Chapter 1421: Return with Glory/ Success Report

“This kind of guy can bring endless troubles. He can’t be let go if he can be killed.” Yang Ming said laughingly, but he sighed in his heart. Although this trouble has been solved, I’m afraid that it has caused another big problem. The force behind Jetson, called “Central”, is a force that I have never heard of, but I am afraid it is not simple.

This could be seen from their ability to create a Terminator-like humanoid robot such as Jetson. Yang Ming would not believe that such an organization had no plot, and it would be strange if they did not have grievances against Yang Ming for killing one of their robots.

Yang Ming didn’t believe that such a robot was simple to make. Even if Central was strong, it probably required a lot of investment in manpower and financial resources. Otherwise, if this robot could be easily manufactured, Central might not be so low-key.

Of course, Yang Ming did not intend to tell Wang Songshan about this as it would only add to Wang Songshan’s troubles. Moreover, Yang Ming was not sure whether Central would come to know about it. After all, of the parties who knew this matter, the enemies had all been killed by Yang Ming, and the rest were all his people, like Wang Songshan. They wouldn’t promote it everywhere. So, it was another matter altogether whether Central could out find if it was Yang Ming’s doing.

“Yang Ming, it seems that I’ve really misjudged you. You are far more powerful than that old man, Fang Tian!” Wang Songshan took a deep breath and said sincerely. He finally understood that Yang Ming had really killed Jetson and was not just blurting something out.

“Uncle Wang is joking. Master taught me these skills. Not to mention that I benefited a lot when I was training in the Butterfly Family.” Yang Ming laughed and said. Since Wang Songshan was Yang Ming’s father-in-law, Yang Ming smiled casually as he didn’t need to put on airs in front of him. Yang Ming was very clear about the importance of mutual respect, so he naturally didn’t offend anyone in his words.

“The student surpasses the master!” Wang Songshan sighed, but said a little curiously, “Right, now that Jetson has been killed, why did Little Friend Yang Ming cause that explosion? Isn’t that redundant? Won’t it attract the attention of others?”

“It would be nice if Uncle Wang calls me Yang Ming. What “Little Friend Yang Ming”? It’s making me a little embarrassed.” Yang Ming laughed and said, “My parents both call me Big Ming. You can call me that.”

” Hehe , then I will call you Big Ming in the future. Speaking of which, I’m also considered as your elder.” Wang Songshan nodded and acknowledged it. “And you, don’t call me Uncle Wang anymore. Since you and Yanyan have already confirmed your relationship and gotten engaged, you naturally have to call me Father-in-law. Do you have any opinion?”

“How can I?” Yang Ming said cheerfully, “I’ll call you Mr. Father-in-law from now on.”

“What Mr. ...” Wang Songshan waved his hands and said, “Alright, let’s not talk about these matters. Tell me about the explosion.”

“Explosion, hehe ... it was just to kill all of the Lancer Family’s direct descendants.” Yang Ming said plainly, “If I don’t eliminate all of them, should I just keep them alive so they can grow up to avenge their family?”

“All? What do you mean? Did Thomas and Kevithan also die?” Wang Songshan was secretly shocked. He did not expect that the purpose of Yang Ming’s explosion was to kill the Lancer Family’s people.

Kevithan as well as Thomas and his grandsons, Wich and Goode, were all personally killed by me,” Yang Ming said as if he was talking about a common thing. “As for the others, I got a bazooka from their family’s arsenal and killed them with a shot.”

“What! Everyone is dead?!” Wang Songshan was the Butterfly Family’s family master and a super cold-blooded assassin, but when he heard that Yang Ming had suddenly exterminated the Lancer Family, he couldn’t help but be shocked! Looking at Yang Ming’s plain and kind appearance and thinking of Yang Ming’s embarrassment and shame when Wang Ruoshui asked him for a duel a few days ago, he could never have imagined that Yang Ming was such a ruthless man. The Lancer Family was extremely unlucky to be his enemy!

“Father-in-law, you and I are assassins. Although I’m not afraid of some official forces finding trouble, this kind of thing is better done without leaving evidence. Now that they are all dead, others can do nothing to us even if they hold doubts,” Yang Ming said cautiously, “Anyway, the Lancer Family is also a big family. So many of their people died in a moment. If their backbone was still here, they would definitely not let us go. However, now that their direct descendants are all dead, who will stick up for an empty shell family?”

“You’re right!” Wang Songshan nodded and finally understood why Yang Ming was so cruel. He was afraid of any trouble that would come to the Butterfly Family in the future. “However, I’m a little puzzled as to why their entire direct line of descent came together and waited to be killed by you. Could these people be fools?”

” Hehe, ” Yang Ming smiled slightly after listening to Wang Songshan’s question, and said, “It’s a coincidence. This Jetson is very boastful. Before I came here to save you, they got the news that I was coming. They announced it and let the people of the Lancer Family prepare a banquet in advance to celebrate after successfully killing me.”

“They got the news that you were coming? Did you release this news before you came?” Wang Songshan was slightly surprised. If this is the case, then Jetson is not boastful, but Yang Ming is. Even if Yang Ming was the victor, it was still a bit too dangerous to do so.

“How could that be?” Yang Ming smiled bitterly, “There are some spies arranged in the Butterfly Family by the Douglas Family. The news about me was probably conveyed by these people to the Douglas Family, who then transmitted it to the Lancer Family!”

“So it’s like this!” Wang Songshan nodded in realization, “I know this. In the family, there are some people from the Douglas family. I didn’t think it was a big deal before, so I didn’t eliminate them. This time I must go back and eliminate these people, otherwise, they will cause huge problems during critical moments!”

“Don’t worry. There’s no need to be afraid of the Douglas Family who has lost the Lancer Family as their backer. I think that when we return this time, the Douglas Family will send someone to pick them up without you personally taking action.” Yang Ming laughed and said, “Although they have no evidence to prove that we eliminated the Lancer Family, as long as they are not fools, they should know it well.”

Wang Songshan nodded and agreed with Yang Ming’s words.

“As for the celebration party, Kevithan gathered all the key figures of the Lancer Family in the banquet hall to show the importance he attached to Jetson. Therefore, I was also saved from the trouble of having to hunt them down one by one. The problem was settled with just an explosion.” Yang Ming seemed to be telling a funny story, “As for Thomas, Kevithan, and Wich, I killed them when they brought people to welcome Jetson.”

“This is also God’s will. The once glorious Lancer Family was annihilated just like that. After a few years, who can still remember this family?” Wang Songshan said with some emotion, “The world is fickle, but for every cause, there is an effect.”

While they were talking, they quickly exited the Lancer Family’s manor and entered the town. After a while, the whistling of police cars could be heard in the distance. The servants of the Lancer Family must have discovered that something was wrong and called the police. However, this had nothing to do with Yang Ming. Even if the local police suspected the Butterfly Family, they would eventually hit a dead end, let alone the fact that Old Buffon would also suppress it. Who would oppose the powerful Buffon Family?

Yang Ming got an off-road vehicle that was parked near the town and quickly left the town with Wang Songshan, disappearing into the night.

Chapter 1422: The Douglas Family’s Reaction/ Central

Old Buffon’s local influence could be easily imagined as he easily solved the problem that seemed very difficult to settle for them.

Fang Tian couldn’t help but be emotionally moved. This unglamorous disciple accepted by Yang Ming was so dedicated! Fang Tian said in his heart that Yang Ming really had good luck.

“Although we haven’t received any specific information about Yang Ming and my brother, I think that they should have left safely based on Mr. Old Buffon’s news. Should we all prepare a celebration party to celebrate the hero’s triumphant return?” Wang Ruoshui suggested while looking at the crowd in the meeting room. She was relieved when she heard the news that Yang Ming and her brother were fine.

“That is a good idea!” Butler Mu nodded in approval. “It’s just that I feel anxious because Yang Ming and the family master haven’t contacted the family yet!”

Wang Xiaoyan also thought so after hearing his words. After all, we can only make sure that Yang Ming is really fine once we get the exact news. Everything we know now is just a manifestation of the events that occurred.

Wang Songshan couldn’t resist the excitement in his heart and made a phone call home on the way back. Someone immediately answered the phone call once it rang.

"Hello? Is it the family master?" Butler Mu was still worried as there was no exact news of Wang Songshan and Yang Ming. But Wang Songshan called right away.

"Butler Mu, Yang Ming and I are safe. We are on the way back, so prepare something delicious for us. I haven't had a good meal in days!" Wang Songshan said comfortably.

"Okay, family master. I'll let the servants go prepare. It's great to hear the news of your safe return!" Butler Mu said with joy and his previous gloomy expression vanished.

"Is Yang Ming all right?" Wang Xiaoyan couldn't hear the voice on the phone, but the call was made by her father and he seemed fine based on Butler Mu's words. However, Wang Xiaoyan was still anxious as she did not hear the news of Yang Ming.

"Hehe, Yanyan, come and take the phone. I will inform the servants to prepare food and drink to greet the family master's return," Butler Mu saw Wang Xiaoyan's anxious face and smiled slightly. He handed the phone to Wang Xiaoyan.

"Hello, Dad? Are you fine?" Wang Xiaoyan took the phone and thought it was inappropriate to ask about Yang Ming's safety directly. Although she knew that her father was safe, she still asked out of concern.

"Me? Of course I'm fine!" Wang Songshan smiled teasingly. "Yanyan, why do you care about your father suddenly? Didn't I just hear that you only cared about Yang Ming's safety?"

Wang Xiaoyan's face turned red immediately as she didn't expect her father to hear what she had said just now. She said, "It's because I already knew that you are safe. That's why I only asked about Yang Ming."

"Yang Ming is driving right now. He's in an extremely good condition," Wang Songshan laughed, "Would you like to talk to him?"

"There's no need to... We'll talk after you guys come back." Wang Xiaoyan said nothing else once she heard that Yang Ming was driving because safety was most important after all.

Soon after the call was hung up, the Butterfly Family's disciple on duty came to report that the Douglas Family had arrived!

"The Douglas Family came?" Butler Mu listened to the disciple's report and was stunned slightly, "Why are they here?"

"Perhaps they got the news of the Lancer Family and came here to express goodwill?" Fang Tian chuckled and said, "Although Goode is dead, the other party will definitely not come to question our crime unless they are stupid."

"That is also true," Butler Mu agreed, "Then let the people of the Douglas Family come in. I would like to know what they are here for."

A black-suited man in his fifties sat respectfully on a sofa in the Butterfly Castle's reception hall. He stood up quickly once he saw Butler Mu and the others coming in. "Butler Mu——". He then locked his eyes on Wang Ruoshui again and said, "Is this Family Master Wang's younger sister?"

Wang Ruoshui nodded slightly and didn't answer. She just sat down at the side. Instead, Butler Mu knew the identity of this person, "Elder Gurner? May I know what's the matter for your excellency to visit us at this time?"

Gurner was the Douglas Family's chief elder and the brother of the current family master. The Douglas Family had received the news immediately after the Lancer Family collapsed!

The Douglas Family had several well-known servants within the Lancer Family because they had an in-law relationship with the Lancer Family. They received the news of Goode's death right after the Lancer Family's incident. This infuriated the Douglas Family Master yet he felt a deep fear and powerlessness!

The Douglas Family Master would definitely seek a reasonable explanation from the Butterfly Family if Goode was the only one who was dead. However, the Lancer Family had also been directly exterminated, which made the Douglas Family Master give up any thoughts of resistance!

He asked himself, The Douglas Family is not any stronger than the Lancer Family. We are actually much worse. So what is a Douglas Family to them if they could destroy the Lancer Family so easily?

So it was impossible to take revenge even if he wanted to. Everything was transient before absolute strength. Although his son had died in vain, the Douglas Family Master did not dare to complain at all because the opponent was way stronger than himself.

Perhaps, he could only swallow his anger and suffer in silence for this matter. However, while he was swallowing his anger, Elder Gurner had suggested for him to rush to the Butterfly Family to express goodwill clarify the relationship with the Lancer Family.

After all, Goode was the one who started this whole matter. Although Goode was Thomas's grandson and the Lancer Family also stuck up for him, he was still a member of the Douglas Family after all!

There was no guarantee that the Butterfly Family wouldn't point their finger toward the Douglas Family after they annihilated the Lancer Family. If they had annihilated one, annihilating a second would not make any difference to them. Perhaps, it would then be the end of the Douglas Family!

The Douglas Family Master was still furious about his son's death, but he could not worry about his anger anymore as Gurner had reminded him. He carefully thought about it and found out that it was indeed the case. How could the Douglas Family be the Butterfly Family's rival if they really came for revenge?

However, the Douglas Family Master couldn't accept the act of letting a family master, whose son had just died, take the initiative to express goodwill to the Butterfly Family. He was afraid that everything would be ruined if he acted impulsively at that time.

As a result, Elder Gurner came to visit the Butterfly Family as the representative of the Douglas Family.

"Hehe, Butler Mu. May I know if Family Master Wang is at home?" Gurner asked politely.

"Family master?" Butler Mu's face was cold and said somberly, "How could Elder Gurner not know where my family master is?"

"This-" Gurner panicked as he didn't expect Butler Mu to be so straightforward and relentlessly reply. He had originally intended to start with a few prior greetings before opening up the topic. However, Gurner was indeed a sophisticated person, so he muttered a little and said, "To be honest, Butler Mu, my little nephew Goode indeed went somewhat too far in the previous matter."

"Why, Elder Gurner? So, are you here to pursue responsibility?" Butler Mu hummed coldly and asked.

"How would I dare to?" Gurner smiled bitterly. It seems that Butler Mu is really difficult to deal with! "Goode deserved what he got; everything was his fault. We, the Douglas Family, had a meeting and decided to dispense Goode's identity as the first successor in the family. He will forever be eradicated from the Douglas Family, so Goode's death has nothing to do with the family at all! "

Butler Mu sneered coldly after hearing this. They only came to say these words after Goode was dead. Goode was unlucky enough to become an abandoned son so soon. However, Goode had died for a good cause as he was able to carry all of his sins when he died.

Although Butler Mu had this thought in his heart, he said calmly, "Is that so? I was still thinking about how to explain Goode's death to the Douglas Family. It seems that there is no need for an explanation now."

Gurner smiled bitterly and forced a smile, "That's right, I'm assured as long as the family master is all right. Since the family master is not at home, I will have to trouble Butler Mu to help me convey the stand of the Douglas Family! "

"Oh? What stand?" Butler Mu asked even though he clearly knew it.

"Our Douglas Family and your Butterfly Family co-exist in Ello Town. We will not do anything that undermines the friendship between the two parties. This matter was due to an individual's private behavior this time, but we still have to say sorry and assure you that such a matter will never happen again!" said Gurner calmly.

"Okay, Elder Gurner, I will honestly convey your message to the family master. Please rest assured," Butler Mu nodded and answered.

"Then I'll leave first and not disturb you guys anymore," Gurner stood up and did not plan to stay any longer as he saw that he had achieved his goal.

Chapter 1423: Take a Break/ Engagement

Falcon's skills were not very good. However, he had once learned a set of incredibly agile body techniques under the guidance of an expert in his early years. So, although Falcon was not good at fighting, he was still excellent in the art of hiding and escaping.

This was why Falcon could sneak into the Immortal Building and kill the people of the Sui Family silently. However, the result might not be so good if he were to break in forcefully.

Falcon always felt incompetent in the face of Yang Ming. Although he had cultivated several death warriors, he still couldn't match Yang Ming. Yang Ming had even killed the female death warrior whom he was most proud of with ease. This had caused him heartache as well as a deep fear toward Yang Ming.

Therefore, Falcon had chosen to cooperate with Elder You. However, he didn't expect that Elder You's strange and mysterious voodoo was still no match for Yang Ming. He even needed to escape after Yang Ming ruined his plans. This had made the Falcon even more fearful to have any face-to-face encounters with Yang Ming.

However, despite his series of insidious tricks, not only did he fail to touch Yang Ming, he even became a wanted criminal! If it weren't because of Dr. Benjamin's magical mask that covered true face, he might have needed to return to the Central.

After Falcon's plans failed consecutively, Dr. Benjamin had finally decided to send him a strong aid. He was apparently a super expert who could crush rocks with a single fist! Of course, Benjamin didn't tell Falcon about the fact that Jetson was a robot.

Just as the Falcon was awaiting this expert's arrival with excitement, he received the sudden news from Dr. Benjamin that Jetson wasn't able to come. He immediately fell from cloud nine. Why is he not able to come so suddenly?

"Jetson had gone to resolve the conflict between his cousin and the Butterfly Family. However, the Lancer Family where his cousin is situated has been annihilated by the Butterfly Family. Jetson's whereabouts are still unknown," Benjamin's message came back quickly.

When Falcon heard the words "Butterfly Family", a faint light flashed across his eyes and then disappeared. He murmured, "The Butterfly Family actually has such a strong force? They can even kill off Dr. Benjamin's most respected expert. This is really unusual! It seems that my initial decision is still right!"

"What's wrong, boss? You don't look very good," Huang Youcai didn't see the message on Falcon's computer, so he didn't know what had happened. He only asked worriedly because Falcon was talking to himself and didn't look so good.

"The expert I told you about before might not come anymore," Falcon's heart started to bleed as he thought of this. Why am I so unlucky? This Jetson could have done so many other things, yet he went and offended the Butterfly Family. Well then, he is now dead already."

"He won't come? What do you mean? Could it be that the person supporting you no longer wants to help you, boss?" Huang Youcai was surprised. He was also looking forward to the expert's arrival. That way, he wouldn't need to fear Yang Ming's skills!

Yang Ming's skills were great. Not only was Falcon afraid of him, but Huang Youcai was also extremely fearful too. He didn't dare to face him directly. If that expert Jetson had come, he could capture Yang Ming directly and Huang Youcai would not have to be afraid of anything. However, Huang Youcai didn't expect that this expert was no longer coming.

Falcon shook his head, "He was involved in a conflict. I'm afraid he has been killed."

"Killed? Didn't you say that this expert can break rocks with one hand? His martial arts are invincible. How can someone so powerful be killed?" Huang Youcai asked curiously.

“Regardless of how powerful he is, I’m afraid that he is still a single person. His opponent was an assassin group. It’s not surprising for him to die.” It was obvious that Falcon didn’t want to say much. He didn’t disclose the news about the Butterfly Family.

“Assassin Group?” Huang Youcai’s heart trembled in fear. He had long known that his boss was no ordinary person. However, he didn’t think that his boss had already reached such a level where he was exposed to terrifying and secretive existences like assassin groups!

It was hard for ordinary people to come across assassin groups in their lifetime. Even if Huang Youcai had smuggled and committed crimes for Wang Xifan before this, they were simply small fights of a gangster organization. It was still impossible for him to encounter assassin groups.

“Indeed. Plus, it’s an assassin group that is highly ranked in the world,” Falcon didn’t go into details. He only described vaguely.

“Boss, since you can reach the people of assassin groups, I have something that might be inappropriate to say...” Huang Youcai asked hesitantly.

“Is there anything that can’t be said between us? You can speak your mind,” Falcon looked at Huang Youcai strangely before speaking.

“It’s like this, boss. Forgive me for being frank, but since you can reach people from an assassin group, why don’t we take out some money and hire an assassin to kill Yang Ming? That way, we can finish everything by killing Yang Ming and we will get our revenge. Why must it be as troublesome as it is now?” Huang Youcai suggested.

“Hire an assassin to kill Yang Ming?” Falcon couldn’t help but sneer after hearing Huang Youcai’s suggestion. “There is one thing that I have never told you about. Do you know what Yang Ming’s secret true identity is?”

“True identity?” Huang Youcai was stunned and then said, “I of course know a thing or two. His identity in the light is a university student, but his secret identity is the person in charge of the Ming Yang Group. The two famous figures of the company, Bao Sanli and Hou Zhennan, should both be Yang Ming’s men!”

“These are not all of Yang Ming’s identities, but only the appearances that are exposed,” Falcon shook his head. “Yang Ming’s true identity is actually an assassin!”

“What? Yang Ming is an assassin?!” Huang Youcai looked at Falcon in disbelief. He didn’t know if his words were true or false.

“His master is a very well-known figure in the industry. Yang Ming is a little lacking compared to his master, but he is definitely not what ordinary assassins can handle,” Falcon said calmly. “So, this is also why I didn’t look for an assassin group to kill him.”

“But, since even the assassin group can’t handle Yang Ming, wouldn’t that Mr. Jetson also not be able to do anything even if he was here? However, boss initially had such great hopes for him!” Huang Youcai was confused. “Moreover, Mr. Jetson has also died at the hands of an assassin group... Then Yang Ming...”

"Hmph, I'm thinking that Jetson was killed because the assassin group dispatched all of the experts in their family together. As for us, how are we supposed to convince them to dispatch all of their experts to deal with Yang Ming?" Falcon said disapprovingly, "Not only that, I still haven't mentioned the most important point. But since you've asked, there's no harm in telling you. Yang Ming and the assassin group that killed Jetson share a deep bond. To expect them to assassinate Yang Ming? It'll be considered pretty good if they don't go and tell him!"

"Could Yang Ming be part of that assassin group?" Huang Youcai was shocked as cold sweat drenched his back. He knew for the first time that Yang Ming had such a terrifying identity and backer, and it was also the first time that he was a little afraid. He didn't know if it was the right thing to continue opposing Yang Ming.

"He's not. In fact, Yang Ming is that assassin group's son-in-law." Falcon glanced at Huang Youcai and saw his apparent nervousness. Falcon laughed coldly, "Why? Are you scared?"

"No— No!" Huang Youcai knew that he had no way to retreat since he had chosen to go against Yang Ming. Besides, Falcon had told him a lot of things today. If he wanted to retreat, the Falcon would kill him to shut him up. So, Huang Youcai had to walk this path till its end. There was no room to maneuver.

"That's good then!" Falcon took back his murderous aura, and said calmly, "Since I can be Yang Ming's enemy, I naturally have something to rely on. The force supporting me is also a hundred times stronger than that assassin group. This time, I'm afraid that even without us having to say anything, the people supporting me will also not let that assassin group get away. So, Yang Ming will lose this backer instantly."

Although Dr. Benjamin didn't say how he was going to deal with the Butterfly Family, Falcon knew that with Dr. Benjamin's character, this matter wouldn't end just like this. They dared to kill an expert from Central. How could Central suffer a huge loss just like that? At that time, the Butterfly Family would disappear from Earth.

Huang Youcai was relieved when he heard Falcon's explanation. It all made sense upon consideration. Falcon was not a fool. Falcon knew that Yang Ming's strength was not weak yet he still dared to be his enemy. He definitely had something to depend on. Otherwise, he would not do something that was way beyond his control unless he suffered from brain damage.

"I hate Yang Ming to the core. Although he is an assassin, I will not be afraid of him since he is my opponent!" Huang Youcai said firmly after thinking. "Relax, boss. I will not stop until one of us dies. However, what should we do after this? Jetson's incident has disrupted the plan completely. What should we do?"

"Let's wait for now and see what my superior has to say," Falcon said. "Since Jetson can't come, we will not be able to face Yang Ming with just the strength of the two of us. Plus, the situation is tense out there. The cops seem to have not given up on pursuing us. So, we should just take a break for now and talk about this after a while."

"That's good too." Huang Youcai nodded in agreement. He was no longer willing to face Yang Ming directly ever since he learned of Yang Ming's true identity because it would be a meaningless thing to do. He didn't think that he was Yang Ming's match.

So, it was best for them to lay low and rest before reinforcements arrive.

Chapter 1424: Conspiring/ People First President

“Brother Nan, why are you scared now that Liu Huamei has left?” Liu Jifei looked at Liu Zhenan in puzzlement. “We have plenty of opportunities to make a fortune now that the Finance Department under your sole authority. Why aren’t you making a move?”

“Scared?” Liu Zhenan frowned. He then smiled, “Of course I know that there are plenty of opportunities to make money. But did you know that besides this enemy Liu Huamei, my brother Liu Zheqiao is also watching me covetously! When Liu Huamei was still here, we brothers had a temporary tacit agreement due to our shared hatred toward a common enemy. But now that Liu Huamei has been relocated, I’m the only one left among his competitors. Do you think that he won’t be eyeing me?”

“That’s true. How about we use some means to also make Liu Zheqiao stand aside?” Liu Jifei was only extremely respectful toward Liu Zhenan. For anybody else in the Liu Family, Liu Jifei never bothered with courtesy and called them directly by name. However, Liu Zhenan didn’t mind this as he hated those people as well.

“There’s no rush to deal with Liu Zheqiao,” Liu Zhenan shook his head and said. “He is way too far behind me. I’m still most worried about Liu Huamei!”

“Why, Brother Nan? Wasn’t Liu Huamei already sent away by the old man? Why are you still thinking about her? Can she still stir up something from Song Jiang?” Liu Jifei asked in confusion. In his opinion, Liu Huamei had already become an abandoned child of the Liu Family. There was no possibility of her returning to Song Jiang.

“That was what I thought at first,” Liu Zhenan frowned. He then said with some worry, “Jifei, think about it. How much did the old man favor Liu Huamei before this? He didn’t mind offending so many of the group’s people just to help Liu Huamei get the Financial Director position! But now, he repressed her just like that? Although he didn’t push her to rock bottom, it is still a demotion. Don’t you think that there’s something fishy about this?”

“Brother Nan, listening to your analysis, I’m starting to think that something is wrong,” Liu Jifei nodded thoughtfully. “Before this, I didn’t know much about the old man’s situation. Now that you’ve said so, this matter is really unusual. This contrast is a bit too great, right?”

“I only felt that this matter was strange after thinking about it for a few days. This contrast in treatment is indeed great, which is why I think that Liu Huamei is the biggest threat!” Liu Zhenan had started to calm down after his initial excitement. This kind of authority didn’t feel very good. He had to constantly guess the old man’s thoughts, and be wary of Liu Huamei’s resurgence and any problems that Liu Zheqiao might cause.

“Could it be that the old man is confused? Could he have given you the power just because you are his eldest grandson?” Liu Jifei thought for a moment and analyzed.

“Old and confused? Hmph!” Liu Zhenan sneered. “Anybody else in this group can be old and confused, but he can’t. If he’s confused, the group would have long been in chaos. How would it be so calm? However, the part where you said that I’m his eldest grandson is still possible. No matter how smart and capable Liu Huamei is, she is still a woman. She will have to marry out in the future. There's no way that my grandfather would leave the Liu Family's business in the hands of an outsider, right?"

"This is for sure. If I am Grandfather Liu, I will not leave such a huge business to a woman. Passing down to male descendants instead of female descendants has been the case since ancient times!" Liu Jifei said.

Liu Zhenan nodded, "Now, the thing I am most afraid of is that the old man is trying to catch me when my guard is down. He first relocates Liu Huamei, then cultivates her in secret, and finally lets her return with dominant power to the group's headquarters out of nowhere."

Liu Jifei's initial indifferent expression turned serious after he heard Liu Zhenan's words. "From this perspective, this Liu Huamei is indeed a huge trouble. If we don't get rid of her, she will become a major problem!"

"That's right, the old man has been crawling in the industry all his life. It's impossible for him to simply do things," Liu Zhenan said. "It's still fine if the old man just wants to capture me when I have my guard down. We can just stick to the initial plan and dispose of Liu Huamei completely! What I'm afraid of is that the old man gave me such great power just to wait until I make a mistake when I become overconfident. Then, he will have an excuse to remove me from my position, and let others take office."

"That shouldn't be possible, right?" Liu Jifei's heart shivered. He felt that what Liu Zhenan said was a little too insidious.

"Why isn't it possible? The old man is capable of doing anything. You should know that the Jiangyan Group is the result of his lifetime's worth of hard work. He may not wish for the Jiangyan Group to fall into the hands of someone with a different surname, but he will also not allow someone who can ruin the Jiangyan Group to dominate the overall situation!" Liu Zhenan sneered with a self-deprecating laugh when he said this. "I'm afraid that in the eyes of the old man, I am the kind of person who will damage public interests just for personal profit, right?"

"Damage public interests just for personal profit?" Liu Jifei disagreed. "The old man is not foolish. Brother Nan, now you're just using your power to cultivate your confidant. You are temporarily doing things that harm the group, but that is to prepare for yourself when you take office in the future. Once you succeed in reaching the peak and become the helm of the Jiangyan Group, will you still do things that will harm the group's interests?"

"En, what you said makes some sense!" Liu Zhenan's expression eased. He nodded, "I'm a lot more relieved after hearing you say that. But anyway, we'll dispose of Liu Huamei first, then focus on Liu Zheqiao. This way, the old man can't do much even if he is really trying to find my mistakes or catch me off-guard. I will be the only direct grandchild of the old man left as they would have both been taken down. If he doesn't give me the group, who can he give it to?"

"Okay, Brother Nan. Let's start implementing our plan?" Liu Jifei gritted his teeth and said. "Although we rushed the preparation a bit, there should be no problems. As long as our plan is proper, Liu Huamei will not be able to get away this time."

"En, that plan should be implemented already. However, can we trust those people? Don't let it be like the last time where Xu Xiaobin betrayed us. If things are ruined, you and I will both end up horribly!" Liu

Zhenan hesitated for a while and warned. "The old man is probably waiting for us to embarrass ourselves!"

"Aren't all the people we sent close confidants of Brother Nan?" Liu Jifei asked after he was stunned for a bit.

"They are indeed my people, but I can't say that they are close confidants. There aren't any whom I can trust a hundred percent like you." Liu Zhenan waved his hand and said. "You also know that it is impossible for me to have too many interactions with the bottom tiers of this company. The only reason I introduced these people to you is to tell you that they can be used. As to whom should carry out this plan, it's better for you to take control of it and choose the best fit."

"En, I have also connected with a few people during this time. The deputy captain of the escort team is definitely trustworthy. His father has uremia and is waiting for a kidney transplant in the hospital. Not only does that surgery costs a huge amount of money, but the source of the kidney is also a huge problem. I have promised him that as long as he listens to instructions, we will not only settle the cost of the surgery, but we will also help him get a kidney!" Liu Jifei said. "Brother Nan, it is not too much for you to find a kidney donor, right? You won't blame me for making promises in advance, right?"

"This is nothing. It's just a matter of money," Liu Zhenan said. "The key problem will arise if it were to be exposed that he was leading the team in performing the task. At that time, if others see us busy with his father's matters, won't they suspect us?"

"I have thought about this problem long ago!" Liu Jifei laughed. "Relax, Brother Nan. His father was previously an old employee of our Jiangyan Group. Speaking of his uremia, it was a hidden disease caused by uncovering a poisonous gas bomb back when he was digging the foundation of the group's construction land. So, it's a flexible scope as to whether our group gives him money to treat the disease. We can care; we can not care. It's a matter of one word from you, Chairman Liu."

"Oh? If that's the case, it'll be easy to do." Liu Zhenan said. "Send his father to the best hospital and maintain his condition with the best medicine for now. As for the kidney donor, there's no rush. I'll contact people slowly. However, spread the word that I am sympathetic to employees who have worked hard for the company. Since they were hurt because of work, our group will take full responsibility until the end."

"Excellent thought! Excellent thought indeed!" Liu Jifei flattered him after listening. "This way, others will not be able to say anything, but will instead say that Chairman Liu is a kind and good leader. This will cause your reputation to increase among the employees in this group. When the time comes for the old man to choose a successor, he will have to consider public opinion. Secondly, if this matter happens before our plan is enacted, nobody can make a fuss about it."

"That's what I mean, but there is one more point. You must think of the right reasons. Otherwise, others will still have reasons to doubt us," Liu Zhenan nodded as he said.

Chapter 1425: Performance/ Abnormal Matter

"If you don't know, then don't talk nonsense!" Liu Zhenan interrupted Little Xia's words and said coldly, "Watch your mouth. Don't talk nonsense everywhere."

"I am just saying it in front of you, Brother Liu. Why would I say it to other people?" Little Xia was instantly shocked when she saw that Liu Zhenan was really angry, so she apologized hastily.

"It's good that you know. I'm presenting a brand-new image in front of everyone now. Don't mess up my plan. Otherwise, you know the consequences," Liu Zhenan warned faintly.

"Relax, Brother Liu. I got it, you want to be a people's president!" Little Xia said with a sweet smile.

"People's president? You can say that..." Liu Zhenan nodded, "Also, call me Vice President Liu in the future. Don't call me Brother Liu or President Liu. It's not good to let others hear you call me that."

"Vice President Liu? Brother Liu, didn't you hate it when others added the word vice to your title?" Little Xia asked with some confusion.

"The past is the past. The present is the present." Liu Zhenan said, "Without a compass, it is hard to draw a perfect circle. My actual position now is a vice president. If you call me the president and the old man hears about it, he will think that I am seeking instant benefits. And that will be bad. "

"Yes, Vice President Liu, I know now!" Little Xia responded tenderly.

Liu Zhenan and Little Xia quickly went downstairs. They saw a lot of employees watching the bustling scene in the company's first-floor lobby. But when these people saw Liu Zhenan approaching, they made way automatically to let him enter the center.

"Let's all separate and get back to work. Stop looking, let Vice President Liu handle this matter," Little Xia said hastily when she saw that everyone in the company was surrounding and watching them.

Although Liu Zhenan had recently become closer to the people, these employees were in the wrong. It was time to work now, and it was not right to be watching the bustling scene here. Everyone's face became awkward upon Little Xia's scolding. But they heard opposing voices as they were about to leave.

"No, everyone can't leave. If the person-in-charge turns hostile and denies their promise while everyone is gone, what will happen to my father?" These rehearsed words were uttered by the escort team's deputy captain, Liu Xiaolei.

Liu Zhenan was about to say what Little Xia said. But he was preempted by Little Xia, and his heart loosened. It seems that Little Xia is quite clever. It is better for her to say instead of me. After all, I have to maintain my people's president image. It is inappropriate to openly scold. But if these words were not said, Liu Xiaolei wouldn't be able to utter his rehearsed lines.

Little Xia had solved the problem for him while he was in a dilemma. In this way, it would be fine as long as he acts like a good guy and presents the image of being a people's president.

"Hehe, young lad, I understand your mood very well. But what kind of person am I, Liu Zhenan? I guess everyone here can affirm it, right?" Liu Zhenan smiled faintly and calmly asked the onlooking employees.

He didn't say anything to drive away everyone but asked questions instead. This stopped all the employees from leaving. After all, they also wanted to see what all the fuss was about. After hearing Liu Zhenan's question, several of his confidants stationed in the crowd in advance said, "Vice President Liu has always been very concerned about the welfare of us employees!"

“Yeah, he always thinks about us from an employee perspective. Young lad, go on and believe him!”

“If you have any problem, Vice President Liu will definitely help you to solve it.”

Incited by these people, others recalled that Liu Zhenan’s recent actions were indeed promoting employee benefits.. what these people said which was fighting for a lot of employees’ benefits. Although Liu Zhenan was a bit arrogant before, it was in the past after all. As long as he was better now, who cared about the past?

Furthermore. Liu Zhenan was standing right there. No one was stupid. Wouldn’t it be finding trouble for themselves if they were to speak against or say bad things about Liu Zhenan at this time?

So, following the praises of the several from people before, everyone else present also said yes. Even Liu Zhenan did not expect this phenomenon! Previously, he didn’t expect others to say anything good about him. He had only assigned a few confidants among them. Since these people had started to praise, they would achieve their goal if there were no objections from other people. Nevertheless, he didn’t expect the effect would be so good.

For a while, even Liu Zhenan was feeling a little flattered. I didn’t expect this staged performance to increase my reputation in the company to the peak. Isn’t this outcome too great?

Originally, Liu Xiaolei had also come to perform. What these people said had no effect on him at all, but he was secretly surprised. This Liu Zhenan is really something. In a short period of time, he has already controlled so many people’s hearts. It seems that relying on him and doing things for him is really a wise choice! Once Liu Zhenan comes to power, my contribution will not go unnoticed. Liu Xiaolei was even more motivated thinking of this.

How could he know that these people were just temporarily excited? But this was not important anymore. Liu Xiaolei showed a doubtful look “True or false? Don’t lie to me? Despite being sent to work in Song Jiang for some time, I have also served the group before. Although I am not familiar with Vice President Liu, I haven’t heard anything about fighting for welfare? ”

“Young lad, don’t talk nonsense!” At this time, an old man walked up to him and said in a low voice, “In the past, due to Director Liu Huamei’s restraints, Vice President Liu could not show his capability. Now, the chairman is wise. He transferred Liu Huamei away, and our vice president Liu began to show his capability! ”

This old man was one of Liu Zhenan’s confidants and one of the company’s veterans. His name was Liu Pansen and he was the Deputy Minister of the Human Resources Department. Speaking of which, he was also Liu Jiangyan’s distant cousin so he could also be considered as Liu Zhenan’s uncle.

However, he knew that despite his special identity, it was impossible for him to achieve great things in the group. After all, he was only a distant relative, so he had secretly defected to Liu Zhenan.

Nevertheless, it was also because of his special identity that he dared to call out Liu Huamei’s name, and dared to say things that others didn’t. Perhaps even if Liu Jiangyan would not say anything if he knew of it. After all, Liu Pansen was Liu Huamei’s uncle. It was normal for him to comment a few words about a junior.

Although Liu Pansen's voice was very low, everyone at the scene heard it clearly. This matter was both true and false. It was no secret that Liu Zhenan and Liu Huamei had struggled for power before. That was why everyone ninety percent believed what Liu Pansen said. If one thought about it carefully, Liu Zhenan's transformation had really begun after he took over power, so they completely believed in Liu Pansen's words.

At that moment, Liu Zhenan pretended not to hear Liu Pansen's words. He walked over with a smile to Liu Xiaolei and earnestly said, "Hearing your words, are you also an employee of the group? Your father is also an old employee of the group? Not only will I solve the difficulties of people like you who have worked for the group for two generations, but I will also prioritize them! If you have any difficulties, speak out in front of everyone. I promise you that no matter what the problem is, as long as the company can solve them and it doesn't involve law violations, I will try my best to solve it for you!"

"This-Okay. Since Vice President Liu has said so, I will believe you!" Liu Xiaolei nodded, showing a relieved and grateful look.

"Great, let's go to the conference room to talk about it in detail!" Liu Zhenan said, "After all, this is the company lobby where people come and go. It is inappropriate to talk here. With so many people testifying, what else are you afraid of?"

"Okay, then let's go to the conference room." Liu Xiaolei nodded and went to the conference room with Liu Zhenan.

Once the company's employees noticed that there was nothing else to watch, they all dispersed and went to do their respective jobs.

In the conference room, Liu Zhenan waved to his secretary Little Xia behind him, and said, "Little Xia, you go back to the office first. Let me talk to this Mr. Liu. You should deal with things over there first. If someone looks for me, just take note of their matter."

"Okay, Vice President Liu," Little Xia didn't think much about it at all. She didn't know that Liu Zhenan was purposely sending her away. She even thought that Liu Zhenan trusted her as he had sent her to attend to important matters! However, it was not surprising that Little Xia thought so. After all, what could be so important about talking to an employee who had created trouble? Little Xia was too lazy to listen to these trivial matters.

Chapter 1426: Mengyan is in Trouble/ The Other Party is Very Arrogant

As the Jiangyan Group was a big company, this incident did not stir up any storms. Liu Zhenan's concern for old employees had earned old man Liu Jiangyan's recognition, but after all, it was only one trivial matter. Over the next few days, the effect of this matter had dampened a lot, and the Jiangyan Group's work continued as usual. Most people had gradually forgotten about this matter.

At this moment, Yang Ming also needed to start his journey back. He had lived in the Butterfly Family for nearly a month. Although the elders had pressured him to do so due to his engagement with Wang Xiaoyan, Yang Ming was also willing to do so. The newly married couple made some time to visit nearby interesting places. It was considered as their honeymoon.

Old Buffon also had his affairs. Before Yang Ming departed, he also bid farewell to the Butterfly Family. However, the friendship between the Buffon Family and the Butterfly Family was considered indestructible.

The negative effects brought about by the Lancer Family had all disappeared. The entire European upper society seemed to have forgotten the Lancer Family's existence. But this was not surprising. Who would mention a collapsed family out of the blue and offend the two powerful families?

They knew that neither the Buffon Family nor the current Butterfly Family were easy to mess with.

"Even after coming back, I can still vividly remember the incidents that happened during the past month. I didn't expect that it would be so dangerous." Yang Ming looked out of the window and saw a clearly visible matchbox-sized building through the thin mist. He lamented, "The Lancer Family was really wronged by the grudge that formed!"

"It should be said that their death is wronged!" Wang Xiaoyan smiled, "Why? If you knew it was so dangerous, you wouldn't come?"

"To be honest, if I knew it was so troublesome, I really wouldn't come..." Yang Ming sighed.

"You—" Wang Xiaoyan heard Yang Ming's heartless words and was mad suddenly. She stared at him, but when she saw Yang Ming grinning there, she realized that she was tricked by Yang Ming.

"However, that would be because I didn't know that I was engaged to you. If I knew I was engaged to you, I would still go even if it was an extremely dangerous place!" Yang Ming turned the thread of discussion and said with a laugh.

"You're pretty good at talking!" Wang Xiaoyan made a hmph sound and revealed an indescribable expression of shyness on her face. Then, her expression turned gloomy again, "If it is possible, I would like to stay in Europe and not return. But, after all, we still have to face reality..."

"This..." Yang Ming naturally knew what Wang Xiaoyan was referring to. He helplessly smiled bitterly, "Relax. After I go back, I will find an opportunity to talk to Mengyan and the others to tell them about it."

"There's no need." Wang Xiaoyan shook her head, "I don't know if I can still get along with them. If they try to crowd me out, I might get angry and do something that you will regret. Then what can we do?"

"This..." Yang Ming looked at Wang Xiaoyan bewildered. What Wang Xiaoyan said really frightened Yang Ming. It was easy for Wang Xiaoyan to kill Chen Mengyan and the others with her methods!

"Look at how scared you are!" Wang Xiaoyan smiled sweetly, "I am just joking with you. Even if I really can't get along with them, I can only endure it. How can I really kill them?"

Yang Ming was suddenly relieved after he heard Wang Xiaoyan's words. However, her expression still looked somewhat bitter, "It must be really hard for you..."

"Forget it, it's nothing. Anyway, you live next door to me. Just climb over to my house at night to see me frequently, and I won't think of anything else." Wang Xiaoyan smiled, "Does this sound doable?"

Yang Ming nodded and didn't say anything else. He wanted to agree with Wang Xiaoyan, but he was just embarrassed to say it.

Fang Tian and Wang Ruoshui had also come back with Yang Ming. The four of them got off the plane in a low-key manner and exited the airport. Hou Zhenhan had been waiting here for a long time. After he took the luggage from the hands of Yang Ming and the others, they rode on the Buick commercial vehicle in the parking lot.

Yang Ming had only informed Hou Zhenhan about his return this time. Although Bao Sanli was also a credible person, Hou Zhenhan was comparatively more prudent and careful with his words. Yang Ming did not want others to know too much as this matter involved Wang Xiaoyan and Fang Tian.

Hou Zhenhan was not a talkative person. After nodding to the people around Yang Ming, he just turned a deaf ear as if they didn't exist. This made Yang Ming very satisfied.

He first dropped Fang Tian and Wang Ruoshui at the newly purchased villa in the development zone's villa area, and then dropped Yang Ming and Wang Xiaoyan to Huashang District. Hou Zhenhan was somewhat surprised to see that Wang Xiaoyan actually lived in the villa beside Yang Ming's, but he didn't question.

Generally, Bao Sanli would pick-up and drop-off Yang Ming's, but Yang Ming had personally asked Hou Zhenhan to do it this time. Hou Zhenhan also vaguely understood the reasons. Although Yang Ming also trusted Bao Sanli now, perhaps Yang Ming didn't want others to know about the people who came back with him this time. So Yang Ming only called Hou Zhenhan to come over.

Hou Zhenhan was one of Yang Ming's earliest henchmen. He could be absolutely trusted. This was also why Yang Ming called him, but Hou Zhenhan was very excited when he thought about it. It seemed that Brother Yang still trusted him the most!

Originally, Yang Ming would usually ask Bao Sanli to deal with everything. Although Hou Zhenhan didn't say anything, he felt a little disappointed in his heart, thinking that Yang Ming relied more on Bao Sanli than him.

However, based on today's incident, Yang Ming didn't seem to think so. Instead, it seemed Yang Ming kept him in charge of the overall situation of the company and did not bother him with trivial matters. Yang Ming would only ask for him when he had no choice.

"Go back and sleep well. Get over the jet lag, and I'll see you at school." Yang Ming did not get off, but waved to Wang Xiaoyan. Although it was daytime and Chen Mengyan and the others should be in their university classes, there was always the chance of something unexpected. It would be difficult to explain if Chen Mengyan saw Yang Ming sending off Wang Xiaoyan personally.

Wang Xiaoyan nodded, and quickly entered her villa like a thief. After waving at Yang Ming, she turned and closed the door.

"Don't leak today's incident," Yang Ming closed the door and said to the driving Hou Zhenhan.

"Relax, Brother Yang. Even special means such as hypnosis will be useless to make us, the special force, speak things that we do not wish to," Hou Zhenhan smiled and agreed, "Brother Yang, aren't you going home?"

"At this time, Mengyan and the others should be in school. Let me make a call first," Yang Ming took out his cell phone and dialed Chen Mengyan's number as he was saying this.

Yang Ming couldn't wait and said, "Mengyan, where are you?"

"Sorry, the number you dialed is off or is not in the service area. Please dial again later ..."

Yang Ming was stunned for a moment. Chen Mengyan actually switched off her phone? Normally, Chen Mengyan will never turn off her phone. Even in school, she will only switch it to vibration mode. Could it be that she has an exam?

Thinking of this, Yang Ming didn't care much and dialed Lin Zhiyun's phone instead. This time, it connected. The phone rang twice before it was answered.

"Yang Ming?" Lin Zhiyun's hesitant voice came from the phone.

"Zhiyun, it's me. Where are you?" Yang Ming heard Lin Zhiyun's voice and felt a little relieved. If Lin Zhiyun had also switched off her phone, things would be a little unusual.

"Yang Ming, it's you indeed!" Lin Zhiyun's surprised voice came from the phone, "Are you back?"

"I just got off the plane, and I'm right at the door of our house. Aren't Mengyan and the others with you?" Yang Ming asked with a smile.

"Yang Ming, Jiajia and I are at Sister Mengyan's house now. Sister Mengyan is in trouble!" Lin Zhiyun's voice tensed after she recovered from her surprise, "Come over now!"

"What? What happened to Mengyan? What happened?" Yang Ming was shocked in his heart. When he was about to leave Europe the day before yesterday, Yang Ming even had a video call with Chen Mengyan and the others. It had just been two days and Chen Mengyan was in trouble already?

"Sister Mengyan was kidnapped! Yang Ming, come here quickly. I'm very anxious now!" Lin Zhiyun's voice was almost crying.

"Kidnapped? Then you guys wait for me. I will come now," Yang Ming suddenly frowned. Chen Mengyan was kidnapped? What is going on?

Chapter 1427: Chen Mengxi's Identity/ I'm Here to Consign

"Are you afraid that I will harm him?" Yang Ming sighed lightly after hearing Xia Xue's words, "He did nothing wrong, so how can I blame him? But isn't this Blackhawk Gang quite arrogant? "

Yang Ming knew that Xia Xue was considering his special identity and special abilities. If he involved the Supernatural Investigation Bureau in this, then Captain Wang would most likely become their victim to appease Yang Ming's anger. This was why Xia Xue said these words to Yang Ming.

But was Yang Ming an unreasonable person who didn't know how to differentiate right from wrong? Captain Wang had done nothing wrong in this matter. In fact, it was even impossible that Chen Fei would make the order to release a drug dealer for the sake of his daughter.

So, Yang Ming really didn't have any grudges against Captain Wang, but he had imprinted a death mark on the so-called Blackhawk Gang in his heart. His killing intent was triggered. Since they dared to target the King of Assassins' wife, then no matter how powerful they were in their local area, they must be prepared to withstand Yang Ming's raging fire.

"As long as you don't do anything irrational, it is fine." Xia Xue sighed with relief, "I have contacted my brother regarding this matter. They will also intervene if necessary."

"I'm afraid that it was Xia Bingbao who told you to pass those words to me?" Yang Ming was blank for a while, but then he guessed it roughly. It was difficult for Xia Xue to say the previous words with her current status. After all, Xia Xue was not the chief of the police bureau. The Criminal Investigation Team and the Anti-drug Team were originally two independent departments. Therefore, the only person who could say these things was Xia Bingbao.

"You guessed it?" Xia Xue was a little surprised that Yang Ming could guess the truth about her few words.

"I thought of it when I heard you mention your brother." Yang Ming smiled lightly, "Tell me about the other things that you want to discuss with me."

"You know I have something else to ask you?" Xia Xue was even more surprised. She didn't expect Yang Ming to know that she had another purpose.

"Perhaps it's about Chen Mengxi, right?" Yang Ming sighed, knowing that this person's identity could not be concealed forever. He picked up a disposable paper cup at the table and poured himself a cup of water. He thought about how to talk to Xia Xue about Chen Mengxi's background.

"Yes, it is that person..." Xia Xue nodded, "I suspect that this person has a problem. She may have some connection with the Blackhawk Gang!"

"Pfft..." Yang Ming directly sprayed out the sip of water he just took, almost hitting Xia Xue's face and making a mess of the floor. He then coughed continuously...

"Yang Ming, what's the matter with you?" Xia Xue got a huge shock. She didn't understand why Yang Ming had such a big reaction. Isn't his reaction too strong?

"Chen Mengxi... has a problem? She is connected with the Blackhawk Gang?" Yang Ming took a few breaths. Not knowing whether to laugh or to cry, he said, "How is that possible?"

"I asked Zhou Jiajia and Lin Zhiyun. This Chen Mengxi claims to be a distant relative of Chen Mengyan, but according to my investigation, that is not true. I also verified with Chief Chen, and he did not even know that such a relative exists. In this way, Chen Mengxi's identity is very suspicious. Her name is so similar to Chen Mengyan, yet the Chen family does not actually have such a relative. Her purpose in approaching Chen Mengyan is suspicious. Although I don't know how she gained Chen Mengyan's trust, this person's identity is absolutely fake!" Xia Xue said firmly, "I also checked the identity of this Chen Mengxi using the intranet and found something suspicious! Chen Mengxi's file vaguely mentioned her life experiences and had barely any information about her previous events from childhood until now. Her ID number was also generated in Mount Jing in recent months. Before that, I also asked the Mount Jing Police Bureau about Chen Mengxi, but they refused to answer questions regarding Chen Mengxi for some reason. I suspect that some people in the Mount Jing Police Bureau are also collaborating with people of the Blackhawk Gang! I am going to tell my brother about this and let him confront the Mount Jing Police Bureau's seniors to investigate Chen Mengxi's account registration... ”

Xia Xue blurted out all her thoughts in a single breath. Yang Ming did not interrupt but listened to her before smiling bitterly. “Xia Xue, you don't need to investigate Chen Mengxi anymore. There is nothing wrong with this person, and her identity is also handled by me through the Mount Jing Police Bureau using the name of the Supernatural Investigation Bureau. So, it is normal for the Mount Jing Police Bureau to refuse to answer anything about Chen Mengxi...”

“What? It turns out that this Chen Mengxi was arranged by you to be with Chen Mengyan?” Xia Xue was dumbfounded for a moment after listening to Yang Ming, and then she said unbelievably, “Who is this person actually?”

“She is actually a bodyguard I hired for Chen Mengyan...” Yang Ming spoke a partial truth, “As you know, because of the Investigation Bureau's matters, I offended the previous Elder You a lot. It's impossible for me to accompany Chen Mengyan all the time, especially later if I have to go to Yunnan Miaojiang with you. Thus, I have to be totally worry-free. That's why I invited someone to protect Chen Mengyan, but I didn't expect her to be kidnapped as well.”

“It turns out that she is the bodyguard you hired!” Xia Xue suddenly looked frustrated after hearing this. “I originally wanted to use this Chen Mengxi as a breakthrough for the whole case, but now it seems that I am heading in the wrong direction...”

“Why don't you walk me through the incident from the beginning till the end in detail?” Although Yang Ming was very worried about Chen Mengyan's safety, it seemed the other party would not really harm her. This was because they had taken her hostage in order to threaten Chen Fei in exchange for the safe return of Nicholas Shevich.

However, a long delay may cause many troubles. Who knew whether the Blackhawk Gang would do something irrational out to anger if their proposal was continually rejected? At that time, even if Yang Ming sent the entire Blackhawk Gang to hell, it couldn't compensate for his regret if something happened.

So Yang Ming must first figure out the entire matter from the beginning till the end, and then make plans for what to do next. Perhaps, he had to go to the Russian border this time to personally settle the Blackhawk Gang.

“As I said before, Captain Wang led people to capture Nicholas Shevich and others from the drug trafficking gang and seized a large amount of heroin. However, no one expected that this Nicholas Shevich was the young gang leader of a big Russian gang, the Blackhawk Gang. Plus, the Blackhawk Gang holds a lot of power in the Russian border. Even the local government can't do anything about them. This is also why they have no fear,” Xia Xue started to describe the Blackhawk Gang in detail. “After knowing this, we suspected that the other party might do something bad to us because of being shamed into anger. But what we didn't expect was that they would target Chen Mengyan. This caught us a bit off guard.”

“What was the specific situation at the time?” Yang Ming asked.

“At the time, Chen Mengyan, Chen Mengxi, Lin Zhiyun, and Zhou Jiajia had just finished school. When they walked out of school, they were stopped by several approaching black-shirted men. According to Lin Zhiyun and Zhou Jiajia, the other party was wearing sunglasses and cricket caps, but they should be Asian instead of Caucasian judging by their skin color. Therefore, we suspect that they should be Chinese people recruited by the Blackhawk Gang,” Xia Xue said. “Since the other party sells drugs in the country, they must have inevitably recruited some local people as subordinates. This is also why the other party could take away Chen Mengyan so smoothly. There is a spy from the other party’s forces on our side.”

“En, that’s for sure,” Yang Ming was not really surprised after listening, “Chen Mengyan and Chen Mengxi were directly abducted at that time?”

Yang Ming’s only doubt was that Chen Mengxi’s skill was not much inferior to Wang Xiaoyan. In this case, how did the other party kidnap Chen Mengyan?

“Based on Lin Zhiyun and Zhou Jiajia’s recount, only four people came at that time. They said that they had to talk to Chen Mengyan about certain matters. Chen Mengxi was immediately alerted. She seemed as though she was about to make a move, but suddenly stopped,” Xia Xue said. “Later we analyzed that Chen Mengxi or Chen Mengyan should have realized that the other party had a gun at that time. Without the ability to protect the safety of Chen Mengyan and the other two, Chen Mengxi chose to compromise. However, when we analyzed this previously, we thought that Chen Mengxi was most probably one of the spies from the other party. But now that seems impossible...”

Xia Xue laughed ridiculously twice, probably feeling a little self-deprecating because of her wrong speculation previously.

Yang Ming nodded. It could only be because of this possibility that Victoria, also known as Chen Mengxi, did not act casually. Victoria was a prudent woman. Without absolute assurance, she would rather compromise temporarily and look for another opportunity.

At the time, if all four of them had guns and Victoria couldn’t kill all of them at once, it would inevitably cause someone to shoot and hurt either Chen Mengyan, Lin Zhiyun, Zhou Jiajia or others. Therefore, a temporary compromise was a wise choice.

Chapter 1428: Instant Kill/ Unbelievable Luck

Yang Ming looked at the clamoring bald-headed man and smiled indifferently. He held his hands together and stood without moving, but his ironic smile was able to express his meaning without talking.

“Wait—” A man with glasses, who had never spoken a word but seemed to be their boss, waved his hand and stopped the bald-headed man from taking action.

“Brother Kao, this boy...” The bald-headed macho man seemed a little unwilling to stop. He was about to take action but was suddenly stopped by the man with glasses. He was very upset, but he couldn’t help but adhere to the man’s order.

“Bald head, you don’t talk first!” The unrelenting voice of Brother Kao, the glasses-wearing man, made the bald-headed macho man shut his mouth immediately. It seemed that this Brother Kao was the direct boss of these people.

Yang Ming also made a quick plan in his heart. Kill everyone else and leave this 'Brother Kao' for now. Maybe he knows more than the Caucasian upstairs. The reason Yang Ming planned this was because he was afraid that it would be difficult to communicate if the Caucasian didn't speak Chinese. Although Yang Ming's special ability could see through others' thoughts regardless of nationality, he couldn't assure that the Caucasian would think about Chen Mengyan's affairs for him to observe.

"Who are you? What's your purpose in coming here?" Brother Kao asked coldly as he touched the glasses on his face, carefully assessing Yang Ming from top to bottom. Although he stopped the bald-headed macho man from taking actions, he maintained a condescending attitude toward Yang Ming as if he was sure to win.

Yang Ming felt that this Brother Kao was indeed a character. He knew to listen to the other person's background before attacking. But he was just too foolish. He was about to die, and yet he still dared to talk to Yang Ming with such an attitude. He really didn't want to live longer.

"You don't need to know who I am," Yang Ming said bluntly, "As for my purpose in coming here, I originally wanted to kill all five of you. But it looks like you are a little boss, and so you may be quite useful. I will spare you for the time being, and kill the four of them first."

"Darn you, little boy. Who do you think you are? You are not afraid of danger when you brag? When I started fighting, you were still in kindergarten!" The bald-headed macho man heard Yang Ming's arrogant words and was immediately furious. Ignoring Brother Kao's previous words, he jumped out again, raised his arms, and was about to attack Yang Ming.

However, Brother Kao waved his hand to signal the bald-headed macho man to calm down. He then narrowed his eyes at Yang Ming while saying, "I'll ask you again for the last time. Who are you and what is your purpose in coming here! If you don't want to say it, then I'm sorry. No matter what your background is or who is behind you, one who does not know is not guilty. You can only stay today."

Brother Kao was a smart person, and he was not a reckless guy like the bald-headed macho man. Yang Ming's face was unfamiliar, and he did not seem like a person mingling in Bianhai City's underworld. Nor had he ever heard of any gang that had a leader called Yang Ming! Yang Ming's appearance looked like that of a child of a government official or a wealthy man. He dressed like a gentleman, but talked arrogantly. Although the Goldenhawk Gang was the largest gang in the Bianhai City, they didn't want to simply offend a pampered son with a background. So he initially thought Yang Ming was a pampered son of a particular family who watched too many movies at home, and relied on his father's background. He didn't know the world's reality. He broke into the Goldenhawk Gang headquarters to show off in order to satisfy his vanity.

If this was the case, then even if Brother Kao was very displeased, he dared not offend this person too much. The family of these pampered sons could not be underestimated! So, Brother Kao's plan was to ask Yang Ming's background clearly, and phone his home to get people to pick him up. This way, he could earn a favor from the family. Maybe there would even be benefits in the future.

However, it now seemed that Yang Ming did not intend to divulge his background. In this case, Brother Kao would also be merciless. Since you don't want to say it, I will pretend to not know and leave you here. I'll throw your corpse into the sea to be eaten by sharks so no one can find out the cause of your death. Then, this matter will come to an end.

"You want to find out about my background?" Yang Ming was also mingling in the underworld. How could he not know what Brother Kao was thinking? But Yang Ming didn't put him in his eyes. He smiled indifferently, "However, I will disappoint you. My family is not in Bianhai City and I have no powerful relatives or friends here. Moreover, I came here by myself."

"En?" After listening to Yang Ming's words, it was Brother Kao's turn to be shocked. It was a bit difficult for him to understand Yang Ming's meaning! Yang Ming's words made it clear that he has no background in Bianhai City, and he came alone without any support. In this way, aren't you telling me that if I kill you, no one will cause me any trouble!

Is this guy stupid? Or what? Otherwise, why would he say such a thing? Or did this boy say this intentionally as he has another way to escape?

"Why? Are you afraid now? Are you afraid that I have any plans?" Yang Ming saw Brother Kao's hesitation and smiled ironically, "But I'm afraid that I have to let you down. Although not every sentence that I say may be true, I can't be bothered to lie to you, a character whose existence is just like an ant. It is a waste of brain cells."

Brother Kao's expression suddenly became a little gloomy, but Yang Ming was not in a hurry. He looked at him with a mocking expression.

Brother Kao hesitated again and again, but finally made up his mind. He waved his hand and said fiercely, "Do it. Finish him off."

"Oh yes, Brother Kao!" The bald-headed macho man had been waiting for a long time. With an order from Brother Kao, he was the first to jump out. He raised his fist and smashed at Yang Ming's temple, "Little boy, you pretended to be meek. Today I will let you know what punishment by thunder means for pretending!"

"Really?" Yang Ming didn't care about the fist launched by the bald-headed macho man and smiled indifferently, "Where is the thunder? Why can't I see it?"

"What a blunder..." The bald-headed macho man became even more annoyed as he was provoked by Yang Ming. He unconsciously increased the strength and speed on his fist, and he started swearing. Before he could finish his scolding, his voice stopped abruptly. His eyes popped out and his whole body suddenly collapsed to the ground soundlessly. He lost his breath in a blink of an eye and became a corpse. However, he still maintained a punching position where one of his hands was erected from the ground. It was as terrifying as a standing corpse.

"All of you go together!" Brother Kao didn't expect that the bald-headed macho man was already dead. After all, this was too incredible. He just saw Yang Ming casually move his hands, then the bald-headed macho man had collapsed to the ground. So, he thought that Yang Ming had surely used some special means to stun the bald-headed macho man. "This boy is a bit wicked. You all be careful. Bald head suffered a hidden loss!"

The other people did not even imagine that the bald-headed macho man was already dead. Therefore, although they were wondering how Yang Ming made the bald-headed macho man collapse, they didn't think much about it. They still smirked and surrounded Yang Ming. After Brother Kao's reminder, the three were more cautious than before. They were wary of Yang Ming's tricks.

"Little boy, if you are smart, just stop resisting and surrender. Although we don't know what trick you used to stun bald head, don't think that you can use the same method on us!" The scar-faced man warned, "Also, with so many of us, even if you knock out one more person, you can't knock out all three of us at the same time. So don't force us to be rough on you!"

"Really? Feel free to be rough," Yang Ming said lightly, "I also thought to stop resisting and surrender, but in my opinion, it's easier to kill the three of you than to surrender."

"Since you're seeking for death, then don't blame us-ga?!" Before scar-face finished talking, he felt an itch in his throat. Right after that, a strange cry came out of his throat. Then, his whole body collapsed just like the bald-headed macho man had previously. After falling down, he did not move anymore!

The remaining two people saw scar-face fall to the ground and their facial expression changed abruptly. As they were about to make a move, they suddenly felt numbness in their bodies. Following that, they lost consciousness. They entered the death hall without pain...

Chapter 1429: Information Acquired/ I Don't Know! I Know!

"Really?" Yang Ming twitched his lips. He of course wouldn't believe Brother Kao's words. Even if his words are true, so what? Before Brother Kao met me, he worked to the bones for the Caucasians to do evil. But after meeting me, he shows a pitiful and helpless look. How could Yang Ming have any sympathy for him? This was a typical person who preyed on the weak and feared the strong.

"Yes, Master Assassin, we were also forced to do it. This place is close to the port. The forces of the Blackhawk Gang have already infiltrated here long ago. If we don't serve the Blackhawk Gang, we have no way out." Brother Kao saw that Yang Ming did not kill him immediately. Thinking that he saw some hope, he immediately explained.

"Forced to do it?" Yang Ming sneered, "If you didn't become the Blackhawk Gang's henchman, would anyone be forcing you to do it? By your logic, if the huge population of Bianhai City does not serve the Blackhawk Gang, wouldn't they have a tragic death?"

"This-" Brother Kao was lost for words. What Yang Ming said made sense, but it was only applicable to ordinary people. It did not apply to a person who mingled in the underworld like him. If he did not seek refuge under the Blackhawk Gang, did he have any other way out? But it was hard to explain. After all, even if he explained, Yang Ming had to believe it.

"Now, I'll ask you a few questions. If your answer doesn't satisfy me, hehe... you know the consequences." Yang Ming didn't bother to talk nonsense with Brother Kao. He had yet to alarm the Caucasian upstairs. Who knew this guy's vigilance was so bad. Four of his men had been killed by Yang Ming, and yet he still had the mind to tease women. Such a sloppy person!

Yang Ming's eyes glanced slightly toward the ceiling, and the situation upstairs was naturally clear to him. The Caucasian didn't seem to have noticed the movement downstairs. He was still teasing the two Asian women, who didn't seem to be speaking Chinese from their lip movements. They seemed to be speaking something like Japanese.

Yang Ming still had a little sympathy for these women. After all, Yang Ming was not iron-hearted. These women also belonged to that kind of pitiful people who fawn upon the influential and powerful people for the sake of vanity. But they deserved what they got. Especially after Yang Ming found out that these two were not of his race, that little pity in his heart disappeared. Becoming a prostitute all the way in a foreign country. It's not a pity to kill these shameless women.

"Master Assassin, I will answer whatever I know truthfully. Rest assured, I am not a core member of the Blackhawk Gang. I'll not receive any benefits from deceiving you and I don't have the obligation to keep a secret on behalf of them!" Brother Kao quickly replied to show his determination.

"En, let me ask you, who participated in the abduction of the two girls yesterday?" Yang Ming was quite satisfied with Brother Kao's attitude. If this guy hesitated to reply, Yang Ming wouldn't mind using acupuncture points or other means for him to 'enjoy' before he answered truthfully.

"I led the team, together with them..." Brother Kao pointed at the few people lying on the ground with his remaining hand.

"Oh? Didn't you just gesture at only four people?" Yang Ming frowned and his gaze on Brother Kao turned fierce.

"Master Assassin, I didn't lie to you. Bald head drove at the time, so he didn't get out of the car. It was just the few of us who got off!" Brother Kao was afraid that Yang Ming would not believe it, so he explained quickly.

"Oh, I see. Then you can continue to talk." Yang Ming asked, "Where did you take them both?"

"We brought them here..." Brother Kao said carefully, "We gave them to Lukowski... What happened next was up to him. We're just his thugs and henchmen..."

"Who is Lukowski?" Yang Ming also vaguely guessed it. I'm afraid that this Lukowski is the Caucasian upstairs.

"He is upstairs. He is the deputy leader of the Goldenhawk Gang," Brother Kao said hastily.

"Deputy leader? So to say, Nicholas Shevich is the leader?" Yang Ming nodded and continued to ask.

"Yes, he is the only son of the Blackhawk Gang's chief, and the leader of the Goldenhawk Gang!" Brother Kao dared not conceal and said carefully.

"I see. Have you guys done anything to those two women?" Yang Ming's gaze became fixed as he asked the critical point.

"No, no!" Brother Kao's head shook like a rattle-drum. He repeatedly denied, "How could we dare to do it? The two women, according to our deputy leader, are very useful for a hostage exchange. How could we dare to touch them! "

Yang Ming was instantly relieved after hearing Brother Kao's words. What Yang Ming feared the most was the humiliation that Chen Mengyan might have suffered after she was caught. As for Victoria, Yang Ming didn't care. If anyone dared to do anything impolite to Victoria, they would be killed by that chick even if it was just a touch.

"What else do you know?" Yang Ming asked.

“Master Assassin, I have told you everything that I know. There isn’t anything more. We’re just small fry, not the core people at all. Please don’t make it hard for me...” Brother Kao begged again and again. He dared not have the slightest resistance. There were already four corpses lying on the ground, all of which Yang Ming had killed effortlessly. Brother Kao did not dare to act rashly, even if he had the guts. He didn’t think he was Yang Ming’s opponent.

“Okay, since that’s the case, I shall kill you as well.” Yang Ming saw that there was no value to keeping this Brother Kao alive, so he raised his hand and was ready to kill him.

“Master Assassin! Didn’t you promise not to kill me?” Brother Kao suddenly panicked and exclaimed, “Master Assassin, I told you whatever I know. You can’t renege. You are a generous trustworthy gentleman. How can you lie to a small fry like me? ”

“Lie to you? When did I lie to you?” Yang Ming said disdainfully, “Are you worthy of me lying?”

“Then previously, didn’t you say that as long as I tell the truth, you won’t kill me?” Brother Kao said quickly.

“Did I say that?” Yang Ming sneered and said, “I said, if I’m not satisfied with the answer, you will know the consequences.”

“Isn’t that about the same...” Brother Kao did not expect Yang Ming to play word games with him.

“Almost the same? It’s a big difference.” Yang Ming said lightly, “If your answer makes me dissatisfied, I will slowly torture you until you tell the truth. If what you said makes me satisfied, then I’ll make it quick and painless for you. ”

Brother Kao’s face turned dark and expressed a hopeless look after hearing Yang Ming’s words. But suddenly, his eyes widened and he yelled, “Deputy leader Lukowski, someone is here for you. Run away quickly— ”

Yang Ming slapped his palm quickly on the top of his skull. Brother Kao’s whole body instantly twitched, and then he fell to the ground with blood oozing out of all seven of his orifices.

“It’s a fair death considering you are a traitor to this extent. Before dying, you still gave a warning to your boss. What kind of ordinary henchman would do this?” Yang Ming tossed a sarcastic look at Brother Kao’s corpse and said scornfully.

Yang Ming didn’t care as to whether Lukowski who was upstairs heard Brother Kao’s warning. He was not bothered. If Lukowski heard it, then let it be. Yang Ming was not afraid that Lukowski would run away or make any preparations.

However, what made Yang Ming speechless was that Lukowski was still laughing upstairs with the two beautiful girls. He had turned a deaf ear to what happened downstairs. Yang Ming shook his head. This guy is really going to die for a good reason.

Yang Ming ignored the corpses by his feet and stepped upstairs. The loft’s frame was very high, and the cargo yard was connected to the back of the first floor. So it was normal that Lukowski could not hear the sounds downstairs. But Yang Ming wondered. This Lukowski’s vigilance is too poor.

Nikolas Shevich has been caught by the police. Isn't he afraid that the police will extract clues from Nicholas Shevich and destroy his territory?

Or is he confident that Nicholas Shevich will not divulge anything?

However, this was not Yang Ming's concern. Yang Ming walked up the staircase to the loft and walked to a closed-door without concealing the sound of his footsteps. Yang Ming frowned, reached out his hand and knocked on the door.

Chapter 1430: Questions/ The Art of Disguise

"Since you know, hurry up." However, whether Lukowski was a wimp, it had nothing to do with Yang Ming. It was fine as long as Yang Ming could extract from him the news he wanted as soon as possible.

"No... I mean I know you dare to kill me..." Lukowski said bitterly, "But I really don't know where the two little girls are..."

"..." Yang Ming was speechless for a while. This Lukowski was so straightforward that Yang Ming didn't know whether to cry or to laugh, "Don't you know? That guy called Brother Kao told me that they passed them to you!"

"It is true that they were passed to me, but last night, I gave them to the people of the Blackhawk Gang!" Lukowski was on the verge of tears. "They sent someone to pick them up at the dock here. I really don't know!"

"They have been picked up by the people of the Blackhawk Gang?" Yang Ming was suddenly lost in thought. It seems that this Lukowski has no need to deceive me. Maybe Chen Mengyan is not in China anymore.

"That's right. I just acted according to orders from higher up. Last night, after they were handed to me, they were immediately picked up by a ship belonging to the Blackhawk Gang." Lukowski said carefully, "I have told you everything I know. Can you take me to the hospital for treatment? If my lower body is not treated in time, I am afraid that it will be disabled."

Yang Ming looked at Lukowski, and his expression changed slightly. This guy's thinking is really different from normal people. At this stage, he still thinks that I will send him to the hospital for treatment? Isn't he too optimistic?

"Tell me all the news you know about the Blackhawk Gang; the location of the Blackhawk Gang's headquarters and its scope of influence. Don't leave out anything," Yang Ming asked self-servingly while ignoring Lukowski's request.

"Can you take me to the hospital first? I will tell you these in detail at the hospital!" After knowing that Yang Ming was not a policeman, Lukowski completely gave up on the idea of opposing Yang Ming. Just like he had said, Yang Ming had killed several people, and it was no worse to kill one more. So the only way was to cooperate with Yang Ming.

"Do you think that you are qualified to bargain with me?" Yang Ming sneered and looked at Lukowski with an ambiguous expression, "You haven't figured out the situation yet, have you? I'm not your underling. Why should I send you to the hospital?"

“Okay! Then keep asking!” Lukowski didn’t want to offend this ruthless assassin, Yang Ming. Although the physical pain was a little bit unbearable for him, he was afraid that Yang Ming would kill him if he was not happy. Therefore, it was better to endure the pain first.

“Tell me everything about the Blackhawk Gang,” said Yang Ming.

“The Blackhawk Gang is a gang in Russia close to the China border. It mainly deals with drug trafficking. I used to be a middle-level leader of the gang, so I didn’t know much about the core secrets at that time. It was only later when I was stationed here to assist the young leader, Nicholas Shevich, that I gradually learned something about the gang.” Lukowski said carefully, “However, what I know is just some surface things. After all, I have been here for many years. To what extent has the Blackhawk Gang developed there now? I’m not sure either.”

“Say what you know. Don’t talk nonsense!” Yang Ming glared at Lukowski, and motioned him not to babble uselessly.

“Yes...” Lukowski was startled. He said quickly, “The headquarters of the Blackhawk Gang is located in Meitena Town. When I left, the gang was not large. It could only be considered middle-sized. There were more than a hundred fixed gang followers, and there were only five core members. Yet, there were many external members, but they were not fixed. The gang was just taking in little punks off the streets to put up a strong front. The real drug trafficking matters were not done by these punks. I don’t know if the scale has expanded now because I haven’t gone back for ten years.”

Yang Ming nodded, “Where is the headquarters of your Blackhawk Gang?”

“On the dock of northern Meitena Town. It is a trading company called the North Coast International Trading Company. On the surface, it does some international import and export business, but in fact, it secretly buys and sells banned medicines and drugs.” Lukowski said, “However, our chief, Nicholas Shevich’s father, Victor Rajiv, has another status. He is Meitena Town’s councilor. He usually works in a government office on Klater Main Street.”

“The chief of the Blackhawk Gang is actually Meitena Town’s councilor?” Yang Ming shrugged. Although it was a little strange, it did not show anything. After all, it was not uncommon for the underworld godfathers to have a political identity.

“Yes, he used to be, but I don’t know if he is still a councilor now. After all, it is not my area of concern,” said Lukowski.

“Okay, talk about the person you contacted yesterday. Who took Chen Mengyan away?” Yang Ming had a rough idea of the Blackhawk Gang’s profile. But as Lukowski said, he had not returned for many years. It was not certain if the information he gave was still accurate.

“This I know. The one who contacted me is my old acquaintance. Over the years, he has been responsible for the goods coming from there,” Lukowski said. “I’m also not sure of this person’s real name. Everyone in our gang calls him Old Geese.”

“Old Geese?” Yang Ming repeated the name. Obviously, this Old Geese was a nickname. Although Yang Ming didn’t know much about Russian names, he also knew that they would not name anyone Old Geese.

"Yes, he is a fat man in his forties. One of his eyes suffered an injury in earlier years. It doesn't seem like it could open. There is a long scar on his eyelids," Lukowski described him in detail. "I heard that he was a pirate before this. After being subdued by the chief, he took on the task of transporting goods by sea. He has been dealing with me for the past ten years."

"Are there any pictures of him?" Yang Ming asked.

"This... I don't have it." Lukowski shook his head, "You know, in our business, it's a taboo to leave evidence or anything like that. In case he gets caught or I get caught, it's easy to give clues if we have photos. That's why we all know each other, but we never dig into each other's details. It's just like he only knows my name is Lukowski, but doesn't know my last name."

"You guys are pretty careful," Yang Ming glanced at Lukowski in surprise. It was difficult to associate Lukowski with being cautious considering his previous actions.

"This is the rule set by our chief, and everyone abides by it," Lukowski said embarrassingly.

"Last question, do you have any of Old Geese's contact information? When is the next time he will be here?" Yang Ming asked.

"I don't have his contact information. Normally, I'll contact the Blackhawk Gang, then the Blackhawk Gang will contact Old Geese and ask him to contact me." Lukowski shook his head, "Old Geese only contacted me using a temporary phone number every time. He will change the number again next time. It is a cautious measure to prevent implicating others when one party is in trouble."

"Since you know the contact information of the Blackhawk Gang, aren't they afraid of you leaking it out?" Yang Ming asked strangely.

"They are not afraid of this. After all, the Blackhawk Gang is in Meitena Town. Even if information about the registrant and the registered place of contact can be found, there is nothing that can be done. This is also why the Blackhawk Gang has no fear of dealing with the Song Jiang police," Lukowski explained.

"Okay, I need to check if what you said is true. Sorry to let you go through this." While Yang Ming was talking, he raised his hand and quickly hit several of Lukowski's several points.

"You – What have you done to me? Oh my god, what's wrong with my body? It seems like a bug is biting me – I'm so uncomfortable. Stop it now. What have you done to me?" Lukowski's body suddenly twitched. He couldn't care about the pain in his lower body anymore as he started yelling for help.

"I'll ask you again, is what you said before the truth?" Yang Ming basically believed what Lukowski had said before in his heart. But he was careful in everything to avoid big mistakes. Yang Ming would also be more at ease after the final confirmation.

"Everything I said is the truth. Hero, please lift these restraints off me. I'm suffering badly here..." Lukowski rolled on the bed, "I really didn't lie to you. I... Why don't you just kill me? This is so uncomfortable. I can't stand it..."
