Chapter 1121: The Property Rights of the Gold Mine

"This..." Li Tianyu listened to General Kars' words and was somewhat at a loss for words suddenly. Indeed, they already came to an agreement that the mine would be contracted to the Li Family at half price.

However, the Li Family wanted the Huang Family to pay half of the rent. The Li Family wanted to take the best interest from others' work. Not only did the elder brother, Li Tianjia, wish to marry Huang Lele, but he also wanted to get half of the management rights of the mine for free. It was merely a daydream.

What the Li Family paid was nothing more than the connection with General Kars. But now half of the Huang Family's funds were not paid, and the Li Family had not given General Kars the money. At this time, when General Kars asked, Li Tianyu felt somewhat guilty.

"General Kars, I will urge my family to pay as soon as possible..." said Li Tianyu quickly.

"It doesn't matter if you pay the rent or not. I don't intend to rent this mine to you!" General Kars didn't like the youngest son of the Li Family who was stupid and had no brains. He always thought General Kars owed him. He would call General Kars when he was a little troubled and would never find a solution on his own.

Moreover, Yang Ming completed the mission in an excellent manner. General Kars was about to give the gold mine to Yang Ming along with the reward to leave a good impression on Yang Ming. General Kars did not have many resources on hand. He only had two gold mines as a reward, but this was the reward promised earlier. Even if he gave it to Yang Ming, Yang Ming deserved it.

Therefore, to establish a closer and friendlier relationship with Yang Ming, General Kars decided to add something for Yang Ming so that he could show his sincerity.

After the meeting, only the gold mine of the Huang Family was left aside currently. It could be given to Yang Ming as a gift. The others were really not available for the time being.

The rent from the Li Family did not come through, and General Kars had another reason to reclaim the gold mine.

"What?" Li Tianyu was shocked. He said quickly, "General Kars, you can't do this. How can you not rent it to us? Our Li Family has been your loyal supporter from the very beginning when you just started..."

"Forget the nonsense. I have already halved the rent of the mine. I have given my utmost benevolence!" General Kars said with impatience, "However, your side is delaying the rent. Even if our relationship is good, you can't do that. Alright, there is no need to talk anymore. It just so happened you have reminded me through the phone. I will send someone to take over the gold mine!"

"General Kars, I will call the family and let them prepare the rent!" Li Tianyu said quickly.

"Let's talk again after you are ready." General Kars hung up the phone impatiently.

However, if General Kars could teach Yang Ming a lesson for Li Tianyu, he would still feel refreshed. Li Tianyu did not dare to delay and quickly called his elder brother, Li Tianjia.

Li Tianjia was in a meeting at the company when his phone rang all of a sudden. When he saw it was a phone number from Africa, he quickly gestured for others to wait as he picked up the phone. "Hi, hello."

Since the phone call from Africa only showed the transit area code but did not display the specific number, Li Tianjia did not know whether the caller was General Kars or his younger brother, Li Tianyu.

"Elder brother, this is Tianyu." Li Tianyu said anxiously on the phone.

"Tianyu, what happened? What's wrong? Why are you in such a panic?" asked Li Tianjia quickly.

"Elder brother, something happened!" Li Tianyu said, "Just now, my brothers and I were in the mine, but suddenly, some external armed forces rushed in and said they were taking the mine on behalf of the Huang Family!"

"Huang Family? Impossible. If the Huang Family has the capability, they did not have to beg us!" Li Tianjia was baffled after listening.

"That's right!" Li Tianyu said, "I also doubt the identity of these people. However, their leader is an Asian who can speak Chinese, and he even claimed Huang Lele to be his wife..."

"What is that nonsense?" Li Tianjia frowned. "I have never heard of the Huang Family having such powerful character! Have you not mobilized our family's armed forces in Country X?"

"Their people have the latest heavy machine guns in their hands. Our people can't be their opponents at all!" Li Tianyu was not stupid. "Their equipment is too advanced. They seem professional at first glance!"

"No way? Are they so powerful? It's even more unlikely to be the Huang Family. Are there other local armed forces who got to know about this matter and coveted our gold mine? They might want to use this impersonation as a reason to occupy our gold mine." Li Tianjia analyzed.

"I think this is also possible! What should we do now?" said Li Tianyu.

"You have to contact General Kars of course. He is the helper of our Li Family. Our business in Country X depends on him," said Li Tianjia.

"I have contacted him..." Li Tianyu sighed. "However, General Kars said that our rent was not paid yet, so he is not planning to rent it to us. He is going to bring some people over to reclaim the mine. Elder Brother, my phone call this time is mainly about this matter. What is the attitude of the Huang Family over there? When can the money be paid?"

"Did General Kars really say this?" Li Tianjia frowned after listening. This would be a big problem. Since there was no news from the Huang Family, would this matter be over just like that?

Li Tianjia was really reluctant. Africa's gold mine was a big cake! The Li Family could become Singapore's noble family at once, but now...

"It's true!" Li Tianyu said, "I can't joke about such a serious matter!"

"Alright, I will look into it as soon as possible and raise funds!" Li Tianjia did not dare to delay and replied quickly.

"Okay, I am waiting for your message here!" said Li Tianyu.

Hanging up the phone, Li Tianjia did not dare to delay. He adjourned the meeting immediately. The middle leaders of the company were stunned. After the CEO took a call, the meeting was adjourned. But they didn't ask much. As they saw the CEO had already left the conference room, the others stood up and returned to their respective jobs.

After Li Tianjia went out of the conference room, he rushed to the chairman's office where his father was at. Now, Li Tianjia was in charge of many of the company's affairs, but the final decision was up to Li Tianjia's father, Li Zhichun.

Seeing Li Tianjia rush in, Li Zhichun, who was reviewing documents, frowned. "How old are you? You are still so reckless in doing things! How can you accomplish great deeds?!"

"Father, something serious happened!" Li Tianjia also did not bother to explain and said hurriedly.

"What's the big deal?" Li Zhiyi said as he glared at his eldest son, "What serious matter can happen? For this whole day, you..."

"Father, it's really a big deal!" Li Tianjia said in a panic, "Something is going wrong in Africa!"

"Africa? What the hell is going on?" Li Zhiyi was nervous as soon as he heard it.

"A group of unidentified people who claim to be from the Huang Family brought armed forces and occupied the gold mine!" said Li Tianjia.

"Huang Family?" Li Zhiyi said in shock, "What a joke? How could the Huang Family have such strength?"

"They did not, in fact. Tianyu and I also analyzed as such. We suspect that another group of local armed forces know the inside story and covet our gold mine, and they want to take this reason to occupy our gold mine!" Li Tianjia said, "This group of armed forces is very strong. Our people are not their opponents at all!"

"Oh? Did you go to General Kars?" Li Zhichun asked quickly.

"We have gone to him, but..." Li Tianjia sighed. "But General Kars said our rent is not paid. He is ready to take back the gold mine."

Li Zhichun listened to Li Tianjia's words, and his face turned gloomy. Indeed, the rental fee from his own side was not paid yet. It was normal for General Kars to have opinions, but for this money, Li Zhichun wanted the Huang Family to fork it out rather than them. Hence, they did not send the money over yet.

But now, obviously, it couldn't be dragged on anymore. General Kars was already impatient. He had to hurry.

"Alright, I got it. You should go out first. I will contact the Huang Family!" Li Zhichun nodded and said to Li Tianjia.

“Yes, father!” Li Tianjia left his father’s office and sighed. He already knew Huang Lele’s attitude. Probably this issue would be left hanging unless the Huang Family forced Huang Lele to marry. Otherwise, there would be no result on the matter.

” Ai !” After Li Tianjia left, Li Zhichun sighed and began to think about it.

The gold mine in Country X in Africa was very rich in content. If they seized the opportunity and mined, not only they would not lose money, but they would also make a lot of money! If the Li Family funded it solely, it was not impossible, but Li Zhichun was not willing.

With that, the Li Family’s domestic business would undoubtedly be affected. Most of the funds would flow into Country X in Africa. If anything went wrong, then the Li Family would be put in a position of eternal loss!

This situation was possible. The Huang Family was a living example! Although the Li Family had more confidence in the strength of General Kars, anything can happen in the war-torn country.

Now General Kars was indeed well off, but who knows what will happen in the future? So Li Zhichun had to be careful.

After thinking for a long time, Li Zhichun finally decided to call the Huang Family’s father.

“Mr. Huang? I am Li Zhichun!” Li Zhichun called Huang Xiaofei of the Huang Family.

“Mr. Li, hi!” Huang Xiaofei said quickly, “What’s the matter that made you call?”

“It’s still about the gold mine in Country X. I wonder if you have finished considering it. General Kars said that if you don’t pay the rent, he has to take it back!”

” Ah !” Huang Xiaofei was shocked after hearing it. “He wants to take it back? What can I do?”

When Li Zhichun heard the words of Huang Xiaofei, he knew that the people in Country X were definitely not the people from the Huang Family. Otherwise, Huang Xiaofei would definitely not have this reaction.

“Hurry up and raise funds!” Li Zhichun said, “Also, what happened to Lele’s matter?”

“I will hurry up here. You can rest assured! I will go to persuade Lele immediately... But what about the money? What do you think?” Huang Xiaofei said in a dilemma.

“I can’t do anything about money. You know, we have a lot of business in the Li Family. The funds are not so easy to raise. So, you have to find your own ways!” said Li Zhichun.

“Can’t you give us a little support?” Huang Xiaofei was a little annoyed. He thought, What is wrong with you!? Not only do you want my daughter to be your daughter-in-law, but you also wanted to divide half of my gold mine, and yet you don’t fork out a penny. Can you really think of such a good thing?

“I’m afraid it won’t work!” Li Zhichun was now taking advantage of Huang Xiaofei needing his help, so he was still firm with his words.

“Alright, then I will think of something!” Huang Xiaofei said helplessly. He really didn’t want to give up the gold mine in Country X of Africa. If he gave up, then the Huang Family would have no face.

"En , you should hurry. Time doesn't wait for people. When General Kars retrieves the gold mine, then everything will be too late!" In fact, Li Zhichun's heart was also very anxious. He did not want to lose such a good opportunity to earn money.

"I understand." Huang Xiaofei sighed and hung up.

Although he was very angry with Li Zhichun's approach, Huang Xiaofei also couldn't be helped. Beggars can't be choosy. He couldn't stand in the Country X without relying on the Li Family's power.

Thinking of this, Huang Xiaofei reluctantly called his eldest son, Huang Rongtian, to his study.

"Father, were you looking for me?" Huang Rongtian was heading to the company, but the old butler informed him that the master was waiting for him in his study. Huang Rongtian hurriedly took off his coat and went to the study.

"En , there is a serious matter to discuss with you." Huang Xiaofei said with a grim expression.

"What is it, Father?!" Huang Rongtian sat on the sofa opposite his father and asked with respect.

"It's still the matter about that gold mine in Country X in Africa!" Huang Xiaofei said, "The Li Family's master called and told me that if the funds are not paid, General Kars will retrieve the gold mine!"

"Ah !" Huang Rongtian immediately exclaimed after listening, "Is it really going to be reclaimed? Our previous contract is completely void?"

"This is the case..." Huang Xiaofei smiled bitterly. "The provisional government over there has changed, and our contract became waste paper!"

"But our group now is out of cash to deal with all these problems. There is no spare cash to pay for the rent at the Country X mine! Moreover, we are still in arrears with the bank loan!" Huang Rongtian said.

"Doesn't Lele still have a sum of money...?" Huang Xiaofei thought of the forty billion patacas in Huang Lele's hands...

"The money in Lele's hand, can she take it out?" Huang Rongtian smiled after listening, "Dad, you should not trouble our little sister..."

"Rongtian, what's the matter with you? Didn't you always stand on my side? How did you become a traitor?" Huang Xiaofei spoke in anger and shock after listening to Huang Rongtian's words.

"Father, I stood by your side before because of the family's position, but now that I see my little sister is unhappy, I can't bear it anymore. Lele has lost weight for that!" Huang Rongtian said, "Moreover, although the gold mine in Country X in Africa seems to have huge benefits, it is actually very risky! Just like we had already signed a contract with the previous interim regime, but the interim regime has changed, so our contract became invalid! In this case, the risk is too big! I think if you talk to Lele and use this money to develop our family's career in the local area, Lele will definitely agree. If you insist on investing it in Country X, I'm afraid..."

"I know that there is a difficulty! If there were no difficulty, I would have already taken the money from Lele!" Huang Xiaofei said in anger, "Have you considered it? If we quit now, how will the people here look at our Huang Family? They will say that we are incapable. They will look down on us! In the future, we will lose the Huang Family's reputation in the upper class!"

"But, you can't take this risk because of reputation problems!" Huang Rongtian was still more rational. "Father, I also considered a lot during this time. We are not so capable, and we can't play a part in Country X. So, regarding the gold mine, my opinion is to give up! Although it is bad for our reputation, we shouldn't fall into bankruptcy just because of that!"

"What bankruptcy? Initially, we are incapable, but don't we have the Li Family now?" Huang Xiaofei said very stubbornly, "The Li Family is very good in Country X. He is very familiar with General Kars, and also has his own local armed forces. With his participation, how can we not make money?"

"The Li Family is indeed familiar with General Kars. This is true! But who can guarantee that General Kars will always be in power? If one day he falls, we still have to face the same fate, right?" Huang Rongtian persuaded.

"Is the Li Family so easily offended? They also have armed forces in the local area!" said Huang Xiaofei.

"It's true that they have armed forces, and I have confirmed this! But their armed forces..." Huang Rongtian spoke until here and shook his head. "If their armed forces are in our local area, it must be the head of the underworld. But in Country X, it really is nothing! A power of fewer than one hundred people is far worse than the real power of others. If people really want to engage them, the power of this one hundred people is nothing, and they will be easily defeated!"

"As long as we make money, we can continue to expand the armed forces! General Kars is unlikely to step down for a while! Within this period, we continue to grow ourselves. What can't be done?" Huang Xiaofei insisted.

"Fine. Let's discuss it with Lele and see what her opinion is!" Huang Rongtian noticed that he could not argue with his father, so he helplessly pushed the decision to Huang Lele.

Chapter 1122: Huang Lele's Compromise

"Well, you call Lele to come to my study. Let's discuss it together!" Huang Xiaofei said to Huang Rongtian.

Huang Rongtian shook his head and left the room. In the beginning, he agreed to invest in Country X because of the lucrative profit return. However, after the last incident, Huang Rongtian also hesitated.

In particular, after learning that Huang Lele still had forty billion patacas in her hand, he intended to give up the investment of Country X. With these forty billion patacas, they could develop some local businesses very well. There was no need to take risks in Country X. Although it didn't have the profitable income of the gold mine in Country X, the risk was almost zero.

Therefore, after thinking through the key of the matter, Huang Rongtian also changed his previous thoughts. He did not support his father to continue developing the gold mine business in Country X.

But now it seemed that his father was stubborn. He was very serious about the face problems. Young people and the older generation had different ideas. The older generation was paying attention to their appearance and face, but Huang Rongtian graduated in the United States, so he did not care much about things like face.

He was afraid that he could not convince his father on his own. Huang Rongtian called his younger brother, Huang Rongjin, and asked him to come home quickly. There were important things to discuss.

"Big brother, what happened? I am holding a collectible auction with my friends; I plan to sell some of my collection to ease the economic pressure at home!" said Huang Rongjin.

After listening to his younger brother, Huang Rongtian was touched. After all, his younger brother had never been so concerned about the family business. He was only obsessed with his collection. However, Huang Rongtian did not expect that when the family was in trouble, he would stand up and sell his favorite collection.

"Rongjin, you don't have to sell your collection first. Even if you sold it, you can't make much money. You should come home and discuss the important matters!" Huang Rongtian said, "Our father is going to have Lele invest her money in the gold mine of Country X in Africa. I think this money should be used in local business in the country. However, our father just doesn't listen, so I called you to come back and advise him!"

"Ah! How can we use Lele's money to continue to invest in gold mines?! Isn't this a joke?!" Huang Rongjin was also a little angry. "You wait for me. I will go back now."

"En, come back as soon as possible. Otherwise, I am afraid that our father will be impatient and call Lele personally if the time is too long." Huang Rongtian reminded.

"Alright, I understand; I will go back now." Huang Rongjin just hung up the phone and explained to his companion. He said that there was something urgent at home, and he hurriedly drove in the direction of the house.

Fortunately, he had been in Singapore recently and did not travel far away. Otherwise, he could not reach home in a short while.

Huang Lele was bored as hell. The only thing she could do was to go online and play games like Bubble Bobble and Lianliankan [1]. She didn't know when this kind of daily life would end. In her heart, she hoped that Yang Ming would come over as soon as possible to get approval from her family.

"Lele!" Huang Rongtian came to Huang Lele's room and saw that his sister was still playing a game. He sighed helplessly. After this period of reflection, he also felt that Huang Lele was really pitiful.

"Big Brother." Huang Lele looked up and saw Huang Rongtian. She called him faintly, then she began playing computer games again.

"Lele, father just looked for me. He wants you to withdraw the money and invest in the gold mine of Country X..." Huang Rongtian sat on a chair next to her and probed.

"Impossible. I will not take the money out to invest in gold mines." Huang Lele refused without looking at him. "Big Brother, if you want to persuade me about this, then don't waste the effort."

Huang Rongtian clearly felt that this time, Huang Lele and his relationship were significantly more estranged. Although the two were not born from the same mother, they were still brother and sister. Moreover, the family only had one girl. When Huang Lele was young, Huang Rongtian still spoiled her and loved her.

After he grew up, he was busy dealing with the company's affairs, ignoring the little girl. Especially recently, because he had stood in the wrong camp, he had worsened his relationship with his sister.

"Little sister, don't misunderstand... In fact, your big brother also doesn't agree with this matter." Huang Rongtian shook his head and said, "Little girl, in fact, after this period of reflection, I also feel that I have neglected your thoughts to have you marry Li Tianjia. Big Brother is here to apologize to you."

"En?" Huang Lele was stunned. She looked up at Huang Rongtian, baffled. "Big Brother, are you telling the truth?"

Looking at his little sister's skeptical eyes, Huang Rongtian sighed bitterly. It seems that my image of Big Brother in Lele's mind has been completely destroyed.

"Of course, it is true! I also persuaded Father just now. I told him that if the money is used in a legitimate business, I believe that Lele will not disagree; but he should give up if he wants to invest in the gold mine in Country X! After all, we have already suffered a loss for that kind of risky business. If we suffer a loss a second time, then we will be fools!" said Huang Rongtian.

"Big Brother, you are right. If the money is really used in the family's legitimate local business, I will not hesitate to support it, but I am obviously opposed to investing in the gold mine of Country X in Africa." Huang Lele said resolutely, "And I will not marry Li Tianjia."

"I did not consider the matter of you marrying Li Tianjia well enough." Huang Rongtian said, "Initially, I thought that if you married into a rich and powerful family, it would be good for you; your happiness will be guaranteed. However, I thought about it later on. Since you have a boyfriend, I should not break you two apart, especially after knowing that your boyfriend is so powerful, and he is quite skillful in gambling. If our family business is shifting into the gambling industry, it might not be a bad idea!"

When Huang Lele heard that Big Brother recognized Yang Ming, her heart was delighted. She was not as angry about her brother's indifference to her. In fact, Huang Lele did not have so much hatred toward Huang Rongtian, but she was just somewhat annoyed.

Now that her big brother had thought it through, and he apologized, Huang Lele was no longer angry. As they were talking, Huang Rongjin walked in, "Big Brother, Lele, what the hell is going on?"

"Second brother!" Huang Lele and Second brother Huang Rongjin were still relatively close. When she saw her second brother was back, she was very happy.

Huang Rongtian was a little jealous looking at his brother and sister. When we were young, Lele and I were close too, right? It seems that I really ignored her feelings after we grew up.

Thinking of this, Huang Rongtian decided to think more about the feelings of his younger sister in the future, and not let her do something she didn't like.

Huang Rongjin nodded and sat quickly at Huang Rongtian's side, then he looked at them with a questioning expression.

"This is the case. Father intends to use the money in Lele's hands to invest in the gold mine of Country X..." Huang Rongtian threw up his hands and explained.

"Then why didn't you persuade father?" Huang Rongjin frowned and said. "If we lose again, wouldn't we lose everything?"

"It's also true!" Huang Rongtian sighed and said. "I persuaded, but father didn't listen. He told me to call Lele to his study. He wants to talk to Lele personally. Now it's about time. Since you are back now; let's go up. Otherwise, if Father gets anxious waiting for us, he will come to us personally."

"Then let's go upstairs!" Huang Rongjin nodded. "Lele, no matter what Father says, don't let go. Don't take the money out. Do you understand?"

"En ." Huang Lele answered. She would not easily take the money out even if Huang Rongjin did not advise her.

The three went upstairs together to their father's study door. They knocked on the door, then they heard their father's voice say, "Come in."

When Huang Xiaofei saw Huang Rongtian, Huang Rongjin, and Huang Lele come in together, he was baffled. "Rongjin is back too?"

"En , I just came back. I heard that there is an important matter to discuss, so I followed in," said Huang Rongjin.

Huang Xiaofei nodded and said, "This time, it is indeed an important matter to discuss. It is about the survival and glory of our Huang Family!"

"Dad, if you want to talk about investing in Country X in Africa, I don't agree!" Huang Rongjin took the lead and expressed his opposition.

"Your opposition is useless; you are not the one who pays! You just listen here!" Huang Xiaofei said faintly.

Huang Rongjin listened to his father's words, and he had no choice but to smile bitterly. Indeed, he did not have the money, so he could not say anything. He had always been an image of a prodigal young master. He only knew how to use money but not make money, so they rarely asked for his opinion on these important decisions in the family.

"Lele, what do you think?" Huang Xiaofei looked at Huang Lele.

"Didn't we have a deal that everything will wait until Yang Ming comes here? I don't want to say anything before this." Huang Lele shook her head and said.

"But now, the situation is very critical. The Li Family called and said that if the rent is not paid yet, General Kars will take back the gold mine!" Huang Xiaofei said, "If this opportunity is missed, there will be no more!"

"Dad, is that gold mine really so important? We have a lot of businesses in the Huang Family. Is it really necessary to get a hold of the gold mine?" Huang Lele said, puzzled. "Dad, we should give up!"

"We have already invested so much money. It will be a waste to give up now!" Huang Xiaofei said. "And, I, Huang Xiaofei, am a reputable person in upper-class society. If others learn that I failed in investing in Country X and came back dejectedly, how would the others see me?"

"Are others' opinions so important?" Huang Lele frowned. "Dad, we are businessmen, not politicians! We don't care about other people's opinions. As long as we make money, then we will succeed. Who will care if you have failed before?"

"Heh, you don't have to teach me these! I know better than you! But I can't afford to lose my face!" Huang Xiaofei waved his hand and said, "Okay, Lele, as for your marriage to Li Tianjia, I will fight for it again. But the money in your hands must be invested in Country X in Africa."

"Well, if this is the case, then I have to ask Yang Ming. After all, the money was earned by him. If he agrees, I have no opinion!" Huang Lele had no choice but to push the decision to Yang Ming.

"Good! You go to ask Yang Ming; I will talk to the Li Family again!" Huang Xiaofei suddenly made a decision. Huang Rongtian and Huang Rongjin could only smile bitterly.

Huang Lele did not bother about those things. In her opinion, as long as Yang Ming came over, all the problems would be solved. Huang Lele did not know why she had such confidence.

After Huang Rongtian, Huang Rongjin and Huang Lele went out, Huang Xiaofei also called Li Zhichun's phone.

"Hello, Mr. Huang, how is it? Have you considered about the deal?" said Li Zhichun.

"In terms of funds, there should be no problem. However, Lele strongly disagrees with marrying Li Tianjia. I have no way. Now young people are talking about free love and not arranged marriages..." Huang Xiaofei said in difficulty.

"En?" Li Zhichun frowned. "Since there is no arranged marriage, then should the Li Family participate in it?"

"Didn't I give half of our management rights to you..." Huang Xiaofei also felt that the Li Family was a bit too much. They had given half of the management rights, and the Li Family still wanted to ask for an arranged marriage.

"The management rights is one thing. It has no relationship with marriage. How can we ensure that our cooperation will go smoothly?" Li Zhichun sneered. "Africa is so chaotic. To speak bluntly, now I am still here, so it's fine. If I am not here, and Tianjia is in power, what can you do if he kicks the Huang Family out directly?"

These words had a hint of threats. Huang Xiaofei naturally understood it. He was furious in his mind, but he could not find any place to vent out.

People say this; isn't it a "kind" reminder? It implies that if there is no marriage, cooperation cannot last for a long time. Maybe the Li Family not only takes the money but also takes the gold mine, and they kick the Huang Family out instead. What can we do if they operate the mine on their own?

Huang Xiaofei was shocked and angry, but there was no way! After taking a breath, he said, "Okay, I will persuade Lele again!"

"En, you persuade her again. Make it quick. I am in a hurry on my side." Li Zhichun said indifferently. In fact, his heart was also very anxious. He did not want to miss such a good opportunity to make money. After all, if he did not have to invest a single penny, then he could get half of the gold mine for nothing. All he needed to pay was this social relationship.

Where would he find such a good business? And Huang Lele marrying Li Tianjia was an additional condition. Even if the Huang Family insisted on not following this other condition, Li Zhichun would eventually agree.

However, there was still a possibility. He just had to pressure Huang Xiaofei a little. If it were not possible, then he would make another plan.

Huang Xiaofei knew Huang Lele's temper. He had been persuading her for so many days, but there was no effect. If he continued to persuade, there would be no result either.

Now, the Li Family's attitude was so tough. This made Huang Xiaofei very difficult. He did not know what to do.

"Father, how is it?" Li Tianjia came to the office of his father, Li Zhichun, and asked anxiously.

"The Huang Family answered, saying that there is no problem with the funds, but they do not agree on marrying Lele to you. What do you think?" asked Li Zhichun.

"This..." Li Tianjia's heart was a little unhappy. Which part of me is bad? That Huang Lele actually despises me? But for the sake of family interests, Huang Lele's things were nothing. "If it doesn't work, then forget it."

"En, I think so too. After all, the gold mine in Africa is a rare opportunity. It will not come again if we miss this chance!" Li Zhichun nodded and said, "We are getting the gold mine at zero cost!"

"It is true. Dad, about Lele's matter, if it does not work, then it is fine. I will fight for it myself." Li Tianjia nodded.

"If you can think so, it will be great. I was afraid that you will have an opinion!" Li Zhichun said, "You call Tianyu now, and ask him to tell General Kars that our funds will be transferred in time!"

"Okay! I will go to make this call. Lest the time is long, there may be another change over on General Kars' side." As Li Tianjia said, he quickly left his father's office and called Li Tianyu.

Li Tianyu was hiding far away from the gold mine, waiting for the arrival of General Kars to expel Yang Ming. However, his older brother was slow to call back, so Li Tianyu's heart was unsettled.

If the funds were not transferred, even if Yang Ming were expelled, the gold mine would not belong to him, so everything still had to wait for Big Brother's phone call.

A ringtone sounded; Li Tianyu was happy. He quickly picked up the phone, "Hello..."

"Tianyu, I am your big brother. Our father contacted the Huang Family. The funds are not a problem." Li Tianjia said in a hurry.

"Oh? The Huang Family agrees with our conditions?" Li Tianyu was also delighted. After the gold mine was taken down, he would manage the matters here, so he could gain a foothold in the family business.

"There is some change in Lele's matter. The Huang Family didn't agree, but they agreed to transfer the money," said Li Tianjia.

Li Tianyu did not care whether Huang Lele would marry his eldest brother. This matter had nothing to do with him. As long as the funds were in place, he could be the person in charge of the gold mine.

" Oh , it is good that the funds are in place. Brother, I want to say that free love is still better. If you like Huang Lele, then you should pursue her!" Li Tianyu said with some excitement.

" Hah , you think so too? I plan to do this too!" Li Tianjia didn't know that Li Tianyu was brushing him off, and he even replied happily.

"Yeah, I think so." Li Tianyu said casually. "Big brother, I will contact General Kars and tell him about this!"

"Okay, then I won't bother you. After you contact him, call me again and tell me the result!" Li Tianjia quickly said, then he hung up the phone.

Chapter 1123: Control All the Armed Forces

"Brother Yang, our people have already checked the entire gold mine; no one else is there." Li Qiang had asked all the men to check the entire mine and reported it to Yang Ming.

"En, you did very well." Yang Ming also guessed that a character like Li Tianyu would not leave people in the mine, but for the sake of insurance, he sent someone to check it again.

It was better to be safe than sorry in case Li Tianyu had any bad intentions and left some hidden dangers in the mine.

"The mine has been fully taken over. What are we going to do now?" Li Qiang followed Yang Ming into the mine's office, sat on the sofa opposite Yang Ming, and asked.

"Li Qiang, do you know why I wanted you to come here?" Yang Ming put away his joking expression and spoke to Li Qiang seriously.

"Brother Yang, you want us to build a strong armed force here and become the world's number one assassin organization," said Li Qiang firmly.

"En, that's it, but not all of it." As Yang Ming spoke until here, he paused for a moment, then continued, "You talk about it. It's okay; tell your own true thoughts."

"Moreover, you want to let us operate and protect these minerals here..." Li Qiang looked around and asked him.

"This is one of them, but it is not the main purpose." Yang Ming nodded and said, "It doesn't matter; you don't have to worry about anything. If you have any idea, just say it."

"Then... Brother Yang, I will just say it then." Li Qiang hesitated as if he had great determination.

"You say it." Yang Ming smiled. "In any case, let's treat this as a talk between brothers. Just say what you want to say."

Li Qiang nodded and hesitated. He said, "Brother Yang, these days, in Country X, we have experienced and seen a lot of things. I have some understanding of the system and politics of this country... In this kind of war-torn country, it is not difficult to get the highest political power... Brother Yang, do you want us to..."

After listening to Li Qiang's words, Yang Ming couldn't help but laugh. This Li Qiang is not as rough and straightforward as he looked. He has a clever side.

"Yes, I had all of you come because I really want you to integrate and annex all the armed forces here, but it is not to control the regime here." Yang Ming nodded and said.

"Control all the armed forces, but not control the regime?" asked Li Qiang.

"En, yes. It is to control the armed forces and not to control the regime." Yang Ming nodded. "I intend to continue to support General Kars."

"Brother Yang, you mean, we control the military power of Country X and let General Kars take charge of the regime of Country X. But in fact, he is a puppet leader?"

"You can say it like this! You, kid, are not stupid," Yang Ming said with a smile. "The internal affairs are too tiring. We don't have that much energy. But we want to gain a foothold in this land and develop a stable business, so we need absolute power."

"So it's like this!" Li Qiang nodded. "This is an excellent idea. With that, we can build an absolute authority on this land!"

"How much time do you need to get this done?" asked Yang Ming.

"One year, at most one year!" Li Qiang said with confidence.

"Okay, I'll give you a year. Don't let me down!" Yang Ming patted Li Qiang's shoulder and said.

"Do not worry, Brother Yang! I will give you a powerful force!" Li Qiang nodded and said.

The two were talking when suddenly there was a knock from outside the room. Li Qiang frowned. Brother Yang and I are discussing important things. These men are bothering us at this time? But he still asked, "Who is it? What's the matter?"

"Reporting in! Captain Li, there is a group of armed forces outside claiming to represent General Kars. They want to recover this gold mine!" said Li Qiang's men.

"General Kars, recovering the gold mine?" Yang Ming frowned after listening. "Let's go. Let's go out and have a look!"

Li Qiang also nodded and walked out with Yang Ming.

Li Tianyu was so angry that he only wanted to curse. Just now, he saw a group of troops coming in the direction of the gold mine. Li Tianyu quickly went forward and asked the lead soldiers, "Big brothers, were you sent by General Kars to help me take back the gold mine?"

"Who are you?" asked the lead soldier, coldly.

"I am Li Tianyu from the Li Family of Singapore, a loyal partner of General Kars!" said Li Tianyu quickly.

"I haven't heard of it." The leading soldier shook his head. "Don't hinder us; we have to perform official duties!"

"Ah? Didn't General Kars talk to you? To have you help me recapture the gold mine?" Li Tianyu asked with some doubts.

"It is a fact that we are going to reclaim the gold mine, but to help you... This is something that General Kars has never said!" The leading soldier said with some impatience, "Do you still have something? If you have nothing, hurry up and move aside!"

"Wait a minute! General Kars may have forgotten. He didn't tell you, but this gold mine is indeed ours. After being invaded, I came to General Kars! I will call him and ask!" said Li Tianyu quickly.

"Then you should hurry up!" The leading soldier waved and said. Although he did not know whether what the person said was true, this person had mentioned General Kars a couple of times and seemed familiar with General Kars. Hence, the soldiers did not dare to offend this person.

Otherwise, how did this person know that he was going to reclaim the gold mine? Maybe it was really forgotten by General Kars! General Kars' day-to-day plan was really unpredictable.

Li Tianyu quickly took out the phone and called General Kars. The one who answered the phone was also General Kars' secretary. Li Tianyu said with respect, "Hello, please help me find General Kars. I am Li Tianyu of the Li Family in Singapore!"

"Please wait!" The secretary also confirmed that General Kars knew this person before, so the secretary's attitude was better than last time. "I will transfer the call for you."

After a while, the voice of General Kars came over the phone, "Hello, who is it?"

"Hello, General Kars. I am Li Tianyu of the Li Family in Singapore!" Li Tianyu said quickly.

"En, what else do you want?" General Kars snorted and asked.

"It is like this. I have seen the people you sent. But this comrade said that they came to reclaim the gold mine instead of helping me to recapture it. You see, did you forget to tell them?" Li Tianyu asked hurriedly.

"It's just a matter of recovering the gold mine. There is nothing wrong with it." General Kars said coldly, "I have given your Li Family face, but you have not given me a penny for this gold mine for so long. Can I still continue to rent this gold mine to you? I have now decided to take back the gold mine and use it for another purpose!"

“General Kars, I have already contacted my family just now, and the rent will be available in two days!” Li Tianyu was anxious after hearing that, so he replied quickly.

“Hmph? When I take back the gold mine, then you have money? You can get the funds?” General Kars sneered, “I see that you want deliberately to drag it out and not pay, right?”

“No, it is really not the case. Our family has just raised the funds!” Li Tianyu’s head was filled with cold sweat, and he quickly denied. However, General Kars couldn’t be blamed for overthinking. Regarding this matter, anyone would think like this.

Before, your rent was delayed. Now when I go to recover the gold mine, you immediately have money. If you have just raised it, who can believe it?

“Is there such a coincidence?” General Kars apparently did not believe Li Tianyu’s words. “I don’t think there is any sincerity in your Li Family. Let’s forget about this!”

“Don’t. General Kars, you can’t do this...” Li Tianyu hurried.

“What I do, do I still have to tell you?” General Kars snorted, “My relationship with your Li Family has ended here. You’re on your own!”

After that, General Kars hung up the phone. Li Tianyu looked dazed and stared at the phone in his hand gloomily. It’s all done for. Everything is over!

“What happened to you? What did General Kars say? Do you have anything?” The leading soldier saw that Li Tianyu was stupefied and frowned.

“You all should go...” Li Tianyu shook his head helplessly, waved his hand, and said dejectedly.

“Are you sick?” When the soldier looked at Li Tianyu’s appearance, he knew that Li Tianyu called General Kars. General Kars did not support him, so the attitude of the soldiers to Li Tianyu was not good.

Looking at the back of the soldiers, Li Tianyu was angry and somewhat helpless. He even complained about his father. Why do you always want the Huang Family’s money? Even if the Li Family paid for it and took the gold mine, it is also a huge profit-making business!

Li Tianyu took out the phone and called his elder brother in Singapore.

“Tianyu, what happened on your side?” Li Tianjia looked at the phone number and guessed that it must be Li Tianyu who made the phone call.

“It’s finished!” Li Tianyu said with frustration, “General Kars said that the gold mine would be taken back and used for other purposes!”

“What! How could this be? You didn’t tell him that our funds have been raised?” Li Tianjia was surprised and asked quickly.

“I said it, but General Kars said that we had occupied the gold mine for such a long time, and he had given us, the Li Family, face, but the funds had never been in place. Only when he has to recover the gold mine, our funds are in place. Isn’t this obvious that you want to drag out the payment and not want to give it to him? Now he is angry and says that he has broken off his relationship with the Li Family. We're on our own!"

"Ah!" Li Tianjia said hurriedly, "Did General Kars really say that?"

"It's such a big deal. Can I lie to you?" said Li Tianyu.

"Were you talking rashly and being inappropriate, so you made General Kars unhappy?" Li Tianjia asked unwillingly.

"I talked too rashly?" Li Tianyu was a little displeased. He complained, "What does it have to do with me? Isn't it because of you guys? The money was not in place, and it was dragged on. Isn't it normal for General Kars to have that idea? Originally, even if the Huang Family did not contribute, and we get the gold mine for ourselves, it was already very profitable. It's just that you were too greedy, which led to the current situation!"

"Okay, Tianyu, don't complain. This is Father's decision. What's the use of scolding me? I have to report it to Father immediately to see if there is any remedy!" said Li Tianjia quickly.

"Father? Hmph, if it weren't for you who had to marry that Huang Lele, and put such an additional condition, the Huang Family may have already agreed, and taken the money out!" Li Tianyu was sour and spoke with sarcasm.

"I..." Li Tianjia suddenly had a red face. What Li Tianyu said was not unreasonable. On the Huang Family side, the most controversial matter was Huang Lele. Moreover, the Huang Family now agreed to get the money but did not agree about Huang Lele's marriage. This point was also fully proved.

"Fine. You have to let Father find some ways to fix it!" Li Tianyu did not pressure Li Tianjia too much. After all, with this upper hand, he was not eager to use it at the time. This thing could be his secret weapon in the future while fighting for the company's power.

Therefore, the gold mine was not contracted. Although it was a bad thing for the family, for himself, it was an opportunity!

When he thought of this, Li Tianyu's mood was also a lot better, and there was no such trouble before.

After Li Tianjia learned that General Kars was about to take back the gold mine, he did not dare to delay anymore. He rushed to his father's chairman's office.

This time, he didn't even knock on the door, and he hurried into it.

"What are you doing!" Li Zhizhen was flirting with his young secretary; one hand was still under the secretary's skirt, and the secretary was faintly breathing on Li Zhisheng's body. They were shocked by Li Tianjia, who suddenly barged in.

Li Tianjia bumped into his father and the female secretary having an affair, and he became awkward. However, now things were urgent, and he couldn't care about that much. He anxiously said, "Father, something happened..."

“What’s the matter?” Li Zhizhao’s hand pulled out from under the female secretary’s skirt and said awkwardly, “How many times have I told you? Can you not be so panicked? You’re already an adult, and you’re already a CEO, but you’re still so reckless!”

“Father, Africa...” Li Tianjia glanced at the female secretary and stopped.

Li Zhisheng waved to the female secretary and signaled for her to go out. After she went out, she closed the door, and Li Zhizhen said, “What are you doing? Can you knock on the door next time?”

“Father, my mother has been dead for so many years. I am not against you looking for another person. If you looked for an appropriate one, my brother and I wouldn’t object, but you are f*cking in the company... Others will be aware of it; it doesn’t sound good...” said Li Tianjia.

“You are now lecturing me? Do you have anything? You came to me just to talk about this thing?” Li Zhishen glared angrily at Li Tianjia and said.

“Right, I almost forgot everything!” Li Tianjia quickly touched his head and said, “Father, something is going on in Africa...”

“Didn’t you say it just now? I already know it. What else is the matter?” Li Zhishen saw at his son’s anxious look and said somewhat impatiently, “You are so big, but you are not at all calm!”

“No, Father, this time, it’s different!” Li Tianjia said quickly, “Tianyu just called. General Kars said that he wants to reclaim the gold mine and not rent it to us!”

“Don’t want to rent? What’s the matter? Haven’t we compiled the money for the rent? Why doesn’t he want to rent it?” Li Zhisheng said, “Is there any misunderstanding in the middle?”

“Misunderstanding?” Li Tianjia suddenly smiled bitterly, “What misunderstanding?! General Kars rented the gold mine to us and only charged half of the rent. He already gave us a lot of face. However, our rent was late. When he wants to take back the gold mine, our funds are in place right away. What would people think? He thought that we had always delayed the payment and didn’t want to pay...”

“Tianyu said this to you?” Li Zhizhen suddenly frowned.

“Tianyu didn’t say it. It’s what General Kars said to Tianyu. General Kars also said that his relationship with our family has ended here. We are on our own now!” said Li Tianjia.

“What!” Li Zhizhen listened to Li Tianjia’s words and said immediately, “You say, General Kars said to break the relationship with our family?”

“Tianyu said that General Kars did say this.” Li Tianjia said with some helplessness, “Father, I think you should call General Kars personally, talk to him and see if you can fix it...”

“I will contact General Kars!” Li Zhisheng nodded and didn’t reprimand Li Tianjia for disturbing his flirting before.

Li Zhihao was busy connecting the phone to the office of General Kars, who was transferred by the secretary to General Kars’ desk.

General Kars' secretary was still very puzzled. Why did I pick up so many calls from Singapore's Li Family today? However, since General Kars did not decline, the secretary still transferred the call.

"Hello, this is Kars!" General Kars still had some respect for Li Zhisheng. After all, he rose up because of Li Zhisheng's favor.

"Hello, General Kars! I am Li Zhisheng. My son is not sensible and may have offended you, please don't mind it!" Li Zhisheng heard the voice of General Kars, and the first thing he did was to apologize.

"En, it's nothing..." General Kars said faintly, "There is nothing wrong with your son."

"But, I heard that you want to take back the gold mine?" Li Zhisheng said. It seemed that Li Tianjia was right, General Kars was indeed angry because of the rent problem.

Chapter 1124: A Series of Scams

"Li Zhichun, we are old acquaintances, and I know your temper." General Kars said, "In this matter, I have given you enough respect worthy of you, my old friend! But, you are really ungrateful with the respect I gave. I am already tight with funds, and you are still dragging on the rent. It can't be helped. I can only reclaim the gold mine for another use!"

"General Kars, the funds on my side are also tight as well. It's also a coincidence that our funds were also gathered today. Look; can you give us some leeway..." Li Zhichun said humbly.

"I can't give you any leeway. I have decided on this matter on my side." General Kars said, "This can't be helped! But considering our relationship as old friends for many years, let us just forget about this matter. What I said before to your son that our connection comes to a halt were simply words I said in a moment of anger. If I have anything good in the future, I will let you know!"

"That is... alright!" Li Zhichun heard General Kars' tone was very resolute. He knew that there was basically no hope for this matter, so Li Zhichun no longer insisted because persistence was useless.

General Kars said that he could continue to maintain friendly relations and think about them when there were good things in the future. This result was considered acceptable. In the presence of General Kars, Li Zhichun did not dare to coax and pester too much.

"En, I will contact you again. I am still very busy here." General Kars replied perfunctorily and hung up.

"Ai!" Li Zhichun sighed. It seemed that there was no turning back in this matter. The matter about the gold mine could only be given up. If he knew that this would be the result, he would have gathered the funds to rent the gold mine without waiting for the Huang Family's funds!

However, Li Zhichun still blamed most of his grievances on Huang Xiaofei. In his opinion, if Huang Xiaofei did not waste time, this matter would have been settled earlier. All the consequences up until this point were the result of Huang Xiaofei.

Li Zhichun picked up the phone and prepared to call and scold Huang Xiaofei to relieve his hatred! However, when the phone was dialed, Li Zhichun quickly hung up.

An extremely wicked thought appeared in Li Zhichun's mind! He thought of a very bad idea! He had suffered a loss in Country X, so he wanted to get it back from Huang Xiaofei!

Li Zhichun sneered as he picked up the phone on the desk and dialed Huang Xiaofei's phone. "Mr. Huang, what happened? Have you thought it through?"

Huang Xiaofei was thinking about how to make Huang Lele obedient, but he could not come up with a good way no matter how much he thought about it. While he was worried, Li Zhichun's phone call came in.

Huang Xiaofei picked up the phone nervously and heard Li Zhichun's voice. He quickly said, "Mr. Li, I... I haven't figured out a way yet. You know this child. Lele's thoughts are more progressive. She doesn't listen to me!"

"Oh, if it can't be done, then forget it." Li Zhichun did not ask for Huang Lele to marry now. He wanted to implement a more evil plan. "I have discussed with Tianjia. He also said that in regards to the matter about relationships, it is better to fight for himself! So, he intends to pursue your family's Lele personally."

"Ah! That is for the best!" Huang Xiaofei suddenly felt relieved after hearing it. He thought that Li Zhichun would pressure him, but he did not expect Li Zhichun to compromise.

"Hehe, I think so too. It is for all of our good! Yes. When will your money be ready? General Kars is in a hurry. You know this matter can't be dragged!" Li Zhichun turned the thread of discussion and said.

"I see!" Huang Xiaofei began to have a headache again. He didn't know how to talk to Lele. Ai, it is another problem. "When is the deadline?"

"By tomorrow morning, if the money is not transferred, then the gold mine will be taken back. They will not give it to us, so you have to hurry up!" said Li Zhichun.

"Well, then I will get this done as soon as possible!" Huang Xiaofei said as he rubbed his temple.

"You will need to make haste!" Once Li Zhichun realized things were settled, he was pleased. "Then, we will settle until here first. After you have gathered the funds, just call me and let me know."

"Do not worry!" Huang Xiaofei nodded and assured, "I will transfer the money by tomorrow."

Hanging up the phone, Huang Xiaofei began to be troubled! He did not anticipate that his three children would disagree with his Country X investment plan. Even his eldest son, Huang Rongtian, disagreed. They all suggested unanimously to Huang Xiaofei to invest his money in business, but a legitimate business would not earn as much money as a gold mine! The difference was radical!

Huang Xiaofei wanted to call Huang Rongtian, but he gave up on the idea. Huang Rongtian didn't stand on his side this time. How could he have Huang Lele take out her money?

"Right!" Huang Xiaofei had a flash of inspiration! Didn't Huang Lele say it before? If the money is used in a legitimate business, she will support it!

Then, if I lie to her saying that this money will be used for actual business, and after I scam the money into my hands, isn't it up to me to decide what to do with the money? Thinking of this, Huang Xiaofei became excited. He quickly left the study to go to Huang Lele's room.

Recently, some of Huang Lele's limitations had been lifted, allowing her to use her phone. However, when she called Yang Ming, his phone was either unable to connect or shut down. She could not contact Yang Ming no matter what.

How could she know that Yang Ming was already in Africa at the moment and was helping her family to solve the problem in Africa! She wanted to ask Yang Ming for advice and what he thought about the money usage.

However, since her phone call was unable to connect, Huang Lele had to give up. But, Huang Lele also understood that since Yang Ming gave the money to her, he acquiesced for her to have free control of the money. Huang Lele could decide on how she wanted to use the money.

In fact, Yang Ming thought so too. When he first gave Huang Lele the money, it was already hinted.

Yang Ming was busy every day, and Huang Lele knew about it too. So, when she could not contact Yang Ming, she did not continue to contact him. She played her online games quietly, waiting for Yang Ming to contact her.

"Dang dang dang..." The sound of knocking came from the door.

"Who is it? Please come in!" Huang Lele's mood was still good recently. At least, her father agreed to have Yang Ming be a guest at home, so Huang Lele was not as depressed as before.

"Lele, it's me." Huang Xiaofei smiled as he pushed in the door and came in.

"Dad? How come you are here?" Huang Lele was a bit baffled. Her father would usually send a maid or butler downstairs to look for them and ask them to go to her father's study. Her father rarely went downstairs to their rooms.

"Lele, Dad just thought a lot. In the past, it may be that Dad's thoughts are too stubborn!" Huang Xiaofei sat in a chair opposite Huang Lele and spoke.

"En?" Huang Lele was astounded. "Dad, what are you talking about?"

"Dad always thought that if you marry Li Tianjia, you will be happy, but now that I think about it, this idea may be wrong." Huang Xiaofei sighed and said, "You will not blame your father, right?"

"Dad... I... I didn't..." When Huang Lele heard her father say this and took the initiative to admit his mistakes, she did not want to comment about it anymore.

"It is good that you do not." Huang Xiaofei smiled and continued, "Moreover, I don't plan to invest in Africa anymore. I have suffered a loss once. I should learn my lesson from it, so I think I will forget about it!"

"Dad, it would be great if you can think so!" Huang Lele finally breathed a sigh of relief. With that, she didn't have to call Yang Ming.

"En, but there is something wrong now. I want to ask you for a favor!" Huang Xiaofei sighed slightly and pretended to be troubled. "And you're the only one who can help with this!"

"Dad, say it if you have anything to say... I am your daughter. Forget about asking for help or anything..." Huang Lele said a little embarrassed.

"Then I will say it!" Huang Xiaofei paused and said, "Things are like this. Didn't I put all the funds into the gold mine in Africa a while ago!? I even borrowed a lot of money from the bank!"

"Yeah, I know that." Huang Lele nodded and said.

"Now, on our side, the bank is urging me to pay the arrears. The company's operation funds are not enough. So, can you take out your money and use it for the family business?" asked Huang Xiaofei.

"This way..." Huang Lele was a bit troubled. After all, her father's current request was reasonable. The family business was also in a tough spot with the lack of funds. This was something that Huang Lele could not refuse.

"Lele, I initially wanted to make a desperate attempt to continue to get Africa's gold mine, but now I think that the company at home is the foundation, and it can't be lost. Therefore, I still feel that I have to do some legitimate business!" Huang Xiaofei said earnestly.

"Then... will you promise not to mention Li Tianjia anymore, and stop limiting my freedom? Can I go back to work?" Huang Lele put forward her own conditions.

"Of course. Dad will not limit you anymore. You can go back to work at any time. As for Li Tianjia, he said that he wants to pursue you with his own ability. Then it is up to you to decide to give him a chance or not!" said Huang Xiaofei.

"That's great!" Huang Lele saw her father say that he would be putting the money into a legitimate business, and she was assured by her father, so Huang Lele nodded as she decided to take the money out.

After all, the money was to be used for legitimate purposes. Huang Lele didn't think much about it. Even if Yang Ming knew it, he would definitely agree. However, how could Huang Lele anticipate that her father would lie to her?

Ever since she was young, her father spoke truthfully. Although he was stubborn and tough, he had not deceived anyone. Therefore, Huang Lele did not realize that things were a little different this time. She still chose to believe in her father.

"Great! When will the money be transferred? The bank is making it quite urgent." Huang Xiaofei heard that Huang Lele agreed, and he was overjoyed at the moment. He was afraid that a long delay would cause complications, so he spoke quickly.

"Then let's get it done now. Anyway, it is an online bank. I can transfer it right away," Huang Lele said as she opened the online banking professional site on the computer and entered her password.

For a moment, Huang Xiaofei only felt that his heart was at a standstill. This was his first time lying in front of his children, and it was still such a serious matter. However, for the glory in the future, Huang Xiaofei still gritted his teeth to lie.

"Dad, what is your company's account?" Huang Lele asked.

"The company's account is..." Huang Xiaofei spoke up to here, hesitated a moment, and continued, "How about this? First transfer to my personal account. Transferring to the company's account is more troublesome!"

"Oh, sure." Huang Lele did not suspect anything and nodded, "Tell me the account."

The reason why Huang Xiaofei did not transfer it to the company's account was that Huang Rongtian could also monitor the company's account. If he discovered such a large deposit, he would definitely ask Huang Xiaofei. Then the matter would definitely be exposed.

Therefore, for the sake of safety and security, Huang Xiaofei still had Huang Lele remit the money into his private account, so that Huang Rongtian would not find out about it.

"My account is..." Huang Xiaofei told Huang Lele his account details. Huang Lele entered the account number on the computer in order. After Huang Xiaofei was satisfied that there was nothing wrong, he said, "Yes, you can transfer the money."

So, Huang Lele pressed the button for the transfer. In a short while, the system prompted "Transferred successfully."

"Okay, Dad, you can confirm it," said Huang Lele.

"Good... good!" Huang Xiaofei was now excited, and he could not restrain himself. He was afraid that he would expose his flaws in Huang Lele's room. He quickly left Huang Lele's room and ran to his study.

Huang Lele didn't feel anything. After the transfer, she continued to play computer games. She couldn't reach Yang Ming recently, and it made her a little annoyed. Huang Lele suddenly thought of Wang Mei. I wonder how she is doing now.

She did not get in contact with Wang Mei for a long time, especially since she was isolated at home for a while. Huang Lele almost forgot this good friend.

She picked up the phone and dialed the new number that Wang Mei left for her in Song Jiang. Soon, the call was connected.

"Hello?" There was the baffled voice from Wang Mei over the phone. It was a number she was not very familiar with, a number of an international long-distance call.

"Wang Mei. It's me, Lele." Huang Lele heard the voice of Wang Mei and spoke happily.

"Ah! It's you!" Wang Mei suddenly screamed in surprise. "Lele, what happened to you? You did not call me for so long. I thought you forgot about me!"

"Something happened in my family, so I went back to Singapore. I can only call just recently, so I called you!" Huang Lele said apologetically.

"How are you? Is the matter resolved?" Wang Mei asked with some concern.

"No big deal. It is basically resolved." Huang Lele said, "How are you there? Are you alright?"

"En, I am fine. Zhang Bing's original wife came to me..." Wang Mei did not hide from Huang Lele and confessed bluntly.

"Ah!" Huang Lele was shocked. As she heard this from Wang Mei, she thought of herself. Yang Ming also has a girlfriend, right?

"What happened? Are you scared?" Wang Mei heard Huang Lele's scream. She suddenly said, seemingly amused, "Yang Ming has quite a lot of girlfriends~"

"What does it have to do with me!?" Huang Lele denied in a panic. "I am not going back to stir up trouble!"

"Ha! Actually, Sister Zhao... En, in other words, Zhang Bing's girlfriend is not bad to me..." Wang Mei smiled and said, "She doesn't dislike me so much. She has not said anything bad to me."

"I am relieved if you can live well." Huang Lele nodded. "Yes, do you know what happened to Yang Ming?"

"Yang Ming? Why? Didn't he contact you?" Wang Mei asked baffled.

"He contacted before, but now the phone calls can't get through. I don't know where he is," said Huang Lele.

"Oh, yes, I remember it. Zhang Bing said a few days ago that Yang Ming went abroad to Africa to contact the jewelry company's mine problem. It has been a few days. There may be no phones there." Wang Mei said suddenly.

"It turned out to be like this!" Huang Lele suddenly breathed a sigh of relief. As long as nothing happened to Yang Ming, it would be great. Moreover, didn't Yang Ming go to Africa to solve her own family's problem?

Although she felt that Yang Ming was unlikely to have a connection in Africa, she was delighted to hear that from Wang Mei.

"Are you worried about him?" Wang Mei asked with a smile.

"How could I?!" Huang Lele's face blushed.

Wang Mei did not pressure Huang Lele, so she changed the topic. The two chatted for more than half an hour before they hung up the phone. However, Huang Lele told Wang Mei her phone number in Singapore, so she could contact her whenever she had something the matter.

...

Yang Ming and Li Qiang brought their men to the gate of the mine. Before they reached the entrance, they saw a pair of soldiers at the gate, confronting his own men.

The weapons on the soldiers of the team were much worse than the weapons on Yang Ming's people. Moreover, Yang Ming had the numbers advantage. So, they did not dare to let it go and just stood at the gate waiting for Yang Ming and the others to come out.

"What happened!" Yang Ming didn't need to talk much. Li Qiang had already asked ahead.

“Reporting in!” Li Qiang’s man immediately ran to Li Qiang’s face. He stood straight and gave a military salute. “Captain Li, these people claim to be under General Kars’ government. They took the order to reclaim the mine!”

“Didn’t you tell them that this mine belongs to the Huang Family from Singapore? Have they signed a contract?” Li Qiang asked.

“No, we didn’t dare to talk before we got the order!” said the man.

Yang Ming nodded secretly. The discipline of these people was still very strict. They would not make their own decisions.

“You tell them this now!” Yang Ming commanded that man.

“Yes, Mr. Yang!” The man apparently knew that Yang Ming was Li Qiang’s boss, so he did not hesitate to execute Yang Ming’s order and ran to the gate.

Chapter 1125: How Was the Huang Family a Weakling?

“Our boss said that this is the gold mine of the Huang Family in Singapore. The contract is signed!” The man hurried to the door and spoke to the soldiers at the door.

“Your contract was signed with the previous government. It was invalidated!” The soldier said after listening. “Now, you should evacuate the square immediately. Otherwise, you will be punished for disobeying the military orders!”

Since he already knew the boss’ opinion, this subordinate didn’t care. He waved his hand and ordered the people behind him to pick up the submachine guns and aim at the soldiers at the gate. “We don’t care who you represent. In my eyes, my boss’ order is the only military order!”

General Kars’ soldiers did not dare to fight with brute force when they saw that they were not their opponents at all. They quickly gestured to wait and took out the phone to call General Kars.

General Kars did not expect that the phone today would be so busy. However, when he heard his secretary saying that it was the sentinel leader, he quickly picked it up.

“Hello? What’s the matter?” said General Kars.

“Reporting in. General Kars, the gold mine was occupied by a group of armed forces. According to their leader, they represent the Huang Family in Singapore...” said the sentinel leader.

“En?” General Kars was stunned. “Didn’t you tell them that the Huang Family’s contract was already invalid?” said General Kars.

“I said it, but they didn’t listen. Besides, their military equipment is obviously better than ours. We can’t forcibly subdue them!” said the sentinel leader.

“What’s the matter?” General Kars frowned. A small gold mine can actually cause so much trouble in one day.

First, it was the Li Family; this time, it is the Huang Family. General Kars was baffled. Didn’t the Huang Family have no power? How could they have such a robust armed force?

“We don’t know what’s going on! But this group of armed forces is obviously much stronger than us. They shouldn’t belong to the nearby forces, because the armed forces nearby are not stronger than us.” The sentinel leader was baffled too.

“In that case, see if you can get the mine’s leader to answer the phone. I will talk to him.” General Kars was not stupid. Since he heard the sentinel leader said that the armed forces were stronger than his own, he would not fight with brute force obviously.

Before, he had retrieved the gold mine of the Huang Family because the Huang Family had no power. They had no armed forces here. Other mine owners had their own armed forces, so if General Kars took back their mines, he would definitely trigger a war.

However, now that the gold mine of the Huang Family was actually occupied by a group of more powerful armed forces, General Kars dared not to act rashly. He needed to get the details of the opposing party first.

“I will try,” said the sentinel leader. At this point, he had not seen the person in charge of the gold mine. All he saw were minor characters.

The sentinel leader took the phone and walked to the mine, but when he saw the gun barrels pointing at him, he felt somewhat terrified. As he was helpless, he could only raise his hands.

“What are you going to do?” asked Li Qiang’s men.

“Our general wants to talk to your leader,” said the sentinel leader.

“What general?? Want to talk to our leader? Does he deserve that?” Li Qiang’s man said disdainfully. Who were they afraid of? General Howton was so bad*ss, but didn’t Li Qiang just kill him and incorporate his men?

When the sentinel leader heard the words of Li Qiang’s man, he was just angry, but he did not dare to speak out. Li Qiang and his men were powerful. He was incomparable to them.

“Let him bring the phone.” At this time, Yang Ming and Li Qiang also stepped forward and gestured to Li Qiang’s man.

Li Qiang’s man listened to the order, and only then did he say to General Kars’ sentinel leader, “We’re letting you bring over the phone. Did you hear it?”

General Kars’ sentinel leader endured his anger and passed over the phone.

Yang Ming took the phone and picked up the call, “Hello, who is it?”

"I am General Kars!" General Kars stated his name. However, he felt that the voice from the phone was familiar. He didn't know where he heard it before. "Which forces do you belong to? This gold mine is now the government's minerals. You have no right to occupy it privately!"

"Privately? I represent the Huang Family in Singapore. This mine is ours." Yang Ming said faintly.

"Before, yes; now, it is not." General Kars said, "According to the regulations, you need to pay the rent again."

"Really? Did you retrieve the others' mines then?" Yang Ming sneered.

"This..." General Kars was at a loss for words suddenly. Yeah, I did not take back others' mines, except the mine of the Huang Family.

"You think the Huang Family is easy to bully, and they don't have backers, right?" Yang Ming said straightforwardly. "But that was before; now, I have occupied this mine."

When General Kars heard Yang Ming's words, he became very outraged. However, he had no choice. According to his sentinel leader, his equipment was inferior to theirs. If he really wanted to fight, he might have to suffer!

"Do you mean to solve it by war?" Since General Kars seized power, he had never been threatened like this. He was furious immediately.

"War? As you please," Yang Ming said faintly. "For me, if there is no benefit, I normally do not like to kill people. However, this time, it's my own business, so I can still kill you even if there is no reward."

"What do you mean!" General Kars was already angry enough. Now Yang Ming threatened him again, and he was even more furious.

"Nothing," Yang Ming smiled and said, "Although I can help you get rid of General Howton, it doesn't mean that I am grouped with you. If I am not happy, I can kill you at any time."

"You... you are Mr. Yang!" General Kars was shocked. He finally knew who he was talking to. He suddenly burst into a cold sweat! No wonder this voice is so familiar to me. It turns out to be Yang Ming!

This really terrified General Kars. He did not expect that Yang Ming would have a relationship with the Huang Family. Yang Ming was taking this gold mine on behalf of the Huang Family! General Kars was very thankful that he did not do any irrational things. Otherwise, he may have the same result as General Howton now.

"You recognize my voice? Heh..." Yang Ming smiled slightly. "Huang Lele is my mistress. She said that she is being bullied here, so she asked me to vent her anger. I didn't expect that you were the one who angered her."

Although Yang Ming's words were plain and amiable, General Kars took a breath! Although he did not know who Huang Lele was, he heard the surname Huang and knew that she must be a person in the Huang Family in Singapore!

I didn't expect the Huang Family's daughter to be Mr. Yang's mistress? This is amazing, right? I thought that the Huang Family is a weakling that can be easily offended, but now, it seems that I am the weakling.

He had seen Yang Ming's strength. Never mind the new military equipment that the sentinel leader spoke of. Even if it were Yang Ming himself, he could not stand it either!

Thinking of this, General Kars quickly tried to please him. "Mr. Yang, in fact, this is the case. I also intended to give this gold mine to you to promote our cooperation and relationship! Since this gold mine is originally yours, it seems that I am making an unnecessary move. I will find another gift for you! Of course, the two gold mines as a reward will be given to you!"

"It turns out that you wanted to give it to me? But these are two different things. This gold mine is originally the Huang Family's. I just came to reclaim it for them." Yang Ming felt better after listening to General Kars.

Seeing that Yang Ming had forgiven him and no longer complained, General Kars breathed a sigh of relief. He said, "Mr. Yang, you wait for me there. I will go there to give you a celebration now! If my sentinel leader had offended you before, please don't be upset."

"If one does not know any better, one cannot be held responsible." Yang Ming said faintly. "If you come over, you must be quick. I will go to the Huang Family home in Singapore to see Huang Lele's family in a while."

"I am going over now." General Kars said quickly. "I will not delay your business. Can you please pass the phone to my sentinel leader?!"

Yang Ming nodded and handed the phone back to the sentinel leader.

The sentinel leader quickly took the phone, "General Kars, what should I do now?"

"You didn't offend Mr. Yang, right?" General Kars asked in a hurry.

"Who is Mr. Yang?" Sentinel leader was stunned.

"He's the owner of the mine. You did not act rude to them, right?" General Kars explained.

"No... Didn't I call you right away?!" The sentinel leader did not know why General Kars would ask this, but he still replied truthfully.

"It's good that you did not offend!" General Kars breathed a sigh of relief. If he offended, then it would be hard to handle. "Bring your people back now! Remember to apologize to the others. Your attitude must be respectful and humble, more respectful than how you respect me! Do you understand?"

"Ah? Yes!" Although the sentinel leader was unclear, he still obeyed the orders of General Kars.

After the sentinel leader took the call, he said carefully to Yang Ming and the others, "I am sorry for the offense previously. I will bring my people back immediately!"

"You all can leave." Yang Ming waved his hand and let the sentinel leader leave. This matter was not related to him. He was just executing General Kars' orders. Yang Ming didn't want to be difficult for him.

When the sentinel leader walked back, General Kars also put down his official duties in a non-stop manner. He asked for a car and brought his own guards to the gold mine.

For someone like Yang Ming, he absolutely could not afford to offend. General Kars regretted his own unnecessary moves. His kind intention turned into a bad matter! The gold mine originally belonged to Yang Ming. Why do I need to worry about that?

Thinking of this, he could not help but hate the Li Family. This Li Family did not mention how much power the Huang Family had. They still wanted to meddle in the middle. The Huang Family has Yang Ming as their backer. Do they need your Li Family's help?

On the way, he met his own sentinel leader. General Kars did not have time to talk nonsense with him. Kars gestured for him to go back, and then rushed in the direction of the gold mine.

Yang Ming didn't expect General Kars to come so fast. The call had just ended for a while before General Kars' car arrived at the gate.

His men reported that General Kars asked to see him. These words made Yang Ming feel very amused. General Kars was the top person in charge of Country X, right? His men actually used the words, "ask to see."

However, since General Kars had this awareness, Yang Ming did not need to talk nonsense anymore. It seemed that his ideas should be realized soon. If General Kars wanted to continue to keep his position, he would need Yang Ming's help.

Of course, that was the future. Now Yang Ming did not plan to be arrogant. After his man reported it, he went out with Wang Xiaoyan.

In front of Yang Ming, General Kars did not dare to be bossy. He hurriedly got off and walked to Yang Ming, then he actively extended his right hand and shook hands with Yang Ming, "Congratulations, Mr. Yang! The mission has been completed successfully! I am very happy."

"No problem," Yang Ming said faintly. Although the process was somewhat complicated, Yang Ming definitely would not tell this to General Kars. The simpler and easier Yang Ming expressed it, General Kars would feel Yang Ming was more mysterious and stronger, and he would not underestimate Yang Ming.

"Hehe, for Mr. Yang, it was naturally no problem. But for me, this Howton is undoubtedly a big worry!" General Kars really feared Yang Ming in his heart.

"Please come inside. Don't stand here and talk." Yang Ming made a "please" gesture and brought in General Kars.

To be honest, this was the first time that General Kars came here. Although he had to take back the gold mine before, he never came here before. For him, he did not have to visit this place personally.

But now it was different. This was the first time General Kars assessed the mine in his territory.

The two walked side by side to the mine's reception room, and Wang Xiaoyan followed Yang Ming by his side.

General Kars' guards were nervous and protected General Kars closely. Seeing this situation, General Kars waved his hand and motioned that they did not have to follow.

With Yang Ming by his side, these guards were almost equivalent to nothing. If Yang Ming wanted to kill him, even ten guards could not stop him. If Yang Ming did not want to kill him, he did not need a guard. Yang Ming could easily deal with any danger.

When he came to the reception room, General Kars looked at the situation inside and did not sit down. Instead, he gave the master seat to Yang Ming. After Yang Ming sat down, he sat on one side.

Yang Ming did not act humble. He wanted an absolutely overbearing vibe. Although this time, he was not prepared to fight with General Kars, he still imposed this pressure on General Kars.

"These are the two gold mines, and a Letter of Transfer for the deed of the diamond mine." General Kars couldn't understand Yang Ming's temper, but he also knew that Yang Ming certainly didn't like hypocritical nonsense. So after he sat down, he went straight to the topic and put Yang Ming's rewards on the table.

Yang Ming also took the Letter of Transfer impolitely. After checking it, he pushed it over to Wang Xiaoyan and let her keep them first. Yang Ming was not afraid of the petty moves that General Kars would use on the contracts.

"And, this is the Letter of Transfer of this gold mine. I initially wanted to give it to you together. But since the gold mine is already yours, it is meaningless already. Just let me make up another Letter of Transfer for you." General Kars handed another Letter of Transfer to Yang Ming.

Yang Ming glanced at it. It was indeed the transfer of the current gold mine. It seems that General Kars was still a caring person. Then when Yang Ming went to Singapore, he could show it off in front of the Huang Family.

"I am very satisfied with this." Yang Ming nodded and received the authorization documents.

"It's great that you are satisfied!" General Kars was afraid that Yang Ming was not satisfied and looked for another opportunity to scam him, but now, it seemed that Yang Ming did not want to embarrass him. General Kars also relaxed his nerves. "Our cooperation, I think, will be long-term and happy. This is just the beginning."

"If necessary, you can contact me at any time through Li Qiang," said Yang Ming and introduced Li Qiang to General Kars. "This is Li Qiang, my capable man. He also made great achievements in Howton's assassination!"

"Hello, I am very glad to meet you!" General Kars quickly got up and shook hands with Li Qiang. He also understood that everyone around Yang Ming could not be provoked easily. Everyone was a sly character and should not be neglected.

"Hello, General Kars." After Li Qiang and General Kars shook hands, he continued to stand behind Yang Ming.

"I am going to leave Li Qiang here. One reason is to take care of the gold mine for me; the other is to build an assassin and mercenary organization here. What do you think?" asked Yang Ming.

General Kars was stunned. He did not expect Yang Ming to want to establish a base here. Yang Ming's strength was so strong. General Kars was somewhat worried that Yang Ming would seize power.

If Yang Ming wanted to seize power, it was very easy! However, it was useless to worry about this kind of thing. If Yang Ming wanted to get rid of him, he could not stop it even if he wanted to. If Yang Ming did not want to get rid of him, then building a strong assassin group here would be a great boost to his career development!

So, there were both good and bad sides. It just depended on Yang Ming.

"That's good so that we can carry out in-depth cooperation!" After General Kars thought it through, he said quickly.

"Hehe, rest assured. I am not interested in the civil affairs here. I only want to make money." Yang Ming also saw General Kars' concern, so he gave General Kars a promise. Yang Ming only mentioned that he was not interested in civil affairs, but he did not say that he was not interested in the armed forces. When he possessed the military power in his hand, General Kars would only be a temporary president supported by Yang Ming.

"Hehe, I don't mean this!" Yang Ming had read General Kars' thoughts, so he was a little embarrassed. "At this place, Mr. Yang Ming does not look up to anything else except the minerals that are worth a lot of money!"

Chapter 1126: The Concert in Europe

"However, General Kars, please take care of the Huang Family's business here!" Yang Ming still had to return this gold mine to the Huang Family and let them run their business on their own. Yang Ming could not always stay here; he could only give them some help when needed. They usually still had to rely on the support from General Kars.

"No problem. This is easy!" General Kars said quickly, "You can be assured in the future. If something happens in the Huang Family, look for me at any time. If I can't solve it, you can take action!"

"Hehe, it'll be fine with your word." Yang Ming smiled. It seemed that the Huang Family could be rampant here in the future; they no longer had to be careful.

"It's nothing much. Even without me, Mr. Yang could also settle things!" General Kars also laughed. It seemed that his relationship with Yang Ming had developed quite well. If possible, General Kars naturally wanted to maintain it.

However, Yang Ming couldn't continue to stay in Africa after all. As long as there was General Kars, Yang Ming was relieved.

It was a pleasure to talk to them. In the evening, General Kars hosted Yang Ming, Wang Xiaoyan, and Li Qiang at his presidential palace. Although the supplies in this war-torn country were relatively scarce, the banquet was quite sumptuous.

However, vegetables and fruits were relatively less, not as much as meat. Probably because these things were not easy to be planted because of the war, they were all shipped from abroad.

“Mr. Yang, I hope that our friendship will last forever. In the days to come, let our cooperation be enjoyable!” General Kars now seemed radiant. He was the first president of Country X who had a deep relationship with strong foreign aid. If he could continue to cooperate with Yang Ming, he might continue to stay in the presidential position.

Moreover, it could be possible to remove the word “temporary” and become the official president! As General Kars thought of this, his eyes glinted.

General Kars imbibed a lot of wine, but Yang Ming had not drunk a drop of it. In this war-torn country, Yang Ming was always clear-headed, and General Kars did not insist. After all, he also knew the identity of Yang Ming, and probably guessed that Yang Ming would not drink alcohol to affect his ability to react.

However, Yang Ming did not restrict Li Qiang and allowed him and General Kars to drink. On the other hand, he was quite happy. Both of them drank very happily, especially General Kars. He was delighted.

Early the next morning, Li Qiang took people to claim the gold mines and diamond mine. Yang Ming didn’t need to worry about these matters, Li Qiang and the others could do it.

Under the urging of Old Buffon, Yang Ming and Wang Xiaoyan had to embark on a journey to Europe with him. Although Yang Ming and Wang Xiaoyan did not have legal procedures and passports for this trip, Old Buffon was there, and these were no problems at all.

No one dared to check the guests of Old Buffon. Even when Old Buffon’s ship entered the port, the staff on the dock stopped their work and stood neatly in a row, welcoming Old Buffon’s ship.

The CEO of the port had already received notice in advance. He stood at the forefront of the row of staff at the port very early. He stood with his big beer belly and was reprimanding his men, “You all should look smarter in a while. The ship of the respected patriarch of the Buffon family is about to enter our dock. This is the glory of our dock. Once Mr. Buffon is satisfied, the chairman will also praise us and give you all a raise. But if Mr. Buffon is not satisfied with your service, then you all... including me, have to pack our things and leave! Do you hear me?”

“We hear you!” said the staff at the dock. They somewhat knew about the matters of the Buffon family. Although the Buffon family was not their direct leader, the Buffon family was one of the major shareholders of the port. Even the chairman of the board must be supported by the Buffon family. Therefore, the weight of the Buffon family patriarch was naturally very hefty.

No one dared to neglect, so everyone stood on the edge of the dock energetically, waiting for the ship of Old Buffon to enter the port.

“There is another point. I heard that Mr. Buffon has important guests coming. You have to behave better. You can’t let Mr. Buffon’s guests pick out any problem!” said the CEO of the port.

Once those words were said, the whistle of the ship entering the port was heard not far away. The port manager immediately stopped talking and stood at the forefront seriously.

“Master, master’s wife, this is my hometown. How is it? Isn’t it beautiful?” Old Buffon said to Yang Ming and Wang Xiaoyan who stood on the deck.

“En, not bad. The air is very good.” What Yang Ming said was the truth. The harbor here was indeed much stronger than the one in Country X. It was a huge contrast.

“Mr. Buffon, the port sent us a signal. Now we can enter the port. Do you want to enter now or do you want to view the scenery at sea?” When Lex saw Old Buffon looking at the scenery with Yang Ming and Wang Xiaoyan, he dared not make a decision, so he came and asked.

“Master, master’s wife, what do you think?” Old Buffon didn’t know the intention of Yang Ming, so he asked.

“Of course, enter the port. The scenery here is good, but it will not make people neglect sleep and forget about food.” Yang Ming smiled and said.

Lex hurriedly ran back to instruct the ship’s chief officer and sailors to prepare for their entry.

Yang Ming, Wang Xiaoyan, and Old Buffon left from the VIP-only passage at the port and did not take the route of other tourists. In the VIP passageway, no one came to check the identifications of Yang Ming or Wang Xiaoyan. Buffon’s influence in the local area could be seen. Yang Ming self-reflects that he could not be as omnipresent as Old Buffon in Song Jiang’s dock. In Song Jiang, the most he could do was to choose to go ashore illegally.

As for Old Buffon, he could justifiably go ashore with illegal immigrants, and no one dared to check.

When they exited the port, they saw a luxurious extended version of the Bentley Arnage Limousine [1], a commemorative sedan with a limited edition of only twenty cars. Although it was sold for only two hundred and seventy thousand pounds, the power of Old Buffon could already be seen by owning just one car.

The car started slowly, passed through the downtown area, and then drove to the suburbs. Old Buffon was also a person who liked to be quiet and did not have his own accommodations in the city center.

Anyway, every matter such as shopping was done by his men, so Old Buffon merely did not travel. Therefore, there was not much difference in where he lived, but the air in the suburbs was better and more suitable for him to practice martial arts.

After passing a farm, the car drove onto a trail. At the intersection, there was a sign that clearly stated that this was private property, and people were strictly prohibited from entering without permission.

Around the trail were gardens and landscapes. Through the windows, one could see that the workers and gardeners were working hard. This place was already the private land of Old Buffon’s family.

Going forward along, one could see a small farm. It should probably be used to plant some common vegetables and fruits. This kind of pastoral life made Yang Ming very fascinated.

If one day, I can be like Old Buffon and own a private estate, it would be great. Of course, if he told Old Buffon, Old Buffon would definitely help Yang Ming to build a manor, but it was not Yang Ming’s original intention.

Yang Ming came around to the idea to achieve this through his own effort. The current plans of Country X in Africa were naturally the first step. If it went well, then his own wishes were not difficult.

On the outskirts of the manor, they could see a lot of servants and staff. When Old Buffon's car passed by, they all put down their work, stood neatly, and greeted Old Buffon's car.

However, when entering the villa area in the center of the manor, the servants and staff were rarely seen. This was because Old Buffon liked it quiet and was unwilling to be disturbed by others.

In particular, Old Buffon still had to practice martial arts. He did not like to be seen by others, and he was even more afraid that these servants would steal his skills. Therefore, in the villa area, other than the old butler and the necessary servants, no one else was allowed to enter.

"Master, this is my home. The villa in front is prepared for you and Master's wife. Moreover, I intend to turn it into your permanent residence after you leave. You can come to my place at any time," said Old Buffon.

"Hehe, that's not necessary. When we come, you can just get ready then." Yang Ming smiled and refused.

"How can that be? You are my elder; I naturally must show respect. Besides, there are a lot of empty villas. We won't be lacking without this one!" said Old Buffon hurriedly.

"Then, okay." Yang Ming did not insist. Since Old Buffon said so, then Yang Ming let him be.

Old Buffon wanted to hold a family banquet and gather all the members of the Buffon family, but it was vetoed by Yang Ming. Yang Ming didn't want to be so fancy, so at dinner, there was only the old couple, Old Buffon and Mrs. Buffon.

However, the smaller the size of the dinner, the easier it was to say some things. There was no need for any defense. Old Buffon was particularly excited when Yang Ming mentioned some things to be cautious of when practicing martial arts.

Although Miss Buffon could not understand what her husband was saying, she was overjoyed to see her husband being this happy, and his body was becoming more and more abled. She was naturally delighted. She was the second wife of Old Buffon; his first wife died more than a decade ago.

When she married Old Buffon, she was just over twenty years old. Now she was only in her thirties, but Old Buffon was already old. So, there was no fun in their sex life.

But as the first lady of the Buffon family, she couldn't complain about anything. It was even more unlikely for her to find a lover, so she could only silently endure it.

Unexpectedly, since Old Buffon started practicing martial arts, he had become stronger and stronger, and he was more energetic than young men in their twenties. This made Old Buffon's wife happy.

So, in any case, she was very grateful to Yang Ming. Therefore, she was very enthusiastic at the dinner table.

"Right, Master, how is Grand-Master's company? The information that I asked someone to bring over is okay, right? Or else, I will link up some cooperation here?" Old Buffon said with a glowing face.

“There’s no need. It’s already very good. It’s up to ourselves to develop. But if there is any latest technical information to share, I will naturally ask for it.” Yang Ming said shamelessly. Forget about cooperation, it must be the initiative of the other party to get the technology. It would be to their advantage if this data were shared.

“En, this is no problem!” Old Buffon nodded. “I will tell my men to go and ask tomorrow and sort out some of the information that can be shared. However, for those that involve some military secrets, I have no choice. Although I am a major shareholder, I have to comply with the confidentiality regulations.”

“Of course, I won’t trouble you over those things.” Yang Ming naturally knew this. Never mind Old Buffon; it was not easy for a country’s president to publish some confidential information. If worst comes to worst, he or she would be met with impeachment from the members of the legislative body.

Similarly, even if Old Buffon were a dictator, it was impossible to do something that caused public anger. What he could do was do things within his power, and help Yang Ming to his maximum extent.

However, this was enough. For a private enterprise, it did not need that secret military technology. As long as it was far ahead of civilian technology, it could already gain a footing in the world.

“Master, it’s good that you understand!” Old Buffon was most afraid that Yang Ming would not approve. If Yang Ming wanted him to get some confidential information, Old Buffon would have some difficulty! Old Buffon also read a lot of martial arts novels. If the apprentice did not obey the master’s commands, it was reprehensible. He would be a traitor of the school, a disgraceful scum of the martial arts underworld.

So, if Yang Ming really wanted him to get some information, Old Buffon would either take risks or lose Yang Ming as his Master. Hence, he was nervous. Fortunately, Yang Ming was reasonable and did not care about these things.

Old Buffon breathed a sigh of relief and wiped the cold sweat from his forehead.

However, Yang Ming wasn’t as complicated as Old Buffon thought. He couldn’t force someone to do something, right? If Yang Ming knew that Old Buffon just thought about all those, he could only smile bitterly.

After dinner, Yang Ming, Wang Xiaoyan, Old Buffon and his wife sat together in the living room of the villa watching TV. The television in the living room was already changed to rear-projection [2]. Yang Ming was very interested in the high definition quality of this kind of thing, so he planned to go back and get one for him and Wang Xiaoyan.

In the past, Yang Ming heard people say how clear the rear-projection screen was, but it was not popular in China, so Yang Ming didn’t care. Now when he saw it at Old Buffon’s place, he felt that it was pretty good.

“Shu Ya, a popular Asian little empress, will hold a four-day concert tour in the city’s Grand Theater.” Shu Ya suddenly appeared in the entertainment news on TV.

Yang Ming was slightly surprised. He didn’t expect Shu Ya’s career to have developed into Europe and the United States. Yang Ming was surprised, “Old Buffon, is Shu Ya famous here?”

“Shu Ya? She seems to be?” Old Buffon didn’t expect Yang Ming to be suddenly interested in a celebrity. Old Buffon was obsessed with martial arts and had no interest in other things such as music, film, and sports, so he was not very familiar with the matters in the entertainment circle.

“Shu Ya is very famous. She only entered the European and American markets at the beginning of this year. However, as soon as she appeared, many young people were won over by her unique and clear voice!” Miss Buffon often watched some entertainment news and seeing that Old Buffon did not know, she explained, “Alice, that little girl, is also a fan of Shu Ya!”

“Ah, Alice is also a fan of Shu Ya? This is hard to come by. Isn’t that little girl very arrogant?” Old Buffon nodded, shocked. “It seems that Shu Ya is really famous!”

Yang Ming suddenly heard the name Alice and felt that it was very familiar. But come to think of it, there was a world-famous song called “Für Elise [3].” It was probably because of this.

“Master, are you interested in this Shu Ya?” Old Buffon didn’t care about the entertainment industry, but also knew that some people liked to fool around with celebrities, so he was not sure if Yang Ming was such a person.

“Hehe, I like her very much.” Yang Ming said bluntly, “Can you get tickets for the concert?”

“Of course, there is no problem!” Old Buffon nodded cheerfully. He secretly planned to contact someone tomorrow to see which company was the organizer of Shu Ya’s concert.

If possible, I could arrange for a chance to have Shu Ya and Master meet alone. With Master’s handsomeness, he could capture the heart of the beauty.

Yang Ming naturally didn’t know Old Buffon’s thoughts. Otherwise, Yang Ming would stop him from doing so. In this foreign country, especially with Wang Xiaoyan around, it was not very convenient to meet with Shu Ya. Besides, foreign reporters were pervasive, and Yang Ming was afraid of bringing trouble to Shu Ya.

...

Huang Xiaofei returned to his study and gasped for a few mouthfuls of air before he calmed down. His hands trembled as he turned on the computer in the study. Watching the progress bar of the computer system slowly moving, this was the first time that Huang Xiaofei felt that the computer was slow. Finally, Huang Xiaofei entered the system. After successfully connecting to the network, Huang Xiaofei quickly opened his own online bank account. Seeing that there were more than forty billion patacas in his account, Huang Xiaofei was so excited that he wanted to scream.

The money finally came into my own hands! Although he deceived his daughter, and things have reached this stage, he had to do this. He wanted to continue investing in the gold mine of Country X in Africa, but under the opposition of his children, Huang Xiaofei had to take risks.

After confirming that the funds have arrived at his own account, Huang Xiaofei dialed Li Zhichun’s phone number.

“Mr. Huang, how is it? Are the funds in place?” Li Zhichun was also anxious. Huang Xiaofei cannot go back on his deal, or my own plan will be ruined.

"It's in place!" Huang Xiaofei said, "What should I do now, transfer the funds to you? Will you write me a receipt?"

Li Zhichun was surprised; he did not expect Huang Xiaofei to ask him to write a receipt! If the receipt was written, how can I embezzle the money? So Li Zhichun said, "This money is not transferred to me; it is directly transferred to the account of General Kars! I will give you the account, and you can transfer the money directly!"

"So it's like this, then okay! Then we'd better meet up and operate this thing together!" Huang Xiaofei had to be cautious about such a large sum of money.

Chapter 1127: Misunderstood Unspoken Rules

"Yes, then let's do it tonight!" Li Zhichun said. He looked at his watch. He still had a lot of time to operate it.

"Okay, then let's do it tonight!" Huang Xiaofei was also afraid of long delays causing complications, so he readily agreed. Of course, he did not know what awaited him was a scam.

He lied to Huang Lele, but Li Zhichun lied to him. This was a series of scams, but Li Zhichun still did not know.

Li Zhichun hung up the phone and began to get busy. He first called his younger son, Li Tianyu.

"Tianyu, how are you?" Li Zhichun dialed Li Tianyu's phone.

"Father, the gold mine has been completely occupied by others, but it seems that General Kars has not retrieved the gold mine. I think it is because their armed forces are too strong, which made General Kars not dare to act rashly." Li Tianyu analyzed. He did not know the story between General Kars and Yang Ming. He thought that General Kars was fearful of Yang Ming's armed forces and did not make a move.

In fact, General Kars feared the person, Yang Ming. Of course, these armed forces were also a factor.

"Really? General Kars did not actually make a move?" Li Zhichun was also very puzzled with hatred suffocating in his heart. General Kars simply preyed on the weak and feared the strong, but what could Li Zhichun do about it?

In that war-torn country, it followed the law of the jungle naturally. There were no rules at all. Whoever had the stronger power got to be the boss! According to Li Tianyu, the other party's armed forces were very strong. It was normal for General Kars to be fearful.

"No, General Kars came personally later on, but he did not reclaim the gold mine." Li Tianyu said, "I don't know about the things that followed. I have now withdrawn to our family's iron mine. It's still considered safe now."

"Ai!" Li Zhichun sighed and said, "Our strength is too weak, but that kind of place is definitely not the place where businessmen like us can hang around."

Although the Li Family also had a small armed force, it was just a militia with rifles. It was enough to protect his small iron mine. But if he wanted to fight with others, it was not enough for the opponents to even warm up.

Li Zhichun also understood that if his armed forces were strong enough, General Kars would not treat him like the situation right now. Never mind respect; there would at least be some courtesy in his words. At this moment, he had to act very humbly to curry favor.

Thinking of the gap between the two, Li Zhichun could not help but endure. Yet he had the Huang Family as the victim, fortunately. Li Zhichun could still scam the Huang Family.

“Father, what should we do now?” Li Tianjia didn’t want to give up. In fact, Li Tianjia was responsible for the family’s overseas business. However, the overseas business was only limited to the iron mine of Country X. The income was far worse than that of the family-owned company. He thought that after the successful investment of this gold mine, his position in the family could also rise; but it ended in failure, which he did not want to see.

“What can we do?” Li Zhichun sighed. “We can only put it aside first!”

“Ah... is there any other way?” Li Tianyu hurried.

“Tianyu!” Li Zhichun suddenly said earnestly, “Actually, I know what you are thinking! You want to improve your position in the family business through the investment of the gold mine in Country X. You want me to pay attention to you. Is that right?”

“I...” With his father pointing out his worries, Li Tianyu was somewhat embarrassed. He mumbled and denied, “How could I? Father, I am also thinking about making money for the family!”

“Hehe, you don’t have to deny it!” Li Zhichun said with a smile, “As your father, I know your petty thoughts. Your elder brother is a few years older than you. He took over the company one step ahead of you. If it were another person, that person would be emotional no matter what!”

“Father...” Li Tianyu would never admit that, so he quickly denied.

“Don’t rush to deny it. Listen to me!” Li Zhichun interrupted Li Tianyu’s words and continued, “Actually, you want to increase your capital with the investment of African Country X. This is understandable. However, Tianyu, you are still young. There is no need to be in a hurry. Moreover, your father’s body is still very tough and healthy. I won’t die so quickly. There are still many opportunities for you to stand out!”

“Father, I got it!” Since his father had already understood his own thoughts, Li Tianyu could no longer deny it, so he nodded and admitted it.

“Moreover, now I want you to do something for me. If you do it well, the benefits will be much better than the income of your Country X gold mine!” Li Zhichun said, “If this matter were to succeed, I will give you great merit!”

“Alright! Father, you can rest assured. I will cooperate with you!” Li Tianyu quickly said after listening, “What is the matter, Father? Tell me about it.”

"En, this is the case. Are we not contracting the gold mine with the Huang Family!? The Huang Family has prepared the rent, forty billion patacas!" said Li Zhichun.

"Ah? Isn't the gold mine matter not working out? Is there any use for rent?" Li Tianyu said baffled.

"It's true that we don't have to give General Kars the rental fee, but the Huang Family can give it to us!" Li Zhichun paused as he spoke up to here, and he sneered, "We, the Li Family, have done so much work for such a long time. The effort can't be in vain, right?"

"Father, what do you mean..." Li Tianyu was stunned and immediately understood the situation. He said, "Father, you want to scam the Huang Family's money? But how is this possible?"

"What is impossible? As long as you cooperate well, then this will become possible!" Li Zhichun said affirmatively.

"However, how can I cooperate? The Huang Family are not fools. When this money has been given to us, and yet he cannot contract the gold mine, will he simply give up?" Li Tianyu asked inexplicably.

"I took his money. Of course, he won't give up, but what about others?" Li Zhichun said, "What about General Kars? What can he do? Last time, he lost so much money and suffered a great loss, yet he is afraid to speak out. Didn't he suffer bitterly end quietly?"

"Ah? Father, you mean that we have to falsify that General Kars has taken the money. Is that true?" Li Tianyu was not stupid and immediately understood his father's intention. "But if General Kars receives the money, and the Huang Family didn't get the gold mine, so what can he do? Can he make a fuss?"

"General Kars has reneged once, couldn't he renege for a second time?" Li Zhichun sneered, "Also, I'll say that General Kars had agreed, but the gold mine was occupied by another group of armed forces who claimed to be from the Huang Family. What else can the Huang Family do? If he is capable, he can go to the armed forces to get the gold mine!"

"I see... but it works!" Li Tianyu nodded after listening. "But, isn't this a scam? It is not too good, right? In case the Huang Family learns the truth..."

"How could he know? Besides, this time, the forty billion patacas may be the last of the wealth and life-savings of the Huang Family. If the money's gone, the Huang Family will be finished. There is no Huang Family anymore. Why do I need to be afraid of him?" Li Zhichun said indifferently.

"This is also true!" Li Tianyu thought for a moment, "Haha, Father, you are very wily. We lose nothing!"

"That is true. You brothers must learn something. Whoever learns to be as treacherous as me can shoulder the pillar of the family!" Li Zhichun said, "We can't be too kind in doing business. All businessmen are evil. This is the truth!"

"Father, I understand. I will do whatever you say!" Li Tianyu heard his father's tone and said quickly.

"You send people to open an account in the bank in Africa. It is best to forge an identity document and open an account in the name of General Kars so that the Huang Family will not be suspicious!" Li Zhichun said, "This is the first step. You have no problem doing it, right?"

"No problem! Father, rest assured. This is a piece of cake!" Li Tianyu promised.

“En, then, look around your men. Is there anyone whose voice is similar to General Kars? Even if it doesn’t sound like it, it doesn’t matter. Initially, Huang Xiaofei didn’t know General Kars. Moreover, it is normal for the voice over the phone to have a slight variation. He will not be suspicious!” Li Zhichun said, “At that time, I will call you. You will pretend to speak in General Kars’ tone to cooperate with me!”

“Okay! This is easy to handle. I will pick the best candidate out later.” Li Tianyu nodded.

“En, but I can’t be sure of the content of the conversation yet, because Huang Xiaofei is on the side. He may ask questions which requires you to adapt on the spot, but this is not a big problem with your IQ, right?” Li Zhichun smiled.

“Do not worry, Father. This is easy! I am the best for this!” Li Tianyu assured.

“What you have to do is just this. It seems simple but don’t make any mistakes. In that case, our plan will fail!” said Li Zhichun.

“You don’t have to worry about this. I will not let you down!” said Li Tianyu.

Li Zhichun replied, “en,” and he hung up the phone with confidence. On his side, he had to plan how to approach Huang Xiaofei.

...

Old Buffon didn’t wait until the next morning. After he returned to his room that evening, he called the city’s parliament member – the owner of the opera house, Mr. Locklaring.

“Hello? Who is calling?” Locklaring rubbed his drowsy eyes and looked at the bedside clock. It was around eleven o’clock in the evening. Who would call at such a late hour? So, Locklaring’s voice was unfriendly!

It was not strange since he was a rich man in this city, a member of the upper class, and a member of the city parliament. It was pretty normal for him to be arrogant.

“It’s me, Old Buffon.” Old Buffon declared his identity.

“Old Buffon? Who?” Locklaring was stunned, then his mind became awake immediately. “Patriarch Buffon, is that you?”

“It’s me,” said Old Buffon affirmatively.

“Ah... I am sorry, Patriarch Buffon. I am a little confused due to my sleep. Please forgive me for being rude just now!” Locklaring suddenly changed his attitude. Indeed, never mind about him; even the mayor of the city had to be respectful toward Old Buffon. No one dared to have the slightest negligence! With one word from the Patriarch, the mayor might step down, let alone he, a member of parliament!

Besides, the music group owned by the head office of the company was still controlled by Old Buffon’s family. If it were really based on seniority, he was just a minor character in the hands of others.

“It doesn’t matter.” Old Buffon was anxious to do things for Yang Ming, and he wouldn’t pursue these small details. “There is one thing. Miss Shu Ya’s concert tickets, you have them, right?”

“Ah?” Locklaring was surprised. He thought, How come Patriarch Old Buffon still wants to go to the concert? But despite it being strange, he said quickly, “Yes, of course, you can have any number of tickets!”

Although Shu Ya was not as popular in Europe as she was in Asia, she was still a famous celebrity. Especially among young people, she was well-liked. Hence, the tickets sales were still very hot.

However, when Patriarch Old Buffon wanted tickets, he could have however many he wanted. Locklaring would rather not sell all the concert tickets and willingly give all of them to Old Buffon! Even if the head office pursued it, Locklaring was not afraid!

Even if the chairman of the head office saw Old Buffon, he still had to be respectful!

“Alright, help me reserve four tickets with good seats.” Old Buffon said, “How much will that be? I will ask my family to send it to you.”

“This is the gift I gave you. Forget about money.” How could Locklaring ask for money? Again, it was just four tickets. It was not a big deal.

“Then I will accept it.” Old Buffon did not say much. In his opinion, there was no need to go back and forth because of these small things. “Yes, do you know which company is the organizer of Shu Ya’s concert?”

“The organizer is the parent company of our theater group – Sound Magic Music Group.” Locklaring said, “However, the specific matters are controlled by the local opera house. Patriarch Buffon, what can I do for you?”

“This is the case. I have a very important guest – in terms of seniority, he is also my elder! He likes Miss Shu Ya. Do you think you can arrange for them to meet?” said Old Buffon.

“This...” Locklaring hesitated. He was troubled deep down in his heart, but he obviously misunderstood Old Buffon’s intention.

“Why? Is there a problem?” Old Buffon asked. “Do you want me to contact the Sound Magic Music Group?”

“You don’t need to do that...” Locklaring had to say it truthfully, “Mr. Buffon, Miss Shu Ya is the VIP we invited, not a singer of our music group. Some things we can’t help with around her. Miss Shu Ya’s family is also very prominent. She was once invited by Miss Alice... If your friend did something to her...”

When Old Buffon heard Locklaring saying this, he laughed all of a sudden. “Locklaring! You misunderstood. I am just asking you to give a chance for them to meet. It is as simple as just a meetup. There is no other request! Whether he can get Miss Shu Ya’s favor is entirely up to my friend!”

“So that’s the case!” Locklaring breathed a sigh of relief. He thought that the friend of Patriarch Old Buffon wanted to utilize some unspoken rules. He was troubled greatly. After all, this was not his own singer, and he couldn’t ask something from her.

“Then I am relieved. I am sorry. I just misunderstood. You also know that in my position, many rich people look for me to introduce small celebrities for them to play with...” Locklaring apologized.

“Hehe, I understand.” Old Buffon didn’t say anything about it. “This is not a problem, right?”

“Not at all! I can invite you and your friends to attend the celebration party. How about it?” said Locklaring.

“There are too many people celebrating the feast. You see if there are any small banquets, such as a welcoming banquet with only a few people would be the best!” said Old Buffon.

“Okay, then I will arrange it!” said Locklaring.

“After you have arranged it, call me! My phone is... This is my personal phone number; you can just call it directly!” Old Buffon gave Locklaring his private phone number.

Locklaring suddenly got excited! This was the private phone of Patriarch Old Buffon. In fact, many people wanted to have this phone number, but they could not. How could Locklaring not be excited since he owned it?

No matter what, he must do it with all his heart, and the requirements of the Old Buffon patriarch were not high. It was just to join a banquet, not a big deal.

When Locklaring hung up the phone, he took out his work log, recorded the matter, and prepared to address it tomorrow.

However, as Locklaring just hung up, the ringtone of the phone was heard again. Locklaring thought it was still Old Buffon calling, forgetting to mention something, so he picked up the phone quickly, and respectfully said, “Do you need me to help you with anything?”

“Parliament member Locklaring, you have done a good job! I called you on my son’s phone. You are still so polite with an unknown number. I think you are a member that is in touch with people!” The voice of Mark Vader, the mayor of this city, came through the phone.

“Hello, Mayor Mark Vader!” Locklaring was shocked. He thought, What happened tonight? How come all the big shots are calling me? However, he did not expect his respectful tone had gotten the mayor’s appreciation. This made Locklaring very happy.

“En, Locklaring, I heard that your opera house is going to hold a concert recently?” said Mayor Mark Vader.

“This is the case, Mayor Mark Vader.” Locklaring said, “It is the concert of an Asian celebrity, Miss Shu Ya!”

“That’s not bad! There is something I need to trouble you with. My son, Maligeben, is a fan of Miss Shu Ya. I just want to ask for a few tickets to the concert!” said Mayor Mark Vader.

“No problem!” Locklaring quickly promised, “It is a small matter. I will send someone to the mayor’s office tomorrow.”

Chapter 1128: A Love Journey

“En, then sorry for the trouble!” Mayor Mark Vader said politely. “There is another thing. Can you see if you can arrange for my son to meet Miss Shu Ya alone? Maligebe, this kid, is very obsessed with Miss Shu Ya...”

“This...” Locklaring had some difficulty. Mayor Mark Vader’s son, Maligebe, was a typical playboy. He operated a trading company and had some money on hand, but he spent all the money on pursuing little celebrities. He did not have much profit in a year.

However, Mark Vader only had one son, so he spoiled his son very much. Fortunately, Mark Vader had a daughter who ran an investment company. The profit was good; Mark Vader did not expect his son to have any great success.

“How is it? Is there any difficulty?” In the view of Mayor Mark Vader, this was not a difficult thing at all. It was rare that the little celebrities did not love money. As long as he gave more money, he did not have to worry about failing to pursue.

“Mayor Mark Vader, Miss Shu Ya is a foreign singer, and her family is well-respected... so, I have no way to request anything from her...” Locklaring explained.

“Foreign singer... Her family is only well-respected in her local area. She has no power here. Can’t you just hint this?” Mark Vader thought that with his own power, Shu Ya would have to submit!

“Mayor Mark Vader, Miss Shu Ya is a VIP invited by Miss Alice, and Miss Alice is also her fan. If something goes wrong...” Locklaring hinted.

“Ah!” Mark Vader was shocked. He didn’t expect Shu Ya to know Miss Alice. Then, this matter was a little complicated. If you gave him another set of guts, he did not dare to disrespect Shu Ya any more!

The power represented by Miss Alice was something that he could not resist!

“If that’s the case, then can you let them meet each other? Just meet once, if not Maligebe... Ai, that kid will trouble me...” Mark Vader said with a smile.

“That can be done!” Locklaring thought, Anyway, Patriarch Old Buffon also made the same request of me. I can just arrange it at that time. And if Patriarch Old Buffon is there, I believe that Maligebe would not dare to act rashly!

“That’s great!” Mark Vader breathed a sigh of relief. If this request were rejected, then his face as the mayor would be disgraced! However, even if Locklaring refused, Mark Vader couldn’t say anything. After all, he was not as strong as Miss Alice!

“Let’s do it this way. I will call you after I have arranged it!” said Locklaring.

“Sorry for the trouble then!” Mayor Mark Vader said politely.

Hanging up the phone, as Mark Vader was going to work, the study’s door opened. His son, Maligebe, came in. “Dad, how did it go? Can it work?”

Mark Vader frowned and said, “How many times have I told you? Knock on the door before you come in. Have you forgotten?”

"I'm sorry, Father. I was anxious..." Maligebe said without hesitation. He did not have the intention to apologize.

Mark Vader shook his head helplessly. "You, ah. You really make me worry. My face is gone just for you!"

"Hehe, who asked you to be my father? If you don't help me, who will?!" Maligebe said with a smile, "Father, I have longed for Shu Ya. I have not tasted an Asian celebrity chick yet!"

"Don't talk nonsense!" Mark Vader stared at his son. "I heard that Miss Shu Ya's family is not ordinary. Your little bit of money is probably nothing in her eyes. Don't hold any unrealistic fantasy!"

"Hah, although I don't have much money, I still have the identity! Don't I have you too, mayor father?!" Maligebe said with disapproval. "Shu Ya wants to develop a career in Europe, and she also needs connections, right? Who has more connections than you?"

"In short, don't mess around!" Mark Vader warned. "Don't force her. Or else, if something goes wrong, I can't do anything!"

"Hah, look at what you said. When did I give you trouble?" Maligebe said indifferently. "Didn't I use my own money to solve the problem every time? Even if my money is not enough, don't I still have my sister?"

"You, ah. Our family will be ruined by you!" Mark Vader shook his head. He wanted to talk about Miss Alice, but his son would not know who Alice was, and he would seem incapable after saying it.

He didn't want to lose face in front of his son, so he didn't mention much about Miss Alice. In his opinion, if he had already instructed, then his son would certainly not be rash.

"No way. A few days ago, I got in contact with the deputy governor's son. He wants to partner with me to do a big business. At that time, I will earn a fortune!" Maligebe said proudly.

"En." Mark Vader nodded. He didn't object to his son contacting the offspring of other politicians. Especially over serious business, Mark Vader agreed with it. "I have already told Locklaring. He will arrange a small banquet for you to attend. At that time, you will be able to get to know Miss Shu Ya."

"It's not a private meeting!" Maligebe was slightly disappointed.

"This is already good! You know, although Locklaring is a member of parliament, his background is not worse than mine. He has the support of the Sound Magic Music Group. If he wasn't still young, and his foundation unstable, he may become the next mayor candidate!" said Mark Vader.

"Hah, I know; I know!" Maligebe raised his hands and smiled. "Well, this is fine. If I can meet her, I am not unafraid that she will escape from me!"

Maligebe did not put his father's words in his heart at all. He was a prodigal young master who was not afraid of anything. Especially after knowing the son of the deputy governor, Saven Geese, Maligebe felt that he could be overbearing. He could do whatever he wanted in this state.

After returning to his room, Maligebe called Saven Geese.

“Maligeben, it’s so late already. Why did you call me? Don’t you know that I am picking up a girl?” The cynical voice of Saven Geese and the heavy metal music in the background came over the phone. Obviously, he was in a place like a disco.

“Saven Geese, things are done. Locklaring will arrange for us to participate in a small banquet, and Shu Ya will also attend; then we can get close to her!” said Maligeben.

“Good job!” Saven Geese nodded with satisfaction. “You don’t have to worry about other things. Just follow my arrangement!”

“Sure!” said Maligeben.

“Okay, then let’s do this first. Don’t disturb me picking up the girl. Today, this girl is hot... oh...” Saven Geese made a strange sound.

Maligeben no longer disturbed Saven Geese. He quickly hung up the phone, hummed a song and played the video game console.

.....

“Who is that Shu Ya?” Wang Xiaoyan wouldn’t believe that Yang Ming would pursue celebrities. Based on her feelings, there must be something between Yang Ming and Shu Ya.

Yang Ming didn’t expect Wang Xiaoyan to be so sensitive. He just mentioned a few words with Old Buffon, and Wang Xiaoyan could guess the matter. Yang Ming felt a little touched. Wang Xiaoyan had really changed; she was not as indifferent as before.

He had to admit that she was more and more like a little woman, and she also had the joys and sorrows that a woman in love should have. Although in many cases, she would suppress her emotions and not trouble Yang Ming, Yang Ming could also feel the change in her mind.

Yang Ming didn’t know whether this was good or bad, but one thing was certain. After Wang Xiaoyan returned to her true self, she became a lot happier.

Therefore, Yang Ming did not deliberately avoid the occasional jealous question from Wang Xiaoyan. Because Yang Ming was also clear that Wang Xiaoyan was often just asking. When she got the answer she wanted, she would throw these things to the back of her head. She would not make a fuss with Yang Ming because of this, and she would not ask for more troubles because of this.

Yang Ming appreciated this characteristic of hers very much. Fortunately, Chen Mengyan was also developing toward this trend, so Yang Ming was very pleased.

“You really want to know?” Yang Ming asked with a smile.

“What do you say?” Wang Xiaoyan rolled her eyes at Yang Ming. “If you do not want to say it, don’t say it. Who cares?”

“If you want to know, telling you is no problem.” Yang Ming sighed and told the story of Su Ya to Wang Xiaoyan, from the initial acquaintance to the subsequently forced separation, and until they met again in Macau...

Although the whole story seemed simple, it was twisted. The joys and sorrows of his life. For a time, Wang Xiaoyan was deeply absorbed in it. When she heard what Wu Chiren did, Wang Xiaoyan couldn't help but clench her teeth. "Tell me where he is. I will go back and kill him!"

"Hehe, he has gotten his retribution. Otherwise, do you think I will still keep him?" Yang Ming pinched Wang Xiaoyan's cute face and couldn't help but smile.

"That's true!" Wang Xiaoyan nodded. "You are better than me. I don't need to kill him."

"Later, she continued on her concert tour... This stop was probably when she came to Europe... After that, nothing has happened yet, so it ends here." Yang Ming told of his own experiences meeting with Su Ya in one short breath.

"That is, when I went to Macau, you actually went to find Shu Ya, and you met me by chance?" Wang Xiaoyan asked in surprise.

"Yeah, I saw you, this acquaintance, almost get harmed by others, so I had to help you out. I didn't expect that you even wanted to kill me." Yang Ming shrugged and said with a bitter smile.

"You're even mentioning it! Who told you to be lecherous always to take advantage of me?" Wang Xiaoyan now remembered the previous things, and she felt a little sweet in her heart. The process of her meeting with Yang Ming could also be written into a novel, right?

Before Wang Xiaoyan met Yang Ming, there was no such thing as love in her life. Although there were times when she was longing for it, and she had expectations for it, she was just thinking about it in her dreams.

However, after Wang Xiaoyan met Yang Ming, it completely overturned Wang Xiaoyan's previous thoughts. Although Wang Xiaoyan felt that her love experience with Yang Ming was not perfect, now she was very blissful instead.

But when she thought about the process of her and Yang Ming becoming lovers when they were nemeses, was it not an extraordinary experience too? Wasn't there a similar plot in many bubble love dramas?

Every time Wang Xiaoyan thought of this, she was very content. She felt that this month with Yang Ming was the happiest time in her life. If it could be continued, it would be great.

"When did I take advantage of you? It was you who always revealed your naked body..." Yang Ming said in grievances.

"Forget it. Anyway, I am used to it all day. I am too lazy to pursue your responsibility." Wang Xiaoyan waved her hand and said generously. "I didn't expect Su Ya to be your first girlfriend. I always thought it was Chen Mengyan."

"Hehe..." Yang Ming didn't know how to answer this question. He could only laugh awkwardly.

"Well, I won't make fun of you! Take this opportunity!" Wang Xiaoyan said, "It seems that Su Ya is worse off than me. She didn't even see you a few times. I thought I am worse as your mistress."

"You are still not satisfied? In fact, I have been with you for the longest time. This month, I almost slept in your home every day." Yang Ming saw that Wang Xiaoyan acted like she gained nothing after she got the benefits and spoke helplessly.

"Wasn't that because you want to promote tacit understanding..." Wang Xiaoyan laughed and smiled slyly.

The two stayed in the independent villa where there were no outsiders around them. It was just like in their own home. They could do whatever they wanted. They didn't have to care about anything, so they regained the life of "cultivating tacit understanding."

.....

Huang Xiaofei was out of his mind over the glory that he longed for. He did not consider the consequences of the matter. Now, his mind was thinking about a few years in the future, when he would return to his hometown after getting rich, and become the object of people's envy.

Indeed, if the gold mine were profitable and properly mined, it would not be difficult to become the richest man in the city. After Huang Xiaofei adjusted his emotions, he came out of his study.

He was afraid that his family would notice his abnormality. Especially for Huang Lele, he had to prevent her from seeing it.

"Dad, you are going out?" Huang Rongjin had already learned from Huang Lele that his father was going to transfer the money. Huang Rongjin intuitively felt that his father's transformation was a bit too fast. It was almost unbelievable.

"En, I am going to the company." Huang Xiaofei said normally.

"Okay, then you pay attention to safety." Huang Rongjin, though skeptical, did not see anything wrong, so he nodded. Besides, he also had no right to interfere with his father's behavior.

Huang Xiaofei went out of the villa and did not dare to ask the driver to drive. Instead, he went to the garage and took the car. He drove to Li Zhichun's Li Group. Li Zhichun made an appointment with him at the company at 4:30 in the afternoon.

Huang Xiaofei did not drive for a long time; he felt a little rusty. Even when waiting for the red light, he almost could not stop the car and hit the car in front. Fortunately, the traffic light just turned green, and the car in front moved, so there was no accident.

Otherwise, if there were an accident, it would be inevitably noticed by Huang Rongtian. Then, his plan might be ruined.

This time, Huang Xiaofei began to act with caution. He did not dare to be sloppy at the slightest. Finally, he parked safely in the parking lot of the Li Group, and Huang Xiaofei was relieved.

If he knew it would be so hard, he would have taken a taxi. Huang Xiaofei thought with some complaint.

"Greetings, Mr. Huang!" The guard of the Li Group had long been instructed by Li Zhichun to meet Huang Xiaofei here. Although he wanted to scam, he still had to do the courtesy.

"Do you know me?" Huang Xiaofei was a bit startled. This was his first time coming to the Li Group. He did not expect the security guard here to know him.

"Hehe, the chairman personally arranged for me to welcome you here. I saw your photo from the chairman!" The security guard said respectfully.

"So that's the case." Huang Xiaofei was very happy when he was valued. When he walked, he was floating on air. "You lead the way. I will go to your chairman, Mr. Li."

"Okay, Mr. Huang, please come with me!" The security guard politely bowed to Huang Xiaofei with courtesy and led him toward the elevator.

The private elevator went directly to the top floor of the building, the chairman's office.

"Please, Mr. Huang..." The security guard led Huang Xiaofei to the door of an office and then said, "You can go in!"

Huang Xiaofei nodded and knocked on the door. From inside came Li Zhichun's voice. "Who is it? Please come in!"

Huang Xiaofei pushed open the door to the room and walked in. When Li Zhichun saw Huang Xiaofei, he quickly stood up. "Mr. Huang, you are here! Welcome!"

"Hehe." Huang Xiaofei saw Li Zhichun's attitude was not bad, and his heart was very satisfied. After all, this was a cooperation between the two sides. If Li Zhichun were overbearing, then he would not have any right to speak in the future. "How is it? Has General Kars arranged it properly over there?"

"Mr. Huang, I have contacted General Kars over there. As long as the funds are in place, I can fax the contract right away!" said Li Zhichun.

"That's great, then let's be quick!" Huang Xiaofei was afraid that things would get worse with time, so he quickly said.

"Well, I will call General Kars, and we will confirm it!" Li Zhichun saw that Huang Xiaofei had already been hooked, and he nodded in his mind.

"In a moment, can you let me talk to General Kars first?" Huang Xiaofei did not think that Li Zhichun could lie to him, but he wanted to get close to General Kars.

"No problem!" Li Zhichun readily agreed. Anyway, he had already arranged it. He was not afraid that Huang Xiaofei would notice it. The reason why Li Zhichun was so fearless was that he knew that Huang Xiaofei did not have direct contact with General Kars before, so he could not find any flaws.

Chapter 1129: Successfully Deceived

Li Zhichun picked up the phone and put on an act by dialing the newly applied African Country X phone number of his son, Li Tianyu.

Seeing that the area code was from Africa, Huang Xiaofei had no doubt about it. After a while, the phone call was connected.

“Hello, this is the government of General Kars. Do you have any matters?” The one talking was a little girl Li Tianyu brought to Africa, Li Tianyu’s lover. Since only black people were there, Li Tianyu’s sense of aesthetics could not accept it.

Li Tianyu had already arranged for her to pretend to be General Kars’ secretary to answer the phone. But in this way, she knew a lot of family secrets. In the future, it would be hard to get rid of her.

Li Tianyu’s lover, Xiao Li, was also thinking about this. When she learned that Li Tianyu had let her participate in the fraud, she was very happy. Xiao Li was a waitress from a karaoke club. She had no family background, but she was beautiful.

Li Tianyu took a fancy to her and brought her to Africa. She also knew that she was just Li Tianyu’s playmate when he was lonely. One day, Li Tianyu would dump her.

However, she thought she would take things one day at a time because Li Tianyu had given her a lot of money every month. She had already accumulated a lot of money and left a backup plan for herself.

Now, since Li Tianyu let her participate in the family business, it showed that Li Tianyu already had some trust in her, and he would not get rid of her in the future. So Xiao Li was particularly excited.

Li Tianyu also couldn’t be helped. The only woman he could trust was Xiao Li. If he did not ask her to pretend to be General Kars’ secretary, who was he suppose to ask? Anyway, Li Tianyu would definitely not be able to marry her. However, he could have her be his long-term lover.

“Hello! I am Li Zhichun of the Li Family in Singapore. Please help me transfer the call to General Kars. I have something to discuss with him,” Li Zhichun said seriously.

“Okay, please wait a moment!” Xiao Li said fluently in English. English was one of the official languages of Singapore, so there were no language barriers at all.

After a while, Xiao Li’s voice again sounded on the phone, “Hello, Mr. Li. General Kars is in a meeting. I have already recorded your message. General Kars will call you back later.”

“Okay! Sorry for the trouble!” Li Zhichun said very seriously on the surface, but he thought, Tianyu, this kid, is not bad! He made it look so alike and made General Kars look like a busy man! It’s a bit interesting!

It seems that this kid’s mind is good, worthy of praise! Li Zhichun thought this way.

On the other side, in Country X in Africa, Li Tianyu was hurriedly yelling, “F*ck, how can this kid, Da Niu, still be in the toilet and not come out? When it’s urgent, he has to go non-stop to the toilet! We are waiting for him to act as General Kars here!”

“I also don’t know!” Xiao Laizi, who Li Tianyu brought over from Singapore, said, “Would you like me to go and take a look?”

“Alright, you quickly go! Get him out of the toilet!” Li Tianyu said in a bad tone, “Motherf*cker, there is something serious going on right here!”

“What if he didn’t finish pooping?” Xiao Laizi said with some hesitation.

“If he didn’t finish pooping, make him find a plastic bag and stuff it in his trousers!” Li Tianyu barked, “No matter what, you get him over here!”

“Okay!” Xiao Laizi nodded and ran in the direction of the toilet.

In a short while, Xiao Laizi rushed over with a macho man. The macho man was Da Niu, the person who was pretending to be General Kars.

“Young Master Li, I am sorry...” Da Niu said shamefully.

“Alright, don’t dawdle. Hurry up!” Li Tianyu glared at him and spoke in a bad tone.

“Okay!” Da Niu said quickly. According to Li Tianyu’s instructions, he dialed the phone number of the Li Family in Singapore.

Li Zhichun glanced at the caller ID and took the call with respect, “Hello, this is Li Zhichun!”

“Mr. Li! I am Kars!” Da Niu scratched his pants and spoke in a serious way.

“Hello! General Kars!” Li Zhichun thought, Tianyu is a good boy. The voice of the person he found is quite similar to Kars. It is so thick and crude; I would also be mistaken and think that it is really General Kars.

“Is there anything urgent? I was in a meeting just now!” Da Niu thought, I just had a meeting in the toilet with my sh*t! Ha!

“It is like this. It is about the contract of the gold mine.” Li Zhichun said, “Our funds are ready. Can you see when you can sign the contract?”

“The contract!” Da Niu looked at Li Tianyu and said, “Now will be fine. After a while, I will ask the secretary to fax you the contract!”

“Good!” Li Zhichun quickly said, “Right, my partner, Huang Xiaofei, wants to say a few words to you!”

“Okay!” General Kars agreed.

After Li Zhichun covered the phone’s microphone, he said to Huang Xiaofei, “Didn’t you want to talk to General Kars? General Kars is waiting!”

“Okay.” Huang Xiaofei nodded hurriedly, took the phone, and said with respect, “General Kars, hello. I am Huang Xiaofei!”

“En, hello!” Da Niu said with dignity.

“About the gold mine, I’m counting on you. We’ll also sincerely cooperate!” said Huang Xiaofei.

“En, if you are not sincere, I can’t give you a contract for the gold mine!” Da Niu said following Li Zhichun’s suggestion.

"That's right; that's right!" Huang Xiaofei sighed. The money I paid previously was spent in vain. This time, I hope that General Kars will not step down. "Alright, so it's like this. We will send you the money in a while!"

"Okay! Then I will ask the secretary to fax you the contract in a while!" said Da Niu.

Huang Xiaofei handed the phone to Li Zhichun. After Li Zhichun said a few sentences, he hung up the phone.

At this time, Huang Xiaofei was relieved. After all, he communicated directly with General Kars.

Not long after, the office received a fax signal from Country X in Africa, the contract was transmitted.

When Li Zhichun received the contract, he asked the secretary to call the legal advisor. In fact, the contract was drafted with the help of that legal advisor.

After reading the contract, the legal advisor handed the contract back to Li Zhichun and nodded. "There is no problem; it's okay!"

"Okay, let's take another look!" Li Zhichun took the contract and placed it between himself and Huang Xiaofei.

Huang Xiaofei also understood that this kind of contract was only valid for the current provisional government. Once the provisional government changed presidents and General Kars stepped down, the contract would become a piece of waste paper.

Looking at it roughly, it was almost similar to the previous contract he signed. He nodded and said, "It's fine if you see that there is no problem! We will sign it!"

"Okay, if there is no problem, we will sign the contract!" As Li Zhichun said that, he took out a signature pen, signed his name on the contract first, and then handed it to Huang Xiaofei.

Huang Xiaofei took the signature pen, took a deep breath, then signed his name on the contract. After all, with this signature, the gold mine would belong to him again. Could he be upset?

After Huang Xiaofei signed it, he handed the contract back to Li Zhichun. Li Zhichun took it. After checking it, he put the contract into the fax machine again and dialed the phone number of General Kars.

Soon, the phone was connected, and it was the voice of General Kars' secretary, Xiao Li. "Hello, this is the office of General Kars."

"Hello, I am Li Zhichun of the Li Family in Singapore. We signed a contract with General Kars. Now, I will fax it to your fax number. Please check and pass it to General Kars!" said Li Zhichun.

"No problem. The contract has been received. I will pass it to General Kars," said Xiao Li.

Hanging up the phone, Li Zhichun smiled at Huang Xiaofei and said, "Okay! It's settled. We will wait for the call from General Kars, and then send the money!"

Huang Xiaofei nodded and sat anxiously on the sofa, waiting for the news quietly. This gold mine thing had troubled him a lot. Now, at last, after the dust settled, it had become a big achievement.

This time, General Kars' call came very quickly. Li Zhichun picked up the phone and said, "Hello, General Kars, have you received the contract?"

"Yes, I received it!" General Kars said, "If there is no problem, I will give you the account number. You will remit the rent to my account!"

"Okay, no problem. You can say it!" said Li Zhichun.

"My account is ... The name is my name, KarsXXXX," said General Kars.

"I noted it. Let us confirm. The account is ... The name is KarsXXXX, right?" Li Zhichun said.

"Yes, after you have remitted the money, just call my secretary!" said General Kars.

"Okay, okay!" Li Zhichun said quickly.

Hanging up the phone, Li Zhichun picked up the piece of paper with the account number he wrote down and said to Huang Xiaofei, "This is the account; you can transfer it now."

"Is the account number right?" Huang Xiaofei cautiously asked, "Don't send it to the wrong one. Otherwise, it'll be over."

"It's correct! I confirmed it with General Kars again. This is the account!" Li Zhichun nodded affirmatively.

"That's good!" Huang Xiaofang took the account number and said, "Then I will transfer the money over! Do you have a computer with Internet access? I will log in to the online bank to transfer the money to him!"

"There is; this computer of mine will do fine!" Li Zhichun pointed to the computer on his desk, "You can use this computer!"

Li Zhichun logged into his online bank and transferred forty billion patacas to the account of "General Kars" according to the account number written by Li Zhichun. He clicked the OK button.

After a while, the system prompted, "Transfer Successful." At this point, all the money in the account was transferred to the account of "General Kars."

"Okay! I've transferred it. You can call General Kars' secretary and inform her that the money has been transferred!" said Huang Xiaofei. He didn't know why, but he always felt nervous.

"Alright!" Li Zhichun resisted the excitement in his heart. This is forty billion patacas. It was so painstaking to get it into my hands. It is so exciting! "I will call the secretary of General Kars!"

Although Li Zhichun was too lazy to continue acting, he still had to finish up the play. So he picked up the phone and called Xiao Li, the secretary of "General Kars," and told her that the money had already been paid and asked her to check it out.

"It's settled. All is good. you can go back and wait for good news!" Li Zhichun smiled at Huang Xiaofei. "I wish you happy cooperation in the future!"

“Good! Then I will go back and wait for the news! When can I go to Africa’s Country X to receive the gold mine?” asked Huang Xiaofei.

“Let’s wait for a reply from General Kars’ side. Maybe it’s just a few days!” said Li Zhichun.

“Alright, I will go first. If you have any news, please contact me at any time.” Huang Xiaofei stood up and got ready to leave.

...

The more Huang Rongjin thought about it, the more he felt that something was wrong. So he called his elder brother, Huang Rongtian.

Huang Rongtian was at the company, ready to get off work. At this time, he received a phone call from his brother. “Hello, Rongjin, is there something the matter?”

“Elder brother, did Father go to the company?” asked Huang Rongjin.

“Company? No, for what reason does he need to go to the company? Isn’t he at home?” said Huang Rongtian.

“Before, about half an hour ago, Father said that he was going to the company... Didn’t he go?” After Huang Rongjin listened to Huang Rongtian’s words, he felt that something seemed to be amiss!

“No, I am getting off work soon. The people in the company are all gone. For what reason is he coming at this time?” Huang Rongtian said, “And if Father came over, my secretary will tell me.”

What a joke! When the chairman comes to the company, such a big thing, how could the secretary not tell Huang Rongtian?

“Oh, no!” Huang Rongjin’s thoughts were verified and suddenly became nervous, “Elder brother! Just now, Father looked for little sister and said that he came around to the idea that he no longer wants to deal with the gold mine in Africa’s Country X. He was prepared to do business in China, so he wanted the money from the hands of little sister... After that, I saw that he was going out, so I asked him where he was going. He said that he was going to the company...”

“What? Lele gave the money to Father?” Huang Rongtian was appalled after listening. He suddenly jumped up in shock. “It can’t be! Why did she give him the money? Ai! Don’t you know your father well? Stubborn! Could it be that he took the money to find the Li Family?”

“Ah? What do we do?!” Huang Rongjin was shocked after listening and asked quickly.

“I will go back right now. You call Father and ask him where he is!” said Huang Rongtian quickly.

“Okay, elder brother, then you should come back soon. I will call Father!” After listening to the analysis of his older brother, Huang Rongjin also knew that something wrong definitely happened!

After Huang Rongjin hung up the phone, he did not dare to delay. He immediately called his father’s mobile phone. Huang Xiaofei just got out of the Li Group and was getting ready to get in the car. He heard his cell phone ringing and picked it up.

“Hello? Rongjin? Is there something the matter?” said Huang Xiaofei.

"Father, where are you?" Huang Rongjin asked quickly.

"I am on the way home. I will be home soon." Things were already done, so Huang Xiaofei did not care.

"Where did you go? Elder brother said that you didn't go to the company..." asked Huang Rongjin.

"Oh, I didn't go. I went to do something else." Huang Xiaofei said, "Why? What's the matter?"

"That is..." Huang Rongjin wanted to talk about the money, but after all, he was not responsible for the family business. The family business was the responsibility of his big brother, so some words should still be said by his older brother.

"Okay, if there is nothing, I will hang up first!" Huang Xiaofei got in the car and said, "Let's go home and talk. I have something big to announce to you all!"

After that, he hung up the phone. Huang Rongjin heard that his father said that something big would be announced, and his heart suddenly thumped with the sound of "Ge Deng." This is not a good sign. What is actually the big deal?

Huang Rongjin frowned and looked at the phone in his hand. There was some uneasiness in his heart. His intuition told him that what his father had to say was definitely not a good thing!

Not long after, the elder brother, Huang Rongtian, arrived first at home. He saw Huang Rongjin and quickly asked, "Rongjin, how is it? Where did the father go? Could you contact him?"

"I contacted him!" Huang Rongjin frowned and said, "Father said that he went to do something and that he will announce something big to us later... I'm afraid he went to deal with the gold mine again."

"Ah! It's over! We're still a step late. Now it's finished. Father must have gone to the Li Group!" Huang Rongtian sighed and sat helplessly on the sofa. "Rongjin, why didn't you tell me earlier?"

"I didn't expect Father to go to the Li Group. Moreover, when Father does things, can I stop him?" Huang Rongjin shrugged and said with a bitter smile.

Huang Rongtian nodded. Indeed, whatever Father wants to do, how can we as children stop him? Even if Huang Rongjin told me earlier, it would take some time for me to come back. At that time, Father would have already left!

Moreover, whether I can convince Father is another matter! This matter has reached this stage already, and I can only leave it to fate. Everything else can only wait for Father to come back to make a decision.

After Huang Xiaofei left, Li Zhichun suddenly laughed very happily and very treacherously. It finally succeeded! I initially thought that it would take a little bit of trouble, but I did not expect that Huang Xiaofei was so gullible. Only a few calls were made, and a fake contract was drafted, and he was successfully hooked.

In fact, it was not Huang Xiaofei's poor sense of vigilance. If he really had a poor sense of vigilance, he would not be able to establish such a big company in the beginning! It was just that Huang Xiaofang's recent thoughts were indulged with the gold mine in Country X. His mind was clouded by this matter, and he had lost his senses.

At this time, people often did not stop until they reached their goal. So, as long as he can achieve the ultimate goal, Huang Xiaofei almost ignored the process. Therefore, it was so easy for him to get hooked by Li Zhichun's bait.

Chapter 1130: Discovered Scam

If it were another matter, Huang Xiaofei would still be wary. How could he easily transfer so much money directly to a foreign account?

Li Tianyu proudly listened to the cold female voice on the phone broadcast the amount in his bank account, but at this moment, the voice became so sweet. Li Tianyu really wanted to listen a few more times.

Did it become successful just like that? Li Tianyu was very proud. He hugged the "secretary," Xiao Li, on the side and kissed her face. "Xiao Li, this time, you are a great person of merit. Rest assured; in the future, even if I, Li Tianyu, live a petty life, I will not leave you alone!"

What Xiao Li wanted were these words from Li Tianyu. After listening to Li Tianyu's guarantee, she was very happy. She was finally integrated into the Li Family and became a member of the family. She also made a significant contribution to the family.

"Young Master Li, my performance was not bad, right...?" Da Niu was also proud as he scratched his scalp smugly, scratched his crotch, and said, "Am I a good General Kars?"

"En, your performance is not bad! Rest assured. I will definitely give you a bonus!" Li Tianyu nodded and said.

"That's great! Thank you, Young Master Li... pff ..." Da Niu farted and said embarrassed, "Young Master Li, I just sh*t halfway. My stomach still hurts... I..."

"Fine; quickly go!" Li Tianyu smiled and said, "You really can't do great things!"

"Hehe ... We have Young Master Li doing the great things. I am just Young Master Li's follower!" Da Niu smiled and ran to the toilet.

"This kid!" Li Tianyu shook his head. At this time, the phone rang. Li Tianyu made a silence gesture to Xiao Li and picked up the phone, "Hello?"

This notification ring this time was from Li Tianyu's private phone, so there was no need to call Xiao Li to pretend to be General Kars' secretary.

"Tianyu, it's me!" Li Zhichun's voice came over the phone.

"Father, hello!" Li Tianyu said quickly, "How was the performance on my side just now? Did it reveal any flaws?"

"No, everything is fine! Especially just now, when your secretary said that General Kars is in a meeting, and he will call me back, it was very arrogant! It gave off a little bit of feeling that General Kars is at the top! Not bad. It was worthy of praise!" said Li Zhichun.

" Ah !" Li Tianyu was stunned. He thought, Are you kidding me? We said this because Da Niu wanted to go to the toilet. I can't expect it to be arrogant. Of course, he would not reveal it. He just smiled and replied, "Yes, we have simulated it many times here and strive for the best results!"

" En , but Tianyu, this time, you made a great contribution. Isn't there forty billion patacas? You can take out one hundred million from it as your reward. You should give rewards to your few underlings, especially, your little lover was not bad. Reward what you must!" Li Zhichun was now very delighted. He had been looking down on Xiao Li in the past, but today was not the same. Xiao Li was also a great contributor.

"Thank you, Father!" When he heard that he could give himself one hundred million as a reward, Li Tianyu was very happy and gave thanks.

" En , no need for thanks!" Li Zhichun waved his hand and said, "You should make persistent efforts!"

"Do not worry, Father. Tell me at any time if there is such a thing in the future. I will cooperate!" Li Tianyu felt that this one hundred million was simply too easy to get.

Xiao Li was closer to Li Tianyu, so she heard Li Zhichun's words. When she heard Li Zhichun also praise her, Xiao Li was delighted.

.....

When Huang Xiaofei came home later, he found that both his sons were sitting on the sofa in the living room and suddenly wondered, "Rongtian, Rongjin, what are you doing?"

"Father, where did you go? Our little sister gave you the money, right? Why didn't it go to the company account?" Huang Rongtian had just checked the company's account, and there were no deposits at all.

" Hehe , since it came to this point, I will no longer hide from you guys!" Huang Xiaofei smiled and said, "Yes, I just went to the Li Family Group. I went to look into the gold mining contract! I also used Lele's money in the gold mining contract!"

"Father, why are you so ridiculous?" After listening to his father's words, Huang Rongtian was suddenly shocked and angered. "I have come around to the idea. Have you not come around to the idea? Country X's gold mine investment is an unrealistic idea fundamentally! Our Huang Family doesn't have the strength to participate in Country X. It is just a matter of time before others take advantage of us."

"Yes, Father!" Huang Rongjin also said, "How good are we doing legitimate business in China? Isn't it already a success!?"

"Whatever you say is also useless. I have already remitted the money to General Kars' account. The contracting of the gold mine has become a foregone conclusion and cannot be changed!" Huang Xiaofei waved and said, "You don't have to say anymore!"

"What?! The money has been remitted? How is it so fast?" Huang Rongtian listened to his father in disbelief.

"How can it be not fast? Isn't it just a contract? Isn't it done after the money is remitted?" said Huang Xiaofei.

"Father, you mean, you didn't go to Africa's Country X. You transferred the money over despite not seeing General Kars?" Huang Rongtian frowned. The matter had already arrived at this point, and he couldn't change it. Now, he thought about it. It was more about how to make things more secure.

"We don't have to go. The Li Family had already contacted. The contract will be sent over directly. It was faxed after I signed it," Huang Xiaofei said. "I transferred the money to General Kars' account; isn't the matter over already?"

"Can that be legitimate?" Huang Rongtian frowned. "Wouldn't the Li Family cheat on you?"

"Cheat on me?" Huang Xiaofei was stunned. He had never considered this question before. "It should not be, right? For what reason would he cheat on me? He was calling General Kars in front of me. I also personally spoke to General Kars. Could it be fake?"

"Are you sure that it was General Kars?" Huang Rongtian asked with some doubt.

"I..." Huang Xiaofei was worried by Huang Rongtian's words. "That should be the case, right? Moreover, his secretary also helped to transfer the phone?"

"What is the account they gave you?" Huang Rongtian couldn't be careless. After all, that was forty billion patacas! Now that what was done cannot be undone, they needed to be more secure.

"It's an African account. The account name is General Kars, which should not be wrong!" Huang Xiaofei said, "There should be no problem."

"Ai, I hope there is no problem!" Huang Rongtian shook his head and said, "Dad, how can you be so impulsive?"

"Hmph, it's not your turn to lecture me! Do I need to tell you what am I doing?" Huang Xiaofei said impatiently, "Now that we have a contract, we have to discuss how to manage the gold mine of Africa's Country X instead of complaining endlessly!"

Huang Rongtian looked helplessly at Huang Rongjin as he sighed and nodded, "Alright, Father, then you say it..."

Huang Xiaofei had been planning new development ideas for the Country X gold mine in the past few days, so he had already formed a very complete plan in his mind. Now that he said it, it opened the eyes of Huang Rongtian and Huang Rongjin!

Huang Xiaofei planned to increase the monthly gold production at the expense of the total output. As a result, although the entire mining life of the gold mine had decreased, the monthly income had significantly increased. It was twice as much as expected before!

If this continued, in less than two years, the gold mine would recover the cost, and later it would be pure profit! However, this plan was really effective in a war-torn country like Country X!

Because this time, no one could guarantee how long General Kars would be in power, so the gold mine was still facing the danger of being reclaimed. Hence, it was necessary to increase the intensity of mining and generate more profits in a limited time.

After listening to his father's ideas and analysis, Huang Rongtian also slowly accepted his father's approach. If it came as expected, then this business could still be done.

"Father, since the matter has come to this point, I think you should let Lele know first. After all, the money is hers." Huang Rongjin heard his father's idea, although he didn't know much about business, it sounded like it could also make money, so they could only accept their father's approach.

"Alright, I should talk to Lele. You should call Lele!" Huang Xiaofei was not afraid that Huang Lele would regret it. Since the money was remitted, even if Huang Lele regretted, she could not help it.

After Huang Lele learned about this, she did not make a big fuss with Huang Xiaofei. She just said, "I got it," and returned to her room.

At this moment, Huang Lele was utterly disappointed with her father. She did not expect her father to fall to the point of cheating her for money! Huang Lele also did not have the heart to listen to her father's ideas; she just let him be.

If she could exchange her father's guilt with no longer interfering with her own affairs from now on, then Huang Lele was content.

However, after a couple of days, Huang Xiaofei did not receive a call from Li Zhichun. He was anxious and quickly called Li Zhichun.

At this moment, Li Zhichun already transferred the money from this account to a safe account through his own channels. He was not afraid of what Huang Xiaofei could do.

"Hey? Mr. Huang, what's the matter?" said Li Zhichun.

"Mr. Li, what happened to the gold mine? When can we leave for Africa X to take over the gold mining?" Huang Xiaofei asked anxiously.

"About this, General Kars hasn't replied to me yet. I don't know. I think it should be sooner or later, right?" Li Zhichun said with a smile. He thought, Mining? What nonsense!

"That's good; then you should urge General Kars. If we start early, don't we make money sooner?" said Huang Xiaofei.

"En, that is true. Alright, I will contact General Kars again here!" said Li Zhichun.

"If there is news, let me know at the first moment!" Huang Xiaofei informed.

"No problem." Li Zhichun said this in his mouth, but he thought in his heart, Keep waiting. Even if you wait until you die, you won't get any news.

Huang Xiaofei waited for a day anxiously, but Li Zhichun still had no news. Huang Xiaofei's heart was also a little panicked. He quickly looked for Huang Rongtian and Huang Rongjin to analyze.

"Rongtian, Rongjin, you help me to think about it. Why is there no news from General Kars? The contract has been signed for a few days. Logically, there should be no problem, right?" Huang Xiaofei looked anxiously at his two sons.

"Father, what does the Li Family say?" Huang Rongtian asked.

"I just called the Li Family. Li Zhichun said General Kars had not contacted him yet." Huang Xiaofei continued, "I asked him to take the initiative to contact General Kars. He said that he would give me the news after the contact."

"Then, we can only wait for the news now!" Huang Rongtian sighed, "I am afraid that the Li Family is not reliable!"

"You reminded me previously... I did not take it seriously, but now that I think about it, it's really a little strange! No, I have to remind the Li Family again!" Speaking to this point, Huang Xiaofei picked up the phone again and dialed Li Zhichun's phone.

"Hello, Mr. Huang. Look, I just wanted to call you!" Li Zhichun's voice came from the phone.

" Oh ? Why do you want to call me?" Huang Xiaofei asked quickly.

"Yeah, it is like this. I called General Kars. He said there is a problem with the gold mine!" said Li Zhichun.

"How is the gold mine? When can we go mining?" Huang Xiaofei asked anxiously.

"There is something wrong with the gold mine. General Kars is finding some ways to solve it!" said Li Zhichun.

"Something wrong? What went wrong?" Huang Xiaofei's heart tightened and asked quickly.

"The gold mine was invaded by a group of unidentified armed forces. General Kars was finding some ways to drive the armed forces away!" said Li Zhichun.

" Ah ? It was occupied? What can we do? We are legal contractors!" Huang Xiaofei was surprised and said quickly.

"We are legal business contractors. Yes, General Kars did not say that we are not! But the gold mine is contracted to us, so logically, this is already a private dispute. It should be us who drives away these armed forces. It is very good that General Kars can help us to solve it. He only did that because of me!"

"When can we go to the gold mine?" Huang Xiaofei asked hurriedly.

"I don't know about this. We have to wait for news from General Kars!" said Li Zhichun.

" Aiya , how did this happen? How come out such a thing happened?" Huang Xiaofei asked helplessly.

"I can't help it. Who knows how this happened?!" Li Zhichun said very helplessly.

"That's fine; then when you have the news, tell me as soon as possible!" Huang Xiaofei had to hang up.

"Father, what's the matter? What does the Li Family say?" Huang Rongtian also heard that something was wrong, and asked Huang Xiaofei after he hung up the call.

“Li Zhichun said that the gold mine was occupied by a group of armed forces. General Kars was finding some ways to take them...” Huang Xiaofei sighed.

“That can’t be. If this gold mine is occupied, I don’t know when we can get it back. The contract money has been paid. How about we get the money back first?” Huang Rongtian was also worried. Wouldn’t the money be gone again in this situation?

“You are right! It can’t be. I have to call Li Zhichun again and talk to him about this!” Huang Xiaofei nodded, picked up the phone again and dialed Li Zhichun’s phone number.

“Hello? Mr. Huang, how come you called again?” Li Zhichun also faintly felt that Huang Xiaofei had noticed something, but he was not sure, so he spoke calmly.

“This is the case. Mr. Li, look. Africa’s Country X is war-torn. Can you see if you can talk to General Kars to return our money first?” Huang Xiaofei probed, “After things over there are settled, can we pay the money again?”

“How is this possible? Do you think it is a game for children to play house? You can still remit the money and ask for a refund. General Kars isn’t an idle person. How does he have the time to do these things for us?” Li Zhichun vehemently rejected. “Moreover, they have contracted the gold mine to us very cheaply. Wouldn’t he get pissed with our indecisiveness? If he did not want to contract to us, what should we do? Again, this is fickle. If General Kars is annoyed, he does not give the gold mine to us, and the money is not refunded. Wouldn’t we suffer the bitter end silently?”

“ Ah ... this...” Huang Xiaofei listened to Li Zhichun’s words and began to worry a bit. Indeed, common sense didn’t apply to this war-torn country.

“So, let’s wait quietly for the results!” Li Zhichun saw Huang Xiaofei was speechless from his words, and his heart was very proud.

“This way, then okay.” Indeed, Huang Xiaofei did not know what to say. He had to agree with Li Zhichun dejectedly.

“En , that’s it. I have something to do; if there is news, I will inform you at the first moment!” said Li Zhichun.

“Alright, we can only be like this!” Huang Xiaofei sighed, and now the initiative was completely in the hands of others. He had no other ways at all.

“Okay, goodbye. I still have a meeting!” Li Zhichun hung up.

“Hello? Hello?” Huang Xiaofei still wanted to say something. Seeing Li Zhichun had already hung up the phone, he had to remove the phone from his ear helplessly.

En ? Huang Xiaofei suddenly discovered that the phone call time tracker was still running. Did Li Zhichun not hang up the phone? Huang Xiaofei quickly put the phone to his ear and said, “Hello, hello? Mr. Li?”

“... Hey , this silly Huang Xiaofei. It seems that he still didn’t realize that he was fooled!” There was a man’s voice on the phone. It sounded like Li Zhichun’s son, Li Tianjia!

“...Yeah, I brushed him off with the reason that General Kars will not refund, but he will definitely call again!” This time, the speaker was Li Zhichun.

“...but what if he calls again?” Li Tianjia asked.
