay”.

Blaine poured a cup of tea and said with a smile, “I can only get treated after I go to their side... I’ll leave this place to you.”

Gerald’s brows were still deeply furrowed. He asked, “When do you plan to leave?”

“Let’s wait for the few of you to return from Burial Ground!” Blaine said with a smile, “When you return, we will set off. We will take Elite Ghosts’ aircraft. They left quite a few aircraft and Hector will be the driver.”

Gerald stood there in silence for a long time. Then, he thought carefully and said, “Please wait until after we return from Burial Ground to make the decision!”

Blaine nodded, “Alright!”

Gerald chatted with Blaine about the current development of the Night Watch and then said goodbye to

Blaine

He went to find Valery and planned to ask her to go back to Sacramento with him, but Valery had to stay at the Night Watch’s headquarters for the time being. There were too many injured people after the war, and she had endless operations!

Gerald smiled bitterly. He had no choice but to carry his backpack and weapons on his back. He took a plane and left the Night Watch’s headquarters!

At the same time, he also informed the other members of Team 11762 and asked them to gather three days later and head to Sin City again.

Little fox Squeak was taken away by Carolyn. She liked this intelligent fox very much.

Gerald returned to Sacramento alone. After arriving at Sacramento, Dennis’ car was waiting for him inside the airport.

After two consecutive wars, Gerald had become a well-known person in this world. In this era, he had become a true national idol.

After getting in the car, Dennis smiled and asked, “How are you?”

“Not bad. I was too tired before, so I slept a little longer. Everyone should be back now, right?” Gerald asked.

“Well, there were not too many casualties among the people who went to Sacramento. At that time, the situation was almost settled. But many Watchmen from the headquarters were killed, and they were adding more recently.” Dennis said with some emotion, “But fortunately, they won. According to them, the future will be peaceful for a while, and everyone can relax for a while.”

“I can’t relax!” Gerald murmured.

Ever since Hector told Gerald about Elite Ghosts’ world, Gerald knew that there was no way to relax.

He didn’t want to exert this pressure on Dennis. He didn’t explain too much. After saying this, he smiled slightly.

“Are we going to your house?” Dennis asked.

“Yes”” Gerald nodded.

An hour later, the car stopped at No. 69, Pondark Road!

Sacramento did not suffer any damage from the impact this time, so it restored order the fastest. At this time, it had completely recovered.

Gerald got out of the car. Dennis asked, “How long are you staying in Sacramento?”

Gerald said, “Three days!”

Three days later, he had to go to Chicago again.

“Then I will come to drink with you tomorrow!” Dennis said.

Gerald touched his chin and said, “Wait for me to come back next time. I plan to stay with my family for the next few days.”

When Dennis heard this, he nodded and said, “Okay.”

After watching Dennis leave, Gerald pushed open the door and walked into the house. At this time, his family was watching TV. On the TV were replays of the war. Recently, almost all the TV stations had been advertising the matter of Elite Ghosts, including the notice of the Night Watch, saying Elite Ghosts would not invade for the time being.

The purpose of this was to let ordinary people feel at ease as soon as possible.

“Mom, Dad, I’m back!” Gerald walked to the door and said loudly.

Soon, the family welcomed him.

After returning home, Gerald was in a completely relaxed state.

Mason had completely changed. When Gerald was in prison, everyone avoided him. Now that Gerald had become a hero, countless people wanted to curry favor with him. They had also begun to live a fair and upright life. The only thing they were worried about was Gerald’s safety.

At dinner time, Yazmin sat at a table full of dishes, and the whole family was around.

While they were eating, Yazmin suddenly looked at Gerald and said, "Gerald, it says that Elite Ghosts will not come for the time being. At the very least, it will be safe for decades. Is that true?"

Gerald touched his nose and said, "It's hard to say for decades, but in the future, it should be very safe."

The family nodded!

At this time, Yazmin looked at Gerald and said, "You admitted last time that you invited Audrey to pretend to be your girlfriend. Now there is enough time. Your father and I want to have grandchildren."

Gerald's body shook. He did not expect this to come.

"In the past few days, there have been many people who know that you are single. They are all here to introduce girls to you." Yazmin said, "We chose two girls. You can go and have a look when you have time!"

Blind dates!

And this time there were two!

"One is the niece of a friend of ours. She is our neighbor when you were a child. Her family is very good. She studied abroad and returned from studying abroad. She is also very beautiful." As Yazmin spoke, she took out two photos from her pocket and handed them to Gerald!

Gerald glanced at them.

The woman in the photo was indeed quite beautiful, and she was especially hot!

"The other is another friend's daughter. She is two years younger than you and is also very beautiful. You can go and see her," Yazmin said with an unquestionable tone.

Gerald smiled bitterly and said, "Mom, I really have a girlfriend. It was the last time..."

"Come on. I won't believe you!" Yazmin said with an unquestionable tone, "You go to see the niece at noon. tomorrow and go to see the daughter in the evening tomorrow. We have already booked the seats for you."

Gerald said helplessly, "They... should know me. How embarrassing!"

"They don't know. We didn't tell the two girls that you are Gerald. At that time, you could give them a surprise. They will immediately fall for you." Yazmin said, "Alas, it's hard to guess a girl's thoughts. They won't fall in love with you just because you are a hero. They are also afraid of being widowed. In short, you have to explain to them that you will be safe in the future. You won't fight anymore..."

"Can I not go?" Gerald asked bitterly.

"No!" Almost at the same time, several people said together and glared at Gerald fiercely.

Chapter 747 Annoying

Gerald had no way to refuse!

After settling down this time, he also really wanted to find a good wife. Regarding this, he naturally felt that Valery was the best choice, but it seemed that Valery didn't have that kind of intention!

Gerald also felt that it might be good to go on a blind date!

No one could say what the future was like. No matter what, he had to leave a child for the Kenneth family.

After thinking it through, he felt that it wasn't a big matter if he went on a blind date.

At noon the next day, Yazmin dressed up Gerald well. Gerald was dressed in a suit. Gerald had never worn a suit in his life, but as a Night Watch, he didn't look bad. After he drank Dragon Marrow, his skin had also become better. At this time, Gerald did look quite handsome.

However, because he was afraid of being recognized, Gerald still wore a mask, sunglasses, and a cap, and then rushed to the restaurant where Yazmin had booked seats!

Gerald brought a bank card with him. His bank card was given by Universe Group, and it had no consumption

cap

He drove Jolie's car and arrived at the destination.

This was a rather high-end restaurant in Sacramento. When Gerald walked in, the waitress of the restaurant frowned and glanced at him. She felt that Gerald was tightly wrapped up like a paparazzi.

However, she did not drive Gerald away. After all, Gerald was dressed up and he looked handsome. The waitress took the initiative to ask, "Have you booked seats?"

"*Table 16!" Gerald said calmly.

The waitress extended her hand and said, "This way please!"

Gerald followed beside her and sat down by a window on the second floor.

"Would you like to order now?" The waitress asked with a smile as she held the menu.

"I'm waiting for a person. I'll order when she arrives!" Gerald shook his head.

The waitress nodded and said, "Okay, if you need anything, just tell me!"

The waitress' attitude was quite good. When she left, Gerald quickly took out his mobile phone and found the chat group of Team 11762. He said, "Guys, help. Who has any blind date experience? What do I need to pay attention to?"

In fact, Gerald had been on a blind date before, but Gerald at that time was different from the past. Currently,

Gerald really wanted to find a good person to get married to.

So he also wanted to have a good blind date.

After he sent the message, the group instantly was full of responses.

“Fuck, boss, what’s wrong with you? Didn’t you just wake up yesterday? Why are you in such a hurry to go on a blind date?” Theo said.

“I have no experience in this. After all, Aleen and I fell in love at first sight and got married in minutes,” Claude typed

“Fuck you!” Kristen replied.

“Boss, why did you go on a blind date? What about Dr. Manning?” Carolyn asked.

Gerald frowned. If he could choose, it would naturally be best if it was Valery. However, Valery did not seem to have any thoughts about this. Gerald was also helpless “Gerald, do you want to consider me? I am also single.” At this time, Belinda typed and asked.

Gerald coughed and said, “Belinda, forget it. I don’t think I’m that desperate.”

“Fuck!” Belinda replied.

“Right, the woman hasn’t come yet. Tell me first. What do I need to pay attention to?” Gerald asked.

“Damn it There were two blind dates in a row today, and there is one at night.”

“What else can you do?” Theo curled his lips and said, “When the time comes, put your face on the table and put your bank card and evidence of assets on the table. Then the blind date girl wants to climb into your bed at any minute!”

“Don’t do it. My mother said that girls might not be willing to marry a Night Watchman. It’s too dangerous. Most girls want to have a more stable life,” Gerald typed.

Theo quickly replied, “Don’t listen to her. You slam your assets on the table, and the girl will be even more excited. What if one day you die, she will soon inherit your inheritance, right?”

Gerald was speechless.

It was unknown whether Valery was having an operation or doing something else. Valery did not say a word in the group.

“Excuse me... Are you here for a blind date?” At this time, a voice sounded in Gerald’s ear.

Gerald turned his head. There were two people standing beside him!

The girl was exactly the same as the one in the photo. She was even more beautiful, especially her figure. She was indeed very hot. When she saw that Gerald was wearing a mask and sunglasses, she frowned slightly.

Beside her stood a very young man. The man looked to be twenty-seven or twenty-eight years old. He dyed his hair yellow. He looked quite handsome.

What made Gerald most annoyed was that when the two of them stood together, they actually looked like a good match.

“This is my best friend. Because this is a blind date, I let him help me check it out. You... have no objections, right?” the girl smiled and said.

Gerald was a little annoyed, but he said lightly, “No problem!”

The man smiled at Gerald, then took the initiative to walk to the opposite side of Gerald with the girl and sat down. He saw that Gerald had no intention of taking off his mask and frowned slightly.

The girl took the initiative to introduce herself and said, “My name is Elsie Rublo. This is my best friend, Carlos Osborne. How should I address you?”

“Gerald!” Gerald said calmly.

“Gerald?” Carlos looked at Gerald in surprise and said, “Interesting. His name is the same as our hero. However, his temperament is quite different.”

“Do you worship him?” Gerald asked in surprise.

“Worship?” Carlos curled his lips and said, “I think they might as well submit to those Elite Ghosts. Elite Ghosts come again and again. We are scared. We just want to live a peaceful life. Maybe if we submit to them, they will let us live a good life.”

Hearing this, Gerald frowned slightly!

Elsie obviously did not want to dwell on this topic. She looked at Gerald and asked, “The person who introduced you said that you are 28 years old. Are you working at Universe Group?”

“Yes!” Gerald did not deny it.

Beside Elsie, Carlos showed a trace of disdain on his face. Then, Carlos smiled and asked, “Elsie is the cutest one in our school. She has countless suitors. Ordinary people can’t match her. You work in Universe Group. How is your salary? Do you have a house and a car?”

Gerald took off his sunglasses and squinted at him.

“Sorry, my question is a little straightforward, but marriage has to consider these realistic things. Otherwise, with Elsie’s great condition, she can find any boyfriend she likes, can’t she?” Carlos said with a smile.

For some reason, Gerald felt a little disgusted.

It was fine for his blind date to bring a male friend, but his realistic questions made Gerald sick.

Gerald knew that this was probably what Elsie wanted to know.

He calmly replied, "Money is not bad, and I can afford a car and a house if I want to."

"So no car and house yet?" Carlos asked.

Elsie frowned slightly!

In the headquarter of the Night Watch, Valery looked at the chat messages on her phone, her expression cold.

"Dr. Manning, the large-scale operation here is almost done. If you want to relax, you can leave," a person beside her said.

Valery ignored him. She looked at the chat record again, then found Gerald's phone number and dialed it.

Gerald was still answering Carlos' questions one after another.

In order to prevent people from recognizing him and causing a disturbance, he still wore a mask.

At this time, his phone suddenly rang. He picked up the phone and looked at it. He found that it was a call from Valery.

"Sorry, I have to answer this." Gerald did not leave. He picked up the phone and answered, "Hello, Dr. Manning!"

"Beep, beep, beep..."

As soon as he picked up, the other side of the line hung up.

At this time, Carlos smiled and said, "Mate, it has been so long. You are still wearing a cap and not taking off your mask. Are you ashamed?"

Gerald raised his eyebrows and looked at him and asked, "Are you going on a blind date with me or is this person beside you going on a blind date with me?"

Chapter 748 Stunned

Gerald was a little annoyed.

It was not a big deal to bring a best friend for a blind date, but Elsie's best friend Carlos was a male. Furthermore, after they arrived, Elsie only said a few words, but Carlos kept asking questions all the time. Gerald had naturally neglected Elsie. He just wanted to end this blind date quickly and wait to meet the next lady who had been arranged at night.

Elsie noticed that Gerald seemed to be a little unhappy, so she tried to break the ice and said, "Oh, Carlos is just worried that I will not live well in the future. Please excuse him."

Gerald glanced at Elsie indifferently. Just then, the dishes had been served gradually.

At the same time, Gerald's phone rang again.

Gerald looked at the phone screen and found the caller was Valery again.

When he just picked up the call, Valery hung up again.

Gerald frowned. He sent a Line message to Valery. It read: "What's up? Why did you hang up again?"

Valery did not reply to his Line message.

Meanwhile, opposite him, Elsie and Carlos had already started eating, without saying anything to Gerald.

Gerald was dumbfounded that they were sharing food on their plates with each other. Gerald did not know what to say. He felt like he was the third wheel, and they were more like a couple.

Gerald cleared his throat and said, "Ms. Rubio, excuse me."

Elsie looked up and said, "Huh?"

Gerald said calmly, "Well, I don't think we match each other. After this meal, we can go back and explain to the elders. You can just tell your parents that you don't like me. Is that OK with you?"

Hearing that Gerald took the initiative to reject her, Elsie, who had looked down on Gerald during the process of questions and answers, suddenly had a little bad mood.

Carlos tittered and then said, "it doesn't matter. I'll introduce you to someone rich and handsome another day."

Elsie glanced at Gerald indifferently and said, "Okay, then you go to pay the bill."

"Pay the bill?" Gerald curled his lips and said, "We three should split the bill. I'll settle one-third of the bill. No problem, right?"

Elsie and Carlos were stunned. Then a trace of displeasure appeared on Elsie's face. Beside her, Carlos tittered and said, "So you're a pauper. Unexpectedly, you request to split the bill on a blind date. Well, you are already 27 or 28, so you're probably just a common employee at Universe Group."

Gerald did not bother to argue with Carlos. Looking at the food on the table, he felt a little hungry. Then he took off his mask and was going to have some bites.

When he just took off his mask, his phone rang. It was another call from Valery.

Just like the former calls, when Gerald picked up. Valery directly hung up again.

It seemed that Valery didn't want to talk to Gerald but just wanted to disturb Gerald's blind date and screw it Gerald had a strange look on his face. Just then, Elsie and Carlos, who were sitting opposite Gerald, shrank their pupils slightly and fixed their eyes on Gerald.

Gerald knew that they would recognize him when he took off his mask.

"You... really are... Gerald!" Carlos was shocked, with a trace of horror on his face.

Elsie's pretty face was also full of astonishment.

Gerald looked at them indifferently, grabbed some food on his plate, and ate them up quickly. Then he looked up at Elsie and said, "I will pay one-third of the bill and leave the rest to you. We are indeed not a good fit. Please go back and tell the introducer."

With that, Gerald cast an indifferent glance at Carlos and said, "In addition, if you go on a blind date next time, don't bring your close guy friend with you. He is just like a fucking fly that keeps buzzing around. It seems he is the one on the blind date. Of course, I think you two are a good match, so you don't have to go on

"He..." Elsie got anxious immediately.

Elsie thought, this is not anyone else but Gerald!

Putting aside his status as a hero for mankind, the assets behind him were huge. Regarding Gerald's assets, when Night Watch put a commercial to attract young people to join them previously, many of Gerald's assets were announced to the public, including the shareholders behind Universe Group.

"Carlos is just my best friend. There is no other relationship between us," Elsie hurriedly explained.

If Elsie did somewhat look down on Gerald previously, she regretted it the moment she saw Gerald taking off his mask.

Elsie regretted the interrogation of Gerald by Carlos just now, as well as bringing Carlos here.

Elsie had her own thoughts about bringing Carlos here.

Carlos was handsome and kind of rich. Elsie wanted to make a comparison during the blind date, and at the same time, show off her advantages to the blind date.

However, she had never expected that her blind date was Gerald.

Gerald had no interest in Elsie's explanation. He did not want to speak to the two weirdos at all. After eating a little food, Gerald put on his mask and sunglasses, went to the cashier's counter, and directly paid one-third of the bill.

Carlos was completely stunned, and his back was covered with sweat.

Carlos' mind was full of scenes of Gerald fighting with the Elite Ghosts. In his heart, Gerald was simply a fierce warrior.

And just now, Carlos was aggressively interrogating Gerald.

Fortunately, Gerald did not make things difficult for Carlos but just embarrassed him with a few words.

Seeing Gerald leave, Elsie pursed her lips, looked at Carlos, and complained, "What are you doing? He is such a nice blind date, but you irritated him. If I had known, I would not have brought you here."

It was not until then that Carlos recovered from the shock. He smiled bitterly and said, "Didn't you ask me to come over and inquire about his background? I didn't expect him to be Gerald, either."

Elsie stamped her feet, with her face full of regret.

Gerald was naturally not interested in their later reactions. He paid one-third of the bill and walked out of the restaurant. Gerald was going to find an internet café to play games for a while and then wait to go on the other blind date in the evening.

The blind date in the evening was also appointed in that restaurant. Gerald prayed that he would not meet any weirdo again.

"Beep, beep, beep..."

Gerald's phone rang again. He picked up the phone. It was called from Valery again.

"Hello," Gerald just answered, and Valery directly hung up again.

Gerald was speechless. He called back, but Valery directly hung up.

Gerald walked to the side, opened the chat group of Team 11762, and texted: "Shit! I met a weirdo. She is quite beautiful, but she brought her male best friend to come on the blind date with me. Damn it! It seemed that it was that guy who was on a blind date with me. He was interrogating me like crazy, and I was pissed off. So I directly paid one-third of the bill and left."

Theo cursed, "What the hell! So you failed just like that? Didn't they recognize you?"

"We took the seats in the hall. I was afraid of causing a commotion, so I didn't take off my mask, Gerald said with embarrassment.

"What a pity!"

"I've seen many women like this. They feel embarrassed to ask about the blind date's situation, so they bring their besties to go on blind dates. But it's the first time I've heard of bringing a male best friend!" Theo said with a chuckle.

In the headquarters of Night Watch, Valery looked at the constantly beating words on her phone. When she saw that Gerald's blind date had failed, a hint of a smile appeared on her cold face. Then, she snorted coldly and thought, did he say that he would go on another blind date tonight?

Thinking of this, Valery frowned. In the end, Valery seemed to have made up her mind to do something. She took out her phone, found Gerald's phone number, and dialed again.

On the other side, Gerald looked at the flashing caller's name on his phone and answered the call again, "Dr. Manning, stop playing with me."

"Humph, why did you go on a blind date? You break your word," said Valery in a cold voice.

"My family is pushing me hard. I can't help it. I wanted to..."

Valery interrupted Gerald and said indifferently, "Don't go on the blind date tonight. Let's get married."

Chapter 750 Set Off

After talking to Yazmin for a while, Gerald hung up the phone as he let out a sigh of relief.

He searched online and found an Internet cafe. Then he went there and took a seat. Because of Elite Ghosts recently, the manager did not carefully check Gerald's ID card. When Gerald took out his ID card, the manager just glanced at it and took the charge. Gerald found a remote seat and sat down.

He played computer games for the whole afternoon while he chatted with Valery on Line.

After becoming Valery's boyfriend, Gerald felt the change in his identity, and the way Valery spoke was slightly different, but they were already familiar with each other, so they got used to it soon.

At five o'clock, Gerald walked out of the Internet cafe and drove to the airport to pick up Valery. They were like ordinary couples. Gerald found a quiet restaurant, and they ate in a private room. Then they went to watch a movie together.

At night, he sent Valery to the villa where they had cultivated before. They stayed in the villa for a while.

They had endless topics to talk about, but most of their topics were about the Night Watch, Elite Ghosts, Claude, and others.

It was not until Gerald was about to leave that he felt a sense of reluctance.

"Go back!" On the sofa in the villa, Valery said with a red face, "Spend more time with your parents. The day after tomorrow, we will set off to Chicago."

Although Gerald still wanted to stay with Valery, what Valery said made sense. The time he spent with his family was too short.

He nodded and said, "Alright!"

"Go!" As Valery spoke, she pushed Gerald out.

Gerald was speechless. He drove back home. It was already very late and everyone in the house was asleep. After Gerald quietly washed up, he saw Jolie running downstairs.

"I heard that you and Dr. Manning are together?" Jolie looked at Gerald and asked.

"Who told you that?" Gerald asked in surprise.

"Your parents. They asked me what Dr. Manning was like." Jolie sat down on the sofa and said, "Haven't you been pursuing her?"

"Not really. We are in love with each other. A child like you doesn't understand!" Gerald sat down and smiled.

"Bah!" Jolie looked at Gerald with disdain. Then she suddenly tilted her head and said, "Gerald, why don't you introduce me to a Watchman? I also want to have a good relationship and get married."

She had dated Drake for a while before, but then Drake had a problem with his character, and with Gerald's obstruction, they broke up. Jolie had been single.

Gerald touched his chin and said, "I don't recommend you to date a Watchman."

"Didn't you say that it would be more peaceful in the future? The Night Watch should not be busy, right? In addition, I also want to learn martial arts," Jolie pouted and said. "You should have a lot of free time after this, right? Why don't you teach me?"

Gerald was speechless, but he felt that it was a good thing that Jolie wanted to learn martial arts

"Alright, I'll teach you when I'm done with my business recently!" Gerald said.

"Also, get me a boyfriend. I want a powerful, tall, and handsome man," Jolie said with some anticipation.

Gerald looked at Jolie suspiciously and said, "Jolie, why do I feel like you're referring to Theo?"

"Theo?" Jolie blushed slightly and said, "Actually, it's not impossible, but we have to try and see if it works!"

After that, she stood up and said, "Forget it, I'll go to sleep now. Anyway, remember to get me one."

Seeing her leave, Gerald felt he was right.

Powerful, tall, and handsome.

Wasn't this Theo?

There was nothing wrong with Theo's character, but Theo liked to go on adventures and flirt with girls. He was completely different from Gerald and Claude.

If Theo could restrain himself a little, it would not be a problem to match him and Jolie, but Gerald did not think that Theo would restrain himself!

After pondering for a while, Gerald returned to his room.

For the next two days, he stayed at home. Of course, most of the time, he was still holding his phone and chatting with Valery

Somehow, ever since they confirmed their relationship, Gerald always felt that he wanted to share everything with Valery, and Valery was no longer as cold as before. She happily chatted with Gerald about everything

Just like this, two days passed in a flash.

On the morning of the fourth day after returning to Sacramento, Gerald got up early, carried the two sabers on his back, and then quietly left the room.

He had already told Yazmin and the others in advance that he would be leaving for a period of time today.

and he had a task to do.

Yazmin and the others did not ask more and agreed.

At the door, a car was waiting at the door of the house. It was the car that Valery drove over.

After Gerald got into the car, he asked, "Where are they?"

"They are all at the airport. Aside from our team members, Triston is also here! A total of ten of us will go over," Valery said.

"What about Watchman No. 2 now?" Gerald asked, "Hasn't she also reached the super level? Won't she go with us?"

"She... is now the head instructor of the new Watchmen, Valery said. "She is not available."

"What a pity!" Gerald sighed.

It could be foreseen that the Burial Ground was very suitable for cultivation. The Four Ancient Clans had so many experts who had direct relations with the Burial Ground. Gerald didn't know if it would still have this effect after he opened the Burial Ground. If it would, super experts would be sent there, and there would be more and more super experts in Night Watch.

“Let’s go to the airport now!” Gerald looked at Valery.

“Did you tell your family about me?” Valery pretended to be inadvertent as she asked, driving.

“Yes!” Gerald coughed dryly.

“I...” At this time, Valery blushed slightly and said, “I also told my uncle!”

Valery’s parents had died in the struggle against the Elite Ghosts. Her only family was her uncle, who was also one of her only elders.

Gerald coughed and said, “If you want to get married, you have to say it sooner or later!”

“My uncle said... When you are free, you should go to see them. These processes still have to be done.” Valery’s face became increasingly red.

Gerald scratched his head and said, “Alright. After the Burial Ground is opened, I will go to see them with you. In addition... Blaine plans to leave with Hector after he opens the Burial Ground.”

Valery looked at Gerald and asked, “What about you? What do you think?”

“I... haven’t thought it through,” Gerald let out a breath and said. “We’ll see when the time comes!”

“If you want to go, I will go with you.” Valery was silent for a moment before speaking softly.

Gerald’s heart warmed slightly, and he couldn’t help but hold her hand.

Valery didn’t say anything. She drove the car with the other hand. About an hour later, they arrived at the airport.
