Chapter 1171: Let Him Go Die

Zhang Jingyao also understood Yang Ming's words; that was, in his local cooperation with the Huang Family, Yang Ming wanted him to make some concessions. On the other hand, Yang Ming could give him an easy way in his matters in Africa!

Zhang Jingyao emerged as a punk, but he was still very clear-headed. He immediately understood the rationale behind it! Yang Ming wanted him to abandon the small profit here in exchange for the big profit there!

Zhang Jingyao's purpose was very simple. He wanted to complete his own money laundering process with the gold mine in Africa. The benefits generated there were very large, and it was incomparable to the little concessions here!

Therefore, Zhang Jingyao did not mind cooperating with the Huang Family in the local business with the Huang Family as lead and make some concessions in interest as long as he put the main focus on the gold mine in Country X in Africa.

However, Zhang Jingyao was not stupid. He would not let go of his interests without any reason. At least, he had to make sure that Yang Ming really had the ability to make the call in Africa.

Although Zhang Jingyao felt that Yang Ming did not need to lie to him, according to Yang Ming's skill, it was most likely true that Yang Ming knew General Kars.

"I heard that General Kars has recovered all the mines and intends to redistribute them." Zhang Jingyao prompted. He got the news from Li Zhichun that General Kars had recovered all the mines and was ready for business distribution.

"En , they've been all retrieved." Yang Ming nodded.

"What about the Huang Family's gold mine?" This was what Zhang Jingyao wanted to ask.

"What do you think?" Yang Ming smiled. "In fact, in addition to this gold mine, I have several other mines, diamond mines and the like. Kars, this poor guy, has no money, so I have to take the gold mine to pay off the debt."

Zhang Jingyao clicked his tongue. Sure enough, Yang Ming is different. Others' gold mines are taken back, but General Kars took the initiative to give him other mines. Moreover, is he the only person who dares to call General Kars' name?

But after thinking about it, it was not surprising. The forces represented by Yang Ming would not be afraid of General Kars, but General Kars would be afraid of Yang Ming.

Although Yang Ming did not let Huang Rongjin alarm other people, Huang Rongjin still reported the matter to Huang Xiaofei. After Huang Xiaofei heard it, although he was worried, there was no other way.

In the past, he and Zhang Jingyao had minded their own business. Both of them were doing different things; there was no intersection at all. However, in terms of power, Zhang Jingyao's influence in the local area was much stronger than that of Huang Xiaofei.

Once upon a time, they had power, but now, the Huang Family had lost power. Zhang Jingyao would not put Huang Xiaofei in his eyes. At this moment, Huang Xiaofei was looking for people, but they couldn't find people to get in touch with.

After a few phone calls, when the other parties heard that Zhang Jingyao was involved, they all euphemistically apologized. Some people even ignored Huang Xiaofei. Before he finished the phone call, they hurriedly hung up the phone with an excuse that something came up.

"Father, how is it?" Huang Rongjin asked worriedly.

"Now, you know the situation of the Huang Family. Those old friends, good friendships, placated me, saying that Zhang Jingyao's power was too big, so they couldn't help. Moreover, those that I don't have a good relationship with simply hung up the phone..." Huang Xiaofei sighed. "Actually, even if our Huang Family was in its flourishing period, it could not compete with Zhang Jingyao."

"How about... we report to the police?" Huang Rongjin really had no other solution.

"Report to the police?" Huang Xiaofei smiled bitterly, "It's not that you don't know what Zhang Jingyao is doing. Reporting to the police is useful for a while, but what about the future? Things still need to be solved!"

"Yang Ming said that this is nothing; he can handle it well. It seems that we can only rely on him..." Huang Rongjin had some helplessness, but it could only be like this.

"On this side, he is not familiar with other people. He only knows our Huang Family. What can he do?" Huang Xiaofei was also anxious. After all, he still expected Yang Ming to help him solve the problem in Africa. If Yang Ming encountered some difficulties here, and there was some accident, it would directly affect the development of the Huang Family in the future.

"I'm also not sure..." Huang Rongjin shook his head.

"Ai, I can only call again and look for old friends... See if anyone can lobby for us." Huang Xiaofei picked up the phone book again and looked at it, but he did not find any valuable friends that could be contacted.

The two of them were still anxious when suddenly a horn was sounded from the outside of the villa. Huang Xiaofei was surprised. He stood up, walked to the window, and looked down. He saw a Mercedes Benz RV [1] in the front of the villa, wanting to enter the villa.

At this time, who can visit? The people who drive this kind of car are wealthy and respectable. Therefore, Huang Xiaofei would get up. If it were during the Huang Family's flourishing period, naturally, guests would keep coming, and it was not surprising for any luxury car to appear. But now, many people could not wait to leave the Huang Family. How could someone visit?

If Huang Xiaofei remembered it well, at least, during the time of his discharge from hospital, no guests had visited for more than half a month. The Huang Family lost power, and most people remained at a respectable distance. In fact, Huang Xiaofei could understand this.

No one wanted to be related to the current Huang Family, which was on the verge of breaking down.

“Who came?” Huang Rongjin was also very puzzled as he looked outside of the villa and shook his head.

At this time, a domestic servant ran out to open the gate, and the Mercedes-Benz RV[1] slowly entered the compound of the Huang Family villa.

“Let’s go down and take a look.” Huang Xiaofei said to Huang Rongjin. At this time, no matter who came, it was someone that thought highly of the Huang Family, so Huang Xiaofei naturally had to greet them.

In any case, the people who could drive such a car were wealthy and respectable. Huang Xiaofei naturally had to approach them with a friendly attitude.

Of course, Huang Rongjin knew this. When Huang Xiaofei quickly went downstairs and went to the villa’s yard, the Mercedes-Benz RV[1] had parked. Because the windows were covered with a black reflective film and could not be seen through, they did not know who was sitting in the car.

The driver’s door was opened, and Black Bear jumped out from the car. Huang Rongjin recognized him in surprise. Black Bear was the person who just looked for and left with Yang Ming!

Huang Xiaofei also knew Black Bear, and he was suddenly shocked. Could it be that this person came to look for trouble? I just heard Huang Rongjin talk about the previous thing, and now Black Bear is back...

After Black Bear got off, he did not look at Huang Xiaofei but quickly ran to the door of the RV [1] at the back. The automatic door of the rear compartment opened slowly. Black Bear stood respectfully, waiting for the person inside the vehicle to come out.

Zhang Jingyao and got off the RV with Zhang Xiaonao to the horror of Huang Xiaofei and Huang Rongjin. However, they were even more surprised when they heard Zhang Jingyao talking to the person in the car politely, “Mr. Yang, we have reached the Huang Family’s villa...”

Yang Ming was whispering about some interesting junior high school stories with Wang Xiaoyan, so he did not look outside the window. At this time, he heard Zhang Jingyao call for him, so he nodded and got off with Wang Xiaoyan.

Seeing Yang Ming and Wang Xiaoyan intact, Huang Rongjin’s eyes were wide-opened. Especially when he saw Zhang Jingyao’s attitude towards Yang Ming, Huang Rongjin was even more amazed!

Huang Xiaofei didn’t expect that one day Zhang Jingyao would stand in front of him so politely to talk to him. After a long time, he calmed down and quickly reached out and said, “Hello... Mr. Zhang...”

Zhang Jingyao did not care about Huang Xiaofei forgetting his manners. He patted Zhang Xiaonao, who was next to him. “Xiaonao, get friendly with Rongjin. In the future, you guys will be good friends and will often hang out together!”

Huang Rongjin suddenly had some inexplicable feelings. How come Zhang Xiaonao became my friend? Isn't he mingling with Li Tianjia? Before he could put much thought into it, Zhang Xiaonao walked over and bitterly smiled a bit. "I apologize for being rude before... Please don't take it to heart... I am such a person, very carefree. Whatever my dad wants me to do, I will do it..."

Initially, Huang Rongjin's impression of Zhang Xiaonao was very poor, but listening to Zhang Xiaonao's foolish truths, Huang Rongjin did not despise him as much.

Although this person was foolish, at least, he was not so treacherous, and even a little stupid. But he also said that what he did was entirely his father's will.

Huang Rongjin didn't understand why the Zhang Family suddenly came to visit the Huang Family and express goodwill to the Huang Family... it could even be said they came to please!

"You, kid, have no brain; you must learn from him!" Zhang Jingyao did not forget to scold Zhang Xiaonao.

"Uncle Huang, Mr. Zhang came to talk about cooperation with the Huang Family this time." Yang Ming saw that Huang Xiaofei was a little astonished, so Yang Ming explained to him, "Mr. Zhang can give great support to the Huang Family's local enterprises. Right, Mr. Zhang?"

"Yes, yes!" Zhang Jingyao said after listening to Yang Ming's words, "I heard that the guys in the bank are coming to collect debts. I will call them in a moment to ask them to be more well-behaved... Oh, I will call now... Which bank is this?"

Hesitating, Huang Xiaofei told the name of the bank to Zhang Jingyao. Zhang Jingyao really did as he said. He took out his mobile phone promptly and dialed a number. "Hello, is it Bank President Zheng? I am Zhang Jingyao... About the loan of the Huang Family, don't chase them so tightly... En, it's my guarantee. If there is any problem, you can find me later. If he has no money, I will pay it for him. Tomorrow, I will call a lawyer to go through the guarantee procedure..."

After the phone call, Zhang Jingyao smiled at Huang Xiaofei kindly. "Okay, it is solved, and those companies that have rescinded an agreement with you will regret it."

Huang Xiaofei was faced with the enthusiasm of Zhang Jingyao. He really didn't know what to say. After a long time, he said, "Mr. Zhang, aren't you and Mr. Li partners?"

"Oh, Li Zhichun? Let him go die." Zhang Jingyao snorted. In his opinion, Li Zhichun was not far from death. With Yang Ming's identity and skill, it was a strange thing that Li Zhichun was not dead.

Therefore, it was better to be as far away as possible from such a person to avoid being implicated as well.

Chapter 1172: Wake up with a Start

After Huang Xiaofei and Huang Rongjin listened to Li Zhichun's words, they were suddenly stunned! They did not even anticipate that Zhang Jingyao, who had a friendly business relationship with Li Zhichun this morning, would say that!

"Don't be surprised. I still feel that it is safer to work with Mr. Yang!" Zhang Jingyao smiled and said.

Huang Rongjin knew that Yang Ming's ability was always highlighted inexplicably. It seemed that there was nothing he couldn't solve! From Song Jiang to Macau to Africa, and finally, to his own home, Yang Ming would always solve many troubles perfectly.

Therefore, in addition to being surprised, Huang Rongjin was used to seeing the unexpected.

However, Huang Xiaofei did not personally experience Yang Ming's matter, so at this moment, he had a new perception of Yang Ming! In the past, he also had some doubts about Yang Ming's ability, but he was completely relieved now.

Huang Xiaofei even mocked himself. He initially thought that letting Huang Lele marry Li Tianjia was her best ending. Now it seemed that it was a huge mistake!

Yang Ming casually went out for a trip, then he got Zhang Jingyao to change his mind and abandon his former partner, Li Zhichun, aside. How powerful was that?!

Huang Rongtian was also shocked by the fact that Zhang Jingyao came to his house as a guest, but Huang Lele was self-satisfied. Although she didn't know much about business, she knew after seeing the expression of her father and two older brothers that the Huang Family successfully reversed the situation and broke away from the predicament of the previous period.

Of course, all of these happened while Li Zhichun was still oblivious about it. He was still proud, thinking that Zhang Jingyao would send people to clean up Yang Ming!

Zhao Ying was very upset during this time... She often was inexplicably dazed.

"Yingying, what are you thinking about?" Sun Jie poked Zhao Ying with her finger. Now it was time for lecture, but Zhao Ying's mind had wandered off...

In general, students who could be enrolled as postgraduate studies were students with excellent academic performance. They would not skip class nor be absent-minded when they were in class. In particular, this elective course was voluntary. Since they were here, why wouldn't they want to learn more?

Otherwise, it was better not to come! At least, Sun Jie had this sort of mindset. When she learned that Zhao Ying became a graduate student after she was a school teacher, she even thought that Zhao Ying would not just come to university to pass the time.

"Ah!" Zhao Ying was shocked and returned to reality from her illusory thoughts. Yang Ming had not contacted her for half a month. In the past, even if there were nothing special, they would often send each other text messages to get in touch.

Now... Zhao Ying looked at the inbox of her mobile phone. In addition to the messages sent by her family, it was Sun Jie and Xiao Qing. Recently, the three people often mingled together. The friendship between women was actually easy to build. They strolled around and ate meals together, so they got along very well. It was especially true when Zhao Ying, Sun Jie, and Xiao Qing were beautiful and smart girls, and they had no sense of inferiority between them. No one was a foil to another. Wherever they went, they were dazzling. This relationship was relatively solid.

Her mobile phone vibrated, and Zhao Ying's heart trembled a little. She quickly picked up the mobile phone and read the new message, but it was a "diploma agent" advertising message... Zhao Ying had no choice but to press the delete key.

Just now, Zhao Ying really couldn't help it. She sent a text message to Yang Ming... After all, the two people were now in a state of a cold war. Zhao Ying was embarrassed to take the initiative to contact Yang Ming, but once she calmed down and thought about it, there was really nothing between the two of them, right?

In addition to a little bit of flirting, Yang Ming did not need to take responsibility for anything for Zhao Ying since nothing had really happened... Hence, Zhao Ying finally couldn't help but send a text message to Yang Ming.

Although this time she was a bit resentful of Yang Ming's lack of attention, she calmed down after a long time. She took the initiative to send a message to Yang Ming, but she did not receive any replies after waiting for a long time.

Over several consecutive nights, Zhao Ying would wake up from her dreams. In the dream, it was always that moonlight night... that moment... she was about to kiss Yang Ming, but she suddenly froze...

When she woke up, she was already bursting into tears.

Zhao Ying finally admitted that she regretted it. If she were decisive at the beginning, would she still have trouble now? She would not cry when she was alone on that road every time.

Sometimes, the decision of a person in an instant is really important. It might affect the happiness of a lifetime.

In particular, Zhao Ying was utterly lost because she did not know how to salvage her decision.

Zhao Ying had forced herself not to think about the matter with Yang Ming and Wang Xiaoyan. When she really got through it, it was nothing. She was not anyone in particular to Yang Ming before, nor had she the right to interfere with who Yang Ming should be with.

What she had portrayed was really a little impulsive.

Even if Wang Xiaoyan was her good friend, and even if she was with Yang Ming, what about it?

Thinking about it, it was really nothing... She had complicated everything.

Sometimes, it is still better to be simpler. The simpler it is, the happier it is.

"Yingying, why are you always absent-minded?" Sun Jie looked at the distracted Zhao Ying and shook her head helplessly. "It's been several times. What happened to you? Are you uncomfortable? Or..."

"Nothing... Little Jie... I might be too tired during this time..." Zhao Ying sighed with a bitter smile.

"Tired? How can you be tired? The graduate course is not very intensive..." Sun Jie looked at Zhao Ying with suspicion. Intuitively, she felt that Zhao Ying did not give the real reason.

"Hehe ... maybe I slept too late at night..." After Zhao Ying finished speaking, even she felt that she was somewhat unreasonable. She should be yawning when she slept late. It had nothing to do with being absent-minded.

"Yingying, do you think our relationship is not close enough?" Sun Jie was actually a person who liked gossip. Of course, it was only limited to people who she was familiar with.

"No, we are good sisters... There are just some things that I don't know what to say... it is very difficult to speak of..." Zhao Ying took a deep breath. "If you want to listen to me... then I will tell you later after the lecture. Also, you can give me some ideas too..."

"Well, come to my house tonight, and then talk to me! Hmm... I will ask Xiao Qing to see if she has time..." Sun Jie looked at Zhao Ying and guessed. "Are you having a relationship problem?"

"You... how do you know?" Zhao Ying was shocked. Her eyes widened, and her face flushed.

"I can judge from your face. In addition to relationship problems, what else can make you distracted?" Sun Jie smiled.

"Right, Little Jie, I haven't you see your boyfriend. Do you have a boyfriend?" Zhao Ying's worry was exposed, so she asked about Sun Jie.

"I ah ... boyfriend... En

, I still have him in the trial period. I haven't officially promised him yet." Sun Jie thought of Yang Ming and replied with a slight smile.

"Trial period? How about you bring him here for me to assess one day?" Zhao Ying came to interest. In fact, girls liked gossip...

"Sure, there will always be a chance." Sun Jie nodded. "But let me talk about your problem first."

"I..." As Zhao Ying just wanted to speak, Xiao Qing's coughing came from the stage.

"* Cough *... What I am about to explain later is very important. I hope everyone will listen carefully. If there is any matter, you can discuss it after class!" Xiao Qing smiled and moved her eyes to Sun Jie. "Sun Jie, answer this question..."

Sun Jie glared at Xiao Qing. What is the abuse of authority for private interests? This is purely abusing your authority for private interests! I will settle the score with you tonight! Sun Jie thought indignantly.

However, at this moment, in front of her classmates, Sun Jie still stood up and answered the questions somewhat helplessly before Xiao Qing. Sun Jie seemed to be chatting with Zhao Ying, but her eyes were still on the computer screen in front of her.

Xiao Qing nodded, indicating that Sun Jie could sit down, then she continued the lecture.

Sun Jie and Zhao Ying were definitely the highlights of the postgraduate class. Xiao Qing was a teacher. Although she looked very young, she was definitely not the target that ordinary students could reach. In their view, Sun Jie and Zhao Ying were more realistic.

In the past, many of those who enrolled in postgraduate school forgot to find a partner to focus on studying. At this time and age, postgraduate students started to think about lifelong events. Therefore, Sun Jie and Zhao Ying naturally became everyone's targets.

Every day, someone would send flowers, and then get rejected. Those who sent flowers had a broken heart while the bystanders were delighted. Someone else's loss signified a chance for them to succeed.

However, the most diligent suitors were Fan Jinzhe, Tang Jiaqian, and Chen Piaoyi. Chen Piaoyi pursued Zhao Ying; Tang Jiaqian pursued Sun Jie, but Fan Jinzhe pursued them both.

Therefore, naturally, the three formed two factions. Tang Jiaqian and Chen Piaoyi had different targets. There was no conflict of interest, but Fan Jinzhe was different. He wanted to pursue both of them, so he was regarded as the common enemy.

In fact, Fan Jinzhe was also a big shot. He was a celebrity in the Song Jiang Industry University. He started his business when he was a freshman. He started his business with ten thousand yuan as a college student, and now he had a mediocre Internet company.

When he was free, he liked to read web novels, and he was even a little addicted. He was very fond of the life of the protagonist with multiple wives, so he also planned to find a few girlfriends.

However, he really achieved this in real life. Now he had two girlfriends. One was a small nurse at the medical university, and the other was the female secretary in the company. Rumors had it that the two women had met each other, and they got along well!

Therefore, in the school, Fan Jinzhe was abhorred by male compatriots. They felt that he was wasting resources. However, many people still envied him and thought that he lived his life like a fairy.

This time, he pursued both Sun Jie and Zhao Ying again, which had incited public anger!

Chapter 1173: Looking for Someone to Talk To Fan Jinzhe thought that Sun Jie and Zhao Ying were much stronger than his secretary and little nurse; they were totally on a different level.

No matter if it were the body or appearance, they weren't comparable to the two. Therefore, Fan Jinzhe was amazed abruptly. He decided to hold them in his arms.

Looking back at the two girlfriends before him, they were literally ugly. Although they were very fashionable, they still couldn't conceal poor taste. Sun Jie and Zhao Ying were equally beautiful even without makeup.

Didn't the novels describe that women like men who started their own businesses? They didn't like the rich second generation ¹ [1]. Therefore, Fan Jinzhe was quite confident.

He had made a small company into a large company with hundreds of thousands or even millions of dollars. This was enough for him to be proud of himself! Although he wasn't a rich second generation, he also had abundant capital.

It was said that his grandfather was the president of the former university. Nowadays, many students were not senior officials but wealthy businessmen. They could provide many resources for Fan Jinzhe. Therefore, although he was not a rich second generation, he had a lot of resources from his uncles like the rich second generation.

Because of this, he had successfully obtained the university's student entrepreneurship fund set up by the school. Otherwise, how could it be so easy for him to apply for this fund? If anyone could apply, the foundation would be long gone.

This was why Fang Jinzhe felt prouder than others. Of course, although he was arrogant and disgusting, no one dared to touch him. It was said that the school's student director was now a student of Fan Jinzhe's grandfather. He even took Fan Jinzhe as his godson, so not many people dared to provoke Fan Jinzhe in the school.

In society, Fan Jinzhe was reputable too. It was said that he had an uncle who was a contractor. He had a large group of thugs under him. When Fan Jinzhe was in high school, he provoked the students from a neighboring sports school. After that, they gathered a lot of people blocking him at the school gate.

As a result, Fan Jinzhe gathered a lot of tattooed macho men with sticks and iron bars in their hands with just a phone call. They beat up those sports students without saying anything. They even broke the legs of a sports student who practiced long-distance running!

After the fight, the leading macho man also said some ruthless words, "I'm letting you go by just injuring you. If you were a migrant worker, I would have killed you already!"

These sports students also knew that they had encountered people who couldn't be provoked. The sports student whose legs were broken was compensated with some money. He didn't have any dissatisfaction after staying in the hospital for half a year.

These sports students were also a part of the underworld. They often went to bars and discos, so they had a certain understanding of the underworld people. After inquiring, they got to know that Fan Jinzhe's uncle, Li Xuegao, was this famous big punk, an underling of Yu Xiangde. Who dared to provoke such a person?

From this, it could be seen how capable Fan Jinzhe was! Tang Jiaqian and Chen Piaoyi had also heard of this rumor, so even if Fan Jinzhe was overdoing it, they were just being sarcastic in speech. They didn't dare to touch this Fan Jinzhe!

Therefore, this was why Fan Jinzhe had no fear. Although Fan Jinzhe's uncle, Li Xuegao, wasn't as powerful after the fall of Yu Xiangde, Fan Jinzhe didn't have to worry about the matter in that aspect.

He only knew that it was already enough since there were still a group of thugs under Li Xuegao to help him solve campus conflicts. As for any higher levels of conflict, Fan Jinzhe still didn't have the chance to encounter any yet.

Fan Jinzhe had been thinking during these days trying to come up with a more reasonable pursuit plan.

For girls like Sun Jie and Zhao Ying, it was obviously difficult to impress them in the general way of pursuit. After Fan Jinzhe's attempt on the first day, he began to plan for a safer approach.

Seeing Tang Jiaqian and Chen Piaoyi return with disappointment, Fan Jinzhe wanted to laugh especially. This kind of pursuit wouldn't work even if they tried for ten thousand years!

Girls like Sun Jie and Zhao Ying had long grown up under the harassment of suitors. They had become numb to these suitors, so they wouldn't be tempted at all. Therefore, one must use a unique approach to impress them to pursue them and capture their hearts!

Either one had to be incredibly romantic, or extremely unique... But when it came to romance... Fan Jinzhe didn't dare to make a move. What if someone else had used such a romance approach before? Then, it would have no effect.

As for the uniqueness... Fan Jinzhe really didn't think anything could be special. However, Fan Jinzhe also thought of an idea which worked almost a hundred percent of the time since ancient times.

That was "hero saves the beauty!" No matter in what era, when the beauty was in trouble, a hero appeared all of a sudden and saved the beauty. This was a very touching thing.

Therefore, what Fan Jinzhe was thinking about was how to plan a "hero saves the beauty" scene. He could wait for Sun Jie and Zhao Ying to have trouble, and only then make a move.

However, this opportunity was obviously quite small. The quality of the graduate students wouldn't be low, so it was difficult to see annoying guys like those he met in high school. Fan Jinzhe wanted to act bad*ss, but he didn't have the chance.

Usually in school, although some rebellious teenagers who had just entered college were more arrogant, few people dared to flirt openly with female students in school, so Fan Jinzhe was still unable to find a solution.

For the roles of Tang Jiaqian and Chen Piaoyi, Sun Jie and Zhao Ying could chase them off by themselves. If he made a move again, it was simply unnecessary. It would incur hatred from others instead.

After class, Fan Jinzhe looked at Tang Jiaqian and Chen Piaoyi who came to Sun Jie and Zhao Ying and shook his head. The two men were doomed to fail. There was no suspense at all.

Sure enough, Zhao Ying and Sun Jie stood up and ignored Tang Jiaqian and Chen Piaoyi, and they left the classroom while holding their hands. Holding hands between girls didn't cause any sensation. It could only be said that the relationship between them was better, but if two men were holding hands, it was a bit...

Tang Jiaqian and Chen Piaoyi turned around, dejected; Fan Jinzhe smiled happily instead. Seeing the failure of others, he seemed to see his own success.

Zhao Ying and Sun Jie waited for Xiao Qing at the school gate. Xiao Qing had to answer students' questions after class, so she couldn't leave immediately. They waited for almost half an hour to see Xiao Qing trotting over.

When the three people were together, Xiao Qing felt that she was also younger. At least, she did not have the stability of being a teacher at school. When she knew that Zhao Ying was also a teacher, she was more open.

"Sister Xiao Qing, why are you so slow?!" Zhao Ying's legs were a bit sour from standing there.

"Isn't it because I was being entangled by students after class?" Xiao Qing shook her head helplessly. "I have announced in the QQ group to have them ask questions in the group, but... this habit of asking questions after class still can't be changed."

"Let's go and find a place to eat something. I am starving." Sun Jie lazily stretched out, revealing the spectacular curve of her chest.

"You really; your chest is too big. They are absorbing too many nutrients. Why aren't Zhao Ying and I hungry?" Xiao Qing talked sarcastically to Sun Jie. With Zhao Ying joining the group, Xiao Qing also changed from her initial calm to fooling around.

After all, a few girls were more relaxed together.

"When I am in class, you always make a show of me. I haven't discussed this with you yet. Now you talk about my chest? Are you envious?" Sun Jie didn't feel that her chest made her lose face at all. Others wanted them to be so big, but they couldn't.

So many celebrities were fighting to get breast enhancements. When did someone ever say that she wanted to reduce the weight on her chest?

"Envious?" Xiao Qing snorted. "Do you think that you can find a better man with your chest? Aren't you the same as me?"

Sun Jie glanced at Xiao Qing, indicating that Zhao Ying was there, so she shouldn't make it obvious... Xiao Qing covered her mouth and grinned instead.

Zhao Ying was really somewhat inexplicable. "Sister Xiao Qing, what are you saying? What find a man?"

"Nothing. Just kidding," Xiao Qing put away her smile. Indeed, some things still couldn't be told to Zhao Ying. At least, not at this stage. Although the three were already very close, it was related to the privacy of her and Sun Jie. She couldn't simply talk about it.

"Oh ... then since Little Jie is hungry, let's go to eat." Zhao Ying had worries in her mind now, so she didn't ask much, and she didn't think much about it.

Since Sun Jie had Zhao Ying as her friend, she didn't drive her original Audi R8 sports car anymore. She replaced it with a red Audi Q7 [1]. Because it was more conspicuous, she parked it on a small street by the entrance of the school every day and didn't enter the school gate.

After the three people got in the car, Sun Jie started it. Yesterday, they said that they would go to eat Cantonese food today. The nearest famous Cantonese cuisine in the vicinity was twenty minutes away by car.

They weren't picky eaters, so any kind of food would be delicious to them. Because Zhao Ying was going to Sun Jie's house tonight, Xiao Qing didn't go back and stayed directly in Sun Jie's home.

Sun Jie's place was larger than Xiao Qing's single apartment, but it was similar to Zhao Ying's new house. Now, Zhao Ying felt a bit awkward living in her house alone after having a conflict with Yang Ming.

Although the broadband network was installed, the netizen who could chat with her didn't go online. She private messaged him a few times, but he didn't reply. Seeing that he didn't go online for a long time, Zhao Ying had worries, but she had no one to talk to. She didn't know who she should talk to.

Today, Zhao Ying and Sun Jie talked about this matter, so Zhao Ying just found someone who she could confide in. Zhao Ying also wanted to discuss it with Sun Jie, and let her and Xiao Qing help her to get some ideas.

"I will take a shower first. You guys play first..." Sun Jie threw the TV's remote control to Zhao Ying. "I just bought a new Super Mario Bros game disk that can support four people playing together. You two can play first..."

Chapter 1174: Gender Equality

Although Zhao Ying had played games like Super Mario as a child, she was still very curious about the kids' games of this era. But at the moment, how could she be in the mood to think about this?

In fact, Xiao Qing also noticed Zhao Ying's thoughts, but they were out before, and she was embarrassed to ask. Now when she returned home, there was not as much to be concerned with. She hesitated a little while before she opened her mouth. "Yingying, is there something bothering you?"

"Ah ... Sister Xiao Qing, you noticed it too?" Zhao Ying did not expect Xiao Qing to notice it. In fact, in school, most of the time, Zhao Ying was with Sun Jie. It was reasonable to say that Sun Jie noticed her joys and sorrows, but Xiao Qing was very busy every day. In addition to the class, she had to deal with matters in the department. As a result, her contact with Zhao Ying was only limited to dinner at night usually.

"When you were in class, you were absent-minded. You had been whispering with Sun Jie. Don't think that I didn't see it." Xiao Qing smiled and said.

"So that is the case..." Zhao Ying's face was red, and suddenly, she remembered that when she was a teacher, the little movements of the students were actually seen clearly from the podium.

"You have also been a teacher. You should be naturally clear, right?" Xiao Qing took the TV remote control from Zhao Ying's hand and placed it on the coffee table next to her. Then, she kicked off the slippers and hugged her legs on the sofa. "Is it a relationship issue?"

"Yeah? Is it so apparent?" Zhao Ying did not understand how she could let Xiao Qing see through it.

"When you are at this age, what else can women have besides relationship issues?" Xiao Qing looked at Zhao Ying calmly and said, "I also used to be your age. Besides this, what else can be bothering you?"

"Ai ... Sister Xiao Qing, you tell me. Should I not care too much about feelings? Should I concentrate on my studies?" Zhao Ying thought about her own imaginary love, and she was immediately discouraged.

It was hard to have hope finally, but now it was turned into disappointment. She always lingered between hope and disappointment, and it was always repeating. Like a strange cycle, she could not escape, nor could she change it.

"From a teacher's point of view, you are right. As a student, you should focus on academics. But as a friend... Some words, I still have to say. This love thing, sometimes, once it's missed, you really can't find it again." Xiao Qing also thought of her own life... Song Hang? It can't be said to be love... What I really didn't want to miss is actually the present.

However, she only dared to expose her feelings for Yang Ming in front of Sun Jie. She could not confess to Zhao Ying about it. However, as long as Yang Ming graduated from college and was no longer a student, everything would become much better.

"Yeah... I missed it..." Zhao Ying also kicked off her slippers, curled up on the sofa, and her gaze was a little lost.

"Yingying, what are you talking about?" Xiao Qing frowned and looked at Zhao Ying puzzled.

"You already missed it? What do you mean?" Xiao Qing asked a little baffled.

"How is the game? Which level are you at?" Sun Jie wore pink pajamas, wiping her hair with a bath towel as she walked over.

"We're not playing. I am discussing relationship issues with Yingying!" Xiao Qing waved at Sun Jie.

"Didn't we say that we will talk about it when we go to sleep tonight? How did you start talking about it first?" Sun Jie ran quickly and sat on the sofa. "What have you said up to?"

"We didn't say anything, and you ran out." Xiao Qing shrugged. "It's my turn to bathe. You accompany Yingying to play for a while; wait for me to come out."

"Okay." Sun Jie nodded. She turned on the TV with the remote control, switched to a component signal, turned on the game console, and handed a controller to Zhao Ying.

Zhao Ying's mood was not very good, but when she saw Sun Jie's enthusiasm, she went along and started playing. Although the operation was different from the previous version, it added a lot of somatosensory operations. This cross-board game was easy to get the hang of.

Unknowingly, Xiao Qing came out of the bathroom, and it was Zhao Ying's turn to take a shower. So Zhao Ying handed the controller to Xiao Qing and walked to the bathroom.

"Has Yang Ming recently contacted you?" When Zhao Ying entered the bathroom, Xiao Qing asked Sun Jie softly.

"No, didn't he go to work in Africa? Why? You miss him?" Sun Jie smiled and looked at Xiao Qing. "It seems that our sister, Sister Xiao Qing, is also experiencing relationship problems!"

"Don't talk nonsense." Xiao Qing glared at Sun Jie. "Normal worries only. There has been no news for a long time. Don't you worry?"

"Me? What is there for me to worry about? Yang Ming, this person, don't look at how carefree he is all the time. He is actually really amazing!" Sun Jie now thought more highly of Yang Ming.

"En, this is true." Xiao Qing was more in favor of Sun Jie's point of view. Indeed, Yang Ming was more sophisticated and calm than his age, although he often seemed not serious.

"Let's play games. We will talk about him again when Yingying is not here. Don't let her know... Otherwise, it's a little shameful." Sun Jie pressed the start button of the game.

"What's so shameful about that?" Xiao Qing grinned.

"Isn't it shameful to steal a man?" Sun Jie snorted. "But I am planning to give up."

Xiao Qing naturally did not take Sun Jie's words seriously. Whether or not Sun Jie liked Yang Ming, she could still see it. Although Sun Jie did not admit it, it was also an established fact.

Zhao Ying entered the bathroom and took off her clothes. She did not forget to take her phone out. She was afraid that Yang Ming would reply to her message, so she went into the shower and placed the phone on the shelf next to it.

However, the mobile phone did not ring. Zhao Ying had checked the message records several times, and she had not sent it to the wrong recipient. In addition to several advertisements in the inbox, she had not received any new messages today.

Zhao Ying sighed slightly, and after a simple rinse, she walked out of the shower. After all, she took a shower every day, and there was really nothing to wash. It was just to refresh herself.

Seeing that Zhao Ying walked out of the bathroom, Sun Jie also paused the game in her hand and waved to Zhao Ying. "Yingying, come on. Let the two of us experienced people give you advice and help you analyze the tangled romantic world."

Zhao Ying replied, "En" and fell on the sofa. She was too lazy to dry her hair, so she let the water droplets fall on her pajamas.

"Where did we leave it before? You said that you have missed it?" Xiao Qing continued the topic and left the game controllers aside.

After listening to Xiao Qing's words, Zhao Ying was a bit sad. Indeed, she missed it. "Some things have been missed. Can I go back?"

"It depends what it is..." Sun Jie said, "If it is like the feelings I had with Qingqing, it is better to miss it."

"What I talked about... of course, I didn't want to miss it..." Zhao Ying sighed. "But, when he wanted to kiss me, I declined it..."

"Declined? Why did you decline it? Did you not like him at the beginning, but later discovered it?" Sun Jie asked.

"No, at the time, I just thought that I was older than him, and the identity of the two of us were somewhat different, so..." Zhao Ying said bitterly, "At that time, I thought that I liked him, and he liked me too..."

"When you regretted it later, can't you say it?" Sun Jie shook her head. "Haven't you heard of it? It's easy for a female to pursue a male."

"Yes, what is the big deal?" Xiao Qing was also somewhat disapproving. She and Yang Ming were like this, so it was acceptable for boys to be younger than girls.

"Yeah, I thought so afterward..." Zhao Ying said quietly, "But later, he had a girlfriend..."

"He has a girlfriend? Why are you afraid that he has a girlfriend? You can compete for it!" Sun Jie said disapprovingly, "If he is not married, it does not count. Even if he's married, you can be a mistress."

"..." Zhao Ying was speechless. She hesitated and said, "He has several girlfriends..."

Sun Jie was picking up a strawberry to put into her mouth. After listening to Zhao Ying's words, she almost spat it out! And Xiao Qing on the side also had a horrified expression! No way! Who else is so brave?

They thought that only Yang Ming was such a special guy. They didn't expect that Zhao Ying's crush also had such a bad*ss presence...

"It's surprising, right..." Zhao Ying saw the expressions of the two people and thought that they were surprised because they heard that Yang Ming had many girlfriends. So she said, "However, he is very outstanding... but, I also reminded myself that I am not suitable for him..."

"And then..." Sun Jie was a bit speechless. She didn't expect the fate of the three to be almost the same. They all fell in love with such a man, although she was not sure whether she would follow Yang Ming in the future.

"And then... then I found out that I still can't forget him..." As Zhao Ying said this, she was somewhat embarrassed. "Am I stupid?"

"Stupid? I don't think so..." How would Sun Jie say Zhao Ying was stupid? Saying that Zhao Ying was stupid was equal to saying that she and Xiao Qing were stupid too. For this kind of thing, she still couldn't do it. "Liking a person is your right; it has nothing to do with being stupid or not..."

"Then you tell me. What should I do?" Zhao Ying really did not know what to do.

"What about it? Since you like him, go ahead and pursue him! Who cares how many women he has?" Sun Jie naturally couldn't preach the concept of monogamy in front of Zhao Ying, maybe she would fall into the arms of Yang Ming in the future. If she wanted to preach this now, wasn't it finding trouble for herself? So, to not have Zhao Ying laugh at her in the future, she could only persuade Zhao Ying.

" Ah ..." Zhao Ying did not expect Sun Jie to say this and was somewhat surprised. Normally, Zhao Ying thought that Sun Jie was a very strong woman, whether it was treating those who pursued her or towards the people in her company.

Zhao Ying had gone with Sun Jie to her company before. From looking at how she ran her company, she was a very strong woman and a feminist. How could she have such an idea?

Chapter 1175: A Lesson Unlearned

Seeing Zhao Ying's surprise, Sun Jie scolded Yang Ming one hundred and eighty times, but on the surface, she smiled and said, "Yingying, whether you admit it or not, this society belongs to men after all. It has not changed since the past.

Although the remarks that promote equality between men and women are nice to hear, the truth shall always remain as the truth. Look at the pillars of society. How many women are there? I do not deny the existence of a strong woman, but cases are rare and can't explain anything."

Although Sun Jie was a very strong woman, she was extremely sensitive to the concept of men and women since childhood. Because she was a girl, her father never wanted to let her take over the underworld business, but would rather train a man instead.

In all of this, although Sun Jie did not want to accept it, she still had to. Before Yang Ming appeared, even if she were outstanding, and even if Sun Zhiwei were hopeless, Sun Hongjun did not give up thoughts of training him. This made Sun Jie very annoyed.

However, sometimes, Sun Jie had to admit that women would never be able to do things like men. In the world, there were so many old families and emerging families. The leaders in most of the families were man, except of course, in very special feminist families.

However, in China, in this land that had popularized the idea of men being more superior than women since ancient times, it was too difficult for a woman to build a career. Although gender equality was often spoken off, was there really equality after looking at it comprehensively?

Never mind about that. Just looking at the retirement system of institutions and enterprises, it was always women who retired first. Therefore, Sun Jie could only accept this reality.

"Little Jie, are you actually saying this?" Zhao Ying looked at Sun Jie inexplicably. "I always thought that you were a feminist."

" Hehe ." Sun Jie shrugged. "Don't be surprised. If a man, who is really good enough to make me fall for him, appears in front of me one day, I will not mind how many women he had. I will not hold back. Of course, I will find some way to crowd out the other women..."

As Zhao Ying listened to the first half of Sun Jie's words, she thought that Sun Jie had changed. When she heard the words that followed behind, she was dumbfounded. Sun Jie is still Sun Jie. Her overbearing personality is always there at any time.

Crowd out... Of course, Sun Jie has that ability and qualification . But what about me? Thinking about the other women around Yang Ming, each of them was not bad. Even her best friend, Wang Xiaoyan, Zhao Ying was unlikely to crowd her out deliberately...

"Then what you mean is... I should fight for it?" Zhao Ying generally understood Sun Jie's intention.

"Have you ever heard of this saying? Fight for your own happiness." Sun Jie nodded and said, "If you don't fight for it, it will never be yours. Happiness will not come to you for no reason. There is no such thing as a free meal in this world. If you are looking for good luck, you might as well buy a lottery ticket."

"But... now the problem is not about me fighting for it or not..." Zhao Ying sighed helplessly and said with amazement, "I want to fight too... He and I had made some progress initially, but I found out my best friend... is actually his girlfriend too..."

" Ah ?" Sun Jie suddenly opened her eyes widely after listening to it, and she looked at Xiao Qing subconsciously. No way. Is there such a coincidence in the world?

Xiao Qing couldn't help but smile at Sun Jie. She didn't expect her and Sun Jie to fall in love with the same man. Zhao Ying also encountered such a problem.

"Actually, this is not a big problem." Thinking of her own situation, Xiao Qing smiled naturally. "You must think that he is with your best friend, so you feel uncomfortable fighting over a man with her, right?"

"That is the case..." Zhao Ying nodded after listening to Xiao Qing's words. "I can't accept it... If it were another woman, I'm better off, but I can't imagine myself fighting over a man with my best friend. What would it be like to fight for a man?"

" Hehe , you can think about the problem from another angle. Why do you want to fight?" Xiao Qing said with a smile.

"Why?" Zhao Ying was surprised. "Aren't you asking me to fight for it? Why not fight?"

Xiao Qing's words made Zhao Ying confused. Xiao Qing advised her not to give up, but now, it seemed that this was not the case.

Seeing that Zhao Ying misunderstood, Sun Jie explained at the side, "Qingqing means not to have you fight, but you can share between two people!"

"To share together..." Zhao Ying finally understood Xiao Qing's meaning. It was to let her and Wang Xiaoyan share Yang Ming. Zhao Ying found this acceptable. After all, Yang Ming had Chen Mengyan and Lin Zhiyun. It was not much different with an additional Wang Xiaoyan.

" Hehe , how about it? Finding it hard to accept?" Sun Jie stood up and dried her wet hair. Then, she glanced at Xiao Qing with special intent. "From another perspective, your best friend is your ally. If you don't want to harm others, it's hard to guarantee that the other girlfriends of that person would not accept you and frame you. You have a familiar good sister to help. It can save you a lot of trouble. At least you are not alone."

Although Zhao Ying did not think Chen Mengyan and Lin Zhiyun would frame her, she was sure that Chen Mengyan would exclude her. Last time when Chen Mengyan encountered her and Yang Ming at the temple fair, Chen Mengyan's reaction was too emotional. Therefore, what Sun Jie said was a good idea. When she changed her view on the problem, the knot in her heart naturally opened.

"If one day I fell in love with the same man as Little Jie, I think we will still maintain our current friendship, even better than now, right? Little Jie Jie?" Xiao Qing glanced at Sun Jie and asked with a smile.

"Yeah, I think so too. It is not a big deal!" Sun Jie glared at Xiao Qing. She thought Xiao Qing was deliberately saying this, but now she was too lazy to care about Zhao Ying, so she nodded and followed Xiao Qing's words as she put on a smile for Zhao Ying.

"It turns out... you are more open-minded than me. The onlooker sees more of the game..." Zhao Ying smiled a bit bitterly. Did I overthink too much? Sun Jie and Xiao Qing could view the problem in a positive light. Why am still having a knot in my heart?

"Alright, I think you must have made the final decision, right?" Xiao Qing looked at Zhao Ying now, and she knew that Zhao Ying already had an idea in her mind. "When will you take Little Jie and me to take a look at your crush? I want to see his capability. How did he make you fall so deeply in love with him!?"

"En ... let's wait for an opportunity..." Zhao Ying's face blushed as she whispered.

"Hehe , let's continue playing the game. I have another game controller. Yingying, you also join in... This is the castle stage. I just played with Qingqing for a long time, but we could not pass the level. It's a little difficult!" Sun Jie handed another controller to Zhao Ying.

Then, she changed the settings and added a new player into the game.

Zhao Ying's phone rang which surprised her deep down in her heart. She quickly picked up the phone, only to find that it was her mother who called.

"I am going to pick up a call... My mom called." Zhao Ying put the controller aside. "You all go ahead first."

"Quickly go and come back soon. We are both at our limits to proceed through the level..." Sun Jie waved her hand and stared at the TV screen as she spoke to Zhao Ying.

Zhao Ying picked up the phone and walked out of the living room. She came to the room next door and picked up the phone. "Mom? Is there anything the matter?"

"Nothing. I just missed you, so I called." Wang Guifen's recent mood was particularly good. Not only did she drive a BMW but also had some money in her hands. She was about to purchase a house at her side.

Now, when she left the house, she could walk straight. She would promote that her daughter had found a rich man as a partner wherever she went. However, on this street, many people envied Wang Guifen and hated that their daughter was not as beautiful as Zhao Ying. It also made Wang Guifen somewhat flattered.

However, Wang Guifen always felt that before her daughter established a relationship with Yang Ming, her glory and wealth could possibly vanish. She already knew Yang Ming had pretended to be her daughter's boyfriend, so she was particularly concerned.

"Yingying, how is the progression between you and Yang Ming? Have you both lived together?" Wang Guifen beat around the bush with common chatter before she brought in the main topic.

"No!" Zhao Ying suddenly blushed and said shyly, "Mom, why do you always ask these things... It is my own matter. I know how to handle it..."

Since Zhao Ying had made up her mind not to give up this relationship, she was not perfunctory toward Wang Guifen at the moment. Initially, she was afraid that her feelings with Yang Ming would not be accepted by her family, but now it seemed that her mother was absolutely supportive and was even more anxious than herself.

"Ai, you have to hurry." Wang Guifen heard Zhao Ying's words and knew that there wasn't much progress. However, Zhao Ying did not reject it for the first time, which made Wang Guifen really happy.

"I got it." Zhao Ying did not contradict her mother again.

"Hehe, that is great. I won't say anything more. You can grasp it yourself." Wang Guifen was afraid that Zhao Ying would resist and oppose it. She didn't expect this phone call to be so harmonious for the first time.

After hanging up the call with her mother, Zhao Ying also felt for the first time that she didn't have such an uncomfortable feeling of depression... It seems I finally thought through it today.

It wasn't until Li Zhichun called Zhang Jingyao to ask him how he handled Yang Ming's matter, and Zhang Jingyao hung up after saying a few words plainly that Li Zhichun realized that things seemed to have changed!

He quickly dialed Zhang Jingyao's phone again, but the person who picked up the call was not Zhang Jingyao, but Zhang Jingyao's secretary. Her tone was very sweet, and her attitude was very harmonious. However, this sweet tone chilled Li Zhichun's heart. "President Zhang has a meeting. What's the matter? I will help you take a message."

Initially, no matter what Zhang Jingyao was doing, as long as Li Zhichun called, the secretary would immediately transfer it to Zhang Jingyao, but now...

No matter what Li Zhichun said, the secretary still did not bother to repeat the previous words. Li Zhichun had no other way but to ask when Zhang Jingyao would finish his meeting.

As a result, the secretary said sweetly, "I don't know this either, Mr. Li. If you have anything, I will note it for you..."

Li Zhichun was too angry, but he was slightly at his wit's end. He had to tell the secretary that he would call again after a while.

Hanging up the phone, Li Zhichun snorted. He couldn't help but shout, "What are you being pretentious for? You are looking for me to cooperate, but it seems like I am begging you. What is this?"

Li Zhichun called Li Tianjia to ask him to come over. He asked about the situation over the past few days. "Have you contacted Zhang Xiaonao?"

"No... I don't know how I offended him. When I called him, he directly rejected my call. The next time I called, his phone was shut down..." Li Tianjia frowned as he replied in confusion.

"Motherf*cker, so pretentious?" Li Zhichun couldn't help but swear. "I don't know what happened to Zhang Jingyao. I called, but he did not bother."

"Did not bother? Doesn't he want to use our business in Africa for money laundering? How can his attitude be like this?" Li Tianjia asked baffled.

"Who knows what is going on? But this time, even if he begged me, I won't care about him." Li Zhichun twitched his mouth. "He is just a gangster boss. He really thought he is a big shot. After I acquire the gold mine over in Country X, our Li Family will have a great leap! At that time, I will not be afraid of them!"

"Could it be that something has gone wrong?" Li Tianjia was not as calm as Li Zhichun. "Why do I feel that this is a bit weird?"

"Weird?" After Li Zhichun heard it, he lost his anger temporarily. He frowned as he thought. "Now that you mention it, it is a bit weird. Zhang Jingyao is preparing for money laundering. He opened a company and a lot of legitimate hotels, waiting for the money laundering in Africa. How can he give up so suddenly?"

"Indeed, if he doesn't rely on us, how can he proceed with the money laundering? You know, Country X in Africa is an excellent way to launder money!" Li Tianjia nodded and said.

"Did he manage to get in contact with another big shot, so he doesn't want to work with us?" Li Zhichun hesitated and said.

"This is possible..." Li Tianjia heard it and thought it was true.

"However, who can still be more powerful than our Li Family now? We have both money and connections. As we take a look, who will Zhang Jingyao choose to cooperate with?" Li Zhichun shook his head and felt this idea seemed to be unlikely.

"Indeed, if he wants to go to Africa Country X to invest in gold mines, his only solution is to work with us. I really can't think who else he can partner with!" Li Tianjia smiled ridiculously, "Is he cooperating with the Huang Family? Haha... haha ..."

After he finished, he laughed. Indeed, Li Tianjia treated it as a joke. He did not take it seriously at all.

"Of course, whoever he works with will not be the Huang Family." Li Zhichun also laughed. "This time, the Huang Family is completely done for!"

This matter only made Li Zhichun depressed for a moment. In fact, he really didn't take it seriously! He just felt embarrassed, but it had no effect on the Li Family's interest!

The Li Family did not involve the underworld business at all, so his attitude toward the underworld people was only to mind his own business. Even if he cooperated with Zhang Jingyao, he would not ask anything from Zhang Jingyao. On the contrary, Zhang Jingyao asked a lot from them.

Therefore, after Li Zhichun was depressed, he did not bother with Zhang Jingyao again. Zhang Jingyao did not contact him, so Li Zhichun ultimately regarded it as though he did not have this partner.

In fact, the news in the business world also spread very fast. Even though the Huang Family was very low-key, not long after, people in the business field also learned that the Huang Family and Zhang Jingyao began to cooperate closely!

The bank not only delayed the Huang Family's deadline to pay back the debt but also eliminated some of the interest. Those companies that had previously cut off business with the Huang Family also took the initiative to approach them...

For the time being, the Huang Enterprise, which was facing bankruptcy, actually made a comeback and became active in a short moment!

This news naturally came to the ears of Li Zhichun and Li Tianjia.

In Li Enterprises, Li Zhichun sat in the office and looked at Li Tianjia.

"Did Zhang Jingyao's head get kicked by a donkey? He is cooperating with the Huang Family?" Li Zhichun had an inexplicable expression.

"Yeah, is he crazy?" Li Tianjia was also somewhat inexplicable. "He is counting on the Huang Family to establish a cooperative relationship with him in Africa? Is his brain punctured?"

"I don't know how the Huang Xiaofei scammed Zhang Jingyao. This old fox actually has some capability!" Li Zhichun naturally didn't know the role Yang Ming played in this matter. After all, it was a very secret thing. No one else knew about it except the parties involved – Yang Ming and Zhang Jingyao. Even Huang Xiaofei did not know what Yang Ming and Zhang Jingyao discussed to let the underworld godfather completely side with the Huang Family.

"Hmph, this is better. Let's wait for Zhang Jingyao to cry later!" Li Tianjia sneered as he laughed at other's mishap. "Unless, he and the Huang Family have other means, as long as they want to invest in Country X in Africa, we will find General Kars to kill them!"

"Hehe." Li Zhichun smirked. "At that time, we will wait for Zhang Jingyao to beg from us. However, at that time, the bargaining chips would not be as simple as now!"

However, the news that came out next also made Li Zhichun surprised! He did not expect that it happened according to his prediction. Zhang Jingyao announced that he would invest in the mining industry of Country X in Africa with the Huang Family. They would form a strategic partnership.

"Is Zhang Jingyao crazy?" Li Tianjia looked at an article in the newspaper and commented to Li Zhichun.

"I think so too. Let's wait and watch the show!" Li Zhichun sneered, "Find out about the time of the flights for which they have tickets. Let's go along with them. Haha, at that time..."

“Okay, I got it!” Li Tianjia was also looking forward to the upcoming matter. At that time, the Li Family could be very bad*ss in Africa Country X, while Zhang Jingyao and the Huang Family...

Chapter 1176: An Unavoidable Confrontation at the Airport

Because Country X didn't have a civilian airport in Africa, if one wanted to go to Country X, he must fly to other countries in Africa and go there by land or waterway.

The cooperation between Zhang Jingyao and the Huang Family were very high-profile, so many people knew which day they bought the tickets for. Li Zhichun was no exception.

“Tianjia, go and book the tickets for this day!” Li Zhichun pointed to the calendar in his hand and said, “It must be first class.”

“Okay.” Li Tianjia naturally understood what his father meant. “We must put shame on Zhang Jingyao and Huang Xiaofei this time.”

” Hmph , who do the Huang Family think they are? When we reach Country X in Africa, aren't we the ones who would have a say in front of General Kars?” Li Zhichun snorted. “This Zhang Jingyao is smart, but he is still ruined by Huang Xiaofei's hand.”

“He will regret it.” Li Tianjia snorted.

In Africa, Country X, the progress of the Li Family wasn't going well. Li Tianyu had been working on the iron mine, but he had never seen anyone contacting him.

Li Qiang had sent people to take over the Li Family's iron mine and drive Li Tianyu out. However, although Li Tianyu had General Kars' verbal promise, these brainless soldiers who came to take over the iron mine simply wouldn't care who you knew. They just acted according to their orders.

Li Tianyu couldn't make a fuss at all. He wanted to ask where the person responsible was. These people all answered that they didn't know. Li Tianyu couldn't see their leader, so they wouldn't understand the face of General Kars.

It couldn't be helped. Li Tianyu had to move out of the iron mine first. Then, he began to look around for someone who could contact Country X's military.

However, he had been busy for a long time, and he still couldn't find anyone powerful. He either found some small characters or some small leaders who couldn't keep their promises. He couldn't find anyone worth speaking to at all.

Fortunately, this iron mine wasn't worth much. The Li Family had received a lot of money from this iron mine. The subsequent redistribution of mine was the highlight, so Li Tianyu wasn't in a hurry. If he could get General Kar's help later, he could get a bigger gold mine or diamond mine. This was only Li Tianyu's ultimate goal.

The former iron mine was really nothing.

Yang Ming did not expect to see Li Zhichun and his son in the airport when he passed the security check.

"It's Li Zhichun and Li Tianjia." Huang Rongjin whispered by Yang Ming's side.

Yang Ming nodded. In fact, with his eyesight, he had noticed Li Zhichun and Li Tianjia when they first entered the security checkpoint. "They are going abroad too?"

"Who knows?" Huang Rongjin was also a little surprised. He didn't expect the two opposing families would meet each other here.

At this time, Li Zhichun and Li Tianjia also looked over here. They were obviously not as surprised as Yang Ming and Huang Rongjin, and instead, they revealed a sneer. Then they turned their heads and went back.

Because the two groups of people were still separated by several security channels, they couldn't say anything. Even if they said something, the other party couldn't hear it.

"They seem to have known that we will be here long ago." Looking at the expressions of Li Zhichun and Li Tianjia, Yang Ming said faintly.

"Who knows what they are planning? This father and son are not good things. Maybe they are really going against us." Huang Rongtian nodded and agreed with Yang Ming.

"Who cares?" Huang Lele was optimistic instead. "Their feet belong to them. We can't stop where they want to go."

Zhang Jingyao revealed a sneer instead. After contacting Yang Ming, he had already determined that Yang Ming belonged to the assassin group, so he was looking at Li Zhichun and his son just like watching the villains to see how long could they live.

Perhaps this trip to Country X in Africa was their trip to hell.

Yang Ming was right. When he came to the waiting hall, he found that Li Zhichun and his son were also sitting in the waiting hall for the same plane. When they saw Yang Ming, Li Tianjia deliberately turned his head and increased the volume of his speech. "General Kars promised us that he will give a diamond mine this time. This is a prosperous business!"

"Ai, some people listened to someone's slanderous talk and missed such a good opportunity." Li Zhichun shook his head regretfully.

"Yeah, but ah, there is no regret in this world. Everyone chooses his own path. Others had given him the opportunity, but he didn't know how to cherish it. This kind of person really has a narrow vision." Li Tianjia agreed in a weird tone.

Obviously, they were targeting Zhang Jingyao and the Huang Family.

"What are they talking about?" Although the distance was not very close, the departure hall was very quiet instead, so Zhang Jingyao could hear the conversations of Li Zhichun and his son intermittently. Then, his face suddenly collapsed, and it was somewhat unnatural.

"Who knows?" Yang Ming shrugged. "Some people are delusional. You can't really argue with them, right?"

" Pfft ..." Zhang Jingyao almost laughed out loud, listening to Yang Ming's words, but after all, he was a prominent figure. It was inappropriate for him to laugh out loud in public. He forcibly held his impulse to laugh and gave a thumbs up to Yang Ming.

" Ha ha ha ha! " However, next to Zhang Jingyao, his son, Zhang Xiaonao, laughed unscrupulously. It was exceptionally ear-piercing in the initially quiet departure hall.

Li Zhichun naturally heard Yang Ming's irony, and his face suddenly turned green. Especially when the unscrupulous laughter of Zhang Xiaonao was like a thorn stuck in Li Zhichun's heart.

It was true that Li Zhichun believed that after Zhang Jingyao left them, he couldn't find a better way even if he went to Country X in North Africa, let alone rely on the Huang Family.

However, the rumor had already spread, saying that Li Zhichun wasn't capable. Even if Zhang Jingyao wanted to cooperate with the Huang Family, he wouldn't want to cooperate with the Li Family. Of course, Li Zhichun also explained about it. However, most people still thought that Li Zhichun was quibbling.

It must be that the Li Family had a problem, so Zhang Jingyao only turned to cooperate with the Huang Family.

Therefore, Li Zhichun hated this group of people with an unknown objective, but he had no choice. After all, Li Zhichun would become more suspicious, the more he explained. It would become harder to convince people.

Li Zhichun could only wait. When they reached Country X, he wanted to let Zhang Jingyao understand how stupid his choice was.

"What is there to laugh at?!" Li Tianjia had lost his face, and he stood up and pointed at Zhang Xiaonao.

"It's none of your business." Zhang Xiaonao wasn't a kind person. At this time, since he had been instructed by his father to break off with the Li Family, he wasn't afraid of anything. "Why? Do you want to fight? Come on!"

" Hmph , impudent child." Li Tianjia snorted. Although he was outraged now, he had to be patient. Because now he was in the sphere of influence of Zhang Jingyao. If he were in conflict with Zhang Xiaonao, it would be irrational.

However, when they reached Country X in Africa, Zhang Jingyao couldn't be so arrogant. With the relationship between the Li Family and General Kars, he could definitely punish the two impudent people, Zhang Jingyao and Zhang Xiaonao.

Therefore, Li Tianjia just sneered and mumbled a sentence, but he didn't continue to anger Zhang Xiaonao. He also knew that there was no advantage for him in this case. Li Tianjia resisted his inner anger, snorted, and sat down.

Zhang Xiaonao saw that Li Tianjia couldn't refute and sat down, so he laughed even more aggressively.

Li Zhichun and his son were the ones who insulted Zhang Jingyao first, but they were mocked by Zhang Xiaonao instead.

The first-class section wasn't big. Li Zhichun and his son were sitting in a position not far from the location of Yang Ming and the others. When they got on the plane, Li Zhichun was not afraid of Zhang Jingyao.

On the plane, there were naturally airborne police officers to maintain order. Zhang Jingyao and Zhang Xiaonao obviously didn't dare to do anything to them. As a result, Li Tianjia had become more courageous. "I don't know if Huang Xiaofei is crazy or what. He was cheated so badly by General Kars, but he still wants to be involved in this!"

"Yeah, can Huang Xiaofei afford to play in the place like Country X?" Li Zhichun had already endured for a long time. At this time, his anger finally broke out. "At that time, he wouldn't even know how he died, but someone else still wanted to believe in them!"

"Yeah, we, the Li Family, have such strong armed forces there, but we don't even dare to guarantee anything, let alone those who have no foundation!" Li Tianjia snorted.

Li Zhichun and Li Tianjia's voices were low like chatting, but how quiet was it on the plane, especially in the first class? Especially when they were not very far away from Yang Ming and the others, Yang Ming and the people of the Huang Family could hear it clearly.

Although Huang Xiaofei had already received Yang Ming's assurance that the things in Africa had been settled, there would be no problem as long as they went there. But at this moment, he was still furious, listening to Li Zhichun's sarcasm!

In the beginning, although his reckless behavior had caused the current situation, Li Zhichun's act of taking advantage of the other's difficulty was really abhorrent.

Huang Xiaofei couldn't wait to tear Li Zhichun's corpse into pieces, but he didn't have such an ability before. Now, he could only pin his hopes on Yang Ming. Even so, he couldn't help himself at the moment. "We still don't know who will be dead."

"Yeah, some people think that his face is bigger than the sky. Does he really think that General Kars only knows him?" Zhang Jingyao also interjected.

Li Zhichun and Li Tianjia thought that Huang Xiaofei was protecting his face and thought Zhang Jingyao was being enchanted by Huang Xiaofei. He didn't know how Huang Xiaofei convinced Zhang Jingyao to believe in him firmly.

Of course, Li Zhichun and Li Tianjia were really arrogant and self-sufficient. What kind of character was Zhang Jingyao? He started as a small gangster until now. He was courageous for sure, but he was also tactful. Otherwise, he would be dead long ago on the street.

Chapter 1177: The Eve of the Storm

Therefore, Zhang Jingyao was a wise man. How could such a person be swayed by Huang Xiaofei? Besides, the bitter experience of the Huang Family was well known in the upper class, and Zhang Jingyao must have heard about it.

Under these circumstances, Zhang Jingyao could still be decisive and cooperate with Huang Xiaofei unrelentingly. Of course, Zhang Jingyao must have been sure that the Huang Family had the confidence to attain a certain victory and a comeback. Otherwise, he would definitely not make this move.

However, Li Zhichun and Li Tianjia now were like how Huang Xiaofei was previously; their self-confidence had already expanded to a certain level. They simply did not think about things that could be thought of using common sense.

In their view, Zhang Jingyao's approach was merely unreasonable and psychopathic. Therefore, Li Zhichun simply did not think about why Zhang Jingyao would rely on the Huang Family but instead felt that Zhang Jingyao was crazy.

Therefore, Li Zhichun and Li Tianjia were somewhat scornful of Zhang Jingyao at this moment. They were unwilling and even did not have the intention to think about it so much.

On the plane, each side felt that the other party were two stupid people; each had their own thoughts. However, who knew who the real smart person was? However, no one really knew who was really stupid.

Yang Ming was too lazy to talk nonsense with the father and son of the Li Family on the plane. It was still a public place. He also didn't bother to stoop down to their level. Anyway, after reaching Country X, he had a way to sort them out.

Liu Chan's hand was on the phone that had just been hung up, rubbing it back and forth, just like stroking something that he loved...

Liu Chan's mood was very chaotic now. Although he had long known that the master behind him had plans for today, he did not expect that this day would come so fast.

Indeed, Liu Chan now did not have the loyalty he had at the time of his release from prison, and the days of comfort and enjoyment have made him lose some of his edge. However, this time, he could not refuse.

Information that could be used against him was still in the hands of others. As long as the boss behind-the-scenes announced that information, he would die in the worst way. If he did not follow the boss, he would die; if he followed the boss, he would also die.

He had no choice now.

Liu Chan sighed slightly and grabbed the phone again. He dialed the phone of the third vice president of Ming Yang Entertainment, Qu Daming.

"It's me, Liu Chan." Liu Chan and Qu Daming were in the same boat, so Qu Daming was very familiar with Liu Chan's voice, and Liu Chan didn't need any pleasantries.

"Brother Liu, is there anything the matter?" Qu Daming was just putting aside some of the extra money from the company's account into his account. Although the accounting was not done very well, Bao Sanli and Hou Zhenhan had no time to check the accounts carefully.

Qu Daming himself was silent, only relying on the recommendation of his cousin-in-law, Yu Lei. That was why he began to mingle in society by following Bao Sanli. However, he was also part of Bao Sanli's first batch of veterans. From the time he had a fight with Yu Xiangde, Qu Daming was already following Bao Sanli.

Therefore, even if there was no credit, there was hard work. Bao Sanli had arranged reasonable positions for the veterans who accompanied him to carve out a career. So, Qu Daming was the third vice president of Ming Yang Entertainment.

Although the specific operation of Ming Yang Entertainment was now under the responsibility of Guo Jianchao, it was also very easy for Bao Sanli to assign a job to a person. So, Qu Daming immediately took up his post.

It was also because of this relationship between himself and Bao Sanli that Qu Daming had no fear of doing things. When he first started to make money, he was careful. Later, he just simply became unscrupulously greedy.

However, if you play with fire, you will eventually get burned. Qu Daming was only the third vice president of Ming Yang Entertainment; there were two other vice presidents ahead. One was the first vice president, Guo Jianchao, and the other was the second vice president, Liu Chan.

Of course, Guo Jianchao was said to be the vice president. In fact, he was no different from the president. Because the president was Hou Zhenhan, and Hou Zhenhan did not have so much time to take charge of the matters here.

Therefore, the company's business was almost entirely under Guo Jianchao's responsibility. When Qu Daming was fishing for a quick buck, Liu Chan finally saw the flaw and seized Qu Daming's lifeline.

In fact, some things were tacit. As long as there was no evidence, even if Bao Sanli knew what Qu Daming did, he would not do anything to Qu Daming. He could only turn a blind eye to it.

However, it was different if there was evidence. If Bao Sanli did not do anything to Qu Daming, he would not be able to explain to the rest of the company. At that time, others would learn from what they saw. What would Bao Sanli do?

So, Qu Daming found Liu Chan and discussed the matter about their evil plans together.

At this time, Liu Chan knew that he was just taking things a day at a time in Ming Yang Entertainment, and he would one day encounter a fall-out because there was evidence in the hands of others.

Therefore, Liu Chan simply adopted the attitude of having nothing to lose, took things one day at a time, and began to fish for a quick buck with Qu Daming.

So, Qu Daming was in the same ship as Liu Chan. If one got into trouble, the other couldn't run away from it. Liu Chan also introduced Qu Daming to the boss behind-the-scenes to conspire on major plans together.

"The boss wants to take action." Liu Chan took a deep breath and said it word by word to Qu Daming.

"Oh? So soon?" Qu Daming was also shocked. He did not want to cooperate with the boss of Liu Chan, but there was no way. If Liu Chan were finished, he would also be finished.

It was already at this point. On the contrary, it was better just to put it all into the fight.

"It will be in these few days. You should get ready." Liu Chan said, "There's no problem with the company's account, right?"

"No problem. It's very well done." Qu Daming said, "As long as the boss takes action, I will transfer the last bit of money. We will divide it, and the company will become one empty shell."

"Great. Wait for my news." Liu Chan listened to the words of Qu Daming and let out a sigh of relief. At least, this time, it wouldn't be in vain. He could earn a large sum of money.

In a luxury private room in a private clubhouse, two middle-aged men were secretly meeting. Around them, each had their own confidants and bodyguards.

"What goods can I get this time?" After listening to a middle-aged man's plan, the other middle-aged man asked faintly. His expression did not fluctuate in the slightest, and it was not known whether he agreed or disagreed.

"Hehe, Boss Sui, we don't need to resort to insinuations." The middle-aged man took out a cigarette and put it into his mouth. A knife-scar faced bodyguard next to him quickly took out a lighter and lit the cigarette for him. "Guo Jinbiao of Jidun City, is he your man?"

Sure enough, the middle-aged man's words made Boss Sui frown. "How did you know?"

"Underworld's business, hehe

." The middle-aged man smiled and blew a smoke ring. "I have mingled in the underworld for so many years; it was not in vain. These things are hidden, but if you have the intention, you can still dig it out. Jidun City is your territory. Right, Boss Sui?"

Boss Sui's face changed. But after a while, he slowly nodded. "What about it?"

"Don't you want to take it back?" The middle-aged man asked very casually.

"About this, you don't need to worry about it. If I want to take it back, I can send people in." Boss Sui said faintly, "If there is only this condition, I feel that it is not proportional to my contribution."

" Oh ? How is it not proportional?" The middle-aged man shrugged and explained, "You can help me to destroy Song Jiang's Bao Sanli and Donghai's Sun Family, and you will be able to get Jidun City's territory. This is quite cost-effective."

"I have already said that this is not proportional. What you get is Song Jiang and Donghai." Boss Sui shook his head.

"This is not the case." The middle-aged man said faintly, "Indeed, I have Song Jiang and Donghai. But if I'm not involved in this, let me say something not polite, Boss Sui. It is an idiotic dream for you to want to take back Jidun City!"

" Hmph ." Boss Sui snorted, a little dissatisfied.

"You and I are all people with clear minds. I don't need to say anything extra." The middle-aged man waved his hand and stopped Boss Sui from continuing. "I think this kind of cooperation is fair. This is also an opportunity for you. If you lose it, it'll be gone."

"Okay, let me consider it." Boss Sui fell into deep thought.

"Of course you can." The middle-aged man smiled. He already was confident that he convinced Boss Sui. In fact, even if Boss Sui did not participate, he also got the support of the mysterious person.

The mysterious man could provide him with some of the latest firearms, enough to make him use it to seize power.

"How much is the chance of success this time?" After a long while, Boss Sui raised his head, and his eyes flashed, then asked.

"100%!" The middle-aged man said affirmatively.

" Oh ? Is there such a big certainty?" Boss Sui had a little disbelief.

"Only when you agree, then I will introduce you to the people behind me. By then, you will know why I am so sure." The middle-aged man laughed, "And, hehe, they will have no money. Could they still do anything?"

"The money is gone? What do you mean?" Boss Sui was caught by surprise.

"Nothing. I can't tell these things to you now. Have you considered it?" The middle-aged man asked, "Only if we become allies, will I tell you the details."

Chapter 1178: Rebellion

Boss Sui frowned tightly. The conditions of the other party, in fact, for Boss Sui were already very good.

Jidun City was originally Boss Sui's territory. Guo Jinbiao was also Boss Sui's man. This matter was very secretive with not many people in the know.

However, it was not weird for the other party to know this. After all, in this small piece of land, even if the message was concealed nicely, it could not withstand the careful investigation of these people.

Now that he knew about it, Boss Sui had no reason to hide it anymore. If he could take back the power of Jidun City, it was also a good choice.

Previously, Bao Sanli's power expanded rapidly, leaving Boss Sui unprepared. In this case, it was obviously unwise to fight for Jidun City's territory with Bao Sanli.

Although Boss Sui was the boss behind-the-scenes of Jidun City, this was not something that could be put on the table. After all, even if Boss Sui went to fight for territory with Bao Sanli, he did not have a cause nor an excuse; hence, he would be criticized.

Therefore, Boss Sui had been patient, waiting for a suitable opportunity to make a plan. However, Bao Sanli was developing further and further. After integrating the underworld of Jidun City, he had turned his underworld into legitimate businesses, food, entertainment, etc. So, the original disorderly underworld had an order.

Looking at how Bao Sanli not only did not have the risk of being suppressed but earned more and more cash, how could Boss Sui not be tempted? Jidun City was obviously the territory of their Sui Family. Right now, it was robbed away forcefully and became a place filled with wealth. Whoever was put into such a situation would be depressed.

Now, someone came to the door to talk about cooperation, and the promises given to him were not bad. It was sufficient as long as he cooperated with others to suppress the business of Song Jiang, Bao Sanli.

"Are you sure there is no money on Bao Sanli?" Boss Sui hesitated and asked.

"He has nothing." The middle-aged man nodded affirmatively. "The money in their accounts are all transferred. The entire Ming Yang Entertainment is now an empty shell."

"Is there no money in their Ming Yang Real Estate?" Boss Sui still asked without hesitation.

"Do not worry. If I am not so sure, I will not have such an idea to ask you to do it." The middle-aged man nodded with confidence. "You just do it. Do you know that money is the lifeblood? Once they have no money, they will lose their strength. At this time, you and I will show our banner to integrate the forces quickly."

"Good." Boss Sui finally nodded. This matter was too tempting for Boss Sui. The middle-aged man said that he would give Jidun's territory to Boss Sui, but Song Jiang... Come to think of it, the middle-aged man himself could not take up everything. This time, it was obvious that the middle-aged man was using the excuse of Boss Sui suppressing Ming Yang Entertainment to give him a share.

At that time, Song Jiang's entertainment and local business would at least be in Boss Sui's own hands. Even if the other businesses were given to the middle-aged men, what could he do?

"Mr. Sun, where are we going?"

Sun Hongjun got in his own car, and the driver asked respectfully.

“Go back to the villa. Little Jie is probably coming back today.” Sun Hongjun rubbed his temple and breathed a sigh of relief, quietly leaning his head on the back of the seat.

Having a huge family business that relied on him alone, Sun Hongjun would be busy from morning to night every day. When he was young, he didn’t feel anything. In the past few years, Sun Hongjun clearly felt that his body was deteriorating as years passed by. He always had a feeling of powerlessness in his task.

However, there was no other way. Everyone needs to accept the fate of getting older. Sun Hongjun must also face up to the fact that he was indeed old.

He had only one girl in Sun Jie under his knees. On the other hand, his nephew, Sun Zhiwei, was hopeless. He was simply a prodigal child. In addition to spending money, he had no other pursuit.

Obviously, the Sun Family’s family business could not be handed over to Sun Zhiwei. And Sun Jie... Sun Hongjun was not patriarchal, but some matters were really inappropriate to let a girl, Sun Jie, step in and take care of.

Although the Tian Family would not say anything if Sun Jie were to manage the Tian Family’s matters, it was difficult to convince them. The underworld matter was different from the company’s business. Those would inherit it could not simply grasp it.

Sun Hongjun met Yang Ming, at last, thinking that he could retire early, but Yang Ming seemed not interested in the Sun Family’s business! No way. This time I must find Sun Jie to talk about it. In any case, I will let her establish a relationship with Yang Ming as soon as possible. Even if it is an engagement, it will work. With that, I have justified means to pass my underworld forces to Yang Ming to manage.

However, Sun Jie, this child... I am afraid she will not listen to me. She stands firm on her stance... As Sun Hongjun thought about it, he had some headaches.

Sun Hongjun sighed and recollected from his messy thoughts. He suddenly felt that something was wrong. He raised his head and looked out the window, but it was a barren land. He didn’t know when the car actually came to the suburbs!

Sun Hongjun’s company was not far from the family’s villa. It was only a twenty-minute drive. Sun Hongjun was just immersed in deep thoughts, and it was already half an hour. It was impossible not to reach home yet, so Sun Hongjun was suddenly vigilant.

Sure enough, he found out something was wrong.

“Mr. Sun, I am sorry. I am also acting under commands.” Little Wang’s voice was still respectful, but obviously, there was some sarcasm in it.

Little Wang reached out and gently pressed the central lock of the car, locking the doors of the car. There was an iron plate between him and Sun Hongjun although there was a small window. However, it was obviously impossible for Sun Hongjun to seize control of the car through this small window.

This partition was designed to allow Sun Hongjun to discuss certain affairs when there was a guest without getting disturbed by Little Wang's presence in the car. At the moment, it became a burden.

"What acting under command? Who gave you the command? Stop the car!" Sun Hongjun was surprised. His facial expression changed slightly as he shouted loudly.

"Mr. Sun, you will know whose order this is in a moment." Little Wang said faintly, "Mr. Sun, I don't want to hurt you. Please sit tightly. Don't move around. Otherwise..."

Sun Hongjun looked at Little Wang inexplicably. This was a bodyguard and a driver who had followed him for more than ten years. This person was personally recommended by the Tian Family's head, Tian Long. How could he suddenly become an enemy?

However, many things in this world were unpredictable. No one could stay awake and calm in the face of immense benefits. If there were no temptations, then there would be no crime.

This had been the case since ancient times. In many cases, people who remained calm in the face of interests were mostly because these interests were not enough to make them tempted. Once there was enough interest to make them tempted, not many people could uphold their principles.

Sun Hongjun understood this in an instant, so he reached out and touched the side pocket of his jacket. It was a lighter, but it was also a pistol. This was a souvenir given to Sun Hongjun when a southern boss came to Donghai.

Sun Hongjun had never used it because there was no chance at all. This lighter pistol was just like Wang Xiaoyan's lipstick pistol. It could only fire one bullet at a time.

However, when it was at the right time, this bullet could play a vital role and even reverse the situation! The details determined success or failure, and it was not just a casual statement.

"Don't move." Sun Hongjun pointed to the back of Little Wang with the tail of the lighter. "Park the car at the side."

Sun Hongjun intended to ask Little Wang's behind-the-scenes master to see who was so bold to have ill intention on him! Beforehand, Sun Jie was attacked by gunshots. Sun Hongjun was cautious for a while, and secretly investigated for a long time, but could not identify any useful clues.

Nothing in particular happened, and later, Sun Hongjun relaxed his vigilance. Moreover, he never thought that Little Wang would become a traitor!

For your information, when the Tian Family trained bodyguards, he would be strictly selected from all aspects. The person would have not only good martial arts but also absolute loyalty. Moreover, the Tian Family would grasp this person's soft spot, such as relatives, letting him not dare to have a rebellious intent!

But at the moment, Little Wang actually rebelled! How much interest would it take for Little Wang to change his principles? After more than a decade of loyalty, the benefits of a moment could disintegrate it. It must be a very terrible condition.

Sun Hongjun couldn't imagine who it was, being able to promise such a huge benefit and bribe a person next to him to kidnap him.

Little Wang didn't stop but remained driving in haste.

"Don't think that I don't dare to kill you." Sun Hongjun saw that Little Wang didn't respond, and immediately seemed to understand his thoughts. "Without you driving, even if the car is out of control, I may not die."

"Hehe ..." Little Wang actually laughed. "Mr. Sun, you got the wrong idea. You can't even shoot me to death."

Sun Hongjun was stunned and didn't know what Little Wang meant.

However, Sun Hongjun also went all out. He aimed at Little Wang and pulled the trigger on the pistol.

Sun Hongjun was not a master who could be threatened by others. Seeing Little Wang's sardonic tone, Sun Hongjun would rather kill him, let the car be out of control, and get injured. He would rather not have Little Wang's goal succeed.

So, Sun Hongjun decided to shoot.

"Kada," the slight impact of the firing pin rang, but no bullets were fired. Little Wang, who was intact, was still driving the car.

How did the bullet not fire? Sun Hongjun frowned, but quickly pulled the trigger again. It was still "kada" with no bullets fired.

Did the southern boss lie to me? Is this stuff a knockoff from somewhere? Sun Hongjun did not expect his life-saving tool to fail in such a critical moment.

Chapter 1179: House Arrest

"Mr. Sun, are you shooting at me?" Little Wang's tone was very dull. He seemed to expect this to happen. "No bullets were fired, right?"

Sun Hongjun's face had changed. He was somewhat surprised that Little Wang knew about it. After all, when the southern boss gave him this thing, Little Wang was just following far away by his side. He could not have heard about the use of this thing.

But how did he know?

"Isn't it the lighter type pistol given by Boss Chong from the South?" Little Wang saw Sun Hongjun not talking, so he explained self-servingly, "I had opened it and checked it. There is only one bullet in it. I took out the bullet for your safety and to prevent the bullet from exploding."

"You... you did it?" Sun Hongjun finally couldn't help but be horrified. "When?"

"Just a while ago, hehe ." Little Wang smiled and said, "Isn't a lighter just a lighter? Why do people make it complicated? If the lighter explodes, the bullet will also be blown up. How dangerous is that? I am naturally responsible for your safety as your bodyguard, Mr. Sun."

"Okay, very good!" Sun Hongjun took a deep breath. "Little Wang, I misjudged you."

Little Wang did not speak and continued to drive.

And Sun Hongjun, since he had no pistol, it was meaningless to resist anymore. This car was his own car, and he was familiar with the structure inside.

After the door was locked, it couldn't be opened no matter what. The car windows were also bulletproof. It was impossible to break them.

Sun Hongjun's mood at the moment had calmed down. If it were a blessing, then it wouldn't be a disaster; if it were a disaster, it couldn't be dodged. Even if he escaped this time, there would still be a hidden danger eventually.

Therefore, it was better to go to see the behind-the-scenes person to clarify it.

The car drove to a farm in the suburbs. The farmhouse looked like an ordinary farmer's house, and there were arable land outside and rows of greenhouses.

Little Wang parked the car in front of a dilapidated bungalow. After he honked twice, two macho men rushed out from the dilapidated bungalow. After Little Wang opened the car's central locks, the two macho men opened the door. Then, they held Sun Hongjun's arms from both sides.

Although Sun Hongjun was a master of fighting when he was young, he was too old now. He couldn't fight with these two macho men. Therefore, he simply did not put up any unnecessary resistance. He said calmly instead, "Let's go. Take me to meet your master."

Little Wang looked at the back of Sun Hongjun and sighed slightly. He had served Sun Hongjun for more than ten years. How could he have no feelings? What's more, Sun Hongjun treated him well too. However, Little Wang also knew that this was his mission.

Under the arrangement of fate, Little Wang had no choice.

Sun Hongjun was placed in a room. The two macho men did not trouble him. After he was brought into the house, they let go of him and said, "Mr. Sun, you can rest here."

Sun Hongjun was slightly stunned. On the way here, although Little Wang betrayed him, he was still polite. Sun Hongjun did not think much. He speculated that maybe because Little Wang had been with him for more than ten years, he had developed this kind of talking habit.

But at the moment, these two macho men weren't his men, but they were still polite to him. This made Sun Hongjun a bit baffled. Although this room wasn't very luxurious and the decoration was very simple, the furniture was complete. Table and chairs, sofa, bed, air-conditioning, and TV, it had everything. It was just like a hotel.

"Who is your boss?" Sun Hongjun frowned. Why do I feel like I am under house arrest?

"When the boss wants to see you, he will naturally come to see you, but before that, Mr. Sun, you should take a good rest." The macho man said faintly, "Watch TV and relax a little."

Sun Hongjun still wanted to say something, but the two macho men had left the room and locked the door.

Sun Hongjun sat on the bed and thought about the whole incident. Let him watch TV at this time? Could he watch it?

Something happened to Sun Jie. Is there any connection with this?

Who wants to target me this time?

Sun Hongjun was puzzled, but he was worried about Sun Jie the most. He was afraid that these people would be unfavorable to Sun Jie, but he had no means to do anything.

When Sun Hongjun got off work, his mobile phone would usually be placed in the hands of Little Wang to avoid being disturbed by others. Little Wang would filter the number of the call, and Sun Hongjun decided whether or not to answer the call.

This seemingly ordinary habit had become a fatal injury to Sun Hongjun at the moment. He had no tools to contact the outside world!

The plane landed slowly at the airport.

Passengers in the first-class cabin naturally got off the plane first. They took the first-class shuttle bus at the airport and left the airport.

This was the closest airport to Country X. After getting off the plane, they needed to take a car or boat to get to Country X.

Outside the airport, Li Tianyu was already waiting there early. When he saw Li Zhichun and Li Tianjia come out, he immediately screamed and waved to them.

Li Tianyu had rented a car and handled the formalities for the pass to Country X. He could drive all the way to Country X.

Li Zhichun and Li Tianjia also saw Li Tianyu. They didn't bother to pay attention to Huang Xiaofei and Zhang Jingyao not far behind. Now it was useless to say anything. When they reached Country X, then they could show how powerful the Li Family was.

"Father, elder brother!" Although Li Tianyu suffered some setbacks in the iron mine's matter, his father decided to invest in a larger mine in Country X. This made Li Tianyu very proud.

In this way, he would have more speaking rights in the family business. His elder brother would no longer have sole control over it.

"How is the situation there? Have you gotten the details of the bid?" Li Zhichun asked with great concern.

"I have already gotten it. We have to discuss it well after we reach there." Li Tianyu nodded and said, "Get in the car first. We'll discuss as we move."

"Okay." Li Zhichun nodded and got in the car with Li Tianjia. Li Tianjia also saw the special pass for the Country X in front of the vehicle. He couldn't help but admire, "Tianyu, little brat, you are really doing quite well. You even got the special pass done?"

“Yeah!” Li Tianyu nodded smugly. In the past, his elder brother rarely praised him.

In fact, although Country X had been in chaos for many years, and it didn’t join the United Nations which belonged to a relatively unique existence. However, Country X had to trade with other places too.

Therefore, it was kind to the merchants who came and went. It gave the permit to enter a country for free. In other words, as long as you were a businessman doing business in Country X, you could apply for a special pass.

However, Li Tianyu would certainly not be stupid enough to say this. Since Li Tianjia didn’t know, then he would show off a little in front of his father.

Li Tianyu started the car. Just as he wanted to leave, he saw Yang Ming and the Huang Family come in his direction not far away. He was immediately shocked and said, “Father, it’s that person! It’s him who brought people to occupy the gold mine!”

Li Tianyu immediately recognized Yang Ming and shouted at Yang Ming.

“It’s really him!” Li Zhichun had already guessed that Yang Ming was the one who occupied the gold mine in Country X. At this moment, he was only more certain after listening to Li Tianyu’s words. “I already know about it. Don’t bother about him. He just ordered a group of mercenaries.”

” Oh ? It turned out to be like this!” Li Tianyu listened to his father’s words and thought that his father had the exact evidence that Yang Ming hired mercenaries, so he was relieved and suddenly realized, “No wonder those armed forces are so powerful. It turned out to be foreign aid, so then we don’t have to be afraid of him!”

“In Country X, we have General Kars supporting us, so we don’t have to be afraid of him.” Li Tianjia nodded and said.

There was naturally someone to meet Yang Ming and the Huang Family. The person who welcomed them was Li Qiang, the armed leader of Country X.

Li Qiang also drove here. He drove a minibus, but it wasn’t very conspicuous. However, there was also something like a pass in front of the car window. It was just a little different from Li Tianyu’s. There was only a digital number and nothing else.

This was the vehicle number of Li Qiang’s armed forces. Of course, Li Qiang didn’t drive the no.1 car. He just simply looked for a vehicle. However, like Li Tianyu’s special pass, he could enter Country X. The difference was that Li Qiang’s minibus could also enter the base where his armed forces were stationed.

When they saw Yang Ming and the Huang Family get into a minibus, Li Zhichun smiled disdainfully. “They think they are a tour group? Sitting in such a vehicle...”

Li Tianyu listened to his father’s words and looked according to his father’s gaze. He saw a minibus, but... in front of its windshield glass...

Before Li Tianyu couldn’t see clearly, the minibus had already started and left... It was just a moment, but Li Tianyu seemed to have seen the special license plate of Country X’s army vehicle.

However, Li Tianyu thought about it and immediately shook his head. How can it be? How could such a vehicle appear here, and it is here to pick up Yang Ming and the others? I have seen it wrong, obviously.

Thinking of this, Li Tianyu did not care much. He started the car and headed for Country X.

After Yang Ming got in the vehicle, he simply introduced Li Qiang by name to everyone. Yang Ming said that he was his own capable man, but he didn't say what Li Qiang actually did. Therefore, whether it was the Huang Family or Zhang Jingyao, they didn't think of Li Qiang as a great character. They thought he was just Yang Ming's driver.

In front of Yang Ming, Li Qiang wasn't proud at all. He was really like a driver and a follower, doing his own things.

"Brother Yang, where are we going later?" Li Qiang asked after the car entered Country X.

"Let's go to see General Kars first..." Yang Ming thought about it and waved his hand. "Forget it. Let's go to your station. We'll settle down first, and then let General Kars come to see me."

Chapter 1180: Overreaching

"Okay, I will inform him later." Li Qiang nodded and spoke plainly as if it were a very ordinary thing.

Zhang Jingyao, Huang Rongjin, and the others widened their eyes and looked at Yang Ming and Li Qiang in disbelief. Let General Kars come over to see Yang Ming? Is there a mistake?

Although Zhang Jingyao knew that Yang Ming and General Kars had a cooperative relationship, it was just cooperation. With the identity of General Kars, how could he condescend to see Yang Ming?

However, Li Qiang agreed so readily, which made Zhang Jingyao feel somewhat incredulous.

Could it be a play by Yang Ming and Li Qiang? Does he want to show his strength in front of the Huang Family? At that time, even if General Kars did not come, Yang Ming could avoid it by saying that General Kars was busy and didn't have time to come. Then, he could be justified to take them to see General Kars.

Anyway, in the face of General Kars, he couldn't expose these, so this was not considered a lie.

However, what was the significance of doing this? Although it could boast Yang Ming's position in front of the Huang Family, once things were revealed, the situation would be worsened!

Now, the relationship between Yang Ming and General Kars were already very familiar. There was no need to make such hypocrisy. Therefore, for a while, Zhang Jingyao could hardly understand the deeper meaning of Yang Ming.

However, Huang Xiaofei, who looked somewhat puzzled at Yang Ming, was also bewildered. It was already astonishing that Yang Ming could be associated with General Kars. How could it be possible to make General Kars come and see them?

Even if Yang Ming boasted, Huang Xiaofei was not the kind of person who could not make discerning judgments. How would General Kars come to see them personally? Even if General Kars were forced to come to give Yang Ming face, in the end, General Kars' heart would probably be unhappy. When it was time to do things, it would not be too smooth. General Kars must definitely get his face back from other places.

Although General Kars was only a temporary president, at least, he was the top decision-maker of Country X. To have him condescend to see Yang Ming, wasn't that...

Thinking about this, Huang Xiaofei felt that it was not very likely. In case General Kars accumulated rancor, then it would be difficult to do anything in the future! When he thought of it, Huang Xiaofei was secretly shocked.

However, he naturally knew that Yang Ming said this because he might want to surprise Zhang Jingyao!

Huang Xiaofei thought that he was already Yang Ming's father-in-law, and Yang Ming had helped him a lot. Yang Ming was considered part of the family, so he was not regarded as an outsider. In front of Huang Xiaofei, Yang Ming didn't have to act like a stranger. He could just tell the truth.

Therefore, in Huang Xiaofei's view, Yang Ming must have tried to give Zhang Jingyao reassurance. However, since Zhang Jingyao had come to Country X, there was no need to take such a big risk just to be in the limelight.

Thinking of this, Huang Xiaofei quickly said to Yang Ming, "Yang Ming, how is it appropriate to let General Kars, who is busy attending to various state affairs, to come and see us? It is already terrific that he can accept our visit! We are in their territory, after all. Even if you have a good personal relationship with General Kars, it is also just a personal relationship. We are asking him about business!"

Huang Xiaofei said this to give Yang Ming a way out of an embarrassing situation. Otherwise, it would make Yang Ming embarrassed if he directly reprimanded Yang Ming. This way, Yang Ming's face was preserved, and Zhang Jingyao would not think too much.

Zhang Jingyao really overthought. However, if Huang Xiaofei knew that Zhang Jingyao's thoughts were the same as himself, who knew how he would feel about that. However, he immediately had this opportunity.

After hearing the words of Huang Xiaofei, Zhang Jingyao secretly praised Huang Xiaofei to be very sensible at the moment. Unlike the impulsive guy, he said these words obviously to protect Yang Ming, and not to hurt his face.

Therefore, Zhang Jingyao quickly followed the words of Huang Xiaofei. "Yes, General Kars is so busy. He has so many state affairs to attend to every day, so we should visit him."

"Hey?" Yang Ming was stunned. After listening to the words of Huang Xiaofei and Zhang Jingyao, he was a bit puzzled. He looked at Li Qiang and asked, "Is Kars busy every day? Li Qiang?"

"Busy?" Li Qiang was also surprised. "Who knows? Maybe he is busy for nothing. I don't see the results of his business. Kars is an uncouth fellow, not as good as me. A lot of things were done after he discussed them with me."

" Oh

At the moment the mouths of Zhang Jingyao and Huang Xiaofei became an "O" shape. They were stunned as they looked at Li Qiang with a horrified look. This Li Qiang is just a driver, right? How can he discuss important matters with General Kars?

This tone is too boastful, right? Even if Yang Ming wants to show off, isn't it too obvious? This is not obvious; it's bragging!

If Yang Ming and General Kars had a very close relationship, then Zhang Jingyao and Huang Xiaofei could still believe it. But if Li Qiang, the driver, was also on the same level as General Kars, and they even discussed important things together, they wouldn't believe it even if someone threatened to kill them.

At best, they could barely believe that Li Qiang said that he had contact with General Kars. After all, General Kars' relationship with Yang Ming was there. Just that, Li Qiang now...

Yang Ming bragged; Li Qiang also bragged. Zhang Jingyao suddenly felt a little disgusted, and he began to have some doubts. Indeed, Yang Ming's skill was good. If he were an assassin, then this was very likely.

However, if he were an assassin, did it mean that he must have a relationship with General Kars? This was not necessary, right? Could it be that Yang Ming was just deceiving him? Did he lie and say that he had a relationship with General Kars in exchange for Zhang Jingyao's support for the Huang Family?

Zhang Jingyao heard that Country X used the form of open bidding to allocate the mining rights of each mine. Then, it meant that if you have money, you can be allocated a piece of it. There was no need to have any relationship with General Kars.

Moreover, he heard that this bidding would be fair and just. There were no covert activities, then... that meant that the role of Yang Ming was dispensable!

As he thought of this, Zhang Jingyao's doubts were even more so. Could it be that what Li Family's Li Zhichun and his son said was all true? I listened to Yang Ming's lie... Hence, the irony of Li Zhichun and his son is not surprising; they must think that I am a fool...

Zhang Jingyao's heart had a chill, and the cold sweat on his head also came out. However, he did not dare to expose it in front of Yang Ming! Yang Ming was a horrifying existence, especially in this land without laws. If he were killed by Yang Ming, then he could only die in vain. It was not even a place where he could use reason.

Therefore, although Zhang Jingyao was in a state of turmoil, on the surface, he did not dare to make any movements. He still maintained a calm expression. He did not want to die far away from his hometown.

Huang Xiaofei was also stunned. He initially wanted to help Yang Ming out. Unexpectedly, the driver of Yang Ming was so ignorant. He wanted to help the boss to brag, but he couldn't brag like this, right? This was just lying through his teeth!

In this way, even if Huang Xiaofei was willing to help Yang Ming to get out of it, it was unlikely. Li Qiang had already made a dead end. He couldn't say anything else.

Initially, both of them were already frightened, suspicious, and had their ups and downs. However, what Yang Ming said next was even more surprising. "I wonder what is he busy with. Then tell him to go to the gold mine first and wait for us."

"Okay, I will call him." Li Qiang nodded.

Under the shocked looks of Zhang Jingyao and Huang Xiaofei, Li Qiang picked up the phone and dialed a number...

Huang Lele did not show anything about the dialogue between Yang Ming and Li Qiang. After all, she had always been very convinced of Yang Ming. Whatever Yang Ming said or did, she believed in him without a doubt.

At this moment, Huang Rongjin and Huang Rongtian couldn't trust Yang Ming like Huang Lele. Huang Rongjin was better. Especially Huang Rongtian, he didn't really trust it since he did not have much contact with Yang Ming. Basically, the news about Yang Ming was all hearsay from Huang Rongjin and Huang Lele, so it naturally wasn't that convincing.

However, at this time, Huang Rongtian couldn't even question him. Although Huang Rongtian was very disgusted with Li Qiang and Yang Ming for bragging, on the surface, he still didn't say anything. He just treated it as a joke.

Li Qiang's phone was connected, and he was not polite. He said directly, "Kars? This is Li Qiang."

Kars had a dedicated private phone that did not require the secretary to transfer, but only a few people knew about this number. Yang Ming and Li Qiang were some of them.

However, Yang Ming never took the initiative to call Kars; Kars was always the one who called him.

As soon as Kars heard Li Qiang's voice, he quickly said, "Captain Li, what's the matter?"

"Brother Yang is here; you go wait at the gold mine. We will arrive soon." Li Qiang directly informed.

"Mr. Yang came? Okay!" General Kars said immediately after listening. "I will go to the gold mine now!"

Although Yang Ming did not say that he had the ownership rights to this small island nation of Africa, General Kars understood that the small island of Country X was just like Yang Ming's private island.

Now, General Kars could only be said to be a private butler of Yang Ming. He heard that Li Qiang had contacted a particular administrative department in Africa. He was ready to buy the land of Country X, completely turning it into private territory.

Although Country X now formally belonged to the management department in Africa, in fact, Country X had been at war for many years, and it was already independent. What Li Qiang had to do was to have a nominal name internationally to let Country X truly become Yang Ming's private territory.

Hearing Li Qiang talking so seriously on the phone there, the people in the car had their own thoughts. Of course, Zhang Jingyao and Huang Xiaofei did not think that Li Qiang really called General Kars. This kind of pretentious approach was too botched up and had no quality! It was just too overreaching!
