Chapter 811 Three Attributes

Gerald shrugged and said, "I don't care."

Seeing Gerald like that, Laylah and Lexie looked at him strangely. After a while, Laylah said, "Alright, be careful. You can do the mission later. The City of Phoenix is very big. It's difficult for the Four Ancient Families to find you unless they check every family in the city."

Gerald nodded and said, "Yes, I know what to do!"

"Where are you going? Do you need me to send you there?" Lexie asked.

"Let me get out of the car in whatever place. I can go back myself," Gerald said with a smile.

He naturally would not expose his residence to anyone. Although Gerald thought Laylah and Lexie were not bad people, he wouldn't believe them totally.

Lexie nodded and said. "Alright!"

She drove some distance more and let Gerald get out. Then Gerald took a hover car home by himself.

Just as Gerald was about to reach home, in one house of the Ingram family.

Anabel descended from the sky. She slowly exhaled with a trace of excitement in her eyes.

Yes. From the moment she recognized Gerald, her detector had determined that Gerald was somewhat similar to the person who killed Rafael that night.

And the result was just like what the detector said, Gerald... was a Flame Decayer, though he looked quite young.

When she walked into the house, a fat man hurriedly greeted her and said, "Anabel, I heard that you went to eat delicious food. Why don't you bring me there?"

Anabel glanced at him indifferently, walked to the sofa, and sat down, saying indifferently, "Don't ever think about those two women?"

"Eh?" the fat man frowned and said. "Anabel, what are you doing!"

"Don't ask. Anyway, just give up on the two women. And we have been here for too long. Take the things with you and go home," Anabel said.

"Ah? So soon?" the fat man muttered. "Fine. The air here isn't good enough. It's more comfortable to live on the satellite."

When he said this, he seemed to feel that something was wrong. He looked at Anabel in shock and said, "Anabel, what do you mean? I will go back alone? What about you?"

"Yes, you go back alone," Anabel said. She looked at her brother and said, "Hey, what do you think of our status in the family?"

The fat man muttered, "We can do whatever we want here. But when we are up there, we are not important at all. Or we won't be sent here to be the Pioneer. And we are sent here to take the goods and materials as soon as we finish the mission. We didn't even have time to go home."

"Have you thought of the reason?" Anabel asked.

"What other reason could it be?" the fat man sneered. "Our branch isn't important enough. We are not the valued ones in the whole family."

"Yes, so

I plan to secretly develop a force here," Anabel said. "I have my eyes on a man."

"Hmm?" the fat man said in astonishment. "What man? Did you fall in love with a man down here? It will harm our genes, and the family won't agree with that. Furthermore, you are already engaged."

"Don't think wildly. I mean, I want to use this man. I want to take control of my own fate. Don't tell them about this when you go back," Anabel said calmly. "Tell them that I'm here to seek an opportunity for a breakthrough so that I can reach the level of Flame Decay."

The fat man nodded, then asked curiously, "Who is it?"

"A genius, a super genius. He's probably a bit younger than me, but he is already at the level of Flame Decay," Anabel said.

The fat man mumbled, "Could he be stronger than Dillon?"

"Perhaps!" Anabel said. "In short, you go back by yourself tomorrow!"

"Alright!" the fat man said speechlessly. "The people of the Ancient Families agree to have fun with me these days, but they are too busy these days to do that."

"Because of the dead one at the level of Flame Decay?" Anabel asked in surprise.

She stayed in the Ingram's villa, but she didn't care much about the Four Ancient Families.

"Yes!" the fat man said. "Three attributes were detected on the body. They estimated that three Flame Decayers killed that guy together. Also, several Half-Step Flame Decayers died too. So people of the four families are angry now."

"Three attributes?" Anabel asked in surprise. "You are not mistaken?"

"I am not mistaken. Anyway, they told me that. Ice attribute, magma attribute, air extraction attribute. All good ones," the fat man said. "What's wrong? Are you interested in those three Flame Decayers?"

Anabel's pupils suddenly shrank. There was excitement flashing in her eyes. She was roaring in her heart.

People of the Four Ancient Families might not know that. But she knew that Rafael was killed by one man alone!

Three attributes! Lights of excitement flashed across Anabel's eyes.

She swore in her heart, I have to let that man work for me.

Gerald did not know Anabel's plan. He carefully returned home. In the room inside the house, Jacob was sitting there. Jacob sat there with a helmet. Nobody knew what he was doing.

Charles was sitting on the sofa, looking at something with his phone. It was probably some novels he downloaded when he left Earth!

Other than that, the others were not in the room.

"Where are the others?" Gerald frowned and asked.

Charles put away his phone and said, "Claude and Triston went next door. They seemed to be playing some game. Hector... He said that he had something to do and went out."

"What is he doing?" Gerald looked at Jacob beside him and asked.

"He went out today and bought a game helmet. He said that this is a VR game here. It's said to be 100 percent real," Charles said.

Gerald was speechless.

"Glad that you come back. I have something to tell you," Charles said. "I have an agreement with the restaurant there. I'm going to work there later. I will send you the location soon."

"So hurriedly?" Gerald asked with a frown.

Charles nodded and said, "I want a breakthrough in this half a year to reach the level of Flame Decay. And I will try my best to assassinate some experts in the Four Ancient families. Anyway, I will come back at the time I promised. Leave the rest to myself. If I die, don't think about avenging me."

Gerald remained silent for a while. Then, he let out a breath and said, "In short, if there is anything you need help with or if you are in danger, tell me immediately. I am the captain of this temporary team."

Charles was silent for a moment, and then nodded!

"Then I won't tell them." Charles put away his phone, stood up, walked to the room, and dragged out a suitcase!

Charles took two steps toward the door. Then he suddenly thought of something. He turned his head and said, "Right! Before leaving, I have to remind you!"

"What?" Gerald asked in surprise. "Tell me!"

"Don't trust Hector completely, or rather, don't trust Hector!" Charles said seriously and solemnly.

Chapter 812 Foliage Manor

"Don't trust Hector completely! Or rather, don't trust Hector!" Charles looked at Gerald with a rare expression on his face. His tone was extremely serious.

"Huh?" Gerald looked at Charles in surprise and said, "What do you mean?"

"These days, I have been secretly observing Hector. He really hates the Four Ancient Families to the bone."

Charles said, "But... He should have something else hidden from us. He has been secretly planning something."

Gerald frowned. After coming here, he spent most of his time outside. He did not have that much time at home.

He had never completely believed in Hector. However, he never observed Hector carefully as Charles did.

Of course, it was harder for him to observe someone. Charles was usually silent. He never changed his expression even if he found something.

"Okay, I understand." Gerald nodded and said, "Well, you have to be a little more careful recently. I met that silver-haired woman today. She recognized me and her brother wanted Carolyn and Valery."

When Charles heard this, killing intent flashed in his eyes. "You didn't do anything?"

"Yes." Gerald nodded and said, "But... I failed."

"That silver-haired woman is a Flame Decayer?" Charles asked subconsciously.

“No!” Gerald shook his head and said. “But we... underestimated the technology of this world. In fact, we don’t know much about the technology of this world. Her cloak suddenly became a pair of iron wings. I missed and then, she flew away.

“I understand!” Charles nodded and said, “Alright, I’ll leave first.”

“Wait a minute! Give me your golorb card.” Gerald said.

After that, he gave Charles 50 million golorbs and said, “Take this money to use.”

Charles did not say anything. He knew that Gerald’s income for a mission was high.

Then, he bid farewell to Gerald, dragged the suitcase, and left in the elevator.

Gerald looked at Jacob, who was still immersed in the game world, and was speechless. Gerald didn’t call Jacob back.

Jacob was really bored at home. It was good for him to have a game to pass the time. Of course, they would tell Jacob everything. Although Jacob wasn’t good at fighting, he was important in making a plan.

Gerald went next door. Just as he entered, he heard a sound.

In the room next door, on a square table, four people were sitting together... playing cards.

Gerald was speechless. He ran over to take a look. It was really cards, but the cards were different from cards on Earth in terms of materials.

“Where did you get the cards?” Gerald asked speechlessly.

Triston coughed and said, “I went out for a walk with Jacob today. Then... I saw a place that produces such kinds of card-like things, so I asked the shop owner to help produce cards. The technology in this world is amazing. After I gave them the blueprint, the cards were made soon.”

“Have you accepted the mission?” Valery raised his head and asked.

“Yes.” Gerald nodded and said, “But everyone might have to keep a low profile recently. It’s better to stay at home and not go out!”

“Something happened?” Valery raised her eyes and asked

Gerald briefly explained the matter to Anabel. After hearing it, Carolyn frowned and said, “Doesn’t that mean that if Anabel told the Ingram family, the Four Ancient Families might find out that we came from Earth?”

“That’s possible. But the Ingram family probably lost a lot more aircraft other than those on Earth. Their Pioneers fought everywhere, and many of them died.” Gerald shook his head and said, “In short, for the next few days, we should stay at home for a while before we act.”

The others nodded!

Half a year was not a short period of time, so there was no need for them to take the risk.

Three days passed quietly. During this time, Charles contacted Gerald and the others twice and told them that he had begun to work. Everything was a success.

The City of Phoenix... looked very calm. There was no huge change because of Anabel.

Of course, under the calm surface, there was a hidden undercurrent. During this period of time, the Four Ancient Families eliminated two families which had conflicts with them. One Flame Decayer was killed by Lightchasers.

Gerald knew that the Four Ancient Families were threatening others. They felt that their authority was challenged because one Flame Decayer and four Half-Step Flame Decayers were killed. They were angry about that Gerald did not care about their threats.

What surprised Gerald and the others was that on the second day of the conflict between Gerald and Anabel, most of the people who were guarding the city gate were gone.

Everything seemed to return to peace.

Three days later, Gerald told Valery about the missions related to the other four Half-Step Flame Decayers. They began to move once again.

In the outer ring of the City of Phoenix, a place where the lower-class people lived, Gerald and Claude carried weapons on their backs, passed through the area where the lower-class people were, and then went out of the city gate!

Gerald decided to make a move. They went out of the city gate and headed straight for the suburbs.

Not many people lived in the suburbs of the City of Phoenix. Though the suburban areas here were safer than other cities, it wasn't convenient to live here. And the house prices here were higher than in the outer ring of the City of Phoenix.

In the suburbs, most of the buildings were relatively lower.

Gerald... was planning to make a move on Gael Cruz of the Cruz family.

According to the information, Gael had been active in a villa called "Foliage Manor" in the suburbs during this period of time. Gerald found that Foliage Manor was a mysterious place. People of the Four Ancient Families often came here. And there was always a Flame Decayer here.

Gerald even suspected that there was some secret of the Four Ancient Families in Foliage Manor.

Gael was in charge of guarding Foliage Manor recently. He was called the most genius one in the Four Ancient Families in the last 100 years.

Foliage Manor was heavily guarded. Except for one Flame Decayer, there were also other experts.

As for Gael, he would come out of the villa every night. He had the habit of sitting in a lake pavilion for one hour every day.

Gerald did not know why Gael had such a habit, but... this gave Gerald a chance to kill Gael.

Gerald brought Claude with him because he wanted Claude to try killing Gael from a distance.

If Claude failed, Gerald would do it himself.

Outside the city gate, not far from the city gate, a hover car was parked there. Gerald leaned over and got into the car!

Above the hover car was Laylah and Lexie's car.

"You finally came!" Laylah smiled and said, "This is..."

"This is my friend. You can call him Claude. Today, you have to rely on him to finish the mission. The battle later will have Flame Decayers involved. You can't help." Gerald said.

"He's also a Flame Decayer?" Lexie was shocked.

Gerald smiled and said, "He... is much more useful than a Flame Decayer."

Chapter 813 I Am Your Murderer

As for Lexie and Laylah, their targets were also in Foliage Manor. They were two experts at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

At that time, they accepted this mission purely because Gerald accepted a Flame-Decay level mission in the Foliage Manor. They were curious about Gerald and wanted to get in touch with him.

At this time, when they heard Gerald's words, they looked at Claude curiously.

Because Claude was married, he was not as nervous as when he saw beauties before. He smiled and said, "I'm Claude."

"Is he more powerful than a Flame-Decay expert?" Laylah looked at Claude curiously.

At the same time, the two sisters looked at each other. In each other's eyes, they saw shock. They knew that Claude was not the only one behind Gerald's back.

Most importantly, the person in front of them did not look old and was as young as Gerald.

"So, what do you plan to do?" Lexie looked at Gerald. She held a glass of wine in her hand and her eyes lit up.

The plan is simple. Later, you will drive the hover car up to the sky and try to climb up as high as possible. Don't expose yourself. When you reach about 1,600 feet into the air, Claude will ask you to stop, and just do what he says," Gerald said. "As for things on the ground, I will handle it alone."

"So, we will just drive?" Lexie asked in surprise.

Gerald said, "You can think of it that way."

"Gael is a super genius. He reached the Flame Decay level at the age of thirty-two. At that time, he shocked the whole Solein Kingdom. Now that so many years have passed, and the Four Ancient Families have continuously given him resources, he is probably very strong." Laylah frowned and said, "If you go down alone..."

"Do you think you can help?" Gerald asked with a grin.

Lexie was silent.

Indeed, the battle between the Flame-Decay level experts was harsh. Even someone like Lexie, who was only a step away from the Half-Step Flame Decay, could not help much.

"Then be careful." She looked at Gerald worriedly and said, "If you find that you can't kill him, leave immediately. Foliage Manor is not simple. Other than one Flame-Decay expert, there are many other experts."

"I know what I'm doing." Gerald smiled and said, "Today, he will definitely die."

Seeing the smile on Gerald's face, Lexie was stunned. Then, she nodded and said, "In short, you have to be careful."

The car drove forward. When they were close to Foliage Manor, the car stopped and Gerald got out of the car.

The surroundings were dark. Gerald got out of the car. A cold wind blew and the sky was full of stars.

Gerald walked toward his destination, a small artificial lake.

Most of the people living in the suburbs were upper-class people, and this lake was a place where many of them came to take a walk. However, every day at this time, everyone near the lake would evacuate because most of them knew that Gael had the habit of meditating near the lake.

In the pavilion near the lake, a man wearing a white suit and a windbreaker was sitting cross-legged on the shore.

This person was Gael, the most extraordinary genius in the City of Phoenix.

He was now forty years old, but when he reached the Flame Decay level, he was only thirty-two years old. He achieved this as young as Hector.

However, the resources he obtained overwhelmed Hector's. Hector broke through to the Flame Decay level during imprisonment and escape.

Gael became a Flame-Decay expert with the help of countless resources.

Not far behind Gael were a few people standing with their powers ranging from Super to Half-step Flame Decay. These people were all experts from the Cruz family.

In addition, there was an old man in the pavilion.

"I have been telling you that your state of mind is the most important." The old man looked at Gael and said, "Although I have not reached Flame Decay, after reaching that level, your state of mind and determination will mean a lot. You do not seem to be calm today."

"Master." Gael opened his eyes and said, "I feel a little flustered today. I feel like something is going to happen."

The old man was at the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay, but he was Gael's teacher. He created this rare genius, and his status in the Cruz family kept rising.

"Your heart is in chaos," the old man shook his head and said.

Gael frowned and then muttered, "Master, it has been a year since Ichabod went to that world. We have been fighting in that place for hundreds of years, but the Pioneers didn't find anything. The things they take back are very few. Do you think Ichabod will..."

Ichabod was the Flame Decay expert with an ice attribute killed by Gerald on Earth.

"According to the feedback, it is just a primitive world. It is estimated that the martial arts of the people there are not bad. There are some Flame Decay experts, making their battle a little difficult," the old man said. "Ichabod has reached the level of Flame Decay and become a Lightchaser. He won't be in danger."

"But the people we sent to continue the exploration... We didn't receive any news from them," Gael sighed. "Why don't they just send more experts over and take the enemies down in one fell swoop?"

"Alas," The old man sighed. "We are under the pressure of this world. If we suddenly leave the group of experts, it will attract the attention of other powers. Our rise will be based on dead bodies. We have many enemies. Moreover, if we attract the attention of those people above us, we will have to confess once they interrogate us.

"In that world, there are so many Bones of Eternity. If we can obtain them, most of us peak Half-Step Flame Decay experts will be able to break through to the Flame Decay level. As long as we win the battle and obtain the bones, we will be able to leave this world and enter the planet above." As the old man spoke, there was a trace of yearning in his eyes.

He raised his head and looked at the three shining planets in the sky. His eyes were passionate.

“When I was young. I had some lucky chances. I was lucky enough to go there once. That world is a paradise. I dreamed of living there countless times.” The old man revealed a trace of yearning on his face. “So, calm down. When you become stronger, we will have more confidence. We will also have greater authority in the Four Ancient Families.”

“Is that world really that good?” Gael also raised his head and looked up at the sky.

After he finished speaking, he slowly let out a breath and said, “Master, after this mission is over, I intend to ask my family for their permission to go to that world to take a look. First, I want to see the situation of Ichabod. Second, I want to go and train myself and see if I can make any breakthroughs.”

The old man frowned.

At this time, a voice sounded, “You don’t have to go.”

“Who is that?” When Gael heard this voice, his eyes turned cold. He turned around.

Buzz.

An aggressive aura surged from behind him. A person approached from afar. He held a saber and a sword in his hand and instantly attacked Gael.

“I’m your murderer.” A furious roar resounded.

At the same time, in the air, the hatch of the hover car opened. Claude leaned against it with his lips pursed. He held a lit cigarette in his mouth, and then he smiled and pulled the trigger.

Whoosh.

A bullet was shot out.

Chapter 814 Skyward Strike

Gerald quietly approached. Because he was hiding his aura, he was not discovered.

Relying on his sharp hearing, he heard the conversation between the two, and a lot of information was revealed.

Halfway through, he felt relieved.

The news that Elite Ghosts had been wiped out on Earth had not been spread. The people of the Four Ancient Families thought that the people they dispatched were still fighting on Earth.

Although the Four Ancient Families looked like they were connected, they were not united. For example, because of their respective authorities, the resources they obtained seemed to be different.

When Gerald heard that Gael volunteered to go to Earth, he did not continue to listen. No matter what, he had to kill him.

His aura erupted, and at the same time, Claude fired from the sky. His target was the old man.

A terrifying aura surged.

After Gerald reached the level of Flame Decay, he made a trip to the Burial Ground. When he opened the Burial Ground, he changed his cultivation method and his main attacking skills. When the seal of the Burial Ground was removed, he used spiritual power there and had some breakthroughs in his strength. He was not sure how strong he was.

In the last year, he sparred with Hector, but because Hector's body was damaged, Gerald never used his full strength.

When he dealt with Rafael, because of the absolute suppression, he did not even use his saber. With a sneak attack, Rafael was dealt with.

And this time, it was still a sneak attack, but he went all out.

Terrifying Vital Energy enveloped the area, and three attribute-related abilities were used.

Among the eight experts standing in the distance, those who were not at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay could not resist the attack. They collapsed and half of them were burned to ashes, while the other half was turned into ice sculptures.

A long sword was extended over. Gerald leaped high into the air, and the Dragon Saber in his hand let out a roar of a dragon. Behind him, a dragon-shaped shadow that was like a totem appeared. He slashed, and the dragon opened its eyes.

In the pavilion...

Gael and the old man's expressions changed drastically.

They had never expected that in the City of Phoenix, someone dared to make a move against the Four Ancient Families.

Rafael died, and now, it seemed like it was their turn to die.

"Master, retreat.* Gael sneered. He clapped his hand, and a long sword was shot out of the lake and landed on his hand. A gust of wind was created around him. The wind was like a knife rushing at Gerald and was going to stab him.

The lake water soared into the sky.

The old man did not dare to hesitate. He was unable to participate in a Flame Decay level battle. He wanted to retreat.

Bang

At this moment, a blue bullet shot him.

The old man felt a pain in his chest, and he hadn't reacted yet...

Boom.

The blue bullet exploded like a grenade.

After compression, the bullet that could create the Flame Decay level damage was used for the first time in this world.

The pavilion was instantly shattered into pieces.

As for the old man who was struck by the bullet, his body exploded into pieces, leaving not even his bones left

"Master!"

Gael rode the wind. His speed was extremely fast and he dodged the attack. However, when he saw his teacher instantly die, his mood was on the verge of collapse.

Gerald's attack was affected by Gael's attributes, causing him to have no choice but to retreat.

Taking a step back, he stomped on the ground with one foot, and the bronze sword in his right hand circled around him. Then, he once again raised his saber and attacked. His Vital Energy once again enveloped Gael.

In the sky, Lexie and Laylah were sitting in the hover car. They looked down with their faces full of shock.

They did not expect the person in front of them to be a sniper. Moreover, the bullet created damage to the Flame Decay level.

Claude did not change his expression. He reloaded the rifle and aimed at the enemies again. His target was the remaining Half-Step Flame Decay experts.

Those people were fleeing like mad, but under the influence of Gerald's attributes, they couldn't increase their speed

At this time, Claude, who was at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay, had his aura surge. He kept pulling the trigger of the rifle

"Pfft.*

“Pfft.”

“Pfft.”

Claude did not stop shooting.

High up in the sky, Lexie and Laylah were petrified by this scene.

In this world, there were guns and snipers. However, because martial arts were prosperous, the most powerful firearms could only be used to kill Half-Step Flame Decay people. People above this level had strong Vital Energy and fast speed, making it difficult to shoot them.

Therefore, people rarely chose to use sniper rifles even if they had one.

However, Claude overturned their imagination. With one shot at a time, he killed the enemies like he was chopping vegetables.

In an instant, apart from Gael, everyone else was wiped out.

“What...” Laylah swallowed in astonishment.

What shocked them the most was Gerald.

The girls looked down. They knew that Gerald was strong. After all, they had seen with their own eyes that Gerald’s aura was at the level of Flame Decay.

Only at this moment did they feel how terrifying Gerald was.

Below, Gael, who was known as a genius, was suppressed by Gerald. He only had the strength to resist. After a collision, Gael vomited several mouthfuls of blood.

Gerald looked like he was not even thirty years old.

“Don’t just stand there. Go to the appointed place to pick up Boss.” Claude put away his sniper rifle and looked at the two stunned girls. He hurriedly reminded them.

Lexie came back to her senses. She nodded and said, “Okay.”

The cabin door closed, and then, the hover car started.

Below, overwhelming Vital Energy enveloped the lake, and Gerald continuously attacked Gael.

Clang.

Clang.

Clang.

The sound of weapons colliding continuously rang out, and Gael kept stepping back.

“Who the hell are you?” Gael said in shock as he attacked.

He was shocked. The person in front of him had three attributes. In the area where the Vital Energy was enveloped, the air was sucked out, and his wind attribute was disabled.

Without air moving, there was no wind. His attributes were restrained by Gerald.

“No, he has four attributes.” Gael felt that something was wrong because Gerald seemed to have been strengthened.

“I said I am your murderer. Don’t you miss Ichabod? I killed him, and I will send you to meet him now,” said with a sneer.
Gerald

Gael was shocked. As he struggled, he said in shock, “Ichabod died in your hands. You can suck air out, you have an ice attribute, and your body is strengthened. You have the Dragon Bone!”

These three attributes were the attributes of the people Gerald killed.

From Gael’s words, Gerald knew that his guess was right. He had many attributes because of the Dragon Bone.

Gerald slashed with his saber, and he then took a step back. He looked at Gael with disdain and said, “Is this genius of the Four Ancient Families?”

Gael had no intention of fighting with Gerald. Whether it was the attribute or the strength of Vital Energy, he discovered that Gerald was at a higher level. He wanted to run away to spread the news.

“Dragon-Slaying Saber Skills.” Gerald slowly let out a breath. Then, he flashed and said, “Skyward Strike.”

The roar of a dragon resounded throughout the lake. The saber light flickered like a dragon coming out of the sea. The light of the saber became brighter, and terrifying Vital Energy surged in the surroundings.

The fleeing Gael was unable to resist and his body was split into two halves.

Gael was dead.

Gerald landed on the ground, and his eyes were filled with confidence.

In this battle, although his attributes helped, he roughly understood his strength. He was stronger than Gael, someone at the level of Flame Decay.

Looking at Gael’s corpse on the ground, Gerald grinned and said, “The second body. This is just the beginning.”

He felt that many people rushed out from the Foliage Manor in the distance.

Gerald did not hesitate. He restrained his aura and rushed to the meeting place.

Chapter 815 The Four Ancient Families Are Furious

It was quiet in a remote corner of the suburbs. At this time, a hover car was parked there.

The cabin was open, and the lights in the car were extinguished.

Inside the car, Lexie and Laylah looked anxious as they said, "Why hasn't he come back yet?"

"There won't be any accidents, right? When we left just now, I saw a lot of experts coming out from Foliage Manor. I was worried that there would be some accidents. What if we were surrounded?" A trace of worry appeared on Lexie's face.

Claude held his gun and glanced at them, saying, "Boss will definitely be fine. Don't worry."

He trusted Gerald very much. Even if Gerald did not kill Gael, it would not be a problem for Gerald to escape unscathed.

Whoosh.

At this time, a figure quickly approached them. In the night, like a ghost, he quickly got on the driveway. "Leave quickly. Go around the vicinity and then enter the city."

"You're back?" A hint of excitement appeared on Lexie's face. Then, she quickly started the hover car and headed forward. At the same time, Laylah looked at Gerald and asked, "Did you settle the matter?"

"Yes," Gerald smiled and said. "One of your targets is Gael's teacher, and the other seems to be one of the guards."

When Lexie accepted the mission, her goal was to get close to Gerald. She saw that Gerald accepted Gael's mission, so they accepted the mission related to Gael.

This time, they completed the mission.

"Thank you," Lexie said. "We didn't do anything this time."

"You're welcome. It'll be fine as long as we have good cooperation in the future. Also, you promised to give me the reward for the mission," Gerald said with a smile.

The hover car circled around a few times before slowly moving towards the City of Phoenix.

And in the evening, the Four Ancient Families were enraged.

Rafael was assassinated three days ago, and three days later, Gael was killed.

Anyone who had reached the level of Flame Decay was a great fortune to the Four Ancient Families. Only when there were a certain number of experts at the level of Flame Decay would they have the qualifications to live in the satellite. Over the years, they had nurtured many experts.

As for Gael, he was the future pillar of the Cruz family. He was a super genius.

But now, such a super genius was killed.

When the news spread from Foliage Manor in the suburbs back to the Four Ancient Families, several hover cars took off almost at the same time and headed straight for the suburbs.

There were thousands of people on the edge of the artificial lake.

The shock brought about by Gael's death was much greater than that of Rafael.

In the middle generation of the Four Ancient Families, there were only five people reaching the level of Flame Decay. Three of them were close to fifty years old, and Rafael was one of them. If no accident happened to these three people, they would live their lives safely.

Moreover, their attributes were not special.

One of the other two was Ichabod, who was thirty-nine years old when he reached the level of Flame Decay, and he had an ice attribute.

The other was Gael, who reached the level of Flame Decay at the age of thirty-two and shocked Solein Kingdom.

Many people regarded Ichabod and Gael as the pillars of the Four Ancient Families in the future. They spent a lot of resources on these two men.

This was why Ichabod was so arrogant.

But now, Ichabod, as the representative of Lightchaser, had gone to Earth, and people lost contact with him.

Gael was killed on the edge of the City of Phoenix. This matter was enough to anger the Four Ancient Families.

In addition to the nine people who had died and the four people who were killed before, thirteen people from the Four Ancient Families had already died in a few days. Two of them were experts in the level of Flame Decay, one reached the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay, three reached the super level and eight in the level of Half-Step Flame Decay.

It was a huge loss for the Four Ancient Families.

At this time, there were seven or eight people standing on the edge of the lake.

Elton, the head of the Quintin family, Sauven, the head of the Guerrero family, Arvin, the head of the Ingram family, and Jovanni Cruz, the head of the Cruz family, were among the group with several elders. They were all at the level of Flame Decay, restraining their auras. In the level of Flame Decay, they were relatively powerful.

These people were the masters of the Four Ancient Families.

“Gael.” Jovanni was furious. He looked at the corpses on the ground that had been split into two. His eyes were filled with rage.

Elton was also furious. He sneered and said, “Obviously, the assassin came for the Four Ancient Families. Rafael was killed, and only three days later, Gael was killed... We must find these people.”

“It’s still the same three attributes: ice, magma, and air extraction. It should be the same three people who attacked Gael last time,” Arvin let out a breath and said. “Now, those two juniors of the Archaic Tribe seem to have given up on the plan to find someone in our family. That fat man has already gone back, but Anabel, for some reason, stays.”

“With them here, it is difficult for us to attack.” Elton looked sullen. “If not for the fact that Anabel is from the Archaic Tribe, I would have killed her.”

“The Archaic Tribe is not something we can afford to offend,” Sauven said indifferently.

When he spoke, everyone looked at him.

The Guerrero family was the head of the Four Ancient Families, and Sauven was one of the top-ranked experts in the Solein Kingdom and was also the real pillar of the Four Ancient Families.

“Moreover, even if we want to investigate the matter, we don’t know where to start. The other party did not leave any clues at all. Three experts of the level of Flame Decay...” Elton heaved a sigh.

Sauven frowned. After a moment, he said, “This kind of thing happened in the City of Phoenix. Two experts on the level of Flame Decay have died, and we can’t hide this matter at all. I’m afraid our authority will be challenged, so we have to investigate this matter. Blockade the city and ask City Defenders to help us search the entire city.”

“But we don’t have a target to search for. They didn’t leave any traces behind. The only information left is that they are experts of the level of Flame Decay,” Arvin gritted his teeth and said.

His words caused everyone to fall silent.

How were they going to investigate without any clues?

Moreover, the three attributes clouded their judgment. They thought that three attributes were from three different people, instead of one.

All of a sudden, the seniors of the Four Ancient Families fell silent.

For so many years, this was the first time they had suffered such a huge loss in the City of Phoenix. At this moment, a dark and sorrowful voice suddenly rang out, "Is it possible that the matter regarding Foliage Manor has been exposed? We might have been targeted by other powers."

When he finished speaking, everyone's expressions changed.

At the same time, in the Ingram's villa. The entire Ingram family was a mess.

Anabel sat there in the courtyard. She rubbed her nose and said, "Is anybody here?"

A servant quickly ran in and said respectfully, "Superior Envoy, how may I help you?"

"What's going on outside? Why is it so noisy?" Anabel frowned and said.

"It seems that after the assassination of Mr. Quintin, Mr. Cruz was also assassinated. Now, the Four Ancient Families panicked," the servant hurriedly said with knitted brows.

Chapter 816 An Opportunity

Anabel's expression changed. "Gael was killed?"

The servant hurriedly nodded. "Yes, two of the experts on the level of Flame Decay died in a row. It is said that seven or eight half-step Flame Decay experts were killed as well. The killer seems to be after the Four Ancient Families, and they're all freaking out right now. They're worried that the killer's next target is them."

A mysterious smile appeared on Anabel's pretty face. Then she asked, "Do you know who did it?"

"It seems to be the group of people from last time." The servant said, "However, the specific situation has not been revealed. Right now, rumors have gone viral throughout the city. Recently, the City of Phoenix has not been peaceful. Superior Envoy, your status is noble. Please be careful when you go out."

If something happened to Anabel, the Four Ancient Families would have to suffer.

"I understand." Anabel nodded and said, "You may leave."

When the servant left, Anabel's eyes shone with a bright light.

"That man can be able to kill Gael alone. Gael is one of the most talented experts. I did have keen eyesight. He must be the holder of Dragon Bone. If..." As Anabel spoke, she slowly let out a breath and said, "I have to take him under my command!"

Gerald was not interested in the reaction of the Four Ancient Families. He also did not know that Anabel was very satisfied with him now.

But it did not matter even if he knew. Gerald was not interested in Anabel at all. In fact, he even wanted to kill Anabel, which would save him a lot of trouble.

The hover car circled around and entered the city. Lexie exhaled and said, "Are you going to hand in the mission tomorrow?"

"No." Gerald shook his head and said, "There are still a few experts of the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay left to deal with. After I settle them down, we will go to hand over the mission."

Lexie nodded and said, "Then tell me when you hand over the mission. We will go together."

Gerald looked at Lexie and Laylah strangely, then nodded and said, "Alright, I'll contact you guys when the time comes."

"By the way," Lexie warned, "the Four Ancient Families will definitely be furious in the near future. The City of Phoenix will probably be in a state of turmoil. You guys should be more careful. After the turmoil is over, you can make your move on the others."

Two experts in the level of Flame Decay died within a few days. The Four Ancient Families would certainly have some actions.

As for what they would do, Gerald didn't know about that.

Regarding the hunting operation later, Gerald planned to go back and make a detailed plan.

In fact, Gerald's target was Flame Decayers, but the real threat to Earth was Half-Step Flame Decayers of the Four Ancient Families. The Pioneers of the Four Ancient Families were all driven by them.

Therefore, it was a good choice to try to reduce the number of Half-Step Flame Decayers.

Gerald did not let Lexie and Laylah send him and Claude home. Instead, Gerald and Claude went to a place with no one around and got out of the hover car. They circled around before taking a taxi back.

Jacob was sitting on the sofa with excitement and amazement.

When Valery and Carolyn saw them return, she hurriedly came over and asked, "How is it?"

"We did not disappoint you," Gerald smiled.

"That's great," Carolyn said happily.

A hint of excitement appeared in Triston's eyes as he said, "I plan to attack my target tomorrow."

In addition to Flame Decayers, Gerald also needed to kill four Half-Step Flame Decayers.

Because it was an assassination, they had a way to hide their auras. They were both half-step Flame Decayers, and they all had a chance to kill Half-Step Flame Decayers in an instant. Of course, they had to have a good opportunity.

As for Claude, it was just to fire a bullet.

Gerald shook his head and said, "Let's wait and see for a few days. So many people from the Four Ancient Families have died in succession. In the coming days, the City of Phoenix might be in turmoil."

Hector, who was next to him, nodded and said, "The Four Ancient Families will definitely take action. I also suggest that you rest for a while. It is best to leave the City of Phoenix first.”

“There is no need to leave.” Jacob smiled and said, “The City of Phoenix has a permanent population of 500 million. No matter how powerful the Four Ancient Families are, it’s not easy for them to find us. The most important thing is that Gerald probably didn’t leave any evidence or clues behind. It is very difficult for them to find it, except that Anabel provides them with some ideas.”

“But judging from the situation, Anabel probably didn’t tell the Four Ancient Families about Gerald’s appearance. Although we don’t know what this woman wants to do, we can be sure that we are not in danger of being exposed now,” Jacob said.

At this point, he licked his lips and continued, “Moreover, let’s see what the Four Ancient Families will do.

Perhaps this is an opportunity.”

“What?” Gerald raised his eyebrows and looked at him. “Opportunity? What opportunity?”

“The most dangerous place is the safest place.” Jacob narrowed his eyes. “They will probably conduct a large search during this period of time. In this way, their experts will scatter...”

Gerald’s eyes lit up slightly.

“Will this be too risky?” Hector frowned and said, “We have gotten a good result. I think we can stop for two days.”

Jacob said, “Don’t worry, it’s just an idea. Let’s see what the Four Ancient Families are going to do first, and then we can think of a way to deal with it.”

Speaking of this, Jacob licked his lips again and said, “Didn’t I tell you about my plan before to stir up social conflicts? I suddenly have an idea.”

“Huh?” Everyone looked at him.

In fact, Gerald and the others thought that Jacob’s idea was feasible, but it was too difficult to implement. It was not easy to call on so many people, let alone let them resist.

The lower-class people feared the ruler.

Jacob smiled and said, “Haven’t I been playing the VR game these past two days? This world is really amazing. When the VR is connected, it almost restored the real world.”

Carolyn could not help but glare at him and say, “What does this have to do with your plan?”

“This game is popular in the entire Solein Kingdom. Most young people play this game. Just like the online games on Earth, there are some similar games like gangs.” Jacob added, “How about I gather a large group of lower-class people in the game?”

“Huh?” Everyone looked at him.

Gerald was a little excited. If Jacob gathered a group of people in the game and brainwashed them... Maybe it would really work.

“You can try it,” Gerald exhaled slowly and said.

Jacob chuckled and said, “Well, then I’m playing the game on a decree. Give me some money first, and I’ll get a good set of equipment.”

Triston looked at him suspiciously and said, “Don’t tell me you wanted to cheat money to play games.”

“I am not such a person,” Jacob said righteously.

Gerald transferred 10 million golorbs to Jacob and said, “In short, you can act according to the real situation. It’s best if you can sow discord and send the Four Ancient Families into a passive position. Right now, the most important thing is to constantly hunt down the people from the Four Ancient Families.”

Hector suddenly said, “Gerald, the black market will have an auction tomorrow. I want to make a trip there. There should be a Water Mushroom at the auction. If I can get it and my body recovers, our combat strength can increase by a lot.”

Chapter 817 The Black Market

Hector was a genius.

In the City of Phoenix, although he was from the Ingram family, Hector was from a branch family. With very few resources, he became a super expert at the age of 18. After that, in prison and on the run, he quickly broke through to the level of Flame Decay.

From this point of view, his breakthrough was much harder than Gerald’s.

Although Gerald joined the cultivation later, he had always had someone to guide him. It took him six years to reach the super level.

After that, Gerald got the Dragon Bone, and the competition on Earth was not fierce. He had obtained quite a few Dragon Bones, which assisted in his cultivation.

However, Hector was cultivating on his own and did not absorb Bone of Eternity.

His way of cultivation was a bit more difficult than Gerald’s. Gerald absorbed the Immortal Bone. However, Hector had already stepped into the level of Flame Decay in his early thirties.

Now, a hundred years had passed. If he developed in a normal way, Hector would definitely be a very outstanding Flame Decayer. However, because of his condition, he had always been tortured by his attributes. If he recovered, his strength would increase, which was indeed a considerable help for the team.

However, Gerald did not trust Hector that much.

When Charles left, he also reminded Gerald.

Gerald frowned slightly and then nodded. "OK, let's go to the black market this weekend."

He considered it for a moment. To be able to restore Hector's strength, at the very least, would be beneficial for him at the moment.

No matter what Charles' purpose was, the Four Ancient Families did not conceal their killing intent towards him, which could be seen from the viciousness of the younger generation of the Four Ancient Families toward Charles.

Therefore, it would be beneficial for dealing with the Four Ancient Families if Hector could recover his health.

As for what Charles would do after that, Gerald could only wait and see.

Moreover, the Water Mushroom was not a particularly precious material. It was worth several million golorbs. As long as Charles wanted it, he could easily get it.

Hector nodded and said, "OK, then let's go tomorrow."

"I'm not going there. I will stay at home and wait for you," Jacob said with a smile.

Gerald nodded. After chatting with them for a while, he washed up and went back to his room to rest.

The night was silent.

And this night, the City of Phoenix was not peaceful. A large number of experts from the Four Ancient Families had come out in full force. Another family had been destroyed.

But the Four Ancient Families had not found any clues about Gerald. However, the death of the two experts impacted their prestige. Since they could not find Gerald, they had to win back their reputation in another way.

They destroyed a family that was against them and told everyone not to hide Gerald or oppose the Four Ancient Families. In the City of Phoenix, the Four Ancient Families had the final say.

Gerald did not take their tricks to heart at all.

After he woke up, it was ten in the morning. The group of people put on their sunglasses and masks and set out to the City of Phoenix's black market in the hover car.

The black market was one of the essential places in every city. This place was full of people from all walks of life. And this was the only place that was not restricted by the number plate.

Most people walked in it with masks.

The black market in the City of Phoenix was under the control of the Four Ancient Families. It was filled with experts, and Flame Decayers would guard this place.

When they reached the black market, it took Gerald a long time to suppress the killing intent in his heart.

His hatred for the Four Ancient Families had reached the top. If he could, he would slaughter one when he saw a member of the Four Ancient Families.

Although the Four Ancient Families controlled the black market, they did not violate the rules of the black market. As long as they paid the money, they could freely trade in it.

This was the rule in the black markets. The Four Ancient Families did not dare to break this rule.

The City of Phoenix's black market was located in the suburbs. It occupied an extremely large area. It was different from the black market of Solein City. There were a total of five floors here.

There were numerous things to buy here.

All kinds of things, including treasures, cultivation techniques, and weapons, were for sale. There would be an official evaluation of the black market, which meant the people of the Four Ancient Families would evaluate things and then decide which floor to sell them on.

The higher the floor, the higher the value of the items sold.

The fifth floor was not for selling items, which was the same as Ries City. It was an auction venue that would only open on weekends. Compared to Ries City, the items auctioned here were much better. The starting price was one million golorbs.

As for the items that were sold at the auction in Ries City, they could only be sold on the third or fourth floor of the black market in the City of Phoenix.

Of course, the tickets to the black market were much more expensive, which cost 500 golorbs for each person.

Gerald and the others took a taxi to the black market. After they paid the money, they got out of the car and walked towards the black market.

Compared to Ries City, the black market in the City of Phoenix was more crowded. Although it occupied a large area, compared to the City of Phoenix's 500 million permanent residents, there were not many attendees.

There was a long queue at the entrance. In order to not expose themselves, most of the people wore masks.

Some people weren't afraid that they would be recognized, so they didn't wear masks.

Gerald and his friends lined up to pay for the tickets.

Just as they were queuing up, a hover car stopped in front of them. Then, two figures walked out of the hover car. They looked young, about 27 or 28 years old.

They got out of the car and did not queue up. They just walked directly into the black market.

"It's them?" Gerald's expression changed slightly.

Valery asked in surprise, "You know them?"

"Well, one of the missions you need to do is to deal with them," Gerald said. "These two young men are twins from the Guerrero family. One is called Bruno Guerrero, the other is called Brayden Guerrero."

"What? So they are the talents of this generation and they reached the level of Half-Step Flame Decay at 25?" Carolyn asked in surprise.

Gerald nodded and said, "Yes, they are. I didn't expect that they would actually come to the black market."

"Why don't we..." Claude slowly let out a breath and a trace of killing intent appeared in his eyes.

Gerald said, "Let's wait and see."

Even if they wanted to make a move, it was impossible for them to do it in this black market. This was the territory of the Four Ancient Families, and there were many experts here.

Triston snorted coldly and said, "This country is tolerant of martial arts. If I had always been in this world, I would have become a Flame Decayer when I was 20 years old. With the martial arts resources here, everyone can be a talent. They wouldn't have been famous if I were here."

Gerald was speechless.

At this time, other discussions rang out.

"Could it be that the rumors are true? Is that item going to be auctioned today?"

"It might be true. That is a legendary item. I wonder who the master of it is? He really takes it to auction?"

"Will Thunder Saber be auctioned today?"

"Of course, the genius twins of the Guerrero family are here. I also saw several other experts of the Four Ancient Families."

The sound of discussion rang in Gerald's and the others' ears.

Gerald frowned and said, "What is Thunder Saber?"

Hector slowly let out a breath and said, "This is a legendary weapon. It rarely appears in public."

Chapter 818 Thunder Saber

"A legendary weapon?" Triston's eyes lit up

"Yes." Hector introduced, "Just like the weapon manuals on Earth, this world also has a weapon ranking, including the game that Jacob plays. The powerful weapons in the game are all inspired by reality.

"And Thunder Saber is the weapon ranked seventh in this world weapon ranking," Hector said.

“It only ranks seventh.” Triston said, “My Black Dragon Spear is ranked higher than it is on Earth.” “It’s different. Your Black Dragon Spear is a very good weapon on Earth. However, it’s only made from the material of the main weapon of Gold Elite Ghost. On Earth, it is indeed an outstanding weapon, but in this place, Black Dragon Spear is common, although the material of the lightsword is good. What’s more, your Black Dragon Spear is not strong enough. Apart from looking for the Water Mushroom, I suggest that you change your weapons.”

Then he continued, “The blade of Thunder Saber is 4 feet in length, and its weight is more than 1,000 pounds. It’s said that it’s made of Bone of Eternity by a Flame Decayer.”

“Bone of Eternity?” Gerald was shocked and said, “Can the Bone of Eternity be destroyed?”

“It is not destroyed. A master, who used to refine weapons, has mastered a way to crush the Bone of Eternity. And with the original stone as the main material, he mixed the Bone of Eternity into the weapon when making it. It was said that when the weapon was formed, the attribute of the level of Flame Decay in the Bone of Eternity awakened, causing this saber to contain the attribute of Thunder,” Hector said.

Gerald and the others were shocked.

Gerald knew very well what attributes meant to the battle between Flame Decayers.

He had three attributes. During the battle, his strength greatly improved. There was a restraining relationship between the attributes. The more attributes an attacker grasped, the harder it was for the opponent to restrain the attacker. At the same time, the attacker also had the opportunity to restrain the attributes of the opponent. In this way, the attacker could gain a lot of benefits in the battle.

“So that’s why there are so many Flame Decayers in this world. Bones of Eternity have been used to refine weapons, right? That’s why you covet the Earth’s Bones of Eternity?” Claude asked.

“No, only that master knows the method of crushing Bones of Eternity. However, he disappeared, and no one else has mastered this method. Moreover, after Flame Decayers die, the Bone of Eternity will be reborn. There are many Bones of Eternity in this world, but the average is low. Moreover, when Flame Decayers die, their bones will be taken away by the people above.” As Hector spoke, he pointed at the three planets in the sky.

“So... The people above will become stronger, and they get more dominant.” Gerald curled his lips and said, “I really don’t like your social system.”

“Every world is different. The universe is so big, and there are so many planets. Some of the planets are even in an ancient feudal system.” Hector said, “But the evolution of civilization on Earth is indeed my favorite.

Everyone is equal.”

Gerald did not deny it.

Valery pondered for a moment. "This means that if we get that Thunder Blade, even if we are Half-Step Flame Decayers, we can have the power of Flame Decayer when we use this blade?"

"Almost." Hector said, "However, don't even think about it. The Thunder Blade is priceless. It is not something that can be measured by money. Since it has appeared in the City of Phoenix's black market, I reckon that some of the top families in the other big cities, and even the royal families of Solein Kingdom, will secretly send people over to get the blade. It is very rare for such a precious item to be auctioned in the black market."

Speaking of which, Hector curled his lips and said, "Of course, even if they get it, they have to give it to the people above. People from Havotune don't dare to take the weapon for themselves."

"The money that Gerald has now is considered a nouveau riche in ordinary people's eyes. But compared to these big families, the money is nothing." Hector curled his lips and said.

"What a pity." Triston sighed and said, "If I can take it, I won't give it to anyone. When I become a Flame Decayer, I won't allow anyone to mess with me. Otherwise, I will teach them a good lesson!"

While they were talking in low voices, it was their turn to pay for the tickets. After paying the entrance fee, they walked into the black market.

The first floor of the black market was very large, and there were many stalls. Some people directly set up stalls, and some rented shops. The prices of the items were different.

"Don't waste time on the first floor. The first and second floors should be nothing worth buying." Hector said.

Gerald and the others nodded. Soon, they arrived at the third floor. The shops on the third floor were decorated in the same style. As soon as Gerald and the others walked in, Gerald's eyes fell on one of the shops in front. There were actually several number plates of upper-class people.

Gerald was shocked and said, "Damn it. The number plates of upper-class people are for sale? Aren't they afraid that the Four Ancient Families will find trouble with them?"

"The reason why the black market is a black market is that they can sell everything. The number plate is issued by the government of Solein Kingdom. It has nothing to do with the Four Ancient Families. Even the City Defenders of the City of Phoenix can't interfere too much, let alone the Four Ancient Families.

So number plates can be sold here openly.

"As for the other cities, such as Ries City, the City Defenders enjoy an extremely high status. Even if there is such a thing sold in the black market, it is also traded privately," Hector explained with a smile.

"Look over there." Claude pointed to a place not far away and said with a cold look in his eyes, "This is a Pioneer..."

There was a huge shop in front of them. In the shop, there were many Pioneers, and all of them were all red-colored and above. There was even a purple Pioneer among them.

Seeing these things, Gerald and the others were sullen. They even wanted to go up and cut them.

Hector knew what they were thinking. He coughed and said, "The ones you saw are only the Pioneers of the Four Ancient Families. Do not have too much hostility towards the Pioneers. In this world, those who go to dangerous places to search for treasures will wear this. It is common."

"I know, but I still feel very uncomfortable looking at it," Triston said.

"Go to the weapon shops and take a look. Gerald has a lot of money now. You can go and pick some new weapons," Hector said.

The weapons Gerald and others had were relatively powerful on Earth, but they were not strong enough when they came here.

Soon, they entered a huge weapon shop. There was a dazzling array of items inside the shop.

"You don't need to change weapons." At this time, Hector walked to Gerald's side and said, "That blade and sword of yours should not be worse than Thunder Saber."

Gerald was surprised. Before he could speak, a few people without masks suddenly walked in. The leader was a tall youth. He entered the door and said coldly, "Boss, take out the best weapons you have!"

Chapter 819 Rich People Can Do Whatever They Want

Gerald looked over and found that among these people, the man in the lead had an imposing aura. Only those who stayed in a high position could have that kind of temperament.

Beside him, there were three people, an old man, and two middle-aged men.

When Gerald's eyes fell on them, he was slightly stunned. These three people were actually Flame Decayers.

Hector's body trembled. Gerald noticed that Hector's gaze moved on the old man as if he recognized who this old man was.

However, Hector moved his gaze away without a trace.

"Boss, take out the best weapon you have and let me see it." The handsome young man was very excited and walked into the shop.

The boss was sharp-eyed. He could tell at a glance that this young man was not an ordinary person, so he quickly said, "Sir, please wait a moment. I will bring out the real good stuff right now."

As he spoke, he ran to the interior of the house. Soon, he ran out with four boxes in his arms.

The boss opened the first box. Inside the box was a blue long spear.

The long spear had a blue halo circulating around it. It was not an ordinary item.

At the side, Triston was suddenly shocked.

Gerald also understood that the material of this spear was the same as Nebula used by Purple Elite Ghost and Ichabod.

“This is a long spear made of Star Stone. It can increase Vital Energy by 20. This is...”

The boss was only halfway through his sentence when the young man curled his lips and said, “Isn’t this a weapon made from Star Stones? This is too ordinary.”

Gerald’s and the boss’ mouths twitched slightly.

When Gerald got Nebula, he was excited for a long time. But in the eyes of this young man, it was like garbage.

The boss looked embarrassed. He silently put down the other two boxes, leaving only the last box. Then he coughed and said, “This treasure is the most precious we have. The organizers of the black market auction.

have looked for me several times and asked me to take it as the last item of the auction, but I refused.”

As he spoke, the boss slowly opened the box. Then, a trace of a warm aura rose from the box.

“Attributes?” Gerald’s eyes lit up, but then he shook his head.

There was something different in different attributes, but it could be seen that the item in the box was of a much higher quality than Nebula.

“This is...” The young man was shocked.

“Yes, this weapon is made from the extremely rare Lava Crystal. It can only be found occasionally in the lava below 33,000 feet near the volcano. Any weapon will be powerful if they are made of a bit of Lava Crystal. However, this saber is refined with Lava Crystal as the main material. It can stimulate more than 20% of Vital Energy and even bring a scorching aura when it is wielded,” the boss said proudly.

“Seeing that you are big shots, I am willing to show it to you,” the boss said happily.

Carolyn’s eyes lit up, and so were Hector’s. There was a hint of excitement flashing in his eyes. Hector’s attribute was fire. This blade undoubtedly matched him.

As for Carolyn, her bones had the same quality as Phoenix Bones. According to Hector’s speculation, her attribute was likely related to fire.

The key was that Carolyn’s saber didn’t match her strength. She was still using Sapphire Star and Void-breaking Saber.

A hint of satisfaction flashed in the young man's eyes as he said, "This thing is not bad."

Even such a good thing didn't get much praise from him. The young man opened his mouth and asked, "How much is this blade?"

The boss thought carefully for a moment and said, "2 billion golorbs. It's not too much."

Gerald, Carolyn, and the others opened their mouths in shock.

Two billion golorbs?

They originally thought that Gerald's 100 million golorbs were enough for them to squander, but it was not enough to buy the blade.

"Although the price is a bit high, it is worth the price. I will buy it." As the youth spoke, he handed over a golorb card.

Gerald and the others felt sad.

On Earth, they had never been worried about the lack of money. Few people could be richer than them.

But now, they knew the feeling of lacking money.

The young man paid the money without hesitation.

After buying the item, the young man curled his lips and said, "It is quite cost-effective to find something like this on the third floor. Let's go to the fourth floor and buy more."

"Sir, don't squander like this." The old man sighed and said, "We still have to bid for Thunder Saber."

"Damn it. Rich people can do whatever they want," Triston sighed and said.

"Everyone, can't you see that the man has a piece of jade with the surname Pierce engraved on it on his waist?" the boss suddenly said with a smile.

"Pierce? Is it very powerful?" Claude subconsciously asked.

The boss looked at Claude strangely and asked, "Aren't you from Solein Kingdom?"

Hector quickly said, "My brother usually plays games at home every day and doesn't pay much attention to these things."

Then, Hector explained, "There is only one Pierce family in Solein Kingdom, which is in Rime City, and it's the richest family in the country. It has some relationship with the Archaic Tribe in Havotune, and it is said that it's a branch family of the Archaic Tribe."

"Two billion golorbs is nothing for them," the boss was in a good mood because he had completed such a big deal.

Then, he frowned and looked at Gerald and the others. "You have stayed here for so long. Are you going to buy anything?"

Gerald coughed and pointed to the blue spear. He asked, "How much is this spear?"

"You have a sharp vision." The boss said, "I'll sell this to you at the price of 120 million golorbs."

"This price is reasonable," Hector reminded Gerald.

Gerald wanted to cry. He could only buy a weapon when he tried his best to kill a Flame Decayer?

Looking at Triston's eager eyes, Gerald gritted his teeth and handed over his golorb card. He said, "We will buy this long spear."

The boss' eyes lit up, and he quickly took the card. Triston excitedly took the box over.

The long spear was split into two parts. He pinched the long spear lovingly. Under the urging of Gerald and the others, Triston kept the box and carried it on his back.

Walking out of the shop, Hector slowly let out a breath and said, "The Thunder Saber will appear tonight. I'm afraid the City of Phoenix will not be peaceful tonight."

Gerald nodded and said, "That is true, but this has nothing to do with us. We just want to get the Water Mushroom. I hope I can afford it."

"We might get it at 50 million golorbs." Hector smiled and said, "Although the Water Mushroom is rare, it can only heal some injuries. So the price is not very high. Let's go to the fourth floor to get the ticket to the auction."

Chapter 820 Lots of Money

Although Gerald still had a lot of money, it was obviously not enough to buy the weapons he wanted. So he figured he would have to buy Valery and the others better weapons only after the next mission was accomplished.

After all, weapons like Nebula were mostly worth more than millions of golorbs.

They were useful for Flame Decay like Gerald and Valery and would save lots of trouble. But Gerald still did not have enough money.

The items on the fourth floor were all treasures and quite expensive. There was even some peculiar perfume that was deeply liked by women.

However, Valery and Carolyn did not have much of an interest in that sort of thing. The two of them barely wore any makeup and were already beautiful.

As for the entrance ticket for the auction, it was very expensive. Around 50 thousand golorbs.

And the auction place was big enough to accommodate a thousand people.

When Gerald and the others arrived, there were not many tickets left.

Many people knew that they were unable to win the bid of the Thunder Saber. It would definitely be a great battle among rich families.

However, everyone was still dying to see such a legendary weapon.

Just as Gerald was about to enter, his phone suddenly rang. At the same time, an AI voice sounded.

“Lexie calling.”

“Pick up,” Gerald said calmly.

It was the first time Gerald had made a call after receiving the phone.

Soon, the call was connected.

On the other side of the phone, Lexie said, “Gerald, what are you doing?”

“I am hanging around in the black market. What’s wrong? Is there anything?” Gerald asked.

“Are you in the black market? Did you also go to the auction for the Thunder Saber?” Lexie asked in surprise.

“I can’t afford it, though. I just came to buy other things,” Gerald shook his head and said.

“Well, then you have to be careful. The news of the Thunder Saber auction has spread throughout the entire Solein Kingdom. Many people from the Solein Kingdom have rushed over. Today, the black market is full of experts. Even the Four Ancient Families have gathered a lot of their people with their Flame Decay,” Lexie said.

Gerald frowned. If that was really the case, they were indeed in danger. His biggest concern was Hector. The Flame Decay from the Four Ancient Families would definitely recognize Hector.

“We will pay attention to that,” Gerald said as he exhaled slowly.

“Also, the main reason why I contacted you is that I want to ask for your help. Lexie seemed a little embarrassed.

“Just say what you want!” Gerald replied.

“I have a friend called Benson Pierce from Rime City. He is sort of my senior, and he comes from the Pierce family. This time, he also participated in the auction,” Lexie said.

Gerald’s heart skipped a beat. Could it be that the person just now was Lexie’s friend?

However, he immediately understood. Lexie and Laylah were both from Rime City. And the Sadler family was also famous in Rime City. The Pierce family was the same. It was normal for Lexie to know Benson.

Lexie continued, “Before he came, he knew that I was around. So he asked me if I knew someone at the level of Flame Decay. He wanted to find himself some guards.

“Guards”” Gerald frowned.

He was indeed not quite interested in being a guard. Gerald just wanted to carry out the mission as soon as possible, and he really did not think too much of money!

“The guard at the level of Half-Step Flame Decay who makes sure that Benson enters Rime City without harm would be awarded 50 million golorbs. In the case of a peak Half-Step Flame Decay, the money doubles. As for someone at the level of Flame Decay, he could walk away with 500 million golorbs,” Lexie said.

Hearing that, Gerald breathed faster.

“Gerald, don’t misunderstand. I know that you have reached the level of Flame Decay. You don’t care much about the golorbs. I just hope that you can help me. I owe you a favor.”

“I accept it!” Gerald quickly replied.

He thought that a guard would never be well-paid, so he was not interested in it at first. But that was a lot of money this time.

Other than Jacob and Claude, everyone was at the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay. In three days, they could earn over a billion golorbs. And everyone could change a better set of weapons and equipment.

Moreover, they could just take the opportunity and avoid a temporary disturbance. Why not?

Although he accepted the mission, Gerald still frowned and said, “I think I met your friend just now. He has three Flame Decays around him. I don’t think he needs our protection. And also, he even has an aircraft.”

Lexie said, “My friend will definitely win the bid for the Thunder Saber. And the Four Ancient Families will probably send people to attack him secretly. In the auction, most of the people who win the bid will have to offer up to the powerful families in Havotune. However, if those items are robbed by the Four Ancient Families, they might be able to take the weapons for themselves. Therefore, the Four Ancient Families will not give up such a great opportunity. Nor will the other forces.”

Gerald’s expression changed. It meant that there was still a possibility of killing some experts from the Four Ancient Families. That was definitely worth it.

Of course, Gerald also knew about the danger and the risk.

He pondered and asked, “Are you sure that he can win?”

“As far as I know, he always wins when it comes to money. Even the royal family of the Solein Kingdom can’t offer a higher price than Benson’s,” Lexie said.

Gerald was speechless. Lexie surely made her point.

Gerald nodded. “Okay, I agree. When and where are we going to gather? Also, I have others with me. Two of them are at the level of Flame Decay, and four are at the level of peak Half-Step Flame Decay.

Lexie fell silent and then said, “You still have so many experts with you?”

Gerald nodded and said, “Yes. Is it too many people?”

Lexie replied, “Not at all. I’ll send you an address later. After the auction is over, come over here and gather with us. If there are no accidents, we will be leaving this afternoon or tonight.”

Gerald nodded. “No problem!”

After hanging up the phone, Gerald briefly explained the situation to his fellows.

After listening, they all agreed.

Everyone was shocked to find out that they truly lack money.

As they talked, they walked into the auction house. Because they bought the tickets too late, their seats were at the back. In total, six of them sat in the back row.

The light in the entire auction house was very weak. Other than some brave people, most attendees were wearing disguises, so no one could recognize each other.

What shocked Gerald was that there were indeed many experts in the auction house. Gerald had already sensed dozens of experts at the level of Flame Decay.

Hector sat with his eyes fixed on the front row. An elder was sitting there.

“Does he have a grudge against you?” Gerald leaned over and asked.

“That’s Arvin from the Ingram family!” Hector’s tone was fierce.
