

Slumdog 781

Chapter 781 They Are Targeted

The hover car slowly descended from the sky.

The car door opened, and Gerald and the others came out of the car with boxes.

Because they gave Kiana 200 golorbs, Kiana did not leave immediately. She waited for Gerald and the others to check in

Walking into the hotel, they saw a huge hall. There were two women in revealing clothes standing at the door. When they saw Gerald and the others coming over, they welcomed them very warmly.

The check-in procedure was very simple. They did not have the identification. The lower-class people did not have their identification. As long as they paid the money, they could stay in the hotel. After paying nearly 1,000 golorbs, they got four rooms.

They lived on the third floor, which was low, as this hotel had a total of 100 floors.

Entering the room and putting down the things, they came out again.

This time they didn't take the cars. Kiana took them for a stroll around the city.

Gerald and the others needed to adapt to some of the habits of this world and understand the operation in this world.

They had to buy some clothes.

The entire process was very smooth, and Kiana was a qualified tour guide.

Gerald and the others bought things the entire afternoon. In addition to clothes, Hector also bought them the communication equipment of this world.

Communication equipment in this world was different from that of Earth. There was no way to communicate with the entire world. They could only connect with each other on a regional network.

Beyond this area, they would be out of reach.

As for how to communicate, it was the same as calling.

In addition, Hector also bought a set of detection equipment for them, which was equivalent to artificial intelligence and could detect everything within 0.6 miles.

Gerald had encountered this kind of thing before when he was dealing with the Lightchaser with the ice attribute.

Moreover, this artificial intelligence could test physical conditions and could cure diseases.

Gerald and others had spent a lot of money, which made Kiana extremely surprised

The things that Gerald and the others bought exceeded tens of thousands of golorbs, which was a considerable fee for Kiana.

“Do you have anything else you need to buy?” Kiana asked as she looked at Gerald and the others carrying boxes.

Hector touched his chin. He seemed to have thought of something and muttered, “Can we be upper-class people?”

“Well...” Kiana shook her head and said, “If there are super experts or above in the families of lower-class people, or a martial arts genius with a perfect genetic sequence, you can be upper-class people. Otherwise, don’t think about it.”

“I was just asking,” Hector said with a smile.

In this world, upper-class people had a lot of privileges and status, so it would be more convenient for them to do what they wanted.

“Let’s go back,” Gerald said.

“But I think you can ask about the black market in Ries City,” Klana said.

“Black market?” Claude and the others looked at her with interest.

Hector explained, “There are no upper-class people and lower-class people in the black market. The hierarchy here is very strict. Many shops and good weapons are only available to upper-class people. But there is no such hierarchy in the black market. Of course, compared to what upper-class people can buy, the things in the black market are more expensive.”

Kiana explained, “Because the city is on the border and is close to the forest, many people will go to the forest to search for treasures. Most of them will sell the treasure on the black market to get a good price, and there may be a number plate of upper-class people.”

In this world, lower-class people did not even have a registered residence. Only when they become upper-class people would they be protected. The number plate is equivalent to the identification of Earth, but in this world, only upper-class people were qualified to have it.

Of course, upper-class people would also go to the forest to explore, and they would choose to become pioneers. When they die, their number plate would not be revoked, and someone would leave it behind.

Hector asked her because he wanted to buy a few.

With this identity, things would be more convenient in follow-up operations.

“Let’s go back to the hotel to put down the things and change our clothes. Then we can go to the black market,” Hector said.

They returned to the hotel, put down the things they bought, and then changed into the clothes of this world.

Most of the clothes in this world were skintight, but they didn't know what material they were made of. The clothes were light, and they didn't feel constrained. The design was also hi-tech. It was somewhat similar to the battle suit of Watchmen, but the colors were different.

Usually, it would be matched with a belt and a few bags on the waist to put some small things in.

After Gerald and the others came out of the room, they could not help but look at Valery and Carolyn.

The clothes perfectly outlined their figures. Seeing Gerald and the others' gazes, Carolyn glared at them and said, "If you look at me again, I will dig out your eyes.

Gerald coughed and said, "Let's go."

They got on Kiana's hover car and rushed towards the black market.

What they did not know was that right after they set off, at the entrance of Starlight Hotel, a person pressed his ear and said calmly. "They have already set off. I heard that they were going to the black market to buy things."

"Are you sure they came from another primitive planet?" A voice came from the phone and asked.

"Yes." This person looked at the car rising and said, "And they are rich. They just spent tens of thousands of golorbs in the afternoon. It seems that this is the first time they have come to this place. We can aim at them."

"OK, I got it. Do you have an image? Send it to me," the other side of the line said again.

"I was afraid of being discovered by them and did not dare to take any pictures, but it was easy to recognize them. Each of them is carrying a wooden box. And there are a total of eight people," the man said again.

"Great. If we succeed, I'll give you a five percent share." A wild voice came from the phone.

Gerald and the others did not know that they were being targeted.

Just as Gerald and the others were heading to the black market, something happened in the City of Phoenix, which was like a villa area.

This area occupied a large area, and the buildings were much shorter than the others.

This was where the Ingram's villa was located, and it was one of the top families in this city.

At this time, in the hall of a certain room, the head of the Ingram family was standing aside obediently. On the two main seats in front of him sat Anabel and a fat man.

The head of the Ingram family didn't look old. He looked to be in his forties or fifties.

"All of the female descendants of our family are in this place," he bowed and said submissively.

In the hall, there were hundreds of women. They looked up. Some were afraid, while others looked expectant.

If they were valued, they might be able to live on the satellite. This was the dream of countless people.

The young man looked at them for a while and said with a frown, "They are not here. The two women I saw have short black hair. Are you hiding them? They are also driving your aircraft. Is there any lady who hasn't come back?"

"Sir, there are indeed some who haven't come back. I have already informed them, and they are on their way back" The middle-aged man wiped the cold sweat off his forehead.

The fat man chuckled, "Alright, then we'll stay in the Ingram's villa for a few days."

The middle-aged man was stunned.

"What? Don't you welcome us?" Anabel looked at him coldly and asked.

"No," the middle-aged man hurriedly said, "It's our honor."

Chapter 782 The Black Market

Hearing the middle-aged man's submissive words, Anabel and the fat man revealed a satisfied smile.

The fat man glanced at the women in the hall and pointed at a woman who looked pretty. He said, "You'll stay with me for the next few days."

The woman trembled, and her eyes revealed a trace of sadness and unwillingness. However, she did not dare to resist. She only dared to softly say, "Yes."

Anabel frowned slightly and did not say anything. She stood up and left the hall.

Gerald did not know what had happened in the City of Phoenix. At this time, eight people were sitting in the hover car.

Hector was introducing things in the black market to Gerald and the others. He looked at Gerald and said, "By the way, you can take a look at the black market and see if there is any medicine called Water Mushroom. If there is, we can find a way to buy it. This kind of thing is very rare."

"Water Mushroom?" Gerald's expression changed.

Beside him, Kiana said with a shocked expression, The Water Mushroom is a medicinal herb worth millions of golorbs.”

She did not expect that Gerald and the others would actually want to buy such an expensive item.

When Hector heard Kiana’s words, he frowned slightly and said, “We need Water Mushroom to cure my and Blaine’s injuries.”

Gerald’s eyes lit up slightly.

He had another mission.

Kiana looked at Gerald and the others in surprise “Speaking of which, where did you guys come from? I have been in Ries City for many years, and I have heard a lot of languages, but I have never heard of your language”

Hector frowned and said, “You don’t have to worry about this.”

Kiana stuck out her tongue and said, “I’m just curious. I won’t ask any more if you don’t want to tell me. We’re almost at the black market.”

While they were talking, the car had already left the main city of Ries City and was near the suburbs. The houses nearby were much shorter, but even if they were short, they were still buildings of more than twenty stones

The hover car stopped, and Kiana said, “Everyone, find a way to cover up your appearance. Put on a mask or something else”

While taking. Kiana took out a half mask and put it on her face. Then she explained, “The black market is full of many people. It is easy to be targeted if you buy things inside.”

Gerald and others frowned.

First, they did not have masks. But they all had sunglasses and masks.

However, the box on their backs was still very eye-catching. If they entered the black market and came out again, they would be easily recognized.

“Let’s go in. This kind of thing doesn’t happen so often. There are not many people in the city who dare to fight,” Hector said.

Gerald nodded.

There were only five people reaching the level of Flame Decay in this city. Even if someone really targeted them, they were not so afraid.

They got out of the car and put on sunglasses and masks, not revealing their faces.

When Kiana saw their attire, her eyes lit up. "What are you guys wearing? It looks pretty good on you."

Carolyn took the initiative to walk to her side and said with a smile, "It looks good, right? They are called sunglasses. If you want it, I'll give you one later."

"Really?" Kiana asked happily.

"Of course," Carolyn said with a smile.

"Thank you," Kiana said. Then they walked to an empty place. Kiana pointed to a three-story building in front of her and said. "This is the black market. It is said that this black market is built together by the four experts in the level of Flame Decay. I don't know if it is true."

"Most likely." Hector said, "The black market of every city is controlled by the top forces of this city. There are even some officials in it. If one wants to sell things there, they may pay a high fee for setting up a stall there, and they have to give a certain commission to the black market. This is a profitable business."

Kiana was a very professional tour guide. She took Gerald and others to the door and then said, "You will have to pay 100 golorbs to go in. I will wait here for you."

There were two people standing at the door. Hector was very generous. He directly swept 900 golorbs with his card and paid for Kiana. Then, he walked in with Kiana.

Kiana looked happy. She took the initiative to introduce, "There are a total of three floors here. The first floor is mostly selling some treasures from the forest. For example, medicinal herbs, strange ores, wild beast fur, and the like.

"The second floor is for selling weapon equipment, including combat suits, weapons, and even some red and blue Pioneers. Of course, there are some martial arts skills, combat skills, and so on. In short, most of the things that can be bought in the common market are available in the black market," Klana said.

Gerald's expression changed slightly.

The Pioneers were someone like Elite Ghost. He did not expect that there would be such things for sale on the second floor.

“What about the third level?” Claude asked.

Kiana said. “The third floor is an auction house, and it will only be open on weekends. The good stuff will only be auctioned on weekends. However, the prices are very high. There was a weapon that was sold for hundreds of millions of golorbs. It is said that purple Pioneers will be on sale, and the hover car “Hercules” will be on sale as well.”

Gerald’s expression changed as he looked at Hector.

Hector explained, “You can understand it as a Rolls-Royce in the hover cars. When I was still in this world, Hercules only produced a hundred hover cars each year, and each one was quite expensive. This car can be used as an aircraft, and it can be used as a hover car. It is said that they wanted to develop it into a Pioneer I don’t know if they made it.”

Triston took a deep breath and said, “Shit, this is a transformer.”

Kiana was a little used to them communicating in their own language from time to time, but she did not ask much and brought Gerald and the others to stroll around the first floor.

Gerald and the others only took a look and did not buy anything

There were many stalls on the first floor, and they had never seen much of what was on it. They just looked at the items curiously and had no intention of buying them.

After walking around the first floor, they walked toward the second floor.

At this time, Gerald touched his chin and said with a smile, “There are people following us.”

“What?” Some people’s expressions changed, but they did not look around and still looked calm on the surface

On the other hand, Kiana’s expression changed slightly as she looked around.

“Don’t look around.” Gerald reminded her, “They’re at four o’clock.”

Kiana was even more confused. She did not understand what Gerald meant by four o’clock.

However, Valery and the others understood. Triston grinned and said, “Tsk. Tsk. They’re super experts. How about I go and knock them down?”

“Come on.” Jacob said with a frown, “Everyone, keep a low profile.”

“Leave them alone for now.” Hector said, “They should be targeting us in the afternoon when we went around shopping. It’s best if they don’t attack us.”

“What if they attack us later?” Carolyn asked with a frown.

Beside him, Jacob chuckled and said, "Let's wait and see."

Kiana was scared.

The super experts were enough to become upper-class people. In Gerald's and the others' opinions, however, super experts were easy to deal with.

She looked at Gerald and the others strangely. She did not dare to speak and walked to the second floor.

Chapter 783 The First Fight

On the first floor, they did not find the Water Mushroom they had talked about.

According to Hector, the Water Mushroom was an extremely expansive kind of herb that grew on the surface of the water and looked like mushrooms.

Kiana said it would most likely appear in an auction.

Gerald and his fellows did not strive hard for the Water Mushroom. They thought about finding a way to buy

Then the group walked upstairs to the second floor.

The second floor displayed mainly weapons and equipment. Not long after they stepped onto it, Claude stopped at the door of a weapon shop and could not move at all.

Inside the shop, there were quite a few firearms. The guns were obviously much better than the ones owned by Claude.

"I want one of those!" Claude cleared his throat.

His current gun was invented by Dr. T. The gun was made from some materials from the Elite Ghost. But its design and technology were much less impressive than the guns in this world.

Hector said, "Forget it. When we leave, you can have the best gun and ask Lucas if he can make bullets for it. The bullets you brought are all for your current gun."

Indeed, to match up with Claude's gun, Lucas designed the bullets exclusively for it.

The guns there in the shop might have wider ranges and higher accuracy, but Claude's bullets did not match

"What a shame!" Gerald sighed inside.

For a sniper, the more powerful his gun was, the more powerful he would be.

Of course, Claude's bullets rivaled a Flame Decay attack. With his bullets, Claude was one of Gerald's trump cards. If Claude sneaked an attack with his bullets, even a force at the level of Flame Decay would not be able to fight back.

Claude felt resigned. He looked at the dazzling firearms in the shop with longing on his face.

“When I leave, I must buy the best gun from here,” Claude muttered to himself.

Claude did not count on his martial cultivation to improve a lot. He felt lucky already to have reached the level of Half-Step Flame Decay. If Gerald had not discovered the Burial Ground, and if there was no marrow, he would not have even been raised to the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

Then the group went around the second floor. They stopped at a place where battle clothes were sold.

Those battle clothes were worth noticing. They were soft, but they were quite defensive!

“Madam and sir, are you looking for some nice battle clothes?” Inside the shop, a man wearing a mask said with a smile.

Hector took a scan of the shop and shook his head!

He did not think the battle clothes there would be more effective than those invented by Dr. T.

They walked around the black market but did not end up holding much in their hands. Just as Kiana had said, the really good stuff would only be shown in the auction.

But Gerald and the others obviously did not have that much time. They would have to leave the place tomorrow.

They did not find the number plate for upper-class people, something they wanted.

“Let’s go back,” Hector said, “It’s getting late.”

Their main purpose in coming to the black market was not to buy things but to let Gerald and his fellows understand some rules of this world.

When they walked out of the black market, it was getting dark.

Kiana walked behind. Rubbing his nose, Gerald said, “The stalkers are still hanging on.”

They walked towards the hover car.

Before they got to the car, Gerald noticed that from the dark rapidly came some figures. There were more than twenty of them.

“It’s them!” At that moment, Kiana seemed to recognize someone among the uninvited. Her look slightly changed.

“Do you know them?” Triston asked Kiana in surprise.

With fear climbing on her face, Kiana answered, “They are the notorious gangsters here. The head, Jax Cline, is from the upper class. He is a super expert. It’s said that he almost got to the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

The gang often robs the weak and rich lower-class people,” said Kiana, gritting her teeth, “Let’s run!”

“It’s too late to run now!” A red-haired man chuckled as he walked over. In his hand was a huge machete. The machete did not look good, but it struck people as being quality.

The gangsters quickly surrounded Gerald and the others.

The red-haired man was the strongest in the gang. Gerald thought Jax was probably on the same level as Davis.

Other than Jax, there were another four or five super experts in the gang, and the rest of them were all top experts.

On those super experts’ chests clung green plates with numbers on them.

“Are these the number plates of the upper class?” Gerald looked at the plates with great interest.

Such a gang would definitely stir fear in the world Gerald was from, and even held the entire Sin City.

But on Havotune, they could only play around as street bullic

That was the difference between the two worlds. They had uneven martial levels.

Kiana looked a little frightened. She braced himself and said. “Mr. Cline, they... They are all my guests. Can you... Can you let us go?”

“Oh!” Jax saw Kiana. He then said, “Isn’t this our sexy Kiana? I can let them go, if you serve me well tonight and let these people give me their cards.”

Beside Jax, a man got in, “Get the weapons on their backs. They’re carrying boxes. There must be some good stuff in them.”.

“Well...” Kiana’s face changed!

Jax curled his lips and said, “Since you and I are both from Ries City, I will let you go. Take the chance and go!

Kiana’s heart sank.

Just then, she noticed Jacob, who stood beside her. He smiled brightly at her and whispered, "Go to the hover car and wait for us."

Kiana was surprised.

She suddenly realized that none of her guests showed any fear. They were quite calm... They looked like they did not care about those bullies.

Kiana nodded with gritted teeth. "OK... Be careful."

Then Kiana turned and walked out of the crowd.

Seeing her leave, Jax stared at Gerald and the others and said, "You from the lower class, just give me all your stuff."

Jax's greedy eyes swept over Valery and Carolyn. He said, "And these two women must be with us tonight, or we will kill you all!"

Hector slowly let out a breath and said, "Clear them now. Don't leave any evidence!"

"Give me ten seconds!" Triston chuckled.

The others just stood still.

Soon, an imposing force suddenly spread out from Triston. Behind him, the Black Dragon Spear flew up. Its two parts instantly merged together to form the whole spear.

Jax was stunned!

In fact, the spies from the gang never reported the real strength of Gerald's group.

The spies could not tell it exactly.

But they could be sure that Gerald and his fellows were lower-class people. They guessed if Gerald's group were more powerful than the super level, they would not be from the lower class.

Maybe Gerald and the others got some talent for business. They did not have much money, and they came to the city for a visit. So... They decided to attack!

But now Triston's strength was overwhelming to them.

"The level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay!" Jax shouted with extreme fear, "Run!"

"Run? It's too late." Triston chuckled. He moved quickly among the gangsters, who could barely see his figure.

The spear kept swinging. Every time it swung, a gangster fell to the ground. In less than ten seconds, the enemies were all down!

This was the first time Triston fought on this planet. It was a fast win!

“Let’s take those green plates and go!” Hector stepped forward to take the plates off the gangsters.

Gerald and the others did not hold back. They quickly took the plates and left the spot.

Chapter 784 An Accident

Gerald and his group hated the people of this world because the Four Ancient Families invaded Earth.

Elite Ghosts had killed too many people on Earth in the past years. Gerald and other Watchmen had an unspeakable hatred for the Four Ancient Families. If a person from the Four Ancient Families stood in front of them, they would immediately kill him without hesitation.

They couldn’t forget the Watchmen and the ordinary people slaughtered by the Four Ancient Families....

Gerald was willing to come because he wanted to kill some experts of the Four Ancient Families. He even planned to build his own force here and destroy the Four Ancient Families!

His mission this time was only to kill some experts. Then he would try to learn the rules of this world.

Other than the number plates of upper-class people, Gerald and the others did not take anything. They quickly slipped away. Soon, they arrived at the side of the hover car.

Seeing that Gerald and his group come so quickly, Kiana was stunned. She said, “Just now, I felt a strong aura.”

“Hey!” Triston smiled.

Jacob pretended to cough and walked over. “Kiana, if someone asks about it later, you’d better pretend that you didn’t see it. Otherwise, it will bring trouble to yourself!”

Half of his words were comforting, and the other half were threatening.

No one in this world was trustworthy.

Kiana was stunned.

She understood Jacob’s meaning. She quickly nodded. “Are we leaving now?”

“No hurry!” Jacob said, “Wait a moment.”

A group of people quickly rushed out of the black market. They rushed towards the place where Gerald was before.

At the same time, another group of people wearing light green uniforms quickly approached.

Seeing so many people lying on the ground, these people frowned.

The man in the green uniform frowned and asked, “What’s going on? I felt that someone at the level of peak Flame Decay was here. Was there a fight?”

These people in green uniforms were City Defenders!

The leader of the black market frowned and said, "We also felt it. So we came here immediately. Everyone was killed in one blow. They died in an instant."

One of the City Defenders frowned and said, "These people seem to be a group of gangsters in the city. They might have come to blackmail someone and let themselves be caught."

A leader of City Defenders hurriedly said, "If they attack others in the city, they are breaking the rules. We have to investigate this matter. Otherwise, there is no way to explain it. Check the nearby surveillance cameras!"

The leader of the black market said, "It's useless! These gangsters are habitual criminals. They often blackmail people here. And they always choose places without surveillance"

Obviously, Jax and his men had dug their own graves.

Gerald and his men sat in the car. After waiting for the other hover cars nearby to leave, Jacob said to Kiana,

"We can go now!"

They killed people. The first car to leave would most likely be the first to be investigated. Therefore, after waiting for some cars to leave, Jacob finally let Kiana drive the car away.

Kiana nodded. She felt that the group of people she had received was extraordinary.

She was a smart woman.

She was afraid of Jax. And this group of people could escape from Jax in a short time. They were obviously much stronger than Jax!

If she knew that Jax and his group were easily killed by Triston, she would be terrified!

The car slowly started and soon returned to Starlight Hotel.

When they arrived, Jacob smiled at Kiana. He took out his card and gave Kiana extra 1,000 golorbs Kiana was stunned for a moment. Then she hurriedly thanked him.

Kiana was the first person Gerald and his group came to deal with on this planet. They knew that they wouldn't meet Kiana again.

After bidding farewell to Kiana, they returned to the hotel rooms to rest.

The night soon passed.

Early the next morning, the group of eight got up early. After leaving the hotel, they headed straight for the aircraft stop.

Hector was queuing up to buy tickets. Gerald and the others waited quietly.

Soon, Hector frowned and ran back. "We can't take the aircraft."

"Huh?" Gerald frowned and said, "What's wrong?"

"The

person who sells the tickets said that some flying beasts are blocking the route from Ries City to the City of Phoenix. This route has been canceled! If we want to get there, we have to travel overland. We have to travel through two forests and it will take three days!" Hector said.

Gerald and the others frowned.

"Did he say when the route will be available again?" Claude asked.

Hector said, "We don't know for now. They have tried several times, but they failed. This route has been canceled for half a year. Therefore, there is a high chance that we will have to travel overland."

Traveling overland was usually more dangerous. If they wanted to cross the forest, they might encounter wild beasts

Of course, the price was much cheaper.

Most of the lower-class people would choose to travel overland when they went far.

Gerald and his men had no choice. Their target had always been the Four Ancient Families. They only had half a year, so they wanted to get there as soon as possible.

"Then let's travel overland!" Gerald said.

They took a public hover car and rushed to the hover car station.

There were quite a lot of people in the hover car station. At the aircraft stop, most of the people were upper-class people. However, in the hover car station, most of the people were lower-class people.

Gerald and his group queued up for a long time before it was their turn.

"Eight tickets to the City of Phoenix," Hector said to the ticket seller.

When the ticket seller heard that, he looked at them with a strange expression and said, "Are you sure? Although we have a car that will go to the City of Phoenix, it is quite dangerous. If we send out ten cars, at least half of them will lose contact."

The journey was far and dangerous. But to earn money, some people would gamble their lives. The price of the ticket to the City of Phoenix was high.

“Yes!” Hector said.

“2,000 golorbs per person!” The ticket seller said.

“So expensive?” Hector asked.

This was nearly the price of taking an aircraft. Logically speaking, taking the hover car should be much cheaper.

At this time, the ticket seller said, “The driver is risking his life to send you there. Naturally, it will be a bit more expensive. However, you are lucky. A few experts are also going to the City of Phoenix. Perhaps you will be able to arrive safely.”

Hector did not care about the experts the ticket seller mentioned. He paid and took the tickets.

After checking the tickets, they found a huge hover car.

In the driver’s seat of the hover car sat a middle-aged man who looked to be in his forties. He leaned against the chair and sat there with no expression on his face.

But Gerald could feel that he had a feeling of fatigue and helplessness about life.

This world was very dangerous, but the driver had to take the risk of living. He was just a low-class citizen. If he wanted to live, he had to pay more than others.

In comparison, Gerald preferred the atmosphere on Earth where everyone was equal.

The driver cast a few glances at the tickets Hector gave him. Then he looked at Gerald and his group and said, “Go in and have a seat. There will be some danger along the way. You better be prepared!”

The car was very big and could accommodate about forty people, but there were not many people inside.

“Upper-class people?” Suddenly, Gerald’s gaze fell on the rear.

Several people were sitting there. They had upper-class people’s number plates on their chests.

“What are you looking at?” Meeting Gerald’s eyes, one of them glared at Gerald and said in a low voice.

Gerald’s pupils slightly narrowed, but he did not say anything.

There were more than ten lower-class people like Gerald in the car. They looked nervous. Adding Gerald and his group, there were about twenty or so passengers in total.

“Everybody is here. Sit tight. We’re leaving,” the driver said.

Then, the car quickly rose into the air. After leaving Ries City, the car landed on the ground. The wheels around the car appeared from the bottom, making it look exactly like the cars on Earth.

However, its speed was much faster! The effect of the shock reduction was quite outstanding. Even on the dirt road, Gerald did not feel the slightest tremor.

The car entered the forest and headed towards the City of Phoenix.

Chapter 785 She Is My Woman”

In the wilderness, a hover car was shuttling on the ground. Its speed was very fast. According to Earth’s speed, Gerald thought that it would be at least 150 yards.

Regardless of such a fast speed and ordinary unpaved road which was not for high-speed driving, they didn’t feel turbulence in the car.

Gerald had to admit that Earth’s technology was far behind in all aspects compared to Havotune

Gerald and the others sat on chairs, which could be put down, and then they could lie down!

Valery sat next to Gerald. Their adaptability was very strong. After that day, they slowly began to adapt to everything on this planet.

Triston directly put down his seat. He smiled at Gerald and said, “I’ll sleep for a while. Wake me up when you encounter danger.”

Gerald was speechless!

They had just slept for one night, but this guy could still continue to sleep. Though speechless, Gerald nodded.

This car had four seats in a row, and the middle was the aisle.

Carolyn and Claude sat in front of Gerald, and there were several people sitting on the other side of the aisle

On the left side of Gerald was a child who looked eight or nine years old. Beside him seemed to be his mother.

His mother had a haggard look on her face, as well as a hint of expectation. She was telling the child something.

“Honey, in three days, we will be able to reach Phoenix Academy. Your talent is not bad. When you enter school, you must study and cultivate hard and strive to become a super expert. This way, you can change the fate of our family,” the woman warned.

The little boy was not in the mood to listen to his mom’s nagging. His eyes stared straight ahead.

“Click! Click!”

In front of Gerald, Carolyn was holding a pile of snacks. She had brought them from Earth and there was no such thing in this world.

At this time, she was holding a bag of potato chips and eating very happily. This directly attracted the attention of the little boy!

The boy's parents were still nagging. "Mom is not useful. I can't give you too many energy stones to help you.

cultivate. So if you can't become a super expert, don't be afraid and study hard. In the future, you can go to those big companies to work and earn money. In the future, it will be much safer to stay in the City of Phoenix than in Ries City..."

Carolyn noticed the gaze of the little boy. She turned to look at the little boy. The little boy was a little shy and turned his head away

Carolyn was a little reluctant, but she still gritted her teeth and handed over the potato chips. She asked, "Little guy, do you want to eat?"

The little boy's eyes revealed a trace of anticipation, but his mother's expression changed slightly. She hurriedly protected the child and then said to Carolyn, "No need!"

She was on guard.

Gerald was speechless.

He sized up the child. This child's talent was indeed not bad. At the age of eight or nine, he had already reached the intermediate level. If he properly cultivated martial arts, it would be almost inevitable for him to reach the super level.

Behind them were two old men. The two old men had complicated expressions. They had been watching the outside of the window, their faces full of vigilance and anticipation.

In addition, the lower-class people sitting in front were mostly quiet. Even when they spoke, they were whispering.

However, the people sitting behind them were completely different. They were talking loudly.

"Damn it, I wonder what our families are thinking. They suddenly asked us to go back!" one of them cursed loudly.

At the back, there were a total of eight people, three men, and five women!

"We have been guarding this side for so long. Now we suddenly retreat. Damn!" another man followed up. "And I have to sit with these lower-class people. Their stink makes me feel that I'm polluted."

“Save that. It is said that there is an ambassador who wants to pick a woman from our clan. I don’t know if he wants to get married or something,” the last man sighed and said. “I wonder who has such good luck. Once she is selected, she can go to the satellite to live.”

During the conversation, Gerald also understood a little, and he found that all of these people were above the super level. The most powerful ones were already close to the level of Half-Step Flame Decay

Gerald and the others’ auras were all hidden. They found a method to hide their auras from Burial Ground, so the others thought that they were just ordinary people.

The car drove forward. After passing through a mountain forest, they entered a desert.

At this time, the man driving the car in front said, “Everyone, be careful. Next is a dangerous place. There are some large beasts in the desert. If we are unlucky, our car will be overturned. Before tonight, we will arrive at Hillnext and rest there for a night before setting off.”

“Just go on. You are lucky to meet us.” A loud voice came from behind.

“Yes, yes, yes!” the driver quickly said with a smile.

The car was still going forward: The scenery around was constantly retreating. Gerald and Valery looked at the scenery outside the window with great interest.

The conversation behind them continued

“If the ambassador really married a daughter of our family, our status in the City of Phoenix would probably rise a little.” The loud voice from behind again.

Hearing this, Triston, who had his eyes closed, suddenly opened his eyes.

Gerald’s expression also changed slightly. A few silver special tools silently appeared in Valery’s hand!

They had not expected that the people behind them were actually people from the Four Ancient Families of the City of Phoenix.

“Speaking of this...” A person behind grinned and gestured toward Gerald and the others in front of him. “The two girls in front are not bad! I have reached the age to get married.”

As he spoke, the people behind burst into laughter!

“Tok tok tok...”

Then, there was a sound in the aisle of the car.

Then, next to Gerald, a young man with a buzz cut in his thirties stood. He stared at Valery with fiery eyes and said, “As expected! A rare beauty!”

After saying that, he glanced at Gerald and frowned. “Lower-class people, get lost!”

Gerald frowned slightly.

Before he could speak, the man said to the woman, "Hey, beauty, I am a member of the Ingram family, one of the Four Ancient Families in the City of Phoenix. My name is Kubrick Ingram, and I have taken a fancy to you!".

The killing intent in Gerald's eyes grew stronger.

Kubrick continued, "Give me a son. If you marry me, your entire family can become upper-class people."

There was a sense of superiority in his words. He seemed to think that Valery would definitely agree.

"He is my woman," Gerald said indifferently.

Hearing Gerald actually speak, Kubrick revealed an angry expression. "So what? Now that I've taken a fancy to her, she's my woman! lower-class, get lost. Do you not understand human language?"

He shouted at the driver, "Driver! Open the window for me! I want to throw this damned lower-class person out."

The driver's expression changed slightly. He laughed bitterly. He did not dare to provoke these people.

Next to Valery, the tightly shut window slowly rose. Because the car was extremely fast, the wind poured in immediately

"Damned fellow, how dare you resist me!" Kubrick laughed sinisterly. He grabbed Gerald's shoulder with one hand and suddenly exerted force, wanting to lift Gerald up and throw him out of the window.

Facing bullying and oppression, the others did not dare to speak. The two old men sighed. Beside them, the woman covered her child's eyes, as if she did not want him to see this scene!

"Huh?" Kubrick grabbed Gerald, but he found that he could not lift Gerald.

Kubrick's expression changed slightly and he felt that something was wrong.

At this time, he found that Gerald was looking at him, as if looking at a dead man.

Chapter 786 Have You Heard of Night Watch?

The cars were shuttling through the desert. The road was obviously what the hover cars often traveled on.

In the sky, there were occasionally some huge creatures flying by. There was a huge difference between the beasts and birds in this world and on Earth.

Inside the car, there was a bit of tension at this time. Gerald raised his head indifferently and glanced at Kubrick!

Kubrick's hand grabbed onto Gerald's body, but looking at Gerald's eyes, Kubrick felt that his own body was trembling.

Kubrick was a Pioneer of the Ingram family, which was one of the Four Ancient Families, and he was upper-class. In Havotune, although Kubrick's status wasn't too high, he always had a sense of superiority when facing lower-class people.

In his opinion, Gerald was just a lower-class person!

But now, he felt fear.

Gerald had crawled out from a pile of corpses. He had experienced too many battles, and that killing intent was real.

"You want to..." Kubrick's voice trembled slightly.

But before he could finish speaking, he found that his hand was suddenly lifted up by Gerald. Before he could react, he felt a terrifying force. He could not resist it at all. With a bang, he lay down on the aisle!

Gerald even did not use his Vital Energy. He only relied on his strength to do this.

Kubrick's expression changed greatly. At this time, he realized that Gerald's leg had already stepped on his face.

The surrounding people were all frightened.

Upper-class people!

People from the Four Ancient Families of the City of Phoenix!

At this time, Kubrick was stepped on the ground!

Those lower-class people did not dare to make any movements at all.

In the rear, the remaining seven people of the Ingram family saw this scene. Their expressions changed, and they were about to take action.

Triston, who had closed his eyes, suddenly stood up. The aura around his body suddenly rose. It was the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay.

"The level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay!" The faces of those from the Ingram family changed greatly.

The Four Ancient Families in the City of Phoenix were connected to one another, and there were dozens of Flame Decay experts. Such a force was very close to entering the satellite.

Even so, the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay had a very high status among the Four Ancient Families.

Among the seven people, one woman seemed to be their real leader. She had short black hair. At this time, she hurriedly stood up and said, "Everyone, please show mercy!"

After that, she stood up and said, "We are from the Ingram family in the City of Phoenix. My younger brother was rude just now. I apologize on his behalf!"

Triston curled his lips and said, "Apologize? Just an apology, and you're done? The Ingram family in the City of Phoenix?"

When he said this, the corners of his mouth curled up slightly. "Screw you!"

They and the Four Ancient Families of the City of Phoenix were deadly enemies. When they heard that the people behind them were from the Ingram family, the people behind them were already dead in their eyes.

Not to mention that this group of people was so arrogant!

"Everyone, are you sure you want to offend the Ingram family?" The woman's face sank. "I admit that the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay is strong, but if you touch my brother, you'd better consider the outcome. You know, you are going to the City of Phoenix. That's our place."

Inside the carriage, the others all dared not speak.

Gerald and the others also fell silent. Triston subconsciously looked at Gerald and Jacob.

Whether to make a move or not still depended on Gerald and Jacob.

Jacob and Gerald looked at each other, their thoughts in sync.

Jacob stood up and said to the others, "Everyone! I hope that all of you will forget what you saw today. Otherwise, it will bring you countless troubles."

His words were naturally not said to the Ingram family, but to the other people in the car.

At this time, Gerald lowered his head and looked at Kubrick, who was stepped on the ground by him. He smiled and asked, "You just said you wanted to throw me out, right?"

The wind poured into the car through the window, causing Kubrick to shiver!

He gritted his teeth and said, "Kid, what are you doing? I'm a member of the Ingram family. You dare to attack.

me? You can't live if you go to the City of Phoenix..."

He was halfway through his sentence when his voice suddenly stopped. Gerald's foot moved slightly and stepped on his neck, instantly killing him.

Then Gerald bent over, picked up Kubrick, and threw him directly outside the window!

The inside of the car was completely quiet.

In the rear, the Ingram family didn't dare to come out.

Just now, they were noisy and looked down on the others in the car.

But now, after Gerald dealt with Kubrick without even blinking, they knew that things were going to be troublesome.

Especially the leader of the Ingram family, her face was full of gloom!

She naturally knew that when Gerald and his guys moved first, they would definitely not be able to escape. Gerald and his guys could not allow them to safely return to the City of Phoenix, and then bring the people of the City of Phoenix to find trouble with them!

Yes, the moment Gerald made a move, in the carriage, Valery stood up, and silver special tools streaked across the carriage!

They directly flew into the bodies of the people behind.

She was also at the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay.

All of a sudden, six more people lost their breath.

The woman next to Gerald tightly covered the child's eyes and ears, preventing him from listening and looking. Her face also revealed a frightened expression.

She had originally thought that this trip to the City of Phoenix would be much safer with a few super experts. However, she had never expected that they would be involved in such a fight.

"Who are you?" Cold sweat began to break out on the forehead of the leader of the eight people.

She was the strongest among the Ingram family members and also the leader of the small team of Pioneers!

She knew that this time, her team might be killed.

Gerald revealed a smile. His body moved and appeared in front of this woman in an instant. His eyes were fixed on her.

"Have you heard of... the Night Watch?" Gerald grinned and asked.

The woman was slightly stunned at first, and her eyes revealed a trace of confusion.

However, after a moment, her body trembled as if she had thought of something. She looked at Gerald in shock and said in shock, "You... You... Where are you from? You..."

Obviously, as one of the Four Ancient Families of the City of Phoenix, she seemed to have heard of the Night Watch!

in fact, the existence of Earth was something only the core members of the Four Ancient Families knew.

This woman was an outstanding talent among the younger generation of the Ingram family and one of the core members. Therefore, she knew about the existence of Earth and the Night Watch.

She had never expected that Gerald and his guys would actually come to this place and even go to the City of Phoenix.

At that moment, her back had already started to turn cold. She had probably guessed the purpose of Gerald and the others going to the City of Phoenix.

She finally understood why Gerald and the others would directly kill them. Especially after she said that she was a member of the Four Ancient Families of the City of Phoenix, Gerald and the others became more and more decisive

At the same time, in front of her, Hector stood up and slowly turned his head to look at her

The woman's eyes widened again.

Suddenly!

At this moment, a wave of Vital Energy enveloped Hector's entire body. In an instant, the woman maintained her terrified appearance, but her body had turned into an ice sculpture!

Chapter 787 Arrive in the City of Phoenix

"The level of Flame Decay!"

The passengers and the driver of the hover car all felt it the moment Gerald used his special ability!

This world was different from Earth. On Earth, the level of Flame Decay was rare. Gerald's first live broadcast shocked the entire world. Many people regarded Gerald as a hero!

But Havotune was different. Above Havotune, everyone knew a lot about the level of Flame Decay. Even most people had personally seen people at the level of Flame Decay attack!

For example, Ries City was only a small city in Havotune, but it already had five existences at the level of Flame Decay.

So the moment Gerald's attribute was revealed, everyone in the car felt that Gerald was an existence at the level of Flame Decay.

They all trembled.

Gerald didn't pay too much attention. He looked indifferently ahead and said, "Man, please open the window!"

The driver quickly opened the window. Gerald threw the dead bodies out!

In Gerald's eyes, no one from the Four Ancient Families was good.

After throwing them out, he patted his hand and returned to his seat.

"Man, you can close it now." At this time, Jacob stood up.

The driver slowly closed the window.

The others were still shivering.

Jacob slowly glanced at everyone.

One of them could not resist the pressure anymore. His voice trembled as he said, "We... promised that we wouldn't say anything. Please don't kill us."

Gerald frowned slightly!

It was indeed tricky to deal with the people from the Four Ancient Families, so when they attacked, they were actually thinking about whether they should kill all the people.

But in the end, Gerald chose not to do so.

The people who hated them were only the people from the Four Ancient Families. Other people were innocent.

Kubrick and the others were arrogant, but these lower-class people could only bear it. Gerald felt sympathy for them.

Jacob smiled faintly and said, "I hope you guys can keep your promise. Your destination is the City of Phoenix. Although it is very big, the road is not so easy. If we are chased by the people of the Four Ancient Families, I promise that before we die in their hands, the people who informed them will die first!"

"We won't say a word," those people hurriedly promised!

They couldn't afford to offend people from the Ingram family, but they didn't dare to offend Gerald either.

Some were worried, and some secretly delighted!

With someone of the level of Flame Decay and the level of Half-Step Flame Decay on the bus, their trip to the City of Phoenix would be much safer.'

Hector also said indifferently, "When we get there, check all their phones and cameras in the car. Delete anything that captured us. We don't need to kill them!"

They nodded!

The car sped forward in the wilderness.

It was a smooth trip. With Gerald and Hector, the two at the level of Flame Decay, although there were some troubles on the road, they were all smoothly removed.

Of course, Gerald and the others had seen real beasts in the world!

On Earth, when Gerald was at the super level, he was almost invincible. The so-called wild beasts could not pose any threat to him. But in this world, things were completely different. They even encountered wild beasts of a higher level than the level of Flame Decay.

No wonder there was limited space for humans in this world. Those forests and wilderness were simply a paradise for these wild beasts.

Three days passed quietly.

The City of Phoenix was quite large, located in the east of Solein Kingdom. It was the capital of the Phoenix Region, the head of the nine regions of Solein Kingdom. It was also the center of the entire eastern region of Solein Kingdom!

The city was very large, and there were many people living there!

The Four Ancient Families of the City of Phoenix were one of the top families on Havotune. Of course, they were incomparable to the families on the satellite.

Many people came here because there were many opportunities, and it was also the education center of Solein Kingdom. Secondly, the surroundings were well developed and very safe.

After the hover car got close to the City of Phoenix, it flew in the air.

There were also many hover cars flying around in the air.

“Let’s stop here first!” Hector stood up and said to the driver.

The driver nodded and parked the car below.

”

Hector let out a breath and said, “Everyone, excuse us, but we need to check your recording equipment!”

These people had a good impression of Gerald and the others.

They had the power of upper–class people, but they were very easygoing.

People handed over their equipment. Hector checked them carefully and found that there was no video. After he deleted the video from the surveillance video in the car, they got out of the car!

When they got off the car, a little boy gritted his teeth and said, “Sir, will we meet again in the City of Phoenix?”

Over the past three days, he established a good friendship with Gerald and the others!

When his mother found that Gerald and the others were easy–going, she did not interfere.

“If we are fated, we will meet again.” Gerald got out of the car!

Looking at the car rising into the air again, Gerald slowly let out a breath. Gerald’s eyes revealed a monstrous killing intent when he looked at the tall buildings in the distance. “The City of Phoenix, we are here.”

Passing through Nebula, they came to this strange city with only one goal, revenge, and hunting.

“What are you going to do?” Gerald looked at Hector!

Although Hector had left the City of Phoenix for a hundred years, from the reaction of the woman from the Ingram family, the people from the Four Ancient Families were still chasing after him.

It was even possible that just like Dax, who was a Watchman, every member of the Four Ancient Families was born with a mission to kill him.

Hector looked at the city in front of him. Countless emotions flashed through his eyes.

This was his hometown!

He had wandered for a hundred years and finally came back with hatred and humiliation!

“What else can I do?” He put down the box, took out a mask from the box, put it on his face, and said, “Enter the city, and then... Gather information to hunt every one of the level of Flame Decay from the Four Ancient Families!”

It was normal for this world to walk with a mask.

They let out a breath and walked towards the City of Phoenix. Soon, in front of the City of Phoenix, they saw a long line.

Hector frowned. “Why are they checking?”

“Hmm?” Gerald and the others looked at him.

“What do you mean?” Carolyn asked in surprise.

“Do we have to verify our identities before we enter the City of Phoenix?” Gerald asked with a frown.

“The City of Phoenix is a free place. It is very rare to check people entering and leaving like this,” Hector said with a sigh.

While they were talking, the people in front of them were also asking.

“What’s going on? Why are they checking today?” someone asked.

“Don’t you know?” a person said, “Recently, the Four Ancient Families have been paying tribute to the higher-ups. Someone from the higher-ups is going to stay here for a period of time. To keep them safe, they have been checking every passenger.”

Jacob frowned and said, “We’d better not leave any of our information.”

After that, he looked at Hector and asked, “Is there any other way to enter the city?”

“Yes!” Hector said slowly, “Come with me!”

Chapter 788 No Good Guy

The City of Phoenix occupied quite a large area. There was more than one entrance. The nearby areas had been developed, and even the suburbs were relatively safe. There were many people living there.

The City of Phoenix had changed a lot from how it was in Hector’s memories. He had been sighing all along, and then he had brought Gerald and the others to several entrances to the city.

However, what surprised them was that there were guards checking passengers at almost all of the entrances.

“The City of Phoenix is relatively safe, so there aren’t a lot of City Defenders. The true ruler of the City of Phoenix is the Four Ancient Families.” Hector frowned and said, “How could they make such a big scene?”

“Isn’t it to protect those important people?” Jacob asked.

"I don't think so. Who would dare to provoke those people?" Hector let out a breath. "The Four Ancient Families rely on the Archaic Tribe, the one we met on the aircraft. They are the top forces in this world. Even the king of the Solein Kingdom has to bow to them! The power on and off the satellite is not the same level!",

"They are probably looking for someone," Claude said.

Triston's expression changed as he said, "Damn it, did they know that we are here? Is it for us?"

"I don't think so." Hector shook his head and said, "When we left, there were obviously no aircraft and space stations nearby, so they shouldn't have discovered us. There must be some other reason."

"Then what should we do? We can go in after this storm passes?" Charles suddenly asked.

Gerald shook his head and said, "I don't know how long it will last. If we wait outside, it will be a waste of time."

After he finished speaking, he looked at the pass in the distance. There were more than ten or twenty people at the pass, and they were examining people there with instruments.

This entrance had the least number of people. Occasionally, a hover car would descend from the sky and enter the city from there. There were even fewer pedestrians. They had been watching for more than ten minutes but didn't see a single person.

"These people are all from the Four Ancient Families, right?" Gerald asked.

Hector's expression changed, his eyes flashing with hatred. "In the City of Phoenix, only they dare to do such a thing. City Defenders have basically no power."

At this point, he said indifferently, "Although they are under the banner of the Solein Kingdom, the Four Ancient Families are connected. They are very, very strong."

"Since they are from the Four Ancient Families, things would be easier!" The killing intent in Gerald's eyes surged. "We'll just kill them and enter the city!"

"Are there many surveillance cameras around?" Jacob began to look around.

"There are no surveillance cameras on the streets of the City of Phoenix," Hector said calmly, "This is the tacit agreement of the Four Ancient Families, Fights are allowed, but destroying houses is forbidden. The consequences are very serious. Most importantly, most of the powers in this city are attached to the Four Ancient Families. Where there are fights, they will immediately get the news."

When Gerald heard this, he frowned slightly!

His original plan was to hunt and investigate.

However, the mission was more difficult than he had imagined. According to what Hector had said, the city was completely in the Four Ancient Families' control.

He wanted to establish his own force to contend against the Four Ancient Families, then take over the city and destroy the Four Ancient Families!

But now, it seemed that even hunting and inspecting was extremely difficult!

Yet there were no surveillance cameras in the City of Phoenix, which was the only benefit for them.

“Since there are no surveillance cameras,” Gerald licked his lips and said, “Then... Let’s enter the city!”

He looked at Hector and said, “I will freeze you and you will burn the things into ashes, including the equipment.”

Hector nodded.

Gerald slowly let out a breath. He walked out of the secret place and walked toward the gate.

In front of them, more than twenty people were sitting on the ground.

They looked very idle, chatting.

Gerald glanced at them. This group of people was all at the top level. There was no one at the super level. Obviously, there were not many people at this intersection. The Four Ancient Families felt that there was no need to send experts there.

Seeing Gerald come over, they all smiled.

One of them chuckled and said, “Wow, there is finally someone.”

“Is he lower-class?” Another person was slightly surprised. He grinned and said, “Let’s play some tricks on him.”

“Don’t kill him,” another person said happily.

“He’s just a lower class. If he dies, he dies.” The person who spoke smiled, stood up, touched his bald head, and approached Gerald.

Seeing Gerald walk over, he stopped Gerald and said, “What’s your name? How many people are in the family?”

Do you have a wife? Is she pretty?”

While talking, another person came over with a scanner in his hand, intending to scan Gerald’s whole body.

What they didn’t know was that Gerald had actually heard all of their conversations. He frowned.

In this world, the ratio of lower-class people and upper-class people was 12:1. There would be one upper-class person within every 13 people.

In upper-class people's eyes, lower-class people were no different from animals. They could kill them at will.

Jax, who was killed by Triston, the Ingram family, and those people in front of them all felt this way.

Gerald really did not like it.

"I'm asking you a question. Are you mute?" the bald man said, "You want to enter the city?"

Gerald nodded and said, "Yes!"

"It's easy." The bald man smiled and said, "Climb under my crotch."

Gerald frowned and said, "Lower-class people are also people. Don't humiliate us like this.

"Hahaha..." The twenty people around started to laugh.

n

The bald man looked at Gerald with a forced smile and said, "Are you treating yourself as a human? Lower-class people are just useless trash."

Gerald sighed and muttered, "There is no good guy within the Four Ancient Families."

"What?" When Baldy heard this, his face froze. He stared fixedly at Gerald and said, "Dude, what did you say?"

"I said, you should go to hell." Gerald raised his head and glanced at him, his Vital Energy surging.

These twenty-something people instantly turned into ice sculptures.

Valery and the others quickly came out. Hector's special attributes were also released. The ice sculptures melted. Some people were burned to ashes, including the scanning equipment. They were all melted into liquid. *

"Hiss!"

Carolyn and the others sucked in a cold breath.

In fact, this was the first time that Hector had killed people with special attributes.

"We must go now," Jacob reminded.

Gerald and the others nodded. They checked around and confirmed that all the equipment was destroyed.

Then they quickly rushed into the city!

Not long after they left, a hover car landed in the sky. Two people in black clothes sat on the hover car. Both of them were wearing masks, but judging from their figures, they should be women.

"The number of people checking here should be the least," the thinner woman said.

"Drive over and take a look. I'll attack. You drive in directly!" the other woman spoke was much plumper, and her voice was soft, but there was a hint of killing intent in it.

“Okay!” The thinner woman sat in the driver’s seat.

The car drove forward and soon arrived at the entrance of the city. The thin woman said in surprise, “Hey, no one is guarding.”

The plump woman smiled and said, “Hehe, it seems that we have some comrades!”

Chapter 789 Rent an Apartment

The streets of the City of Phoenix were quite clean. This world seemed to have achieved full mechanism!

Many robots were sweeping the streets, and the people on the road were used to the existence of these robots.

After entering the city, Gerald and the others were in great shock.

The people on the streets were much more than in Ries City. On both sides of the street, there were all kinds of shops selling clothes and medicinal herbs, providing services, entertainment, and all sorts of other things.

When human civilization developed to a certain extent, most things were actually interlinked, such as smartphones, computers, and networks...

Compared to Earth, this world seemed more advanced.

For example, the smartphone, which was also the way of communication in this world, had truly achieved artificial intelligence.

In this world, artificial intelligence was also everywhere.

And for various reasons, there was no way to make it a global connection like on Earth, and it could only be limited to a certain range.

“This sweeping robot is not bad. I will take a few back with me and it can save me a lot of money from hiring a nanny,” Triston looked at the robots and said.

“A hundred years have passed. As expected, this city has changed a lot. I can’t even recognize the road.” Hector smiled and said, “Let’s go rent a place first! Just like in Sin City, the lower-class people can only live in the outer areas.”

He smiled and said,

“The closer it gets to the city center, the lower the buildings are. The city center belongs to the Four Ancient Families. The buildings there are not too different from the villas on Earth.”

“It doesn’t matter where we live,” Gerald said.

Hector looked around and then saw a house rental agency.

Many people were sitting inside, and their clothes looked more formal, but they were also different from the ones on Earth.

When they saw Gerald and the others come in, especially when they saw Gerald and the others carrying luggage, several people were delighted and quickly surrounded them. However, when they saw that Gerald and the others did not have the number plates of the upper-class people, they lost interest and sat down!

A man with short hair stood up and said, "Hello everyone, do you want to rent an apartment or buy a house?"

"Rent an apartment!" Jacob smiled and said.

Hearing that they were renting an apartment, the other staff in the agency became even more speechless. They were all busy with their own things and did not even look at Gerald and the others.

"This is so real!" Gerald said, not knowing whether to laugh or cry.

Hector smiled and said, "Although the City of Phoenix is much safer than Ries City, the pressure of life is also much greater. To the lower-class people, living is enough to make them suffer."

"That is indeed a bit similar to Sin City." Gerald glanced at him and suddenly said with a strange expression, "The establishment of Sin City was created by the Night Watch. Don't tell me you are also involved in making the city this way."

"I didn't participate. The way that Sin City turned out to be, in the end, was related to Davis. Davis ... is a member of Blood Lotus," Hector reminded.

Gerald was stunned for a moment.

While Gerald and Hector were talking, Jacob was also talking with the person who greeted them. When this man with the crew-cut hair heard that Gerald wanted to rent an apartment, he laughed bitterly in his heart. Then he quickly said, "What price range are you thinking about? The rent here is about 1,000 golorbs to 20 thousand golorbs. The apartments costing 20 thousand golorbs are located in the city center."

As he spoke, he mainly introduced the more expensive apartments to Gerald and the others. "Are you guys here to look for work in the City of Phoenix?"

Gerald glanced at his chest. There was a small tag, which should be his name tag. On it was his name, Ryder Burgess.

Hearing his question, Jacob said in a lower voice. "Yes."

"In that case, I suggest that you get a place in the city center." Ryder said, "In the city center, there are already upper-class people living there. As for the rest of the residents, they are lower-class people with a certain status. Many people have their own companies. If you live there, you can expand your connections. If you are lucky, you can enter a big company."

Jacob looked at him happily.

His ability to trick people seemed to be not bad, but for Jacob, who had done sales on Earth, this was no thing.

However, he still turned his eyes to Gerald and the others.

Hector touched his chin and said softly, "Get an apartment in the city center then!"

Hearing his words, Ryder showed a trace of surprise, and he seemed to become a lot more excited.

Of course, the commission of buying a house might be more, but he could still get a three percent commission from renting. If Gerald and the others rent an apartment for 20 thousand golorbs, he could get 600 golorbs, which was already a considerable income.

If he persuaded Gerald and the others to rent a little longer, he could make even more money.

Those who did not come to greet Gerald were also slightly stunned. They did not expect that Gerald and the others would choose to go to the city center.

For a moment, several people had tangled expressions on their faces.

"There are several apartments in the city center. I will show you the layout of the apartment..." Ryder said hurriedly.

"No need. Let's go straight to the most expensive one. Let us take a look." Jacob smiled.

This time, all the people at the agency looked at Gerald and the others strangely!

Rent an apartment!

They did not have much interest. Although they had a few houses in the city center, Gerald and the others did not have the number plates of the upper class. As for lower-class people, most of them would rent apartments at the edge of the city. The rent was quite low and it cost about several hundred golorbs... They could have been busy for a long time and might only be able to get just dozens of golorbs.

But renting the most expensive apartment... was completely different. The commission could be hundreds and it was not much different from selling a house.

They never expected that a few lower-class people would come in and rent such an apartment.

"I will show it to you now." Ryder was very excited. He brought Gerald and the others to the middle. There were a few screens. He quickly drew on them and said, "20 thousand golorbs, in the city center, roughly on the ninth ring road. These two apartments are opposite each other. The landlord is the same person..." As he spoke, some light suddenly appeared and an image appeared in front of Gerald and the others, as if it was 3D technology.

"The apartments are about 1,900 square feet, and there are many rooms..." Ryder still wanted to introduce something, but Gerald walked to Jacob and said, "We'll take both of them!"

Jacob nodded, then interrupted Ryder's introduction and said, "We want both apartments."

Ryder was stunned!•

He looked at Gerald and the others in shock.

His colleagues were also stunned.

It was fine to rent an apartment in the city center, but... Renting two apartments at once?

The commission of renting two apartments, at the very least, could be 1,200 golorbs, which was much more than selling a house in the outer area.

Those who did not greet Gerald and the others now felt huge regret.

Jacob chuckled. He touched his nose and then smiled slightly. "We will rent each one for half a year!"

When these words were said, the entire shop quieted down.

Ryder

was completely stunned. He felt as if he had been hit by a jackpot. The award was so big that he was almost knocked out.

Chapter 790 He Deserves to Die

At this time, it was quiet in the housing agency!

Two apartments with a monthly rent of 20 thousand golorbs per month Ryder could get 1,000 and two hundred golorbs per month. He calculated carefully, and the total commission he could get was more than 4,000 golorbs for six months.

The commission for the next few months was not that much, but after calculating, this amount of income was quite good.

3,000 golorbs per month in Ries City was already not bad, and these ordinary office workers' income in the City of Phoenix was much higher than Ries City's. Take the housing agency as an example. If they worked hard, the powerful one could make 10 thousand golorbs in a month!

Anyway, a commission of 4,000 golorbs per order was already a considerable income.

"Shall we pay directly?" Gerald asked.

At that moment, Ryder came back to earth. He said with a look of ecstasy on his face, "Sit here for a while. Wait a moment. I'll go get something and contact the landlord immediately. Then I'll take you there directly. If everything goes well, you can move in immediately!"

"Okay, no hurry!" Jacob smiled slightly.

Ryder quickly nodded. He hurried to walk toward the inner apartment. He planned to change his clothes and take his things. Then Ryder took Gerald and the others to see the apartment and sign the contract.

Gerald and the others sat down.

Everyone was quiet in the housing agency, and some people were a bit jealous.

The commission was a bit tempting.

At this time, a hot woman gritted her teeth, stood up, got a few glasses of water, put them on a plate, and said, "Everybody, please drink a glass of water. Ryder is inconsiderate. He shouldn't leave you all here."

Gerald glanced at Natalia Griffith with interest.

Strive for the order!

The woman's purpose was to get the order.

Natalia said with a smile, "But it's not Ryder's fault. You can take it easy. Ryder just came to the company and doesn't know a lot of things. He also doesn't have a hover car. He took clients to see the apartment before, but it took a long time. Then clients ran away angrily."

It seemed that Natalia was helping Ryder to entertain Gerald and the others, but she was talking about Ryder's problems.

If some impatient clients heard this, they might frown and replace Ryder.

However, Gerald and the others didn't care about it.

Natalia was not angry. She walked to Jacob because it was Jacob who was communicating. She handed Jacob a glass of water and bent her body slightly.

Jacob could not help but glance at Natalia!

Natalia smiled and did not shy away from anything. She continued with a smile, "These two apartments are good. It is said that the neighbors on that floor are all upper-class people. I know one of them..."

"Oh?" Jacob looked at Natalia with interest.

Natalia said with a smile, "Yes, maybe I can introduce you to each other."

Jacob chatted with Natalia with great interest, but he didn't want to replace Ryder.

Natalia smiled, but she was anxious.

At this time, Ryder walked out. Seeing this, he was stunned and said, "Natalia, what are you doing?"

Natalia was stunned. Then, she turned around and said to Ryder, "I just greet the clients for you!"

Ryder frowned, but he seemed to not dare to offend Natalia. He said to Natalia initiatively, "Thank you."

Then Ryder looked at Gerald and the others and said, "let's go!"

Gerald and the others stood up. Jacob snapped his fingers at Natalia and said, "Natalia, see you next time!"

Natalia was stunned. She cursed Jacob. Jacob pretended to be confused. In the end, she didn't get anything.

When Ryder walked out with Gerald and the others, someone in the room said, "Damn it, Ryder is so lucky."

Someone said helplessly, "Who would have thought that a lower-class person who rented an apartment would rent two apartments in the middle of the city?"

After going out, Ryder stood by the roadside and stopped a public hover car. The hover car could accommodate ten people. He coughed and said, "Sorry, I don't have my hover car. Let's take public transportation!"

"It's OK!" Jacob smiled and the group got into the car. Then Ryder said, "Wintergreen Street."

Public transportation started.

Triston asked Ryder with interest, "Does it often happen to snatch orders?"

Ryder was stunned at first and then smiled bitterly. "It's not often. It's mainly because I had just come to the City of Phoenix, and I just started working. The pressure in this city is too great. Usually, when a client comes to the agency, they will rush up. Only the client they don't want will be my turn."

"There was a hidden upper-class client before. After coming in, they looked down on him. In the end, that client wanted to buy a house in the middle of the city. I went to receive him, but Natalia snatched him." Ryder laughed bitterly and said, "The commission for that order was 10 thousand golorbs."

"You can't resist?" Triston said, "Too cowardly!"

790 He Deserves to Die

99.93%

"I don't dare," Ryder sighed. "There are many opportunities in this city and there are also many dangers. I don't dare to provoke Natalia. I am afraid that she will take revenge on me."

Gerald sighed, a nobody always lived carefully.

No matter how much pain he suffered, he only bore it.

Gerald looked at Ryder and asked, "How old are you?"

"Nineteen," Ryder said.

"Huh?" Gerald and the others were slightly stunned.

Ryder was dressed quite maturely, and they thought he was in his twenties. Unexpectedly, he was under twenty.

"Nineteen. You almost reach the top. Why don't you take the path of martial arts?" Gerald asked.

Ryder smiled bitterly, "Martial arts requires a lot of energy stones. My family is poor. I have had to work outside to support myself since I was young. I will save money in the future. Play it by ear."

Gerald suddenly realized that Ryder's martial arts talent was good.

Gerald touched his chin.

Gerald had a good impression of Ryder. In this city, he planned to build a force, so he needed to find some trustworthy people.

For the time being, Ryder was good, and his martial arts talent was also good. If it was possible, Gerald could make Ryder become his subordinate, and of course, Gerald had to investigate Ryder.

"Leave contact information?" Gerald asked.

Ryder was stunned for a moment, and then quickly said, "Okay!"

They exchanged contact numbers.

The smartphone of this world was no longer a smartphone. It could be said that it was artificial intelligence, a very small headset, which could be ejected from the screen with a press, and recorded the contact information. You could speak directly to it, and then you could dial the number.

As they talked, they rushed to the rented apartment!

At the same time, on Earth, a sealed room in the headquarters of Night Watch.

Clank.

Zackary's fingers gently tapped on the table. Blaine sat there in anger. He scolded, "Zackary, stop talking with him. Just kill him!"

In front of Zackary and Blaine, Dr. T was sitting on a chair with a smile.

"So, you are still unwilling to work for Night Watch?" Zackary asked.

Dr. T shrugged his shoulders and did not answer Zackary's question. Instead, he smiled and said, "If I'm not wrong, Gerald should have left Earth?"

"Huh?" Blaine raised his eyebrows.

"Don't be nervous. I guessed it. No one told me. I can't contact anyone else," Dr. T said.

"So what if he left?" Blaine asked.

Dr. T suddenly revealed a sinister expression. "Hey, that's good. He will die if he goes to that world. Definitely."

"What do you mean?" Blaine suddenly appeared in front of him and said, "Did you send Gerald's information to the Four Ancient Families of the City of Phoenix?"

"No, but I did contact someone else on that planet. They contacted me and asked about the Dragon Bone." Dr. T smiled and said, "The person who contacted me seems to claim to be from Nether Palace."

"Did you send Gerald's information to them?" Zackary said with a disapproving look.

"No." Dr. T said, "But if Gerald went to that planet, he would make a move. The secret of his Dragon Bone cannot be hidden. Nether Palace will not let anyone with the Dragon Bone survive. It is not just them. As long as Gerald reveals that he has the Dragon Bone, perhaps everyone in that world wants to kill him and take his Dragon Bone for themselves."

At this point, Dr. T smiled sinisterly and said, "Oh, and that girl called Carolyn, she must have the Phoenix bone. She won't be able to survive either!"

As Dr. T spoke, his face revealed a smile that made one's scalp tingle. "Destroyed my bone, Gerald deserves to die! He deserves to die! Hahaha!"