

So Pure 231

Chapter 231: You Reap What You Sow

The sunglasses man, Biaozi, did not expect that Yang Ming's attack would be so aggressive. He disabled Liangzi with just one kick. He was frightened and took two steps back nervously. "Who are you? Let me tell you this. Don't mess with us! If you don't want your whole family to die, it is best to give me a satisfactory explanation!"

"Ha! I think you want to have a taste of being kicked in the head." Yang Ming looked at this man with a dead man's face, yet still acted cool here. Yang Ming could not help but admire his courage.

"I'm telling you. We are all under Brother De. This is not over!" The sunglasses man, Biaozi, looked at Yang Ming and warned.

"Brother De? That stupid Yu Xiangde? Go back and tell him his time will end soon." Yang Ming said faintly.

"What? You dare to insult Brother De..." As he spoke, someone pulled the trousers of the sunglasses man, Biaozi. Biaozi looked down. No one knew when Liangzi's pain had alleviated but he started shaking his head at Biaozi!

Right! Biaozi thought of something suddenly, Many ordinary people knew that Brother De was the underworld boss, but they did not know Brother's real name. Even if they knew, there were few who dared to say his full name. Therefore, this student might be a person in the underworld. If the person in the underworld was not from the north, he must be from the south! According to the tone of his speech, it was possible that he was serving Bao Sanli!

Now that the two groups were fighting non-stop, and Yang Ming was so strong, if he really annoyed him, it was hard to protect himself from getting beaten up. When he thought of that, Biaozi quickly lifted Liangzi and ran. As he was running, he left some words, "You go back and tell Bao Sanli this. Brother De is not finished with him yet! Let's see how long he can be arrogant!"

Yang Ming listened to Biaozi's words and was stunned. But he understood it immediately, he couldn't help but smile. It seemed that these two guys thought they were Bao Sanli's people, and it escalated from the conflict between them into a conflict between gangs.

However, this was good. Let it be a misunderstanding. At least the two of them would not trouble Yang Ming anymore. Because he definitely thought that Yang Ming was provoking them because of the gangs.

"Thank you, Yang Ming." Song Yu was thankful that Yang Ming had beaten the two rogues. However, she was worried. "Yang Ming, should we discuss this with our teacher and ask him to send two security guards over here? I am afraid that they will bring other people to retaliate."

"It's alright. They won't come back." Yang Ming shook his head indifferently, then took a look at Zhou Jijia next to him, and faintly said, "Don't try to bother with other people's business. If not, you will be risking your life."

Zhou Jiajia was happy that Yang Ming was speaking to her. But looking at Yang Ming's expression, he seemed to say that she was being nosy. Zhou Jiajia sighed secretly. Was there an underlying meaning in his words? Was he blaming me for being nosy in the past?

When Zhou Jiajia wanted to explain, Yang Ming had already turned his head and continued to distribute leaflets.

Although Song Yu and Zhou Jiajia were fine, the class 01's class monitor, Yu Shuai, was badly injured by the kick from the sunglasses man! Yu Shuai did not train his body very much, so his ability to take a hit was far weaker. In addition, another kick landed in the middle of his abdomen. It was the position of the bladder. It was a pain in the a, and it would cause the bladder to bleed if it was serious.

Therefore, Yu Shuai hated Yang Ming. Why didn't you help earlier? Were you standing there watching the fun?

If Yang Ming knew about Yu Shuai's thought, Yang Ming might have beaten him on the spot. If you were not eager to be a hero in front of the beauties, would you get kicked? You were not capable of fighting, and yet you still acted like a hero. You're lucky that you're still alive!

As Yang Ming expected, the two men didn't trouble him again. They obviously had targeted Bao Sanli for revenge.

Both gangs were on the edge of starting a war, so it wasn't a big deal to have an additional conflict. Yang Ming did not feel that this would trouble Bao Sanli.

Half a day had passed in the blink of an eye. For lunch, the school ordered everyone a lunch box. Yang Ming also took one. The quality of the food was not bad. There were two vegetables and one meat, and this was considered good since it was free.

It was November, the season from late autumn to early winter. The terrain by the railway station was large and empty, so the wind was very strong. Yang Ming turned his back toward the wind while eating his lunch. He took a look at the others, and they were doing the same.

The workload in the afternoon was obviously a lot less than the morning, and their enthusiasm was not as high as before. Other groups had similar encounters as Yang Ming's group. They had encountered a lot of unreasonable people, but there had been no conflict.

At the time of the gathering, the secretary and the tutors asked each group to report on their work experience. In Yang Ming's group, after Zhou Jiajia and Song Yu reported, Yu Shuai added a sentence because he hated Yang Ming. "Aside from the conflict between Yang Ming and the gangsters, the work is considered perfect!"

What is "Aside from the conflict between Yang Ming and the gangsters?" How can this be a trivial matter? The secretary immediately frowned when he heard it. How can Yu Shuai be a class monitor?

Why don't you say it out in full? Since you're still pretending to be indifferent, did you think I didn't know what you're thinking? Looking at your appearance, I'm sure that you deliberately said this so that I would hold someone accountable, right?

The two previous team leaders did not say this, but you reported it. What do you want? Yes, a class committee should be honest, but you are not being honest. You are being a snitch!

The secretary was not happy with the way that Yu Shuai snitched. Can't you report properly? Then he asked, "What the hell is going on?"

Yu Shuai pretended to be conflicted. He looked at Yang Ming, and then looked at Zhou Jiajia, but he did not speak.

The secretary was even more annoyed by this guy. Yu Shuai, your character seemed to be very problematic! You didn't dare to admit what you said? You pretended to slip it out of your tongue, and now you're trying to be a good guy!

Ok fine. You don't have to say anything. I'll talk to Xie Yongqiang later. This kind of evil-minded person should not be the class monitor, let alone in the student council!

"Let me talk about it." Song Yu knew that the matter was caused by her. Yang Ming was helping her so she told the truth. After she finished telling the story, she apologized, "I am sorry, secretary. I was trying to hide it from you. This is because I was worried that the school would worry about us."

The secretary nodded after listening, but his face did not look good! Yu Shuai, you are really good. You were beaten up, but you did not say anything. People had defeated the punks, and yet you're being a snitch. Aren't you biting the hand that feeds you? Ok, I will remember it!

Yu Shuai listened to Song Yu's explanation, and his face turned red and green. He wanted to snitch on Yang Ming, but he did not expect it to end like this! It seemed that the secretary got angry at him. He made up for himself quickly, "Secretary, I actually meant that the original intention of Yang Ming was good, but the handling was somewhat extreme! He should have gone to the teacher first!"

"Yeah, I don't know why you didn't go to the teacher at the time." Yang Ming listened and faintly inserted.

"The situation was urgent. I was forced to do it." Yu Shuai was shocked. How did he forget about this? Yang Ming had a checkmate.

"Hehe, you said the situation was urgent. If I went to the teacher, I'm afraid that you wouldn't be able to even stand up now." Yang Ming said sullenly, but the people present knew Yang Ming was telling the truth.

"Okay, this is the end of the matter! It was good that none of you were hurt." The secretary said in a proper way, "Well, we will dismiss you for today! For those who want to go back to school, stay and the school bus will be here soon. For those who don't want to, sign here and you may leave."

Yang Ming was preparing to go home. Yang Ming usually went home on Fridays, but he hadn't gone back because of this activity. So he decided to go back today.

Yang Ming stopped a taxi on the road and was about to get in. He saw Zhou Jiajia and Song Yu run over. Yang Ming frowned and asked, "Is there something the matter?"

"Wait a minute! Hehe, Yang Ming, I heard that your home is near the Song Jiang Bus Factory?" asked Zhou Jiajia.

Are you acting dumb? Yang Ming sneered secretly. Both of them were junior high school classmates. His address was clearly written on the original contact record. Why was she asking again? However, because Song Yu was next to her, and she was the assistant class monitor of her class, and because in the future, he would definitely trouble Song Yu because he and Sun Zhiwei were not on the right track, Yang Ming did not expose it and asked, "Yes, what's the matter?"

Chapter 232: Kidnapped

"Song Yu and I intended to go there too. Can we carpool with you since it's on the way?" Zhou Jiajia said with a smile.

"Get in the car." Yang Ming nodded helplessly. Yang Ming couldn't refuse Zhou Jiajia's request.

Yang Ming was seated in the front passenger seat. Zhou Jiajia and Song Yu sat behind. Yang Ming asked the two girls at the back after getting in the car, "Where are you both going?"

"Drop us right at the Red Flag High School. We can go from there," said Zhou Jiajia.

"Okay." Yang Ming nodded and said to the driver, "Sir, first go to Red Flag High School, then go to the Song Jiang Bus Factory Workers Area."

"Okay, no problem." The driver nodded and started the car.

In the car, Zhou Jiajia didn't talk to Yang Ming anymore. She was whispering to Song Yu. Yang Ming didn't take the initiative to chat with them. After arriving at Red Flag High School, the two of them got out from the car.

Yang Ming returned home and his parents were busy cooking. Before returning, Yang Ming had already called and said that he would be back for a meal. Therefore, Yang Dahai went to the supermarket to buy some fresh food in advance and started cooking it with Mother Yang.

Not only was Yang Ming enrolled in the university, he was able to make money on his own. The family had also won a lottery. Therefore, there was a decent amount of savings. Yang Dahai no longer had to be as frugal as he used to be. At least, now the wages from the two of them were sufficient to subsidize their household expenses.

"Dad and mom, why have such a luxurious meal? A simple meal would do! No need to cook extra!" Yang Ming took off his coat, washed his hands and went into the kitchen to help his parents with the cooking.

"Big Ming, you don't have to help. I will settle it with your dad. The meat is just fried. You should eat some first!" Mother Yang handed a pair of clean chopsticks to Yang Ming.

"Mom, I am not hungry. What else is there to be done? I will help out." Yang Ming left the chopsticks on the table and didn't rush to eat.

"Big Ming is right. He is already a grown-up, and he should learn some housework!" Yang Dahai nodded and said, "After Yang Ming marries his wife, we can't always have us to serve them anyway!"

"Why not?" Mother Yang didn't mind. "How many young people would know how to do housework? Chen Mengyan is also the only child in her family. Once she's married to Big Ming, I will go over and serve them!"

“Look at what you said. The young couple is living together. Aren’t you going to be a third wheel by going over?” Yang Dahai said with a smile, “When the children want to eat ready-made food, they will just have to let us know in advance. We will prepare it at our home. They can come back for a meal, and return after eating.”

“That’s right too. Why not have Yang Ming and Chen Mengyan to come home daily just to have a meal after their marriage?” As Mother Yang talked about her son getting married, she felt reluctant and wanted to see her son every day.

Yang Ming listened to his parents and felt that their conversations became more and more outrageous. He quickly coughed and interrupted, “Dad and mom, I am a first-year student. I am still far from marriage. What are you all blindly worrying about?”

“How is that far? Don’t think that I don’t know you, young people, once I am old! Now there are news reports in newspapers and on TV, as well as many colleagues’ children who have gone to university. They all told me that it was common for university couples to rent a home to live together outside!” Mother Yang said, “Big Ming, you can rest assured that your mother is not some closed-minded and stubborn old woman. I won’t interfere in these matters!”

“Mom, the more you speak, the more ridiculous it becomes!” Even though Yang Ming said so, he thought in his heart, Lan Ling and I have lived together long ago. I just haven’t said anything to the family.

“Yes, Big Ming. How’s your progress with Chen Mengyan? When are you bringing her to visit us? Didn’t we agreed to it last time?” asked Mother Yang.

“This... let’s talk about it later.” Yang Ming was a little awkward. His recent relationship with Chen Mengyan was rather tense. Even if he had invited her, she might not agree to it.

“How can it be delayed again? Big Ming, your mom was once young, and I know some of your things too! You all are children in the 90’s. It isn’t rare to have a relationship in university. Many children had begun to fall in love since junior high school!” Mother Yang said, “Sister Wang in our community went to rent a house to stay with her male classmate. The two people’s affairs were 80% set!”

“Well, if I have the opportunity, I will bring her back!” Yang Ming had no choice but to speak to his mom perfunctorily. But he also understood his mother’s mood now! Yes, most of the parents in the country share the same thoughts with them. They will still worry about their children’s future from the time they were born, regardless of their age.

From kindergarten to preschool, they would plan a bright future for them. They would send them to a famous elementary school and a prestigious junior high school so that they get admitted to a good senior high school. Finally, the parents hope that they would go to university! After university, it was about looking for a job and a wife and child!

Yang Ming had now successfully gotten himself enrolled in a top university in his country, and he didn’t have to worry about his future career. Therefore, Mother Yang had her eyes on her son’s lifelong marriage!

Even though Yang Ming could understand his mother, his situation now was a bit special! He would never give up Lan Ling, but Chen Mengyan... after all, was still the first girl whom he really fell in love with after his first love with Su Ya. He didn't want to give up on her either! So, the question was whether Chen Mengyan could accept himself and Lan Ling!

Yang Ming didn't think that the girls, in reality, would be like the girls in the online novels, allowing their boyfriends to have three wives and even helping them to find other girlfriends! Every girl in the present was assertive so it would be difficult for Chen Mengyan to accept himself.

During the conversation, Yang Dahai put the last dish of sweet and sour carp [1] on the table and said, "Okay, it's time for our meal."

Yang Ming took out the rice bowls from the cupboard, scooped three bowls of rice and placed them on the table. Mother Yang had also prepared the tableware. The family of three sat around the big table and enjoyed their meal happily.

However, this warm moment was interrupted by sudden telephone ringing! Mother Yang got up and answered the phone. Yang Ming and Yang Dahai also put down their chopsticks and waited for Mother Yang to come back before continuing to eat.

"What? Yang Li, calm down!" Mother Yang's voice carried over. "Don't worry, your second aunt is listening! Okay, you wait for a minute. I will find your second uncle to answer the phone!" She shouted as she finished saying the sentence, "Dahai, come over and pick up the phone!"

In fact, Yang Dahai and Yang Ming had already stood up and was ready to go even if Mother Yang didn't shout for them. From Mother Yang's abnormal tone, they could both hear that something was wrong on the other end of the phone!

Yang Dahai quickly took the call, "Yang Li, your second uncle is here. Why are you looking for me?"

"Second Uncle, my father was kidnapped!" Yang Li's panicked voice was heard over the phone.

"Big Brother was kidnapped?" Yang Dahai was stunned and asked, "What happened? Who kidnapped him?"

"I don't know. Dad didn't come back last night. My mom and I thought that my father was socializing outside, so we didn't care. However, he didn't contact us up until this evening. When we called his cell phone, it was turned off." Yang Li continued, "Not long after that, our family received a phone call from a stranger, claiming that my father was in his hands! He said that my father was safe now, but he warned us not to call the police. Otherwise, he would kill my father!"

"Then did you call the police?" Yang Dahai asked quickly.

"No, we didn't dare to!" Yang Li said, "My mother was scared to the point that she sat on the bed paralyzed. I have no idea what to do either, so I called you to see what we should do..."

"Yang Li, you wait at home. We will come over right away. We will speak again after we meet!" Yang Dahai said quickly as he knew that communicating over the phone might not be entirely clear.

"Okay, hurry up!" said Yang Li.

Because Yang Li was panicking and the house phone's speaker was louder, Yang Ming could hear everything clearly. He knew that his uncle was kidnapped and sighed slightly. This cousin would only think of calling his home in this kind of situation! But no matter what, they were relatives. Yang Ming couldn't leave them by themselves. Even if he didn't want to care about it, his father wouldn't sit and watch.

So, Yang Ming didn't say anything. He dressed and went downstairs with his parents. They hailed a taxi and went straight to Yang Li's home.

Yang Li opened the door. At this moment, Yang Li didn't have her usual sense of arrogance. She was standing aside with an anxious face. Yang Ming's aunt was sitting on the sofa with a pale face at the moment. When she saw that Yang Ming and the rest came, she could barely show a smile to them, and then it was replaced by a gloomy face.

"Sister-in-law, don't worry. Let's find a solution together!" Mother Yang quickly walked over and sat next to the aunt, comforting her.

"Yang Li, tell me the situation." Yang Ming didn't want his aunt to be sad. Even though Yang Li and his uncle weren't kind to him, his aunt had always been caring for him. When he got enrolled in the university, his aunt secretly stuffed him with a thousand yuan as allowance. So, if he were to ignore everything else, Yang Ming had decided to help in this situation because of his aunt.

Chapter 233: Last Time Was An Accident

Unexpectedly, Yang Li threw a quick glance at Yang Ming and said, "Is there any use speaking to you? You are just a child. Don't stir up trouble!"

Yang Ming was agitated as he pointed at Yang Li and said, "Yang Li, let me tell you, if it weren't due to my respect for auntie, I would be really too lazy to take care of your family!"

Yang Ming wasn't the same as in his past. He not only acquired a special ability but also become the only successor to the King of Assassins. With his current strength, it wasn't difficult for him to aid Yang Li!

"Big Ming, how can you speak like that?" Yang Dahai glanced at his son and quickly comforted Yang Li, "Don't be angry. Your little brother is also worried about him!"

Yang Ming snorted, and he genuinely wanted to leave on the spot! However, he needed to respect his father, so, he sighed with anger and sat to the side.

"Uncle, what should I do now?" Once Yang Li finished scolding Yang Ming, she had no idea what to do next.

"This..." Although Yang Dahai was older, he had never experienced such a thing in his life. He had no idea at all.

Yang Ming was still calm. After all, he was a person who came out of the detention center. Also, his social experience skyrocketed. So, he didn't appear to be anxious, but rather he calmly asked, "Aside from the warning to refrain from calling the police, what other requirements were mentioned on the phone? Like asking for ransom?"

"You-!" Yang Li was obviously dissatisfied with Yang Ming's intervention. But, she found what Yang Ming said reasonable, so she refrained from making the situation difficult. She replied truthfully, "No, they wanted me to wait for their call."

"That's right." Yang Ming said faintly, "Now we should refrain from doing anything and just wait here!"

"Wait! You want to kill my father!" Yang Li was immediately annoyed.

Yang Ming looked at his cousin with disdain. As the saying goes, people who have big bbs have no brains. His cousin's bbs are unmatched with Sun Jie's. But, Sun Jie was a hundred times smarter than her. It seems that there was no scientific basis for the saying, people who have big bbs have no brains.

At that moment, Yang Ming opened his mouth in an attempt to explain, but auntie had already spoken up, "Li Li, Big Ming is right. The only thing we can do now is to wait for them to call us! Now they haven't made any requests so they will not hurt your father. Let's wait for them to call and do what they request from us. We should analyze the situation before coming up with any ideas."

Auntie was a little bit calmer. She was able to analyze the problem in a rational manner as usual. Yang Li listened to her mother's words and felt that it was right. But, she didn't want to agree with Yang Ming's point of view. By doing that, she would admit that she had just made a mistake. So, she left a cold and disdainful sigh.

"Right, what is the phone number of the kidnappers?" asked Yang Ming.

"The messy number seems to come from internet software." Although Yang Li looked down on her cousin, from the current situation, her cousin was the person who could best make the decisions. So, Yang Li didn't dare to make it difficult for him. After all, it was related to the safety of her father and she couldn't afford to have her anger take control.

"Internet phone..." Yang Ming sighed and said, "That is basically untraceable."

"Why? Isn't it possible to find the IP address of the machine that made the call through the network company?" asked Yang Li.

Yang Ming was a little surprised. It seemed that his cousin had some common sense after all! However, college students nowadays only knew the surface of computer knowledge. On the other hand, Yang Ming was studying in the school of computer science. Typically, he was interested in computers. Hence, he had a greater depth of knowledge about it. So, he explained, "Nowadays, many internet phones are free to apply for a trial basis. In addition, they support proxy server settings. If the kidnappers are masters in this area, there is no way to verify it through the proxy server, or even dual agents."

"What should we do now?" Yang Li was overwhelmed.

"Wait." Yang Ming closed his eyes when he finished. Yang Ming was relatively an outsider. If it was his own matter, then he would definitely choose to contact Uncle Chen first, so that he could investigate this matter secretly. But, it was his cousin's, Yang Li's, matter. The kidnappers had already stated that they should not make a police report. If he made a self-proclaimed contact with Uncle Chen, then it would be bad if his uncle couldn't escape. Yang Li would definitely put the blame on him!

Therefore, in order to be safe, Yang Ming decided to listen to the kidnappers' requests before planning what to do next.

Sure enough, after half an hour, the ear-piercing phone rang again.

"What do we do?" Yang Li looked at the caller ID on the phone in horror. "They're calling!"

"Answer it with the speakerphone." Yang Ming instructed.

"What should I say?" Yang Li extended her hand to press the speakerphone button, but she stopped again.

"Just answer what you need to say. They will naturally mention their request." Yang Ming said hurriedly, "Hurry up, or the kidnappers will be suspicious of us!"

"Oh... oh." Yang Li listened to Yang Ming's words and quickly pressed the speaker button, "Hello..."

"Hehe, did you call the police?" The voice of a male duck came out from the phone.

"No... no!" Yang Li replied, "How is my dad? What do you guys want?"

"You can rest assured that as long as you cooperate your father will be safe." The tone of the male duck did not have any varying tones. It sounded like the voice came from a voice changer.

"How do you want me to cooperate?" Yang Li was relieved when she heard that her father was safe for now.

"Prepare three hundred thousand in cash, then wait for my call. Tell me your phone number." The person on the phone didn't express any slight change in emotion.

"What? Three hundred thousand yuan!" Yang Li was shocked. Although her family was rich, it was difficult to take out three hundred thousand yuan at once!

"Why? Too much? Oh, I am sorry..." The male duck laughed in a hoarse voice.

"No... no... my phone number is 13xxxxx3333." Yang Li replied.

"No wonder you are the princess of a rich family. The phone number is good. I will call you in an hour. Now I will give you an hour to collect the money." When the male duck finished speaking, the kidnapper hung up.

"What do we do?" Yang Li looked at everyone as she hung up the phone.

"What can be done? Prepare the money." Yang Ming shook his head, "Or report to the police. You can choose for yourself."

"But, there isn't so much money at home!" Yang Li turned around and look at her mother. "Mom, how much can be taken out at home?"

"Liquid capital is basically in the books of your father's company. At home, there is only one million in a passbook account, but it is under your father's name, so we are unable to get it!" Auntie said with great concern.

"Uncle, in your home..." Yang Li suddenly turned to ask Yang Dahai.

But before she could finish her sentence, she was interrupted by Yang Ming. If his father lent money to her, and the uncle was released from the kidnappers, it would be fine. If something bad happened, will she return the money to his own family? For Yang Li's character, Yang Ming had to think carefully, "Aren't you in good terms with Sun Jie? Her family background should be great. You should approach her to borrow some money."

"Ya, how could I forget about her? She must have a solution!" Yang Li's eyes flashed as she quickly took out her phone and gave Sun Jie a call, "Hey... Sun Jie, I am Yang Li.... I have something going on at home. My father was kidnapped... Well, that's fine. I will be waiting for you..."

After speaking on the phone, Yang Li was relieved. It seemed Sun Jie was definitely a person with her own way. That being the case, Yang Ming didn't care much about it. It was best to have someone else intervene. It would save his time to face Yang Li's attitude since it was an arduous task with no gratitude.

Ten minutes later, the doorbell rang. It seemed that Sun Jie's new Audi R8 wasn't bad. It was fast.

After Sun Jie entered the house, he saw Yang Ming here. She was apparently distracted. But, remembering the relationship between Yang Ming and Yang Li, she regained her composure. However, Yang Ming was a bit embarrassed. After all, she had given him something in the bathroom.

"Hi." For his own woman, Yang Ming certainly wanted to greet her.

Sun Jie did not speak but nodded to Yang Ming. The strange feeling made Yang Ming feel a bit uncomfortable! Damn, at least we spent our intimate moments together in one night. You were drugged with an aphrodisiac last time. When you finished using me, have you forgotten about me?

After all, it was still Yang Ming's male ego. Didn't you think our relationship was rather intimate? How could you turn a blind eye to it? Thinking of this, Yang Ming deliberately sat next to Sun Jie. He put his gaze ambiguously at Sun Jie's neckline.

But at that moment, everyone was worried about Yang Dashan's matter. No one seemed to notice Yang Ming's petty action. However, the person involved, Sun Jie, felt Yang Ming's strange gaze. She rebuked Yang Ming's gaze as she whispered, "I said last time was an accident. I hope you conduct yourself with dignity."

Chapter 234: Sun Jie's Bitter Past

Ha! Yang Ming was happy to see Sun Jie's expression! It seems that this woman did not forget me even though she acted differently on the surface! The more aloof Sun Jie was treating him, the more certain Yang Ming had occupied her heart. Otherwise, why she didn't behave enthusiastically like the first time they met, and instead she deliberately ignored me? Should acquaintances meet with this kind of attitude?

Yang Ming remembered that although Sun Jie wasn't flustered by her several pursuers such as Guo Jianchao, she would at least be polite to them! Yang Ming smiled and whispered when he thought of this, "Who can guarantee that the accident would not happen again?"

"I'm afraid there is no chance." Sun Jie had adjusted her emotions. Her face became indifferent.

However, the change wasn't helpful anymore. Yang Ming had remembered her angry yet coquettish expression. Yang Ming said indifferently, "If there is no chance, I can create it! Right, your videos on the mp4 are good."

"When are you returning that to me?" Sun Jie wasn't afraid that Yang Ming had seen the things on it, nor was she reluctant to give up that mp4. The tone of Yang Ming's speech just made her somewhat uncomfortable.

Sun Jie usually dealt with men from an advantageous point of view. Those who pursued her were all fooled around by her. Sometimes, there were even some unconventional suitors who had unique ways to pursue her. They deliberately pretended to ignore Sun Jie or played tit for tat so that they could attract Sun Jie's attention. Unfortunately, Sun Jie simply ignored them.

But the person in front of her was Yang Ming. Sun Jie tried hard to forget that matter, but how could it be forgotten so easily? Sun Jie's brain wasn't a computer hard drive which could delete memories deliberately!

No matter what, they had sex. Sun Jie couldn't accept the fact that Yang Ming was thinking the same as other men.

Sun Jie couldn't have any deeper relationship with Yang Ming based on his identity. Sun Jie had been hurt once. She had changed from a girl who was obsessed with love to a reasonable businesswoman, the heir to the Sun family!

She could still remember how silly and ridiculous she was. She almost went against her family just for her love that seemed to last forever.

The old-fashioned plot that would only happen on the TV, happened on Sun Jie!

When Sun Jie first attended university, she had just broken free from her family's supervision. Like many girls who just went to college, she was full of hope for love in university.

Soon after, a man appeared who Sun Jie thought was the destined one for her. This man was Feng Chong. Feng Chong's appearance wasn't outstanding, but his grades were outstanding, and he had excellent leadership skills in university. He was elected as the vice chairman of the student council when he was just a freshman!

It wasn't easy for a freshman student to take this position! Therefore, Feng Chong easily became the Prince Charming for many girls. Sun Jie was also one of them.

However, Sun Jie stood out among many other pursuers because she had outstanding looks and talents, and an extraordinary family history. They soon became a pair.

Although Feng Chong really wanted to further develop his relationship with Sun Jie, her family was strict with her. She never had the chance to build a deeper relationship with Feng Chong. However, her family found out about it. Sun Jie's father, Sun Hongjun, was mad after he learned about the fact. He summoned Sun Jie home and reprimanded her, and instructed her to immediately break up with Feng Chong.

Sun Hongjun was an influential person in Donghai City. Sun Jie was his only daughter, so he valued intensely his daughter's marriage. He wanted to find someone who would be suited for Sun Jie.

Sun Jie might have gone mad due to her love. She quarreled with her family and left the house without saying anything. She moved to the dormitory of the university and stopped going home.

Perhaps due to the pressure in the family, Sun Jie made a crucial decision. She decided to give her body to Feng Chong. On one hand, she could show her own righteousness. On the other hand, she also created the impression that what was done cannot be undone.

However, Sun Jie also thought that her move might ruin her relationship with her father. She might need to spend her life with Feng Chong. Therefore, Sun Jie decided to give him a test before she completely handed herself over to Feng Chong, so that she could feel at ease.

Although Feng Chong had vowed that he liked Sun Jie and not her family, Sun Jie still retained her rationality and wisdom. After all, it was a time where bridges would be burnt. She couldn't afford to be careless.

So, Sun Jie asked Feng Chong out and told him that she agreed to go to the hotel with him.

Feng Chong was delighted, and he rushed to a luxury hotel with Sun Jie. When they arrived at the room, Feng Chong was going to take a shower. But Sun Jie stopped him and said that there was something to tell him.

At that time, Feng Chong didn't care. He thought Sun Jie would ask him if she would love her life for a lifetime. But he didn't expect that Sun Jie wasn't asking that!

"Feng Chong, something happened with my family." Sun Jie hesitated and said. She didn't say that she was going against her family.

"What happened? What happened? You can rest assured that I will stand by your side!" Feng Chong thought that Sun Jie was saying that something had happened to her grandparents, so he agreed.

Sun Jie was touched, so she continued, "My father's company went bankrupt, and now the family owes tens of millions in debt..."

"What are you talking about? Your father's company is bankrupt?" Feng Chong said, "The company still owes tens of millions in debt? Are you kidding?"

"No, Feng Chong." Sun Jie shook her head and said, "I didn't lie to you. The debt collector had come to the door. I really don't know what to do! I will be paying the debt for the rest of my life..."

"You didn't lie to me?" Feng Chong's voice was a little flustered.

After listening to Feng Chong's words and the tone of his speech, Sun Jie suddenly had a bad feeling, but she still shook her head.

"F*ck!" Feng Chong jumped up from the bed and "whoosh", he jumped three meters away from Sun Jie. "Are you trying to kill me? Are you trying to drag me down with you after having sex? Let me pay for your debts for my whole life?"

"You shouldn't be responsible for paying off debts..." Sun Jie was a little scared and explained a little, "The company's bankruptcy shouldn't be held accountable by family..."

"Screw it, Sun Jie. I think we should break up!" Feng Chong waved his hand impatiently.

"Feng Chong, what do you mean by this? Didn't you say that you love me because of me and not my family?" Sun Jie was confused.

"Haha, I was just simply saying it! Who wouldn't care about the money?" Feng Chong laughed, "I can't deny that Sun Jie. You are really the best woman that I ever had. Moreover, what interests me the most is that you have a good family background! So I chose to be with you! Otherwise, why did you think I chose you? There were many women chasing after me, so what was useful by being beautiful? What I want is a rich family that would save my efforts for twenty years!"

"You..." Sun Jie felt like she didn't know Feng Chong anymore. She looked angrily at this familiar man, but he was acting like a stranger.

"Ha, fortunately, you are still a virgin. And nothing happened between us, or else I will be in trouble!" Feng Chong said proudly, "Well, Sun Jie, you could still find a rich family son to pay your debt with your appearance. I have nothing to do with you anyway. Maybe he will treat you better because you're still a virgin!"

"Feng Chong!" Sun Jie was so angry that she didn't expect Feng Chong to be such a man! She was blind to choose him! Fortunately, the quarrel against her family made her recognize Feng Chong's true nature!

"Alright, Sun Jie, stop pretending, I didn't really do anything to you! To tell you the truth, my family is poor, and I wanted to find a rich wife to bring me a fortune in the future! Goodbye!" Feng Chong waved his hand to Sun Jie and walked out the door of the room. He whispered as he walked out, "Damn it, it cost me three hundred yuan for the room!"

Sun Jie almost fainted after listening to it! Was he human? However, Sun Jie was born into a rich family. Her personality wasn't strong. After crying in the hotel for a night, she decided to start a new life and no longer believed in men.

She cried, not because of Feng Chong, but because she was too stupid. She actually believed Feng Chong's sweet words and believed in such an animal!

Chapter 235: A Calm Analysis

Rumors had it that Feng Chong regretted it after he returned to school! I had been involved with Sun Jie for such a long time, but I haven't held her hand yet. It seemed that it was quite a failure.

Just now he was lightheaded for a moment when he was shocked by Sun Jie's words. It scared him enough to flee. In retrospect, since Sun Jie's family had lost their power, why am I still afraid of her? Initially, if something happened to Sun Jie, the Sun family wouldn't let him go. Now, they were bankrupt. What am I afraid of? I really should have tasted Sun Jie's first time!

Feng Chong patted his head in sorrow... Hey, wait a minute! I noticed that Sun Jie was wearing famous brands today. The LV bag in her hand seemed to be bought recently, yet her family was going bankrupt soon? Did that make any sense?

With that thought in mind, Feng Chong quickly called one of his high school classmates. He was enrolled in a university in Donghai City! He should know the situation in Donghai!

So, Feng Chong gave his classmate a call, "Hey, third brother? I am Feng Chong!"

"Oh, second brother, are you calling me for something?" The person at the other end of the line replied.

"Damn, I have said this a hundred times. Don't call me second brother!" Feng Chong protested in dissatisfaction, "Oh, is there a Sun Family Consortium in Donghai?"

"Sun Family Consortium? I don't know. Is it big?" asked the third brother.

"You don't know? Oh ya!" Feng Chong suddenly remembered that the Sun Family Consortium was just a parent company. There was no affiliate business. It was only responsible for the vertical management of its subsidiaries. Thus, it was normal that not many people knew about it, so he quickly asked, "Have you heard of the Global Department Store? I heard that it was closed down."

"Closed down? Damn!" The third brother smiled, "Who did you listen to? How can the Global Department Store with such a big scale be closed down? It was on the TV a few days ago where the Global Department Store bought the commercial building next door which was approaching bankruptcy. Even the city's mayor was at the opening ceremony! Who have you heard this from?"

Dizziness surged into Feng Chong's mind. He almost threw away the phone! Feng Chong just said, "I see." and hung up the phone.

The third brother was somewhat baffled. He spoke to himself at the other end of the phone, "This second brother, what's he doing calling me to ask this question at this hour? What a neurotic person!"

After calming down, Feng Chong realized the key details! Perhaps, Sun Jie was testing him! Damn, how could I do something so rash? Such a simple thing wasn't challenging to figure out! Feng Chong chided himself for being too eager for benefits!

After getting straight on his thoughts, Feng Chong immediately prepared himself to make up for it. He quickly called Sun Jie, but she had already turned off the phone. When he rushed to the hotel, the waiter told him that Sun Jie had left and checked out the room.

Feng Chong regretted it. He must have been kicking himself. However, no matter how anxious he was, he would need to meet Sun Jie first.

After returning home, Sun Jie managed to calm herself down. She recalled the moments she spent with Feng Chong, and she realized Feng Chong was a stranger to her. In fact, she didn't like him much. It might have been the unusual flow of events that made her notice Feng Chong. At that moment, Sun Jie found out that she wasn't feeling lost. On the contrary, she rejoiced for seeing through Feng Chong's ugly face.

Afterward, no matter how Feng Chong explained, Sun Jie merely sneered. Sun Jie looked at the jumping clown in front of her, and she only felt a sense of disgust. Even more so, she regarded all men as hypocritical animals ever since.

Of course, Sun Jie, who inherited some of the Sun family business made Feng Chong's life worse. After graduation, he was excluded from major companies in Song Jiang and Donghai. So, he had to go far away from town.

From then onwards, Sun Jie, who lost interest in men, met a woman who had a similar experience with her. The similar encounter led to a special resonance, so both of them naturally became intimate...

Sun Jie did not expect that she would actually have a relationship with a man who was younger than her! Sun Jie had a special feeling for Yang Ming. Right now, she merely regarded Yang Ming as a special person, at least stronger than other men.

"Sun Jie, what are you thinking? What are you whispering to Yang Ming?" Yang Li naturally saw the petty actions of Sun Jie and Yang Ming.

When Yang Li asked this question, Mother Yang also noticed the relationship between Yang Ming and Sun Jie, so she asked curiously, "Big Ming, do you know her?"

"Yeah, it was last time when I came over to cousin's house and asked about things that college students should pay attention to. My cousin took me out to eat, then I met Sister Sun Jie. My cousin also let me pretend to be Sun Jie's boyfriend!"

When Yang Ming's words came out, not only Sun Jie, but also Yang Li was stunned! Yang Ming's parents and aunt were even more surprised!

Yang Li didn't think that Yang Ming would actually say it out loud, and he said it in such a grandiose manner! Yang Li was mad because Yang Ming's words obviously put her as a person who misguided Yang Ming down a wrong path!

Sun Jie blushed as she listened to Yang Min's words! I was just asking you to put up an act, and yet you indulged yourself too much in your act! However, Sun Jie had great responsiveness. She smiled and said, "Oh, Yang Li's younger brother is quite useful. Maybe I will get him to help again if I'm ever in trouble. Can uncle and auntie grant my request?"

"Oh... it's alright, not a big deal." Mother Yang noticed that Sun Jie was such a beautiful girl with such a good status. Naturally, she didn't mind Yang Ming to establish this friendship.

"It wasn't easy. I had used a lot of physical effort!" Yang Ming said plainly.

After Sun Jie listened, her face suddenly turned red. She glared at Yang Ming in anger.

However, Yang Li didn't quite understand it. So, she said impatiently, "How can you be exhausted for such a simple task?"

Yang Ming didn't say anything, but looked at Sun Jie and found that she was staring at him as well. Sometimes, the tacit understanding between two people had a subtle feeling behind it.

“Oh ya, Sun Jie, can you lend me three hundred thousand yuan?” Yang Li suddenly remembered there was something serious, and couldn’t help but have a dull expression.

“Yang Li, it’s not as simple as preparing three hundred thousand yuan. I certainly have no problem lending you money, but the question is after you give the money, can Uncle Yang come back safely?” Sun Jie asked calmly.

“This...” To be honest, Yang Li was also worried about it, but she didn’t have any solutions!

“The kidnappers didn’t allow you to call the police?” Sun Jie glanced at Yang Li.

“Ya, what should we do, Sister Sun Jie?” Yang Li asked in a sobbing tone.

Yang Ming shook his head. Both Sun Jie and Yang Li were rich girls, but the gap was so big. Sun Jie’s wisdom in an emergency was in complete contrast with Yang Li who was in a panic. Sun Jie’s words were accurate toward the situation, whereas Yang Li just wanted to seek the opinions of others and lacked her own opinion.

“Since the kidnappers urged us not to call the police, we should use our own men.” Sun Jie hesitated and said, “Yang Li, I’ll try to help you, but if I can’t do it, you shouldn’t blame me.”

“Alright, Sun Jie, I’ll listen to you.” Yang Li nodded.

Yang Ming was irritated. If you are so obedient in listening to Sun Jie’s words, why did you ask me to come? But, that was good as well, Yang Ming got to slack off.

Sun Jie took out her phone and dialed a number. “Uncle Zhao, I am Sun Jie. Can you help me prepare 300,000 yuan in cash? Then, get me a few people who are capable and wait for my orders.”

As she hung up the phone, Yang Li had some doubts, “Why didn’t you let those people come directly to my house?”

“At this time, it is better to hide. If the kidnappers didn’t let you call the police, it is likely that they will send someone to monitor the situation at your home. If you let them know that you called a helper, I am afraid bad things will happen.” Sun Jie analyzed the situation.

After Yang Ming heard this, he couldn’t help but admire Sun Jie. It seemed that she was more thoughtful than him. However, since he was inspired by Sun Jie, Yang Ming immediately used his special abilities to scan through some corners of the villa. Sure enough, at the back of the garbage transfer station in the northwest corner, there was a suspicious man with binoculars and a cricket cap.

Yang Ming took a detailed look at his surroundings and determined that only one person was watching them. He was relieved. It seemed that the group of kidnappers weren’t big-time characters.

Such an inference came from this fellow’s appearance with an earplug on his head. At first, Yang Ming thought it was an intercom device that they used to communicate with each other. As Yang Ming glanced over the terminal of the headphone cord, he couldn’t help but find it amusing. That was actually an mp3 player, and the screen showed that it was playing an old song by Teresa Teng! [1]

Obviously, this person in charge of surveillance was an amateur. In such a situation, did he dare to listen to a song? Was he not afraid of being killed? Yang Ming believed that even if he called the police, the fellow wouldn't find out. Because he would already be under arrest before he realized the situation!

Chapter 236: To Be Your Man

Yang Ming hesitated for a moment and decided to tell Sun Jie about this matter. If he handled it properly, it would probably become a breakthrough to find the other kidnappers.

"Sun Jie, come with me for a bit." Yang Ming stood up and said to Sun Jie. The reason that Yang Ming wanted to tell her alone was that he was afraid Yang Li would expose his plan when the kidnappers called.

Sun Jie was feeling awkward. She didn't understand Yang Ming's intention. Thinking of the relationship between them, Sun Jie unconsciously recalled the event that day. Her good impression of Yang Ming was instantly shattered. She felt that Yang Ming didn't know how to sense the current situation. What kind of situation are we in? Why are you always thinking about sex and relationships?

But she remembered that Yang Ming had just said in front of everyone that he had pretended to be his boyfriend. Sun Jie was afraid that Yang Ming might say something if she didn't follow him. So, she frowned as she reluctantly followed Yang Ming.

Sun Jie didn't know where Yang Ming was going, so she had to follow him. But... Sun Jie saw that Yang Ming had pushed open the bathroom door!

Sun Jie's heart suddenly trembled! What the hell is this guy doing? Is he seeking that again?

"What are you looking at? Hurry up and come in!" He said while he pulled her into the bathroom.

"Ah!" Sun Jie was surprised. She didn't expect that Yang Ming was so daring to her. She couldn't help but say with disgust, "What kind of situation are we in, and you still have your mind on this thing?"

"Heh?" Yang Ming was stunned. He looked at Sun Jie dumbfounded, "What are you saying?"

"What do you mean? Aren't you trying to do that with me..." Sun Jie blushed and frowned.

"Oh my gosh!" Yang Ming broke into a cold sweat. He suddenly remembered the incident in the bathroom. It seemed that Sun Jie misunderstood, so he smiled cunningly, "What dirty things are in your mind? I asked you to come here to tell you something important!"

"Ah?" Sun Jie was stunned, and then she quickly recovered her calmness to ask, "What is it? Why did you have to choose the bathroom?"

"Since you are so smart, can't you figure it out?" Yang Ming asked deliberately.

Sun Jie took a glance at Yang Ming before observing the structure of the bathroom. Then she said, "What do you mean? Is it someone monitoring the movement in the villa?"

"Yes, you are right. Someone is observing this place with binoculars. I am not sure whether they could see us clearly." Yang Ming continued, "There is no window here so we can avoid his surveillance."

"How do you know?" asked Sun Jie.

"At the back of the garbage transfer station in the northwest corner, there is a man wearing a cricket cap. He is one of the kidnappers. I have already observed it. There is only one spot to ambush in the vicinity." Yang Ming said faintly.

"How are you so sure about this?" Sun Jie looked at Yang Ming with some suspicion.

"Do you want to say, am I one of the gangsters?" Yang Ming naturally understood what she meant and said as if he was smiling...

"I didn't say it. You said it yourself." Sun Jie looked directly at Yang Ming.

"But you said it and that makes me sad! People say that once a couple, forever a couple, but you don't even have a minimum amount of trust in me." Yang Ming shook his head and said sadly.

"I want to believe in you, but things are too strange. How did you find out?" Although Sun Jie said this with ease, her body was secretly alert.

Yang Ming was also considered to be experienced in this. He definitely noticed Sun Jie's subtle movement. He smiled slightly, "Why? Do you want to hit me?"

"Yeah, I have learned some grappling techniques. You may not be my opponent." Sun Jie did not expect Yang Ming to actually discover her intentions, but her reaction was quick. She deliberately diverted his attention by saying a joke.

"You can try." Yang Ming was not looking down on her, but there were only a few people that could be faster than Yang Ming!

"There is no time to chat with you. What's your business?" Sun Jie looked at Yang Ming and put down her guard. She knew that since Yang Ming noticed her intentions, he wasn't afraid of it, or probably he really had nothing to do with it.

"When I came here, I observed the surroundings while I was in the taxi. There is only one place to hide a person. So, I paid special attention to it, and I found a cricket cap man looking at the direction of the villa using binoculars."

"Are you sure it was only one person?" Sun Jie looked at Yang Ming with some surprise. The calmness and wisdom that Yang Ming had revealed were rare for a college student. Sun Jie couldn't help but be curious about Yang Ming.

"I'm sure." Yang Ming nodded.

"So you mean?" Sun Jie seemed to guess Yang Ming's intentions.

"Yes, ask your men to catch him, then we will know about the rest of them," said Yang Ming.

"Are you sure?" Sun Jie looked at Yang Ming.

"If your men aren't idiots..." Yang Ming was helpless. If they couldn't even catch a person, then they should kill themselves.

Sun Jie nodded and began to arrange everything on her phone. After she finished with it, Yang Ming said, "Don't tell Yang Li about it. She is too emotional. I am afraid she will expose it when the kidnappers call."

Sun Jie nodded and sighed, "I didn't know you were better than me in planning."

"What do you mean by this? I am your man. Of course, I should consider things that were outside your grasp!" Yang Ming proclaimed proudly.

"You can die now." Sun Jie didn't bother about Yang Ming. She opened the door of the bathroom and went out.

Yang Ming didn't think about having something in the bathroom with Sun Jie. He was just making a joke.

The kidnappers probably didn't expect Yang Li to get such a large amount of money immediately. So, they didn't call for a long time.

Yang Li didn't know why Yang Ming and Sun Jie sneaked into the bathroom. When they came out, she glanced at Yang Ming and asked Sun Jie doubtfully, "You and him... you guys?"

"It was about your decision last time. It brought some trouble to Yang Ming. Guo Jianchao had given him some trouble later on." Sun Jie's reaction was fairly quick. She simply gave a reason.

"Ah? Well." Yang Li immediately lost her interest after listening to it. After all, there was nothing more important than the kidnapping incident at this moment.

Yang Ming's found it amusing. Guo Jianchao did look for him after that, but he asked if Bao Sanli was going to kill him. Maybe he got to know what kind of person Bao Sanli was. He might be still afraid of him now.

However, although Yang Li didn't care about Yang Ming, his parents were concerned. "Yang Ming, who is Guo Jianchao? What happened?"

"Nothing much. He is one of Sun Jie's pursuers." Yang Ming said in an understatement.

"Did he trouble you?" Mother Yang was not at ease.

"No, Mom, it's not that complicated. I just advised him to give up on pursuing Sun Jie, and he agreed!" Yang Ming laughed.

"Oh, that's fine. As long as you don't have a conflict with others!" Mother Yang said.

However, Yang Ming's words surprised Sun Jie! Is it really true? Guo Jianchao really went to see Yang Ming? Guo Jianchao seems to have given up on his own pursuit lately! Did he listen to Yang Ming's advice?

Sun Jie was feeling strange. Guo Jianchao was indomitable. She had rejected him numerous times. It didn't work. Why would he listen to Yang Ming's words? Is this guy... Sun Jie suddenly remembered the stack of photos and CDs about Yang Ming! Could it be that he used violent coercion on Guo Jianchao?

With these thoughts in mind, Sun Jie couldn't help but laugh a little! Yang Ming is really out of the ordinary!

In fact, Sun Jie actually guessed it correctly. Yang Ming did indeed exert violence on Guo Jianchao, and this violence wasn't merely the typical evil!

Yang Ming blinked at her when he noticed Sun Jie was looking at him with doubt, meaning that, I solved a big problem for you!

Sun Jie was acting dumb. She blinked with doubt, and she made Yang Ming confused. When the cricket cap man was about to do something, Yang Ming raised his head and noticed three people in black slowly approaching the cricket cap man who was surveilling the villa!

The three of them were obviously formally trained. Although they were not as agile as Yang Ming, they could capture the kidnapper in one move. The cricket cap man was undoubtedly taken captive. After he was detained, one of the men in black searched his body. Then, he took out a leather rope to tie the cricket cap man's hands and feet. Later on, he quickly carried the man into a blue Buick minivan.

At this moment, Sun Jie's cell phone vibrated as it received a text message.

Chapter 237: Yang Ming's Method

Yang Ming naturally knew the content of Sun Jie's text message even if he didn't use his telescopic vision. It was because he saw that Sun Jie's people had already succeeded.

Sun Jie raised her head and looked at Yang Ming. She found that Yang Ming was also looking at her, so she nodded slightly to him and hinted at the door.

Yang Ming nodded as he understood.

"Yang Li, the person who they sent for the money came. I will be going." Sun Jie said and stood up.

"I will follow and go out to see. It should be a big pack with so much money!" Yang Ming pretended to help out and stood up.

"I will help you to take a look?" Yang Dahai saw Yang Ming get up and wanted to help too.

Yang Ming couldn't let him go, so he quickly said, "Dad, you should stay here in case the kidnappers call again. We need someone to oversee the situation."

"That's right, then you should be careful!" Yang Dahai nodded.

"Right, what do I say when the kidnappers call?" Yang Li didn't doubt anything else. She was just worried about the kidnappers.

"Just say that the money is ready. Ask him where to meet!" Sun Jie said.

"Oh, okay!" Yang Li nodded.

Yang Ming followed Sun Jie and walked quickly toward the door. As he walked, Sun Jie whispered, "We got it."

"I know." Yang Ming nodded.

"How did you know?" asked Sun Jie.

"I noticed you smiled when you received the text message." Yang Ming naturally couldn't say that he saw what happened.

As they left, Sun Jie looked around and finally locked her eyes on a blue Buick minivan with a Donghai license plate, "That's the car of my people."

Yang Ming knew it a long time ago, but he couldn't reveal it. He went along with Sun Jie to the minivan. For safety, Yang Ming scanned his surroundings and deliberately expanded the scope of his vision.

It seemed that this group of kidnappers wasn't professional. Only the person who was caught was responsible for surveillance.

In the minivan, Yang Ming noticed that the rear seat of the car had been removed. Since the high-reflective film was attached to the outside, the situation on the inside couldn't be seen.

The cricket cap man had his hands and feet tied. A big bearded man in a black suit sat beside the door and nodded to Sun Jie. "Miss."

"Have you asked anything from him?" asked Sun Jie.

"We didn't ask without your orders." The big bearded man shook his head.

"Who ordered you to come?" Yang Ming got into the car and sat down in the back seat as he looked at the cricket cap man.

"Hmph!" The cricket cap man snorted coldly. "You have to let me go. If Brother Bear can't contact me, they will kill the hostage!"

"Who is Brother Bear?" Yang Ming secretly swore dumb*ss. This person was revealing the information! What a problematic IQ level!

"How did you know about Brother Bear?" The cricket cap man was shocked and surprised as opened his mouth widely!

Yang Ming didn't know whether to laugh or cry after listening to it. He was completely defeated by this guy! I really don't know what the kidnapper's leader, Brother Bear, was thinking to send such a dumb*ss as surveillance.

Even Sun Jie and the big bearded man couldn't help but laugh.

"You told me." Yang Ming shook his head and said.

"I? When?" The cricket cap man obviously didn't realize that he had a slip of the tongue.

"Why did you want to kidnap Yang Dashan?" Yang Ming didn't continue to entangle this problem with him.

"Do you think I will tell you?" The cricket cap man asked.

Yang Ming found it amusing! Listening to this guy's words, it was obvious what he said was, "Do you think I will tell you?" instead of "I don't know." The difference could be big! The first one is that I know, but I won't say it. The second one is I may know, but it is also possible that I don't know.

Since he knew about it, then it would be easy to handle. Yang Ming turned his head to Sun Jie, "Let him talk. I think your men should have a way to go about it?"

Sun Jie nodded. Some of her men were retired from special forces or mercenaries. They had a good set of interrogation techniques. Sun Jie instructed, "Make him talk."

"No problem." The big bearded man nodded.

Yang Ming didn't want Sun Jie to witness the bloody picture. So, he said, "Let's go down and wait for a while."

"Why? Are you afraid to witness the bloody scene?" When he got out of the car, Sun Jie teased Yang Ming.

Yang Ming didn't speak, but he took out a cigarette from his pocket. He opened the front door of the car and took out the cigarette lighter. He lit the cigarette and turned deaf ears to the moaning in the car.

After taking a deep breath, Yang Ming exhaled a puff of smoke and smiled at Sun Jie, "Did you think I would be afraid?"

Sun Jie had seen Yang Ming's video beating up Liu Xiaosheng, the driver of President Yun. She knew that Yang Ming was a violent person. Certainly, he wasn't afraid of blood. The reason why she said that was it was meant to be a joke.

Yang Ming leaned toward the car like a ruffian. Since it was a dead corner, he wasn't afraid of his parents seeing it. As for Sun Jie, he didn't have to deliberately act in front of her.

Ten minutes later, the big bearded man opened the door.

"How is it?" Sun Jie asked quickly.

"This kid is sturdy. No matter how much I beat him up, he wouldn't say anything." The big bearded man sighed and shook his head.

Yang Ming had already expected this result. Although the cricket cap man was stupid, the person had an iron will. He was a straight-minded person. It wasn't so easy for him to yield.

Moreover, Brother Bear should be a ruthless character as well. If the cricket cap man revealed anything, it would bear a rotten result for him.

"I will go and take a look." Yang Ming shook his head and got in the car.

But the big bearded man apparently showed a disdainful look. He was retired from the Vietnamese mercenaries, and he had no way for the guy to speak up! He didn't believe that Yang Ming had any way to do it.

The big bearded man had used all his interrogation techniques he learned on the battlefield. Regardless if it was the Goddess Chang E's flight to the moon, helicopters, and even his own unique skill, "a whistle trip to the moon" [1], this fellow endured through it as though daring to challenge them to kill him.

However, he also knew that now he was carrying out his task for the Sun family. In addition, Yang Ming was a friend of the eldest daughter of the Sun family. They could only remain as thoughts that cannot be said.

Yang Ming couldn't see the sense of doubt on his face, but he didn't care. He went into the vehicle and saw the cricket cap man on the floor with blood on his face.

"I won't say it!" The cricket cap man noticed the interrogator had changed, and immediately glared at Yang Ming.

Oh, do you think you have a say on such matters? Yang Ming glanced at the cricket cap man.

As an assassin, it was necessary to learn some special means of interrogation. In many cases, you must get something out of the target before killing them. Therefore, Fang Tian also taught Yang Ming many interrogation techniques.

These techniques were different from the common techniques of the special forces. The techniques used by the big bearded man was purely through physical violence meant to destroy other people's bodies. On the other hand, what Yang Ming learned was the stimulation of certain acupuncture points which escalated the level of the victim's fate to be worse than death.

Yang Ming walked over and simply pressed an acupuncture point on the cricket cap man. Suddenly, the unbearable feeling of numbness spread throughout the man's body as though thousands of ants crawled up and down on his body. As a result, that cricket cap man had an unbearable urge to roll back and forth!

However, his hands and legs were tied behind him. He was also fixed on the back door of the car. As such, he couldn't move. But, the agonizing screams made Yang Ming feel a chill running down his spine! This was the first time that Yang Ming used the techniques he learned from Fang Tian on real people. But, Yang Ming had no doubt about the credibility of these moves.

These were Fang Tian's unique techniques. Although there weren't many people who knew about them, they had passed the test by the King of Assassins!

"You... kill... me... I... won't... say... anything..." The cricket cap man had already reached an unbearable state, but his will remained strong.

Even the big bearded man who looked at it couldn't help but be shocked! Yang Ming didn't do much, and yet this cricket cap man was actually more miserable than the interrogation from "a whistle trip to the moon"! Looking at the situation, Yang Ming's techniques were much more powerful than his!

It was also at this moment that the big bearded man really admired Yang Ming! He was an expert! With a gentle and small movement, this person already couldn't stand it!

However, Sun Jie was surprised. How could she comprehend that Yang Ming actually had such depth? However, the current situation was not suitable for an inquiry.

The face of the cricket cap man was getting paler and paler. Yang Ming also knew that although it wasn't fatal to put pressure on that acupuncture point, if it went too long, there would be a danger to his life.

This guy's mouth was just a bit too sturdy. Why didn't he say anything?

Suddenly, Yang Ming “heard” the voice of the cricket cap man, but his mouth didn’t even open!

Chapter 238: So That’s The Case

... “No, it’s too uncomfortable! I can’t stand it! Maybe I should tell him the truth?”

..... “No, I can’t say it. If I say it, not only would Brother Bear not forgive me, but Brother De would kill me too!”

Yang Ming felt strange about his unusual ability to see through other people’s thoughts. It would only be activated at some critical moments. Yang Ming was sure that he only pressed the acupuncture point of the cricket cap man, and he didn’t do anything else. Could this be the legendary character outbreak? Would the gods give him a favor if he was in a critical moment?

However, Yang Ming just clearly thought about it. This kind of guess wasn’t realistic. He could see other people’s thoughts when it was an emergency, which meant that he actually possessed such a unique ability. Yang Ming didn’t think that there was a flaw in this ability. He felt that he could master the skill if he practiced it.

He already knew who sent the cricket cap man, so Yang Ming didn’t want to tangle with him on this issue. Yang Ming was ready to ask the next question. If his ability was sufficient, and even if the man didn’t say it, Yang Ming would get what he wanted!

Yes, when a person answers a question from someone else, even if he deliberately answers wrongly or does not want to answer it, his mind will inevitably flash the correct answer to this question. This is human instinct, and almost no one can escape from this subconscious instinct.

“Where did you guys hide Yang Dashan?” Yang Ming continued to ask, “Why kidnap him?”

When Yang Ming heard him “say” Brother De, his heart was moved. Song Jiang was such a big place. How could there be a few named Brother De? Yu Xiangde must be the culprit! However, Yu Xiangde was now in a war with the Bao Sanli. How could he have the leisure time to kidnap? Could it be that the casualties were too many and there was a shortage of money? Well, there was this possibility. The war between the underworlds needed money. If there was no money, the underlings would not work for you. Besides, won’t the wounded men need some treatment fees? What about death pension?

Even if these could be delayed, they couldn’t fight without weapons. What kind of weapons didn’t need money to buy? It was not possible that the weapons fell from the sky for free.

When the kidnapping was associated with Brother De, Yang Ming suddenly had a feeling that this wasn’t simply a kidnapping. Was it possible that this snobbish uncle had offended the underworld people?

..... “Of course, I can’t tell you where we are hiding him! But, since it was quite painful right now, why don’t I simply make up a place? He needed time to confirm it anyway!”

“The hostage is hidden in a cave at the West Star Mountain!” revealed the cricket cap man.

... “Hehe, in fact, he is in a straw shed near his sand field! Both are located in opposite directions. You would be exhausted looking for it!”

Yang Ming smiled slightly and did not refute him. He continued to ask, "Why did you want to kidnap him?"

"To get some money!" The purpose was true, but the cricket cap wasn't telling everything.

... "F*ck! This man is so dumb to support Bao Sanli, so Brother De has to give him a warning while Brother De could get some money as well."

However, Yang Ming already knew the outline of matter, I don't know why my uncle was related to Bao Sanli. Yu Xiangde was not satisfied with my uncle's support, so he resorted to such measures.

It seemed that Yang Ming had guessed it right, and it was related to Yu Xiangde! So, Yang Ming was quite anxious. It seemed that Yu Xiangde did this for nothing more than seeking money. He also wanted to warn Yang Ming's uncle to not support Bao Sanli anymore!

From this point of view, there was no danger to his uncle. As long as the ransom was paid on time, he would be safe. On the contrary, he and Sun Jie were making an unnecessary move!

But since they had already made some moves, they had no choice but to continue. Otherwise, if he put this cricket cap man back, he would definitely report it. This would inevitably involve Yang Ming and Sun Jie.

He wasn't afraid. If Yu Xiangde provoked him, he could have just killed him directly! Yang Ming believed that with his assassination skills, he could make things seamless! At the very least, he was the disciple of the King of Assassins! Fang Tian was the number one ruthless person in the world!

But what about Sun Jie? Although Yang Ming knew that Sun Jie's family background wasn't simple, it was evident from the license plates of these two Buick minivans that the power of Sun Jie's family was definitely focused on the provincial capital, Donghai City.

In Song Jiang City, Sun Jie was a girl. If she was involved with the grievances between the two gangs, it wasn't a good thing. Thinking of this, Yang Ming decided to give Bao Sanli a big gift. He could create more tension between the warfare between Yu Xiangde and Bao Sanli!

"What do you want to say?" Yang Ming deliberately lowered his head and leaned over to the cricket cap man.

The cricket cap man found it somewhat inexplicable. Did I say something? However, this was only a momentary thought. The next moment, he was knocked out by Yang Ming's dagger.

Yang Ming had to pretend, otherwise, he really couldn't explain to Sun Jie how he knew all this.

"In the Dashan sandstone quarry in the south of the city, he is hidden in a straw shed," Yang Ming said.

"What should I do now?" Looking at Yang Ming's tactics to control the situation, Sun Jie naturally asked for his opinion. Yes, the shock that Yang Ming brought to her at this moment was huge!

Is this the little college student who I had a meal with together last time? Seeing his calmness and way of doing things at this moment, he was more skillful than my father! Sun Jie looked at Yang Ming with a complicated expression. It seemed that she had never understood him.

"You can go back with the money. Be perfunctory with the kidnappers, and try to delay the time." Yang Ming said, "I will go with your men for the rescue."

"I am going with you." For some unknown reason, Sun Jie especially wanted to see Yang Ming solve this issue with her own eyes.

"No, you must stay with Yang Li. On one hand, you calm her down. On the other hand, it is also the most important. She can't deal with the kidnappers. I am afraid she will show flaws." Yang Ming shook his head and said, "Yes, let's do it this way. You pass over 200,000 yuan and say that there is not enough. Then, you tell my parents that your underlings and I are going to another bank for the money."

Sun Jie also knew that Yang Ming was right. Yang Li must be looked after, and she could only let Yang Ming deal with the rescue.

Just when Sun Jie was about to get out of the car, the phone that was found with the cricket cap man suddenly rang. The caller on the phone showed the name, "Brother Bear."

"Did you ask them to do what I asked for?" Yang Ming asked calmly.

Without waiting for Sun Jie to speak, the bearded man had taken a notebook from another black-clad man. Then, he pressed the answer button on the phone and switched on the hands-free.

"Hey, Louzi, what's the situation on your side?" There was a rough voice coming from the phone.

"A van just came to the door of the villa. A woman took a suitcase from the car. I vaguely heard them say that there were 200,000 in the suitcase, and they still needed 100,000 yuan. Then the woman asked her man to gather more money..." The voice of the bearded man had become the voice of the cricket cap man through the computer.

This was what Yang Ming had asked before. Yang Ming was afraid that the kidnappers would contact the cricket cap man who was responsible for surveillance, so Sun Jie's men brought a notebook and a computer-savvy master to simulate the sound waveform of the cricket cap man. Although it wasn't the same, after the phone's retransmission, there should be no doubt over there.

Certainly, Brother Bear didn't have any doubts. "Okay, I see Louzi, continue with your surveillance! This is a cut for you!"

"Thank you, Brother Bear!" The big bearded man replied.

After hanging up the phone, Yang Ming and Sun Jie smiled at each other.

After Sun Jie entered the house, she told everyone that there wasn't enough money so Yang Ming accompanied her men to retrieve it. Yang Dahai was concerned, "This child, why does he want to be involved in this?"

But they were already gone, he couldn't do anything to change this. Yang Li didn't care about Yang Ming's danger. She just kept asking Sun Jie if the money could be collected.

Sun Jie didn't have a partner because she felt that men were hypocritical. Now Yang Ming's appearance had changed her views. But, Yang Li was truly a selfish person who looked down on others. So, Sun Jie couldn't help but despise Yang Li. She was so self-centered! If they didn't have similar interests, Sun Jie wouldn't be friends with her.

The phone ringtone on the table rang again. It was a call from the kidnappers. Sun Jie looked at Yang Li and gestured for her to answer the phone.

About what had to be said, Sun Jie had already told Yang Li before so that she could deal with it.

Yang Li hesitated and picked up the phone on the table. "Hello..."

Chapter 239: To The Rescue

"Is the money ready?" It was the voice made by the voice changer.

"There is still a portion left. We are trying to find a way." Yang Li said according to Sun Jie's instructions.

"How much is left?" The other end of the phone asked.

"There is still a hundred thousand yuan." Yang Li replied.

"Okay, I will give you another hour. Before night time, if you still don't have enough money, just wait to collect the corpse!" He hung up the phone.

Brother Bear didn't have any doubts about Yang Li's words, because he had already known it through the surveillance. They were indeed short of a hundred thousand yuan.

Sun Jie didn't expect that things would go so smoothly. The kidnappers believed her words without putting much effort. Yang Li, on the other hand, was worried, "Sister Sun Jie, why are we still short a hundred thousand yuan? Can you get enough funds? You must gather sufficient funds!"

Sun Jie smiled and said, "You can rest assured. There is no problem!"

Yang Ming sat in the shotgun seat as he navigated the driver to his uncle's quarry in the south of the city. Yang Ming hadn't been there for a long time. He only came once when he was still in elementary school. After his uncle became rich, he didn't want to meet these poor relatives anymore. Yang Ming was too lazy to meddle with them and cause annoyance. He didn't expect to come here again to rescue his uncle.

The three underlings of the Sun family in the car were all capable people. Usually, it wasn't easy for them to recognize others. When Yang Ming got in the car just now, they just regarded Yang Ming as a friend of the eldest daughter of the Sun family. He didn't expect Yang Ming to be special. However, Yang Ming's display of interrogation techniques had earned their respect!

What was that technique? It was never heard of or seen before! The three people were originally the leaders of various industries, and now they were recruited by Sun Hongjun to serve the Sun family. They had always been very loyal and responsible to Sun's family. But in Yang Ming's case, they respected him from the bottom of their hearts.

For example, this big bearded man was a famous fighting master in a mercenary group in Vietnam. He was dubbed as the "Hu Ren [1]" by his companions because he was too formidable. His real name was Lu Liang.

The person in charge of the computer was Ge Long, a hacker recruited from a US mercenary group. The driver, even though he wasn't a mercenary, was a racer in an underground car market in the United States. He once maintained first place for a consecutive sixty-four times. However, due to his crime, he had to leave the country and work under the Sun family.

Although they only got to see one side of Yang Ming, these people usually admired people who were capable. Since no one was omnipotent, it was already excellent for one person who managed to perform well in one aspect!

Therefore, after Sun Jie left, the three of them naturally regarded Yang Ming as the boss as they listened to him giving orders.

When the car approached closer to the quarry, it began to slow down. There were some sandstone excavation sites here. In Yang Ming's memory, his uncle's quarry was in the front. However, many years passed by, and Yang Ming didn't know whether there was any removal or expansion in the quarry.

"Park here." Yang Ming said to the driver, Mao Kai.

The car parked at the roadside. Yang Ming pretended to look for the location of the quarry. He used his special ability secretly and started observing the straw shed in his surroundings. There was no one in the straw shed!

Yang Ming quickly searched around with his gaze. Due to the superb x-ray and telescopic vision, Yang Ming identified the location where his uncle was being held!

It was a small straw shed near the third quarry in front of them! No one would notice this place without a detailed search. It seemed that Brother Bear wasn't a fool.

The uncle had his hands and legs tied with a white cloth in his mouth. But it was obvious that his life wasn't in big trouble by the heaving of his chest.

In the straw shed, there were only three people who were responsible for guarding his uncle. One of them was a burly figure who sat down in a bossy manner. This person would probably be Brother Bear. He looked like a bear after all.

The other two people also sat on the ground, but obviously, their attitudes were more restrained. From times to time, they had put on a smile on their faces as though they were brown nosing. At first glance, they were the two underlings. The three of them were playing Landlords with great hype, not even looking after Yang Dashan.

There was a laptop next to them in addition to a Voice Over IP phone. Apparently, they contacted Yang Li through the device. It seemed that these people weren't completely amateurs since they weren't traceable.

However, in terms of guarding a hostage, apparently, they didn't put much effort! Yang Ming contemplated a while before figuring out what happened. The south of the city was Bao Sanli's territory. Yu Xiangde's underlings were keeping a low profile.

If it stirred up Bao Sanli's attention, the kidnapping would fail.

Yang Ming commanded Mao Kai to park the car near the straw shed. Then, he spoke to the big bearded man, "There are about three or four people inside. Can you deal with them?"

Yang Ming didn't say in certainty, but a rough number. He was afraid that the bearded man would ask him how he got the information, so he kept it vague.

The bearded man didn't ask but merely nodded, "I, alone am enough."

"Okay, knock them out and bring them to the car." Yang Ming said.

The big bearded man grinned, and apparently, he had confidence in doing this kind of thing.

The bearded man came directly in front of the straw shed. He didn't even bother knocking but kicked open the door of the straw shed with a flying kick. Although Brother Bear had already blocked it, he still couldn't withstand the kick of the bearded man!

By coincidence, the door panel and the door pin of the straw shed were directly blown away and inflicted trauma on the head of one of Brother Bear's underlings. This fellow suffered a heavy trauma and fainted on the spot.

Yang Ming found it quite lucky. If it was shot on his uncle's head, he wouldn't know what to do! Fortunately, his uncle was far away in the innermost area.

Brother Bear and the other underling who didn't fall down were shocked. What the hell is going on? Before they could react, a fierce man with a big beard stood in front of the two of them.

"Who are you?" In the end, Brother Bear belonged to the underworld, so he managed to calm himself down hastily.

"Who are you? What are you doing in my straw shed?" Lu Liang asked. Of course, he couldn't say his purpose directly. His intended to confuse them so that Brother Bear wouldn't know their objective was Yang Dashan.

Certainly, Brother Bear was stunned for a moment! He thought that he might have occupied someone's premises. Originally, Brother Bear wanted to beat up the guy in front of him. But now, it seemed he was the one who committed a wrongdoing, and the person in front of him seemed to be quite buff. He thought he shouldn't cause any extra trouble. So, he smiled and said, "Brother, we are in the middle of something. Can you do us a favor?"

"Favor? But my family wanted to put some goods in the straw shed!" Lu Liang replied in a troubled manner.

"Hah, do us a favor here!" Brother Bear reached out from his pocket and took out a stack of banknotes. He counted and handed five bank notes to Lu Liang, "We will leave tomorrow!"

"Well!" Lu Liang pretended to be happy as took the bank notes. He put his head down and looked hesitant.

Brother Bear didn't regard him as his enemy at this moment, so he was quite relaxed in front of them. But, he didn't expect Lu Liang to suddenly dash behind him and hit his neck with a karate chop.

"You..." Brother Bear's underling noticed something strange. At the moment he wanted to shout, he was already stunned by Lu Liang. Lu Liang disregarded Brother Bear because he was confident of his karate chop.

Lu Liang walked out of the straw shed and grinned at the people outside. Yang Ming actually saw him dealing with the people inside, but he still acted like the people in the car as he smiled and got out of the car.

Yang Dashan might have been dosed with things like sleeping pills. At the moment, he was sleeping. Yang Ming wasn't eager to wake him up. Hence, he carried him up into the car. Brother Bear and his two underlings had their hands and legs tied up. They were thrown to the back of the car along with the cricket cap man.

What a complete victory. Yang Ming got into the car. He took out his cell phone and wrote a short message with a smiley face. Then, he sent it to Sun Jie. With the wisdom of Sun Jie, she would naturally guess the meaning behind it.

Certainly, Sun Jie took a look at the phone and a smile appeared at the corner of her mouth. Yang Ming was still playing his game at such a moment. However, she couldn't mention it to Yang Li. Sun Jie had to pretend to be happy and said, "Yang Li, let me tell you some good news. My men found your father!"

"What!" Yang Li was shocked with her eyes full of surprise. "Sister Sun Jie, are you serious? You said that your men found my father?"

"Yes, please wait a moment as I call them again and ask." Sun Jie nodded and said.

"Well, quickly make the call!" Yang Li urged.

Sun Jie dialed Yang Ming's number. She stood up and deliberately moved to the window. She was afraid that Yang Li would overhear the conversation on the phone.

"Hey, I am Sun Jie." Sun Jie didn't mention Yang Ming's name. She didn't want Yang Li to notice it.

"The hostage has been rescued, and we are on our way back. Oh ya, don't mention to my parents and Yang Li that it was my work. Just say that it was your men who found them." Yang Ming reminded her.

Chapter 240: Flirting With Sun Jie

Although Yang Ming wouldn't mind showing off in front of Yang Li, so she could not act bossy in front of him, this was a critical moment, and he couldn't take the risk. Although Yang Ming could show off, it would cause him so much trouble! Yang Ming's idea was to send these kidnappers to Bao Sanli. Of course, it would be under Hou Zhenhan's name. In this way, he could establish clearly the boundary between Bao Sanli and him.

It seemed that the relationship between his own uncle and Bao Sanli was close. If Yang Li knew that Yang Ming saved his uncle, Yang Li would tell his uncle the truth, so how would he be sure that his uncle wouldn't tell Bao Sanli?

When Bao Sanli knew the truth then it would ruin Yang Ming's initial plan! Yang Ming was no longer the impulsive high school student from a few months ago! Now he naturally planned his next move!

"I know. I just said that," whispered Sun Jie.

"That's good. Wait for me. I'll be back in ten minutes." Yang Ming said. He couldn't help but praise Sun Jie. It seemed that this little girl was thoughtful of him!

After hanging up the phone, Yang Ming said to the men, "Just mention that it was discovered by someone, and it was not related to me."

"Understood." The big bearded man didn't ask why and nodded firmly. There were some things that you didn't have to know. This was the professional standard for mercenaries. If people pay you to go to war, can you ask them why?

So, the big bearded man had developed such a habit of simply performing tasks without asking for useless nonsense.

The car quickly returned to the Yang Li's home at the villa area. Yang Ming told the big bearded man to look after the people in the car, and then let Ge Long and Mao Kai carry his uncle into the house.

When Yang Li saw her father being carried into the house, she was excited. But when she noticed her father was motionless, she was shocked. She ran over and asked urgently, "Yang Ming, what happened to my father?"

"It's okay. He's just asleep. Maybe the kidnapper gave him drugs like sleeping pills. Just wait for him to wake up by himself." Yang Ming said faintly. It was a bit uncomfortable for him not to be able to take the credit that he earned!

When his aunt saw his uncle returned safely, her sorrowful face finally showed a smile, and she quickly thanked Sun Jie. Sun Jie accepted it calmly and made Yang Ming secretly curse her for being shameless.

But he was helpless because he had another plan!

"Big Ming, you and your mother go back first. I will stay here and look after the situation." Yang Dahai did not feel relieved, so he said this to Yang Ming and his mother.

"Uncle, it's okay. You should go back and rest. We had to trouble you to come over so late..." Auntie said with a little embarrassment.

Since Yang Dahai only ate half of his meal at home, and his elder brother seemed to fare quite well, he didn't insist. He nodded and said, "Well, if there is anything else, please call at any time."

Yang Li was a person who lacked proper courtesy. When Yang Ming's family left, she didn't even say a word of thanks. Yang Ming was too lazy to bother with her.

When Yang Ming walked to the door, he passed by Sun Jie and said in a small voice in her ear, "They are in your car. Later ask Lu Liang to stop the car near the family district at the Song Jiang Bus Factory."

Sun Jie nodded to show that she understood. Then, Yang Ming and his parents left the villa.

"Should we go back using the subway?" Mother Yang still retained the habit of diligence and frugality. They were not rushing back, so they didn't plan to call for a taxi.

"Mom, three people taking the subway is more or less the same as taking a taxi. For three people taking the subway, it would be six yuan, while we can take a taxi for nine yuan," said Yang Ming quickly. After a long day, he was indeed hungry, so he wanted to get back as soon as possible for dinner...

"Big Ming was right. Let's take a taxi." Yang Dao nodded.

When they got home, the food was already cold. After Mother Yang warmed them up in the microwave oven, they were placed on the table again. The atmosphere of happiness in the family had dissipated.

The family ate the meal silently. After such an incident, they weren't in a good mood. Plus, the heated meals weren't as delicious when they were just served, so the three people finished dinner quickly.

"Dad, Mom, I'm going out for a while." Yang Ming still had an important task to do. Just now Sun Jie sent a text message to him. They had arrived in his neighborhood.

"Why are you going out at this hour?" Yang Dahai asked curiously, "What are you doing?"

"That..." Yang Ming hesitated and said, "I have an appointment with my classmate..." Yang Ming didn't want to lie to his parents, but sometimes it was better to not tell them anything so that they wouldn't worry.

"Appointment with a classmate?" Mother Yang was stunned and looked at Yang Ming. Then, she suddenly revealed a sly smile. "Oh Oh! I get it. You have a date with Mengyan, right? Then you should go now!"

Yang Ming's mother naturally thought of that based on his hesitation.

"Ah?" Yang Ming was astounded too, but immediately said with awkwardness, "Okay, I understand."

Seeing Yang Ming's expression, Mother Yang wasn't suspicious of him. She said, "Be sure to pay attention to your safety! Don't go too far. It is best to go for a movie."

"Mom, I know. You can rest assured." Yang Ming nodded with a smile.

"Wait, Big Ming. Do you have money?" Yang Dahai asked out of habit.

"Dad, I have earned some money. You don't have to worry about it!" Yang Ming smiled.

"That's great! You should go now and come back early!" Yang Dahai also smiled and patted Yang Ming's shoulder. "A boy should be generous. Don't let Mengyan spend her money!"

When he got out of the corridor, Yang Ming shook his head helplessly. It seemed that his parents were most concerned about his marriage!

Not far away from the apartment, Yang Ming saw Sun Jie's Audi R8 and the blue Buick minivan from earlier in the day. Yang Ming walked over to them quickly. He didn't go to inspect the kidnappers on the Buick, but instead, he knocked on the window of the R8.

The door of the R8 slowly rose up. Yang Ming didn't hold back and sat in the passenger seat. Then he said, "Close the door."

"What do you want?" Sun Jie looked at Yang Ming and asked. But she still closed the door.

"What else can we do?" Yang Ming said with a smile, "Xiao Jiejie, have you been thinking about me recently?" Yang Ming flirted with her naturally.

"That's disgusting. Go to hell." Sun Jie said with agitation, "If you want to do this, just get out."

"Hehe, are you angry?" Yang Ming simply said it. He didn't think that there was something else to do in such a small space in the R8. Besides, there were still important things to do later on. He said this because he subconsciously still wanted to progress with Sun Jie. After all, the two of them were an illicit couple.

"No, it's not worth it." Sun Jie glanced at Yang Ming, "If you have something to say, make it quick."

"Were you going to say that if you want to fart, make it quick?" Yang Ming smiled.

"Yes." Sun Jie unexpectedly nodded seriously, "Since you know, don't delay the time. Hurry up. I still have some private matters to do tonight."

"Private matters? What private matters?" Yang Ming couldn't help but ask, "A date with a boyfriend?"

"If I had a boyfriend, why would I need you to pretend?" Sun Jie snorted, "My brother is going to my house tonight."

"What brother?" Yang Ming continued to ask.

"Cousin! Satisfied? Why are you being such a busybody? You were just my temporary boyfriend. Why are you asking so much?" Sun Jie looked at Yang Ming with an ambiguous smile.

"Cough! Nothing, I was just simply asking." Yang Ming coughed twice, then said, "Then you should go back. Oh yeah, can you lend me the Buick for a while?"

"What about my people?" asked Sun Jie.

"You can take your people." Yang Ming said, "I can drive by myself."

"Okay, but the car license is legitimate. Don't give me trouble!" Sun Jie reminded him.

"Let them take away the car plate. If there is a fake car plate, just put it on. If not, it's still fine. The traffic police are off duty at night anyway." Yang Ming hesitated and thought that it would be wise not to let Bao Sanli know about the car plate. Who knew if he would investigate the car plate later?

"It seems that you really want to do something bad!" Although Sun Jie said so, she still took out her phone and told the big bearded man and team to do it.

In a short while, the car plate from Donghai was removed and replaced by a Guangdong car plate. When he was learning in driving school, Yang Ming also learned the method of distinguishing between the real and fake license plates. This Guangdong car plate was quite close to a real one when compared to the common pirated car plate!