Chapter 1281: Creating Trouble

“Let me think about it. As long as they are at the Carnival, it will be our territory; we have a way to deal with it!” Qian Tangjiang frowned and began to think; he wanted to come up with a good way where he not only could create trouble for Yang Ming and Wu Yunsheng but could let Sun Jie and Yang Xin have a good impression of him and Yu Tianzhu.

“What is the solution?” Yu Tianzhu became interested. He also thought that Qian Tangjiang was right. This Carnival was their territory; wasn’t it easy for them to stir up trouble?

“Why don’t we make a hero saves the beauty show?” Qian Tangjiang’s academic qualifications were not high, so his idea was naturally not very clever. After thinking for a long time, he thought of such an approach.

“Save the beauty? How to save? That Yang Ming doesn’t look weak.” Yu Tianzhu hesitated. After all, he had just suffered a loss from Yang Ming. “Even if you let me pretend to be a punk, I am probably not the opponent of Yang Ming!”

“You’re right, but we can come up with a special one. It isn’t necessary to look for punks to cause conflict, right?” Qian Tangjiang said, “We can use some more sophisticated means...”

“That’s great!” When Yu Tianzhu heard that he didn’t have to do it himself, he immediately agreed. After all, Yang Ming just caused him to suffer from psychological trauma. He didn’t dare to fight Yang Ming again. The situation would be sending the helve after the hatchet at that time. Then, it wouldn’t be fun; he would be the one who suffered in the end, so Yu Tianzhu had to be careful.

“What is great? Have I thought of a way yet?” Qian Tangjiang was displeased as he glared at Yu Tianzhu.

Yu Tianzhu quickly bowed his head. Qian Tangjiang was the one in charge here. This Carnival Amusement Park was contracted by Qian Tangjiang, so he relied on Qian Tangjiang for his living.

Although Qian Tangjiang wasn’t a good person, and he always had a lot of bad thoughts, it was still a little difficult to think of a decent idea that only worked within the carnival’s territory!

Qian Tangjiang thought about it, but he had no idea, so he kicked Yu Tianzhu and said, “Aren’t you usually very capable? Why are you having a power outage when it’s time for you to shine?”

“I...” Yu Tianzhu felt wronged. He thought, You can’t think of any ideas, but you want me to think of an idea? Aren’t you making it difficult for me? Wait... Power outage? Yu Tianzhu suddenly had an inspiration as if there was god-like help. He suddenly came up with a brilliant idea. He slapped his thigh and shouted, “Brother Qian, I have it!”

Although there were not many people in this Haike shop, there were also a few tables of guests. Yu Tianzhu screamed so loud, so everyone looked at him, showing strange and suspicious eyes. It was inevitable for them to have some discrimination after looking at Yu Tianzhu’s excited expression.

He has it? What does he have? Could it be that he is pregnant?

Qian Tangjiang felt the ambiguous attention from everyone, and his face was also blushing. Why does it feel like I'm having a Brokeback affair with Yu Tianzhu? He glared at Yu Tianzhu with dissatisfaction.

"Why are you f*cking shouting? Quickly, tell me your idea!"

Qian Tangjiang deliberately raised his voice so that the guests in the Haike shop could hear it, and they wouldn't think in the wrong direction. Sure enough, when Qian Tangjiang said it, everyone lost their interest. They knew that they had misunderstood, so they stopped paying attention to them.

Qian Tangjiang saw that everyone was busy with their own matters, and he took a sigh of relief. He spoke to Yu Tianzhu, "Hurry up and say it!"

"Yes, yes!" Yu Tianzhu said quickly, "Brother Qian, didn't you just say that I have a power outage?"

"What about it?" Qian Tangjiang frowned, and impatiently said, "If there is something to say, just say it. Just talk about the key points; don't talk nonsense."

"Brother Qian, I am talking about power outages!" Yu Tianzhu said, "You think about it. If there is a power outage when they are riding the roller coaster or pirate ship, they will stop in midair. How scary will that be? Sun Jie and Yang Xin will be scared. At that time, we can show up and rescue them. What would they think?"

"En? This is indeed a good idea!" Qian Tangjiang's eyes shined after listening. "We don't have to do much to show off our heroic charm; this is not bad. No matter how powerful Yang Ming is, he will not notice any problem. We will be there to save them in their moment of crisis. How valuable could that be?!"

"Yeah, let's just do it! Let's see where are they going now." Yu Tianzhu said quickly.

"But... will the other tourists complain about it if we do this?" Qian Tangjiang wasn't a fool after all. After the excitement, he was worried after he thought about it. This amusement park was contracted by his family; they couldn't just mess around. If they offended the tourists and caused some trouble, wouldn't his family punish them for that?

Thinking of this, Qian Tangjiang was a little hesitant. Although picking up girls was more important, it wasn't acceptable if it affected the family's business.

"Why don't we do this? We'll save Yang Xin and Sun Jie first. After saving them, we will save the tourists again, so that others can't say anything, and it will show how caring and ethical we are!" Yu Tianzhu said, "In this way, we are role models!"

"You're right! Your idea is not bad; the others can't say anything about us." Qian Tangjiang was very happy. He wasn't only saving Sun Jie and Yang Xin, but he would save everyone else. Others would definitely think that he was executing his duty!

Since they had made up their minds, they didn't bother about drinking anymore. They hurriedly left the Haike shop without paying. The proprietress couldn't help it as she was accustomed to this.

"In which direction did they go?" Outside the Haike shop, they didn't see Sun Jie, Yang Xin, and others. Although this Carnival was their territory, it was so big. They couldn't determine where Sun Jie and the others went.

"They seem to be at the roller coaster; let's look for them." Yu Tianzhu looked around and said.

"Alright, let's go!" Qian Tangjiang had no idea. They could only search bit by bit in this huge amusement park.

As they spoke, they headed in the direction of the roller coaster.

However, Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu really got it right; Yang Ming and his party really went to the roller coaster. There were two types of roller coasters; both were the same, but one of them didn't have the mountain tunnel. It looked like it was shuttling through the sky.

When Wu Yunsheng saw the roller coaster, his face changed slightly, but he still endured it without voicing out. He knew that Yang Xin liked these more exciting rides, so he did not want to let Yang Xin be disappointed.

Yang Xin probably also knew that Wu Yunsheng wasn't feeling well today, so she asked with concern, "Yunsheng, why don't we skip this ride today."

"It's okay." Wu Yunsheng gritted his teeth, pretended to be a big man, and waved his hand. "I just drank some cold drinks. I'm fine now. Let's go; I will accompany you!"

Yang Xin and Wu Yunsheng had been together for so long, so she naturally knew that he was enduring it. She was a little worried, but it was inappropriate to say anything in front of so many people. After all, Wu Yunsheng had said that he was fine. If she said more, it would seem that she was looking down on him.

Although Yang Xin always commanded Wu Yunsheng to do things, she did not want others to look down on him. This was Yang Xin's strange psychology.

Yang Ming certainly knew Wu Yunsheng's situation at the moment. Wu Yunsheng's balancing ability might not be good, and he hadn't done any training on this aspect. Even if he were recovering now, he would throw up if he got on anything more exciting and dizzy.

Thinking of this, Yang Ming smiled and said, "Sister Yang Xin, brother-in-law is fine, but I'm not fine. This thing is too scary. You go on and play with Little Jie. Just let brother-in-law accompany me down here!"

Yang Xin and Sun Jie were shocked. Sun Jie had just gone on the roller coaster with Yang Ming. Yang Ming didn't have anything. He also thought about fixing her seat belt, and he also reminded her of her bra. How was this being afraid? Yang Xin also noticed that Yang Ming's face was normal; he didn't look scared at all.

When they thought about it, they understood that Yang Ming didn't want Wu Yunsheng to be embarrassed, so he deliberately said this. In this way, Sun Jie and Yang Xin could ride the roller coaster together; Yang Ming and Wu Yunsheng didn't have to go.

Wu Yunsheng first understood Yang Ming's purpose, and he smiled at Yang Ming. Sun Jie naturally wouldn't expose this explanation. She responded joyfully, "That's fine. You and Wu Yunsheng can just protect us from down here!"

"No problem!" Yang Ming nodded and said, "Let's go buy tickets, brother-in-law!"

Seeing Yang Ming and Sun Jie say this, Yang Xin naturally wouldn't say anything, but she was very grateful to Yang Ming. She thought, Although this younger brother isn't my relative, he is exceptionally considerate and kind. It seems that I made the correct decision to accept him as my godbrother.

"Thank you for that, Yang Ming!" After taking a few steps forward, Wu Yunsheng whispered to Yang Ming.

"Don't be courteous," Yang Ming said with a smile. "We are a family; I naturally have to be considerate of you!"

"I've had motion sickness since I was a child, and I am more dizzy about these things, so..." Wu Yunsheng smiled bitterly and said, "I'm not really afraid; I just can't stand the sense of speed!"

"I understand." Yang Ming waved his hand. "Everyone's body is different; it can't be forced."

Seeing that Yang Ming understood, Wu Yunsheng was very happy. His relationship with Yang Ming became closer. After they bought tickets for Sun Jie and Yang Xin, they returned.

"Little Jie, Yang Xin, we bought the tickets. Let's go to the queue!" Yang Ming greeted Sun Jie and Yang Xin.

"Okay!" Sun Jie and Yang Xin came over, but they found that there were quite a lot of people who came to ride the roller coaster. The queue was very long; they probably had to wait for a round or two before going up.

Chapter 1282: The Roller Coaster Incident

"What are we going to play in a while? There are still many things that have not been played." Yang Xin looked at the map on the ticket. "There are aquariums and acrobatic groups in front!"

"Then, let's go look at that!" Wu Yunsheng agreed repeatedly. When he heard that it was not something that involved speed, he was naturally happy. Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to stand it if they always went on these kinds of rides. If it weren't for Yang Ming and Sun Jie who came, he would have suffered this afternoon!

Yang Xin smiled and naturally understood Wu Yunsheng's thoughts. However, out of concern and love for him, she decided not to drag him to play these things that involved speed and excitement.

The queue was still very long. The four people stood at the end of the line; they queued up and chatted about some interesting things that happened in their lives. But in most cases, Sun Jie and Yang Xin were talking while Yang Ming and Wu Yunsheng listened silently on the side. Both of them couldn't participate in the conversation, and there was nothing to talk about on their topic.

Both Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu went all the way to the vicinity of the roller coaster. Sure enough, they saw Sun Jie, Yang Xin, and others queueing up in the crowd. Yu Tianzhu said with a little excitement, "Brother Qian, you see; they are over there!"

"En, very good. It seems that they are preparing to go on the roller coaster! This is good, hahaha!" When Qian Tangjiang thought of Sun Jie's and Yang Xin's horrified faces when the roller coaster experienced a power failure in midair, he was excited in his heart. Then, I can be the hero who saves the beauty and show my skills!

It was just that it was a little troublesome to save other people, but to win a good name for himself, Qian Tangjiang could only endure it. Thinking back, didn't those ruthless people become teenage mutant ninja turtles? That's the highest title of ninjas...

"Let's not let them find out," reminded Yu Tianzhu.

"That's true also. Let's go to the control room over there and wait for a while. When Sun Jie and Yang Xin get in the roller coaster, tell the people in the control room to stop the machine!" said Qian Tangjiang.

"Okay, I am going to get the small b*st*rd in the security department to prepare the ladder. The time for us to show our talents is here!" Yu Tianzhu said quickly.

Qian Tangjiang nodded and went to the control room near the roller coaster with Yu Tianzhu. He knocked on the door. Initially, the people inside still said very impatiently, "This is an important control room; idlers are not allowed to enter!"

"Who is this? He's so arrogant? He can still tell me that idlers are not allowed to enter." Qian Tangjiang snorted and directly pushed the door of the workplace without knocking.

The operator of the workplace looked up and was about to scold, but he saw that it was Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu, so he quickly said with a smile, "It turns out to be President Qian and Captain Yu. Please, come in quickly..."

These two people were the real powers of the Carnival Amusement Park. Even the operators were afraid to offend them, especially Qian Tangjiang. This Carnival Amusement Park was contracted by his Second Uncle. This guy couldn't be offended.

"At least, your eyes can still see!" Qian Tangjiang snorted and sat on the sofa next to him. "In a moment, please do something!"

"Aiya, President Qian, just instruct me on what you want to do. Why do you still ask me? Aren't you treating me coldly?!" The operator said quickly.

Although he said so, he still had second thoughts. I'm just a small operator, I only control the roller coaster. Qian Tangjiang is the manager of the commercial development department of the Carnival Amusement Park and the nephew of the Chairman. No matter what, he doesn't need to ask me, right?

Whatever that I can do, never mind Qian Tangjiang, even if Yu Tianzhu were to say something, I have to do it. The position of the two is much higher than mine.

"This thing, you have to do it. We really don't understand how to do it!" Qian Tangjiang waved his hand and said.

"In that case, what is it that you need me to do?" asked the operator, nervously.

"In a while, when you operate the roller coaster, when I want you to stop it, you stop it for me. Do you hear?" informed Qian Tangjiang.

"Stop? What do you mean?" The operator did not understand.

"That is, to stop the machine in your hand. Do you understand this?" Qian Tangjiang pointed to the console next to the operator and explained it.

"Ah?" The operator was shocked. "Then wouldn't the roller coaster stop midair?"

"Yes, you stop it in midair." Qian Tangjiang nodded.

"President Qian, what do you mean by this? If it stops in midair, wouldn't those tourists not be able to come down?" The operator still did not understand what this Qian Tangjiang meant.

"I'm telling you to stop it in midair, so you just stop it in midair. Why is there so much nonsense?" Yu Tianzhu was impatient; he glared and snorted.

These two great gods were high-level figures of the Carnival Amusement Park. The operators couldn't afford to offend them. When he heard Yu Tianzhu get angry, he subconsciously ducked, and explained with a smile, "President Qian, Captain Yu, you see. If I stop the roller coaster, those tourists will be in midair and can't come down. What do we do if they're unwilling? Besides, if the higher-ups find out, I will be fired..."

"How? Are you not afraid of me firing you?" Qian Tangjiang's face turned grim and threatened, "I tell you, if you follow what I say today, then nothing will happen. I will shoulder it for you if there is any problem. If you don't listen, I will talk to the personnel of the human resource department in a while to have you out of the way tonight!"

The operator was suddenly stunned. What Qian Tangjiang said was not an alarmist talk. With his connection and status, even if the chairman of the board of directors didn't say a word, he could be fired.

Therefore, he weighed the pros and cons, and the operator could only bow down to fate. So, he said, "Alright, President Qian. I'll do whatever you want me to do!"

"That's right!" Qian Tangjiang nodded. He said very refreshingly, "But you can rest assured that when you have done this well, you will be under me in the future. It's no problem for me to promote you to the chief commander of the park's facility!"

The chief commander was the operator's boss. When the operator heard that he could sit in this position, he quickly thanked, "Thank you for the promotion, President Qian."

If someone else said this, the operator might not take it seriously. A manager of the business development department only managed the rental of business services, billboard rental, etc. in the Carnival Amusement Park; it's unrelated to the operators. There was no direct subordinate relationship.

It was possible to say that he could be fired, but promotion was absolutely impossible! How could the appointment and exemption of personnel in a large company be done by a notice from someone else?

However, Qian Tangjiang was different. Qian Tangjiang was the nephew of the chairman. His words were very effective in any department of the Carnival Amusement Park. One could tell just by seeing Yu Tianzhu beside him. If a little punk could sit in the position of the security manager, what else was impossible?

Qian Tangjiang waved his hand and said, "In a while, just stop when I tell you to stop. If someone asks you, you just say that the machine has failed. If there is something else, ask them to find me!"

"Okay, President Qian!" Once the operator heard that Qian Tangjiang had shouldered the matter onto himself, he was relieved. At least, this time, if the higher-ups wanted to pursue it, he would not be unlucky.

Over on Yang Ming's and Sun Jie's side, they naturally did not know that Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu were ready to do some evil tricks. The four of them were in line; seeing that it was almost their turn, they finally breathed a sigh of relief.

"This amusement park is making money. There are so many people coming every day!" Sun Jie sighed. "We should open one in the future!"

Yang Ming smiled and whispered to her, "It's already happening in Africa..."

"Ah ..." Sun Jie was stunned, and she knew that Yang Ming was talking about the African island, so she nodded. Because these things were not matured yet, they couldn't talk about it to Yang Xin and Wu Yunsheng. Both of them could only speak about it privately.

It was finally Sun Jie and Yang Xin's turn. The two were the first to get on the ride, so they sat in the front. This seat had the strongest visual impact. Many people wouldn't choose this seat if they came up first because it was too exciting, and they couldn't stand it.

However, Sun Jie and Yang Xin were obviously a daring pair. When they first sat on the roller coaster, they were still a little scared; now, it was a walk in the park for them.

After sitting down, Sun Jie remembered the scene when Yang Ming had checked her seat belt. So, she carefully checked her and Yang Xin's seat belt and found that there was no problem; then, she was relieved. Anyway, there was nothing wrong with being too careful about this. Sun Jie also learned these things.

After the inspection, Sun Jie said to Yang Xin, "Little Xin, you have to be careful. Button up the buttons on your shirt, or your chest will fly out!"

That video was very popular, and naturally, Yang Xin had seen it. Her face reddened, and she said, "I know, but you are very careful. Sitting with you is safe..."

"I also learned it from Yang Ming..." Sun Jie was a bit embarrassed. If it were just herself, she would definitely not pay attention to the inspection of these seat belts.

In fact, the safety belts of the Carnival's roller coaster theoretically needed to be re-inspected every time it was operated, but to save time and make money, the work was turned into a daily thing, which increased many safety hazards.

"Yang Ming is considerate. He also cares for Wu Yunsheng's face." Yang Xin smiled and said.

Hearing praise from Yang Xin, Sun Jie was very pleased in her heart. Now that she and Yang Ming had already established a relationship, she naturally cared about these things.

After a preparatory ringing sounded, the roller coaster was about to start. Sun Jie took a deep breath, and the roller coaster slowly moved and rushed to the sky.

At this time, in the control room not far away, Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu were looking at the roller coaster with excitement. The two people were now very excited. When they thought that they could go and act bad*ss in a while, they were dancing and gesticulating for joy.

When the roller coaster flew through several sprints and reached the top, Qian Tangjiang patted the shoulder of the operator and shouted, "Stop! Stop! Quickly stop! It's here!"

Chapter 1283: Action Blockbuster

The roller coaster that was still running in the air suddenly stopped. The tourists who were having fun had their bodies rush forward due to inertia. They were forcefully dragged back and locked in midair.

After a short stun, screams came one after another. Everyone was scared! The roller coaster was stopped in the air without much reason. This was definitely not a part of the entertainment. Previously, they saw that other people had a smooth ride where the roller coaster did not stop at all.

"What happened?"

"Hurry up and continue!"

"Why did it stop? Who's operating it?"

"Someone hurry up and give us a reasonable explanation!"

Curses and complaints mixed with the crying of the women and children caused a commotion in the amusement park that was originally full of laughter.

Fortunately, the roller coaster was stopped in the air properly. If it were upside down in the air, then these tourists would most likely be unable to bear it.

"F*ck, what is going on? We won't be so unlucky, right?" Wu Yunsheng, who was at the bottom, was anxious. His wife, Yang Xin, was still up there. He was so far away; he could not hear and could not see the situation. Could he not be worried?

However, Wu Yunsheng couldn't see it; Yang Ming could see that Sun Jie and Yang Xin were in a panic, but the situation was not bad. Yang Ming rested at ease in his heart. This incident was too weird. He saw that other nearby amusement facilities were working normally; only the roller coaster stopped in the air. This was obviously not caused by a power outage. Since there was no power outage, what was it then?

The roller coaster suddenly stopped in midair without any warning, which made Yang Ming doubt the truth of the matter. This incident was too sudden and seemed unusual. If he had not met the two guys, Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu before, Yang Ming would regard this incident as an accident.

But these two guys were the top figures in the amusement park, so it was hard to say whether they would play dirty tricks.

It was imperative to save Sun Jie and Yang Xin first. Who knew what would happen if they stayed a little longer?

The tourists in the air complained while the family members on the ground grew even more emotional. They surrounded the staff member who was responsible for ticket checking, asking him what had happened.

The person checking the tickets did not know what was wrong with the roller coaster. He was only responsible for checking the tickets, but he was not responsible for the amusement park facilities operations. However, the order below was already confusing; anything he said was useless. He was still besieged by many people.

"Little Jie, what happened?" After a short stun, Yang Xin, like everyone else, was scared. "Why did this roller coaster stop moving in the air?"

"There may be a power outage..." Sun Jie was not clear about the specific reasons. She frowned and saw the amusement park facilities such as the "Flume ride" and "Crazy Mouse" in the distance still working normally. Sun Jie ruled out her previous thoughts. "It shouldn't be a power outage. Other amusement park facilities are still operating. Maybe something went wrong..."

"Ah!" Yang Xin's psychological quality was not as good as Sun Jie's. After all, Sun Jie had just experienced a great change in life and death. She had already disregarded these things in her sight. This was nothing compared to things that happened before. It was merely getting trapped in the air. However, as long as the rails under the roller coaster did not collapse, they would not be in danger for the time being.

"Look! Wu Yunsheng and Yang Ming are waving to us!" Sun Jie smiled at Yang Xin to let her feel at ease and pointed below the roller coaster.

Yang Xin glanced down; she suddenly felt dizzy and almost screamed. Indeed, she liked to pursue this kind of excitement and shock, but that was also the case where she was sure that nothing would happen to her, and it would end in a moment. It had been just a few minutes from launching the roller coaster until it stopped. It was safe after the situation became less rowdy.

But now the situation was different. The roller coaster stopped in the air; it couldn't go up and down. How could Yang Xin not be afraid? This fear of the unknown was the most unbearable.

"I think I should stop looking down... That scares me..." Yang Xin patted her chest and closed her eyes.

"It's okay; maybe it will be fixed right away." Sun Jie comforted her.

In fact, Sun Jie had no confidence in her heart. She had never played similar things before; she didn't know what to do after this happened. In fact, even people who have ridden this many times, such as Yang Xin, still felt anxious to encounter such a situation.

Since the probability was simply too low, some people didn't encounter it even once in their lifetime.

Just as Sun Jie didn't know what to do, there was a commotion among the tourists on the roller coaster. Sun Jie looked toward the source of the sound, and her eyes widened in horror!

She saw that Yang Ming crossed the fence and jumped into the isolation belt of the roller coaster! He was about to leap onto the roller coaster rails!

Yang Ming was still unable to determine whether this was a conspiracy coming from Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu, but it was important to save Sun Jie and Yang Xin. Yang Ming was afraid that something went wrong, so he jumped onto the isolation belt of the roller coaster.

The staff responsible for the ticket checking there saw that Yang Ming jumped into the isolation belt and became anxious all of a sudden. He shouted loudly to have Yang Ming leave quickly – It is dangerous! However, his voice was quickly overshadowed by the families of the tourists who besieged him. He could only helplessly watch Yang Ming continue to approach the roller coaster.

It was not difficult for Yang Ming's skills to climb from the rails to the roller coaster. When he was training with the European Butterfly Family, Yang Ming passed the simulation training that was much harder than this situation with ease.

Of course, there were certain dangers for others to do so. The roller coaster was now stopped in midair, but who could guarantee that this roller coaster would not suddenly start again?

In that case, it was odd that people who climbed on the rails would not get killed by the roller coaster crashing into them. However, Yang Ming was not afraid of this happening. Before Yang Ming climbed the rails, he predicted that this might happen. He could make an emergency judgment within the one-thousandth of a second to quickly find a foothold and jump back to the ground.

Just as Sun Jie was struck dumb in amazement, Yang Ming appeared in front of her at the next moment! Yang Ming stood on the side of the roller coaster. She did not know how Yang Ming stood on it and how he balanced himself.

"Yang Ming, you..." Sun Jie didn't know what to say. It was amazing and unacceptable. Although Sun Jie knew that Yang Ming was great... wasn't it too extraordinary?

Before she could see it clearly, Yang Ming had already climbed to her side.

"Don't move." Yang Ming swiftly released the seat belt and shoulder guardrail on Sun Jie, and he said to her, "Hold onto me. Put your arms around my neck and don't let go!"

"Oh ..." Sun Jie had lost her mind at this time, and she instinctively nodded with Yang Ming.

Yang Ming reached out and picked up Sun Jie so that she could rest on him. This kind of bliss was difficult to have at ordinary times, but at this moment, Yang Ming also refused to feel the softness of Sun Jie's chest and body. He whispered, "Do you know about the octopus? Act like it. You must grab me tightly; don't let go, no matter what!"

"Okay." Sun Jie held Yang Ming tightly, almost strangling Yang Ming to death. Yang Ming rolled his eyes, but he did not utter any words to stop it. It was always safer to hold tightly than to hold loosely.

"Little Jie, who are you talking to?" Yang Xin was terrified to the point of closing her eyes. She faintly heard that someone was talking. At first, she thought Sun Jie was talking to her, but after listening to a few words, it didn't seem like that. The surrounding was accompanied by bursts of exclamations from tourists!

Then, Yang Xin opened her eyes and turned to look at Sun Jie. She was just about to say something, but she suddenly lost her voice, dropped her jaws widely, and saw the shocking scene!

Yang Xin just saw Yang Ming jump down from the roller coaster with Sun Jie! After a long while, Yang Xin, who had just recollected herself, screamed out loud.

However, her voice was quickly overwhelmed because other passengers were also screaming! This was like the story in a Jackie Chan action blockbuster! Only this time, it actually happened in front of them!

Yang Ming basically ignored the screams while Sun Jie was caught in an excited mood. She could not hear any outside voices!

Sun Jie had encountered such a thrilling event for the first time since childhood! She only felt the wind whistling in her ear. She was moving in the clouds with Yang Ming which was much more thrilling than the previous roller coaster ride!

Before Yang Ming came up, he had already found a good foothold. Yang Ming's jumping ability was amazing. Even if he closed his eyes without looking down, he could use his special ability to find the foothold clearly. After several landings, he had already arrived safely on the ground with Sun Jie.

The passengers on the roller coaster were stunned; the family members of the tourists under the roller coaster were also shocked, including the former ticket checking staff who also looked at the scene in front of them! This is simply too amazing, right?

"Why don't you release me?" Yang Ming smiled and patted Sun Jie's little waist. Although this feeling was very enjoyable, it was not the time to enjoy it. Yang Xin was still up there!

"Didn't you tell me not to let go, no matter what!?" Sun Jie's mood was in a state of excitement, and she did not want to let Yang Ming go, so she said so.

"But now we are safe." Yang Ming smiled and said, "Well, we can hug when we are home tonight. Yang Xin is still up top. I have to save her!"

Although Sun Jie was very reluctant in her heart, she had to let Yang Ming go when she heard that Yang Ming was going to save Yang Xin. She couldn't just care about herself and forget about her good sister, Yang Xin, right?

"Alright, you will accompany me tonight." Sun Jie reluctantly let go of Yang Ming.

Chapter 1284: Airman

“Well, then you will accompany me tonight.” Sun Jie reluctantly let go of Yang Ming and whispered in his ear.

This sentence made Yang Ming so excited that he felt that it was worth dying for. It was Sun Jie’s first time inviting him on her own initiative. Last time, Yang Ming either stayed at Sun Jie’s place shamelessly, or he got Sun Jie through Xiao Qing’s help. Anyway, Sun Jie was unwilling every time. Although she finally followed his own intentions, Yang Ming wasn’t satisfied in this situation.

The situation was different now. Sun Jie invited him willingly to accompany her. The meaning was naturally different.

“ En , we will see tonight; now, I have to save Sister Yang Xin.” Yang Ming was not willing to give up the opportunity to keep chatting with Sun Jie, but the situation was dire. Yang Ming had to save Yang Xin at least!

As for other people, Yang Ming couldn’t care so much. Yang Ming was not a savior, a Carnival worker, nor a firefighter. This work would be left for these people to do. Yang Ming could only save his own friends and family.

Of course, it wasn’t that Yang Ming was selfish, but these people didn’t seem to be in danger in the current situation. As for why Yang Ming wanted to save Sun Jie and Yang Xin first, it was because Yang Ming was afraid of any accident that may happen. This incident was caused by Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu instead of the roller coaster’s technical issues!

Currently, the roller coaster safely stopped in midair. The people on this roller coaster wouldn’t be in danger even if they were up there for a week. The people could be saved one by one as long as there was a ladder truck.

Yang Ming let go of Sun Jie and let her go to Wu Yunsheng to take a break, then he jumped on the rails again.

Yang Xin wasn’t afraid at the moment because she had already confirmed that Yang Ming saved Sun Jie! Sun Jie was now standing down there safe and sound and waving to her! And Yang Ming was climbing up again!

Yang Xin was more convinced at this moment that Yang Ming wasn’t afraid of riding the roller coaster, but he was only considering Wu Yunsheng’s face! If he were afraid, could he climb this roller coaster by hand?

“Sister Yang Xin, you hold me tightly later just like how Little Jie did... but will brother-in-law be jealous?” Yang Ming tried to ease the tension, so he released Yang Xin’s seat belt and guardrail while making a joke.

Yang Ming noticed that Yang Xin was more nervous than Sun Jie. The reason why he saved Sun Jie was that Sun Jie was one of his closest people, and he wanted to show Yang Xin an example. This could give her some confidence after seeing that Sun Jie was saved by him!

Sure enough, now Yang Xin had forgotten her fear. She nodded confidently to him and smiled. "He dares to be jealous? Besides, you are my godbrother. What is he jealous of?"

After that, Yang Xin hugged Yang Ming generously. Although he felt Yang Xin's soft chest, Yang Ming didn't dare to have any thoughts. He took a deep breath and jumped to the bottom.

With the previous experience, Yang Ming was more agile this time. After a few jumps, Yang Ming stood on the ground safely. The tourists on the roller coaster and the tourists' family once again made a cheer!

Wu Yunsheng was even so excited that he jumped up. Sure enough, he was not jealous, and he didn't even think about it. He was very grateful to Yang Ming in his heart.

After the two landed, Yang Ming quickly let Yang Xin go without leaving any traces to avoid the embarrassment between them. Yang Xin saw Yang Ming being so considerate, and she smiled gratefully. "Thank you."

"You are my sister. Why do you need to thank me?" Yang Ming waved his hand.

Before their conversation was finished, there was a commotion in the crowd again!

It was because they saw a ladder truck coming in their direction. However, because of the distance and the many tourists in Carnival Amusement Park, it was very slow.

However, two people were running to the roller coaster. They also held a big megaphone in their hands. They shouted as they ran, "Attention, the tourists above. Attention, the tourists above. The roller coaster has a mechanical issue. It's not working now, but it's alright. We have already called the ladder truck to rescue you immediately. Please don't move in the seats, and don't struggle. We will rescue accordingly from the front of the roller coaster to the back!"

Of course, Qian Tangjiang said this for a reason because he saw Sun Jie and Yang Xin sitting in the front of the roller coaster. Therefore, they could save Sun Jie and Yang Xin first.

Although it seemed the same to be saved first and later, the feeling was definitely different. Therefore, they wanted to give Sun Jie and Yang Xin a strong first impression to highlight their heroic image.

Seeing the rescuers come, the tourists on the roller coaster car also calmed down. They didn't seem to be anxious with the previous examples that Yang Ming saved Sun Jie and Yang Xin. They knew that they would be saved eventually if they just sat still.

The following family members of the tourists were also quiet. They took the initiative to let the ladder truck pass through here.

"Brother Qian..." Yu Tianzhu suddenly opened his eyes with amazement and pushed Qian Tangjiang.

"Why are you pushing me?" Qian Tangjiang frowned; he put down the megaphone inexplicably and said, "What's the matter?"

“Brother Qian, Yang Ming, that Yang Ming saved Yang Xin and Sun Jie!” Yu Tianzhu shouted as he pointed at Yang Ming and Yang Xin, who were walking away from the roller coaster.

Qian Tangjiang looked in the direction pointed by Yu Tianzhu, and he indeed saw Yang Ming and Yang Xin. He was dumbfounded instantly! They thought so hard to make a show of a hero saving the beauty, but Yang Ming saved Sun Jie and Yang Xin before them!

Although they didn’t know how Yang Ming did it, the facts were in front of them. They had to believe it!

“Motherf*cker. What the hell is going on?” Qian Tangjiang was enraged all of a sudden. He thought so hard to make this plan, but it just failed like this. How could he be willing?

“I don’t know,” Yu Tianzhu said with grievances. “So, are we still saving the tourists now?”

Qian Tangjiang frowned and said, “Of course, we save. We have already said it. If we don’t save them now, wouldn’t Sun Jie and Yang Xin look down on us even more? Even if we can’t save them, we at least have to be a hero. Maybe the newspapers will report it tomorrow. We are not afraid that Sun Jie and Yang Xin will not change their minds. There will be opportunities in the future. Let’s make a good impression on them first!”

Yu Tianzhu also agreed with it after listening, so he nodded and said, “Okay, let’s continue with the rescue...”

The ladder truck came over and began to save people under the command of Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu.

Yang Ming was sneering at this moment as he looked at everything that happened in front of him. He was just guessing at first, but now, he didn’t need to guess. This matter was a hundred percent related to Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu.

One of them was the manager of the business development department, and the other was the security captain. It was reasonable to say that the security captain was related to the rescue, but the manager of the business development department had nothing to do with this matter.

However, Qian Tangjiang was the mastermind of this plan judging from the situation at the scene. Yu Tianzhu was just an errand boy. This explained the oddity of this matter.

Thinking of this, Yang Ming started to look for the control room near the roller coaster; maybe the problem originated from there.

“You wait for me here; I am going to do something.” Yang Ming patted Sun Jie’s back and spoke to her.

Sun Jie was about to speak with Yang Ming after he saved Yang Xin, but she did not expect Yang Ming to leave again. Wu Yunsheng wanted to say something grateful to Yang Ming, but he could only talk later.

Yang Ming had an important matter to do, so he quickened his pace and quickly barged in the roller coaster’s operation room. Yang Ming didn’t knock at the door, but he knocked down the door with a kick.

The door of this operation room was made of iron. The operator inside was immediately shocked, seeing that the door was kicked down by Yang Ming. The operator turned back and looked at the door in horror. "You... who are you..."

However, he recognized Yang Ming after he said a few words! When Yang Ming rescued people, Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu were busy looking for the ladder truck and the big megaphone, so they did not see it. However, the operator who had been sitting in the control room had seen it clearly!

He was also afraid that there would be accidents on the other side of the roller coaster. If someone were hurt or fell, then his responsibility would be great. He would probably be sentenced! Although Qian Tangjiang's promise was very tempting to him, the operator was afraid that there would be big problems. If someone really died, no one could save him!

So, the operator saw Yang Ming crawling over the roller coaster like Spider-Man. This man's skills are too horrifying, right? If he knew he was still awake, he even thought that he was watching a 3D action movie.

It was not unusual for Yang Ming to kick down the operation room's iron door. This kind of bad*ss character could even smash the operation room with just one punch.

"Tell me; what's going on?" Yang Ming asked the operator who was stupefied.

"What... what's going on..." How could the operator be assured facing such a terrifying existence as Yang Ming?

"You don't want to say it?" Yang Ming stepped forward and picked up the operator, like picking up a little chick. "Do you want me to throw you on the roller coaster to give you a free trip into space?"

"Hero... this really has nothing to do with me. I didn't do that to the roller coaster..." The operator didn't know that Yang Ming, Sun Jie, and Yang Xin were just tourists. He saw the previous scene and subconsciously thought of those American blockbusters. He thought Yang Ming was some kind of hero.

"How much did Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu give you?" Yang Ming saw his weakling look, and he knew that he guessed it right.

Chapter 1285: Support The Truth

"They didn't... didn't give me money..." The operator trembled with fear as he shook his head.

"Then, they gave you benefits?" Yang Ming snorted and asked. There was nothing more than these two possibilities, money, or other benefits. Qian Tangjiang could only give him these.

"They..." The operator heard Yang Ming said so and thought that Yang Ming knew everything, so he no longer concealed it. "They didn't give me money. They just promised me that if I listened to them and stopped the roller coaster, they will give me a promotion afterward..."

Yang Ming nodded. It turns out to be like this. No wonder that he was so devoted. The opportunity for a bottom-level operator to get a promotion should be a very amazing thing. However, it cannot be said that the operator is self-seeking. People would generally try out this kind of opportunity; money comes from danger!

"If you don't want to become that iron door, just follow me." Yang Ming stepped forward, grabbed the collar of the operator, and picked him up.

"Do... what are you going to do..." Although the operator was not thin and weak, he did not dare to resist Yang Ming because he had seen Yang Ming's skill and saw him kicking the iron door. In his heart, he had a fear of Yang Ming. He couldn't afford to provoke such a person, nor could he fight him. Hence, the operator could only look at Yang Ming with his head down.

"To the roller coaster, to clearly explain Qing Tangjiang's conspiracy." Yang Ming did not wait for the operator to answer, and he could not help but say as he dragged the operator out of the workplace.

"I... I don't dare... then I will be fired..." The operator was shocked and pleaded quickly, "Hero, please, I can't live without my work..."

"If you are fired, I will help you find another job." Yang Ming did not talk without thinking. There were positions in Sun Hongjun's group. He could just arrange a position for him in the security department or the logistics department.

Seeing that Yang Ming said this, the operator could only follow according to Yang Ming's intentions. Otherwise, God knows how Yang Ming would deal with him. Compared to being fired by Qian Tangjiang, Yang Ming was still more terrifying.

When Yang Ming returned to the roller coaster, Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu had just rescued the trapped tourists on the roller coaster. The two were tired and sweaty.

Although they could just give commands and not do the work to show their heroism in front of Sun Jie and Yang Xin, the two still worked very hard. They personally commanded and appeased the tourists under the sun, and their method of handling it also made these trapped tourists very grateful. They felt that the service of the Carnival Amusement Park was outstanding. After the problem occurred, the staff came to deal with the problem on time and rescued them. Therefore, there were no complaints. Instead, they were full of praise towards the two people that worked hard and commanded the staff under the sun!

This was exactly what Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu were happy to see. Qian Tangjiang was very proud. "You don't have to thank us. This is what we should do. Although I'm the business development department manager, and this rescue is not under my jurisdiction, since I was a child, I practiced altruism to have a good moral character. So, after I found out that everyone had encountered a problem, I took the security captain, Yu Tianzhu, to help you solve the problem the first time."

The tourists who were just rescued and their families gave enthusiastic applause. They felt that these two young people were too noble, and they were just like Lei Feng ¹ [1]!

"The two guys are good, really good people!"

"Yeah, this kind of young man, who is altruistic, is really rare now!"

“Yes, write another letter to the newspaper too!”

Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu were immersed in this praise, and then, there was an extremely discordant sound.

“Everybody should not be blinded by him. Now, I want to tell you the truth about the roller coaster stopping in midair!” Yang Ming shouted at the crowd with the big megaphone from the control room.

This was an era where people absolutely was not lacking in curiosity. Yang Ming’s words suddenly made the crowd silent for a short moment, and then everyone looked over. Yang Ming handed the big megaphone to the operator.

Although the operator was nervous, out of fear of Yang Ming, he had to force himself to pick up the big megaphone. “Ladies and gentlemen, I am the operator who controls the roller coaster! Now, I want to tell you the truth!”

If someone else came with the operator, maybe the tourists would have some doubts. After all, if someone simply came and say that they were the operator of the controls, did it mean that it was true? There was no proof of identity. Who knew if his words were true or not?

But now the situation was different. The controls operator of this roller coaster was brought by Yang Ming! Who was Yang Ming? He had long been like a hero to these tourists; he could leap onto roofs and vault over walls. He saved people from such a high roller coaster, so he must be a great knight!

In the eyes of these tourists, they did not know that Yang Ming had a relationship with Sun Jie and Yang Xin. They believed that Yang Ming was a knight who punished the weak. Yang Ming started to save people from the front of the roller coaster, but only after saving two people, the staff of the Carnival Amusement Park came to rescue them. Then, Yang Ming no longer had to take the risk to save people.

Therefore, in the hearts of these tourists, Yang Ming’s status was very majestic, higher than Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu. At this moment, they heard that Yang Ming wanted to tell everyone the truth of the matter. Before the operator next to Yang Ming opened his mouth, their hearts were already turned to Yang Ming.

“Support the truth!”

“Give support to restore the truth!”

“I support it!”

The tourists shouted, and the operator became more at ease. It seemed that the current situation was beneficial to him, so he was not as nervous. “These two people, Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu, have just come to look for me. He told me to control the roller coaster and to stop it forcibly in midair! Although these two people are not my direct leaders, it is easy for them to fire me. I could only listen to them...”

Of course, the operator did not say anything about him being promised or promoted. This was meaningless now. If he didn’t say it, he could be more sympathetic. This was what Yang Ming taught him to do.

Sure enough, everyone present at the scene had thrown a hateful gaze at Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu. “You actually threatened people. If he didn’t listen to your words, you would fire him. Isn’t this too shameless and overbearing?”

“He is talking nonsense!” After a short moment of being stunned, Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu suddenly took a megaphone in their hands and shouted, “He is slandering and talking without thinking. We did not threaten him!”

“Yes!” Yu Tianzhu also echoed, “We didn’t threaten him; he wanted to get promoted, so he cooperated with us!”

Silence! Absolute silence! The operator and Yang Ming both widened their eyes and looked at Yu Tianzhu incredulously.

” Ha ?” Even Yang Ming didn’t know what to say... Isn’t this making a confession without duress?

“Are you f*cking stupid?” Qian Tangjiang was so angry that his lungs were fuming in rage. He picked up the big megaphone in his hand and smashed it on Yu Tianzhu. His head cracked and started bleeding.

“I... What did I say wrong?” Yu Tianzhu couldn’t understand what he did wrong.

The onlookers burst into laughter, and there was no doubt about it at the moment. They had cast their contempt and hatred toward both of them.

Taking advantage of this time, the operator picked up the megaphone again. “What he said is right. Indeed, they promised that I would be promoted, but if I didn’t cooperate, the result was still being fired. Therefore, I can only accept a compromise! Thankfully, this Hero is reasonable and sensible; he made me realize my mistake! So I decided that even if I were fired, I would accept it, but I must tell everyone the truth!”

The operator’s words were too arousing, the tourists were all infected with his impassioned words, and gave him the warmest applause! It was so rare for a person to be so honest and not afraid of power!

“Aren’t these two people too much like scum in the community?”

“They’re not even human!”

“Yes, they’re b*st*rds, pigs, dogs... No, they’re not even like a pig or a dog!”

“Little brother, it doesn’t matter. If they fired you, I want you. I am the CEO of XX company. You come to our company to work tomorrow; we lack people with your honesty!” A tall man in the crowd also shouted.

Yang Ming picked up the megaphone at this time. It was time to end the farce. “Fellow tourists, you see, to show off their heroism, these two people put everyone’s lives in disregard and did something dangerous. This kind of act that harmed others for their personal gain is too shameful.”

“Yeah, it’s too repulsive!” After Yang Ming said this, the angry flame in the tourists’ hearts immediately burned up. “Beat them up; kill them!”

“Yes, beat them up. They almost let us die. We will never easily spare them!”

“Beat them to death! I will be responsible for medical expenses!” The self-proclaimed boss of the XX company also joined the fight.

As a result, a group of extremely angered tourists surrounded poor Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu and began to beat the two guys.

When the safety of their lives was threatened, an incomparable staunchness would burst out of everyone, so the two guys were unlucky.

Yang Ming, the initiator of this incident, gave the operator a written reference to Sun Hongjun’s company, and quietly left the Carnival with Sun Jie, Yang Xin, and Wu Yunsheng.

Yang Ming gave the operator a note to fulfill his previous promise, but it seemed that the operator was now a person in high demand. Many people wanted him to work with them. It was his choice whether he wanted to go to the Sun Family’s company or not. Maybe there was a better position in someone else’s company waiting for him.

Chapter 1286: Almost Die of Laughter

Yang Xin’s character was very extroverted. By the time she arrived at the Carnival’s entrance, she was already laughing fanatically. She almost lost her breath while Wu Yunsheng was also trying his best not to laugh as he supported Yang Xin.

Sun Jie also laughed fanatically with her eyes in a crescent shape. She pursed her lips and looked Yang Ming. “Are you not trying to flaunt yourself as a hero?”

“How did I flaunt myself as a hero? I’m just saving my wife and my sister. Isn’t that righteous? I didn’t save everyone else!” Yang Ming threw up his hands and said innocently.

“Then, why did you find the operator?” Sun Jie said, “You could have left immediately after you saved us. Why did you tell the truth to those people?”

“I just felt that the two fellows deserved a beating.” Yang Ming shrugged and smiled. “Why did these two guys have malicious intentions?”

“Don’t get into trouble and let them retaliate against you,” Sun Jie reminded him.

“I’m not afraid of revenge...” Yang Ming smiled scornfully. “These two people are not worthy of being my opponent. Besides, it doesn’t matter if I have one more enemy. Just let them be. If they really want to retaliate, I also welcome them. I’m just afraid they’ll go for wool and come home shorn.”

Sun Jie knew that Yang Ming was telling the truth. Yang Ming’s opponents were all ruthless characters at the level of the behind-the-scenes boss. Yang Ming did not put these small fries like Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu in his eyes.

The four people came out of the Carnival, but they still laughed, especially Yang Xin. It seemed that her laughter made her out of breath. Wu Yunsheng looked at Yang Xin helplessly as he supported her. Although it was too funny, everyone else had finished laughing, yet Yang Xin was still laughing.

"Little Xin, stop laughing. Laugh again, and you might die..." Sun Jie also felt that something was wrong. She grabbed Yang Xin's body and shook her.

Hearing Sun Jie's words, Wu Yunsheng also became anxious. He also heard of people who laughed to death. It was said that they encountered a very funny thing. They were really laughing in the beginning, and later, they were laughing mechanically but not in their control. In the end, the laughter resulted in death.

"I'll take a look." Yang Ming heard Sun Jie and spoke because Yang Xin really laughed for too long. She had been laughing all along without being able to talk.

"You know about these things?" Sun Jie had some doubts.

However, Yang Ming did not answer Sun Jie's question. Instead, he raised Yang Xin's face with his hand to open her eyes to take a look, then he frowned.

Sure enough, Yang Xin should be laughing mechanically at the moment. In her eyes, there was no smile but fear instead. This showed that she did not want to laugh, but there was no way to go about it. Her body was not in her control.

Yang Ming hesitated for a moment. In the end, he still put his hand under Yang Xin's skirt. Next to the perineum, there was a meridian that could stop laughter. This kind of acupoint, according to folklore, was not recorded in the Chinese medicine book, but Fang Tian had taught Yang Ming about it.

At that time, Fang Tian gave examples of a laughter acupoint. In terms of disciplining the others, he could strike other's laughter acupoint, making them laugh non-stop to their death. Of course, there were ways to resolve the acupoint. Hence, Yang Ming had a profound impression of it.

"Ah?" Seeing that Yang Ming touched Yang Xin's skirt and put his hand in, Wu Yunsheng was shocked. However, in his opinion, Yang Ming was not the kind of person who would take advantage of others.

Therefore, although Wu Yunsheng was shocked and angry at Yang Ming's behavior, he did not become enraged because he firmly believed that Yang Ming would not take advantage of Yang Xin's current situation. If he were to take advantage of her, there was a better time to take advantage of her before when he brought Yang Xin down from the roller coaster ride in midair. Yang Ming did not take advantage then, let alone now?

Although Sun Jie knew that Yang Ming was quite fickle in relationships, he could not take advantage of anyone. He often took advantage of her. Sun Jie naturally was aware of it, but it was based on the premise that the two had that relationship.

Now Yang Xin was his godsister, and he dared to take advantage of her? Although... Xiao Qing was also Yang Ming's godsister, the nature of the two was different.

Yang Ming found Yang Xin's acupuncture point and started to massage it. Even Yang Ming found it a little embarrassing; this position... was too close to Yang Xin's private place. It was inevitable that it would cause a misunderstanding as Yang Ming rubbed it.

However, since it had already come to this, Yang Ming naturally had to force himself to continue. Fortunately, Yang Xin stopped laughing in a moment as she gasped for air.

Yang Ming released his hand and said to Wu Yunsheng, "Take Sister Yang Xin to rest on the bench by the roadside."

Not until now did Sun Jie and Wu Yunsheng know that Yang Ming was really trying to rescue, rather than taking advantage of Yang Xin. They recalled that they had misunderstood him previously; they couldn't help but feel awkward.

"Why do you seem to know everything?" Sun Jie was getting more and more unclear with Yang Ming. For Sun Jie, she thought she knew the previous Yang Ming very well, but now, it was not the case at all.

"I have said it already. You don't know many things about me. If I have to say it all, it will take a long time... I can't even remember myself." Yang Ming smiled and replied. Yang Ming felt it refreshing to enjoy this kind of feeling of having Sun Jie's admiration. Even Sun Jie, a strong woman, also admired him. This was something Yang Ming was very proud of.

After Yang Xin was supported to sit on the bench by the road, she gasped for a moment. Then, she said reluctantly, "It was so tough for me. I couldn't breathe. I couldn't control myself!"

"Sister Yang Xin, sorry for the offense just now. It is my bad..." Yang Ming saw that Yang Xin had recovered herself. He breathed a sigh of relief and said quickly.

Yang Xin waved her hand. Although she was laughing, she also had consciousness and thought. Of course, she knew that Yang Ming was saving her! Although she was a little scared at the beginning about why Yang Ming was doing this, she was much more comfortable under Yang Ming's massage. She knew that Yang Ming was doing her good. "Yang Ming, you saved me twice. I have not even thanked you. How is that an offense!?"

"Yes, Yang Ming, you should never say that!" Wu Yunsheng also blushed a little. Before that, he almost misunderstood Yang Ming. "You are Yang Xin's younger brother. We don't have to avoid arousing suspicion. Don't your words seem overpolite?"

"Indeed." Yang Xin's tone finally returned to normal. "It's normal even to take off our clothes and sleep together."

After Yang Xin finished her words, she saw the Yang Ming, Sun Jie, and Wu Yunsheng were stunned only to realize her joke was a little over the top. Even a blood-related brother and sister would not sleep together. So, she laughed it off, "Of course, I'm just kidding. Little Jie will not agree."

"Go to hell... How am I like what you said?" Sun Jie pinched Yang Xin, and the two laughed.

"Okay, don't laugh, or else, your laughter will cause something again!" Yang Ming looked helplessly at the two and shook his head.

"No problem. Anyway, if something happened out of my laughter, you will cure it!" said Sun Jie indifferently.

Yang Ming was speechless as he shrugged. Wu Yunsheng was also helpless. The four people laughed for a while and were hungry, so they went to the parking lot.

Wu Yunsheng did not drive; the two had walked over. Since the car was good enough for just four people, they all got into Yang Ming's car.

"Where do you want to eat?" Yang Ming asked as he started the car.

"Let's go to the Home of Six Tastes." Sun Jie thought for a moment and said, "I haven't been there since the last time!"

"Great, I haven't been there for a long time too!" Yang Xin nodded in favor, "Then we will go there!"

Wu Yunsheng naturally would not oppose it. He was Yang Xin's loyal supporter; he would follow what Yang Xin said.

After Yang Ming started the car, he remembered that he was unfamiliar with the terrain. It was Sun Jie who drove just now. Moreover, he didn't even know where the Home of Six Tastes was, so he jumped off the car. He changed his seat with Sun Jie. "How about you drive?"

Sun Jie also did not decline and took over for Yang Ming.

Qian Tangjiang and Yu Tianzhu were beaten up badly, lying on the ground and dying. However, the tourists who had beaten the two people had scattered. At this time, it was difficult to find out who did the beating.

The two were carried into the ambulance. Obviously, they had bone fractures in many places. They had already passed out and screamed in pain after getting through the torment.

The operator had already left; he did not have to wait to be fired. He just resigned first and would not go back to the company to report tomorrow. Why should he stay here?

Qian Tangjiang was filled with hatred. He hated Yang Ming deep inside his bones. Initially, it was a well-planned scene of a hero to save the damsel in distress but became a hero getting beaten up.

The gap between the two was too big. Thinking about this, he couldn't help but swear, "Yu Tianzhu, it was your sh*tty idea! Look at us now. We both became like this!"

Yu Tianzhu was also awakened after the torment. He seemed to be overwhelmed by a big hammer. The pain was unbearable. He said, "Brother Qian, what does this have to do with me? It is Yang Ming, that b*st*rd, who screwed things up!"

"If your idea was not bad, how could he have the opportunity?" Qian Tangjiang also knew that Yang Ming caused it, but his own plan had loopholes getting caught by others. In other words, his idea was terrible.

They must get revenge against Yang Ming, but now, he also wanted to take Yu Tianzhu as a punching bag. “Also, is your brain faulty? Look at what you said before? You worked with me to get a promotion? Are you afraid that others won’t know that this thing was done by us? If you didn’t say it, we could say that Yang Ming blurted out slanders against us. However, with your words, we let the cat out of the bag!”

This spoke of the pain in Yu Tianzhu’s heart. He blurted it out from being emotional at that moment. He suddenly spilled it out with no way to remedy it. It was too late for Qian Tangjiang to defend him. He really couldn’t refute it but say, “Sorry, Brother Qian. It’s my fault...”

“Forget it. We are also brothers in the same boat!” Hearing Yu Tianzhu suck it up, Qian Tangjiang had no way to lecture him.

Chapter 1287: Tele-Acupoint

Sun Jie hadn’t been here since she met the criminal, Ouyang Junyuan. Later, she heard that Ouyang Junyuan’s family, excluding him, had an accident in Macau. It was quite unexpected instead.

Although she didn’t know if this had anything to do with Yang Ming, when she thought about it, it was a bit weird.

She came to the parking lot of the Home of Six Tastes once again, and the old man was still there. Sun Jie parked the car and took out a coin for the old man, but the old man left after he parked the car for her.

After Sun Jie got off, she quickly called to the old man, “Uncle, do you still need the money?”

The old man turned around with surprise, and he recognized Sun Jie. “Is it you? Little girl?”

“It’s me, and also Little Xin!” Sun Jie said with a smile.

“I saw that you have a pass for the government official cars. Vehicles with this kind of certificate do not have to pay parking fees, so I didn’t pay attention. I didn’t expect you to be the driver.” The old man smiled. “I didn’t expect that you, little girl, also became a government official...”

Sun Jie blushed a little. She didn’t like to be treated as a privileged class, so she said embarrassed, “It is my boyfriend’s car...”

“It turned out to be like this! Since the last time you two came, I’ve been missing you two. I’m always bored standing here all day; my happiest moment of the day is to meet some acquaintances!” The old man laughed. “You can come to see me often; I won’t charge you parking fees!”

“Okay, then we try to come over as often as possible!” Sun Jie also missed the time when she went to school, chatting with the old man every day was pretty happy.

It was now lunchtime at the Home of Six Tastes. When Yang Ming and others entered, there were no seats, so they had to wait at the door.

"If I knew this, I would have called Tian Long to book a table first." Yang Ming was helpless, looking at the packed restaurant. This place is just too popular, right? It should be expanded. The Szechuan Garden next door didn't have many customers; why didn't the boss of the Home of Six Tastes rent it together?

However, this wasn't something Yang Ming could care about. Everyone had a different way of operating a business. Some people are satisfied with the current situation, thinking that it is very good to maintain it, but some people have a pioneering spirit. They will continue to expand their business.

"Move, the people at the front. Clear up space for me!" Just when Yang Ming and the others waited at the door, there was a loud noise behind the queue. They saw three young rascals pushing people away, wanting to get past the queue. They scolded as they pushed people away.

Most of the people in the queue were small couples or a family of three; many of them were working-class people. Those who had money and power would go to more high-class places or book a private room in advance; they wouldn't queue here.

Therefore, these people were not willing to get into trouble; they gave way to those three people who looked vicious. They couldn't afford to offend these rascals, so they avoided them.

"Are you guys deaf?" The young man at the front pushed Yang Ming which made him dumbfounded.

However, Yang Ming was not willing to care about them. It would seem bad*ss to beat them up here, but it was actually no different from their behavior. Being aggressive and competitive wasn't a good habit.

Sun Jie frowned; she felt that these people were very uneducated. Yang Xin pulled Sun Jie and whispered, "Forget it; don't care about these little punks."

The receptionist of the Home of Six Tastes also saw these three little punks, and he could not help but be a bit troubled. "Sir, can you please queue up?"

"Who said that we didn't queue? Our queue is at the front of the line; it should be our turn now!" The little punk who pushed Yang Ming was obviously their leader. He glared at the receptionist and sneered, "Did you see that we didn't queue?"

"This..." The receptionist was also a little afraid of the three people. The three people didn't look like good people at first sight. The signature colorful hair and the roguish jackets made people want to keep a distance from them.

"Do your own work; don't meddle in my business!" Xiao Huang Mao said fiercely. "You can ask the guests who are queuing behind. Did any of them see that we didn't queue up?"

The little punk asked if anyone saw them not queuing up, and not if anyone saw them queuing up. This sentence was quite skillful. Who dared to stand up and say that the little punk didn't queue up?

Among those were a family of three with a wife and a child and some sweet couples. Who would stand up to provoke a few punks? they could be retaliated against in a short while, so the customers all lowered their heads when the little punk mentioned them, pretending not to hear this.

The receptionist saw that everyone had no opinion, so he could only lead these three people into the restaurant. It just so happened that there was one empty table, so the three people got the seats first.

Although Yang Ming did not want to get into conflict with these three little gangsters, he did not intend to let them go. When they walked into the restaurant, Yang Ming's sleeves shook slightly, and a flying needle was pinched in his hand. He swung his hand lightly, then the flying needle shot at the acupuncture point on the little punk's leg.

The little punk was feeling smug, thinking that he was the territory boss of this area. However, he didn't expect his right leg to go numb abruptly, and he lost control of it. Then, he fell down to the ground, his head hitting the handrail of the booth, and blood immediately spurted out.

The little punk's leg also recovered its senses. He couldn't figure out how he fell. He covered his head, which was bleeding heavily, and talked out loud, "Why is your restaurant's floor so slippery? It made me fall down. How do you want to compensate me?"

When the little punk's companions saw their boss' head bleeding, they immediately lifted him up from the ground. They also shouted at the receptionist, "You have made our Brother Ji fall. How are you going to deal with this?"

"Call your boss over! This is not over yet!" Another companion also didn't want to be outdone.

The receptionist felt wronged. He looked at the clean floor; there was no water stain and no slippery spot. He didn't know how this little punk fell.

"Our floor isn't slippery at all..." The receptionist pointed to the floor.

"If you say it's not slippery, then it isn't? Then how did our boss fall down?" The little punk's underling pointed at the reception and shouted, "I tell you, our Brother Ji is also someone with an identity. His falling down here damages his public image. You have to compensate us for the loss!"

"There is no water on the ground. People with eyes can see whether the floor is slippery or not. You cut the queue, and yet you're so whiny?" said Yang Ming scornfully.

"Who the f*ck are you? Were we talking to you now?" When the little punk's underling saw that Yang Ming stood up this time, he was immediately displeased. "Do you want to be unlucky? Shut up immediately!"

"How unlucky?" asked Yang Ming.

"You are really tired of living, aren't you!?" When the little punk's underling saw that Yang Ming still talked back to him, he instantly loosened his hands that were holding his boss and went to slap Yang Ming. However, Yang Ming grabbed his arm; he couldn't move his arm at all. He knew that Yang Ming wasn't easy to deal with. He snorted, "Let me go!"

When Yang Ming let him go without warning, the underling almost fell down. Yang Ming took this opportunity to shoot another flying needle into the acupuncture point on the underling's lower leg. The underling couldn't maintain his balance and fell to the ground, the back of his head hitting the ground. His head was also punctured, and it was bleeding nonstop.

The guests who lined up behind couldn't help it anymore; they all laughed all together. These three guys were like monkeys. They played such a farce. Even the guests who ate inside were laughing. This made the little punk embarrassed. No one knew if it was because of the excessive bleeding or being embarrassed.

"Get up now!" The little punk glared at the underling who fell down, agitated. "You are such a shame!"

The man on the ground was wronged. How is it related to me? Was I not trying to stand up for you? Now you even scolded me after I was set up by him? He was displeased at the moment. He stood up with a long face as if he had been holding in his poop.

"Stop laughing! What's so funny?" The little punk was embarrassed being laughed at by everyone.

Someone from one of the tables in the restaurant continued his sentence. "Just finding you little punks funny..."

" Hahahaha ..." The guests, who were just holding back their smiles, burst into laughter this time!

"Who? Who said it? Stand up now!" The little punk's face was distorted. Especially when his face was bloody, it was even more terrifying and scary. He was looking back and forth in the restaurant, trying to find out who the one talking was.

The person spoke because he couldn't help being bad-mouthed at the time. How would he dare to go against the little punk? So, after the little punk said it, he immediately darted down, afraid of showing himself.

Yang Ming naturally saw who said it, but he wouldn't expose him.

Seeing that no one responded to him after shouting for a long time, his face looked even uglier, but he didn't know what to do. Now that he had no way to back down, Yang Ming stood up to go against him instead. However, the little punk saw that his underling had suffered a loss, so he didn't dare to trouble Yang Ming. He was also the person who bullied the weak and feared the strong. He wouldn't dare to cause trouble if he were uncertain about it.

At this time, Yang Ming spoke.

"The one who isn't hurt, can you bring your friends to the hospital? What if they die from excessive bleeding?" Yang Ming looked indifferently at the underling who was fine.

At this time, the security guards in the restaurant also approached, staring at the three people. The little punk saw that he couldn't stir up trouble, so he could only leave in disgrace. He also wanted to go to the hospital to stop the bleeding.

At the door, the little punk didn't forget to glare at Yang Ming. "Trying to be meddlesome? I will make you suffer."

Yang Ming smiled after listening. Yang Ming used his leg to hook the little punk's leg, then the little punk stumbled out of the door after speaking.

Chapter 1288: Establish Authority

When the little punk left, Yang Ming and the others were supposed to enter according to the queue, so the people behind naturally had no opinion. Even if Yang Ming were not in front, they would not have any opinions on allowing Yang Ming to enter first. After all, Yang Ming just said what they wanted to say and helped them vent out their anger.

They dared not say it, but they were very refreshed when someone else spoke up. After the little punk fled, they all spontaneously applauded Yang Ming.

“Did you play tricks just now?” Although she didn’t know how Yang Ming did it, Sun Jie instinctively felt that the previous matters had something to do with him.

“Just now what?” Yang Ming pretended to be unknowing and asked.

“That little punk and his man suddenly fell.” Sun Jie squinted and smiled at Yang Ming very nicely. “Don’t act stupid. If you don’t act stupid, I might not doubt it. Since you are deliberately acting stupid, what do you want to hide? You’re even more suspicious.”

Yang Ming didn’t intend to hide from Sun Jie. He just simply bantered with her and said, “Okay, I did it. I know tele-acupoint.”

“Really?” Sun Jie didn’t believe it. “Can you show it to me?”

“I will show it to you tonight; now, there are many people here.” Yang Ming changed the subject.

“Okay, then let it be tonight.” Sun Jie did not continue to dwell on the subject.

“What are you two muttering about?” Yang Xin pushed the menu in her hand to Sun Jie and Yang Ming. “See what you want to eat.”

“You can just order,” said Yang Ming. “You know what Little Jie likes to eat; I’m fine with anything.”

“Then okay.” Yang Xin took the menu back, ordered a few dishes that Sun Jie liked to eat, and ordered some signature dishes for Yang Ming and Wu Yunsheng. Then, she returned the menu to the waiter to signal that she finished ordering.

The waiter responded and left, and then there were four people left. Yang Xin was very curious about what happened just now. Sun Jie thought of it, so there was no reason for Yang Xin not to think of it.

If Yang Ming did not speak afterward, they certainly wouldn’t doubt him, but when the little punk’s man fell inexplicably just like the little punk did previously after Yang Ming talked in a timely manner, it was impossible for Yang Xin not to be suspicious.

Because others were not familiar with Yang Ming, they naturally had not thought about this aspect. However, both Yang Xin and Sun Jie had seen Yang Ming’s terrifying skills, so it was easier to think of Yang Ming when little punk and his men fell down. It was also more reasonable.

“Yang Ming, did the previous incident have anything to do with you?” Yang Xin finally couldn’t help but ask.

“You mean the little punk’s incident?” Yang Ming was smarter now; he did not act dumb, but he directly mentioned the little punk.

“Yeah, how did he fall for no reason?” asked Yang Xin curiously.

Some things could be said to Sun Jie but not to Yang Xin. It was not that Yang Ming distrusted Yang Xin; it was just not good for Yang Xin if she knew. She did not belong to his circle. His enemy was too powerful, and Sun Jie, as his own woman, had inevitably become a chess pawn in the hands of the behind-the-scenes boss.

In this case, Yang Ming simply wouldn’t hide it. He planned to tell Sun Jie about his matters and the matters of the behind-the-scenes boss tonight so that she would be psychologically prepared.

But Yang Xin was different; she was just his godsister. The behind-the-scenes boss was not interested in her, so the less she knew about his matters, the safer she was.

“I was also very puzzled; he suddenly fell down,” said Yang Ming, “Maybe he experienced the wrath of God.”

“I thought you did it!” Yang Xin was somewhat disappointed. If Yang Ming did it, she would be very excited.

“I was so far away from him. My spirit is willing, but my flesh is weak.” Yang Ming helplessly spread out his hands and said, “But in the end, I tripped him and sent him flying.”

“That’s not bad. At least, you vented our anger!” Yang Xin was excited again after hearing what Yang Ming said.

Although there were many guests at the Home of Six Tastes, the speed of serving food was not slow. Probably a lot of dishes were semi-prepared in the kitchen, so it would be done after it was cooked. Therefore, although there were many guests, the speed of serving the food was very fast, which saved a lot of time.

The taste was as good as the previous time. This was why the business of the Home of Six Tastes was unfailing. From Sun Jie’s days as a student until now, the chefs of Home of Six Tastes had changed many times, but the taste was consistent.

This was because the owner of the Home of Six Tastes always mastered the core ingredients. Seasonings added to each dish were blended according to proportion. In this way, the chefs only needed to follow the steps and put the seasoning into the cooking, and they could make delicious dishes.

So, no matter how the chefs changed, as long as the steps were the same and the proportion of the ingredients was the same, the same taste could be replicated.

This was similar to the patterns of foreign fast food such as KFC and McDonald’s. Even if you had learned the steps to make it, there is no way to open a store after leaving without the core ingredients.

After the meal, Yang Ming and Sun Jie said goodbye to Yang Xin and Wu Yunsheng. Yang Ming planned to go to Sun Hongjun's company to take a look and to settle the matters of the voodoo.

After looking at the time and confirming that there was still time, Yang Ming first took Wu Yunsheng and Yang Xin home, then he drove to the Changhu Hotel where he agreed to meet Zhang Zhishen previously. Zhang Zhishen arrived in the afternoon and sent a text message to Yang Ming. He came with the antidote for the voodoo this time. It couldn't be considered as an antidote; it only delayed the attack of the voodoo to once a year.

These men under Sun Hongjun had turned into opportunists, so Yang Ming was afraid to give them a complete antidote. If the voodoo were eliminated entirely, what should he do if Tian Long planned another rebellion again?

Therefore, Yang Ming did not dare to take the risk. However, these people were the roots and backbone of Sun Hongjun's Group! If they were all fired, the entire operation of the group would stop operating, so they could not be expelled.

This time, the coverage of involvement was too extensive. Starting from the vice president under Sun Hongjun, all of them were bought over by Tian Long. Yang Ming wanted them to have no thoughts of disloyalty and continue to devote themselves to Sun Hongjun wholeheartedly, so he could only first use voodoo to restrict them.

It would not be too late to detoxify them after the authority was really established. However, Yang Ming thought that after this incident, these people should also be able to understand what absolute strength was.

Under absolute strength, these people were not allowed to rebel. If they wanted to rebel again, Yang Ming could still deal with them. The two vegetative people lying in the hospital were their examples!

The reason why Yang Ming did not let these two people die directly but allow them to lie in the hospital wasting medical expenses was to give long-term intimidation to these people so that these people did not dare to have any improper thoughts.

Sun Jie was still the one who drove. Once they came to the Changhu Hotel's parking lot, they saw Zhang Zhishen's Jetta, which was given to him by Hou Zhenhan. Yang Ming asked him to change cars, but Zhang Zhishen felt that it was good enough to have a car to drive, so he continued to drive it.

"I will introduce you to a Miao friend in a while. This is the person who helped me make the voodoo," Yang Ming said to Sun Jie.

Sun Jie nodded. She found that Yang Ming's attitude toward her was obviously different from before. Just after she agreed to be his woman, Yang Ming no longer concealed some things from her, and he also introduced her to his circle of friends. This made Sun Jie annoyed and amused at the same time. Although she was very happy, she somewhat blamed Yang Ming for his previous vigilance.

Zhang Zhishen came alone this time; he did not bring his girlfriend, Xiao Qi. When he entered the room, Yang Ming first introduced Zhang Zhishen and Sun Jie to each other. After hearing Yang Ming say that she was one of them, Zhang Zhishen was not suspicious. He immediately took out the antidote for the voodoo. "Brother Yang, I have already made the antidote. This time it could suppress the voodoo for a year. Are these enough?"

Yang Ming took the box of antidote and found that there were at least a hundred pills in it; this was obviously enough. He laughed, "I can't use so much."

"Xiao Qi was afraid that it was not enough, so we made more. It doesn't take much effort anyway."

Zhang Zhishen smiled and said, "Is there anything else that I need to do?"

"There's nothing for you for the time being; you just wait for me at the hotel. When I finish handling the matters here, we'll go back to Song Jiang together," Yang Ming said as he took the pills from Zhang Zhishen and kept it.

"Okay, then I will be here waiting for you. Contact me at any time if there is anything," said Zhang Zhishen.

"Okay, keep in contact." Yang Ming did not stay long, and he left the room with Sun Jie.

Outside the Changhu Hotel, Yang Ming thought about it, took the box of antidote out, and handed it to Sun Jie. "You have to be in charge of the company in the future. You give this to them in a while to establish your authority."

Seeing that Yang Ming considered it so thoughtfully, Sun Jie smiled gratefully and kept the antidote.

"You really know a lot of people." Sun Jie really lamented Yang Ming's connections.

"Lan Ling sent him to protect me... Right. You should know about Lan Ling's matters, right?" Yang Ming did not mention Lan Ling to Sun Jie before, but it may be assumed that she knew.

Sun Jie also did not hide; she nodded and said, "Xiao Qing told me before; your former girlfriend."

"She's also my girlfriend currently; she's just not back yet." Yang Ming corrected. "She was the one who sent Zhang Zhishen who is proficient in voodoo. Luckily, he was there to help when I was dealing with the partner of the behind-the-scenes boss."

"It turns out to be like this." Sun Jie was secretly bothered by it. Among Yang Ming's girlfriends, Lan Ling's strength is very strong. I shouldn't simply offend her. This little girl knows how to use voodoo. In case she plants a voodoo on me, then it wouldn't be fun. It's good to rope her in in the future.

Yang Ming naturally didn't know what she was thinking. He thought she was thinking about the company, so he said, "The situation is now controlled. There is nothing to worry about. You should hold a meeting with them and say something that employs both kindness and severity."

Sun Jie quickly cut off those unrealistic thoughts, snapped out of it, and nodded, "Will you accompany me?"

"Of course." Even if Sun Jie did not say it, Yang Ming was also going to give her courage.

Chapter 1289: Fear

Sun Hongjun's company was located in a prime location in the heart of the city. A thirty-six-story building was owned by Sun's Group, showing how big the Sun Family business was doing in Donghai.

Yang Ming had never been here before. He had only been to Sun Jie's branch office in Song Jiang. The scale was not small, occupying a whole floor of the building, but this place was more luxurious.

When the car entered the underground parking lot, it was stopped by the security guard. However, when Sun Jie was seen in the driver's seat, it was released immediately. The grassroots staff of these companies did not know what happened at the top. Hence, they didn't have any idea about the matters between the Sun Family and the Tian Family. Previously, Tian Long seized power, and now Sun Hongjun regained the overall situation. The security guards did not hear any news. When they saw the company's Miss, Sun Jie, they naturally let her through quickly.

However, even if they knew the matters, she would be released smoothly. After all, Sun Hongjun was now at the company's helm.

"Isn't this place dignified?" Yang Ming got off, looking at the very luxurious Sun's Group which had its parking lot decorated lavishly.

"This place is not as dignified as your private island." Sun Jie mocked Yang Ming. "But if it weren't for you, it would have become someone else's."

"Would you also become someone else's?" Yang Ming winked. "As long as you don't become someone else's, I don't care."

Yang Ming seldom used this flirting tone to talk to Sun Jie, but it touched her. She had a sense of belonging out of nowhere as if the former title as a strong woman was nothing. Being a good wife to Yang Ming seemed more reliable.

"You know how to make me happy. Do you know that I don't like the kind of man who talks empty words?" Sun Jie rolled her eyes at Yang Ming lazily. If they were not in public, she wanted to fall into Yang Ming's embrace.

"I didn't coax you. I will do it when I say it," said Yang Ming.

"So, I agreed to be your girlfriend." Sun Jie said, along with Yang Ming's words.

"What do you mean by what you just said? Why do I feel like you are mocking me?" Yang Ming listened to Sun Jie's words and laughed a little. Previously, Sun Jie's words to describe him seemed to be sweet words but then she dropped it.

"It doesn't mean anything. I'm just simply saying it." Sun Jie didn't know what happened to her today. She kept saying something weird. She didn't do this before, but she didn't know what had happened to her today.

When she went to the second floor in the happy chattering, the elevator opened, and a person came in. It happened to be a company executive at Wang Renping's house yesterday. When he saw Yang Ming, he was startled as he stumbled his way to turn around and leave. "Sorry, I'm taking the next ride."

Yang Ming didn't expect that he was already like the big bad wolf in the hearts of these people. They would be terrified even if they caught a glimpse of him. He said in amusement, "Come on. Let's ride it together."

Although the man was terrified, he dared not disobey Yang Ming. He got in the elevator in fear and trepidation, leaning on the side like a stand. He clung to the side wall of the elevator, not even having the courage to look at Yang Ming.

"Why is he so afraid of you?" Sun Jie was also amazed at Yang Ming's power. How did this person see Yang Ming as if he had met a ghost?

"I think he is afraid of you? You are the Miss of the group. Why is he afraid of me?" Yang Ming smiled.

"I do not believe it. How about I ask?" Sun Jie knew the man and said, "Department Head Zhang, what's wrong with you?"

"No... nothing..." Department Head Zhang felt that time hangs heavy. He hoped that the elevator would be as fast as the rocket.

"Speak up. Are you afraid of me?" Sun Jie certainly wouldn't stop.

"Afraid... I'm afraid..." Department Head Zhang almost burst into tears. How would he be able to answer this question? Although he was more afraid of Yang Ming, Sun Jie was Sun Hongjun's daughter, the group's daughter. Could he not be scared?

"Are you afraid of me?" Sun Jie didn't get the answer she wanted and was somewhat unhappy.

"I..." Department Head Zhang really almost cried. No matter how he answered, he would displease Sun Jie. If he said he wasn't afraid, Sun Jie would not do anything now but find fault with him later. After thinking for a long time, Department Head Zhang couldn't wait to swap his brains out and change it into Einstein's brain. At last, with his ingenuity, finally, he thought of a way to pass the buck. "Because Mr. Yang is your boyfriend, so..."

Department Head Zhang words were not finished, but the meaning was already obvious. That was he was afraid of her because of Yang Ming's relationship, and this was what Sun Jie wanted in her mind; it didn't annoy her.

After saying this, Department Head Zhang sighed.

"See? How is it?" Sun Jie was very satisfied after listening and looked at Yang Ming proudly.

"You, fellow, really know how not to offend both sides!" Yang Ming snorted, but it terrified Department Head Zhang again! He had considered Sun Jie previously, and ignored the great god, Yang Ming! The person who he couldn't really offend was Yang Ming!

Thinking of this, Department Head Zhang quickly kneeled down. "Mr. Yang, I am really afraid of you. Please don't make it hard on me..." After that, Department Head Zhang really fell to the ground!

Yang Ming just talked casually but did not expect him to be so scared and timid. He really did not know what to say.

At this time, the elevator stopped. Someone came in and saw Department Head Zhang, who was kneeling at the door of the elevator; the person was shocked. "Department Head Zhang, what are you doing?"

The one who entered the elevator was also a department leader. Yang Ming also saw him yesterday, but his attention was drawn to Department Head Zhang when he walked through the door. He did not notice Yang Ming.

Department Head Zhang did not dare to answer, so he prayed for Yang Ming's forgiveness. The incoming Manager Liu was puzzled. "Department Head Zhang, what are you doing? Who else is worth to kneel down for? You are the senior of this group. You make the calls!"

Department Head Zhang couldn't wait to pick him up and give him a slap. How is it praise to me? Isn't it just pushing me into the fire pit? If Yang Ming misunderstood and thought that I abuse my power, then I will really be done for.

"Never mind!" Department Head Zhang did not dare to stand up but had to turn his head and talk to Manager Liu. "If you want to die, then die; don't kill me!"

Manager Liu was confused by Department Head Zhang. When he looked up and saw Yang Ming and Sun Jie standing aside, he suddenly understood the situation and was suddenly startled. Manager Liu had a deep impression of Yang Ming's might yesterday. I did not only ignore him but also spouted nonsense in front of him. No wonder Department Head Zhang said that he is courting death, and not to cause trouble for him!

As he thought of this, Manager Liu's legs became limp. He also kneeled on the floor with Department Head Zhang. "Mr. Yang. I was just spouting nonsense; don't take it seriously..."

Yang Ming pushed Sun Jie. At this time, it was her chance to establish authority, Yang Ming did not open his mouth and let her speak.

Sun Jie was smart and intelligent. She immediately comprehended the situation and spoke to the two people who kneeled on the ground. "You two get up. What is this? You're making our company like a feudal society!"

Two people listened to Sun Jie's words, and they were at ease in their hearts. Without Yang Ming expressing his stance, how would they dare to stand up? Although the company's boss was Sun Jie on paper, Yang Ming could take their lives! As to who was more powerful, they naturally knew in their hearts.

Yang Ming knew that they didn't dare to get up, so he said, "In the future, what Little Jie says means what I mean."

"Thank you, Miss Sun; thank you, Mr. Yang..." The two quickly thanked and stood up. With Yang Ming's words, they would feel at ease.

"Don't thank me. Just have peace of mind to do what you need to do." Sun Jie said faintly, "I am not a queen. I don't want you to kneel down or worship, but just to do a solid job."

Two people quickly agreed as they went to the next floor and found a reason to get off.

When the elevator door closed again, Sun Jie sneered as she covered her mouth. "You are really scarier than the devil. Look at how you terrified the people in my company."

"I didn't think there was anything inappropriate." Yang Ming shrugged. "Now is how much money they give them. They don't dare to think about it. You can completely avoid the recurrence of Tian Long's incident."

"This is also true, but the feeling of being a queen is not very good. I don't like it." Sun Jie smiled bitterly.

"That's better. If you were a queen, I couldn't stand it!" Yang Ming said, "Now, you have established authority in the company, no one will lie to you in the future."

Sun Jie nodded. "Yeah, the company should be reorganized. If I knew you earlier, this kind of thing wouldn't happen."

"Didn't you know me long ago?" Yang Ming sneered as he winked. "You didn't trust me previously, thinking that I was merely a freshman."

"Isn't that because of your age? How can I know you have so many ideas?" Sun Jie was unwilling to show weakness. "Also, every time you looked for me, you just wanted to do it with me. I was a little annoyed."

"Really...?" Yang Ming sweated a bit and felt that he was not a lecherous person... Probably his previous strategy was wrong, thinking that as he f*cked Sun Jie, she would get used to it. He didn't know that she didn't like it.

Sun Jie rolled her eyes at Yang Ming and apparently despised him for his lack of self-knowledge.

The thirty-sixth floor was the highest level of the company. It was also the place where the company's high-level office was located. The word "higher-ups" probably originated as such as it later referred to the company's leader.

They came to the door of the chairman's office and heard the voices inside. It was like a meeting. Sun Jie knocked on the door. After a while, the door opened. It was Sun Hongjun's secretary.

"Miss Sun?" Sun Hongjun informed the secretary to tell the people at the door that they were in a meeting and to come back later. However, the person in front was Sun Jie. The secretary obviously couldn't say this, so he said, "Please wait a moment. I'm going to talk to the chairman. He is in a meeting."

Sun Jie nodded. She knew that the secretary was acting according to her father's orders and did not trouble him.

Chapter 1290: A Tense Atmosphere

Over these past few days, Secretary Liu Kai really felt the essence of the saying: Human life is like sitting on a roller coaster as it fluctuates rapidly. After graduating from college at the age of twenty-two, he won Sun Hongjun's favor with excellent interview results, and he was accepted directly as a secretary in the company's secretariat.

Later, because of innovative ideas and excellent writing, he got Sun Hongjun's recognition, and he was promoted to Sun Hongjun's full-time secretary. This was a great glory for someone who had graduated from college just a few years ago. He would definitely be entrusted with a heavy responsibility by staying beside the company's president. This was the rule since the past!

Therefore, many people in the company were jealous of him, but they had to curry favor at that time. After all, Liu Kai was a person around Sun Hongjun; his words might determine the fate of some people, so even though the people in the company were jealous of him, they still wanted to flatter Liu Kai desperately.

A young boy being proud was the best moment in his life. Although Liu Kai didn't feel like he was on cloud nine, he still felt a little proud. The company's ministers and department managers also had to flatter him. Liu Kai really felt like he was literally the second most powerful person in the company.

Many people envied him for having a good future. After a few years, he would definitely go to a certain department to be a leader or be a branch manager. However, Liu Kai's everything had become a bubble.

Tian Long suddenly took power over the whole company. He began to clean up his dissidents. Those who were close to Sun Hongjun were all transferred to an idle department. If they were expelled directly, he would undoubtedly cause dissatisfaction among many people. People would feel insecure in the group, so Tian Long directly transferred these people to an idle department, and the others could not say anything.

The full-time secretary of Sun Hongjun suddenly became a typist in the data printing room. This kind of difference made Liu Kai die inside. The people in the group who had been flattering him had changed their attitude instantly. They either ridiculed him, or they simply ignored him. They would just act as though they didn't know him when they met.

Liu Kai thought about resigning, but what benefit could he get if he resigned at this moment? Not to mention that he was not willing to leave dejectedly. How could he still mingle in Donghai's business world in the future? How would others look at him?

Therefore, despite suffering from cold eyes, Liu Kai still swallowed his anger and did his own job. Tian Long transferred Liu Kai to an idle department because he also wanted them to resign due to being isolated, but he did not expect Liu Kai actually to do it seriously. This way, Tian Long didn't have to care about him. Liu Kai was just a typist anyway, and he had lost the right to speak.

However, after a twist and turn, he did not expect Sun Hongjun to regain power after Tian Long came into power for just a few days. Although most people did not understand the interchange of the company's regime, they still knew who was the one in power.

Although he didn't understand why Tian Long took over Sun Hongjun's company for a few days, now after Sun Hongjun regained his power again, Liu Kai suddenly returned to Sun Hongjun's side from the data printing room and served as his secretary again. He even became the secretary department's director now. The original secretary department's director had gone to another department. Such a lightning speed personnel change caused those people, who thought Liu Kai had lost his power, to be caught off guard!

They had already laughed at Liu Kai. Now that Liu Kai suddenly regained his position, these people regretted deeply; they didn't expect Liu Kai to make a comeback.

It was obviously too late to flatter Liu Kai now. These people were worried about how to face Liu Kai in the future, but Liu Kai's mood was totally different.

He had become cautious from his past self who was proud. Liu Kai didn't hate those people who had ridiculed him at all. The world was lacking humanity, so there was no need to be angry.

Liu Kai, who came into power again, was more humble because he knew what it felt like to own something again after losing it. He would cherish the hard-won position, and he must do his job well.

Liu Kai would not make decisions on his own. He returned to the office and gently nodded to Sun Hongjun, who was speaking in the small conference room. Sun Hongjun said, "What's the matter?"

"President Sun, Miss Sun is outside," said Liu Kai.

"Oh? Little Jie is here? Let her come in then. I don't know if Yang Ming is here too." Sun Hongjun informed Liu Kai.

"There is also a young gentleman together with the Miss," said Liu Kai.

"Let them come in." Sun Hongjun said with enthusiasm after hearing that Yang Ming had come. "Be quick."

Liu Kai did not understand why Sun Hongjun reacted so much, but he thought the young man who came to the door should be some important character. Therefore, Liu Kai quickly ran to the door and said, "Miss Sun and this should Mr. Yang, right? The president is asking you two to come in."

Sun Jie and Yang Ming walked into the office with Liu Kai, and they saw Sun Hongjun, Sun San, and Tian Long discussing something with a few senior executives. The company's senior executives were those who Yang Ming met yesterday.

When these people saw that Yang Ming suddenly came in, they were shocked. They didn't care whether Sun Hongjun was there, and they all stood up. How would they dare to sit if Yang Ming was standing?

"Mr. Yang..." The company's senior executives greeted Yang Ming.

Sun Jie looked at Yang Ming with an enigmatic smile; this made Yang Ming very embarrassed. Looking at the people who were standing up, he said helplessly, "You were all sitting down. I am not the company's leader. Why are you greeting me?"

Sun Hongjun and Tian Long were also secretly surprised. Yang Ming played a vital role in the twists and turns of this matter. These people were afraid of Yang Ming to such an extent. Neither Sun Hongjun nor Tian Long could think of this.

“Yang Ming, you just came at the right time. I asked them to inform people that we will be holding a meeting for all the middle and high-level leaders of the company.” Sun Hongjun said, “But they are more concerned about when they can get the antidote; their antidote will be ineffective after tonight...”

“You don’t have to worry about this. I will give it to you during the meeting.” Yang Ming glanced at these people with amusement. “I have given the long-term antidote to Little Jie; she will be holding a meeting with you all later.”

Sun Hongjun wanted to hold this meeting with Tian Long to explain the follow-up matters. They were about to leave for the small island in Africa. The business here would be handed over to Sun Jie and Sun San. Sun Hongjun knew that Yang Ming was helping Sun Jie to establish her prestige, so he was very happy. He nodded and said, “Then, Little Jie, you will run the meeting later.”

“Okay.” Sun Jie did not step down. She also knew Yang Ming’s plan. Her father was heading for a bigger career; she naturally wouldn’t stop it.

“Time is getting late. Ask Wang Renping to bring the people who were at his house yesterday to have a meeting. Those people should be the company’s senior executives.” Yang Ming said, “Uncle Sun, are you feeling good after regaining power?”

“It’s not bad; I feel that these people fear me a lot more than before!” Sun Hongjun said with a smile. “But I have to let go of my chairman’s position not long after I regained my power.”

“You are going to do a bigger career, or do you prefer continuing your chairman’s position?” Yang Ming said after listening.

“Never mind then. I still prefer going to do big business.” Sun Hongjun said with eagerness. “It will be good as long as those people are obedient like these people now.”

“I guarantee that they will be more obedient than them.” Yang Ming smiled and said, “My private island over there is operating with militarization management. If they make any mistakes, I can just directly throw them into the sea to feed the fish.”

Sun Hongjun also smiled; Tian Long was being cautious. He wasn’t sure if Yang Ming said that to remind him that if he didn’t perform well, Yang Ming would also throw him into the sea to feed the fish.

After instructing Wang Renping to call all the company’s department heads to the conference room, Yang Ming, Sun Jie, Sun Hongjun, Tian Long, and Sun San also walked to the conference room. Liu Kai and Wang Renping went to prepare for the meeting instead.

The small meeting room could fit all the company’s leaders. Yang Ming let Sun Jie sit in the president’s seat; Yang Ming and Sun Hongjun sat next to Sun Jie, followed by Sun San and Tian Long.

The senior executives had been restless all day; they were waiting for Wang Renping to gather them. No matter what, they had to know the results of whether they would be receiving the antidote. Otherwise, it would be hard to endure it.

So, when Wang Renping called them, they quickly rushed to the conference room. However, when they got to the door, they saw Yang Ming sitting on the president’s podium. These people didn’t dare to act rashly; they took the initiative to line up and sit in the conference room accordingly.

Seeing everyone coming together, Yang Ming glanced at Sun Jie, hinting that she could speak. Sun Jie was in charge of the work of the Song Jiang Branch. She often attended this kind of meeting, so she was not nervous. She gently cleared her throat and said, "All of you are the company's elite and company leadership. Why do you have a worried look?"

Sun Jie didn't use the usual opening remarks, but she chose a sentence that seemed like a joke, but the people present didn't laugh! Indeed, they were all senior executives of Sun's Group. Just before yesterday, they were still proud of themselves. In the group, they were all amazing people where everyone else flattered them.

However, after seeing Yang Ming, they realized that they were nothing in Yang Ming's eyes. He could kill them at any time, so the mood of these senior executives at the moment was very cautious and complicated.

In the past, even if Sun Hongjun had a meeting, they would do some petty tricks like chat with each other or make calls during the meeting behind Sun Hongjun because they took advantage as they were the company's seniors.

But now, none of them dared to speak casually, and they had switched off their phones. The atmosphere at the venue was so quiet for the first time.

Sun Jie couldn't stand this serious atmosphere, so she made a joke, but it obviously backfired. These people didn't smile.

"Are your mothers dead or what?" Yang Ming frowned. This situation made Sun Jie very embarrassed. Even if these people were afraid of Yang Ming, there was no need to do this, so Yang Ming couldn't help but swear. "Can't you make a smile? Don't you feel bad having a sullen face all day?"
